ALABAMA RETURNS TO ANTI COLUMN

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT DEFEATED BY TWENTY-THREE THOUSAND MAJORITY.

IS LANDSLIDE AGAINST

Election Unattended By Any Serious Disorders—The Result Causes Surprise.

By Associated Press.
Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 30.—It is believed that belated returns today have failed to make any material change in the result of yesterday's election which was won by the anti-amendmentists by a majority of twenty-three thousand.

Out of the sixty-seven counties in the state, only six gave majorities for the amendment and their combined pluralities will total less than a thousand votes.

The election was attended by practically no trouble and passed over very peaceably. Women and children surrounded the polls in all of the larger cities praying and singing, while the anti's were on hand with brass bands for their share of the noise.

The election's result voices the disapproval of the people of the very stringent and radical prohibition bill. With the exception of the Kansas enactments, this law is probably the most rigorous prohibition ever passed.

PROBE OF COLUMBIA BANK.

Haskell's Statement of Intentions Regarding Defunct Institution.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 29.—In defense of his position in seeking to delay the probe into the affairs of the Columbia Bank & Trust company at Oklahoma City, Governor C. N. Haskell has given out a long statement, in which he declares that in due time the grand jury will investigate the alleged violations of the law by officers of the bank if any are found. He promises that the payment of depositors which are now mainly other banks, will be completed by Christmas and that nothing must be done now to interfere with the liquidation.

The governor says: "We are still busy converting assets into cash to pay this emergency assessment back to the banks from which it was received and completing a careful investigation into all the methods and accounts of the bank so that we may know fully the cause of its failure and what officers of the bank or others, if any violated the laws of our state. When this is done we will tell the people in plain language what we have found and call the same to the proper officers for the consideration of the grand jury."

Governor Haskell states that before the liquidation is finished all the records and documents will be in his hands and will be presented to the proper officer for grand jury consideration. He declares that he is solely responsible for the manner in which the liquidation has been conducted.

Attorney General West has appointed Monon Pruet as a special assistant to probe the affairs of the bank and the investigation is now on. It has been repeatedly reported by Oklahoma City newspapers that the governor has asked the attorney general to delay the probe.

SHUT DOWN AT POWER PLANT—RAN OUT OF OIL

The failure of the Fort Worth and Denver to get a car of oil to the Water and Light plant yesterday caused the shutting down of the engines for about two hours last night when the rain was at its worst, demoralizing the street car traffic and putting the city in darkness. It had been the intention of the street car company to have all the cars at the opera house and show what good service the company could give in bad weather, but the lack of fuel prevented this. It was thought several times yesterday that a shutdown would be necessary from lack of oil, but economy made it possible to run until late last night, when the last drop of oil had been used. The Denver then bestirred itself and soon after eleven o'clock had the oil at the plant ready to use.

GROCE AND CANNON MAY YET BE ALIVE

INTERCEPTED WIRELESS REPORT SAYS THEY HAVE NOT BEEN EXECUTED—IN JAIL.

REPORTED BY STEAMER

Good Reason to Believe Americans Still Survive—France May Take Hand in Meles.

Texas News Service Special.
New Orleans, Nov. 30.—That Leonard Groce and Leroy Cannon of Pennsylvania, the two Americans for whose supposed death this country is about to become involved with Nicaragua, are still alive and in prison with twenty-six other Americans, is the report brought here this morning by Captain Holms of the steamer Atenas, which arrived this morning from South America.

The passengers on the steamer confirm the captain's declaration that a wireless message flashed from Bluefields, Nicaragua, on November 27th was picked up by the Atenas while passing the Nicaraguan coast. This message was to the effect that the two Americans had not been executed, but only imprisoned.

John M. Keith, general agent for the Hamburg-American steamship lines at San Jose, Costa Rica, confirms this report also. He first heard the message caught by the Atenas wireless operator.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., Nov. 30.—A special cablegram from San Jose, Costa Rica, says that France may become involved in the Nicaragua melee, as the result of brutal outrages said to have been committed on Faustine Mentel, a Frenchman, who has fled a detailed account of his ill treatment by Zelaya's soldiers. The French government is reported to have ordered a French warship to sail from Martinique to Nicaragua waters.

Saloon Robbed.

The saloon of J. A. Foosee was entered last night through a rear window, and this morning the proprietor missed $15 or $16 from a glass in which some loose change is usually kept.

There was a small sum of money in the till also, which was not locked, but this was not disturbed.

The burglar made his entrance to the building by breaking a window pane, and raising the sash.

Up to noon no clue so far as is known, has been discovered that will lead to the detection of the guilty parties.

By Associated Press.
Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—More than a dozen persons were injured, a number seriously, in a wreck of a Pennsylvania passenger train near Minor today, the train leaving the rails and running into a ditch. One passenger, the baggage master and the mail clerk were probably fatally hurt.

Orient Traffic Held Up By Floods at Benjamin.

Texas News Service Special.
Benjamin, Tex., Nov. 30.—The K. C. & M. O. railroad bridge south of here, across the Brazos river, was wrecked early this morning by raging floods, as a result of the two days' steady downpour of rain. Part of the bridge was washed away. Traffic is stopped, pending the repair of the bridge.

THREE INCHES OF RAIN HAS FALLEN

THIS CITY AND VICINITY VISITED BY SUBSTANTIAL PRECIPITATION LAST NIGHT.

WHEAT CROP BENEFITED

Rain Was of the Soaking Variety and Was Attended By Very Little Wind—City Soaked.

One of the most thorough and beneficial rains Wichita Falls has ever experienced has been that of the past three days. Three inches of rain have fallen since Saturday night and of this amount, two inches have fallen since yesterday morning.

The rain seems to have been very general and reports from points all around this city on all the railroads indicate that North and Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma were liberally visited.

Very little wind accompanied the rain and the water was thus allowed to soak in thoroughly. The result has been very muddy streets in the city, but in the country the value of the showers to next year's wheat crop is incalculable. What cotton there was still unpickered in the fields was mostly ruined but the sum total of this is insignificant compared with the benefit to the 1910 wheat crop.

Some ugly washouts at points in the city are to be noted this morning, but there seems to be no damage that cannot be quickly repaired. Downtown the need of a storm sewer was very evident last night, as the gutters were overflowing the sidewalks at many points. Unsettled weather is the prediction for tonight. The sun came out several times during the morning and fairer weather seems to be in prospect.

Washouts of minor severity are reported on several of the railroads, but the amount of damage done in the entire rail visited-territory will probably be very small.

The Wichita River is on a miniature tear this morning, being a diminutive but rushing torrent, and the lake also shows the signs of the heavy precipitation. East Lake presents its old-time appearance this morning, there being water there to the depth of three or four feet in some places.

Up to 7 o'clock yesterday morning one inch of rain had fallen and this was increased to three inches yesterday and last night. About an inch and a quarter of rain is believed to have fallen from 6 o'clock last evening until this morning.

CONTEST FOR REWARD.

Sheriff and Marshal Found Fugitive at the Same Time.

Texas News Service Special.
Sherman, Tex., Nov. 30.—The legal contest between Sheriff Sam Rice and Police Chief Henry De Spain for the big reward offered for the capture of Gus Sardin, charged with murdering Mrs. John Winkelman at Fayetteville, Ark., was assured today when it became known that both had been searching for and located Sardin in California about the same time.

De Spain went to Little Rock this morning to obtain extradition papers for Sardin, who yesterday admitted his guilt.

Rice will be in California tomorrow with the Texas requisition.

PEN COMMITTEE MEETS.

Is Holding Executive Conference With Gov. Campbell Today.

Texas News Service Special.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 30.—The members of the penitentiary investigating committee who recently submitted a report on the penitentiary conditions and urged a session of the legislature to correct the evils, gathered here this morning and immediately met with Governor Campbell.

The conference is executive and it is understood the committee's report is being discussed.

The governor had summoned the members to Austin and it is not unlikely that some agreement on the matter of assembling the legislature is being sought.

After the receipt of the committee's recommendation, the governor reiterated his intention not to call a session.

Milder Weather in Panhandle.

Texas News Service Special.
Childress, Tex., Nov. 30.—Mild temperature continues in the lower Panhandle after the forty-eight hours of steady down-pour, which ceased last night. A cold wave and snow are sweeping across the northern extremity of the state, but is not affecting this section. The streams are flooded and more rain is threatened.

SEVERAL LARGE TRACTS OF FARM LAND SOLD

Several large deals have been consummated in this county recently, according to deeds filed with the county clerk, and some large tracts of property have changed hands.

Martin Dawson of St. Louis recently sold to Edward Woodall of Hillsboro, 588 acres on the north side of the Wichita river, about two miles from this city, the consideration being $23,700, or about forty-three dollars per acre.

Among the large city deals was the sale of the east half of block 127, fronting on Indiana avenue, between 4th and 5th streets, for thirteen thousand dollars.

A number of other substantial deals, transferring lesser tracts, have also been made recently, and there seems to be considerable activity, mostly in farm lands.

Eschewed Politics and Devoted Life to Medicine and Charity.

NO FURTHER DELAY IN TRIAL OF H. C. PIERCE

Texas News Service Special.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 30.—No further delay is probable in the trial of H. Clay Pierce, the millionaire head of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, who is charged with perjury in connection with the ousting of the company from Texas.

Both sides announced ready at 10 o'clock this morning when the task of selecting a jury was undertaken.

C. W. Cahoon and Louis Fries, two witnesses who were subpoenaed, were fined a hundred dollars each by District Judge Calhoun and brought into court on bench attachments.

D. H. Hardy, former state secretary, also was absent when his name was called, but no attachment was issued. He is known to be in the city; the state is introducing evidence in support of the perjury charge, and will examine the following witnesses:

Miss N. M. Nagle, A. W. Clem, T. S. Johnson, G. W. Allen, H. B. Muir, D. Hardy, C. W. Cahoon and Louis Fries.

The determination of the prosecution to hasten the trial tends to dissipate the rumor current yesterday that the charge would be dismissed.

Pierce manifests an eager willingness to stand trial. His counsel is confident that he will be acquitted.

By Associated Press.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 30.—Both the state and defense announced ready for trial today in the case of the state against H. Clay Pierce, for alleged false swearing.

A special venire of fifty-three men have reported and the selection of the jury begun. It is expected that it will take all of today and tomorrow to get a jury.

ORIENT BUILDERS GO THROUGH CITY

PRES. STILLWELL AND STOCKHOLDERS RETURN FROM INSPECTION.

NEW ROAD IS PROSPERING

Large Party of English Stockholders Accompany President on His Tour of the Line.

A. E. Stillwell, president of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway passed through Wichita Falls yesterday afternoon, accompanied by the leading stockholders of the road in a special train of seven cars. The party was en route to Fort Worth after a general inspection of the line, coming hereover the Denver from Chillicothe.

Many of the Orient's stockholders are Englishmen and these constituted a large portion of the inspecting party. Some of them looked just like the Englishmen one sees depicted in the comic papers, but a few of them looked almost human. The Britishers poked their heads out of the car windows when the train stopped and endeavored to see what kind of a town it was by looking up and down the tracks between the lines of freight cars. Others left their cars and strolled around to admire the city from a closer viewpoint.

Mr. Stillwell had little to say when seen by a Times man, further than that everything was lovely all along the line and that he was pushing on towards Mexico from San Angelo as fast as the steel could be laid. He seemed most optimistic regarding the road's outlook and his sentiments were shared by others in the party.

Mr. Stillwell is said to have had about the price of three drinks in his pocket when he started out to build the Orient. His idea was to build Southward from Kansas City, going through as virgin a country as possible to the west coast of Mexico, where his seaport is to be. At present the line has been completed from Kansas to about twenty miles south of San Angelo. The story of its construction is one of indomitable pluck and unswerving determination. Stillwell met with many setbacks and a less determined man would have given up long before he did. But he kept on and dream is fast becoming a reality.

After a short stop in this city yesterday afternoon, the party proceeded on to Fort Worth.

ORDER OF THE CUFF.

Almost Forgotten Organization May Be Revived in London.

London—About the end of the far-away '70s there was a comic song which had a great vogue, in which the singer announced, after the fashion of the day, with much emphasis and repetition, that he was Captain Cuff. It was at the beginning of that decade that the great white shirt cuff, as we know it now, came into vogue, for before that time the cuff had been softer and not so stiff and starched.

It was supposed to be a sign of great dandyism, like the tall collar, and caused much innocent amusement to those who saw in it only a symbol of superfluous cleanliness, a thing which in certain grades of society and among a peculiar brand of the music hall comedian has always been a legitimate subject for wit.

The original meaning of cuff appears to be a covering for the hand, which like a mitten, left the fingers free, and, in fact, it used to be a synonym for what we now know as a mitten. Then the word was transferred to the loose end of the coat sleeve, which covered the base of the hand, and could be turned back to leave the wrist free, and thus it assumed the meaning which we now ascribe to it.

The term was easy to apply to the shirt sleeve, which also fell over the hand and could be turned back when it was in the way. In fact so entirely has the shirt sleeve usurped the word cuff that unless it is particularly stated to be a coat cuff the expression is always considered to refer to the shirt only.

The original form of the shirt cuff was, of course the simple band fastened at the wrist, to which the dandies attached those beautiful lace ruffles which held sway for so many years, and which formed so elegant, if unpractical, a finish to the sleeve. To Puritan times we owe the plain white shirt cuff, which was turned back over the cuff of the coat, and was just as easily soiled, and nothing like so splendid as the lace cuff or ruffle.

It is, therefore, not surprising that the lace ruffle held its own for many years, and was the only alternative to the plain linen band which found so great favor in the days of the Georges among all but the veriest butterflies of fashion. But the Puritan cuff was not done for, and it came in again after the French Revolution, though it only began to be properly starched in the earlier years of the late Queen's reign. But the cuff declined when the athletic period of the '50s and the '60s came in, and it was not until the '70s that the modern cuff in all its glory was invented. It soon became a necessary portion of the wardrobe, and the idea of a man wearing a colored cuff or colored shirt, except while engaged in some game, was unthinkable.

For many years the broad cuff shared with the high collar and the single eye-glass the reputation of being the outward sign of vacuous youth, known in some quarters as a 'mug.'

Mr. Chamberlain may be said to have smashed the eyeglasses in this respect, and there are barristers who are given to screwing their eyeglasses in their eyes with an extra ferocity just before pumeling an unhappy witness to pulp under the hammer of their cross-examination.

The real reign of the cuff ended with the Victorian era and since the Edwardian age began the cuff has too often been colored, or little better than the old-fashioned wristband. We have gone back to the habits of the Georgian days, when all but the dandies wore bands and only put on their ruffles when they wanted to be remarkably smart.

There are some benighted persons who apply the word cuff to detachable monstrosities which are, or were, fastened to the end of the shirt sleeve by buttons, and were even sometimes reversible. Such abominations are not worthy of the great name, and only can they be said to enter into history.

With this exception the shirt cuff has never been a sign reserved for the coat cuff, which in military, naval and diplomatic uniforms is heavily ornamented with gold braid, and is far more distinctive than the collar.

The shirt cuff has been disgracefully neglected by the authorities, who have lavished everything on its elder brother, the coat cuff, and left it to private enterprises to give it its due place in the world of dress. But whether it be lace ruffles or starched band, the cuff can never be without honor. Captain Cuff may be a little out of date at the present time, but at a full-dress parade he must be always to the fore.—Baltimore News.

AMUSEMENTS

"St. Elmo."
The attraction at the Wichita Theatre on Friday, December 3rd, will be a dramatization by Nell Twomey of Auguste J. Evans' famous novel, "St. Elmo." Since the book was first offered to the public a half century ago, it has been among the most popular works of native authors, and two generations have testified to its excellence. To the dramatist it has always presented a particularly difficult task for the crowded incidents of the written pages do not lend themselves readily to transposition to the stage, but, after a careful study, Mr. Twomey has brought forth a drama that will appeal to the most capacious critic.
The character of "St. Elmo" is as powerful a one as can be found in a vast literature. The character of this man, who turned from a promising career by the treachery of those he loved most dearly and becomes a pariah among men, is at once repellent and fascinating.
The announcement is made that every care has been taken in the scenic embellishment and that the interpreting cast is made up of carefully selected players; rehearsed under Mr. Twomey's personal direction.

"The Time, The Place and the Girl."
It's seldom, if ever—
You'll find them together.
"The Time, the Place and the Girl."

"The Time, the Place and the Girl," which Mr. H. H. Frazee (the owner of the famous "A Knight for a Day") which comes to the Wichita Theatre December 9th, is designated as a "comedy with music," not a "musical comedy." The classification implies that it has a plot and characters in it, and to a degree of excellence not often found, even in straight plays. Of course, there is a pretty love story and several very novel characters.

TO THE INSURING PUBLIC.

A Few Pertinent Facts About Fire Insurance Which It Will Pay You To Know.

Since the year 1880 some 440 stock companies engaged in the business of fire and marine insurance in the United States have either reinsured, retired, or failed—an average of more than 15 retirements and failures a year.

In purchasing securities, clothing, or builders supplies, or provisions, most buyers are careful to select the best that can be had for the money. Why should not the same law of trade govern the purchase of fire insurance? The rates charged by the stock fire insurance companies are the same. Then why not select policies of companies which have large resources, whose business is carefully selected, and which have honorably met the enormous losses occasioned by the great conflagrations at Chicago, Baltimore and San Francisco, to say nothing of those resulting from the smaller catastrophes of the kind?

Any insurance policy is a good enough policy until the unexpected happens—until a fire comes, then it will be found that it paid to select the best.

Companies represented in our office have more than TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS in United States assets, they are the leaders, strong and old-established.

Don't forget that the very best insurance protection can be had for the same money as an inferior article.

WEATHER FORECAST. For Wichita Falls and vicinity. —Tonight and Wednesday, unsettled weather.

Simply because Wichita Falls has just dedicated a $25,000 church, don't think she is through with church-building. A $35,000 building is under construction and there will be at least two more after that.

The American Methodists held their conference in Wichita Falls this year and the Southern Methodists will meet here next year. The Methodists always were a discriminating sect.

The question of securing female census clerks is being agitated. If they will only secure Wichita girls for this work, the population of Texas will easily reach 18,246,872.

The dispatches fail to state whether or not H. Clay Pierce wore the pink socks which encase his ankles when he appeared in court on that previous occasion.

Gov. Glenn says that Harmon will be the next Democratic nominee for president. He did not say, however, that Harmon will be the next president.

Peary says Cook lied because he did not say enough; Wellman says he lied because he said too much; the way of the explorer is hard, going and coming.

While the Panhandle was covered with several inches of snow, strawberries were being marketed along the coast this week. Come to Texas.

The Republicans of Texas are getting ready for the coming campaign with all the confidence and enthusiasm of Pennsylvania Democrats.

Maybe the Fort Worth man who tried to explode a dynamite bomb under a policeman was only trying to wake the officer up.

Let's see if the Government will have any better luck ousting the Standard Oil combine than Texas did.

We see Edwin Hawley's finish. The headlines have begun to talk about him as the 'railroad king.'

Constipation. The houses of Havana are not built upon sand; they stand on a solid foundation of lasting rock. But they are built on one-third sand, that material constituting an actual third of the mamposteria—a rough cement, of which they are constructed. This sand is brought from sand beds located at no great distances from Havana.

In quality some of them are very poor. Yet the sand from these poor banks sell at high prices, for it is badly needed and sand in good quality is not obtainable in amounts sufficient to the market. Yet good sand is to be had, it exists in large quantities near enough Havana to be marketable there.

The difficulty lies in the fact that at present no sandbanks are worked with modern machinery, nor under modern conditions. The situation leaves open a business opportunity for somebody able to interpret into dollars and cents of profit the complaint of contractors who are trying to build modern structures (cement being in great demand in this climate) amid primitive conditions, especially so far as their supply of sand is concerned.

The work of paving and sewerage Havana will increase the demand for sand since much cement will be used. There are at least a thousand buildings in course of construction at the present moment, and sand is entering into the composition of every one of them.

Archaic methods of handling this very important material must yield to modern improvement; in affecting the improvement there is money for somebody.—Havana Post.

“Spend Wichita Falls money in Wichita Falls.” “Money spent away from home helps to build another city instead of your own.” “Why not help build your home city with home money?”

CONSTIPATION. Its Cause and How to Cure It. Eat too much, Stomach feels bloated, All out of sorts, Don't feel like work to-day. Guess I've another case of biliousness. “Take anything?”

“Yes; some pills, but no results; suppose I'm getting ironclad. Sometimes I double the dose, then they physic me so hard I'm too weak to work. Think I'll have to try something new.”

“Ever try Prickly Ash Bitters?” “No; I've heard a good deal about it, but never tried it.” “Well, you'll be pleased with the results.”

The purgative action of Prickly Ash Bitters not only removes hard impactions, gas and impurities, but it strengthens the muscular action of the bowels which causes them to move regularly. Prickly Ash Bitters is a bowel tonic and regulator in the truest sense. It promotes daily evacuations, establishes healthy movements and is the best known remedy for disordered digestion, flatulency and a constipated habit.

D. M. Blackwelder, of Litchfield, Ill., says in the Litchfield News: “I am perfectly willing, in fact glad to testify to the value of Prickly Ash Bitters as a medicine for the kidneys, stomach and bowels. I have used it whenever I needed anything of the kind for the last fifteen years and it has always given satisfaction.”

"HENRY VIII."

Small Audience Witnesses Performance of Louis James.
A small audience--entirely too small to be commensurate with the merits of the production or the greatness of the star--witnessed the performance of Louis James in 'Henry the Eighth' last night. The attraction was one of the best that ever visited this city and deserved a packed house.
Mr. James interpreted his part, that of Cardinal Wolsey, with all the talent he possessed and his work was the leading feature. While the part is not as well suited to him as some others he has appeared in, he carried it out splendidly. Aphie James as Queen Katherine, was the leading figure in a very strong supporting cast and her queenly part fitted her perfectly. Of the cast, Otto Andrele as the Duke of Buckingham and William Howell in the title role, were probably the best. Their parts called for much strong acting, which was never found wanting.
Wichita Falls must not acquire the reputation of being so utilitarian in her pursuits that Shakespeare, presented by one of the ablest stars of the modern stage, receives no better support than was accorded Louis and Aphie James late night.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Bad Stomach Causes Unsightly Complexions--Mater-Walker Co.
Have a Remedy.
Bad stomach means bad blood; bad blood means sallow, unattractive skin. Why? The stomach, in a healthy condition separates the nutritious matter from the food and gives it to the blood to supply the entire body with nourishment.
If the stomach is not in a healthy condition it does not separate from the food the nutritious matter and it passes off with the waste.
Thus the food is impoverished and has not sufficient nourishment to supply the muscles, skin and body generally.
If you have belching of gas, distress after eating, nausea, biliousness, nervousness or foul breath, then your stomach is wrong and you want the best prescription for stomach troubles the world has ever known.
You want Mi-o-na tablets, the great stomach remedy which Mater-Walker Drug Co. guarantee to cure indigestion, no matter of how long standing, or money back.
Relieves stomach distress at once.
Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Wichita Falls by Mater-Walker Drug Company, for 50 cents a large box. Test samples free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

Benjamin Clothes

After all, it's really the tailor who makes a suit a success or a failure. The most fascinating style would be a fizzle if there were not careful needle work underneath. The most phenomenal designer on earth could not make a garment a success without the co-operation of the tailor. It is he who, by the diligent plying of his needle, gives shape and style and ensures service. The world's most excellent tailors are congregated in New York on account of its being the greatest clothes manufacturing center in the world. They have more work and are better paid there. Could there be a better explanation of why 'Benjamin Clothes,' Made in New York, are the most stylish and the most perfectly made of any on earth. Won't you make it your particular business to see these wonderful 'Benjamin Clothes.'

Collier & Hendricks

Owing to ill health, I will sell at public auction, township 31, range 22, block nine in Gee Haw survey, One crush raspberry cow, aged six years. She is a good milker and not afraid of the cars, or anything else. She is a cow of undaunted courage, and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form, she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her home by the means of trace chain, but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right.

She is one fourth short horn and three fourths Hysna; purchaser need not be identified. I will also throw in a Lefevre double-barrel shot gun purchased at the Wilson Hardware Company, which goes with her.

In May she generally goes away for a week or two and returns with a long wabbye-legged calf. Her name is Rose and I would prefer to sell her to a non-resident.

We will also exchange anything in the Wilson Hardware line consisting of the Celebrated Velle Buggies and carriages for mules and horses. A big reduction for cash.

REAL HOWLING.

Cries of Real Wolf Add Realism to Strong Dramatic Production.

In "The Wolf," which is to be presented at the Wichita Theatre on December 8th, there is told not only an interesting and well-acted story of the great outdoors of the Canadian Hudson fur country, but there is produced a drama, rivaling in dramatic realism, the shows of ancient Rome.

The reproduction of the howling pack of timber wolves, whose yelps and wailing cries are made more real by the accompanying voice of a genuine wolf, has never been excelled.

The strange effect of the cries of the wolf pack was secured during an afternoon of interesting experiments at the Bronx Park zoological garden in New York. Experts from the recording forces of a big phonograph company, army with the necessary apparatus, stationed themselves in front of the cages of the wolves in the zoo and waited for the captive Ismaels of the Northwest to howl into the big horn. Eugene Walter, the author of the "Wolf," was there and saw when and how, and finally, a concert of cries from the throats of the shaggy beasts gave the operator his cue, and he began to record the voices of the wolves.

At every performance of "The Wolf," during the stirring and exciting duel in the dark between the hero, Jules Beaubien and William McDonald, the villain, the howl of the pack of wolves is heard, while accompanying it, note for note, a real timber wolf, whose mate was killed on account of her ferocity, gives wild voice to his loneliness.

Teddy, the lone timber wolf, who nightly cries aloud his sense of wrong and loneliness to heaven, was presented with his mate, Nanette, to the company during a recent engagement of "The Wolf" in Oklahoma City. The company accepted them as pets, but one of them, at least, has become a valuable adjunct to the realism of the play. Nanette's untamable spirit was so fierce that the management was forced to kill her, and so Teddy is left to give his nightly cry alone.

During the last act of the drama, when the terrific duel is fought in the dark, amid the howlings of the hungry wolves in the forest, Teddy's voice adds many thrills and his history much pathos.

Nightly when the current is turned on in the phonograph and the cries of the pack are heard, which is his cue, Teddy's voice mingles and blends with those of his absent brothers.

ONCE WASTE—NOW WEALTH.

About a quarter of a century ago cotton seed was thrown away as absolutely worthless. Today, products representing an enormous total are made from this once-despised cotton seed. Improved processes of crushing and refining the oil have resulted in a product equal to the purest olive oil in nutritive value. From it is produced a cooking fat (called Cottolene) which is claimed by physicians to be purer and much more wholesome than lard, and it is much more economical as well. As this fact becomes generally known the use of cotton seed oil in the form of Cottolene will be practically unlimited.

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

The taking of testimony in the Crowell trial will probably end early this afternoon and arguments begun. It is probable that the case will go to the jury by noon tomorrow.

While attempting to enter a carriage in front of the opera house last night a lady slipped and fell, being plunged into several feet of water in the gutter there. She was not injured.

News was received from Henrietta this afternoon that Judge Carrigan had decided the prohibition contest in favor of the contestees, which means that the county will remain dry.

A cab was wrecked near the corner of 10th and Lamar last night, the driver being unable to avoid the ditch in time to prevent the accident. The occupant of the vehicle was badly shaken up, but unhurt.

Trevathan & Bland, the grocers, are now occupying their new building at 812 Indiana avenue, where they will be glad to meet and greet their friends and patrons in their handsome new business home.
