Social Security And Taxation

Austin, Texas
January 22, 1941

Hello Friends:

During my campaign last summer, I made you the following pledges: "In the event I am elected I shall consider it a pleasure to cooperate with the Governor, in accordance with the wishes of the citizenship of my District. When in doubt regarding your views, I shall ask you, through our newspapers, to express them by letter or otherwise." I shall consistently follow such procedure and will appreciate your cooperation in order that I may better serve you.

I herewith quote excerpts from Governor O'Daniel's address to the Legislature, January 17, 1941:

"I do not feel that it is necessary in this message to debate the question of whether or not the State should provide the necessary funds to aid dependent children, care for the blind, meet the State's obligation to teacher retirement, and pay old age pensions, because all of these things were submitted to the overruling voters of this State and the demand is written into the Constitution of this State that all of these obligations be met. So the question before the Legislature today is not 'Shall these obligations be met?'—The question is: 'How shall they be met?'"

"I should say that from my viewpoint, where a person has no income, he should receive at least thirty dollars per month from State and Federal Funds, because I think that amount in such a case can be definitely justified, to enable the old person to live in decency and comfort. Inasmuch as Federal regulations make it imperative that income be taken into consideration, such income should be supplemented to bring their normal income up to thirty dollars per month.

"The Social Security bill in Texas cannot be met without an expenditure of at least thirty-five or forty million dollars annually, and that expenditure will not care for any of these services on an extravagant basis. It will provide a decent living for the old people and a reasonable amount of money for the dependent children, and indigent blind, and sufficient funds to match the contributions for teacher retirement. I think this Legislature should make available this amount of money to meet these obligations."

"I stated many times during my campaign for re-election to the office of Governor, and I repeat now, that I believe the Social Security bill in Texas, including aid for dependent children, aid to the blind, teacher retirement, and old age pensions should be paid and should be paid in full; and I stated further that it should be paid from either a transaction tax levied on established lines of business or from some other broad based tax. If the Legislature will do this, then you will, in my judgement, have approached the problem of meeting the State's Social Security obligations in a manner that will succeed and also in a manner that will not hurt any line of business within this State."

"I am pleased to attach hereto a proposed transaction tax bill which will raise fifty million dollars annually, based on a rate of 1.6 per cent. This is the same rate I recommended to the 46th Legislature at the time I also recommended abolishing the State ad valorem tax as General Fund revenue. I still recommend abolishing the State ad valorem tax that goes to the General Fund, but if the Legislature does not abolish it, you can reduce the rate of 1.6 percent to whatever rate it takes to raise the amount of revenue you decide to raise."

"It is my deliberate judgement that the transaction tax is the best means of raising the money. But I have no desire to even attempt to dictate to the Legislature how this task shall be accomplished. That is a matter for the Members to decide."

"Two years ago I urged that the

Lofland Visits Nazareth School

On January 20, the State Deputy of Public School, Mr. W. T. Lofland, visited the Nazareth school. He was very well pleased with the work of the school and the courtesy shown by the teachers and student body, and complimented them on the good condition of the school furniture and building. In his report to Austin he will ask that the school receive credit in World History and Secretarial training. If these credits are granted, the total credits for the high school will be nineteen.

Ten new pupils have enrolled since the beginning of the second semester. Six of these are doing high school work.

Committees Meeting Held January 23rd

The Castro County Soil Conservation District in its organization meeting held on January 28, elected as its chairman Ray Axtell; vice-chairman, Colin Walton; secretary, Orbin Nowell, the other supervisors being Albert Springer and Ed Wilhelm. Mr. Luke Ballard who represented the State Soil Conservation board from Temple qualified the Castro supervisors.

Mr. Ballard went in detail and gave the soil conservation district set up giving each supervisor a vast amount of material which explained how the program should be set up and the means the supervisors could use to secure the correct information for developing a sound Castro County Soil Conservation program.

The supervisors executed formal requests for the help of the Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Farm Security Adm. Vocational Agriculture Depts., and State Health Department. By these requests all of these agencies will be at the disposal of the Castro Soil Conservation District.

Others present at the meeting were County Judge, Posey Cunningham, M. U. May, County Agent E. E. Reynolds, Soil Conservation Service from Lubbock and Mr. Luckner of the same service from Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar McCrary and baby of Luling are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Hyatt and other relatives. They will be here several weeks while Mr. McCrary is recuperating from a broken leg.

tax measure to pay Social Security be written into the Constitution, but also stated then that I would gladly accept a statutory tax bill if the Legislature preferred a Statutory tax bill. The matter has now been delayed so long that we have no time to waste in trying to write the tax bill into the Constitution at this time; I therefore urge you to pass these tax bills by statutory enactment now, and after this has been accomplished I should then like to see the Legislature give deliberate consideration to some plan of writing into the Constitution of this State the necessary taxes to meet all of these Social Security obligations in the years to come. The first thing to do now is to get the money to pay these necessary obligations of the State."

In my opinion, most of the Members of the House of Representatives were agreeably surprised when the Governor recommended that we pass a tax bill by statutory enactment instead of writing such a measure into the Constitution, as recommended two years ago. I expect the House to pass some kind of revenue measure within a reasonable length of time.

In my next article I shall discuss other recommendation made by the Governor. In the meantime please write me your views relative to the problem of taxation.

Sincerely your friend,
TOM W. DEEN

Fourth Sunday Singing Held At Big Square

The Castro County 4th Sunday Afternoon Singing held their regular meeting at Big Square last Sunday with a large crowd. The crowd gathered early and singing began at 2:00 p. m. with a full program until 4:15 p. m.

The Pickering Family of Lubbock gave several numbers. Other visiting singers were: Mr. Tye Young and his quartet of Mole-shoe, The Margan Family of Lubbock; The Dunn Family of Earth; The Bull Sisters special and a base solo by Mr. Elliot of Chilcotha, who sings with the Pickering family in their broadcast program of sacred songs at Lubbock.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the new books and let their voices ring out on the good class songs.

We had a number of good leaders and another important thing we would like to mention is our good crowd of listeners. All good singers especially visiting singers like to see a large number of people come out to listen to them, so folks if you can't sing and like to hear good singing come out to these 4th Sunday Afternoon singings. If you can sing we need you and invite you.

Look in your County paper for the announcement of a concert to be held at Big Square, Thursday night, January 30, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Come out to see and hear these good singers. This will help you to enjoy your radio program more after you have met the folks who furnish you this wonderful program.

The next 4th Sunday Afternoon singing will be held at Flagg, February 23rd, at 2:00 p. m. This will be announced again in a later issue.

All singers are invited to Earth next Sunday, February 2nd, to their First Sunday Afternoon singing, so folks let's all go to Earth next Sunday.

Worley Appointed To Membership On Four Leading

Washington, Jan. 22—(Special) The Democratic Committee on Committees today announced the appointment of Congress Eugene Worley to membership on four leading committees of the House. They follow:

Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation; Committee on Labor; Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures; Committee on Election of President, Vice-President, and Representatives in Congress.

Announcement of the action by the powerful committee on Committees was made by Congressman Robert Doughton of North Carolina, chairman.

Of the four appointments given Congressman Worley, one of them—Irrigation and Reclamation—deals constantly with legislation vitally affecting his district, the 18th of Texas; while the other three handle legislation more national in scope.

The Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation is concerned with soil depletion, erosion and similar agricultural problems and membership on it is one of the most sought appointments in congress particularly by Congressmen representing districts where the needs of farmers are paramount.

The Committee on Labor to which Congressman Worley was appointed, faces a year in which it may be called upon to help settle one of the most acute problems that has arisen out of the national defense program—strike in defense industries. Child labor problems together with proposals to overhaul the Wagner Labor Relations Act and the Wage-Hours law await consideration by this committee. Labor problems affecting work in the agricultural and ranching industries likewise come within the jurisdiction of this Committee.

By virtue of his seat on the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, Congressman Worley may succeed to an active role in one of the biggest controversies in the Washington scene—the Eccles plan to strip President Roosevelt of his emergency powers over money. This plan, drafted by Marguerite S. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, would vest these powers in the Federal Reserve Bank system, and has been referred to the Committee on Coinage by Speaker Rayburn.

The Committee on Election of President and Representatives in Congress to which Congressman Worley was named, is scheduled to consider legislation to abolish the electoral college, a device set up by the founding fathers to meet the difficulties of communication and travel 150 years ago—problems that no longer exist. Those favoring abolishment of the electoral college system, under which the President of the United States is officially 'elected,' contend that the college is outmoded and useless and that instead of voting for candidates for the electoral college the American voter should be permitted to cast his ballot directly for the president. On the other hand, those favoring retention of the electoral college make powerful argument in its behalf, pointing to tradition that has grown up around it.

The young Congressman was particularly fortunate in achieving a seat on the Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation. This Committee and the Committee on Agriculture deal with many common problems pertaining to soil conservation and agricultural problems throughout the nation.

Houston Land Bank Owned By Borrowers

Special to the News.
Houston, January 17—For the second time since its organization in 1917, Texas' largest bank, the Federal Land Bank of Houston, is owned entirely by the farmers and ranchmen of Texas. According to advice received from Sterling C. Evans, president of the bank all-government-owned stock has been retired and all of the capital stock of this cooperative credit institution is in the hands of those who use its facilities.

Originally capitalized by Congress, The Federal Land Bank of Houston was established in 1917 to provide farmers and ranchers in Texas with a source of long-term amortized, low-cost farm mortgage loans made through national farm loan associations. Wise management of the co-operative credit system coupled with members' favorable repayment record made it possible to retire the capital stock invested in The Federal Land Bank of Houston by the Federal Treasury, it was explained.

This marks the second time that national farm loan associations have owned all of the capital stock of The Federal Land Bank of Houston. The first time was in 1923. To enable the bank to meet emergency refinancing demands in 1932, the capital stock of the bank was increased by treasury subscriptions.

A growing appreciation on the part of farmers of the advantages offered by Land Bank loans is indicated by the fact that the volume of Land Bank loans closed increased nearly two and a half million dollars in 1940 over 1939, and the volume of Commissioner loans increased almost two million dollars. At the end of December, there were outstanding $189,289,645 in Land Bank loans and $45,095,902 in Commissioner loans, or a total of $234,385,547 in land mortgage loans to Texas farmers and ranchers.

CROP AND FEED LOANS NOW AVAILABLE

Emergency crop and feed loans for 1941 are now available to farmers in Castro County, and applications for these loans are now being received at Castro County court house by Carl Hill, Field Supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks, or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing and cultivating his 1941 crops or in purchasing or producing feed for his livestock.

Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of cash crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed or, in the case of loans for the purchase or production of feed for livestock, a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

GOING TO HAVE FRAME GARDEN

"This year we're going to have a frame garden." If that's what you are saying, "Congratulations!"

Frame gardens planted now will yield months sooner than you enable you to have fresh vegetables in the regular garden. The vegetables grown in a frame garden are usually green leafy vegetables and yellow ones—just the right vegetable to be particularly rich in vitamins and minerals. During the winter and spring months fresh vegetables are needed more than ever. Remember the Sulphur and Molasses that Grandma gave. She knew you needed a tonic.

You'll want to plant Iceberg or Black Seeded Simpson Lettuce; Lucullus Swiss Chard; Bloomsdale Long Standing or Savoy Spinach; Danvers Half Long or Chantenay Carrots; Icicle or Early Scarlet Radishes; and Purple Top White Globe Turnips. Maybe you'll want to want some of each variety. That's what has been done in the Frame Garden on the court house lawn. You could add White Bermuda onions and Crosby's Egyptian Beets if you like. Tendergreen Mustard is another addition you'll want to make.

Directions for making a frame garden can be obtained from either the County or Home Agent. Look over the one on the Court House lawn which Mr. Bell has in charge.

SPONSOR TO MEET FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7

Sponsors of 4-H clubs will meet Friday, February 7, in the Home Demonstration Agent's office at 2:30 p. m. At this meeting the sponsors will work with the suggestions given by 4-H club members in January meetings so as to compile a point sheet. Suggested outlines for Poultry and Clothing Scrapbooks will be considered.

Demonstrations on Frame Gardens and Winter Salads will be given by the agent. The sponsors will present this demonstration to the girls in their second meeting in February.

Donald Durce has returned home after a few days in the veterans hospital at Amarillo.

ATTEND MEETING IN H. D. AGENT'S OFFICE

Representatives of Home Demonstration clubs attended a discussion and training meeting in the Home Demonstration Agent's office, Monday, January 27.

This meeting was held in preparation for the February second meeting on "Parents, Children, and Money." The discussion centered around "Advantage of Allowances for Children," "Advantage of Any Ways for Children to Earn Money," and "Saving Money for a Definite Purpose." Study of articles from the Extension Loan Library, Austin, Texas, plus actual experience from the mothers attending made the meeting thought provoking and stimulating.

The group then saw the Frame Garden demonstration on the court house lawn. Mr. Bell moved the frame garden from the northeast corner of the court house lawn to the west center section. He worked the ground thoroughly for a depth of 18 inches; fertilized it well, backed dirt up against the back frame for extra warmth; attached the muslin cover; and then it was ready for planting.
