

As I See Ranger

By Gene Townsend

The Ranger Volunteer Fire Department held their regular training meeting Tuesday evening and climaxed the meeting with a watermelon feed held at the City Park. J. J. Allen of the Cheaney community furnished the melons. The fire boys all appreciated the melons and stated that they were delicious.

A step toward better cooperation between Ranger, Eastland and Cisco has been taken by Eastland Junior College and Cisco Junior College. They plan to play their football game at Eastland this year. The Eastland Junior Chamber of Commerce has taken over the promotion of the game. They wish to make it an annual game in Eastland. They have the idea of making the game a Peanut Bowl game and promoting it as the football highlight of the county.

Why couldn't this be worked into an affair by which the county could promote their main farm commodity (Peanuts)? Other areas of the State have festivals to promote their products. This county could do the same thing. DeLeon has a watermelon festival, Tyler has a rose festival, and many other towns have similar type celebrations and promotional programs. The Eastland Junior Chamber of Commerce sees the possibility of promoting this ballgame into a county attraction and through the cooperation of the two colleges it can be worked into a good thing.

The earth is made up of three-fourths water and one-fourth land. It stands to reason that a man should be able to spend three-fourths of his time fishing and only one-fourth of his time mowing the lawn.

Don Adams and Dick Jolly are planning to attend Texas Tech at Lubbock this fall. Francis Yeale is to attend Texas Women's University.

The recent rains did wonders for the crops and grassland, but it didn't seem to cool the weather off very much. It is hard to realize that the first football game is less than two weeks off. Football weather is usually thought of as rather frosty. There is going to have to be a drastic change soon for the opening game to be played in football weather.

The Albany football team which has been picked as one of the top powers in Class A football this year is starting out to keep up their reputation. Understand that they scrimmaged Breckenridge and Cisco recently and handled both teams very easily. Eastland, who is rated as number two behind Albany in their district, scrimmaged Winters this week and made a good showing against Winters, although Winters outscored them.

The Ranger Bulldogs seem to be getting their feet on the ground a little more firmly as the work-out progresses. They scrimmaged Mason Tuesday and although Mason showed more power than Baird, Ranger moved the ball better than against Baird. Wednesday against Wylie, they showed quite a bit of improvement and made the best showing so far during practice. Spirit seems to be picking up a little as they move along.

Many favorable comments have been reported about Lone Cedar's new golf course. Everyone that has played the course has reported that it is a wonderfully laid-out course and a real challenge to play. A sub-par round of golf on the course will be something to talk about. So far, there hasn't been anyone reporting any record-breaking scores. It will be interesting to keep a record of the course record for the next few months. The record should change quite frequently until a good record is set for the course.

R. B. Wesson Attends Credit Association Meet

R. B. Wesson of Eastland, field representative of the Stephenville Production Credit Association, attended a meeting at the central office in Stephenville Thursday, August 18, to make plans for the Association's annual meeting and to discuss special credit problems. Stockholders from the 10-county area served by the agricultural lending organization will hold their annual meeting at the Stephenville Recreation Hall on September 17. General Manager W. M. Irwin told field representatives and other administrative personnel at the day-long conference.

Field offices are operated in Comanche, Cleburne, Decatur, Eastland and Fort Worth. In addition to Wesson, other field representatives attending the conference were J. L. Young of Fort Worth, J. H. Bumpas of Comanche, and Leon Atkinson of Decatur. Central office personnel attending were Assistant Managers Robert Norwood and C. C. Russell. Irwin presided at the meeting.

Since 1933, the Texas associations have provided more than $2.8 billion in credit for Texas agriculture.

WITH SOCIAL SECURITY

Pioneer Man Has Longtime Record

Benjamin I. Marshall, 85, of Pioneer is the only Eastland County resident among the six in the Abilene district and the 5,488 in the nation who received a social security check for January 1940, the first month any such checks were payable.

H. L. Weatherly of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, field representative for Eastland County, talked with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall recently and secured written permission to use their names in this matter.

Marshall is a retired pumpjack, chiefly for the Texas Co., and came to Eastland County some 85 years ago as an infant. He was born Sept. 3, 1874, married Miss Fannie Pittman on Dec. 27, 1896, and the couple made their home in various parts of Eastland County throughout their married life of almost 64 years. He told Weatherly that he was a regular voter, always in Eastland County. He still drives his car, but doesn't enjoy it so much anymore, with the greatly increased traffic on good roads.

Marshall's benefit rate of Jan. 1940 was $27.19; this was raised for September 1950 to $50.30; for Sept. 1952, to $56.60; for Sept. 1954, to $61.60; and most recently, for January 1959 to $66. Mrs. Marshall's first check was for the month she reached 65 (women may now start collecting at age 62), March of 1943. Her checks have been equal to half of his over the years. Interested mathematicians may work out the total paid these two long-time beneficiaries, benefits which were based on his 1937-

1939 earnings of $4,102.48, taxed at that time at 1 percent from employee and an equal amount from the employer.

Weatherly says Marshall is still quite spry, stopping his chore of burning up the trash and cleaning up the yard to talk with him.

Reserve section seat tickets will be sold by Eastland Jaycees and will be on sale in Eastland, Ranger and Cisco.

"We plan to fill Maverick Stadium to capacity for this game, and at the same time we have big plans to promote Eastland County's peanut industry," Collins declared.

A number of special activities are in the planning stage, and all will feature the peanut harvest theme.

B. J. Gist, District 7 director from Abilene, presided at the meeting. A. R. Grauer, executive secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau, Waco, discussed local, state and national policy development issues. Ed Cumble and J. D. Jordan, Farm Bureau fieldmen talked on the sure steps in developing sound policies. Policies are the structure and support of Farm Bureau and are built by the membership. Policies are based on recommendations adopted by a majority vote.

Hizale Dean, Comanche, president of the Southwest Peanut Research Foundation told how the foundation was organized and of its importance to the peanut producers.

Attending from Eastland County were Herman Schaefer, T. C. Coart, Policy Development Committeemen, and R. L. Ricks, Mrs. Eula Caldwell, and Mrs. Gianna Justice, Directors.

Peanut Bowl Planned As Annual Grid Affair

Ranger and Cisco Colleges to Play

Eastland's Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced plans for sponsoring the first annual Eastland County Peanut Bowl football game. This year's clash will be between Ranger College and Cisco Junior College and will be played Saturday, Sept. 24 in Maverick Stadium in Eastland.

Plans for the bowl game were revealed today by Dick Spalding, president of the newly organized Jaycees, and Dr. Ted Nicklack, Ranger College president. The Cisco-Ranger game was previously scheduled to be played in Ranger, but the Jaycees and Ranger College worked out an agreement to play the game in Eastland. Cisco College President Grady Hogue has also given his blessing to the event, and Eastland school officials agreed to let the game be played on the high school football field.

Heading up the committee which will plan the football game and other activities of the night will be Mike Collins. Other members of the committee are J. O. Tanner, Lester Meador, Virgil Moore and Dick Kincheloe.

Collins said complete plans for the game, which will decide the college football championship in Eastland County, have not been made, but tentative plans call for holding a big parade the day of the game. Several high school bands will also be invited to participate in the halftime show.

Reserve section seat tickets will be sold by Eastland Jaycees and will be on sale in Eastland, Ranger and Cisco.

Statewide Labor Day Traffic Safety Campaign Announced

Governor Price Daniel today announced plans for the most intensive Labor Day traffic safety campaign since the start of his statewide crusade three years ago. The Governor said his objective was identical with that of all phases of his continuing program in the traffic safety field: to save as many lives in Texas traffic and to reduce traffic crashes as much as possible.

All three major branches of Texas law enforcement, the Texas Department of Public Safety, Texas sheriffs and municipal police departments have been asked by Governor Daniel to place special emphasis on the two principal causes for the heavy Texas traffic death toll, excessive speed and driving while drinking.

Daniel said he had been advised by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., that all available DPS personnel and equipment would be on the highways during the official holiday period, from 12:01, Saturday, Sept. 3, through 11:59 P.M., Monday, Sept. 5.

The Governor said he had written every sheriff and police chief in the State, asking them to "crack down hard on traffic cases involving speed and driving while drinking, for these two violations were involved in the big majority of our traffic deaths last year."

He said he was calling special attention to the Labor Day holiday "because it usually takes about 28 to 30 lives, and it has been most difficult to reduce this toll in recent years."

Daniel expressed the hope that county and city enforcement agencies "will put every available man on the highways in peacetime to help hold down traffic violations, crashes, deaths and injuries during this holiday."

The Governor expressed appreciation for various State and other agencies and organizations that had offered assistance in "our continuing battle to keep more Texans alive on our streets and highways." He said the Labor Day campaign is being joined officially by the Texas Safety Association, Texas Press Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters, Texas Department of Public Safety, Texas Highway Department, Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, Texas Council of Safety Supervisors, Dairy Products Institute of Texas and others.

Texas Association of Broadcasters will again sponsor its "Drive Lighted and Live" campaign, which attracted statewide attention during the Fourth of July weekend. Broadcasters urged motorists to drive with their car lights burning in the daylight hours as a signal that they were driving safely and legally. Reports from various sections of Texas indicated the idea got widespread cooperation from drivers.

Texas Junior Chambers of Commerce will stage another attempt to keep U. S. Highway 80 death-free from Shreveport, La. to El Paso. During similar campaigns, there were no deaths on this highway in 1958, one in 1959.

Dairy Products Institute of Texas is again opening its annual "Crusade Child Safety," a program which calls for Texas dairy products plants to deliver millions of safety circulars to homes and to prevent dairy truck involvement in traffic tragedies.

Principal speakers will be Mrs. A. L. Leake, missionary in the Arkansas Ozarks; and Miss Irene Chambers, Baptist Home Mission Board field worker.

There are many misconceptions about wood and its use. Most of these fallacies are without specific support and can be readily disproved. The use of wooden fence posts is one example.

Fence posts should properly be placed in the ground with the butt, or large end, in the ground. However, some fences are built with the small end of posts in the ground. It has been claimed that they will render better service in that position. Actually, posts placed in the ground up-side-down will not last as long as those set upright. First, the small end of a post is not as large as the butt end. Consequently, it is physically weaker at the ground line, like a fishing pole grasped at the small end.

Secondly, the top end of the post has a higher proportion of sapwood than the lower end. Sapwood is less resistant to decay than heartwood. The butt end of the post usually has a higher proportion of heartwood. Heartwood is not only more decay resistant than sapwood. Hence, the butt, or large end of the post should always be put in the ground.

is neither the cause of the paint, nor the painter. Several simple rules applicable to the painting on wooden surfaces will usually assure satisfactory results.

1. The proper type of quality of paint should be used for the specific job.

2. Manufacturers instructions relating to preparing the painting surface, mixing the paint, prime coats, and methods of application should be carefully followed.

3. Painting is undesirable during temperatures under 40 degrees or over 90 degrees. A wrinkled surface generally occurs.

4. Repainting should be done before the old paint has worn sufficiently to expose the wood surface.

5. Do not repaint too frequently. The paint film becomes excessively thick and brittle, and cracks and peels easily. A good paint job should give satisfactory service for 4 to 6 years.

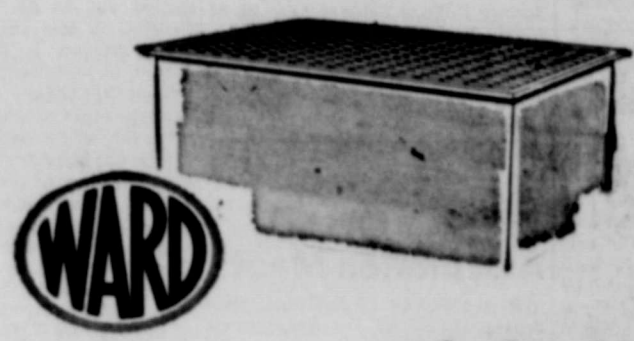

6. If paint is applied scantily by brushing on too thin a film or by using excessive paint thinner, the paint will chalk or wear off early.

7. If paint is applied too generously, it will present a wrinkled wavy appearance.

8. The surface to be painted should be smooth and free of dust, dirt, mildew and loose flaky paint.

9. Do not paint moist surfaces, nor dry surfaces in damp weather. Dew, frost or other moisture under a paint film causes blistering and eventual peeling.

Bad Teeth Alignment Will Not Correct Self

There's a one to five chance you, youngster needs a major teeth straightening job, since an estimated one-fifth of the nation's children suffer from "malocclusion", or improper alignment of teeth.
A generation ago, parents of young children with teeth which did not meet properly were usually advised to "let them alone and nature will correct the situation." Today we know better. Malocclusion is a condition to be corrected by a dental specialist known as an "orthodontist." Nature by herself is a very poor straightener of crooked teeth.
Although the public is just now becoming aware of the health significance of malocclusion, experience has taught dentists that crooked teeth contribute to decay, faulty speech and malnutrition. One of the worst results of malocclusion is the psychological stress borne by a child singled out for ridicule by his friends because of "buck teeth."

A child with facial deformities such as those caused by misshapen teeth may develop traits of indecision and begin to doubt his ability to cope with problems in his environment, psychologists say.
What causes teeth to erupt irregularly? Dentists agree that heredity is probably one important cause. Another is persistent thumb-sucking and abnormal pressures against the jaw. Living home, contrary to popular thought, is not

In the case of thumbsucking, dentists believe that if the habit can be broken before age 5, there is a good chance the teeth may return to normal position without harmful effects.

On the other hand, when primary teeth are lost too early, adjoining teeth may tend to tip and "migrate," crowding into spaces where permanent teeth should erupt.

Whatever the method, it is calculated to help the youngster avoid the fate of a "buck tooth." (A weekly feature of the Health Education Division, State Health Department).

A motorist is a person, who, after seeing a bad crash, drives carefully for at least several blocks.

What some people don't know—and won't learn—about driving would fill a hospital.

This much IS clear: a drinking driver's vision is NOT!

From Los Angeles Times editorial: "Flagrantly bad driving should be recognized as the crime it really is!"

Fog, stuff that is dangerous to drive in, especially if it's mental.

Even though the auto has replaced the horse, it's still a good idea for the driver to stay on the wagon.
