

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

Vergie Hgdon tells about a snake story that happened right here in Ranger at 301 Hunt St. She said that she was out in her garden recently picking cucumbers when she saw a peculiar looking cucumber. It was about two feet long with diamond shaped markings on it and to make it worse, it moved. Natural procedure, the hoe and death. To her surprise, a neighbor told her it was a diamond back rattlesnake. Mrs. Hgdon has been very careful while in her garden since this incident, for fear that there is a mate around close.

After a class had toured the White House, the teacher asked each student to write impressions of the visit. One boy wrote: "I was especially glad to have this opportunity to visit my future home."

Speaking of future homes there will soon be a new family moving into the White House, and this brings to mind the origin of the White House. The Executive Mansion was originally built at Virginia sandstone, and was completed in 1799. In 1814 the British occupied the Building and set fire to it. Heavy rains fell and kept the fire from doing heavy damage to the building, but it was discolored by smoke. Later, the building was painted white, to cover the fire stains.

Since that time, the "White House" has been covered at regular intervals with thick coats of white paint, which serves to prevent crumbling of the sandstone walls, and gives it its name.

Correction—In the letters from Boy Scouts in Tuesday's paper, one of the letters was signed by Lee Aushorn. The writer of the letter actually was Richard Herweck. Here is the letter Richard wrote. I have been to camp three times as a member of Scout Troop 10. Many merit badges can be passed. It is great fun climbing in the caves. The water of Brady Creek is cool for swimming fun. The numerous cliffs are fun to climb up. The mess hall furnishes much protection in case of a bad storm. The food is good, powdered eggs, fried grasshoppers, raw meat and all. The kitchens are very sanitary. The rifle range provides much shooting fun. The greenhouses (toilets) are very putrid. The many Indian ceremonies and dances are very interesting. There are good fish of all sizes in the creek.

Teenagers Down Cross Plains With No Hitter

The Ranger Teenage Baseball Club scored in each of the first five innings Tuesday night to down Cross Plains 11 to 6.

Ranger used three pitchers in a combination that kept the ball within the Ranger infield, allowing Cross Plains no hits, although several errors and free bases allowed them to collect three runs. Joe Caddell started on the mound for Ranger and went three and one-half innings, then was relieved by Bobby Owens who went one and one-half innings and was in turn relieved by Ronnie Hinds who came in to keep the Cross Plains batters guessing.

Terry Townsend was carrying the big bat for Ranger and led the hitting with one double and two singles. Alex Garcia hit one double and one single, while Hinds collected two singles. Jesse Renteria, Arthur Mendoza and Bobby Owen each got one hit.

This was the third encounter between Ranger and Cross Plains. Ranger has won two and Cross Plains one.

Ranger will meet Cisco at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the third encounter of these two clubs. Cisco has won both of the previous games.

Six Recently Passed Laws On Vets Affairs

Summer G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, today called the attention of veterans and their dependents to the following six laws enacted recently by Congress and approved by President Eisenhower:

1. P. L. 86-490 provides that if a veteran submits proof of dependents within 60 days of notice that the evaluation of his service-connected disability is increased to 50 percent or more, the additional compensation for the dependents will be paid from the date of evaluation instead of the date proof was received by the VA, as the previous law required.

2. P. L. 86-491 makes uniform the marriage requirements for widows entitled to death benefits under either death compensation or dependency and indemnity compensation. For death compensation it extends from 10 to 15 years the time limit within which the widow must have married a veteran who later died from a service-connected cause following the termination of the period of service in which he sustained his service-connected disability. This law does not affect a widow who qualifies because she was married to the veteran for five or more years after a child was born of the marriage.

3. P. L. 86-492 allows a widow eligible to receive dependency and indemnity compensation, which is based on the rank of the deceased veteran at the time he was separated from the service, to have the benefit of a higher rank than that at time of separation from the service provided he held it for six months at least and was holding it within 120 days of the date of his separation or death.

4. P. L. 86-494 provides that survivors of certain Navy enlisted men, who died as a result of aviation accidents between Oct. 8, 1940, and Aug. 3, 1942, while training to become aviation cadets may apply for $10,000 gratuity National Service Life Insurance less the amount of Government insurance in force. Payment will be made to survivors but not to estates.

5. P. L. 86-495 prohibits payment of benefits other than insurance to any child an account of the death of more than one parent in the same parental line following the date of the law (June 8, 1960). The prior law would allow a combination of payments from a parent's death and a step-parent's death in some cases.

6. P. L. 86-497 authorizes waiver of premium payment to be granted, upon application, to totally disabled in line of duty after making application for insurance and prior to the date their insurance became effective. The waiver of premiums renders the insurance non-participating while the waiver is in effect.

Giants, Braves Post League Wins Tuesday

The Strawn Braves moved into a solid second place in Little League standings Tuesday night by downing the Indians 10 to 5, while the Giants continued on the undefeated way by blasting the Dodgers 19 to 0.

In the first game off the doubleheader the Indians scored first, but the Braves came back in the second inning to take the lead and had the game in good control the rest of the way.

Martin Salazar started on the mound for the Braves and was credited with the win after Jon Don G bass came in in the fourth to protect his lead. Randall Hale, Al Garcia and Manuel Gomez saw action on the mound for the Indians.

Donny Crawford led the Braves hitting with two hits, while Salazar, Robert Tally, Larry Marine, Stuart Mills and Jackie Wilson each got one hit.

Hitting for the Indians with three hits was Ralph Simmons, followed by Al Garcia with two and Manuel Gomez, O. J. Caraway, and Jimmy Battles, with one each.

In the second game Larry Blackwell was credited with his sixth win of the season, by allowing the Dodgers only three hits in three innings. He was relieved in the fourth by Johnny McGehee who came in to put the Dodgers out at the end of four. The Dodgers used a host of pitchers, but couldn't stop the slugging Giants as Jimmy Gryder, Gilbert Nail, Bennie Elder, and Raymond Jimenez all saw action on the mound.

Kenny Seymour led the Giant hitters by belting out three doubles and one single in four trips to the plate. McGee, Mike Landrop and Gary Hise, each got two hits and Freddie Blackwell and Larry Blackwell each got one hit.

Rudy Mendoza, Bennie Elder, Jerry Watson, Joel Jimenez and Jimmy Gryder each got one hit for the Dodgers. Friday night action will see the Dodgers trying the Indians and the Yankees against the Braves. The Giants will have an open date.

Covered Sugar

Just got to thinking as I keep the pot close you can get him grandson and I were fishing (truth before he decides to go down the hall and see how the other half lives.)

When the ones in the pot have turned a beautiful red, dip them out, allow to drain and cool. Remove apron (this), separate upper and lower shells. All the spongy and orange colored mass which clings to the body shell should be removed then body brushed with a vegetable brush.

The large front legs (the ones with the claws) are edible too. If you are hungry and in a hurry to eat, place the meat from these in a skillet of melted butter and brown a golden brown. Yum-yum.

To thoroughly enjoy, take your crabs out in the back yard on trays. Get on a mat, kick off your shoes and dig in. Man! You will have crab out your ears. Elbows will be paralyzed from leaning on but you will have a feast fit for a king.

There are other ways to fix them but it takes longer and lets more work for the "gal" of the house but who wants to work? If you like you can dress them on the spot. Pull off legs and remove apron from body, wash out mass to salt water and place them in container and fill with clipped ice then transport them to where ever you wish and boil as mentioned before.

There is just one thing wrong with this wishful thinking—too far to the coast but if any of my readers do go will you eat one for me?

Friday night action will see the Dodgers trying the Indians and the Yankees against the Braves. The Giants will have an open date.

With any luck you can catch 50 in a bagged of hours or you may catch 50 in that time but catch them you will. In certain seasons they are fatter but they will always eat. I said eat not gobble the lure like those pesky fish have been doing for me the past year.

Catching crabs is a matter of cool, calm, deliberate finesse. Drop bait to bottom, leave about 6 or 8 inches of slack and when this line begins to slowly move away gently but firmly retrieve same till you are able to slide crab net under him and up comes crab, bait and line. Usually he will let go of bait when in net.

Now you dump him in the toad-ack or 5 gallon can. If you take them home to eat, while still alive dump them in the sink partially filled with cool water. Put a pot (the largest you own) on the stove and fill a little over half full of water to which you add a hand full of salt and as soon as it starts to boil, drop the live crabs in, one at a time.

By the way, don't pick them up in your bare hands as they can't tell the difference between same and bacon rind!

If lots falls out on the floor don't just stand there bare footed! Get your shoes on and get him up quick with the crab net. (The long handle slips off and if you

Clyde Evatt Is Named On Sul Ross Honor Roll

Clyde Evatt, Eastland High School graduate, has been named on the Spring Honor List at Sul Ross State College by Dean of the College, Beverton Reed.

Evatt, a former E.H.S. football star and a Sul Ross standout on the gridiron, will serve as assistant coach next season at Ranger College.

The Dean's List is the mark of distinction of the academic world and is achieved by not more than 15 percent of the student body. Seventy-five students were named for the last semester, of whom eleven received a "straight A" average.

Sul Ross State College opened its doors to its first students in June 1920, and according to a recent tabulation, the August graduating class will mark more than five thousand graduates in the 40 year history of the institution. Summer Convocation has been announced for August 21.

EASTLAND COLONEL HONORED—The Air Force Commendation Medal is pinned on the blouse of Lieutenant Colonel Roland L. Perkins of Eastland (left) by Lt. Gen. Archie J. Old, Jr., commander of Fifteenth Air Force at March AFB, Calif. The award was presented for his meritorious service as chief of maintenance, assistant deputy commander for maintenance, deputy commander for maintenance, commander, 64th Bombardment Squadron and assistant deputy commander for operations, 43rd Bombardment Wing, Davis-Monthan AFB, Tucson, Ariz. from July 1958 to March 1960. Born in Memphis, Texas, Col. Perkins graduated from high school in Eastland in 1932 and went on to attend North Texas State College in Denton. He first entered the armed forces in May of 1942 and now holds the position as chief of the current plans branch in the 15th Air Force headquarters directorate of operations at March AFB. He and his wife, the former Jimmie Lou Goldman of Sweetwater, Texas, make their home at 1296 East St. in Riverside, Calif., with their children, Patti Lee, 15, and Roland II, 13. Little League Stars Named

Little League managers met last Friday night and voted on the 1960 Little League All-Stars who will represent Ranger in the area All-Star tournament in Baird July 21.

Fourteen regulation players were selected for the All-Star roster, and four additional alternates chosen for replacement purposes in case of emergency.

The five teams in the Little League were thoroughly canvassed, with each manager checking the pros and cons on each player as his name was mentioned. The managers were in harmony on the selection of seven players on the squad, but after that it took about two hours for them to finally reach an agreement on the final seven players.

Each of the five teams are represented on the All-Star roster with league winning Giants placing five players on the team. The roster includes the Giants' third baseman, Wayne Boone, with a batting average of .480; Giant pitcher Larry Blackwell, with five wins and no losses and batting .248; and Giant pitcher Johnny McGee, with six wins and no losses and batting .500, with six home runs to lead the league in round-trippers.

Indian utility man David Mahaffey was also selected. He is the number one pitcher for the Indians, but it is doubtful that he will see action on the mound in the All-Star game due to a sore arm, but he will see plenty of action from other positions, any of which he is capable of holding down. He is batting .241. Also, Indian first baseman Manuel Gomez, who will be the likely starter for that position. He is batting .353.

Dodger pitcher and infielder Gilbert Nail, who is hitting the ball with a big .456 average, was also selected.

Braves pitcher-catcher and leading hitter, Martin Salazar, batting at a .390 clip.

Dodger speedster and out-fielder clutch-hitter Leroy Pearson, who is hitting .300 and has hit safely in 10 of 11 games.

Dodger Jimmy Gryder, outfielder and slugger, who although late starting at the plate, has ten hits in the last five games, and is hitting at a .700-plus mark for the last five games. His season average is .379.

Brave Joe Don Gibson, aggressive second baseman, although hitting only .250, has reached base more than any other Brave, due to his great eye for a bad pitch.

Giant Kenny Seymour, who covers center field like a blanket, and is hitting .316.

Brave Billy Poik, short stop and slugger, who is hitting .425.

Yankee Dowell Hartefeld, utility man, who can handle any position on the team. He is batting a little over .300, but has drawn many free trips to the base by watching bad pitches.

Giant first-baseman Mike Landrop, who has held the first base spot for the Giants the entire season, and has only one error to his credit. He is one of the leading hitters on the team with .437!

All-Star manager is Bob Gailey, who piloted the Giants to the League Championship, and his assistant will be the manager of the second place team, which will be decided later.

Alternates for the All-Star roster are Giant Darryl Swinney, Indian Ralph Simmons, Brave Donny Crawford, and Yankee Terry Sutton.

Allotments Are Mailed for 1961 Wheat Crop

College Station, July—Official notices of farm allotments for the 1961 wheat crop are being mailed to farmers this week, according to Baldwin P. Davenport, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Most of the allotments differ only slightly from those for 1960, since the national acreage allotment remains at the minimum of 55 million acres, Davenport said.

He pointed out that all growers who will produce more than 15 acres of wheat as grain in 1961 will be eligible to cast ballots in the July 21 referendum on marketing quotas for the 61 wheat crop. Growers with smaller acreage and those in the feed wheat program are not eligible to vote since their wheat would not be subject to marketing quota penalties.

Davenport said the referendum would decide important questions for wheat producers and he urged all eligible growers to cast a ballot. Marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1961 wheat crop if two-thirds of the growers casting ballots favor their continuance. Too, marketing penalties will apply to the excess wheat of growers not complying with their farm allotments, and price support at not less than 75 percent of parity will be available.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose the quotas, no quotas or penalties will be in effect on the 1961 wheat crop and price support at 50 percent of parity will be available to producers who plant within their farm allotments.

Growers who like to make their own decisions should cast a ballot on July 21, Davenport said. Local announcements will soon be made regarding polling places and opening and closing times for the balloting. Local ASC offices can supply additional information on the referendum or it may also be obtained from community and county ASC committees, Davenport said.

Peanut Producers Urged to Attend Farm Bureau Meet

The Texas Farm Bureau has been cooperating with the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association and several other farm organizations in Texas and Oklahoma in an effort to develop a voluntary check-off program to finance exploratory research and promotion for peanuts.

After several preliminary exploratory meetings a suggested program has been developed for consideration by the various organizations involved.

The State Board of the Texas Farm Bureau will consider this matter at their board meeting July 12-14. In an effort to go over this suggested program and to get the thinking of the peanut producers themselves, a meeting will be held Friday July 8, 8 p.m. in the Orchard Room, Baker Hotel, Mineral Wells.

All peanut producers are urged to attend this meeting.

ANDERSON'S

111 West Main - Eastland, Texas

What do we mean when we say that in the United States we have a "government of law" and not a "government of men"? Basically we mean that we have certain individual rights, guaranteed by our federal and state constitutions and laws, which may not be denied by any governing body.

The early American colonists had their fill of government by men, and the Declaration of Independence, signed 184 years ago, set out their complaints against that type of government and revealed their belief in a principle which we now accept as basic to our American way of life.

The indictments set out in the document against King George III of Great Britain charged him with numerous violations of that principle. Among the complaints enumerated are the following:

"He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people."

"He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent for laws for establishing judicial powers."

"He has made Judges dependent upon his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries."

"He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good."

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation: . . . For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury; For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses; . . . For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments; . . . For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever."

Our forefathers who subscribed to the principles of the Declaration of Independence were willing to fight for their beliefs. The Revolutionary War followed, dragging through weary years of suffering and suspense. Each of us takes pride in their eventual triumph over gigantic obstacles.

In 1787, when the framers of our Constitution met at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, where the Declaration of Independence had been signed 11 years previously, they set to work to create a system of checks and balance in government which was to perpetuate the fundamental theory mentioned in the preamble of the earlier document:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. . . . That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; . . ."

Some 5 years later, the first ten amendments to our Constitution were adopted at one time, specifically detailing various basic civil rights stemming from underlying theory of the Declaration of Independence.

Our courts day by day guard these rights for us. (This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Peach of a Pudding

By Betty Barclay

THERE are few things more enticing than fresh peaches—unless it's to find their succulent goodness in a favorite dessert. Treat your family to this one and it's sure to be an annual summer delight.

Peach Tapioca

(Using fresh peaches)

2 cups sliced fresh peaches; 2 tablespoons butter; 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg; 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

1/2 cup granulated sugar; 2 tablespoons brown sugar; 1/4 cup Minute Tapioca; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 2 1/4 cups water; 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Place peaches in a bowl. Dot with butter. Sprinkle with lemon juice and nutmeg. Set aside. Combine sugars, quick-cooking tapioca, salt, water, and lemon rind in saucepan. Place over medium heat; cook and stir until mixture comes to a boil. Pour over peaches and mix thoroughly. Cover and set in warm place; stir once after 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm with cream. Make 4 servings.

Hot Weather Can Affect Egg Production

Although the hot weather of late spring, summer and early fall increases the feed efficiency of laying flocks, it can also be detrimental to them, reports Dr. J. H. Quisenberry, head of the Texas A & M Poultry Science department. Reduced shell quality, decline in production and drop in interior egg quality are the major poultry problems of summertime, but they can be solved or reduced by an alert poultryman.

In hot weather the bird's ability to absorb and utilize calcium is impaired, resulting in an increased number of cracked and broken eggs. Quisenberry says that the use of improved ventilation, pad and fan or spray nozzle cooling system and increased calcium level in the ration will help solve the problem of shell quality.

Decline in production is perhaps the most important economic problem of hot weather. The higher environmental temperature, however, reduces the amount of feed needed to keep the body warm. Therefore, if the rate of egg production can be kept up, feed efficiency increases considerably, Quisenberry explains. Egg production may be kept up, Quisenberry says, by use of the following management practices: use of economical cooling system; provision of unlimited cool, clean drinking water; increase ventilation; maintenance of a constant or increasing light period in the house; feeding at least twice daily and stirring feed up to three additional times daily; and painting the roof white to increase radiation.

Heat is the worst enemy of egg quality. The following practices will pay off in higher grades and longer shelf life which means more income for the poultryman: gather the eggs at least three, and preferably five times daily; place in coolers immediately; gather the eggs in a wire basket and do not fill over half full; separate the clean eggs from the dirty and spray with a sanitizer detergent and cool quickly after drying; if possible, transport eggs in a refrigerated truck; gather a n d store eggs on small end.

TALL, COOL AND TERRIFIC

By BETTY BARCLAY

What so cool, what so tempting as a rich chocolate parfait, its whipped cream layers tinted a delicate pink with a hint of mint to entice you? That bit of flaked coconut is delicious, too, as a pretty garnish.

- Chocoma Mint Spang Parfait
 1 package (1/2 pound) sweet cooking chocolate
 2 tablespoons water
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 2 egg yolks, well beaten
 2 egg whites
 1 cup whipping cream
 1 or 3 drops red food coloring
 6 drops peppermint extract
 Flaked coconut

beat. Add vanilla to egg yolks. Then add hot chocolate mixture gradually, stirring constantly. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Fold in chocolate mixture quickly and thoroughly.

Whip cream and blend in 2 or 3 drops red food coloring and 6 drops peppermint extract. Layer alternately with chocolate mixture in parfait glasses, ending with whipped cream. Sprinkle with flaked coconut. Chill. Makes 4 parfaits.

Note: For best results, use small eggs.

Forgetting An Accepted Invitation
Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I were invited to a friend's house next Sunday evening to play bridge. This date was made two weeks ago and I completely forgot about it. In the meantime, another friend called me on the telephone and during the course of the conversation I invited her and her husband to dinner at our house for this same evening. I am in a dither over this and I don't know what to do about it. Do I call our friends and tell them not to come to dinner, or having first accepted the invitation to play bridge, are we obliged to keep it?

Answer: You must keep the first invitation which you accepted. You will now have to call up your friends, explain why you cannot have them to dinner Saturday and ask them to make it any other evening.

A Shower For Favorite Niece

Dear Mrs. Post: My favorite niece is going to be married shortly and my daughter and I would like to give a shower for her. A friend of mine tells me that it would not be proper for me to give such a party. I know it is not considered correct for a member of her immediate family, but is an aunt considered immediate family?

Checking Wraps At A Private Party

Dear Mrs. Post: When giving a large party at a club or in private room of a hotel, is it the obligation of the hosts to make arrangements beforehand to pay for the checking of the guests' wraps, or do the guests take care of this themselves?

Answer: The hosts make arrangements beforehand and the checking attendants should be instructed to refuse any tips that may be offered for them.

Going To Church Without A Coat

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it not improper for a man to attend church services in his shirt sleeves? At the first sign of summer weather many of the young men appear at church services coatless. I realize it can be most uncomfortable on a very hot day for a man to sit in church with his coat on for any length of time, but it seems to me that this is one of the occasions when he should be properly dressed. Am I right about this, or in this present day informality is this now acceptable?

Answer: You are entirely right. Outside of the tropics, no man should appear in church in his sleeve, even on an exceptionally hot summer's day.

To Avoid Establishing A Precedent

Dear Mrs. Post: I invited friends of ours for cocktails and dinner recently. Besides bringing the children candy, they gave me a very lovely hostess gift, which was quite a surprise to me. We have now been invited to their house for dinner. My husband thinks we should take them a gift, but I do not think it is necessary or usual and furthermore will establish a precedent. What is your opinion?

Answer: It is not at all necessary for you to take a present, and in order to avoid establishing a precedent, it will be best not to take one to your hostess, but instead to send her some flowers the day following the dinner.

Gun Popping Can Be Annoying

MAN'S UTOPIA—Boy climbing pole symbolizes man's care-free status in East Pakistan. The women are the bread-winners; the men occupy themselves in card playing and fishing. The country's gypsy families live on boats like those in the background, moving from village to village to trade in snake skins and other oddities.

Colorado Is Ideal for Aug. Vacationers

Bright sun-filled days and cool star-studded nights are in store for the August vacationer to colorful Colorado. Fair is also the theme of the entertainment bonanza at the Top of the Nation. More than 25 rodeos and fairs will highlight the list of Colorado family attractions.

The Colorado State Fair at Pueblo, Aug. 22-27, will feature a varied entertainment schedule and a panoramic picture of the state's widely diversified agricultural empire. A championship rodeo with some of America's top riders and toughest horse flesh will again be a popular attraction at this outstanding agricultural exposition. Rodeos and county fairs are scheduled during August at Estes Park, Boulder, Delta Monte Vista, Kiowa, La Junta, Lakewood, Buena Vista, Greeley, Sterling, Brush, Brighton, Colorado Springs, Las Animas, Holyoke, Cañon, Loveland, Canon City, Lamar, Yuma, Rocky Ford, Littleton, Longmont, Burlington and Julesburg. Other popular month-long attractions include: Narrow gauge railroad trips between Durango and Silverton; buck wagon dinners at Colorado Springs; Koshare Indian Dances at La Junta; Melodrama at Crystal Creek and Denver; "Blue Jeans" symphony concerts at Estes Park; Aspen Music Festival and a presentation of "A Theater Carnival" at the historic Central City Opera House. Information about an August vacation at the Top of the Nation may be obtained by writing to the Colorado Dept. of Public Relations 986-S Capitol Building, Denver 2.
