Learning the Lesson the Hard Way—
... is not always a virtue, neither is it advisable. The person who buys a home or other real estate without first investigating the title is a perfect example of one who learns his lessons the hard way. True, he will learn better later, but too late for his own good. Any real estate that is worth buying is also worth the extra cost of an abstract, for upon the title rests the value and security of every real estate investment.

JUNCTION, TEXAS

April 17, 1961

Dear Mr. Goatman:

On next Wednesday, April 26th, we here at Ranchers Commission Company in Junction, are having our Annual Spring Stocker Goat Sale. This will be the Nation's top sale as far as quality stocker goats are concerned.

As you probably know this is the first time in the history of the industry that premiums have been awarded on commercial goats in load lots. We are giving $75.00, $50.00, and $25.00 respectively, on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place loads, minimum of 75 head per load. We will also award banners and ribbons to both buyers and sellers of the winning loads, these awards are creating a lot of interest among goat men, you can bet that every goat man that is able will be here, to either buy, sell, look, talk goats, and visit. We hope to start the judging at 8:00 a.m. We were very fortunate in securing Carlton Godbold, Robert Love, and Roy Bratton to serve as our judges.

A partial list of our consignors include the following: Martin Etheridge, Kemper, 925 yr muttons, (these were featured in a story in the April issue, Sheep & Goat Raiser, "Oats & Goats"), Stanton Bundy, Sonora, 700 yr muttons, extra big and good, shorn March 1st, Cowsett & Molesworth, 1800 yr muttons, 200 twos, very good, shorn March 12th, all Kimble County goats, Melvin Camp, 250 yr. 150 twos, these were raised by the LP Ranch near Boerne, the A & M Extension Service has been using this herd as a demonstration flock, very good, shorn February 24th, 300 straight 3's from the Merlin Davis Ranch, Edwards County, extra good, shorn March 15th, big top left on, 150, 1, 2 & 3 yr. old nannies raised by Mrs. Ona Rolston, shorn in February, top quality, 100 mixed yr., raised by Jack Gardner, Roosevelt, very good, February shorn, 100 yr. nannies, straight Pflueger breeding, these are consigned by Bud Wright, are just like the ones that brought $19.00 to $20.00 at the Golden Opportunity doe sale last July, February shorn, 100 extra choice yr muttons from the Perry Guthrie ranch, Perry bought these to get the nannies, if they are good enough for him, they will suit anybody, 50 yr muttons from Ervin Brown, good, big, 500, 3, 4, 5 yr old muttons from the J. F. Johnson ranch, good.

I could name a lot more but these ads cost like crazy, I have seen most of these goats and personally guarantee you will like them. All consignments will be sorted and sold so anyone can buy any number they want. Consignors do not have to enter their goats in the show, and can sell any number they wish, from one head up.
Hope you can be with us, Yours for better goats.

Sincerely,
LEM JONES

An Editorial
Should the Voting Age Be Lowered?

by Michael Herrington
"Vote! Vote!" people cry. "It is the great American privilege." But the countless American young people from 18-year-old high school seniors to college students not quite 21 may campaign feverishly and yet are not allowed the all-important vote.

From past experience I would say that from the time that a senior sits in a high school government class he is more abreast of the times and needs of his country than the average adult. The young person who is still in school is sharply aware of current happenings in the modern world. A close observation reveals that people who are approaching middle age often tend to be disinterested; they care little whether Mr. X or Mr. Y is running for the office. Some of them may even reach the polls without actually knowing who is running, and others are so indifferent that they often do not even know when election day is or care to go vote. Nor is the average adult able to name the ten cabinet positions and their functions—a must to the college student.

It seems to me that very few young people, on the other hand, are so lackadaisical. On a college campus frequent heated discussions on who is running and what they propose are heard during an election period. Politics challenges youth as a new and exciting endeavor, and some of the most active campaigners in the last presidential election were college students.

Remember that women were denied the voting privilege until 1920. How much longer will it take Congress to lower the voting age to 18? The difference represented is only three years, but it is a bridge to be spanned. If, when the question of draft age rises, no one thinks 18 is too young for a youth to fight and die for his country, then should it not likewise be considered old enough for him to help select the one to represent him in a democratic government, presuming, of course, that time spent in the service has given him maturity of vision and judgment? Countless politicians and news commentators have pointed out that the vote of the youth of America could have changed more than one election. I believe young people are more critical than their parents and grandparents and are seldom swayed by any side influences in making their choices of candidates. Besides being up with the times youth are ready to advance into the future. As I study history, I am inclined to think that never has youth been guilty of holding back progress. Always it has been ready to surge ahead into a changing world. Many older people are averse to change, whereas young people are more amenable.

My conclusion is that the vote in the hands of the youth of America will be a vote for the growth of America, a growth that will help us to hold our place of leadership in the world of today.

Eastside Church of Christ

Corner Young and Strawn Road
Can a child of God fall from grace? They did. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen and repent... (Rev. 2:5). This church at Ephesus had left its first love. The Lord adds the saved to the church (Acts 2:47), yet these people in the church at Ephesus had fallen and were commanded to repent. Some in the churches of Galatia, who had been saved by the grace of God, were now trying to be justified by certain portions of the Law of Moses, and Paul said they had fallen from grace. (Gal. 5:4). Would the Lord have given us instructions as to how to keep from falling if we can't fall? Read carefully (2 Peter 1:5-10). If you are in the grace of God you can fall. Some can't fall from grace because they are not in God's grace. They are not in His grace because they have not obeyed His grace (Acts 20:24; Titus 2:11-12). It is plain to see that the "gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24) and the "grace that bringeth salvation" are one and the same. Have you obeyed the Gospel? If not, you can't fall from grace because you are not in His grace. Hence, LOST. Christ is the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him. (He. 5:9). Some, after obeying the first principles of Christ's gospel (He. 6:1-2) did fall, and they fell to the level of those seeking justification by FAITH ONLY. Yes, friends, you can fall from grace, but not until you are in it.

TALENTED ON THE DRAW—TV cowboy actor Malcolm Atterbury draws guns or pictures with equal ease. He's at work here on a painting for the Celebrity Art Exhibition in Hollywood. Between acting roles and painting, Atterbury writes plays, performs on the piano. His father, Gen. W. W. Atterbury, was the famous railroad builder and head of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Abstracts
While driving around a lake, John and Mary saw a "For Sale" sign on a piece of lake property which they thought they could afford to buy. They made inquiry of the owner and agreed on a price. They inquired about title and the owner assured them that he would give them an "abstract." They took the abstract, which was a fat book of papers, and the deed, filed the deed at the courthouse and thought no more about it, assuming, as many people do, that an "abstract" is an assurance of good title. Some years later they went to sell to a buyer who was better informed. He insisted that either the abstract be examined and an opinion given by an attorney that the title was good or that the sellers must provide title insurance. When they sought an opinion as to whether the abstract showed good title, they were dismayed to find that the title was not in good order, and that there would have to be a quiet-title lawsuit to dispose of some flaws in the title before the buyer would accept it. Neither would a title insurance company write a policy of insurance for them without legal action to clear up the title.

John and Mary were astounded to learn that they were wrong in assuming that an "abstract" was an assurance of good title. An abstract is merely a record of every document which has ever been filed of record at the courthouse affecting the title to a particular piece of property. It may show good title or bad title, or no title at all. It is only a bundle of papers as John and Mary discovered, which summarizes the state of the title. Its possession does not in any way assure good title. Thus while one may be able to copy a property with an unsalable title, difficulties will arise when the property is to be sold or mortgaged. To do so is only to postpone and perhaps increase the trouble and expense of clearing the title. It makes good sense to correct any title defects when you buy a property.

(The newspaper, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written get possession and peacefully go to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Dr. W. P. Watkins Is Guest Speaker At 1947 Club Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Morris Campbell and Mrs. Bill Anderson were hostesses to the 1947 Club Tuesday, April 8 at 4 p.m. at the Community Club house.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Joe Collins, and Mrs. Charles Gann gave the invocation.

Mrs. Alla Ray Morris introduced the guest speaker, Dr. W. P. Watkins, who spoke on "A New Frontier in Medicine—Hypnosis." In his talk, Dr. Watkins stated that hypnosis did not gain wide spread use until 1840 and that was by French surgeons. He also said "Hypnosis has no effect on juvenile delinquency and that hypnosis is easy to learn but it takes months to learn who to hypnotize and who not to hypnotize." Concluding the talk, Dr. Watkins said, "If the therapeutic value of hypnosis is proved, medicine as a whole is so much richer."

Roll call and minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Glenn Covington, and various committee reports were given.

The group was adjourned with the reading of the club collect by Mrs. Charles Milliken.

The refreshment table was laid with a linen cutwork cloth and centered with a mass arrangement of spring flowers in varying shades of lavender and pink. Silver appointments were used.

Members present were Meses, W. J. Anderson, Morris Campbell, F. P. Brasher Jr., Joe Collins, Glenn Covington, Charles Gann, Ermen Haby, Judson Hardy, Roscoe Hopper, Mary Lilley, Charles Milliken, J. P. Morris, James Ratliff, James Townzen, W. P. Watkins, Harry Weiden, and one guest, Mrs. Dorothy Jolly.

AUSTIN REPORT

By SCOTT BAILEY
REP. OF 76th DISTRICT

The major item of interest in the Texas Legislature is still tax- es. In response to many inquiries about House Bill 334 which passed in the House of Representatives last week, I am submitting this brief fact sheet about it.

House Bill 334 provides for the raising or saving of about $33,152,000. The several subdivilions of the bill and the amount of revenue each will put into the General fund are:

A bookkeeping amendment, $3,000,000 revenue. Redefinition of "phonograph" to include "juke boxes"—$100,000 revenue. Redefinition of "air conditioners" so as to include central air conditioners in the present tax on air conditioners — $900,000 revenue. (Both these definitions were changed after the Attorney General ruled that the old definitions would not include these items.) Equalizing the taxes on coin-operated miniature bowling alleys and regular bowling alleys—$300,000 revenue. Elimination of the 2 per cent discount presently granted distributors for affixing liquor tax stamps—$290,000 revenue.

In accordance with a recommendation by the Governor and the State Finance Advisory Commission, allocation to the Foundation School Fund revenue now allocated to the Available School Fund—$562,000 revenue. Also, addition to the Available School Fund income from bonuses and delay rentals from Permanent School Fund lands, an amount not to exceed 1 per cent of the Permanent School Fund — $12,000,000 revenue.

A two factor (property and gross receipts) formula for the franchise tax — $8,000,000 revenue. The outstanding features of this franchise tax are deductions and exemptions which serve as incentives to attract industry to Texas and at the same time allow the companies to pay their fair share of the cost of government.

Levying a State gift tax at one-half the rate collected under the

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

Life is becoming too standardized. People are getting stereotyped. We don't have "characters" anymore, except in small towns—and, pretty soon, we won't have any small towns.

Now when I was a boy, there were roaming ex-convicts who lectured on prison atrocities; human flies who climbed buildings with their hands and feet; and, every now and then, there would be a visitor who was hard to classify.

One such individual came into town in a buggy drawn by a big shaggy horse; and, trailing on a rope, was the sleekest racing mare you ever saw.

Federal gift tax—$8,000,000 revenue. The deductions and exemptions are the same as the federal statute.

House Bill 334 is now pending in the Senate. It will be interesting to see how the Senate treats this honest attempt to pay part of the State's debt.

"Doc Martin (that typed out to be the stranger's name) hadn't been in town any time at all before the sports were. Following him for a race with "Red" Traylor's big bay. The visitor seemed reluctant but, when mention was made of a $100 bet, his eyes brightened and he said, "All right—in a couple of days."

There was a half-mile track out at the grove and quite a crowd was there for the race, which was to be 400 yards. Each owner rode his own horse. Martin's mare won by a length but the bay was gaining. Everybody had been pulling for the local entry and there was clamor for another race—and over a longer distance.

"Doc" didn't say "Yes" and he didn't say "No"—in fact, he didn't say anything. They kept after him for two days, though, and finally he said, "I'll run my horse against Mr. Traylor's next Saturday—half a mile, but the bet this time will have to be $500." This was a rather sizeable amount but Traylor put up $200, and other sportsmen provided the rest.

The approaching race was the talk of the town and there must have been close to 500 people at the track. It was almost 2 o'clock which was the time for the start, and only Traylor and his bay had put in their appearance.

Then "Doc" rode up to him he was on that shaggy plowhorse that had been hitched to the buggy.

There was a general laugh. It was well that the crowd laughed before the race, for that uncouth creature made a muddle of it.

There was some handiwork to the effect that the mare was supposed to run but Martin declined. The only stipulation was that my horse was to run—and he is my horse and he sure did run."

So he collected and departed — to "take" the sports in some other town.

The world no longer has such a figure as "Doc" Martin, wearing a slouch hat and a shaggy blue serge suit with grease spots, with his buggy and his sleek racing mare and an old clothopper of a horse that was a distinguished thoroughbred.

And so our lives are better.

Why is the Ford Galaxie head and shoulders above all the imitators?

'61 Ford Galaxie is available with the Ford 292 V-8 that won the low-price V-8 class in the Mobilgas Economy Run with 21.3 mpg!

Because it's beautifully built to take care of itself!

We're tickled to see so many other cars latching on to the styling trend started by Galaxie. But they can't copy that Thunderbird roofline—any more than they can match Galaxie's Thunderbird steering and handling.

What's more, Galaxie is the fine car built to cut your operating costs. For example, you can go 30,000 miles without a lubrication. And when you compare price, you find that Galaxie costs several hundred dollars less than some cars that give you less. Challenging statement? We're here to prove it—today.
