OKLAHOMA CIRCUIT ADMITS THIS CITY

OKLAHOMA RACE HORSES TO APPEAR ON LOCAL TRACK AT THE FAIR NEXT FALL

GOOD TALENT ASSURED

Circuit will include Wichita Falls, Frederick, Mangum, Elk City, El Reno and Others.

Wichita Falls has been made a member of the Oklahoma racing circuit and when the Interstate Fair is held here next fall, the horses of this circuit will race on the local track. Wichita Falls was accepted as a member at a meeting of the representatives of the various Oklahoma fairs at Frederick this week.

There was considerable opposition to the admission of this city, as it was desired to keep the circuit as strictly in Oklahoma as possible, but the advantages of having a strong fair like the one to be held here, in the circuit, were put up so strongly that this city was finally elected.

The circuit now includes Frederick, Mangum, Elk City, Watonga, El Reno, Wichita Falls and possibly Altus and several others.

The dates for various race meets have not been seen, but the circuit will probably open in this city and then proceed up the Northwestern to the other fairs. The schedule of prizes and purses is now being planned. It is not known at what time the fair will be held in this city, but the present plans are for about the middle of October.

Wichita Falls was represented at the meeting by M. E. Greene of Frederick and to him is due the credit for getting this city into the circuit. This insures that good racing will be one of the leading features of the first Interstate Fair next October.

PIPE LINE'S BURSTING PUTS HENRIETTA DARK

Henrietta was lightless and heatless last night as a result of a break in the pipe line between that town and Petrolia, the line bursting at the Henrietta city limits, due to excessive pressure. As a result there was no gas for either lighting or heating last night and the citizens were considerably inconvenienced as a result. It is probable that the damage will be repaired by tonight and service restored.

INTEREST IN THE COMING ELECTION

CANDIDATES ARE BEING GROOMED FOR APPROACHING CONTEST IN APRIL.

SUGGESTIONS FOR MAYOR

Aldermen Walsh, Skeen and Young Have Been Asked To Become Candidates.

The city elections are now only three months off and interest in the various races is beginning to warm up. As yet there have been no announcements for any of the offices, but it is expected that there will be before very long.

It is not known yet whether Mayor Noble will be a candidate for that office again and he has not intimated whether or not he expects to run another time. The mayoralty race will doubtless attract more interest than usual this year, as that position is now salaried. Among the names which have been suggested are those of W. E. Skeen, E. P. Walsh and J. T. Young, all of whom are members of the present board of aldermen. Any of these three gentlemen would, it is believed, fill the position admirably and their friends are endeavoring to get them into the race. Alderman Young's friends are particularly active in his behalf and have about gotten up a boom of quite ample proportions.

The terms of Alderman Skeen and Richolt expire in April and it is probable that both will be candidates for re-election, unless Alderman Skeen should yield to the wishes of his friends and enter the mayoralty contest.

It is understood that the other city officials will be candidates for re-election for their respective offices and little opposition to any of them is in evidence as yet. The principal interest centers about the mayoralty race and it will be watched with unusual interest as the campaign continues.

TEXAN INTENDS TO FLY TO NORTH POLE

FREDERICK FIELDING OF SAN ANTONIO ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR AIRSHIP EXPEDITION.

WILL TAKE PEARY ALONG

Will Start From Etah and Expects To Make Trip Inside of Forty-Eight Hours.

San Antonio, Jan. 13.—Dr. Frederick J. Fielding, the aviator, of this city, who recently announced his plans to fly to the North Pole in a dirigible balloon, today made known the project in detail and declared he desired and expected the rest of the party to accompany him.

Dr. Fielding discussed the Peary-Cook controversy, saying that Cook's claim was apparently insufficient, and that the public scoffs at the discoveries account of the squabble. He believes the balloon trip will settle the questions and satisfy the public. Fielding proposes to construct a balloon to hold two hundred thousand cubic feet of gas, and carry six thousand pounds burden. The craft will be cigar shaped with planes on its sides which may be operated in ascents and descents. A two hundred horse power engine of eight cylinders, will drive the craft through the air at one hundred miles an hour and Fielding expects to make the trip to the pole and return in two days and nights. The balloon and supplies will be shipped to some navigable point nearest the pole, probably Etah. He will take four months preparations.

Fielding will not take risks as did Peary and Cook, and will insist upon Peary's accompanying him, also several scientists appointed by the government. An assistant will also accompany Fielding. He will carry a tank containing 25,000 cubic feet of hydrogen gas to replenish his supply for the return trip, and will leave the empty tank at the pole as evidence he has been there. He will also carry two Eskimoes, a sleigh and team of dogs to use in case of accident to the airship. The cost of the journey will reach at least fifteen thousand dollars. Fielding says he will bear most of the expense himself.

C. W. Morse, Ex-Ice King, For Whom Prison Yawns

Judge Hough's recent decision denying a new trial to Charles W. Morse was a severe blow to the little financier, and when its full effect was realized by Morse's lawyers the doors of the federal prison in Atlanta seemed nearer to Morse than ever before. Fourteen months ago Morse was convicted of serious infractions of the banking laws and was sentenced to serve fifteen years in a federal prison.

GRAZING RESOLUTION UNDER FIRE AT DENVER

By Associated Press.
Denver, Jan. 13.—The resolution presented to the National Livestock Association endorsing the Pinchot administration in the Forest service and urging federal control of range lands met with bitter opposition from the Colorado delegates today. They declare they see in the resolution an attempt by large cattle companies to secure land at a merely nominal figure thus replacing the range land owned by them which is now too valuable for grazing purposes. The next meeting seems to be between Denver and Fort Worth.

NO RESULTS YET IN SENATORIAL CONTEST

By Associated Press.
Jackson, Jan. 13.—It seems conclusive today that Mississippi's senatorial contest must go to the legislature for settlement next week on an open ballot. Vardaman is holding his own with from sixty-eight to seventy-five votes and the combined strength of the opposition is from one hundred to one hundred and five. Apparently the candidates do not fear a change from secret to open ballot. Balloting will be resumed this afternoon, when three ballots will be taken. No material change is anticipated.

PLAN PAVING OF FIFTEEN BLOCKS

BELIEVED THAT MUCH BRICK CAN BE LAID WHEN CITY VOTES ADDITIONAL BONDS.

FORTY THOUSAND TOTAL

Estimated That Twenty-Two Thousand Five Hundred More Bonds Can Be Voted.

With the bonds already voted and those which the citizens will be called upon to vote before long, it is believed that Wichita Falls will be able to lay about one mile of paved streets this year and plans are already under way for the beginning of the work. The city already has $17,500 in bonds and it is estimated that she can issue about $22,500 additional, or a total of forty thousand dollars in bonds.

With this amount the city is to pave the street intersections and pay for one-third of the cost of the rest of the paving. The city's forty thousand, added to the amount to be paid by the property owners, will make a total available for this work of about one hundred thousand dollars. It is thought that the brick can be laid at an average cost of two dollars per square yard, which would mean fifty thousand square yards in all.

While no plan has yet been agreed upon, and will not be until the additional bonds are voted, it is probable that Seventh and Eighth streets will be paved from the railroad tracks to Indiana avenue, Ohio avenue from Sixth to Ninth, Indiana avenue from Sixth to Tenth and Ninth street between Indiana and Ohio. This will make a total of twelve paved blocks, which will cover the greater part of the business section and might leave a sufficient amount available to extend the Seventh street work to Scott avenue.

CHINAMEN'S SMUGGLING OPERATIONS EXTENSIVE

Texas News Service Special.
Galveston, Jan. 13.—Evidence that smuggling on a large scale was plotted by the seventeen persons on trial in the federal court here, was brought out today when a letter was introduced by the government to show the scheme. The letter was written by Jim Lee, a Galveston Chinaman to others of his race in Matamoros, opposite Brownsville and hinted strongly at smuggling. Dr. John Gardner, a San Francisco expert in the Chinese language testified to the translation.

DAMAGE TO RAILROAD IS FOURTEEN MILLION

By Associated Press.
Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 13.—Advices from the flooded district of the San Pedro Los Angeles and Salt Lake route indicate that ninety-three miles of track are gone and the road practically washed out in long stretches. All trains save four locals have been abandoned. It is conservatively estimated that it will cost fourteen million dollars to rebuild the line. The damage is stupendous.

Commerce Board and Representative Who Seeks to Have its Powers Expanded

If the legislation which the president of the United States and the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce propose becomes effective the interstate commerce commission, which has been in existence since 1887, will have its powers of control over railway rates vastly increased. The president has outlined in his speeches from time to time measures which he advocates to congress on this subject that the presidents of six of the greatest railroad systems in the country called on him recently. The house committee on commerce, headed by Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, also has been drafting legislation on this subject, the chairman having held frequent conferences with the president. The group picture in this illustration contains all the members of the interstate commerce commission. In the top row from left to right are Messrs. Clark, Cockrell, Clements, Chairman Knapp and Secretary Moseley (standing); lower row, Messrs. Proctor, Lane and Harlan.

Henry Clay's Sword.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal:
The diplomatic sword worn by Henry Clay at the signing of the treaty of Ghent was presented to Miss Anna grand-daughter, of this city.

The sword was presented by Henry Clay to General Bodley, a famous General in the war of 1812, who had always been his friend, and he in turn willed it to his son, Charles Bodley and thus it came into the possession of Mr. Chas Bodley's daughter, Mrs. Florence Davenport of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Davenport came to Lexington for a visit to her uncle, Colonel William Pickett. She brought the sword with her, intending to present it to the Kentucky Historical Society. After meeting Miss Clay and finding that she was Henry Clay's great-grand daughter and also a descendant of the Grays family, who had always been great friends of the Bodleys, Mrs. Davenport preferred to present the sword to her, knowing how great a value she would place on such a gift. The sword is a graceful short sword, the kind worn on all diplomatic occasions.

"The Blockhead."
The peculiar comedian, Mr. W. B. Patton, will be seen at the Wichita Theatre Thursday night in his latest and best comedy success, "The Blockhead."

The Oklahoma City Times of Sunday morning January 9th, says: "You can tell it better yourself," said W. B. Patton in answer to my humble request for a few words about his play "The Blockhead" which is showing at the Overholser.

And perhaps I can; for indeed it is quite in keeping with the temperament of a man who could produce such a little masterpiece that he should be unassuming and modest. "A little masterpiece" is what will best describe it to the discerning. Patton wrote it, and Patton is acting it. Daintily woven around a motif that is at once substantial and delicate, played by such a company as one is not apt to find in many a day's travel, it is a play that should put its author among the most appreciated of our playwrights.

Every character is a living, breathing human being, and every player in this truly wonderful company is living his or her part to the fullest. Those inured to the everlasting overdrawn and overacted comedies that are satiating the public will feel a thrill of genuine pleasure in this gentle, graceful portrayal of the charming and the real.

And Patton—if Patton is a playwright worthy of the highest praise, his acting is just as great. Surely it is not often given to one man to do two things at the same time; winning the respect and even the sympathy of his audience, but the charm of his personality spreads like an insidious perfume through the theatre and before one begins to sense the outcome of the play, and to realize that he is to be the deliciously naughty hero and not the poor professor of Latin. "Trying to make a little money to pursue his studies for the clergy," one is warming up to the man as the brother who is living life for what he can get out of it, and loving the experiment.

The theme of this play is not quite new—but is there a new theme? The people of this play are born into the life they lead, and you fall in with that life and lead it with them. This is the best of acting and nothing I could say would praise the work of this company more fully. To live and make your audience live with you, the life that the play portrays, that is true art. And how dainty is the work of the old beautiful, erring wife of the old Captain Barnes, erring I say in thought only, for the timely aid of of the "Blockhead" saves her from the "snake", who, for her money, would tempt her from the home she glories and sweetens with her kindness and cultured simplicity.

The scene of the little daughter, Kattie, telling of her first love to the man in the moon as the only one who will listen without ridicule, and without depreciation, is spoken, not sung; but no song was ever more musical than the sweet-voiced child telling of the budding of her womanhood, and the coming of that first wondrous touch of the little god's fingers on her innocent head.

There is not a bombastic thing in this exquisite picture; there is no problem involved, moral theory, or gallery play; but many are the problems of morality, kindness and human fun, just as many as there are in life itself, to meet the search for underlying meaning, and when you have seen it, or rather I should say lived it; whether you are a tolerant lover of good plays or an arch critic satiated with all drama and comedy that is usual, you will come away with this word on your lips just as do all who have seen this masterpiece comedy "complete."

The woman who plays the part of the thrice-married cousin, is a superior character actress, the little Jew boy who refuses to be bribed by the villain is as fine in his part as the rest. And well, as I have said before, they are all good, I was almost going to say great, and I take it back about the chauffeur—I see it now, he too is as much a part of the play as the others, we need him.

The Missouri Girl.
Mr. Fred Raymond will present his famous comedy "The Missouri Girl" at the Wichita Theatre Saturday night, January 15th.

The Waco Times said: "Sadie Raymond, and an extremely clever company presented 'The Missouri Girl' to the full capacity of the Auditorium last night. The play and players made a decided hit. The play is brim full of comedy and contains a strong plot, while the scenery and stage settings are bright, new and effective. A number of specialties which were introduced were all novel, and some of them drew as many as five encores.

"The Woodchopper" song and dance by Zeke and Daisy is one of the most laughable as well as unique ideas for a specialty we have ever seen. Sadie Raymond as Daisy was bright, cute and winning. Her singing was especially fine and showed a highly cultivated voice. Frank Farrell as Zeke kept the audience in a continuous roar of laughter whenever he appeared. He is undoubtedly one of the best character comedians before the public.

The prices for this engagement will be 75c for parquet, 50c for balcony and 25c for gallery. Seats on sale Thursday.

"I have been whispering many sweet things into my own ears since I came to Wichita Falls, said Mr. J. A. Kafa, the business manager of the famous Morey Stock Co., "but the climax came last night when I made a trip down to the ten-thirty Katy train to see if a bundle of my printing arrived on that train."

"I was standing by the express car watching them unloading it when a very attractive looking young lady of apparently about 18 or 19 years of age rushed up to me. 'I know you are a show man,' she said, 'and I have been simply crazy to go out on the road with some show. Can you tell me what show company you represent?' When I told her that I was representing the famous Morey Stock Company she was nearly wild with delight. 'Oh, that is the company I have been hearing so much of lately. Isn't that the company that Billy Bretz, F. A. Murphy, Carrie Lowe and Master Jno. Murphy were with when they played Wichita Falls last season?' When I answered in the affirmative she was exceedingly anxious that she be given a trial with the company and you can imagine how hard it was for me to tell her that it would be impossible as she had had practically no experience in this life. All our people are stars in their particular parts and as especially in this line of work it takes a great many years of experience, even if a person is fortunate enough to have the talent and all our people are among the best stock company actors in America today.

"Miss Beulah Monroe, who is now taking the leading part, was formerly with the Wallack Theatre Stock Company of New York. This is Miss Monroe's first appearance in the West and no doubt she will be as well received here as she has been in the East."

"Mr. Lawrence Deming, the leading man, was with the Curtis Theatre (Denver, Col.), Stock Company for several seasons and his name is familiar to many people in this section of the country. Mr. Deming is considered one of the best leading men in the West as well as one of the youngest and no doubt will soon appear in Broadway productions."

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity.
—Tonight, partly cloudy weather.
—Colder and fair Friday.

What Wichita county needs most just now, and should by all means have, is roads that will be easy to travel over in bad weather as well as in favorable weather, and when one of the speakers at the Chamber of Commerce meeting the other night said the only way he knew of getting good roads was to pay for them, he solved the problem. Wichita county is well able to vote a bonded debt of $100,000 or more for the construction of good roads, and by the time the money for the first issue of bonds is expended in road building the people will be so well pleased at the result that they will be ready and willing to repeat the dose and vote another issue for even a larger amount for the same purpose. It is just as true that good wagon roads enhance the value of farm and county property as it is that railroads, paved streets and sidewalks enhance the value of city property.

The proposed Young Men's Civic Club would be worth more to Wichita Falls, if rightly organized and managed than almost any other organization. Let the young fellows get together and take some of the work on their shoulders.

It will cost Wichitans over eleven thousand dollars to be boosters this year, but it's worth it. And that eleven thousand will all come back to the contributors, many fold.

Another of those Illinois mobs was rampant the other night. Somehow that imaginary line between north and south shifts mightily suddenly when a negro runs amuck.

The weather man predicted freezing weather for today and we are making a heroic effort to stifle our disappointment at his failure to guess it right.

We do not particularly admire Moore, but that wife of his is one of the dead-gamst bits of femininity that ever wore skirts.

The Fort Worth bank that blocked the railroad track with its safe for an hour was giving the railroad a dose of its own medicine.

The most unkind cut of all is that Pinchot should refer his troubles to the University of Copenhagen.

Indiscreet and silly as she may have been, Roberta de Jannon is enough of a sport not to peach on her pal.

HENRY GRAVES APPOINTED.

Yale Man Will Succeed Pinchot As Chief Forester.
Washington, Jan. 13—President Taft yesterday afternoon appointed Henry S. Graves, director of the Yale forest school as forester of the United States to succeed Gifford Pinchot.

He appointed Albert F. Potter, at present acting forester, as associate forester. The new forester and his assistant are known as Pinchot men. Both have served under Mr. Pinchot and both are in sympathy with his policies. It was largely through Mr. Pinchot's efforts that the Yale forest school was established and Mr. Graves went from the post of assistant chief of the division of forestry under Mr. Pinchot to become director of the school in 1900. He had served in the forestry division for two years.

Mr. Graves was graduated from Yale in 1892. He was trained in forestry in this country and in Europe and has had extensive experience in the West, having made the reconnaissance survey of the Black Hills in 1897.

Mr. Graves will take up his duties as forester Feb. 1. Mr. Potter, the new associate forester, who will succeed Overton Price, is a native of California and has spent all of his life in the West until he became a member of the forestry staff nine years ago. He has had jurisdiction over all grazing privileges within the reserves.

Voting in Spain.

Voting in Spain is held to be a duty to the community, not merely a privilege of the individual, and neglect of civic obligations carries its own penalty. Male adults of legal age and under seventy, with the exception of priests, notaries and judges, are required to vote in municipal elections. Failure to cast a ballot is punishable by having one's name published as censure for neglect, by having taxes increased 2 per cent, by suffering a deduction of 1 per cent in salary if employed in the public service and for the second offense the loss of right to hold elective or appointive office.

"THE PECULIAR COMEDIAN"

W. B. PATTON

In His Latest, Best and Most Successful Comedy

"THE BLOCKHEAD"

The play deals with nature itself, depicting scenes as they really exist in everyday life, and contains a beautiful and wonderfully interesting story. Eastern critics look upon Mr. Patton as one of the most sterling comedians, and his quaint and peculiar methods have won for him the unstinted praise of the entire eastern press. He is surrounded this season with an exceptionally clever supporting company.

W. B. PATTON

"The Blockhead" is an exceptionally clever play. Its three acts are filled with comedy and pathos. As a vehicle for the display of his peculiar talents it could not be excelled. Quaint and original in his methods, realistic and exceedingly magnetic as "Prof. Theodore Blockson, Hoddington," he hold the interest of the audience from start to finish.

GUN COTTON.

A Peculiar Characteristic of This Terrible Explosive.

Many and odd are the materials entering into the manufacture of modern explosives, but perhaps the most interesting of all these elements of destruction as well as the simplest is gun cotton. The gun-cotton manufacturing industry is large, as enormous quantities are used in the charging of torpedoes and for similar purposes.

The base of gun cotton is pure raw cotton or even cotton waste, such as is used to clean machinery. This is steeped in a solution of one part of nitric and three parts of sulphuric acid. It is the former ingredient that renders the mass explosive, the sulphuric acid being used merely to absorb all moisture, thus permitting the nitric acid to combine more readily with the cellulose of the cotton.

After being soaked for several hours in the solution described the cotton is passed between rollers to expel all nonabsorbed acid, a process carried to completion by washing the cotton in clear water. This washing process is a long one, requiring machinery which reduces the cotton to a mass resembling paper pulp. Should any nonabsorbed acid be allowed to remain it would decompose the cotton.

If the explosive is to be used after the manner of powder it is still further pulverized and then thoroughly dried, but if intended for torpedoes it is pressed into cakes of various shapes and sizes—disk shaped, cylindrical, flat squares and cubes. When not compressed gun cotton is very light, as light as ordinary batting.

A peculiar characteristic of this terrible explosive is that a brick of it when wet may be placed on a bed of hot coals, and as the moisture dries out the cotton will flake and burn quietly. If dry originally, however, the gun cotton will explode with terrible force at about 320 degrees of heat.

In general it is the custom to explode gun cotton by detonation or an intense shock instead of by heat. In a torpedo the explosive charge is wet, this wet cotton being exploded by means of dry cotton in a tube, this having been fired by a cap of fulminate of mercury, the cap itself having been fired by the impact of the torpedo against the target.—Harper's Weekly.

Advice and a Mule.

"Givin' some men advice," said Uncle Eben, "reminds me of tryin' to discipline my ol' mule wif a fence rail. It tires out de giver and hurts de receiver, but don't make no real difference."—Washington Star.

A Complete Abstract of All Lands in Wichita County.

"Carefulness and Promptness Our Motto"

Money loaned on farms, ranches and business property. Wichita Falls, Texas.

LARGEST IN COUNTRY.

Texas School Fund is Now of Ample Proportions.

With one or two exceptions, the permanent school fund of the state of Texas is the richest in the United States and it is steadily growing. From the state treasury department it is learned that there is now to the credit of this fund the munificent sum of $16,072,459.53, all invested in interest bearing bonds of the state of Texas. These bonds are independent and common school district bonds, and also municipal bonds of every description, and the great majority of these securities bear 5 per cent interest. The investment of the permanent school fund invested in the state board of education and as fast as bonds are issued the board buys them as long as the cash funds last, and then the board waives its option, which it has under the law, and the bonds are then sold in the open market. There are three sources from which the board gets its revenue to buy bonds, the first is from the sale of public school lands, the second is from the principal paid on land notes and the third is by the redemption of bonds when they are redeemed by the counties, cities or districts that issue them. This fund is now exhausted, but will be replenished within this month. At the last meeting of the board it purchased $225,000 of these bonds, and consumed all of the funds, and the board had to pass up about $250,000 of bonds that were offered for lack of funds with which to buy them. In some instances the board waived its option, while in others the board retained its right to purchase them. This was an unusually large amount of bonds to be offered at one time, this congestion being caused by the question that had been raised in the school bond case from Itasca, but since the court passed on the question the board is again buying bonds as fast as the money comes in. The interest derived from this vast amount of bonds is placed to the credit of the available school fund, and is apportioned to the various counties in the state to pay the salaries of teachers. It is estimated that at the present rate this permanent school fund within the next two or three years will reach $20,000,000. Notwithstanding this magnificent inheritance for the school children of Texas, the standard of the public schools is far superior to most of the public schools in the northern states. But there is an educational awakening now and in five years from now Texas will have taken its place along the older states in the North in educational facilities and in the expenditure of money for school purposes.

REGISTERED MAIL—NOT NEW.

Papyrus Communications Were Thus Handled 2000 Years Ago.

Translations recently published of some of the latest papyri found in Egypt lead us, according to Corriere della Sera, precisely into an office where registered mail more than 2000 years ago.

Among other things found was a statement of an account later used in wrapping a mummy belonging to the time of Ptolemaeus Philadelphus. On the back of this papyrus, the front being occupied by entries made by the bookkeeper of a great estate in relation to receipts and distribution of wheat and barley, this statement is followed by a postal diary, which certainly was kept quite irregularly.

The diary begins with the 16th and ends with the 23d of a month not named, and mentions the arrival and further travel of letters forwarded from a local postoffice. An entry says:

"On the 21st day of the month, at the fifth hour, the postal rider escorting the mail from the South delivered to the postal clerk, Phanaia, at this station, two letters. These letters were later delivered by Assistant Postmaster Horos to the postal rider Nikodemus, who departed with them for the North."

This papyrus relates also that the chief officials of the local postoffice, which was perhaps in the neighborhood of Ptolemais, were known also under the sobriquet of hundred-acre men; that is, they were colonists of the really prosperous class. The service they were rendering in the postoffice was an office of honor that had been conferred on them.

That a salary was allotted to Phanaia, the postal clerk, is one of the entries of the diary, but the amount of it is not mentioned, and that the diary was written on a papyrus, of which the far greater part had already been used shows that the brothers had proposed to conduct their office economically.—Scientific American.

Do You Want To Be A CITIZEN?

If You Do

Pay Your Poll Tax Now

The year 1910 will bring several important elections and every citizen owes it to himself, his city, county and state to have a voice in every issue. A citizen who sacrifices his right to vote has little ground for complaint when he is willing to let others think and act for him.

Only male citizens between the ages of 21 and 60 years are required to pay a poll tax provided they have resided in the State of Texas one year prior to January 1st, 1910.

Avoid standing in line by paying Poll Taxes early. The last day on which Poll Taxes can be paid is January 31st and a receipt must be secured from both the City Hall and Court House before becoming an eligible voter for 1910.

A BIG SALE

THE NEW WYATT HOTEL.

THE Floral Heights Realty Company wishes to announce to the public that beginning February 1st, they will put on a thirty day sale of lots in FLORAL HEIGHTS with a guarantee that the prices on all unsold lots will be raised 25 per cent. at the close of the sale. This practically insures every purchaser that his lots will be worth 25 per cent. more on March 1st 1910. The sale will be advertised extensively throughout Texas and Oklahoma. Excursions will be run into the city on all railroads and it is expected that nearly every lot in the addition will be sold.

If you would like to have the pick and choice of these lots before the big sale now is the time to get busy. Any reliable Real Estate Agent will be glad to show them to you and can quote you prices, as we have but one price, from which we will not vary. Terms are one-third cash, balance in one and two years at 8 per cent. interest.

FLORAL HEIGHTS will have every convenience out to the bend of the car line within the next thirty days with the exception of sewerage, and we expect to have that by the first of April. Many beautiful homes are to be constructed and inside of another year FLORAL HEIGHTS will be the best residence section of the City.

You can't buy lots anywhere else in the city on the car line for double what you will have to pay in FLORAL HEIGHTS. Buy your lots today before the price is advanced and while you can secure choice locations.

The True Conservatism

New Orleans Times-Democrat:

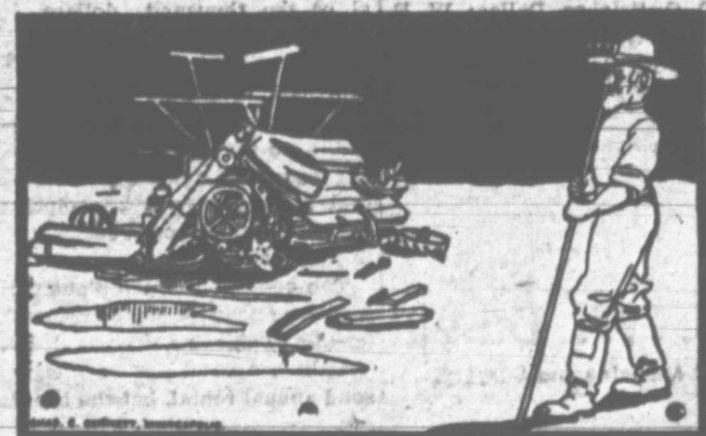

The owners of property ought to be the best guardians of their interests, and yet experience shows that capital is even blinder than labor in large affairs. Time and again have classes and castes lost the whole, in the effort to save a part. The French Revolution is one of the perfect examples of this unintelligent selfishness. There was a moment when Louis XVI and his nobles might have steered the ship of State to the haven of constitutional monarchy, thus sparing their country and themselves the awful doom which the Terror brought. But they would not have done it so by preferring the letter to the spirit of the law, the stirred the peasantry to revolt. Nor is the case different with the revolutions which are not wrought with the sword. In the American of today there is an irresistible movement to bring the great corporations within the scope of the legislative and judicial power. The captains of industry cannot hope to stay the movement, any more than they could hope to stay the flow of the tide. In such circumstances, truly wise men will swim with the current, lest they drown. And yet we find Mr. Morgan imploring Mr. Taft to repudiate the solemn promises which he and Mr. Roosevelt made to the voters. Treachery of this sort would be fatal to Mr. Taft—and to the railroads as well.

The pleas put before the Chief Magistrate are based on the assumption that effective control of the railways is communism in thin disguise. Nothing could be further from the fact, for it is axiomatic that the common carriers are business agencies of the sovereign, that the rates are taxes and that the owners of the roads are merely entitled to a fair return on the capital stock. Now it is self-evident that either the sovereign, or its creatures, must finally pass upon the fairness of the rates. To say that the creatures shall have the decisive voice is to say that the creatures have outgrown the sovereign. There is, then, must erect tribunals to bear cases in which the fairness of the rates is denied. It was with this purpose that the Interstate Commerce Commission and the various state commissions were called into being; but, as frequently happens, the machinery of the law was found defective and a cry for reform went up. The Interstate Commission, required to perform the functions of court and attorney at once, was swamped with the work, while the courts of appeal had neither the knowledge nor the leisure which quick justice demands. And so the President proposes that the Interstate Commerce Commission be made a purely administrative body and that a special Interstate Commerce Court shall be the only tribunal between the Commission and the United States Supreme Court. By this method there would be a minimum of delay and the popular hatred of the corporations would give place to the friendship which the corporations so much need. The reform will come in the near future, despite the utmost efforts of Mr. Morgan and the interests for which he speaks. The choice lies between public regulation and public ownership. The period of choice will not be long.

Get It Under Cover

It's a good deal cheaper to build good, weatherproof sheds than it is to buy new machinery. The elements will injure an expensive machine in one season more than the wear it gets from legitimate use. Of course you know that as well as we do. If you have a costly machine that's standing out in the field or the barn yard, get it under cover. We are this week selling good common boards at prices that will make it very much to your advantage to settle the shed question at once. Let us name you a price on what material you need.

LEASES STATE IRON PLANT.

Deal Closed Yesterday With John L. Wortham of Dallas.
Special to The Times.
Austin, Jan. 12.—For an annual rental of ten thousand dollars, ninety cents per ton for the iron ore and bond in the sum of fifty thousand, John L. Wortham of Dallas yesterday leased the iron plant at Rusk from the state. While no agreement as to convict labor has been reached, it is possible that free labor will be employed, as the penitentiary board seems unwilling to lease the convicts.
The operation of the plant will commence as soon as some repairs can be made and things gotten in order. Mr. Wortham offered the state eight thousand annual rental, but the board stuck out for ten thousand and got it.
Mr. A. L. Thornberry who resides near this city was here today and informed a Times reporter that he had just sold to S. L. Sears of Jolly 185 acres of land near Thornberry for seven thousand dollars.

MILLER MAY GO UP.

Vice President of Burlington Slated for Advancement.

The resignation of George B. Harris, as president of the Fort Worth and Denver, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Colorado and Southern, and the Wichita Valley railroads, reported in Tuesdays' Record was the principal subject of comment in the railroad offices in Fort Worth yesterday.

D. B. Keeler, vice president and general manager of the Fort Worth and Denver, was out of the city Tuesday on a trip of inspection over that railroad, and the report published in the Record was the first news of Mr. Harris' resignation received at the general offices of the Denver here.

It is generally believed here that Darius Miller, at present vice president of the Burlington, will succeed Mr. Harris as head of the three roads named and as chairman of the board of the Trinity and Brazos Valley. Mr. Miller is regarded as the right hand man of James J. Hill.

Mr. Harris is probably the best known railroad official in the West. He has been in the railroad service for over forty years. His resignation, it is said, results from his desire to retire from active work. He is now in California, but is expected to return to Chicago within a few days, when a formal announcement of his resignation will be made.—Fort Worth Record.

A Few Words That Mean Many Dollars To You

You can easily understand that in a business like ours its quite impossible to tell beforehand exactly how many suits and overcoats we shall sell. If we could do it we would buy more than enough. A clothing Store without any clothes in it, sold out clean would be a funny store.

We always have a surplus, must have, and we always try to dispose of this unsold surplus by quoting special low prices on it; it's bad policy in such a business as this to carry winter goods over till next fall—we don't do it.

We're selling what we have left of fine, high class clothes at prices that are very seriously less than real value. Among them are all sizes, many splendid patterns, correct models. They're now at special low prices.
