REVOLUTIONARY OUTBREAK AGAIN

MEXICO'S TROUBLES WITH HER MALCONTENTS ABOUT TO BEGIN ANEW.

SOME ARRESTS ARE MADE

Junta Believed to Have Gained Some Strength Since the Last Revolution.

Texas News Service Special. El Paso, Tex., July 17.—Considerable excitement prevails along the border over the arrest of Mexican revolutionists at Fuerta and Sinaloa and this incident is accepted as evidence that the revolutionary junta has been revived in the cities along the Rio Grande, and that the revolutionists are stronger than ever, is the opinion here.

Two men were arrested at Eagle Pass recently and were said to be wanted for participation in the uprising a year ago, but it is now admitted that they were wanted for a very recent revolutionary outbreak.

It is declared that the revolutionists are ready to join General Bernardo Reyes if any show of strength is made by him. About sixteen months ago the revolutionists made a very decided outbreak and clashed with the National troops at several points, once or twice with success. The uprising was put down, however, and this is the first intimation of trouble since that time.

WILL MEET AUGUST 9th.

West Texas Normal Contestants to Be Heard—Scurry Back.

Judge Edgar Scurry returned this afternoon from Austin, where he has been to push the claims of Wichita Falls to the West Texas Normal. He was told that the committee would meet at Fort Worth on August 9th to hear the claims set forth by the various competing towns for the normal. At this meeting those towns that are considered out of the running will be so informed, after which the remaining contestants will be visited.

Governor Campbell will not attend this meeting, but will send a representative. The latter has not been named, but will probably be either Private Secretary Gus Barton or C. E. Evans of Abilene, secretary for the Educational Conference.

WRECK ON INTERURBAN.

Car Overturns in Ohio Killing Conductor and Lineman.

By Associated Press. New Bremen, Ohio, July 17.—Two were killed and many injured here today when an interurban car on the Western Railroad jumped the track and turned over. Conductor Hortrats and an unknown lineman were instantly killed.

REPORT CAUSED ALARM.

Misprint in Yesterday's Times Aroused Bicycle Riders.

The Times stated yesterday that the City Council had decided to put a stop to the riding of bicycles in the city. This was a misprint. It should have read "on the sidewalks of the city." There was consternation in the ranks of the cyclists yesterday afternoon until they learned that the report was erroneous.

ONLY TWENTY-SIX KILLED.

Deaths Fewer Than Expected in Grecian Earthquake.

By Associated Press. Athens, July 17.—From reports received here it is believed that only twenty-six persons were killed Thursday's earthquake. Twenty-three bodies were found in the ruins of Havari, where two hundred and fifty houses were demolished.

ANOTHER FATAL AFFRAY IN MISSISSIPPI TOWN

By Associated Press. Meridian, Miss., July 17.—Joe and Pete McDonald were killed and two others were seriously wounded in a shooting affray at Union, a small town near here. A telephone request for physicians has been received here but the cause of the shooting is not known. The McDonalds were shot by O. Chisholm, who is said to be dying. Murphy McDonald and Joe Perry were also seriously wounded.

OFFICERS OVERPOWERED.

Kentucky Mountaineers Take Alleged Murderer in Charge.

By Associated Press. Lexington, Ky., July 17.—A mob of infuriated mountaineers is reported to have attacked two officers from Oklahoma at Cannel City today and forced them to surrender Grover Whitaker, charged with shooting his wife at Ardmore, Oklahoma, several months ago. The mob overpowered the officers at the depot, unlocked Whitaker's handcuffs and ordered the officers to leave town.

ARE ASPHYXIATED.

Mother Kills Self and Son—Feared Asylum.

From Friday's Daily. Chicago, Ill., July 17.—Mrs. Annie Schenkle and her two sons, Harry and Carl, aged 7 and 11 years, respectively, were found dead in a gas-filled room in their home here today. The husband of the dead woman told the police that he believed his wife feared being put in the insane asylum and decided to thwart it.

RECORD FLIGHT IS MADE.

New York Man Makes Fastest Aeroplane Time of the Year.

By Associated Press. Mineola, N. Y., July 17.—A flight of twenty-four and seven-tenths miles in fifty-three minutes and forty-six seconds was made today by Glenn Curtiss in his aeroplane. Curtiss exceeded all previous records and all American aeroplane records for the year.

MEXICAN NATIONAL DISPATCHERS GO OUT

Laredo, Tex., July 17.—This morning at 8:30, thirty-six train dispatchers, including the chiefs and trick men in sixteen offices of the National Lines of Mexico walked out because the management refused to grant the demands of dispatchers for a raise of seventy-five cents per month and of the trick men for a raise of ten dollars. The train service has not felt the effect of the strike and traffic is running as usual. The report comes from Mexico that other dispatchers oppose the union men and the management scouts the idea of a tie-up.

It is understood there was a conductors' and engineers' meeting this morning and they may declare a sympathetic strike and refuse to take orders from the new dispatchers. This would result in a tie-up of all trains.

LITTLE IMPROVEMENT IN STRIKE SITUATION

By Associated Press. Butler, Pa., July 17.—Violence occurred early today at the plant of the Standard Steel Car Co. of Lyndora, Pa., near here. The foreign workmen yesterday struck for higher wages. Today when the mill gates opened Americans began entering. Several hundred foreigners attempted to stop them and a fight ensued. Several foreigners were injured and they are ugly and obstinate. All saloons are closed and in the event of further trouble, the constabulary will be rushed to the scene.

By Associated Press. Pittsburg, Pa., July 17.—The expected trouble with the strikers failed to materialize early today at the plant of Pressed Steel Car Co. at McKee's Rock. The striking men now claim to have seven thousand men out. There will be a meeting of the strikers this afternoon and an effort made to settle the strike.

BIG FISH IS CAPTURED.

Fisherman Lands Thirty Pound Catfish From Wichita.

A fisherman, whose name could not be learned, landed a thirty-two pound catfish in the Wichita River this morning, catching it with an ordinary rod and line. He brought it to town and exhibited it to a large crowd of the curious, few of whom had even seen a larger fish.

Since the last rise in the Wichita fishing is said to be excellent and numerous good catches are reported.

SUBSTANTIAL RAIN IN WICHITA COUNTY

NEARLY TWO INCHES OF PRECIPITATION LAST NIGHT—SENE FIT TO CROPS MATERIAL.

IN TIME TO SAVE CORN

This is Helped Save in Northern Part of County, Where Wet Weather is Too Late.

Covering Wichita county like a blanket and touching other points with varying density, nearly two inches of rain fell last night, beginning about 7:30 and continuing for about an hour and a half. As a result the ground is thoroughly soaked, tanks are filled and the benefit to crops is substantial.

The rain in this county was the heaviest that fell, so far as reports show. Reports from other places in this part of the State are:

Childress—Very light.
Chillicothe—Fair.
Vernon—Fair.
Haskell—Heavy.
Decatur and points south—None.
Byers—Light.
Seymour—Heavy.
Quanah—Fair.
Iowa Park—Heavy.
Electra—Heavy.
Archer City—Light.
Olney—Light.
Holiday—Heavy.
Petrolia—Very light.

The storm was preceded by very black skies and a heavy dust storm that sent the population to the storm cellars with a cheerful and enthusiastic unanimity. A high wind accompanied the dust storm and the rain, together with a striking electrical display. The dust made it impossible for anyone to be abroad in the residence districts and the rain came as a welcome relief. It is believed that the rain came in time to save the corn crop in most places. The late corn, however, in many places has suffered too long and rain came a week too late to benefit it. There are still prospects of an average corn crop in this county. Cotton is, of course, benefited. In general, it is thought this staple will be materially helped, and there is rejoicing everywhere over the breaking of the dry spell.

WICHITA MAN SELECTED.

J. B. Kiel of This City Chosen Principal at Memphis.

The school board held a meeting Monday night and elected Prof. O. B. Kiel of Wichita Falls to the position of principal of the high school for the coming term. He is a graduate of the Denton normal and has had several years successful experience as a teacher. He comes among us highly recommended. He is a single man and is one of the best families in Wichita county.—Hall County Herald.

DENIAL BY HODGES.

Says He Never Made Any Charges of Bribery.

Texas News Service Special. Houston, Tex., July 17.—The ex-chaplain of the State penitentiary, Jake Hodges, whom Superintendent Herding of the State prison yesterday testified had made charges of bribery against penitentiary officials, today stated that he knew nothing of such charges. Hodges says he has not knowingly charged any official with bribery nor was any attempt to bribe him ever made.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE.

Grecian Province of Elis Suffers Additional Shocks.

By Associated Press. Athens, July 17.—Further earthquake shocks in the province of Elis were felt today, two being killed and fifty injured in the province of Nopasti, where molten lava is flowing from a fissure in the ground. Practically all the houses were destroyed. At Damiza four were killed and two injured.

YOUNG WICHITA MAN IS HEIR TO ESTATE

LEGAL COMPLICATIONS IN WAY OF LEE SUBLETTE HAVE BEEN PRACTICALLY CLEARED.

HE HAS BEEN NOTIFIED

His Father Will Receive One-Tenth of Fortune Valued at About Ten Million Dollars.

If there are no legal barriers in his path, Lee Sublette of this city, driver of an oil wagon, will soon become heir to a very substantial fortune left by a relative in St. Louis. This relative died some time ago and about three months ago Sublette learned that his father had been willed one-tenth of the estate, which is valued at about ten millions.

The will was contested, however, and legal complications which arose made it doubtful if the Wichita Falls man would be as fortunate as it at first appeared. Recently, he received notification that the suit had been compromised and that his father would receive his share of the estate. Sublette is, of course, elated at his good fortune, but is not disposed to indulge in any premature celebration over it. It is understood that none of the prospective heirs are now in very prosperous circumstances and that the fortune will be very welcome to them. There are ten children, brothers and sisters of Sublette's father, among whom the fortune is to be shared.

NO ANSWER RECEIVED.

Bringing of Soldiers Here is Yet Undecided.

No answer has been received yet to the letter sent the officers at Fort Hill, requesting them to make this city the scene of a short encampment on their way to Dallas. It is believed that it was necessary to take the matter up with the department a Washington before agreeing to stop at this city and as soon as the Fort Hill officers have time to hear from the department, a favorable reply to the invitation is expected.

Dome of New Methodist Tabernacle is Rising.

Work seems to be progressing steadily on the construction of the new Methodist tabernacle at Seventh and Lamar Streets. The framework for the dome which will ornament the structure, has been put and the exterior work on the church will be completed within a week or two more.

TRAIN COLLIDES WITH AUTO.

Fatal Accident Today in New York City.

By Associated Press. New York, July 17.—One man is killed and another so badly injured that he may die, as the result of a collision between a Long Island train and an automobile. Edward Hurley died of a broken neck. Allen Ferry sustained a concussion of the brain and Archie Tappan is internally injured.

TARIFF MATTER GROWS MUCH MORE COMPLEX

Texas News Service Special. Washington, D. C., July 17.—Senator Warren of Wyoming is organizing the fight for a duty on hides in opposition to Taft's demand that they be placed on the free list and it is understood the Texas senators will join them unless there is a corresponding reduction in the duties on manufactured leather products. It is predicted that the same kind of a fight will be made as twelve years ago when the house voted hides free and the senate put on the duty.

Taft's tariff declaration will probably have the effect of keeping cotton bagging on the free list. Senators Bailey and Culberson are fighting to retain free cotton bagging, while house conferees want a duty. The western delegations are aroused to that point where they will defend the tariff bill as a whole if free hides are provided for. The president's attitude is being much discussed.

The conferees on the tariff bill have agreed upon a reduction of five per cent in the Dingley rates on women's and children's dress goods made of cotton warps.

ALLEGED NIGHT RIDER HAS BEEN CONVICTED

By Associated Press. Clarksville, Tenn., July 17.—Marcellus Rhinehart was today found guilty of murder in the first degree and James Davis and Jeff and Will Nicholson were acquitted. The charges were made in connection with the death of Rufe Hunter, who was killed last June. The trial attracted a great deal of attention on account of the night rider features.

A Final Word.

Editor Times:—I was glad to see Mr. Huff's graceful acknowledgement that other gentlemen present at the citizens' mass meeting understood what occurred in an entirely different way from that contended for by the Times. We have a splendid city government, who spend the people's money judiciously and well, and we all want good schools, therefore I am willing to place not less than a two-thirds valuation on property for city and school taxes, because the city and schools need the money. Street improvements and good schools are essential if we want to keep in the fore front as a wide awake and progressive city. Very truly, W. J. BULLOCK.

GAINEVILLE FARMER IN LIMBO.

Is Alleged to Have Uttered Forged Check Recently.

Texas News Service Special. Gainesville, Tex., July 17.—Bob Turham, a young farmer residing near Hood, was jailed here last night charged with forgery. He is alleged to have uttered a bad check upon M. M. Mahee, a prominent farmer.

TAXABLE VALUES TOTAL $10,893,495

ASSESSMENTS FOR THIS YEAR SHOW ELEVEN PER CENT INCREASE OVER 1908.

THIS GAIN IS NATURAL

Is Figured On Increase in Population of the County—To Fix Tax Rate Shortly.

Wichita taxable values, 1909 $10,893,495 00
Wichita taxable values, 1908 9,782,000 00
Increase $ 1,111,495 00
Per cent of increase 11.36

County Tax Assessor Bullock this morning completed his preliminary work on the tax rolls for 1909, arriving at the above total, which is approximately correct. He forwarded the figures to Comptroller Stephens at Austin without delay.

Until the work on the county tax rolls is completed the details of the valuations will not be available and it is not known how much of the totals is represented by real estate and how much by personal property. Neither is it known how much of the total valuations is represented by city property.

This increase, of course, does not begin to compare with that of 1908 over 1907, when the county's gain was over a hundred per cent. The 11 per cent increase is natural. As concrete evidence of this fact, it is stated that the list of resident property owners in 1908 took up eighty-two pages in the tax rolls. This year it takes up one hundred and two pages, showing that the population of the county at large is keeping pace with the increase in Wichita Falls.

The county commissioners will fix the 1909 tax rate at their next meeting, the second Monday in August. A slight increase in the rate is expected.

IN THE WOODS.

I turn from life's familiar ways. To tread the forest paths again, The friendly silence of the woods Seem wiser than the speech of men.

In language I have learned to hear There comes a message on each breeze, How could I feel myself alone With the companionable trees?

And as two hearts in unison Can hear a thought—though unexpressed, So I, akin unto the woods, Find speechless sympathy is best.

How foolish seems our wisdom here! How small the trivial thing that grieves! Who would not cast his care away Who hears the laughing of the leaves?

And miracles by myriads To eyes anointed to behold Each little beech leaf that the frost Has touched and turned to palest gold.

IN MANHATTAN TOWN.

Stray Topics From Little Old New York This Week.

New York, July 17.—If the woman provided it is a woman—who conducts and manages the publicity department of the New York suffragettes during their present campaign should ever lose her job, she would have no difficulty in obtaining a higher-salaried position at any of the theaters. As a press agent she would be worth a fortune. She has shown the most remarkable ingenuity in inventing new methods of advertising the cause of the suffragettes and has been instrumental in gaining for the feminine aspirants for political equality more notoriety than they probably bargained for when they employed her.

One day the suffragettes descended in a large swarm upon the lower business part of the city and invaded the haunts of J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller and others of that ilk, trying to sell the brokers, bankers and other business men in those financial precincts suffragette campaign literature and suffragette buttons. In less time than it takes to read this the suffragette campaigners were surrounded by a mob of several thousand of "those horrid men," who dropped stock deals and everything else to cheer or jeer the be-buttoned women, who made such a brave display of themselves for the sake of their "cause."

On the following day a few of the bravest of the suffragettes, among them a few married women, hired a hand organ from an Italian and ground out doleful tunes in the City Hall Park and its immediate vicinity. The financial result in both cases were not particularly encouraging. There are hundreds of women among the suffragettes who could have donated to the cause ten times as much as was collected by the sale of literature and buttons and by the organ grinders, without impoverishing themselves; but the "cause" would in that case missed a great deal of notoriety and that seems to be the principal aim of the managers of the suffrage campaign.

The citizens not owning automobiles—and strange to say, they are still in the majority in New York, are fast becoming more disgusted with the disregard which the proud possessors of autos display not only for the rights of others, but for the laws which are supposed to apply to rich as well as poor. There was a time when the automobilists violating the speed laws condescended to slow down and stop when called upon to do so by officers of the law. But they have outgrown that habit and it has come to the point that speeding autoists simply laugh at the efforts of the policemen to stop their mad rush and do not even pay the slightest attention to pistol shots fired by the officers, knowing quite well that the officers fire to scare and not to hit.

It seems the fate of poets to make enemies. Every class of poets seems to have its own peculiar class of enemies. So the gentle writer of spring poems has his inveterate enemy in the prosaic editor, the dramatic poet in the theater syndicate, etc. There are many cases on record where poets were driven to emigration by the machinations of their born enemies and just lately a case has come to public notice, in which a long suffering poet, at last driven to seek a more congenial environment in another country was followed across the ocean by the relentless animosity of his persecutors.

The other day a genuine, dyed-in-the-wool poet, with long hair and dirty shirt and a name long and unpronounceable, arrived in New York, hoping to find a congenial job as court poet at the White House or something like that. But he had not reckoned with his enemies. The latter, who, according to one version are merely disgruntled compatriots of the poet in question, according to another version members of the American Poets' Union, lodged information against the long-haired poet and he was rudely held up at Ellis Island under the suspicion of being an "undesirable." Fortunately, however, he was able to prove that the charges against him were untrue and he was admitted.

Like all great cities, New York offers a vast field for study to alienists. Crime in every form seems to thrive here and some of the cases are of quite unusual interest to students of criminology. During the last few days the newspapers have recorded an exceptionally large number of such cases. Of peculiar interest is the case of the art dealer, hitherto unsuspected of wrong-doing, who confessed to the police authorities a long list of crimes which he had committed in the past and which included arson, fraud and other malefactions. Another positively revolting case is that of the young man who killed his own father, beating him to death with an iron bar and breaking the skull and every rib in the old man's body.

At the lower end of Lenox avenue there is a line of street car tracks for which no owner can be found. It does not connect with any other line and even the oldest inhabitant cannot remember that any street car ever ran over that route. The pavement of the street was often repaired during the course of years and every time the city carefully had the tracks replaced. It is not even known when and by whom the track was originally laid. The Metropolitan Street Railway Company has repudiated every responsibility for this apparently ownerless line and the city will probably remove the tracks in the near future.

A young house painter, unable to make a living for himself, his wife and three small children, advertised in the papers recently that he would sell his youngest child, a strong and healthy baby boy, for $500, so as to be able to buy food and clothes for the rest of his family. When interviewed by the reporters he told a pathetic story of hard luck, the details of which were duly published in the daily papers. According to the latest reports the poor man has not yet found a purchaser for his baby boy and there seems every reason to believe that he will be spared the necessity to sell his own flesh and blood to provide food for his wife and other children. There are scores of charitable organizations in the city, but notwithstanding that fact, cases like the one just mentioned are by no means uncommon. In those cases the victims of circumstances are invariably worthy, but too proud to appeal to charitable organizations for the much-needed relief.

ONLY EIGHTEEN WIVES.

Confessed California Bigamist Calls
Roll of Those He Wed.

San Francisco, July 17.—Christian C. Johnson, sentenced yesterday at San Jose to serve seven years in the penitentiary for bigamy, is reported to have confessed that he is John Madson, wanted in many parts of the country for illegal marriages and systematic swindling of women under promise of marriage.

Johnson's alleged confession, which is printed today, in a local newspaper, is so full of inconsistencies and so at variance with statements he has made since his arrival in this city last week, that the police authorities are not inclined to give it credence.

In this "confession" Johnson is quoted as saying, "I quit my business of buying horses, and from that day to this I have been making my living by marrying and making love to women, getting their money and then deserting them."

One of the most amazing stories is told of his making love to ten women at one time, in Portland, Ore. While he admits that he got money from most of his wives and his marriages were part of a get-rich-quick system, Johnson is quoted as saying that in every instance he spent the money he received on the woman herself. "They kept me broke all the time," is the way he expresses it.

Bought Army Horses.
Johnson was born in Germany and coming to this country in the '70s, got a position with the United States Government buying horses for the army on commission. This took him all over the country. At first he says, he was a woman hater because he had been separated from a sweetheart in Germany, who died later.

He married the first of his many wives, it is stated, in Springfield, Mass., in 1905. She was Mrs. Mary Brown.

"I married one woman under the name of John Madson," Johnson is said to have stated. "Her name was Jones, if I remember right, Edna Jones. I got $1800 from her because she said she loved me. I could have got $50,000."

Calls the Roll.

Eighteen of the women whom Johnson married, according to the confession, were:

Mrs. Catherine Hoen, San Diego, Cal.; Mrs. Josephine Trethway, Stockton, Cal.; Mrs. Sylvia Pollard Debonnet, San Francisco; Mrs. Henrietta Leopold, San Francisco; Eliza Jones, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Brown, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Francis Hepburn, Oakland, Cal.; Miss Minnie Cather, San Francisco; Mrs. Josephine Henninger, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Birdie King, Hot Springs, Ark.; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Jackson, Iola, Kan.; Mrs. Mary Frick, East St. Louis, Ill.; "Catherine," Hospital nurse, St. Louis; Mrs. Alice Richardson, St. Louis; Mrs. Catalina Baughman, St. Louis; Mrs. Minnie Allen, St. Louis; Mrs. Betha King, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. DeLoem, Portland, Ore.

From most of these women Johnson is represented as saying he obtained money or jewelry or both.

In Memoriam.

On Tuesday, July 6th, at 12:20 o'clock, a. m., the silent reaper who gathers the sheaves and plucks the flowers from the field of friendship and brotherly love, took from our midst the soul of our beloved brother, J. H. McCauley and placed it in the Supreme Grand Lodge above, where peace and harmony forever prevail.

Brother J. H. McCauley was born March 27, 1839, in North Carolina, his family moving to Texas in 1848. He located in Wichita county, Texas, in 1884. He served in the Confederate army throughout the Civil War with distinction to himself and credit to the cause dear to his heart. He was made a Mason while serving as a soldier in the army, and at the organization of Wichita Falls Lodge No. 635 A. F. & A. M., in 1885, he was one of the fourteen charter members, of whom there are now but three living.

It is proper that this lodge should endeavor to show the high respect, honor, and love, in which our deceased brother was held, therefore be it

Resolved, That Wichita Falls Lodge No. 635 A. F. & A. M. has lost in the death of J. H. McCauley an exemplary brother of sterling worth who appropriated the teachings of Masonry to his life; the community a citizen of high character, and his surviving comrades a true friend. We bow in humble submission and exclaim "The will of God is accomplished, so mote it be, Amen."

Be it further
Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy to members of the bereaved family.

We recommend that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the lodge, a copy handed the local paper for publication and a copy furnished the family of the deceased brother.

Fraternally submitted.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity
—Tonight and Sunday, generally fair.

GIVING OUT THE NEWS.

Perhaps a hundred years later there will still be a few people on this sublimity sphere impressed with the provincial idea that they should withhold the news and interviews with the newspapers. Oklahoma City has a few of them, and they are to be found everywhere that newspapers are published.

Sometimes the reticence is due to the individual's inflated notion of his own importance. In other instances it is due to a mistaken impression that newspaper men are constantly looking for a chance to make trouble. Their representatives are not infrequently denied absolutely legitimate information on the latter ground. Sometimes it is politicians, sometimes public officials, sometimes hospital authorities and sometimes public service corporations who refuse to give out news.

As a usual thing, however, the greater office a man holds, the more courteous he is in such matters and the less does he entertain the notion that he is the focal point of all human interest. This is probably because of two things—he is naturally a man of superior brains to hold his place, but, more than that, if he is at all well posted on matters of policy, he knows that it is for his interest to do so. This view is founded on the simple fact that it is for the good of the concern or the interest he represents to have all happenings connected with it, and all matters affecting it, as well as its attitude, correctly given. He knows that the press will have some story on it. If it cannot get the facts from him it will go to some other source, which may be bitterly antagonistic. Publicity therefore becomes a plain matter of business with him.

The man, the firm, or the corporation that refuses to give out news is making a great mistake so far as it is itself concerned.—Oklahoman.

A German writer says that no self-respecting man would commit suicide with gas or a gun, but that poison is the only genteel method of shuffling off. Information received and placed on file.—Wichita Times.
Information received here and thrown in the waste basket.—Star-Telegram.

Quannah reports new railroad shops, two new business buildings, a new church and other new structures going up. Amaralillo is making about a million dollars worth of improvements and Wichita Falls nearly as much. Come to Northwest Texas.

The Abilene News comments on Wichita's wickedness, saying there are nineteen saloons here. Let Abilene and intermediate points cut out their jug trade and we can do with less.

Wichita seems to be behind the times. She hasn't got a candidate for governor to advertise her. Hopkins county with Williams in 1908 and Thomas in 1909 seems to be peculiarly blessed, with Cyclone Davis in the background as a reserve.—Wichita Times.

Wichita county will not be behind when the time comes to name "sure enough" representative men for these offices of State. No, nor will Wilbarger county, either. Chips from the Williams or the Thomas block might multiply indefinitely in old Hopkins county and still her statesmen be almost as "scarce as hen's teeth." Therefore, let us not despair, for we can look about us and see gubernatorial timber in the Panhandle not yet exploited, brainy, self-reliant men, wise in statecraft, and worthy sons of Texas whether they offer themselves for governorships or not.—Vernon Record.

The Times is in receipt of a copy of a special industrial edition of the Center Daily News, which is filled with descriptive news matter setting forth the wonderful resources of that particular section of the State. The most interesting matter to us, however, is an advertisement which appears in the paper setting forth the good qualities of a Wichita Falls product. We refer to the ad of the Wichita Mill and Elevator Company of this city, a part of which reads as follows: "This mill has shipped into Center during the past twelve months 3,285 barrels of flour, which is sufficient evidence of the popularity of its products." This 3,285 barrels represents about 90 per cent of all the flour used in that thriving East Texas town for a whole twelve months.

"Consider this colossal joke," says the Saturday Evening Post. "The people of the United States are actually paying wages to the majority of the Senate for framing a new tariff bill." Too tragic to be a joke.—Wichita Falls Times.

It is both tragic and colossal, but it isn't a joke. A joke is something to laugh at, but an American citizen who loves his country and despises its despoilers can find nothing in the grim record of this congress to even smile at. As a people we are paying men to oppress us and serve our oppressors; we are giving salaries to pinch-neck statesmen to deliver us into the hands of those who coin dividends for themselves out of the sweat of our faces.—Dallas News.

There are two enemies, to Vernon's progress, one is this same conflict of interest in our midst; our town is divided up into financial cliques, all interested in furthering their individual ends and seem to be utterly dead to the general welfare of the community. Another is this—our citizens who are financially able to do something for the town, and by doing so benefit themselves, are pursuing a strictly selfish course. We would like to point these men to four or five public-spirited citizens of Wichita Falls, who have grown wealthy by building railroads, putting in factories and mills, and at the same time have made public benefactors of themselves.—Vernon Record.

The Wichita Way is the only way.

Judge Wilcox of Travis county says it will take three months to make the Waters Pierce inventory; Eckhardt says it will take ten months. There's a reason.—Wichita Times.

Eckhardt draws $1,000 a month, and his bank handles the funds of the receivership. As a matter of fact a list of all the assets of the company is on file in the receiver's office now, and only a few days are necessary to get a report from the agents of the "stock on hand," and the inventory will be as complete as it will be at the end of ten months. Yes, there's a reason, and the people know what it is.—Fort Worth Record.

A South Texas physician fell into a well recently. The accident was unfortunate in that it gives every paper in the country an opportunity to spring that old gag that a doctor ought to attend the sick and let the well alone.

A St. Louis man is going to court to establish his wife's right to have children. A baby was born to the couple in a "no-children" flat and the father refuses to leave, threatening to take the matter into the courts.

In spite of the fact that he is a Socialist and an ex-hobo, Jack London thinks Wichita Falls is a good town, and there are some thousands, who are neither Socialists or hoboes who will agree with him.

Every time a town decides it wants to build railroads into its territory, it shouts, "Look at what Wichita Falls did." The Wichita Way is the only way.

"A Peruna jag is no slouch," says the Childress Index. We will have to take their word for it.

We hope when Diaz meets Taft, he will not say "Is it hot enough for you?"

Sunshine and clear weather are all right, but, oh, you rain.

DROPPED THE "TUB."

And Like a Good Girl Pronounced the Word Correctly.

W. S. Gilbert contributed an amusing article on "Actors and Authors" to a program of the London Drury Lane theater. The following extract will be read with appreciation:

The author's greatest difficulty lies in the necessity of directing an actor's attention to an obvious mispronunciation—a feat that must be achieved without humiliating the actor in the presence of his professional brethren.

Many years ago I was engaged in rehearsing a burlesque, and a very clever young lady had to sing the couplet:

Indubitably if you do
It will be the worse for you.

The cleverer young lady, whose pronunciation was not always beyond reproach, delivered the lines thus:

Indubitably if you do
It will be the worse for you.

This, of course, would not do, so I determined to alter the word to "inevitably." The young lady agreed that the alteration greatly improved the verse, but she was not to be deprived of her "tub," so she sang it:

Inevitably if you do
It will be the worse for you.

This was just as bad, so I made it "unquestionably," and, of course, it came out:

Unquestionably if you do
It will be the worse for you.

I could think of no other word that would answer the purpose, so, as a last resource, I said to her:

"Do you think it advisable to give the word its French accent?"

"How do you mean?"

"Why, 'unquestionably'—that's the way it is pronounced in Paris. In addressing an English audience perhaps the simple English version of the word would be better. Try it, at all events, 'unquestionably,' 'a' instead of 'u.' 'Unquestionably' would be all very well for the stalls, but the gallery wouldn't understand it."

"Of course," she said, "the English accent would certainly be more appropriate."

And she sang it "unquestionably" like the good girl that she was.—Argonaut.

A TUSK HUNTER'S ESCAPE.

So Close a Call the Native Really Thought Himself Dead.

Hunting elephants for their tusks involves courage, patience and infinite cunning. Frequently the hunter becomes the hunted, and the tables may be turned fatally. A writer in McClure's Magazine tells of an escape, vouched for by "an Indian dealer who never lied about anything and who claims to have seen this deliverance exactly as he reported it."

Some natives were hunting elephants in the neighborhood of Lake Rudolph, and he was with them for the purpose of trading cotton cloth for ivory. Elephants like old bunch grass that has become dry like hay, and a herd of them, attracted by "dry grazing," as it is called, came suddenly within an eighth of a mile of the camp.

One native named Juma, from the coast, an unskilled hunter, observing that the wind was in such a direction that it blew news of the herd to him rather than blowing his whereabouts to the knowledge of the herd, ran out in the open with his rifle and aimed at short range at a powerful creature which was watering a straggling shrub with water he had taken in his trunk from the pond.

Once hit, the elephant was correspondingly furious and rushed at Juma after a deliberate scrutiny of the immediate foreground to discover his whereabouts. Having determined where his assailant stood, he tore along, crazy with rage, toward the shaking savage.

Juma, with an oriental's instinct of prostration before such an overwhelming force, merely threw himself flat upon the ground.

The elephant rushed completely over him, but by accident left him safe, although choked and blinded with the disturbed and sandy soil. The great feet cleared him, and the tusks missed him.

Almost twenty-four hours passed before Juma dared believe himself alive and sound, and for the first twelve hours after the excitement he spoke of himself only in the past tense, as of one dead.

The Clothesline Test.

"Let me see her clothes on the line," said an old-fashioned woman recently, "and I can tell if she is a good housekeeper." The test lies in the way the garments are hung. If the shirts are scattered around promiscuously, the woman lets garbage stand on her kitchen table overnight. The shirts, like we men, should always hang together, shoulder to shoulder, and everything of its kind should hang in a row.—Achtson Globe.

Not Desired.

Having at enormous pains got her length, breadth and thickness about right, the woman heaved a sigh of relief. "No fourth dimension in mine, if you please!" she exclaimed with unmistakable feeling.

Some aver that the feminine mind is not attracted by metaphysics anyway.—Exchange.

Out in the Rain.

It is particularly aggravating when you get caught in the rain with your new hat to see by the official weather report that the precipitation was only six one-hundredths of an inch.—Ohio State Journal.

Idleness makes such slow progress that misery easily catches it at the first turning of the roadway.

DRUG DREAMS.

Queer Visions Conjured Up in the Brains of Daring Experimenters.

An experimenter with the Mexican drug mescal is rewarded by many and varied visions. Before him flit myriads of dainty butterfly forms, glistening, iridescent, fibrous wings of insects, revolving vessels on whose highly polished concave surface of mother-of-pearl many strange and vivid hues play. There are elaborate sweet meats in endless and appetizing variety and living arabesques of gorgeous hues and superhuman design.

He may take up a pen for the purpose of making notes, but will find himself unable to use it. A pencil, however, proves easy of manipulation. As he writes his paper is covered with a soft golden light, and his hands, seen indirectly, appear bronzed, scaled, fantastically pigmented and flushed with red.

Tiring of the visions, he may light the gas, which immediately fills the room with a glorious radiance, while wonderfully colored shadows of red green and violet flit here and there. Generally, it is said, no feeling of depression or physical discomfort follows the dream.

A medical experimenter in Kentucky soon after taking a large dose of hashish began to feel very excited; a feeling of inner joyousness possessed him; all fatigue seemed banished forever, and his mind ran riot, one bizarre idea after another rapidly passing through his mind. Later his brain appeared to split in two parts, one of which urged him to the performance of comic gestures, while the other as insistently hinted at impending death and suggested restraint and instant medical advice.

While waiting for a doctor he experienced alternate spells of lucidity and periods when all connections between himself and the outside world seemed to be severed, when a chaos of disjointed ideas and wild reveries obsessed him. The duration of these latter periods was never longer than two minutes, but each seemed an eternity. It appeared a hopeless task to follow the minute hand of his watch during its infinite round; long before the sixty seconds had elapsed he gave up the stupendous task in deep despair. The departure of the doctor synchronized with the return of the feeling of impending death, now most horribly intense.

He imagined himself surrounded by grotesque, menacing, cruel visaged monsters. He felt himself expanding, dilating, dissolving into space, as he ascended steep precipices, covered with Brobdignagian creatures somewhat like lizards, overhanging enormous abysses, the while he was overwhelmed by a horrible, rending, unutterable despair.—Detroit News-Tribune.

MAKING GOLD LEAF.

The Metal is Beaten For Hours by Men, Then Finished by Girls.

In one of the downtown business streets may be seen sticking from one of the upper windows a massive arm and hand, the hand grasping a huge hammer and the whole sign gilded. It is the sign of the gold beaters' establishment, where thousands of the gold sheets are turned out after having been packed by girls.

Gold leaf is packed more by the aid of the breath than by the hands. The operation of transferring a sheet of almost transparent gold leaf from one place to another is so delicate that it is possible to do it only by a light puff of the breath. It takes most girls six weeks to acquire this knack, and some girls are never able to acquire it.

The gold reaches the beaters first in wide bars or nuggets and has to be weighed, melted and made into inch wide ribbons before anything else is done. The ribbon is then cut into inch squares and beaten with a hammer wielded by a man. When each leaf has been beaten thin it is transferred to a mold, where it is beaten four hours more. The beating is done with a wooden hammer weighing from seven to eighteen pounds, on a sheepskin cushion, which rests on a granite block. The gold used for beating is usually 22 or 23 carats fine. A little alloy of copper or silver is added to make it spread. It would be impossible, the beaters say, to handle perfectly pure gold.

After the gold has been beaten it is handed over to the girls, who lift the unshaped leaf from the mold with a pair of wooden pinchers, flatten it out on a sheepskin cushion by gently blowing on it, cut it to a perfect square, replace it between the leaves of the book and flatten it out with the breath.

There are twenty-five leaves in a book, and a skilled girl can pack seventy books in a day, for which she gets from 2 1/2 to 3 cents a book.—New York Times.

There's Nothing Mysterious About It. Some people have wondered why it is that we do the bulk of the lumber business, not only here in town, but for miles around. Surely there is nothing mysterious about it, nothing to wonder at. The quality and assortment of our stock is reason enough for that, even were our prices not a slow, or lower, than can be obtained elsewhere hereabouts. If you are not a customer of ours, just give us a trial next time you want anything in lumber or building material. No matter what nor how much of it, see our stock and get our prices. He Got the Shirt.
 We ain't worried none ingenually about what people thinks of us an' we don't usually take up none of our time in explainin' nothin' we didn't do; th' duck that's a-goin' anywhere in this here world don't want to explain nothin' to nobody. But it has had runnin' off of the motuf that our trouble with th' chink laundryman started from our trying to convert him to Christianity an' we are anxious ter explain that quite th' opposite is th' case; we told him where we would like to see him go to, an' it wasn't heaven. All of this talk o' runnin' us fer mayor o' Alkali because what we done is all rot, an' worse than rot. The city o' Alkali don't owe us nothin' or if it does owe us anything it don't owe us no nomination which would compel us to git out an' hustle an' buy votes an' drinks. If it thinks it owes us anything why don't it send us a jug or buy us a few good old snifters o' aquafortis or somethin'. We had a shirt at th' laundry an' we strolled around there to git it, an' th' chink wouldn't give it to us without we crossed his pam with silver as th' sayin' is, an' we didn't have no silver an' we wouldn't've spent it in no such dry place as a laundry if we had, an' we tried ter explain that th' job was to be paid fer in subscription to th' Eye, but he called us somethin' that sounded like: "Hongkongyangtsiekang," and pulled our shirt away with one hand, whilst makin' a pass at our face with a hot flatiron that he held in th' other; so we went outside where some niggers was workin' an' loaded a shovel an'

went back; when we got in th' laundry th' chink and us fiddled fer position for a little while an' then he made a pass at us with his iron an' we ducked an' patted him in th' face with th' shovel; when we come away th' chink was layin' in a basket o' clothes with his face flatter'n a fried sig an' we brung his pigtail away as a souvenir, and that is all they was to the matter. The reason we wouldn't let him be lynched on suspicion o' bein' Leon Ling is that we hev knowed him fer years and so has all the ducks that wanted to lynch him. Ef they want to lynch a chink fer fun we air willin' to let 'em do it to help, but we say don't let's be no hypocrites.

Plays and Players.
 W. F. Canfield has been engaged by Brady and Gramer for A Gentleman from Mississippi.
 Leo Hayes has been engaged to play Mr. Newlywed in The Newlyweds and Their Baby.
 Fritz Williams and Katherine Florence (Mrs. Williams) have been engaged for Paid in Full. After the first of the new year Mr. Williams and Miss Florence are to be featured in a new play at the Astor Theater.
 The company to present Paid in Full, which is headed by Sara Perry and Louis Morrell, began rehearsals at the Astor Theatre on July 1.
 Robert S. Taber, recently with the Baker Stock Company, at Rochester, N. Y., has signed with Joseph Weber for the role of the young doctor, John Raymond, in one of The Climax companies, going on tour early in August.

Next Saturday night, July 10, The Girl from Rector's is to draw its long run at Weber's to a close, and the following Monday Mr. Weber will move The Climax from Daly's to his own theatre, where it had its premiere at special matinees this spring. This play is attracting more attention in New York City than any play produced in recent years.
 Helen Grayce, who is now at the head of her own company in stock at the Wieting Opera House, Syracuse, N. Y., has secured the right to present When Knighthood Was in Flower. This play will be one of those most extensively featured in the list of plays which Miss Grayce will present on the road next season. Her tour commences August 1. Willard Blackmore has been engaged as her leading man.
 The enforcing of an effect as of reality still is common in the representation of plays, evidently. A story comes from Sydney, Australia, where an Englishman's Home is playing. On the first performance at Sydney an enthusiastic patriot, seeing Brown in the play about to be shot for defending his house, tried to climb over the stage to rescue him. The man shouted out that he was a guardsman, and would not allow an Englishman to be shot by a 'furriner.' He got among members of the orchestra, but was seized and hauled back to the stalls. Finally he said he was going back to England, and would call on the author of the play, Major du Maurier and punch his head.
 All of the above plays will be seen at "The Wichita" during the coming season.

With Reservation.
 Here is the story of covenanted times in Scotland, of which an old laird of Galloway was the central figure:
 Learning that he was about to be raided by Claverhouse, whose dragoons were coming in search of him, the old laird effected his escape disguised as one of his own plowmen. As he was leaving the house he was stopped by the dragoons, who asked if the laird was at home.
 "Well," said the old covenanter, "he was there, when I was there."
 The dragoons went their way, and the old laird went his and lived to tell the truth another day.

His Mite of Sense.
 "Well, gentlemen," said Tompkins to a couple of his friends, "you can talk as much as you please about the inferiority of women, but there are lots of them that can discount most of us for brains. Take my wife, for instance. She's got twice as much sense as I have, and I ain't ashamed to acknowledge it, either."
 "But don't you think," said one of his auditors, "that you put rather a low estimate on your wife's intellectual powers?"—Liverpool Mercury.

More interesting.
 "At the last meeting of our club we were scheduled to discuss Henry VIII and his numerous divorces."
 "And didn't you?"
 "No; one of the members knew of an impending divorce right in our own set."—Kansas City Journal.

Do You Know?

That it Costs the Manufacturer of Roasted Coffees from 3 to 10c lb. to Market their Products

This includes advertising, salaries and expenses of salesmen, office and collection expenses, bad accounts, etc. Green coffees have a fixed market value, as cotton, corn, wheat, etc., and can be bought by everyone at the same price. That's one reason why we roast our coffees. Another one is that green coffees enhance in value with age, while the roasted product deteriorates. We are roasting a line of Rios, Santos, Pea-berries, Maracaibos, Bogotas, Kroe and Interior Old Government lavas and Arabian Mochas. These are all fine old coffees, the very best of the World's production and are roasted fresh all the while. We are roasting straight, and blend to suit all coffee tastes, we can suit yours. We care not what coffee you are using, we know we can give you a better value than you are getting. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." Give us at least a trial. Tell us what price you are paying, and the kind of coffee you like, and leave the rest to us—
