This column doesn't ever want to sound like a broken record, but something must be done about the weeds unless Dimmitt wants to become a haven for wolves, coyotes, bears, panthers and other wild animals that roam the countryside. Maybe we should not bother the weeds, but instead sell hunting permits. If the city would mow or shred the alleys, and other public areas, it is possible that private property owners would follow their example and again make Dimmitt the most beautiful summer resort town in the world. Our city motto should be, "Cut those darn weeds."

All of the details are not available to an interested observer out here in Middle America, and maybe we shouldn't even raise the question, but why in the world were the three astronauts left in that tight little gas-filled spaceship so long after the splashdown? Most people, when they suspect the presence of a dangerous element, such as gas or chemicals, head for the wide open spaces and a chance to breathe unpolluted air. Instead of throwing the hatch open and getting the astronauts out of that gas-filled cubicle, much time consuming preparations were made for the television appearance of the astronauts as they emerged from the innards of that little craft. If you watched the proceedings on television you probably noticed that the whole rescue operation was carried out by a pre-arranged format, which, of course, under normal circumstances would have been well and good. The circumstances fell considerably short of being normal inside that space craft, and until some other reason than a planned telecast is given for the delay in the astronauts' exit, unnecessary chances were taken with the three men's lives. They are still trying to survive the effects of the gas they breathed, and chances are they will never fully recover.

We like to report the opening of new businesses in Dimmitt. It's an indication of a healthy economic situation as well as being a potential advertising customer for this newspaper during the months and years ahead. It's our pleasure to announce the opening of the Tots & Teens store Monday in Ye Old Inn, at 109 NE Second Street. The new establishment will be owned and operated by Brenda Andrews and Martha Jo Hyman and will cater to the patronage of the small fry of the community.

Some of the busiest people in Dimmitt right now are strangers—newcomers who are looking for homes. If you don't want to get trampled, don't get caught in the door of a real-estate office at opening time.

County now third in state in feeder-stocker cattle

Castro County ranks third in Texas in both the number of cattle on feed and the number of calves on farms, according to State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

THE RANKINGS are based on totals reported as of Jan. 1, 1975.

Castro had 85,000 cattle on feed and 170,000 cattle and calves on farms as of Jan. 1.

Cattle on feed in the county represented 6.4 percent of the statewide total of 1,327,000 head, and helped to make Texas the leading state in the nation in numbers on feed as of the first of the year.

AT THE same time, the total number of cattle on feed in Texas as of Jan. 1 decreased some 878,000 from the 2.2 million on feed Jan. 1, 1974, according to statistics compiled by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Marketings of Castro County cattle and calves on feed for slaughter totaled 279,000 in 1974, of a statewide total of 3,899,000.

WITH 11 feedlots in the county with the ability to hold 1,000 or more head as of Jan. 1, Castro County's total capacity in these lots stood at 207,000 head. However, the number of feedlots has dropped to 10 since the survey.

A total of 1,200 feedlots were reported in Texas at the end of 1974, with all but 199 of them having a capacity of less than 1,000 head.

Final planning session Monday

Roundup countdown starts

"Every organization that plans to sponsor an activity or take part in the Roundup in any way needs to be represented at the final planning meeting Monday night," County Activities Committee Chairman Avery Thrasher said this week.

THE MEETING will begin at 8 p.m. in the courthouse community room (basement).

The final calendar will be drawn up and starting times for all events will be fixed at Monday night's session. Also, Activities Committee officers for the coming year will be elected, and plans for a county-wide Bicentennial celebration will be discussed.

It's "one down, two to go" on the county's big celebration weekends. The Nazareth German Folk Festival July 20 set new attendance records, and the schedule for Hart Days, Aug. 8-9, is complete. (For Hart Days schedule, see Page 12.)

ALL THAT remains to be done on the planning for Dimmitt's Roundup celebration Aug. 11-16 is the "tidying-up" session Monday night.

'Let's have big parade'

"We want to make this year's Roundup Parade next to the biggest and best for many years," Parade Chairman Elvon DeVaney said this week.

THE PARADE, directed by the Dimmitt Lions Club, will start at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 16 from the County Expo Center.

Theme of the parade will be "The Opening of the Prairie."

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded for first and second place in seven divisions—Youth Groups, Organizations, Commercial, Civic Clubs, Area Floats, Bicycles and Riding Clubs.

ALSO, A Best Dressed Cowboy and Cowgirl and a Best Dressed Little Britches Cowboy and Cowgirl will be chosen.

Others urged to participate in the parade are horseback riders, farm equipment dealers and owners of buggies, antique tractors and cars.

"Please call the Chamber of Commerce at 647-2524 and confirm your entry of a float," DeVaney urged.

DIMMITT'S NEWEST STORE, the Montgomery-Ward catalog sales agency, officially opened last Thursday morning when Sandra Ann Land of Clovis, granddaughter of owners Art and Lil Schreck, helped Mayor Elmer Youts cut the red ribbon at 9 a.m. Present at the formal ribbon cutting were (from left) Paul Tice, MW district manager; Frances Allen, district trainer; J.

E. Belden, district manager; employee Peggy Mosely; builder Jim Glasscock of Tulla; Sid Sheffy; Cynthia Easterwood of Hereford; Mrs. Schreck's great-niece; Mr. and Mrs. Schreck; Miss Land and Mayor Youts; Chamber of Commerce President Bob Caddell; and Chamber Directors Walt Hansen and Dale Fowler.

Ex-con admits local swindles

Sheriff Jack Cartwright reported this week that an ex-convict who turned himself in at Rusk has admitted he was one of the men who swindled an elderly Hart woman out of $1,851.50 in a check-altering scheme May 9.

OFFICERS at Rusk have identified the man as Bobby Lynn Dugan, a former convict who faces charges in several Texas counties.

Dugan and a companion allegedly swindled an 80-year-old Hereford man out of $6,250 the same day they swindled the Hart woman.

Posing as REA "inspectors," two men made "service calls" at both homes, then wrote out checks for the owners to sign. After leaving, they altered the checks and cashed them immediately at local banks. They altered the Hart woman's $150 check to $1,851.50 and the Hereford man's $250 check to $6,250.

THE CASTRO County Sheriff's Office has placed a hold on Dugan, as have several other law enforcement agencies across the state.

"As soon as our time comes, we'll get him back here to face trial," Cartwright said.

Sherman to speak to Rotary Friday

Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo, who recently was named one of Texas' "Ten Best" state legislators by Texas Monthly magazine, will speak at the Dimmitt Rotary Club meeting at noon Friday.

THE LUNCHEON meeting in the Colonial Inn dining room will be open to all interested persons on a Dutch-treat basis, according to Rotary President Bill Henderson.

Sen. Sherman, a lifetime resident of the Panhandle, represents District 31, which includes 26 counties. He is 11th in seniority in the Texas Senate.

He is currently serving as chairman of the Senate Natural Resources Committee, is vice-chairman of the Committee on the Texas Constitution, and is a member of the Finance and Jurisprudence committees.

THE 40-year-old state senator was elected Senate President Pro Tempore by his colleagues in 1973-74, the highest honor the senate can bestow on one of its members. He also served as Governor for a Day last year.

Sen. Sherman

An attorney, Sen. Sherman was a delegate to the 1974 Constitutional Convention and served as chairman of the convention's Style and Drafting Committee. His committee drew the basic draft of the proposed new state constitution on which Texans will vote this November.

Duplex housing plans look good

The first low-cost duplex homes may be ready for move-in by the first of the year, and some of the main customers may be elderly people.

BILL BEHREND'S, member of the committee that's working with state and federal agencies to build the multi-family homes here, told the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club Monday that local workers anticipate a long-term, low-interest loan of $180,000 to $190,000 from the Farmers' Home Administration to finance the project.

Options are being purchased on vacant property throughout the city, Behrends said, but a final decision on where to locate the new homes can't be made until the city zoning commission can rule on prospective sites.

"We may put them all together, or scatter them out, depending on whether the city will allow zoning easements," Behrends said. "Either way, I think the houses will be an asset to the community—I think they'll be attractive."

A CHAMBER of Commerce committee and the Castro County Housing Authority are working with FmHA, the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, and the Governor's Office for Community Development to build the new homes.

Each duplex will cost a maximum of $30,000 (excluding property) and will include two apartments with one to three bedrooms each, Behrends said. The homes will be brick veneer, probably with carports and patios.

KC's to serve steak Saturday

A boneless steak supper will be held in the Community Hall at Nazareth Saturday night by the Knights of Columbus.

ALL PROCEEDS will go to benefit the baseball park, which needs repair after serving the youth of Nazareth as well as two Irrigation Belt League teams during another busy season.

Serving will start at 6:30 p.m. and the price of the supper will be $3 per plate. The menu includes steak, baked potato, salad and homemade bread.

Friendly push ends in wreck

A pickup was almost demolished Monday afternoon when it ran off a county road north of Dimmitt while being pushed by a car.

THE MISHAP occurred at 5:40 p.m. on an unpaved road 10 1/2 miles north of town, 4 of a mile west of US 385.

Driver of the 1970 Chevrolet pickup, Guadalupe Cesares, 28, of Hereford, received bruised ribs but was otherwise unhurt, according to Highway Patrolman Elias Nava.

Nava said Cesares' pickup had stalled and was being pushed by a 1953 Chevrolet sedan driven by Ysaiaa Mendonza, 23, of Hereford. The vehicles' bumpers apparently locked together, causing Cesares to lose control. The pickup went into the ditch and overturned, causing heavy damage, Nava reported.

With a state goal of $300,000, Texas Democrats pledged more than $360,000 before the 22-hour telethon ended Sunday afternoon. Nationally, the drive fell short of its goal of $6 million, with some $4.6 million donated or pledged.

Rent will be based on the occupant family's ability to pay, with a minimum rent of $85 per month and a maximum of $250 per month for a family renting both apartments of a duplex home, Behrends said.

THE COUNTY Housing Authority will be the controlling owner at first, but the new homes may eventually be bought by their occupants.

"It isn't the intent of the Housing Authority or the Chamber of Commerce to retain ownership of these homes over a long period of time," Behrends told the Kiwanians. "Our ultimate goal is to find responsible families who can [See HOUSING, Page 14]"

Anti-hail campaign tops out

Enough donations have been pledged during the past two weeks to assure completion of this year's anti-hail program in the western half of Castro County.

DIRECTORS of Better Weather, Inc., voted Monday night to complete the six-month program, with cloud seeding to continue through Oct. 31.

"Sufficient funds are going to be available for the full six-month program," James Welch, president of Better Weather, Inc., reported. "We're within a few thousand dollars of reaching our goal of $167,000. We have some pledges to come in yet, and we still need a few more, but it appears that the program is assured for this year."

Welch said that many farmers who already had donated their full share of 50 cents per cultivated acre came through with second donations. He urged those farmers in the control area who have not donated to make up the remaining funds needed.

King, Sen. Hance appear on telethon

Castro County Democratic Chairman Carl King of Dimmitt and State Sen. Kent Hance of Lubbock were the only two North Texans appearing on the statewide telecast of the Democratic National Telethon over the weekend.

BOTH MEN worked in the state telethon headquarters in Dallas, accepting phoned-in pledges and receiving regional fund-total reports, and both were interviewed during the telethon as they worked at the call-in desks.

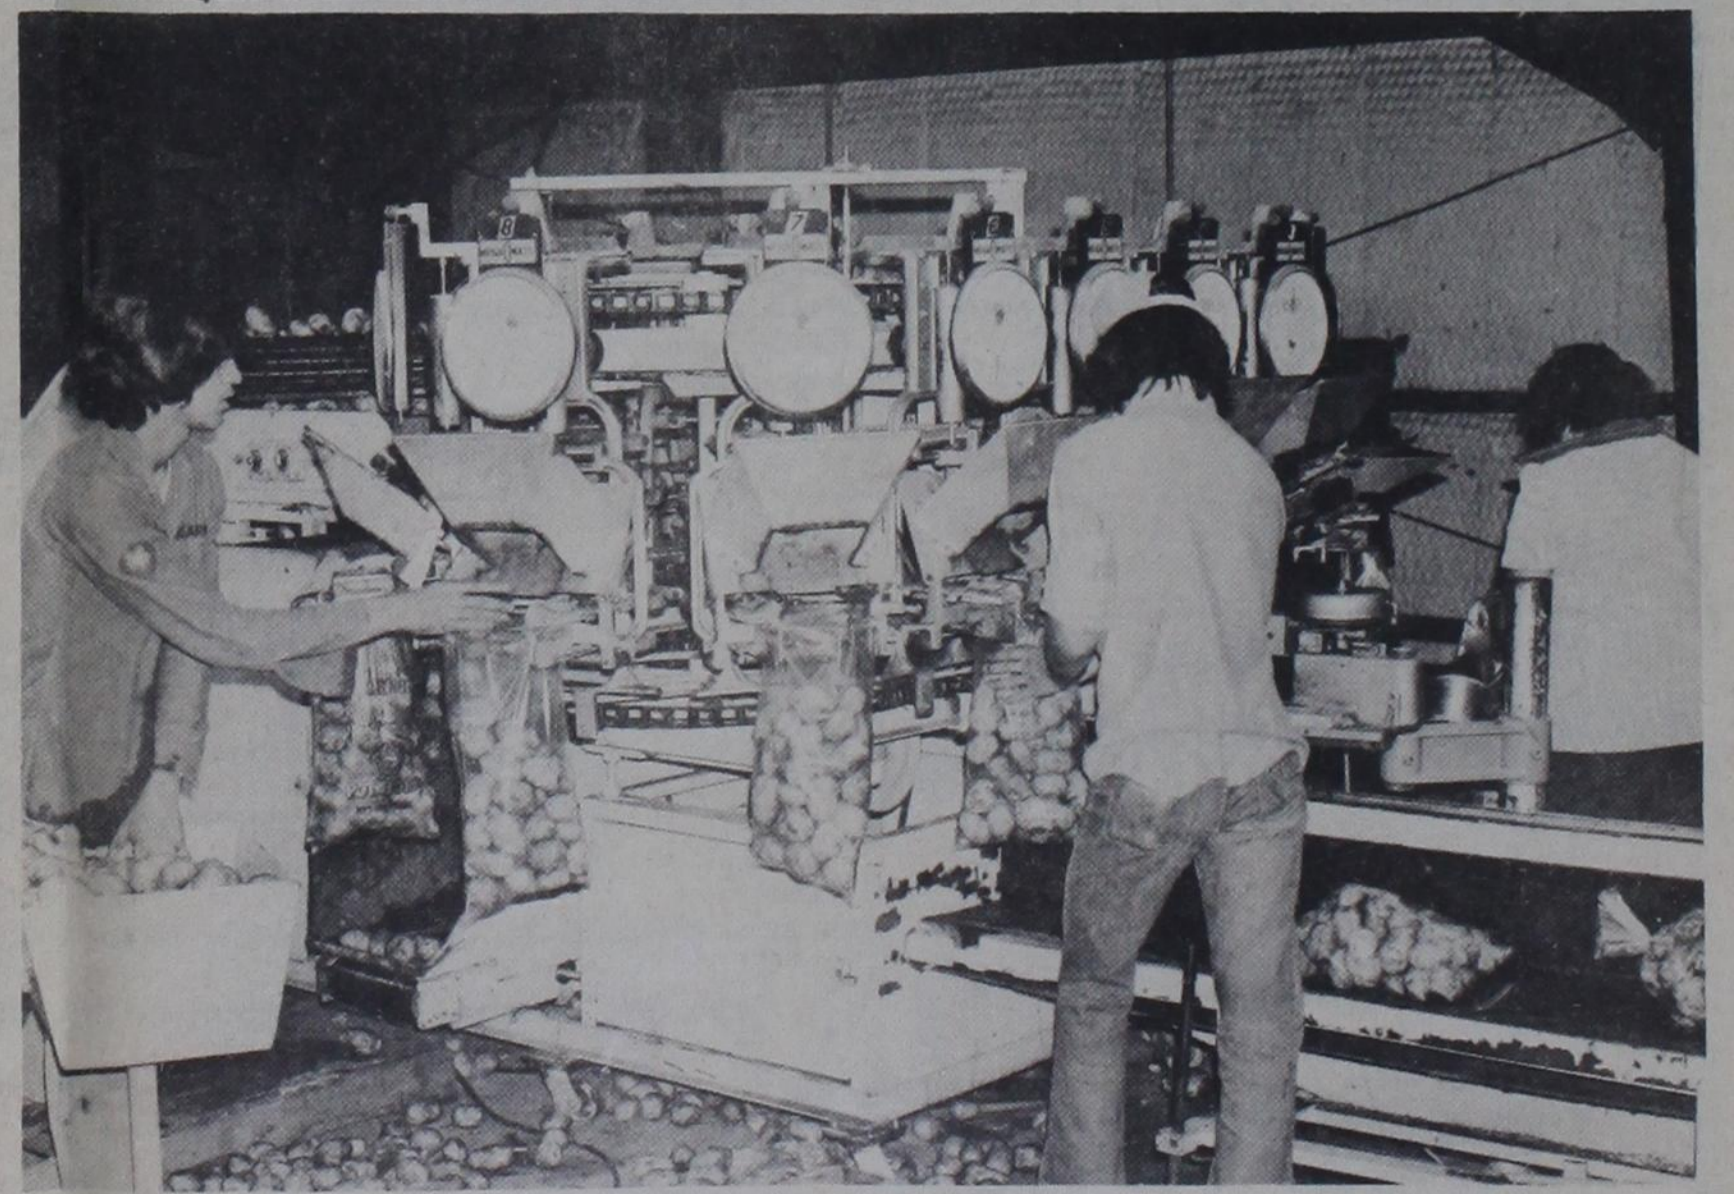

"Texas went well over its goal, but the rest of the country didn't do as well," King noted, after returning. "We were very proud of the way our state came through, but a little disappointed over the lack of response in some of the other states."

HERE THEY COME—Potato harvest is in full swing throughout the county, with tons of spuds being hauled daily to the Dimmitt Produce Co. plant. Here, graders for La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co. check the freshly dug washed potatoes coming in on the company's new grading machine.

AND THERE THEY GO—By rail and truck, Castro County potatoes are going to markets in all directions under the Sugar Sweet [No. 1] and Big D [No. 2] brand labels. Here, employees of La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co. work at the "Weigh-o-Matic" bagging machine to make sure the cello bags of No. 1 white potatoes receive full weight. These bags will go to supermarkets.

Ladies tour Hawaii, visit former Dimmitt resident

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Hawaii, "The Paradise Island," was the place these ladies went last week: Helen Richardson, Evie Froehner, Ruth Skinner, Koma Ratcliff and Marge Cleavinger made the trip by jet. They toured all four islands, saw Pearl Harbor, waded in the ocean, saw the hula dancers and ate the good food. Evie says they went so fast and so much, took the bus tours, made two boat cruises. They saw everything and had a good time. They called Dr. Joe Harrison who lives on Maui Island. He says he and his family are doing fine everyday. Dr. Joe is a former Dimmitt boy.

MRS. GEORGIE Henderson is the great grandmother of a new baby girl who belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Hussman. Mrs. H. is the daughter of Carl Henderson who lives in Kansas. They have another girl named Jennie. Hoyt works for Dan Nelson's pump company.

P. M. and Bernice Nelson of Victoria have been here visiting his brother B. M. and Viola. They stopped in Amherst to see her mother, then on to Lovington, N.M. to visit other kin.

Brenda Andrews and daughters Becky and Sonya are home from a three-week visiting and vacation trip to Florida, Alabama and Louisiana. They visited Brenda's sister in Pensacola, Fla. Many hours were spent on the whitest beaches in the world there. They toured the Naval Aviation Museum.

Pensacola is the birthplace of Naval aviation, also toured the aircraft carrier Lexington. That is a most beautiful city with magnolia and giant oak trees, covered with dripping Spanish moss, many pine trees too. The girls went to Disney World in Orlando, also saw acres and acres of orange trees. Stopped in Mobile, Ala., went out to the Bellingrath Gardens, most beautiful with a big river going through the estate south of the house.

On to New Orleans where they took the five-hour Mark Twain River Cruise down the Mississippi. They saw the Super Dome, too many other things to say. Now Brenda and Martha Jo Hyman are working hard on the children's store soon to be opened.

ORIN AND June Brock had a visiting trip to Fort Worth last week. They saw his sister and family and her brother Ray Belknap.

Eleanor Koehler of Fort Collins, Colo. was visiting all of her relatives in Dimmitt recently. She visited in the homes of Ethel Womack, Myrna Cowert, Pie Montgomery, John Womack and the Harold Stephens. Several of them went to see the musical drama "Texas" one night. Eleanor is executive secretary in the Dept. of Veterinary Medicine at Colorado State University.

Mrs. Charles Hottel, Mrs. Bill Snider, Mrs. Edd McLeroy and Mrs. George Bagley, all home economics teachers, are in Dallas this week attending a seminar for teachers. They will stay at the Statler Hilton. Several nice things are planned as well as the short course.

And Larry Gray and Mr. Stanley, a new teacher here, will go to Houston to attend the state agri teachers meeting. School will start in August. We must get acquainted with the new ones and old ones too.

YVONNE Wakefield and children Connie, Cindy and Steve spent a few days vacation at Tres Ritos, but had to come home to be with Yvonne's dad A. O. Mitchell who was sick in a hospital at Morton. The Mitchells will move to Dimmitt soon. Both are retired. They will attend church at Lee Street Baptist.

Mary Frances Davis of Sweetwater has been here for a couple of weeks visit with her sister Ceal and Horace Carlile and the ladies' nephew Jack Patton.

Lee Welch of California is dead. He was the brother of Mrs. Cecil Vandiver of Wichita Falls, and was married to Pauline Cunningham several years ago. His service was Monday evening at the graveside.

Bob and Wanda Kay and their daughters Darla McAndrews and Delise and her friend Max Ellison, who is home on leave from an Air Force Base in Hawaii, all went to Lubbock to the Hayloft for dinner and a show with Peter Lumas as star. Wanda says he is better looking than Robert Redford.

JAMES PATTON is home from Kansas City and visiting his parents Jack and Clara Patton and helping refurbish the kitchen cabinets. His wife Sharon is still in school and also with a church group next week, then home for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Welch. They will go to Tennessee in the fall where Sharon will enter Vanderbilt University. James will work.

Dr. Charles and Esta Vandiver went to Kerrville to the Dental Academy and for a rest for a few days in the Hill Country. They stopped in Junction to see Dr. Dennis Blackburn and his son John who will go to Roswell MIT this fall with Loren Vandiver. The Vandivers have been going to Denver to see about his 92 year old dad, helping get him settled since Miss West, the daughter, died. She had cared for him.

JIMMY AND Evely Manning and son Hank of Denver, Colo. were weekend visitors of his parents Shorty and Polly Manning and grandmother Hattie Webb. Jimmy is manager of a grocery store out there.

Johnny Etheridge is home from his vacation trip to San Clemente, Calif. where he visited his brother. He also spent some time sightseeing Grand Canyon in Arizona. This Johnny is no kin to Johnny and Mitzie of Lubbock. He came to fix my telephone. Seems we left the receiver off in the other room.

Bob and Paula Bradford came home this week from Commerce ET where Bob is working towards his doctors degree. Grandmother Josie and George cooked a good chicken dinner Saturday for them and Jack and Sue and their parents James and Mildred Bradford, son Jim and daughter Jean. All except the grands went to Conchas for a few days fishing and skiing.

Mrs. Bill Williams went to Amarillo on a recent weekend to visit her daughter Cindy, who with Sheila West took her out to Howard Johnsons and Al Rogers to hear the music and eat the good food.

MR. AND MRS. Bill Cowan of Yucca Valley, Calif. are spending two weeks with his sister Cleo and Claude Forson.

Jim and Dorothy Elder and Joe and Lois Scott went to Abernathy one day last week for the fish fry and ice cream supper with Ray and Lena Martin. Then another day Lois and her sister Melba Mahaffey of California went to Lena's for a visit. This Saturday the Martins were visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle E. Muenning of Dallas were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cullum. The Cullums are in Dimmitt from McAllen with Lamentia Cullum and Collier vegetable business, and now the farmers are bringing in potatoes and onions and soon the carrots and corn will be ready to eat.

Tom and Billie Estes of Lamesa were here this past week with Dick and Edna Reinhardt. They went to Palo Duro to see "Texas" Saturday night and Dick has been showing them the beautiful crops on the Plains. Little rains come to wash the dust off the corn and cotton.

BENNIE Gollehon and family are moving this week to Carson City, Nev. where Bennie will be band director of the schools and music supervisor of the county. His parents Noel and Oleta left here Monday to take his boat and other things up there. The Gollehons will go on to Lake Tahoe and Reno, Nev.

Roller Coaster Spirit

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
Coleman Adv. Ser.

There are days when we feel on top of the world. Everybody loves us and shows it. Nice things are done for us. Sunshine and happiness drenches everything. And then there are other days — when we're blue; people are busy. We're alone. We're afraid. It might as well be raining. Nobody knows the trouble we're in. Needed is a little self-discipline, not a lot of self-pity. We must learn to face the fact that life is not always a flowery bed of ease, and pleasure. Children dodge hard places, responsibility, and painful experiences. A mature person stands on his own two feet under God. Time, insight, and the grace of God can remove mountains — and take away that roller coaster spirit. Begin the road to spiritual maturity by attending church this week.

INSUR-MATION
By JOE COWEN
Cowen Insurance Agency
647-4223

I borrowed a friend's car and had a minor accident. My friend doesn't want to use his insurance because it will raise his rates. Will my insurance pay?

No. If there was collision insurance on the vehicle that was wrecked that policy will be the one that pays. Regardless of your friend's desires, your company will pay only if the owner of the car has no insurance. So, if he refuses to use his insurance and your insurance will not cover the damage in this instance, obviously you have a problem. You either must fix his car out of your own pocket or take a chance on losing a friend.

and Mrs. Dan Heard accompanied five junior volunteers from Plains Memorial Hospital to San Antonio for the annual Junior Volunteers State Meeting. They flew down and stayed at the Palacio Rio Hilton where about 1100 girls were registered. They attended workshops Wednesday and Thursday, did some sightseeing and a lot of visiting. Girls going were Naomi Raemakers, Debbie Schilling, Joyce Welby, Pam Heard and Mary Bossett.

Mrs. Heard and Pam had supper Tuesday night with Bill and Jan Myers and girls. Bill is assistant pastor of Harlendale Baptist Church. They had just recently been robbed of all their office equipment for the second time in six months.

On the return flight they were met at the Dallas Airport by the Johnny Burnett family, who have just returned to Fort Worth from another four years in Brazil. They will be living in Fort Worth for a year. The Burnetts will be in Dimmitt Aug. 10 for a few days. Word was received here Saturday night that Johnny's dad, Elmer Burnett of Terrell, had died suddenly that afternoon.

MRS. OLA Murphy and son Dr. and Mrs. Bill Murphy were hosts last weekend to the family. Fawayne and family from New York City, John and Lois Murphy and their daughter Mr. and Mrs. David Stordall and girls, Galer and Dennis Frager, all from San Antonio, the twins Ray from Sunray and Roy of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Pate and children, Vivale Duke and Ada Chandler, all from Big Spring, Frank Murphy, Andrew and Effie from Graham, Elfreda and Jack Edwards of Olton, and Bill's daughters Mary Ann and Lizzie from Abilene. Their mother Charlene called in the afternoon.

Mrs. Dan Heard honored her mother Mrs. McCormick Sunday, July 27 with a reception for her 75th birthday. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and the flower arrangement was of orchid and yellow dahlias in a silver epergne. Joy Baker and Kay Young served the cake, coffee and punch to the 45 guests who came from Sunray, Hereford, Lubbock, Littlefield and Dimmitt. Gifts and a money tree were presented to Mrs. McCormick.

One evening recently Juanita and Melvin Summers had a supper for the family to celebrate the 10th anniversary of son Gerald and Patti Summers and Sue and Charlie celebrated their fourth year together, and the other mother Doris Lust had a birthday. Probably 30 people were there.

Neva Parker of Midland is a guest in the home of her brother Frank and Shirley Wise and family. She was at the party at Sides' house.

MR. AND MRS. Boyd Reedy and children were guests at the Methodist Church Sunday. They have been in Japan for years, partly supported by this congregation. Boyd told of his experience as a teacher of English. He says that Japan is quite prosperous and was told that others need Christ besides the poor. A supper in fellowship hall in the evening gave people a chance to talk to the Reedys.

Sgt. Duke Chapman is home visiting his parents Jimmie and Della Chapman for three weeks before reporting to the Dallas Naval Air Station.

Bea Hawkins, a teacher in our school, is in Dimmitt at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ed Manning recuperating from recent surgery at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

Beth and Bart McLendon of Dallas and Jo Prather and Danna Beth of St. Louis have been here visiting their parents Edgar and Kate Beecher. Major Dan Prather is in Indiana with the National Guard.

BOB AND Betty Taylor of Commerce have been visiting his sister Jo and Bill Behrends, also at Lubbock visiting Mr. and Mrs. Houston Fowlkes, she is his stepmother, and a sister Joyce. The Taylors, Joyce and Jo and boys spent the week out at Ruidoso. Bill joined them for a weekend. They saw the horses run one afternoon, just rested and visited the other time. Mrs. Behrends is asking everyone to get ready to help with the Castro County birthday coming up Aug. 16—floats, rodeos and old settlers get together.

Other people at Ruidoso were the Arlon Ewing clan. Quite a crowd of them and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Myatt and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nelson were there also.

Templeton earns new Naval rank

Navy Aviation Boatswain's Mate First Class Terry W. Templeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Templeton of Dimmitt, has been promoted to his present rank while serving at the Naval Air Station, Meridian, Miss.

A former student of Dimmitt High School, Templeton joined the Navy in October 1968.

Gerber attends firemen's school

Carroll Gerber, volunteer fireman in the Nazareth Volunteer Fire Dept., attended the 46th Annual Texas Firemen's Training School last week.

THE SCHOOL, attended by nearly 1,521 students representing about 640 cities from approximately 32 states, was held on the Texas A&M University campus.

Firemen can choose their course at the school from a list including Firefighting, Fire Prevention, Fire Department Officer Training, Fire Department Pump Maintenance, Specialized Fire Protection, and Disaster Rescue Operations.

Gerber was sponsored by the Castro County Farm Bureau and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, which contributed toward the cost of the school. Since volunteer firemen are interested in attending this school to help do a better job of fire fighting and fire prevention, 100 county Farm Bureaus and Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in the statewide program have sponsored 100 firemen at the school. "The Farm Bureau Insurance Companies believe volunteer fire departments have been very effective in reducing the amount of loss involved by fire in rural areas," said President Carrol G. Chaloupka of Dalhart. "It is our hope in sponsoring this program that the firemen will help the Nazareth Volunteer Department to better serve the residents of Castro County."

The Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Inc., P.O. Box 753, Hereford, Texas, 79045, is making an application for a loan from Rural Electrification Administration which provides for the construction of approximately 9 miles of 69 KV transmission line and one 7500 KVA substation. This line will be along a general point 2 miles South of Dimmitt in Castro County, East about 2 miles, thence North about 2 miles to U.S. Highway 86, and East 5 miles. This substation will be located on this transmission line, about 4 miles West of Nazareth. The loan also provides for approximately 200 miles of distribution line to be constructed in Castro, Parmer, Oldham and Deaf Smith Counties.

These facilities will make it possible for the Cooperative to meet the increasing demands for electric power of the member owners. If there are any comments on the environmental aspects of the proposed construction, it should be submitted to the Cooperative on or before September 1, 1975. Additional information may be obtained at the Cooperative office at the above address. 15-43-1tc

Two hundred years ago Saturday, July 26, 1775, the Continental Congress recognized the need for a mail system to serve the entire country.

America moved forward, and so did the postal service, post riders, railroad and steamship routes, stagecoaches, pony express, railway post offices, city delivery, rural free delivery, parcel post, highway post offices, airmail, transmission by satellite, all these and many more advances in moving mail have paralleled the evolution of our country.

To commemorate this day the Nazareth, Texas 79063 postoffice, Mary Harlan, postmaster, and Kathy Acker, clerk, served cake and punch to their patrons. The cake was baked by Kathy and was decorated as an American flag. Fun was had by all.

County buys new machines

The County Commissioners' Court awarded purchase contracts Monday for a new front-end loader for Precinct 1 and a new road-grader for Precinct 3.

AFTER spending most of the day reviewing bids, commissioners voted to buy Caterpillar machines from West Texas Equipment Co. of Lubbock, although the firm's bids weren't the lowest submitted.

Vaquero was turned over to San Angelo sheriff's officers the same day.

of Caterpillar equipment, which is considerably higher than any other on the market," County Judge Weldon Bradley said.

The front-end loader for Precinct 1 will be purchased for $28,032 difference, with West Texas Equipment Co. allowing the county $13,898 trade-in for its used loader.

WEST TEXAS Equipment Co.'s successful bid on the Precinct 3 grader was $42,400 difference, with an allowance of $19,345 for the used grader which the new one will replace.

Other bidders on the loader were Decker Equipment Co. of Amarillo (John Deere), $24,806.08, with trade; Plains Machinery of Lubbock (International), $25,797 with trade; and Ford Tractor Equipment Co. of Amarillo, $23,353.44 with trade.

West Texas Equipment Co. submitted bids on two models of loaders—a Caterpillar 920 series ($21,900 with trade) and $28,032 on a heavier-duty loader of the Caterpillar 930 series. Commissioners voted to buy the 930 series loader.

OTHER BIDDERS on a new grader for Precinct 3 were Decker Equipment Co. of Amarillo (John Deere), $38,700 difference after a $22,970 trade-in allowance; and Plains Machinery of Lubbock (Galeon), $33,671 difference with trade-in allowance not specified.

A major battle will soon rage in the halls of Congress over whether domestic oil will be decontrolled and the amount of that decontrol and its timing.

There will not be a clear-cut victory for either the Congress or the President—the issue will be compromised. But, the point is, the price of domestic oil will be decontrolled. This means definitely higher oil prices in this country and much higher gasoline prices over the next 36 months.

'Century 3 Program' helps towns set long-term goals

Do people living in the thousands of small towns across the country have any control over the future of their way of life—a way that has been the backbone of the nation throughout its history?

CAN CITIZENS of these small cities and towns take advantage of modern science and technology to plan for their future?

The belief they can is behind an ambitious Bicentennial project called "Century 3 Community Program." The program has been granted national recognition by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

C3CP, for short, will help communities design and build a "Community Early Warning System" to set long-term goals and build consensus around them. The programs will be backed by some of the technology and decision-making tools developed by big government and business since World War II.

THE TOOLS range from a new kind of card file to a computer, and from a community fair to cable television. Different approaches will be used in different communities according to their needs and resources.

Developed by The Institute, a non-profit organization with headquarters in Dickerson, Md., C3CP will involve 13 specific towns across the country during the Bicentennial era. Programs and procedures developed and proven in the original 13 communities will be available to any other interested locality.

What will participation in the program bring a community? FIRST, the C3CP staff will supply guidelines and technical assistance in designing the early warning system.

Second, the program will maintain experienced consultants on call for social problems.

Third, for communities that wish to adapt computers and other sophisticated technology to their own uses, the staff will help write and circulate proposals for funding from other sources.

COMMUNITIES will have to fund their own activities but will pay no money to the program's staff.

Gas franchise ruling to yield new tax income

Atty. Gen. John Hill held gas producer sales to pipelines should be counted as Texas transactions in figuring franchise taxes due the state, and Comptroller Bob Bullock predicted the decision will bring millions of dollars in new income.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A legislative act abolishing the county school superintendent's offices in Travis and Gonzales Counties is unconstitutional.

Library records identifying those who checked out books and art are not subject to disclosure under the open records act.

Student evaluations of a faculty member should be disclosed to him on request.

Social Security payments total $128,000 per month

Social security benefits were being paid to residents of Castro County at a rate of $128,000 a month at the close of 1974. Mrs. Maurine A. Travis, social security manager in Amarillo, said this week.

OF THE Social Security beneficiaries living in Castro County, 535 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 280 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 140 are getting benefits as disabled workers or their dependents.

Mrs. Travis pointed out that although most social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of every four is under age 60, and the percentage is higher locally. In Castro County, 335 people under age 60 are collecting social security payments each month. Nearly 210 are under age 18, receiving payments because a working father or mother has died or is getting social security disability or retirement benefits.

Of 25 beneficiaries in Castro County between 18 and 22 years of age, most are getting student's benefits under a provision in the social security law permitting the continuation of a child's benefits beyond his 18th birthday, and up to age 22, if the child is attending school full time.

ALSO in this 18-22 age group, Mrs. Travis said, are some other types of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that the social security program provides workers of all ages. Some are children of retired, disabled or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 22 and who will probably never be able to work and become self-supporting.

The monthly benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely. Benefits are also payable to the mother if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care.

Mrs. Travis said that another relatively small but significant group of youthful social security beneficiaries are those who are receiving benefits as disabled workers.

BEGINNING with the checks beneficiaries received in July 1975, Mrs. Travis said, social security benefits have increased eight percent.

7,500 PEOPLE visited Palo Duro Canyon State Park during the Fourth of July weekend, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

THE HI-PLAINS ALL-STARS represented Dimmitt, Olton, Springlake and Cotton Center in the State Senior Babe Ruth Tournament [16-18] in Graham last week, winning one game and losing two. The team lost to Lubbock in the opener, 15-0, then defeated the Almo All-Stars 4-2 in the second game before being eliminated by San Antonio, 15-2. The two teams that defeated the Hi-Plains All-Stars ended up playing each other in the state championship game. ## Introducing . . .

Western Ammonia Employee Bernie Wethington

Bernie joined Western Ammonia last December as an operator trainee, and is now a "D operator." He works mainly in the ammonia plant, and is scheduled to help operate the new plant when it starts up later this year.

Bernie graduated in 1969 from Nazareth High School, where he was active in football, basketball, tennis and FFA. He and his brother, Melvin, were bi-district tennis champions. He's married to the former Mary Louise Schulte.

Before joining Western Ammonia, Bernie owned and operated his own trucks for two years, hauling livestock and feed products.

DUPONT CORIAN

Killingsworth Builders' Supply offers newest counter topping

"I really expect Corian to replace the plastic laminates for kitchen counter-tops," said Bob Baker, manager of Killingsworth Builders' Supply. "It's easier to work with, it will take more abuse, and if you ever do get a stain or burn on it that won't wash or scour off, you can just erase it with fine sandpaper and the top's as good as new again."

What is Corian?
It's a man-made white slate, a product of DuPont research. Corian is strong, hard, non-porous and is characterized by outstanding durability. Corian is made in sheet form of standard thicknesses (1/4, 1/2, 3/4"), and also is cast in one-piece shapes. It can be worked much like wood, and can be sawed, drilled, routed and shaped with standard power tools.

Corian is available in richly opalescent Cameo White or with Dawn Beige or Olive Mist marbling, in which the delicate veining runs completely through the material.

Corian has gained wide acceptance as a new and better material for vanity tops, tubs and shower wainscoting, kitchen counter and cabinet tops. One-piece vanity tops and bowls are also available, pre-cast in a variety of sizes and designs. Other applications include wall panels and wainscots, furniture, bar tops, table tops, desk tops, cabinet work and trophy bases.

You can also get Corian kits for bathtub enclosures and shower stalls, with all the necessary adhesive and caulk included.

Killingsworth Builders' Supply invites you to see its new Corian display, which includes a miniature tub enclosure, vanity tops and sheet samples. If you'd like to make your bathroom or kitchen carefree with this durable, economical new DuPont material, Killingsworth Builders' Supply can have it installed for you.

Bicentennial Farm Feature

Farmers Made Sport Of Their Work, Life

Life and work on farms before and after the Revolution was tedious, time-consuming and often back-breaking.

To relieve the monotony of this labor, early farmers often made sport of their tasks, particularly at harvest time.

Even into the mid-1800's, cradling was still the general method of grain harvesting. A skilled cradler averaged about 2 to 2 1/2 acres a day. But a champion Pennsylvania cradler was put to the test. From sunup to sunset one day, he cradled 12 1/2 acres, harvesting 4,380 sheaves of wheat. When flailed, it yielded 262 bushels of grain. The one man kept four other men busy binding the sheaves behind him.

Some large farmers used horses to thresh grain. On one farm, 24 horses were hitched in four spans of six each and were trotted over wheat sheaves in a circle 400 feet in circumference. A total of 416 bushels of wheat were so threshed in a single day. It seems the threshing overseer had a bet with a neighboring farmer.

Sickles were used in the 1700's to cut wheat. Upwards of 100 people might be found working in a single field. One day, 20 acres of wheat were cut and sheaved by noon.

Rum or "schnaps" — pure rye whiskey — was served as refreshment throughout a harvesting day. One farmer accustomed to the tradition made a bet in a Philadelphia tavern that he could drink a gallon of Cyder Royall within an hour and a half. He did and after exclaiming, "I finished it," fell down and expired.

While most early livestock was seriously neglected, a fat cattle craze developed between 1790 and 1830. Animals were force fed year-round with Indian corn meal, ground oats, potatoes, pumpkins and hay just to see how large a specimen could be raised. About 1800, one farmer exhibited an ox six feet high weighing more than 3,000 pounds. Another had a six-year-old steer weighing 2,387 pounds.

After metal plows became perfected, contests were held. One noteworthy accomplishment was the "ploughing" of three-sixteenths of an acre of herd and timothy sward seven inches deep in 24 minutes.

Even the size of family gatherings became somewhat competitive. Large families were practical to provide the labor needed on a farm and families of 16 to 18 children were common. Some gatherings included 150 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

One farmer proclaimed his good fortune to have his wife have twins, his cow two calves and his ewe two lambs all in one night in the month of March.

VETERANS' SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County Service Officer

This important information concerning clothing allowances for disabled military retirees came too late for the last issue of the News.

SERVICE disabled military retirees entitled to $150 annual clothing allowances should apply by Aug. 1, to receive them in Sept. 1 checks.

Military retirees need not waive any portion of retirement pay to qualify.

Service disabled veterans are eligible for allowances if their prosthetic or orthopedic devices (artificial limbs, braces wheelchairs, etc.) tend to wear out or tear clothing.

Military retirees who do not draw VA compensation for their disabilities must apply each year. This is because the agency does not maintain current records on retirees who elect military retirement pay in lieu of VA compensation.

Other eligible veterans, however, including military retirees on VA compensation rolls, automatically receive the allowances each year after initial application.

MANY veterans of the Vietnam era are eligible for additional GI Bill training benefits from the Veterans Administration, even though they may have previously used all of their entitlement. Some veterans may now be eligible for as much as nine months' additional training time.

Public Law 93-508 authorized an additional nine months for those who were originally eligible for 36 months, and whose entitlement was exhausted while enrolled in a bachelor or other first degree program. In such instances, the veteran may use the additional nine months to pursue his degree program. This additional nine months cannot be used to pursue a graduate degree. If a veteran already holds a college degree, he is not eligible for any extension beyond the regular maximum of 36 months.

A veteran may use his VA educational benefits within 10 years following his discharge or release from military service, if he was released since June 1, 1966. Those discharged prior to that date have to use their eligibility by May 31, 1976.

Additional information on GI Bill training may be obtained at our office or from Vetreps on all major campuses. Any veteran having exhausted all other educational benefits may obtain tuition fees under the Hazlewood Act of the State of Texas.

The one time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down.

About the only time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down is when it leaves one of Lindsay's plants. Once assembled in your field, it seldom causes a problem. Those big, sure-footed towers power their way around the field, carrying water to crops.

Hour after hour, day after day. Until you decide to shut down. That kind of performance doesn't just happen. It's the result of constant testing — both in the plant and in the field. Lindsay puts these rigs through the most punishing conditions — loads on more stress in a week, usually, than they're likely to see in a lifetime of normal use.

But we know that no system is 100% perfect all the time. That's why we're ready to help with an extensive parts inventory and factory trained servicemen if you ever have a problem. Before you buy any center pivot irrigation system, be sure to let us tell you about all the advantages of owning a Lindsay Zimmatic.

MRS. LARRY KEITH SHUGART
... The former Patricia Ann Smith

Shugarts at home after Hart wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Keith Shugart are now at home northwest of Hart, following their July 10 wedding in the First Baptist Church of Hart.

THE BRIDE is the former Patricia Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Hart. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shugart of Dimmitt.

David Musick officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar that was decorated with a large basket of white gladioli, mums, daisies and baby's breath, flanked by spiral candelabras.

Mrs. Carl Rambo, organist, performed traditional wedding selections and accompanied Vivian Davis, soloist.

RHONDA ROWLAND was the maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Sharla Carson and Dana McLain. Flower girls were LaGay Smoot and Tamara Carlson, both of Olton.

Jeff Lantz of Dimmitt served as best man. Groomsmen were Danny Smith, brother of the bride, and Lee Stokes.

Candles were lighted by Michelle and Roger Moore. Dennis Smith was the ring bearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of candlelight French satin fashioned with appliques of Alencon lace adorning the Empire bodice, with its Victorian neckline and long sleeves finished with trumpet ruffles of lace. Lace appliques enhanced the A-line skirt and chapel-length train.

HER FULL-length veil of illusion was secured by a satin headpiece encrusted with clusters of seed pearls. Tiny pearls edged the veil.

The bride's attendants wore formal gowns of baby blue dotted swiss with white lace bodices, and carried nosegays of blue carnations with baby's breath and blue streamers.

A RECEPTION in the church's fellowship hall followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a silver candelabra encircled with the attendants' bouquets. The traditional three-tiered white wedding cake and punch were served from the bride's table, while chocolate cake and coffee were served from the groom's table.

Members of the reception houseparty were Nora Lee Zybura, Wanda Miller, Joy Barham, Debbie Lacy, Belinda Ritter, Suzanne Holley, Marilyn Covington, Tanya DeVaney and Carolyn Rowland.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., the bride chose a three-piece pantsuit ensemble with orchid corsage.

THE BRIDE is a student at Hart High School. Shugart, a Dimmitt High School graduate, is co-owner of Floyd's Tire Shop in Dimmitt.

BY ACCEPTING the fact that individuals in a marriage are free, one sets the stage for a partnership and relationship revolution—a great advantage of change, Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says.

Rush-McRoberts plans are told

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen Rush of Dimmitt announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Jeanne, to Franklin Chevalier McRoberts III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Chevalier McRoberts Jr., Locust Valley, Long Island, New York.

MISS RUSH is a sophomore at Newcomb College of Tulane University, New Orleans, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

McRoberts is a May, 1975, graduate of Tulane University, with a degree in English, and is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The couple is planning an early January wedding at St. George's Episcopal Church in New Orleans.

Shower honors Shanee Burrous

Shanee Burrous, bride-elect of Rex Lust, was the recipient of many gifts at a shower and tea in the home of Mrs. George Sides Saturday.

IN THE receiving line with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Reeford Burrous, and Lust's mother, Mrs. Houston Lust.

At the guest book was Becki Carpenter. Serving punch, fresh fruit and small sandwiches were Doris Petty and Debi Meyers. The serving table was centered with a tall arrangement of summer flowers.

Out-of-town guests included grandmothers Edna Finck of Tulia, Mattie Stoval of Clovis and Millie Lust of Bethel; and Karen Ebing of Clovis.

Twenty-eight ladies assisted with hostess duties.

Smith-Moody vows recited in chapel ceremony Friday

Miss Patricia Kay Smith became the bride of James Russell Moody in a formal ceremony Friday evening in Dennis Memorial Chapel.

THE NEWLYWEDS are both 1975 graduates of Dimmitt High School. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ned Smith of Dimmitt, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James D. Moody of Route 3, Hereford.

Rev. Ed Manning performed the double-ring ceremony in a nuptial setting that included two seven-tier candelabras and baskets of blue and white carnations and spider mums, trimmed with bows of baby blue and white. The chapel pews were marked with blue and white bows.

Diane Ward of Dimmitt was the matron of honor, and Jim Grussing of Dimmitt served as best man. Candlelighters were Mecca and Mike Wilkerson of Dimmitt, and ushers were Timmy Moody of Hereford, the groom's brother, and Rodney Ferguson of Dimmitt.

DWIGHT JOINER, organist, performed traditional wedding selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white petal pea d'ange and heirloom lace of Victorian design. The heirloom lace formed a bib yoke, and the molded bodice featured a high wedding-band necklace of lace accents. The full lantern sleeves were gathered to deep lace cuffs, and the full Princess skirt fell from a crescent waistline of heirloom lace and was gathered at the back to form a brush train. Heirloom lace encircled the hemline, and from the lace trim a deep ruffle extended to form an accent to the brush train.

Her chapel-length mantilla veil, edged in matching heirloom lace, was attached to a capulet of Victorian lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisy poms accented by miniature rosebuds, blue carnations and baby's breath.

HER ATTENDANTS wore formal of blue Dacron dotted swiss with white lace yokes and puff sleeves, and headpieces with streamers to match their dresses. The matron of honor carried a nosegay of white and blue poms with blue streamers.

A reception in the City Hall Auditorium followed the ceremony. The reception table, covered with a blue and white checked cloth, was decorated with an arrangement of pom-poms, candelabra with four candles, and the bride's bouquet flanking the wedding cake.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a light blue sleeveless knit dress and jacket with a going-away corsage of miniature rosebuds and blue carnations.

THE NEWLYWEDS are now at home at No. 23 Park Terrace Apartments, Levelland.

The bride is a student at South Plains College, and the groom is employed by Universal Treating in Levelland.

Wilcox-Myers vows repeated Saturday

Sheila Gail Wilcox and Jeffrey Lynn Myers exchanged marriage vows in a formal ceremony Saturday evening at the Country Club.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wilcox of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Bob Myers and Martha Smith, also of Dimmitt.

Rev. Van Earl Hughes performed the double-ring ceremony before an arch of greenery decorated with lime-green and white bows. The bridal path was of white satin.

Vada Wilcox of Dimmitt, the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. Serving as best man was Bo Myers of Dimmitt, brother of the groom. Rick Wilcox of Dimmitt, the bride's brother, served as usher.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal Empire-waisted Princess gown of ivory double knit, with sweetheart neckline and lace bodice. She wore a lime-green summer hat of lace, trimmed with ivory lace and lime-green streamers.

For something old, she used the wedding rings of her maternal grandmother. Something new included a charm bracelet with two charms, presented to her by the groom as a wedding gift, and her bridal ensemble. Something borrowed was her mother's watch, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

Her Colonial style bridal bouquet featured daisy poms and lime-green carnations, baby's breath, white lace and lime-green ribbon streamers, tied in love knots with white lace bows.

The matron of honor wore a formal of green and white checked sheer over lime green, and carried a nosegay of lime-green carnations and daisy poms, with green streamers tied in love knots.

A RECEPTION at the Country Club followed the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a lime-green cloth under antique white lace, and was topped with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with lime-green icing, white roses and white sugar rope, flanked by a large candle and crystal punch bowl.

Alvina Birkenfeld of Nazareth and Jo Ann Smith of Dimmitt served cake and lime sherbet punch to the guests.

Ginger Wilcox, the bride's sister, registered guests at a table that was covered with a lime-green cloth under antique white lace and centered with a large white wedding candle in a wreath of lime-green roses.

FOLLOWING a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, the couple will be at home after Aug. 24 in Abilene, where Myers is stationed with the US Air Force.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Dimmitt High School.

THE BOARD of advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America awards program announced this week that Linda Mae McKneely of Dimmitt has been selected for inclusion in the 1975 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America."

THE PROGRAM is guided by the nation's major women's clubs and organizations.

Miss McKneely is a Plan A teacher in South Elementary School.

Approximately 6,000 young American women have been selected for the current edition, and are being considered for further state and national awards. This fall, 51 of the young women in the awards volume—one from each state and the District of Columbia—will be named as their state's winner. From the state winners, the nation's Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be selected.

State to check for violations of wiretap rule

The Criminal Justice Division of the governor's office plans a check of city police and county sheriffs to see they aren't doing illegal electronic surveillance with equipment purchased with federal funds channeled through CJD.

A total of 28 grants have been received to buy $100,000 worth of equipment.

Audits followed an inquiry from the US Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

A state appropriations bill rider prohibits use of any appropriated funds, including federal money, to buy wire-tapping devices.

The Department of Public Safety has some equipment used in electronic surveillance of organized crime, but funds to buy it did not come through CJD. DPS spokesmen said the Department does not make a policy of tapping telephone lines.

Cancer Society announces new grants in Texas

Texas cancer research specialists and medical institutions have qualified for new American Cancer Society research grants totaling $745,109, effective July 1.

ACCORDING to Russell Perry, chairman of the board of the Texas Division of the ACS, eight Texas institutions received the new grants.

They were Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, UT's M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston, the University of Houston, UT Medical School in San Antonio, Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, and UT Medical Branch in Galveston.

New grants also went for 24 National Clinical Fellowships in five Texas institutions, four National Junior Faculty Clinical Fellowships in three Texas institutions, eight Fellowships in six institutions and five Medical-Dental Student Fellowships in two institutions.

THESE new grants are in addition to ongoing grants in operation in 11 Texas colleges, universities and medical schools in 1975.

According to Perry, most ACS research grants in Texas are made possible by individual contributions given during the April Cancer Crusade.

"The American Cancer Society spends more on its programs of service education and research than we raise in the state," Perry commented. "That makes a gift to the ACS one of the best investments I know."

"Miss Flapper," and the annual Hart Day Parade.

ALSO ON tap during the two-day celebration are a carnival, food and game booths, a square dance, pioneers' reception, art show, quilt show, merchants' drawings, water polo and a beard contest.

The new Miss Hart, to be named Saturday night, will win a $50 bond to go with the honor, and the top two runners-up will also receive gifts.

THE WINNER of the "Miss Flapper" contest for women over 65 will receive a $25 gift certificate. Hart residents are now voting at the rate of a penny a vote in canisters set out in downtown stores. Contestants will ride in the parade, and the winner will be announced during the parade. Proceeds from the voting will go to the Hart Cemetery Fund. Here's the schedule for Hart Days:

Fall garden can save more money

By IRENE KEATING

Gardeners who don't mind toiling a bit this summer can have a bonus this fall and early winter. Most counties on the High and Rolling Plains regions of West Texas have a long, frost free growing season extending to mid-October. For some counties in the Rolling Plains, the warm days and cool nights which are ideal for certain vegetables extend well into November.

PLAINS people know from experience that our late summer and fall weather is more favorable for growth of many vegetables than the harsher spring climate. Fall vegetables must be selected carefully for their ability to reach maturity before cold weather sets in.

The various kinds adapted to fall gardens may be divided into four categories. Fast growing warm season vegetables are adapted to fall gardens, such as snap beans, summer squashes and cucumbers. These three are intolerant of frost. In the second group are the cool season crops which may be damaged by frost when nearly mature—cauliflower, lettuce, English peas, celery, carrots, Chinese cabbage, Swiss chard, and French endive. The third group contains those which are slightly tolerant of freezing weather—spinach, cabbage, broccoli, beets, brussels sprouts, collards, kale, kohlrabi, parsnips, radishes, rutabaga, turnips and watercress. And the fourth category is the onion family, which is quite tolerant of frost and includes bulb onions, bunching onions, chives, garlic, leek, multiplier onions and shallots.

Some tips for improving one's chances of having a successful fall garden are: plant early maturing varieties if possible to assure harvest before really cold weather sets in. For example, start harvesting the cabbage varieties Superette Hybrid and Badger Market before the Ballhead varieties. Cleopatra and Green Comet broccolis will mature earlier than Premium Crop and give the added bonus of many side shoots which develop after the central head is cut. Nantes will be more satisfactory in the fall garden than the Emperor types of carrots.

THE HIGH temperatures of summer days dry seed beds rapidly. Frequent watering is necessary. When the soil is properly moistened at planting time the application of 15 to 20 gallons of water per 100 square feet of seed bed every other day—the actual amount being dependent on the weather—will keep the seed bed moist. Sow seed for fall gardens slightly deeper than for your spring garden. Crusting of surface soil may obstruct emerging seedlings of carrots and lettuce. To avoid crusting injury to tender seedlings sow the seed in a narrow furrow 1/2 inch wide and 1/2 to 3/4 inch deep. Gently press the seed into the soil, then cover the seed with horticultural grade vermiculite filling the furrow to the surface. Sprinkle soil sparsely over the row, but do not cover the vermiculite entirely. You should be able to see a vermiculite granule here and there along the row.

Another trick to aid slow germinating plants to reach the surface is to sow cabbage or radish seed, one or two per inch of row about 1 inch deeper than the carrot or lettuce. The radish will germinate within several days and forge a channel to the surface breaking above ground at about the same time that the carrot seedling is emerging from its seed coat.

Mulching soil around seedlings and between rows of the fall garden will greatly aid moisture conservation. A 3 to 4 inch mulch layer must be maintained to prevent weed growth and moisture loss.

"If the soil in your garden rows is not hard packed, you can simply break down stems of stalks of the spring crop, dig a shallow hole with the corner of your hoe, drop and cover the seed, then irrigate. This minimum tillage technique works well with beans, peas and corn."

Gardeners need to remember that the spring garden has removed mineral elements from the soil. It is likely that the nitrogen content of the soil will be insufficient for good growth of the fall vegetables. When the seedlings have emerged and several true leaves are developed, apply a side-dressing of nitrogen fertilizer. Ammonium nitrate applied at the rate of 2 pounds per 100 feet of row, or ammonium sulfate at 3 pounds per 100 feet of row, will provide ample nitrogen for most fall vegetables.

Barbara Thompson wins Tops honor

Barbara Thompson was named "Queen of the Week" at the Monday night meeting of Dimmitt Tops Club 386. She recorded a weight loss of 4 1/4 pounds.

THE 20 members present recorded a total weight loss of 19 pounds during the week.

Emily Clingingsmith, club leader, conducted the meeting.

'WE'VE GOT TO AIM HIGH.' United Way Chairman Bob Caddell tells Budget Chairman Garnett Holland (with rifle) as the two men prepare to organize the Dimmitt area's first all-in-one fund drive. Caddell will work with the UW board of directors to map out the campaign's structure, assignments and time schedule. Holland will head the committee that sets financial goals and needs, and will supervise the admissions committee, which determines what agencies and causes will benefit from the United Way campaign. The drive will be held this fall.

The Ringer Tournament which has run for several weeks for the Ladies Golf Association of Dimmitt has ended and winners were announced at the luncheon held at the Country Club July 22.

This tournament ended in a tie for top honors between Dolores Baldrige and Joyce Rickerd. Their names will be placed on the plaque at the clubhouse along with winners of previous years. Congratulations, Dolores and Joyce.

A SCOTCH Foursome was held Sunday afternoon at the club course. First low net was won by Neva Hickey and Joe Benson. Second low net went to Anita Adams and George Rush. Four teams tied for third low net.

First low gross went to Bobby George and Cliff Cook. Second low gross went to Polly Holland and Jack Newsom, with third place going to Anita Adams and George Rush. This event is scheduled for the fourth Sunday of each month, and you should check with the pro shop for entry rules and details.

THE CLUB tournament has been set for Aug. 23 and 24. You will be informed of this event more in detail at a later date, but start planning now to participate, and let's have a good club tournament.

Both the fairways and the greens are in excellent condition. All the nice showers, much work and labor are the reasons. Let's all help to keep them in good shape by not driving the carts too close to the greens, especially when it is wet. I am sure Bill will greatly appreciate our cooperation.

Total production of cattle and calves in Texas in 1974 was more than 5 1/2 billion pounds, White said. This was an increase of nearly 500 million pounds over that recorded the previous year.

PRICES received by cattlemen in Texas averaged $34 per 100 pounds for cattle in 1974, compared with $44 in 1973. Average prices for calves dropped even more markedly in 1974, with the $33.70 per 100 pounds received being some $44 below the average price for 1973.

Statewide gross income for cattle and calves totaled more than $2.160 billion in 1974, representing a drop of more than $666 million from the $2.827 billion reported in 1973.

'Ice package'
was spare ribs

A Dimmitt man told police he took the white box he took from the ice-tender at Allsup's Convenience Store Monday night was a box of ice.

IT WASN'T. It was a box of spare ribs, and Chief W. W. Jones arrested the man and his friend for theft of meat.

Both men told police they stopped at the store for ice while en route home from a dance. One man went into the store to make the purchase while the other got a bag of ice from the ice-tender. Noticing the white box in the ice-tender, he took it, too, and put both in his friend's car, he told police. The bag and box both ended up in the friend's refrigerator at home.

The man who allegedly took the meat was arrested later that night after he returned to the store, and his friend reported to the police station Tuesday morning.

JUSTICE of the Peace Marshall Young set bond at $1,000 for each man. One posted bond Tuesday and the other is still in the county jail.

THE DUPLEX development here is patterned after similar projects in Quitaque, Texline and other area cities.

Texline said their biggest response came from older people—widows, widowers, elderly couples who said these were just the type of homes they wanted.

He added, "Our own survey indicated that 20 to 30 percent of the people interested were elderly people who wanted a different type of home—people such as widows who can't keep a large yard anymore, or who don't need as much room anymore.

Open-end spinning process may revolutionize cotton industry

On the production line and the profit-and-loss statement, cotton is proving itself the fiber of the future to textile mills running the modern open-end spinning frame.

PRODUCTION of 100 percent cottons and cotton blends accounted for 79 percent of all open-end spun yarns in February 1975, said Karl Mueller, director of product development for Cotton Incorporated, the fiber company of US cotton producers.

"That's an increase of six percent in less than a year, said Mueller. "Cotton's share of total open-end spinning in March 1973 was 73 percent."

Mueller said the increased use of cotton came at the expense of synthetics, which dropped from 27 percent of open-end spinning production to 21 percent.

MUELLER told a convention of the American Association of Textile Technologists that cotton is proving itself better than synthetics in performance, economics and aesthetics for use in open-end spinning.

Open-end spinning first made its presence felt in the United States in the late 1960s. Hal E. Brockmann, Cotton Incorporated vice-president for textile research and development, said it offers several advantages over conventional ring-spinning equipment. Most important is increased production, with lower costs for labor and raw materials, Brockmann said.

Cotton Incorporated has installed the most advanced open-end spinning frame in the United States in its research center at Raleigh, N.C. The frame is being used to find the best possible uses for cotton in open-end spinning.

MUELLER, from the New York marketing offices of Cotton Incorporated, told the textile experts that the increase in cotton use over the past year has been greater than had been predicted.

"Advantages of cotton for open-end spinning are not even questioned anymore," Mueller told his audience. "Open-end machinery manufacturers have told me quite clearly that the more cotton in the blend, the more easily the rotor spins."

Synthetics cause problems because lubricants or finishes, which are applied in the manufacturing process, come off during open-end spinning. The foreign substances build up deposits on the rotor and comb-

FABRICS made from open-end spun yarns are drawing the attention of cotton researchers throughout the US. Here, Charles Chewing Jr. (left), fiber process engineer for Cotton Incorporated, and Hal E. Brockmann, CI vice-president for textile research and development, examine fabrics developed with the modern open-end spinning frame in the background. Texas Tech is playing a leading role in research on open-end spun fabrics, and work is underway toward construction of North Texas' first open-end mill at Littlefield. The open-end process is especially adaptable to the short-staple cotton grown in the High Plains region.

ing rolls and interfere with the spinning. MUELLER predicted that as the economy improves, more mills will invest in open-end machinery. Increasing adoption of open-end spinning will then generate even more use of cotton, he said.

Brockmann added that further adoption of open-end spinning should also mean better markets for cotton now considered low in quality.

"Low-micronaire, short-fiber cotton performs as well in open-end spinning as more expensive high-micronaire, long-fiber cotton," Brockmann said. THIS WORKS to the advantage of both mill operators, who can profitably use the less expensive cotton fiber, and producers, who should find greater demand for their "lower grade" cotton, Brockmann explained.

Open-end spinning also means lower costs for the mill because it eliminates at least one packaging stage and it delivers yarns in bigger packages that cut down on labor requirements.

RECENT STUDIES conducted at the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University prove that denims made with open-end spun yarns easily meet the required industry standards for performance. YOUR FACE is a book, where men may read strange matters. —Shakespeare.

Parents, environment
key to child learning

Parents and environment are the greatest influences on a child's mental development, Mrs. Ilene Miller, family life education specialist, said this week.

"A PARENT can make learning fun and challenging if he has some insight into how children grow and develop, and if he is willing to provide the help and encouragement a child needs."

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialist pointed out that children expand and refine their mental skills through daily experiences.

"Learning to observe and to remember are some of the first mental skills a young child develops. Later he learns to compare objects and can distinguish between likenesses and differences.

"AS A CHILD matures, he learns to group items, ideas and information that have something in common—for example, bananas and lemons are both yellow fruits. Even more difficult mental skills to master are the abilities to solve problems and make choices," she explained.

It takes time and repeated experiences for a child to develop these mental skills. Children need opportunities to explore their environment and to seek their own solutions. They need some freedom to explore and learn how things work.

Parents can help by keeping the environment safe for children to explore, Mrs. Miller said.

ANYBODY THERE YET?—Although the remodeling of the Dimmitt Independent School District's new administrative building on West Hatsell Street is still in the paint-and-nail stage, a few offices—such as this one—are beginning to take shape as furniture move-ins follow the room-by-room finishing.

The building will provide office and work space for virtually all school district administrators and specialists except principals and their staffs. School district officials are hoping all individual offices will be completed by the time classes start in three weeks.

Uninsured drivers can lose privileges under new law

Uninsured motorists involved in traffic accidents resulting in death, personal injury or property damage in excess of $250 may be subject to suspension of their driving privileges and vehicle registrations under a revision to the Texas Safety Responsibility Law.

COL. WILSON E. Speir, director of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety, said the new law—which was enacted during the recent legislative session—requires the DPS to evaluate traffic accidents (meeting the above criteria of seriousness) to determine if there is a "reasonable probability of judgement" against one or more of the drivers.

If such a finding is made, and if the driver or owner has no liability insurance meeting the state's minimum requirement of $10,000/$20,000/$5,000, then the DPS must require the uninsured motorist believed at fault to satisfy the security provisions of the law. This may be done in one of the following ways:

- By submitting a written release signed by the other damaged parties.
- BY FILING an installment agreement made with the other damaged parties involved.
- By depositing security in a sufficient amount to take care of damages sustained by others and maintain proof of financial responsibility for a period of five years from the date of the accident.
- By filing copies of civil damage judgement obtained against other parties involved in the accident, or a judgement of non-liability.

WHEN THE security provisions of the law are not satisfied by the uninsured owners and operators, and the DPS determines there is "a reasonable probability of judgement" against such persons, the following provisions of the law become applicable:

- A written notice of future driver license and motor vehicle registration suspension must be forwarded to such persons by certified mail. Such a notice will advise that a hearing will be granted upon request.

—Upon receipt of a request for hearing, the DPS will notify the persons requesting same to appear before the traffic court judge in their precinct of residence, and it will become the responsibility of the traffic court judge to determine whether or not there is "a reasonable probability of judgement" and, if so, the amount of security to be deposited with DPS by the uninsured persons.

—ANY suspension invoked by the DPS in motor vehicle accident cases of this type will be stayed by a request for hearing until such time as the matter is finally resolved through administrative hearing or the courts.

Speir said the new law was enacted to enable Texas to comply with a US Supreme Court decision. The decision had invalidated portions of the previous Texas Safety Responsibility Law because of a lack of "due process" provisions in the old law.

Speir said the new law was signed by the governor June 20, and uninsured motorists involved in accidents since June 21 can be affected by its provisions.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

During the recent legislative session, a new Texas Mobile Home Standards Act was passed to upgrade the industry, and to provide more protection for the large number of Texans who are turning to mobile homes for their housing.

THE NEW law, which will go into effect Sept. 2, will lessen the chance of deception in manufacturing, sales, distribution, setting up and tying down of mobile homes.

Problems about mobile homes have been so numerous in the past that our Attorney General's Office set up a Labor Division, which handles mobile home complaints. In the first 10 months of its operation, the Labor Division received 1,200 complaints about mobile homes.

The new law has several important features that should help to reduce consumer dissatisfaction. First, it adopts the construction and safety standards set by the federal Housing and Urban Development Department, and authorizes the Texas Department of Labor and Standards to enforce these standards.

It also requires that any mobile home manufacturer must be licensed by the Department and hold a certificate of acceptability in order to do business in Texas. It will be against the law for a dealer to sell any mobile home manufactured after Sept. 2 if it does not meet the standards, have a state seal of approval from the Department, and if it was not manufactured by a holder of a current certificate of acceptability.

$100,000 bond, dealers a $25,000 bond, and salespersons a $2,000 bond. A consumer can cancel any contract if he finds out a manufacturer, dealer, or salesperson was not bonded when the contract was signed.

In the past, some unlucky consumers who tried to have work done under their warranty found out that both the dealer and the manufacturer had gone out of business. Now, with the new requirements, the consumer can sue to recover his losses from the bond in such cases.

Under the new law, all mobile homes except those in a dealer's or manufacturer's inventory must meet minimum tie-down standards. This means all mobile homes within 300 feet of another mobile home, residence, or building must be blocked, anchored, and tied down securely to conform. The Texas Labor and Standards Dept. will inspect the tie-down system for a fee to be paid by the installer.

The Dept. of Labor and Standards has the responsibility of enforcing this new law. As the legal representative of the Department, it's the job of the Attorney General to file suit against violators referred by the Department. Under the new law, the Attorney General can also file suits on his own for violations of the Mobile Home Standards law, or under the Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act for warranty violations. The law provides penalties up to $1,000 for each violation or a maximum of $1 million for a related series of violations.

A NEW minimum one-year warranty is provided under the law, and both manufacturers and dealers are jointly responsible for meeting a warranty claim. If a dealer or manufacturer fails to comply with a warranty, it is considered a deceptive trade practice. A consumer can then file a suit himself, or can register a complaint with the Attorney General or with a county or district attorney.

All mobile home manufacturers, dealers, and salespersons must be bonded under the new law. Manufacturers must post a
