NOBLE ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

WILL BE A CANDIDATE TO SUC-CEED HIMSELF IN THE MAY-OR'S OFFICE.

AT BEHEST OF FRIENDS

Has Served as Mayor For Six Years and His Record in Office Has Been Flawless.

Mayor Thomas B. Noble announced this morning that he would again be in the race for mayor and his formal announcement appears in today's paper. Mr. Noble enters the race at the solicitation of his friends, who recently circulated a petition requesting him to run again.

Mr. Noble is now serving his third term as mayor and he has given six of the best years of his life in that capacity, serving practically without compensation, yet devoting the major portion of his time to the duties of that office. He has been instrumental in the bringing about of many improvements and his administration has been along progressive lines. Many public improvements have been put through during his administration and he has served the city well.

With the end of Mr. Noble's present term, the office of mayor will be on a much more remunerative basis than heretofore and Mr. Noble's friends feel that he should get the benefit of any "raise" that is to be made. Hereafter the mayor will get fifty dollars per month, instead of the nominal salary of ten dollars per year, which would not pay car fare, much less serve as remuneration.

Mr. Noble will have opposition in his race, one candidate having already announced against him.

GRAND JURY IS CALLED FOR ADDITIONAL WORK

The grand jury was reconvened yesterday afternoon to act on the charges against two negro women for robbery. They have been at work on the cases all the morning and will probably return indictments this afternoon. The two negroes have been operating in this city for some time and their arrests were affected recently. It is expected that several indictments will be returned against each of them. A forged indictment against another party is also expected.

Later—The grand jury adjourned at 1 o'clock this afternoon, returning nine true bills, five for felonies and four for misdemeanors. Indictments for theft from the person were found against Blanche Shelby and Willie Hill, the negroes mentioned above. J. C. Cameron was indicted for theft from the person and for forgery. The other indicted have not been placed under arrest.

BURKBURNETT MAKES GOOD.

New Bridge Across the Red River Now A Certainty.

The bonus required of the business men and citizens of Burk Burnett to secure the erection of a wagon bridge across Red River has been raised and the matter of arranging satisfactory details with the company is now in the hands of the trustees representing the interests of the local subscribers. As there is little to be done in this line, other than the trustees to see that the promoters sign up proper contracts, then turn over the bonus to them, it is presumed the final arrangements will be made and that actual work on the long-sought structure will be begun shortly.

This bridge will open up a vast and rich trade territory to Burk Burnett and the men who have so generously contributed their time and money to secure it are to be commended. It is predicted that this enterprise alone will double the population of our little city, inside of two years. There are other enterprises that if given the proper attention, will also help. Let every loyal citizen get into harness and pull, pull, pull, for a bigger and better built Burk Burnett. Four-Six Star.

ANTI MEAT BOYCOTT IS BEING INAUGURATED

The boycott of meat, which was inaugurated yesterday by the Trades Council of this city, has as yet had no appreciable effect upon meat prices and there were no material changes in local quotations this morning. It is stated that at present the difference in the demand is hardly noticeable, but that it apparently will be before very long.

A rumor was in circulation this morning that the local butchers intended to close their shops Monday for thirty or sixty days on account of the anti-meat agitation, but this report could not be confirmed at any of the local meat shops and it is believed to be untrue. Some of the local butchers are planning to handle vegetables so as to supply the wants of their customers whether they want meat or not.

By Associated Press.
Boston, Mass., Jan. 28.—Agitation against the high cost of food began to show results in Boston today. Retail prices of meat fell from two to four cents a pound on the higher grades.

Texas News Service Special.
Dallas, Jan. 28.—The labor unions of this city last night adopted resolutions to abstain from eating breakfast bacon for a month and this resulted in a drop of four cents in bacon here this morning.

TULSA TO HOUSTON IS NEW PIPE LINE PROJECT

Texas News Service Special.

Texas News Service Special.
Guthrie, Jan. 28.—The Attorney General's department today refused to say whether it will oppose the building of a six-inch pipe line through Tulsa, Oklahoma to Houston, Texas by the Uncle Sam Oil Co., which has been reported to Attorney General West. He is expected to probe the company believing it is backed by the Standard Oil and is violating the anti-trust laws but the department neither denies nor affirms that it is contemplating such action. The cost of the new line will be two and a half millions. Numbers of the stockholders reside in Kansas.

MEXICANS ACQUITTED.

JUDGE CRITZ WITHDRAWS.

NEED OF HOUSES BECOMING ACUTE

MANY NEW RESIDENCES GOING UP, BUT NOT NEARLY AS MANY AS NEEDED.

CAN FILL ONE HUNDRED

Local Real Estate Man Says Tenants Can Be Found For That Many New Houses.

The house question is becoming to be a pressing one in Wichita Falls, and despite the fact that a large number of new houses have been erected during the past few months and that many more are now in process of construction, there are still not enough to supply the demand, and a good rent house can command almost its own price.

A leading real estate man of this city said several days ago that he was sure that if one hundred new rent houses were to be constructed at once, that tenants could be found for every one of them without any delay, and it is believed that he was not overstating the case in this assertion. Those who do not keep in close touch with the situation have no idea how many new people are coming to Wichita Falls or how great the demand for homes is at present. A careful search of the city at present would probably not reveal a single vacant house that was even passably desirable.

Not only are all the rent houses taken, but the rooming houses are remaining filled to their capacity and new families coming to this city sometimes have considerable trouble in securing sleeping accommodations and a place to get something to eat. As someone aptly expressed it: "They have to walk the streets all night to keep from sleeping and sleep all day to keep from eating."

These conditions, of course, are not as bad as the other extreme would be, but they certainly reflect no credit on the city. The fact that new families come here and have to go away without unpacking their household goods, simply because they cannot get a house to rent, is a state of affairs that ought not to continue. The Chamber of Commerce has urged upon the citizens the necessity of erecting houses and if enough are built to supply the demand it would keep the carpenters and contractors busy for many days to come. The futility of advertising this city and bringing more people here, when sufficient accommodations are not available, is too patent to need explanation and it is up to the citizens of this city to see that the demand is supplied without further delay.

There are a great many people here who can afford to put up from one to half a dozen rent houses and not better investment of one's surplus could possibly be made.

PLACED 300 CHILDREN.

Los Angeles Woman Has Fooled Many "Fathers."

Special to The Times.
Los Angeles, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Smith in her testimony in the investigation here regarding the four children Mrs. Wilson tried to palm off on her husband as hers, stated she had provided homes for more than three hundred babies in Los Angeles and until now none of the supposed "fathers" were any the wiser.

The ladies of the Cemetery Association have been called to meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Chamber of Commerce rooms and all members are expected to be present, as there is important business to be given attention.

FIRE RATING BOARD IS TO MEET HERE

WILL HOLD SESSION IN THIS CITY NEXT FRIDAY AND SATURDAY TO HEAR COMPLAINTS.

CAN FILL ONE HUNDRED

Local Real Estate Man Says Tenants Can Be Found For That Many New Houses.

The State Fire Rating Board, to which the property owners of this city have appealed for relief from the excessive insurance rates recently applied to this city, will meet in Wichita Falls on February 4th and 5th, Friday and Saturday of this week. An announcement to this effect was made in Austin yesterday.

This announcement is very gratifying to the property owners here, as it enables them to present their side of the question at close range and the board's plan, of holding its meetings in the complaining communities, will doubtless meet with general satisfaction.

The board will meet at Fort Worth on Wednesday and Thursday, in Wichita Falls on Friday and Saturday and at Amarillo on Monday and Tuesday of the week following.

The first meeting of the board was held yesterday at Austin and it was attended by a large delegation from Fort Worth. T. B. Love, state insurance commissioner, presided. Mr. Love's resignation as commissioner takes effect on Tuesday, February 1, and his successor, Judge Wm. E. Hawkins will preside at the meeting. The other members of the board are G. Wright of Palestine and R. M. Hamby of Austin. In opening the meeting, Commissioner Love explained that the board had nothing to do with the schedules of rates now effective in Wichita Falls and other Texas cities and he corrected the impression which seems to prevail regarding Texas rates.

The local committee consists of R. E. Huff, Frank Kell and C. W. Dean, and it is expected that these will be prepared to present Wichita Falls side of the case, though the meeting of the board will doubtless be open to property owners and other interested parties. No action has yet been taken on the Fort Worth schedule, the board preferring to visit the complaining cities first.

WRECK ON THE DENVER OCCURRED LAST NIGHT

The south bound Fort Worth and Denver passenger train No. 8, due to reach this city at 2:25 this morning, was wrecked between Clarendon and Southard last night, a broken flange causing the second section of the train to leave the track. No deaths or injuries are reported, but all the passengers were badly shaken up.

The engine, baggage coach and dining and sleeping cars all left the track and the absence of any casualties is accounted for by the fact that comparatively few passengers were on the train at the time. A wrecker was sent out from Childress to repair the damage and traffic will be delayed only a short time. The train was going about twenty-five miles an hour when the accident occurred.

COTTON GROWERS' MEET.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY IS TO BE OUT SOON

Work on the compilation of the 1910 city directory is now nearing completion and within a few days more the lists will be ready for the publishers, John F. Worley & Company, of Dallas. Those engaged in taking the census have practically finished their canvass of the residence section and will shortly be through with the work in the business district.

The new directory is awaited with some interest, as there is considerable curiosity as to what population it will show this city to have. While it is generally believed that Wichita Falls is well past the ten thousand mark, exact figures are desired to conform to this belief. These figures will be given out in a few days.

GRAFT, ROBBERY AND TREASON.

All Kinds of Language At Magazine Postal Hearings.

By Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 28.—"Graft, robbery and treason" were the words hurled back and forth between members of the house committee on postage and post roads and the magazine publishers at the hearing today. The exchanges grew out of the editorial published against the increased postal rates against the magazines.

IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Bailey Says Postal Savings Law Can Not Stand.

Texas News Service Special.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Bailey in the senate today declared the postal savings bank bill unconstitutional and said the government cannot engage in the banking business. He said he would not filibuster against the measure and hoped it will pass so the public can decide the merit of the law and reverse its opinion.

GLAVIS IS WITNESS IN INVESTIGATION

HIS TESTIMONY IS ANYTHING BUT FAVORABLE TO SEC. BALLINGER'S SIDE.

LETTERS ARE PRODUCED

Secretary's Participation in Alaskan Matter May Not Have Been "Merely Formal."

By Associated Press.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Louis Glavis, the discharged field agent of the Department of the Interior, in testifying before the congressional investigation committee today, declared that in spite of the fact that he was directed by Secretary Ballinger to make a thorough examination of the Alaskan coal land cases, sparing no one, the Cunningham claims were ordered to be "classified" for patent, less than a month thereafter. On his protest, the clear list was revoked.

Glavis also stated that in 1907 he had written a letter to Chief of the Field Division Schwarz, saying he was worried about the Alaskan situation. When asked what Alaskan claims he referred to, he said there were nine hundred in all.

Attorney Brandless said he wanted to call attention to certain letters that showed the part Ballinger played as commissioner while directing the inquiry. He said the purpose of these letters was to indicate that President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham were mistaken when they said that Ballinger's participation in the matter had been "merely formal."

By Associated Press.
Dallas, Jan. 28.—The trial of Tom Kent, charged with the murder of Dick Seal, a brother of Congressman Jack Seal, two years ago, commenced in the district court today, the case being warmly contested.

PLUNGED DOWN CANYON AND BURNED TO DEATH

Texas News Service Special.
Dalhart, Tex., Jan. 28.—Plunging one hundred feet down to the bottom of Blanco Canyon near Floydada, then burned to a crisp in the debris of the wagon in which they fell, was the fate of Mrs. Breck and her infant yesterday.

Mrs. Breck was driving across country with her child, when some dogs barking behind the wagon frightened it while on the end of the canyon. Mrs. Breck made an attempt to quiet the horses, but only excited them further and they backed off the cliff with the wagon, all falling in one heap to the bottom below. The stove in the wagon was overturned and set fire to the mass of humanity and horses, incinerating all. The bodies of the woman and child were recovered later by a ranchman who witnessed the scene from the opposite side of the canyon.

RUPTURE DANGER HAS PASSED.

French Tariff Negotiations About Ready for Agreement.

Paris, Jan. 28.—While the greatest reticence is still observed in official quarters regarding the progress of the tariff negotiations which Ambassador Jusserand is conducting at Washington, confidence is manifested here that the danger of a rupture has passed. It is understood that France is about ready to accede to the American demand for a minimum tariff on some fifteen or twenty articles, such as agricultural machinery, which come into competition with other foreign countries, and that the most controversial will be satisfactorily adjusted.

FORT WORTH LEADS.

She Gained Over 200 Per Cent in Buildings in 1909.

Texas News Service Special.
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 28.—Fort Worth leads the Nation for gain in the amount of building construction. The News today showed in comparative figures from sixty cities for 1909, all showing gains except seven. Fort Worth leads with a gain of two hundred and thirty per cent. San Antonio shows a gain of forty-five per cent, Dallas forty-seven, Houston is not reported. Fort Worth's big gain is due to some extent to the rebuilding of the district wiped out by fire last April.

FRISCO WILL PROBABLY BE SCENE OF FIGHT

By Associated Press.
Portland, Or., Jan. 28.—That the Jeffries-Johnson fight will probably be held in San Francisco in view of the opposition of the governor of Utah, and that Johnson's backing down only could call off the fight were declarations made by Jeffries yesterday.

"Unless Johnson backs down on July Fourth, I will again demonstrate the superiority of the white race" said Jeffries.

CANDIDATES FOR MAYOR OF WICHITA FALLS

Mayor T. B. NOBLE. Alderman JOHN T. YOUNG.

The campaign for mayor of Wichita Falls is now well under way and promise to be the hottest contested since the Morrison-Word campaign of 1892. Mayor Noble is now serving his third term. Alderman Young was elected Alderman in April 1908 and has developed into a "wheel-horse" of no mean ability, taking such great interest in pushing to the front the interests of Wichita Falls that his friends have begged him with requests to allow the use of his name as a candidate for mayor, and yielding to their wishes he has finally consented, so was announced a few days ago. The friends of Mayor Noble got busy, and circulated a petition to have him offer for a fourth term, and after giving the matter due consideration, he also yielded, and his announcement will be found in today's paper.

COALITION CONTROLS

Result of English Election Now Becoming Evident.
London, Eng., Jan. 27.—The combined strength of the liberal, labor, and national coalition reached 345 last night, or more than half of the members of the House of Commons. A unionist government is therefore out of the question, and the only point still undecided is the exact strength of the coalition majority. But if an independent liberal majority is equally out of the question, only a short time can be predicted for the incoming government and as a matter of fact, both the liberal and unionist parties are looking away from the present struggle into the not distant future, when the conflict at the polling booths will be renewed.

The party organizers have already been instructed to keep up unceasing vigilance. There is no doubt that the success of the conservatives has been largely due to the constant education of the agricultural population in the virtues of tariff reform. The liberals will concentrate their attention on the educating of the country on the question of free trade and the limitations of the veto of the house of lords. As an example of the difficulties facing the government at the coming session, apart from the house of lords and the budget, it is probable that the labor party will introduce their "right to work" bill. This might easily lead to the defeat of the ministry and to another dissolution.

With the return of Premier Asquith and War Minister Haldane, all the cabinet ministers have been re-elected. Only a few additional returns were received tonight, and the parties now stand:

Government coalition—Liberals, 233; laborites, 38; nationalists, 74.
Opposition—Unionists, 256.
Net gains of the unionists to date, 98.
The first serious suffrage disturbance during the election occurred in Premier Asquith's constituency today. Several attacks were made, but the premier escaped under police protection.

PROPOSED COPPER MERGER

Preliminary Steps for Proposed Million Dollar Company

New York, Jan. 27.—Preliminary steps were taken yesterday to effect the long looked for merger of the principal copper producers of the country into one gigantic corporation. In Wall street another billion-dollar company was frequently mentioned, but the more conservative believed that the final capitalization would be closer to half the amount mentioned.

The Anaconda Copper Mining company officials announced late this afternoon that at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday it had been decided to call a special meeting of the stockholders in Anaconda, Mont., March 23, to pass upon the proposal to increase the capital stock from $30,000,000 to $150,000,000 for the purpose of acquiring the property of other concerns located in the Butte district. The Amalgamated Copper company owns 55 per cent of the Anaconda stock.

Following the merger of the Butte properties, which include the Amalgamated Copper company and its various holdings, it is expected that the new Anaconda, with its decreased capital, will merge with the Guggenheim, Haggin and other interests, thus enforcing a corporation which will not only control the copper output of the United States, but will influence the copper markets of the world.

WE ARE LAYING FOR YOU

And the way we are doing it is keeping the best wire fencing in stock.

Before deciding on the wire fencing most suitable to our particular trade, we investigated all the leading makes. Our object was to get the strongest fencing; fencing that would stretch up the easiest; would not sag when run over uneven ground; was animal proof and so constructed as to best withstand the ravages of time.

The fencing that we found to most nearly combine all these desirable qualities was the Pittsburg Perfect Welded Wire Fencing. So this is the fence we not only offer you, but advise you to take. It costs no more than other fencing of inferior quality.

TAFT ISSUED STATEMENT

Trust Prosecution Limited to Those Defined in Message

Washington, January 27.—President Taft today made public the following statement regarding the reported crusade against corporations:

"No statement has been issued either from the attorney general's office or the White House indicating the purpose of the administration with reference to prosecutions under the anti-trust law other than set forth in the message of the president January 7, 1910. The sensational statements as if there would be a departure and industries has no foundation. The purpose of the administration is exactly as has already been stated in the president's message."

The statement was issued after the president had talked with James J. Hill, the railway magnate, who had received information that prices were crumpling in New York under the various reports printed yesterday and this morning. There was no further statement from the White House. Hill said he did not pretend to speak for the president on anything he said, but that he was sure the president would not attack the corporations themselves, but the sins of corporations. If the corporations are violating the laws of the country he supposed they would be brought to time.

Oregon's Wonderful Resources.
 Commercially, the biggest thing in Oregon, the things that build up its wealth, are salmon, fruit and lumber. Formerly it was wheat, in place of fruit, but wheat growing shows a decrease, as it does in California, and for the same reason; the wheat land, given up to fruit or hops, will yield twenty times as much money. In salmon there has been a retrogression of late, but simply because the foolish Columbia River fishermen killed the fish which laid the golden eggs. As soon as the law is enforced the salmon will again be as plentiful in the Columbia as they were last summer in the neighboring state of Washington, where all records were broken, thousands of tons escaping the cans because the fishermen working twenty-four hours a day, could not trap or net them. In a good year like that, the salmon catch is worth seven million dollars to Washington.

What their trees are worth to these two states is almost incredible; the figures give one a dizzy feeling. To Oregon alone its timber interests are worth sixty million dollars a year. There are now standing in this state three hundred billion feet of merchantable timber which, at the present rate of cutting would last one hundred and twenty years. According to the state board of forestry, the commercial value of Oregon's standing timber is three billion, six hundred million dollars, a sum in excess of the total amount of money in currency in the United States at present. Great progress has been made in recent years in eliminating wasteful methods of lumbering and in fighting forest fires; in 1908 there were one hundred and eighty five wildfires in the state, and there was a noticeable decrease in the number of great fires.

The inhabitants of the Emerald State are at last beginning to realize the value of their trees. This implies a great change—an aspect of Oregon psychology on which it would be interesting to dwell. To the early settlers in this state trees were hated obstacles. These pioneers needed clearings to plant their vegetables and wheat, and the trees had to be exterminated laboriously.—From "The Progressive Pacific Coast," by Henry T. Finck, in the February Scribner.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity.
—Tonight, fair. Saturday, fair and warmer.

In saying that there is no good in the modern theatre, and that it is entirely bad, the Fort Worth minister who recently attacked the stage, made a rather broad assertion. Even with those who seldom or never patronize the theatre, an indictment so sweeping can not stand. In Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" there is a description of a man who looked only downward and whose vision was limited to the filth on the ground before him. Above him was the sunshine, but he never lifted his eyes. Somehow, a man who sees nothing but evil in a feature of modern life, classifies himself just that way.—Wichita Times.

With the man who can see nothing but the filth on the ground before him. The ancient Athenian worshipped the nude, not from sensual desire, but for its divine beauty. No lewd thoughts entered his heart; for his public and private life was one of spotless rectitude. "What the eye seeth the heart desireth" is true only of him who giveth free play to the baser passions. God saw righteous perfection in physical man when He made him and pronounced the work of His hands to be good. And He didn't make him with an evening dress suit on and with white choker and patent leathers; He made him as the angels wished to behold him—in the image of Himself in all his parts. And why should man see sin where God has wrought?—Houston Post.

Don't forget that the paving question is up to you at the election next month.

SOME TIMELY QUESTIONS.

From the Kansas City Journal.

Some very pertinent questions may be asked in connection with the statistical statement that in the year 1909, during half of which the new tariff law was in operation, Americans bought $164,000,000 worth more of dutiable goods—goods coming into direct competition with American made goods—than during the previous year. The total increase in imports amounted to the huge sum total of $359,000,000, while the exports actually decreased $25,000,000.

A whole volume is condensed into these figures and every page of that volume bristles with interrogations. Some of them might be formulated in this wise:

If lower tariffs stimulate trade, and if foreign nations buy the goods of the countries that buy from them, why did the United States sell $25,000,000 less goods in 1909, half of which was under new tariff bill, than in 1908.

If the new tariff bill was not a "substantial revision downward," and if only lower tariffs can reasonably be expected to stimulate imports, why did the United States buy $359,000,000 more last year than the year before—not $359,000,000 in all, but $359,000,000 in excess of the foreign purchases for the preceding year?

If we buy $359,000,000 more and sell $25,000,000 less under the new tariff, how long will it be before we buy everything we need at home when possible, and how much more "downward" must the revision be before we have a really healthy foreign market for our surplus products?

If we buy $164,000,000 more goods than enter into competition with American-made goods, for whose manufacture or production Americans receive the highest wages in the world, how long will it be before all the dinner palls will be filled and every factory in the United States will be running full blast, three shifts a day?

If the tariff increases the cost of living, and if foodstuffs constitute half the cost of living and the duties on foodstuffs are only microscopically changed in the new tariff bill, how much more "letting alone" must there be before the cost-of-living resumes its normal proportions?

If, as is claimed, the farmers are buncoed as alleged beneficiaries of duties on agricultural products, how does it come that they are receiving the highest prices for their products, in most instances, since the Civil war?

If the duties on agricultural products are practically unchanged in the new bill, and if the prices of agricultural products have jumped to figures that are calling for all sorts of investigations, is it the nebular hypothesis or the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill that has caused the increase in this "cost of living"?

If the $164,000,000 more of dutiable foreign goods, competing with American goods, had been bought here, how much lower should the rates be before the wage earners of the country have enough spending money to buy products of the farm, from the sale of which the farmer ekes out "a miserable existence" in these calamitous times?

In short, how much longer will there be anybody in this country who really believes that it is not folly to advocate any tariff policy which takes the wages out of the envelopes of American workmen and diminishes heavily the volume of manufactured merchandise that we sell abroad?

"Comet neck" is the latest disease. It is developed by prolonged rubbering at the new comet.

It is idle to say that the known character of Mr. Pulitzer and his newspaper are such that the statements in that paper will be believed by nobody; unfortunately thousands of persons are ill-informed in this respect, and believe the statements they see in print, even though they appear in a newspaper published by Mr. Pulitzer.

These statements are false in every particular from beginning to end. The wickedness of the slanders are only surpassed by their fatality. So utterly baseless are the stories that apparently they represent in part merely material knowledge for campaign purposes and in part stories originally concocted with a view of possible blackmail.

I do not believe we should concern ourselves with the particular individuals who wrote the lying and libelous articles. The real offender is Joseph Pulitzer, editor and proprietor of the World. It should not be left to a private citizen to sue Mr. Pulitzer for libel by the governmental authorities. There is nothing to choose between a public servant who betrays his trust and a public servant who is guilty of blackmail or theft or financial dishonesty of any kind and a man guilty as Mr. Pulitzer has been guilty in this instance. It is, therefore, a high national duty to bring to justice this villain of the American people.—From Roosevelt's Message on the Alleged Panama Label.

Just a little ancient history that looks rather ludicrous in the light of recent events.

The weather is so springlike, dainty, effervescent and lovely in Wichita Falls this month that the small boys have taken to playing marbles, thinking spring was here.

The sugar trust got out of hot water by blaming things on the weighers. Probably the beef trust will say that its butchers are responsible for the high prices.

A northern paper says that Texas is different from heaven. We admit that Texas is unlike heaven in a few minor and unimportant details.

The joke artists are digging up the 1906 crop of census-taker jokes and rubbing them up and rejuvenating them for the 1910 use.

Present indications point to one of the largest and most luxuriant crops of June brides ever grown in Wichita Falls.

The Fort Worth and Denver. Last Saturday the Fort Worth and Denver passenger train was turned over near Amarillo. A prominent Denver official told the Herald editor Wednesday that at Amarillo when a man goes into a restaurant the waiter asks him how he will have his eggs, and the well posted citizen answers "Fort Worth and Denver." If the waiter is new he asks "how is that?" when he is told "why turned over of course, you fool."—Memphis Herald.

That's right poke fun at the Denver. The Denver has been the making of every town on its line in the Panhandle yet there are people who will get off remarks like this. The Denver for the past year has had the cleanest record of any road in the state and is the only road that is spending thousands upon thousands of dollars to improve its service. For nearly two years from four to ten ballast trains have been at work day and night and but for a small gap a few miles the road is ballasted and in the best of condition.

The Denver has won the honor of running the best and largest passenger trains that go into the terminals at Fort Worth and the honor rightly belongs to her. Name another road that runs as many passengers as the Denver or better cars provided?

The Herald cannot. Only last week two modern coaches were received from the car works at St. Louis. These cars were of the latest patterns and equipped with electric lights and the best ventilation known to car builders. These cars, and all equipment purchased by the Denver during the past two years are of the heaviest type for passenger service, consequently they ride easy. Every railroad is subject to accidents and when we read of the accidents that have befallen other roads during the past ten days it really seems that we should pay double fare when we ride on the Denver—consider it like a premium on life insurance.—Childress Index.

RUMORS ARE RIFE.

Recent Visit of R. D. Baker to Wichita Falls Causes Speculation.

A report from Wichita Falls says that a surveying party will start out from that city this week to survey a route for proposed railway from Wichita Falls to Roswell, N. M. It is unknown who is back of the project, but it is known that a surveying party is being organized in Wichita Falls to make the survey.

Such a line has long been considered by Messrs. Kemp and Kell of the Wichita Falls Route, and it is believed that these gentlemen are back of the survey. The recent visit of R. D. Baker, who has resigned the presidency of the Trinity & Brazos Valley, to Wichita Falls, on the basis of rumors that Mr. Baker is to become associated with Messrs. Kemp and Kell in new railway enterprises in that section of the state. When Mr. Baker visited Wichita Falls last week he was taken on a trip over the Wichita Falls & Southern to New Castle, in Young county, in company with J. A. Kemp, the president of the road.

Last Monday it was announced from the office of the Wichita Falls Route that the Kemp and Kell interests would build another railroad out of Wichita Falls this year. Just where this new railroad would go was not announced and the statement has given rise to much conjecture among railroad men and towns in that section.—Fort Worth Record.

The Start of the Fast Express.
"Trot along, Windy," said the conductor as he started back toward the first vestibule. Windy climbed the steps and the 8000 started ahead, shooting up heavy artillery exhausts that swirled and churned in the roof of the train shed.
The throttle came open a little wider and the reverse lever came up a little nearer the center. Now the 8000 was rattling over switches and under signal bridges at a merry rate.
As we got out of the yard limit the fireman got down.
"You can have the seat all to yourself now," he said; "I've got something else to do."

Then he opened the fire box and began applying that science of keeping up steam on a heavy, fast train. Just then we overtook a freight pulling slowly out on the next track. Apparently they might as well have been standing still or going backward. Then we came to the engine, a big compound. The fireman stepped to the gangway.
"Come on," he yelled; but we were by and only got an answering grin. Still we could hear the exhaust of the compound above the roar of our engine. Windy nodded toward the freight.
"I can't help it; I can't help it; I can't help it," he shouted in imitation of the accented first and then even three exhausts of the freight engine.

We were now several miles out and traveling at a fifty-mile gait. The big 8000 rocked and yawed as she banged over switches and lurched around curves, her exhaust coming in a steady roar. The crew for the most part paid strict attention to business. The fireman danced between tender and fire box, stopping now and then to glance ahead. Windy had lighted his pipe again and was now settled down to watch the signals and switches that fled by in rapid succession, occasionally shifting the reverse lever a notch one way or the other or to regulate the throttle a trifle. Now and then he would wave to a crossing-tender or a tower man along the line by a jerk of his thumb, and shout something over to me—something that I could not hear.—From "All in a Day's Run," by W. H. Foster, in the February Scribner.

Notice.

'The House of a Thousand Candles.' Those who have never read the novel, 'The House of a Thousand Candles,' which in dramatic form will appear at the Wichita Theatre tonight, the following synopsis will prove of especial interest:

The story is a tale of love and mystery, enacted in the shadow of a great mansion of mystery on the shores of an Indiana lake. From this house old John Glenarm secretly departs, leaving the impression that he is dead, that he may better learn what sort of men are Pickering, the executor of his estate, and John Glenarm, his grandson and possible heir, and if such a thing be possible, to bring about a marriage between the young man and Marjia Deveraux, the altercate-heir.

He confides his plan to Bates, the butler and serving man, who is too good a servant to be one, and pledges Bates to secrecy. Things might have gone smoothly enough had it not been that old Glenarm left behind him a strange and unusual will with clauses and provisions thereof as whimsical as the old man's fancy, and as executor of it, a certain Pickering. Upon the testament turns the story. Pickering and Glenarm both conclude that a hidden treasure lies concealed in some mysterious passage of the mysterious mansion, and both institute a search.

Glenarm, however, falls in love with Marjia and asks her to become his wife. Though he has been led to believe that Marjia is not Marjia, but Gladys Olivia Armstrong, he has, nevertheless violated his proposal, an important provision of the will, and the estate, according to its terms, reverts to the girl. This in itself would make small difference; the fortune would be in the family in any event, as it were, but, fortunately Pickering does not die so easily. He, with assistance of coincidences and circumstances, convinces Glenarm that Marjia has willfully deceived him that she might obtain the hidden treasure and the 'House of a Thousand Candles,' and bestow them, with her hand, upon the villain himself and upon the impetuous and impulsive young man who has dropped so suddenly into the Glenarm preserve.

The joint recital by William H. Sherwood and Miss Virginia Listerman, Tuesday, February 1st, promises to be of unusual interest to the music loving public. The New York Tribune speaks of Mr. Sherwood as 'One of the best virtuosi America has ever produced.' He has played with unvarying success in the large cities of the United States and Canada, and has received unstinted praise from the public and the critics of the press. He has toured with Theodore Thomas, the Chicago and the Boston Festival Orchestras. Mr. Sherwood has a fresh repertory of absorbing interest. Seats on sale Saturday.

ADVISES MARKET GOING.

James J. Hill Tells Housewives Not to Phone for Supplies.
 New York, Jan. 28.—James J. Hill, the railroad builder, and one of the first to issue a warning against national extravagance and its reflection in the advanced cost of living, said today that half of the problem lies in the discretion of the housewives.
 "It is a housekeeper," said Mr. Hill, instead of standing in front of a telephone to order the family supplies, would go to the market and learn what foods are cheapest and what are dear, there would be less of this kind of talk. As I have said before, the high cost of living is the cost of living high."
 Mr. Hill denied that there is any industrial or financial uneasiness over the attack of the government toward corporations. Asked as to what he attributed the depression of the stock market, he answered laconically: "Hysteria."

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

J. M. Bland has tendered his resignation as a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, giving as his reason that he was a member of the city council and that to remain as a member of both bodies would require more time from the conduct of his personal business than he could well afford to give. The name of J. L. Jackson has been favorably mentioned as Mr. Bland's successor, but as to whether he will consent to accept has not yet been learned.
 T. Morris Perot, Jr., of Philadelphia has sent the Chamber of Commerce his check for fifty dollars to help maintain the organization. He has considerable property interests in this city and thought it proper to contribute to the support of the commercial organization. Judge S. H. Hodges of Frederick, Oklahoma, another large non-resident property owner, has asked to be enrolled as a member.
 Stribbling Moore, who has charge of the construction work for the gas company narrowly escaped being shot yesterday afternoon while at work near the regulator. Two negroes who were hunting near by fired in his direction, missing him about ten feet. It is reported the shots were fired with malicious intent.
 W. H. Suddith today sold to C. H. Thompson and T. J. Taylor two lots at the northeast corner of 9th and Lamar for five thousand dollars cash. These two lots are occupied by three small frame houses; Mr. Thompson, it will be remembered, recently sold his property at the corner of 8th and Lamar, for $5000.
 The quail season ends Monday at midnight and local hunters are planning to go out in the next day or two in order to have one more chance at the birds while the open season lasts.
 H. S. Daniels, business manager for Tim Murphy, is here today. Mr. Murphy is booked to appear at the Wichita Theatre Saturday, February 5th.
 The city council has declined the offer made by the First National Bank to purchase the city paving bonds at par and accrued interest.
 A marriage license was issued by the county clerk yesterday to E. H. Herd and Miss Lucy Allen, both of Frederick, Oklahoma.
 The "House of a Thousand Candles" company arrived in the city this afternoon for its performance at the Wichita Theatre tonight.
