DETROIT WINS IN SECOND CONTEST

TIGERS, BATTING LIKE FIENDS, IMPROVE CHANCE FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

GOOD WORK BY DONOVAN

Big Bill Wild at First, But He Soon Settles Down With Terrific Speed.

By Associated Press. Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Outwardly jaunty and confident of victory, inwardly blue and dejected over yesterday's defeat, the Detroit team trotted out on the Amphitheatre field this afternoon for the second game of the world's championship series.

With D. Cannitz in the box for Pittsburg, the game opened and the Tigers were retired in their first inning. Pittsburg landed on Donovan sufficiently to tally twice in her half, but the Tigers tied things up again in the second and from that time on it was "nip and tuck."

Both teams will leave for Detroit tonight but there will be no game there until Monday. The crowd began pouring into the stands and bleachers early today and the attendance, while not yet officially announced, is believed to exceed yesterday's total. Both teams are playing with snap and confidence today, though Delehanty and Bush still seem dejected over their fatal errors of yesterday.

Unabashed by yesterday's result, a large contingent of Detroit rooters is installed in the grandstand and the visiting team is being given hearty support, though by far the greater volume is, of course, with Pittsburg.

The home team is the favorite in the betting and there were not a few who wagered three to one on Pittsburg for today, but eager takers soon drove such odds out. When Detroit rallied and tied the score in the second inning, three to two on Pittsburg was a popular price among the sporting contingent.

A stiff rally by Detroit in the third inning netted three tallies and in the fifth inning two more, in which Ty Cobb figured prominently, put the Tigers on safe ground, but their troubles were not yet over.

The Pirates have been unable to connect with Donovan with any results. The big boy has been using terrific speed and after his short ascension in the first inning, seemed to have things thoroughly in hand up to the last inning or two, when the strain began to tell on him.

As the game neared its close, the Pirates made desperate efforts to score but as Donovan cut down batter after batter, their hopes died and the result was hardly ever in doubt after the first few innings. A slight weakening by Donovan in the eighth let two pirates get on the bases, but faultless field work retired the side without a score.

The result materially increases Detroit's chances for final victory in the series, as the next two games are on the home lot.

From the New York Sun:

Mr. Bryan, in refusing to discuss the tariff with Joe Bailey on a public platform, says:

"A debate might be pleasing to the participants and entertaining to the audience, but I think the subject which I am endeavoring to present is worthy of calm and serious consideration."

We can't conceive of the audience being entertained unless the disputants put on the gloves.

ONE AND A HALF INCHES OF RAINFALL YESTERDAY

One and one-half inches of rainfall fell here yesterday, according to Weather Observer Simmons and this section was given a thorough soaking as it has received in a long time. The rain was followed by an appreciated drop in the temperature and reports from points further up the Denver state that percolates are decidedly popular. The Panhandle knows have of course caused considerable inconvenience in that section, but warmer weather is predicted for tomorrow.

COOK AT CINCINNATI.

Delivers Lecture and is Given Royal Entertainment.

By Associated Press. Cincinnati, O., Oct. 9.—Dr. Cook, the north pole discoverer, arrived here today. He was met at the station by a committee of citizens and escorted in an auto parade through the principal streets to a hotel, where he was formally welcomed by Mayor Galvin. He will lecture at Music Hall, then dine at the Queen City Club and be given a reception by the business men's club during the day. Mrs. Cook will be entertained by a committee of prominent society women.

FIVE ARRESTED.

Louisiana Citizens Charged With Destruction of Dam.

By Associated Press. Lake Charles, La., Oct. 9.—Charged with complicity in blowing up Mentemau Dam, protecting the lands of hundreds of rice farmers, the United States Commissioner has bound over five well known citizens. The accused are James Richard, Garret Connor, Ernest Broisard and Luke Connor of Grand Chenier, La., and Charles Bonon of Lake Charles, La.

PLANS FOR SANITARIUM HAVE NOT FALLEN DOWN

The proposition to establish a hospital here under the control of the deaconesses of the Methodist Episcopal church has not, as previously reported, fallen through. The purchase of the property in question by Dr. Miller, was on behalf of the church, it being deemed advisable to secure control of it at the earliest possible date.

As soon as this church completes the other plans it has pending the most important being the finishing of the new building and the consummation of the Y. M. C. A. proposition, the hospital matter will again be taken up with the Chamber of Commerce and pushed through to a finish.

EIGHTEEN-POUND CLUSTER.

Fine Sweet Potatoes Raised on Farm of F. P. Warren.

F. P. Warren, a well-known farmer, residing northwest of this city, brought an enormous cluster of sweet potatoes to the Times office this morning to show what can be raised in that section. There are ten sweet potatoes in the cluster and their total weight is eighteen pounds. They will probably be made a part of the Wichita County exhibit at the Dallas fair.

MORE PEANUT FARMERS REPORTING SUCCESS

Since the publication in the Times several days ago of Mr. Neesley's success in raising peanuts, several other farmers have reported themselves similarly successful and this industry will soon be assuming appreciable proportions in this county. S. D. Hope, who has been in this county less than a year, has been very successful with his crop and announced that he will plant a greatly increased average next year. Mr. Hope has ordered a peanut thresher from an implement house to handle his crop. He is enthusiastic over the peanut possibilities of this section and expects to win other converts. He will plant one hundred acres next year near the Denver stock yards.

FALL CAMPAIGN IS TO BEGIN SHORTLY

FARMERS' MEETINGS AT POINTS IN COUNTY WILL BE HELD BY EXPERTS.

PEANUTS OR BROOM CORN IT IS UP TO PRESIDENT

All Farmers Will Be Urged to Plant One or Other—Good Market is Assured.

More peanuts and more broomcorn will be raised on the farms of Wichita county next year if the campaign that is to be waged by the Chamber of Commerce this fall is successful.

Sometime in the next few weeks, Secretary Gohlke, and Messrs. Quick-sall and McConkey of the Department of Agriculture, will make a tour of the county with a view to introducing new methods and to inspect the results of the campaign that was carried on last year.

Mr. Quicksall will discuss early fall plowing and seed selection with the farmers and will point out the necessity of following these ideas. J. L. McConkey will advocate hog-raising and forage crops and will work along these lines.

Mr. Gohlke will urge the raising of more peanuts and more broomcorn. He has the promise of local concerns to take all the local crop in either of these products and farmers who agree to raise them need have no fear that there will be no market. The candy factory here will use all the peanuts Wichita county farmers can raise and the broom factory is willing to contract at once for next year's crop.

Meetings are to be held at various points over the country by the above gentlemen and all farmers will be invited to attend. Special emphasis is to be laid on the peanut and broom corn feature and figures will be submitted showing the cost of the production of each and the revenue from the harvested crop.

PRESIDENT TAFT ON THE PACIFIC COAST—WATER FRONT SCENE IN SEATTLE.

President Taft has been fairly overwhelmed by the hospitality of the people of the west. Banquets and luncheons have followed one another in such rapid succession that the president has been forced to call a halt. Captain Butt, his military aid, wired to Seattle before the president had left Salt Lake City that the bill of fare must be reduced to plain food. Mr. Taft is no hand for fancy cooking. His secretary made this clear to the San Antonio reception committee when that body wired to know whether the president liked beef and cabbage or more elaborate food. "Beef and cabbage," was the reply.

NEGROES DEMAND SEATS AT DINNER

INSIST UPON BEING PRESENT AT TAFT BANQUET AT PASADENA, CAL.

IT IS UP TO PRESIDENT

Entertainment Committee Refers the Question to Him For His Consideration.

By Associated Press. Pasadena, Cal., Oct. 9.—A very disagreeable setting has been given the occasion of the president's visit here on October 12, by the demand of a committee representing the Afro-American League, that two negroes be given seats at the banquet which will be tendered the chief executive.

Chairman Toff of the entertainment committee has referred the matter to the executive committee and they have decided to call upon the president or some member of his party to decide the question. This places him in a very embarrassing position, and it is impossible to conjecture what his attitude will be.

By Associated Press.

Glacier Point, Cal., Oct. 9.—Coming to Glacier Point yesterday afternoon President Taft and Party arrived at the brink of the chasm just in time to catch the beautiful effect of the sunset. Luncheon was served today at the Sentinel Hotel.

A sixteen-mile drive is required to take the president out of the park this afternoon to El Portal, where he will board the train tomorrow morning. A tremendous bonfire was lighted on an overhanging rock in honor of the president last night and was visible for miles.

By Associated Press. Union City, Tenn., Oct. 9.—A discussion has arisen here over the testimony of Colonel Taylor, who was with Captain Rankin at Walnut Log when the latter was assassinated by night riders. It is declared his testimony before the grand jury differed materially from his testimony at the trial and it is reported the November grand jury here will be asked to compare the two sets of testimony.

McCUE JURY DISCHARGED.

Unable to Agree After Being Out Sixty-Eight Hours.

By Associated Press. Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 9.—District Judge Tom Simmons this morning discharged the jury in the Frank McCue case, it being hopelessly disagreed, eight for acquittal and four for conviction. This is McCue's third trial, charged with murdering Earl Mabry at Dallas two years ago. Each has resulted in a disagreement. The jury was out sixty-eight hours.

HEALTH OFFICER COON RETURNS FROM AUSTIN

Dr. L. Coon, county physician, returned last night from Austin, where he had been to attend a state meeting of city and county health officers. There were about one hundred and fifty present, and the meeting was one of the most interesting ever held in the state.

The main subject discussed was the measures being taken by the state for the cure and prevention of disease.

Resolutions were adopted seeking to take the matter of control of county and city hospitals out of the hands of the county commissioners court and place them under the absolute control of the county and city health officers, whose duties it will be to see that all patients shall not also receive the necessary medical attention, but that the hospitals shall be kept in a sanitary condition.

If the state health officer should recommend this plan, it is more than likely that the next session of the legislature will make such changes in the law as to meet the recommendations of the county and city health officers.

That such a law would improve matters, in almost every county in the state, there is but little doubt.

STATE COTTON REPORT SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

By Associated Press. Austin, Tex., Oct. 9.—The agricultural department today issued a report showing the total number of bales ginned in Texas during September to be 818,072, an increase of 216,000 over last year. Williamson County leads with forty thousand bales.

LIGHT PLANT MAY USE NATURAL GAS

PLANT IS PLANNING TO CHANGE TO NEW SYSTEM OF HEATING.

NEW PLAN IS FAVORED

Believed Would Result in Fuel Saving of Over Seventy-Five Per Cent.

Natural gas will shortly furnish heat for the water and light plant if the company carries out its present intention. It is learned that it has been figuring on a gas engine for the plant for some time and that it has about decided to make the change from the coal system.

Since the gas engine in use by the Wichita Mill and Elevator company was installed and has proved so successful several other local concerns have been figuring upon installing them and while the water and light plant company has not fully decided to do so, it is very likely that it will be using natural gas for its fuel before long.

It requires about six hundred horsepower per day to generate sufficient power to supply this city and one can imagine what the fuel bill would amount to with the use of coal. By changing to gas it is said that the fuel expense can be cut down seventy-five per cent.

The proposition to organize a consumer's company here has not, as many believe, fallen through. The committee failed to get control of the well they wanted and while this was a disappointment, it has not resulted in the abandonment of the plans. It will, however, probably force the company to drill a well of its own, which renders the plans somewhat more complex.

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Hammock, a twelve-pound boy.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haul of Thornberry, a ten-pound girl.

Little Miss Anna Ruth Kahn, who has been quite ill, is much better.

Mr. James Prothro has resigned his position with W. B. McClain & Co. and has accepted a position with the Wichita State Bank.

Thirteen cents is the prevailing quotation for middling in the local cotton market and the sales have been comparatively light.

A large number of people from the neighboring towns were in the city today, and all the afternoon trains were loaded with well-pleased shoppers, homeward bound.

Cotton receipts were unusually light today on account of the condition of the county roads which made hauling difficult. Many farmers are spending the day in town, however.

The Times will publish the score of the Pittsburg-Detroit games every afternoon, by a special arrangement making it possible for us to handle this feature ahead of the morning papers.

bridgrooms, but owing to the prominence of the Skinner family, the church was comfortably filled.

English ivy, springerle ferns and roses were used as the effective decoration. The church windows were shaded in green and the electric lights were on. At the altar on either side were huge potted springerle ferns, which rested on pedestals and hung gracefully to the floor. Long-stemmed roses peeped out among a mass of English ivy, attractively arranged around the chancel, which formed a beautiful background for the bridal party.

At the appointed hour, Mrs. W. W. Perry and Mr. J. A. Bradley sang very impressively, "I Love You."

The Wichita Theatre Orchestra, directed by Mr. Ernest Katz, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march, to the strains of which the bridal party entered.

Miss Bonnie Skinner, gowned in a brown tailored suit, with hat to correspond, entered with her sister, Miss Maud Skinner, who wore an Atlantic Ocean blue traveling suit and large, white beaver hat, with willow plume. Proceeding at the same time, down the opposite aisle, was the other bride, Miss Vallie Skinner, in a diagonal cloth coat suit of raven shade, with large white beaver hat, trimmed with willow plumes, and her maid of honor, Miss Lena Matlock, attired in a white serge suit and large wisteria hat.

Mr. Lowry and his best man, Mr. W. G. Shelton of Abilene; Mr. Wallace and Mr. Fain, who acted as best man, all came through the vestry. The bridegrooms met their brides at the altar, where Rev. McKee awaited them. The ushers, Mr. Dudley Darling and Mr. Charles Durland, followed down opposite aisles and joined the party at the altar.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lowry left for a brief trip to northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are at home with Mrs. Skinner.

The Unity Club met Friday afternoon, Mrs. Carrigan hostess. Members of the New Century Club and a few others were guests on that occasion.

Being Indian Day, the back hall of the commodious Carrigan home was appropriately decorated with tepees and a rare collection of ornaments gathered from different tribes of the ill-fated race. The program printed on cards and arranged to imitate little tepees, was as follows:

INDIAN DAY.

To carry out the decorative scheme when the refreshments were served, the ice cream came on in miniature canoes, scooped out of bananas, with a small American flag at one end.

The whole affair was very unique and very enjoyable. The club meets with Mrs. Darnell, October 15th.

New Century Club.

At the home of Mrs. W. H. Walker in a spacious parlor, where the bright rays of an autumn's sun poured in, giving warmth to our spirits until they glowed with inspiration of pride for past glories—glories that are, but a fitting prelude to future victories, were the New Century women on last Wednesday, October 6th, from 2 to 5.

Once more Time had touched the dial plate on His round and was tracing with imperceptible fingers the hour of dawn for a new club year in the annals of twentieth century clubdom. Mrs. Ashmore rendered the music in a manner so gentle that it lent a new charm to the interest of self-culture, where goodness and truth become the ethical purpose of a club woman's aim. In the rhythm of that music there was something that called a concentration of images of the past twelve months; all that was done or suffered performed or neglected in that regretted time. There was a consciousness of a sober sadness in the leave-taking of the past, as we were about to welcome the coming—speed the parting guest.

But, as we were thanked for loyalty shown, by our retiring president, Mrs. J. W. Lee, and urged by the incoming president, Mrs. I. H. Farris, to stand by each other in a more faithful spirit, there was a realization that as time goes on we are expected to improve our lives of justice, "where life and light emit healing beams," that humanity is reaching out to us a puny hand asking us to dissect the fallacies and fallacies of our surroundings, so that what is absolute may be removed that we may lessen the dreariness of the crimes of our race; the poverty, disease and illiteracy by lifting human lives to educational and industrial planes.

Go on, thou spirit of clubdom, until thou art able to choose for thy reward

THE PROPOSED SPECIAL SESSION.

The intimation that Governor Campbell intends to call the legislature in special session in January has not been favorably received by the press of the state, simply because there appears to be no sufficient reason for it.

Soon after congress had passed the act submitting to the several states an amendment to the federal constitution, providing for a general income tax, there was a suggestion from an outsider that the legislature should immediately be called in special session to ratify the amendment, but the suggestion was not favorably received in any quarter, there being no need of hasty action in the matter, as there would be time enough for action when the legislatures of the several states should meet in regular session.

The legislature of Georgia was in session when the amendment was submitted, but a resolution offered by one of the members to ratify the amendment was practically ignored, no action whatever being taken on it. It was assumed by advocates of the income tax that this did not indicate hostility to the amendment, but that the legislature, being busy with other legislative matters of more immediate importance, thought the amendment could wait a more opportune time for consideration. The Georgia legislature is overwhelmingly democratic and the income tax measure, though endorsed by a republican congress, is distinctly a democratic proposition, which has the long-time endorsement of that party.

There is just one possible excuse for an extra session of the Texas legislature the coming year. If the decision of a lower court invalidating certain amendments to the state constitution supposed to have been adopted and the acts of the legislature in conformity therewith can be finally adjusted in the higher courts within a few months, and if the decision of the lower court should be sustained, it might then become necessary to assemble the legislature as promptly as possible to submit to the people other and further amendments to validate the statutes affected and to cure the confusion, as was done, or attempted to be done, by the submission of the amendments which were voted on by a considerable number of the electors at the special election held last August.—San Antonio Express.

Miss Mary Harriman, daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, intends devoting her time to the management of a 14,000 acre farm. Miss Harriman appears to be different.—Wichita Eagle.

If so, she has had another change of mind. This time to link her fortunes with those of Mr. Robert Walton Goleet. It is said the engagement of the young people will be announced soon.

Dr. Cook rode in Adolph Busch's carriage in the parade at St. Louis yesterday. Maybe the brewer is interested in the new supply of ice the explorer has discovered.

A TEMPERANCE SERMON.

It is a significant fact that among the list of supplies taken by Dr. Cook on his trip to the pole are not found any intoxicating liquor. Yet down this way people drink liquor in order to keep warm.—Abilene News.

Really, very few people drink liquor to keep warm. They drink it because they crave it and like it. And the more they drink the more they must drink, until finally they cannot drink any more because they cannot open their mouths or eyes. They are dead. If the Eskimos were to become habituated to the use of liquor for keeping themselves warm, it would be only a few years until their race would be cold in death.—Dallas News.

Many towns and some newspapers are demanding that the state ranger force be abolished. In this we cannot concur. True, we do not need them in Childress and never did, but in towns like Amarillo, San Antonio and Houston where the local peace officers persist in violating their oaths of office to enforce the law, we believe the governor should have some military power that he can dispatch to turbulent places to bring about at least a semblance of order. The Governor is our chief executive, sworn to see our laws enforced and by retaining a small armed force of special officers who can do this even when the local officers are so afraid of losing their jobs that they dare even to live in constant jeopardy rather than bring criminals to justice. We don't care whether they are called rangers or not, but some such special peace officers should be kept at the governor's command to be used only in emergencies.—Childress Post.

No town likes the advertisement brought to it by the fact that it is necessary for the state government to send out rangers to enforce laws that should and could be enforced by local officers.

Paved streets don't get dusty, and when the rains come they don't get muddy. Wichita Falls, up-to-now in everything else, should have a few blocks of paved streets just to show the difference. If once started, the paving of streets will progress like the building of cement walks. Four years ago Wichita Falls did not have to exceed five miles of cement walks. At that time the work was started in a small way and continued until now it is estimated by those in a position to know that she has in the neighborhood of thirty miles of cement walk, based on an average width of four feet.

Wichitans who still thought they could buy clothes cheaper in Fort Worth and Dallas than in this city, are beginning to look disappointed this year. A lady who recently returned from Dallas, states that the Wichita shops, while not offering as large stocks as are to be seen in Dallas, are fully as up-to-date and a comparison of prices is often to the disadvantage of the stores in the larger city. Buy in Wichita.

Snow covering the ground in the Panhandle country, and oranges ripening in the sun along the gulf coast, at one and the same time. Follow the crowds to Texas.

Dispatches state that the president has lost quite a bit in weight since he started out. There is no one who could stand the loss with less inconvenience.

It is announced that Dr. Frederick Cook, North Pole explorer, is a democrat. This the Times learns after it had made up its mind to be a Cookite.

It's safe to say that Cone Johnson could utter the words 'Et tu, Brute,' with fully three an done-half times the earnestness that J. Caesar did.

Somebody might at least offer Peary the republican nomination for vice-president in 1912. He oughtn't to go totally unrewarded.

Mark Twain's daughter has married a Russian musician. For once in his life, Mark is probably unable to see the joke.

AMUSEMENTS

Black Patti Co., Oct. 11.
The famous Black Patti Musical Comedy, presenting "A Trip to Africa," a three-act Musical Comedy, will be the next attraction at the Wichita Theatre. The company this year numbers forty-three people, among them Sissleretta Jones (the original "Black Patti"), "Jolly" John Larkins and the best colored talent to be obtained in America.

The Dallas News says: "The best thing about the Black Patti show, which was the attraction at the Dallas Opera House last night, is the enjoyment which is so obvious in the galleries and on the stage at the same time. The performers undoubtedly get as much pleasure out of their work as do those who pay their way into the high seats to see it. And that puts those on both sides of the footlights into such intimate sympathy with one another that the entertainment entertains every moment while the curtain is up.

The Black Patti Company this year is a large and well-dressed, well-accommodated one. The diva herself is still in good voice and her singing is melodious and pleasing. But the performance is given over mostly to the sort of farce that delights the brother in black and there is much of it that is funny to the downstairs and upstairs audiences alike. There are three acts to the sketch the company presents and every one of them is crowded with good dancing or comicities, the star singing some incidental songs and some interpolated numbers feelingly and with good effect.

Seats can now be secured at Bean & Huey's (Floral Heights Realty Co.) office.

Notice to Stockholders.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Stamford & Northwestern Railway Company will be held at the principal office of the Company, in the State of Texas, on Wednesday, November 3rd, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Two Ways of Looking At It.

After buying that bill of lumber you are going to need, and using it, you may be either glad or mad. It depends on whether you buy good, dry lumber from us, or carelessly accept lumber that's only half seasoned, from somebody who's not so particular about the quality of their stock as we are.

There are no two ways about it: You can buy any kind of lumber or building material to better advantage right here than you can anywhere else in this part of the country. Let us make you an estimate on what you want.

Our Reason is Not Solely Selfish

IT IS NOT solely because we are agents of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes in this town that we want you to wear them. This of course, enters pretty largely into the question, but it is not all. We want you also to feel right and look right and to be satisfied.

We have a large looking-glass in our store in which you can see the front, the side and back of yourself, all at once. If you will try on a suit of clothes with the Stein-Bloch label in them, and look at yourself in this glass you will see why we are so anxious to have you wear these clothes

AUSTRALIAN DINGOS.

Treacherous and Destructive Animals That Can Feign Death.

There are some who believe, though the evidence seems against them, that certain of the wild dogs, like the Australian dingo—"yellow dog dingo,"—are reversionary to the wild state of a race once tame, just as the pariah dogs of various countries have traveled half the road toward becoming wild animals again.

As one sees the dingo here, in the gardens it looks not merely like a domesticated dog, but like a dog of a distinctly engaging and amicable kind. The dingo's character belies its gentle looks. "Quarrelsome, sly and treacherous," an Australian naturalist has called it. So sly is it that, according to Mr. Beddard in "The Cambridge Natural History," it feigns death "with such persistence that an individual has been known to be partly flayed before moving" and so treacherous that in the days when dingoes were more commonly kept as pets by the colonists than, as a result of bitter experience, is the case today it was no unusual thing for the dog which had been brought up with every tenderness from puppyhood to turn suddenly on its master or mistress, or, what was more frequent, when left in temporary charge of an empty house to seize the opportunity to raid the sheepfold or the poultry runs.

On such occasions it "ravens" even as the wolf, killing not to satisfy its hunger, but in the unrestrainable fury of a brute instinct, so that, given time enough, it will not leave one fowl or one sheep alive. That it does not need much time, moreover, is shown by the statement of Thomas Ward that "one dingo in the course of a few hours has been known to destroy several score of sheep." For its fighting ability the same authority declares it to be a match for most domestic dogs of double its size.

When wild it hunts in packs, which are said sometimes to include as many as a hundred individuals, though from six to a dozen is the common number, and the only Australian animal which it is uncertain if the pack, can ever pull down is (in spite of Mr. Kipling's "old man" kangaroo.—London Times.

WOMEN IN TROUSERS.

Some Whose Work Compels Them to Dispense With Draperies.

The idea of a woman in trousers seems to be the most horrible that the modern civilized mind can conjure up, but there are parts of the world where women wear these garments as a matter of course, and the heavens have not yet fallen. They even contrive to look charming in them, too, as in one of the cantons of Switzerland, where the bifurcated garment is worn on dress occasions as well as for work. Not even at the altar are the trousers discarded. The bride wears white ones, with a white bodice, and white flowers in her hair, and many a bride in a court train is less shy and sweet. In spite of their trousers, which are necessitated by the work they do in the fields, these women do not ride astride, but use a sidesaddle just like the woman who is trammelled by skirts.

The trousers of Switzerland are loose, baggy affairs, sometimes almost as cumbersome as skirts, but the peasant maids of the Austrian Tyrol wear short, close fitting small clothes, which cannot impede their movements in any way and which are not particularly becoming. The socks do not meet the trousers and the knee is left bare, like a highlander's. The upper part of the costume has some feminine touches, and over the trousers is a short drape, which may be the remains of a skirt. These women work in the fields and stables and are compelled by their life to dispense with superfluous draperies.

French and Belgian fishermen wear trousers. They wade through the water, pushing their nets before them, and the heavy waves would soon sweep them off their feet if they wore skirts. Even without them they are obliged to go out in little parties for mutual protection.

In China, where they do most things differently from the rest of the world, the women wear trousers and the men do not disdain skirts. The women also smoke. In Turkey, before Paris fashions invaded the harem, trousers were worn by the women, while the cigarette is an indispensable part of their lives.—New York Tribune.

George IV.'s Hearings.

One of the most inveterate hoarders on record was George IV. Not only was he averse to destroying books and papers, but he preserved everything that could possibly be kept. When he died all the suits of clothes he had worn for twenty years were discovered and sold by public auction. His executors also found secreted in various desks, drawers and cupboards numerous purses and pocketbooks crammed full of money to the extent, it is said, of £20,000, together with more sentimental treasures in the form of locks of hair from the tresses of forgotten beauties of the court.—London Graphic.

Disappointment.

Head Walter—What's the matter with that dyspeptic looking old chap over there at the fourth table?

Assistant—He's got a grouch. He was getting all ready to make a kick about that cantaloupe, and he found it was a good one.—Chicago Tribune.

Two Painters.

Highbrow (boastfully)—I get 20 cents a word for my stuff. I'm a word painter. Lowbrow (scornfully)—That's nothing. I get $2 a word for mine. I'm a sign painter.—Exchange.

Our buyer is a wizard at dry goods buying and has gathered together some of the biggest values that ever came to the city.
