VOLUME 3

WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1910

NUMBER 253

TWENTY THOUSAND WORKERS ARE OUT

AT LEAST THAT MANY UNION MEN PARTICIPATE IN THE SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

OUTLOOK NOT ASSURING

Predicted that Seventy-five Thousand Will Have Struck By Tonight. No Disaster Today.

By Associated Press. Philadelphia, Pa., March 5.—The general sympathetic strike, as a final effort of union labor to win the fight for recognition of the street car men's union, is now in full swing. Acting on orders from the committee of ten of the Central Labor Union, workers in many trades ceased work today.

Drivers of public hacks and taxicabs quit work at midnight and many people were compelled to walk to their homes. Several of the union trades, however, remained at work, among them the printers. The transit company has nearly a thousand cars in operation today out of a total of two thousand, but they are carrying but few passengers.

Director of Public Safety Clay states that not more than twenty thousand men have struck. The strike leaders, on the contrary, say that seventy-five thousand men are out. They also say that before nightfall many more unorganized employees of the great manufacturing plants will be called out.

ARE TO GIVE CONCERTS SUNDAY AFTERNOONS AT LAKE PAVILION

Beginning tomorrow afternoon and continuing every Sunday while the good weather lasts concerts will be held in the pavilion at Lake Wichita for the benefit of the crowds visiting that resort on Sunday afternoons.

The Wichita Theatre Orchestra will furnish the music for these concerts and they promise to be quite an attraction. Even during the winter, when the weather was the least bit pleasant on Sunday afternoons crowds would always be found at the resort and the added attraction of music will, doubtless, attract many more.

INVESTIGATE MONDAY.

Judge Will Instruct Dallas Grand Jury to That Effect.

Dallas, Tex., March 5.—District Judge Seay today announced that he will on Monday charge the grand jury to investigate the lynching of the negro, Allen Brooks, by the mob Thursday. Seay declares he knows of no law warranting Governor Campbell to order a special grand jury for an investigation of the riots, as it was reported he would do.

HEART FAILURE ATTACK PROVES FATAL TO THE ACTOR, HENRY JAMES

By Associated Press. Helena, Montana, March 5.—Louis James, the well known actor, died here early today. He suffered an attack of heart trouble last evening just before the curtain went up on his performance of "Henry the Eighth." The body will be shipped to Kansas for interment. The company has disbanded and Mrs. James will return to her home in Kansas City.

TO ENJOIN ELECTION.

Poll Tax Question Comes Up in Bowie County.

By Associated Press. Houston, Tex., March 5.—A. C. Clough, an attorney of Galveston, appeared in Judge Burns' Federal Court today and demanded a mandamus preventing the local option election in Bowie County, which is taking place today, alleging that one hundred and twelve citizens paid poll taxes here but that they received no receipts and could not, therefore, participate in the election. Judge Burns said the matter was not within his jurisdiction. Application was made here, because the death of Judge Bryant left a vacancy in the East Texas District.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., March 5.—The Smoot amendment to the postal savings bank bill was adopted by the senate today, forty-six yeas to twenty-four nays.

ANOTHER AVALANCHE IN THE NORTHWEST TODAY RESULTS IN FATALITIES

By Associated Press. Winnipeg, Mch. 5.—According to railroad officials the report that one hundred persons were killed in a snow slide at Revelstoke is exaggerated. Possibly twenty persons are dead or may be safe under a snow shed.

By Associated Press. Revelstoke, B. C., Mch. 5.—Between sixty and one hundred lives were lost in a snow slide, that buried the crews of two rotary snow plows in Rogers Pass, two miles east of Glacier early today. A small slide occurred late yesterday and the men were clearing the line, when a second avalanche swept down the mountain and engulfed both crews. Rescue parties were sent out from Revelstoke.

By Associated Press. Vancouver, B. C., Mch. 5.—In the snow slide early today between Rogers Pass and the Glacier line of the Canadian Pacific fifty men were killed. All the victims were workmen for the railroad company and more than half were Japanese.

By Associated Press. Wellington, Wash., Mch. 5.—All the bodies of the victims of the Wellington disaster will not be recovered for a month, according to the statement of Superintendent O'Neill today. The danger of a second slide is imminent.

ACCIDENT AT ELECTRA.

Oil Drillers Have Narrow Escape from Death.

Special to The Times. Electra, Mch. 5.—J. C. Harper and Tony Hillerman had a very narrow escape Tuesday while working on the Ellinger Oil Well.

The string of casing which they were setting slipped from the clamps and started down the hole, when a collar on the pipe struck a pair of heavy chain pipe tongs throwing them up with such force as to fracture J. C. Harper's right arm and pin him down to the derrick floor. Tony Hillman threw his weight against the falling pipe thus saving Harper from being crushed. Tony is somewhat sore from his shoulder to his hips but feels lucky to have escaped with no broken bones.

REORGANIZATION OF I. & G. N.

Receiver Freeman Announces Work Will Begin Shortly.

By Associated Press. Houston, Mch. 5.—Receiver Freeman of the International and Great Northern returned this morning from New York and announced that the work of reorganization of that road will begin immediately. The first step will be to petition the state Railroad Commission for a valuation of the road preliminary to a bond issue. Freeman refused to discuss the reported merger of the three Gould lines.

By Associated Press. Austin, Tex., March 5.—Becoming suddenly insane Elias Black, a teamster, attempted to cut his throat with a razor and when prevented by men nearby, he attacked them. He is being tried this afternoon for insanity.

BRICK PROPOSITION IS ACCEPTED HERE

MODIFIED OFFER WAS MADE TO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE YESTERDAY AND TAKEN UP.

SITE TO BE DONATED IS TO BE BEAUTIFIED

This and Promise of Cheaper Gas Caused Promoters to Submit City Better Proposal.

After the proposition from the Sapulpa parties to establish a brick plant here had been declined by the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning, the matter was revived yesterday afternoon with the result that Wichita Falls now stands an excellent chance to secure the plant. It will be necessary to give a forty-acre site to the new company to secure it and it is believed that this can be secured with minimum difficulty.

After conferring with local parties yesterday afternoon, the Sapulpa gentlemen decided to submit a proposition again to the Chamber of Commerce and the directors met at 5:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon to consider the matter. The new proposition calls for a plant of the same size as that mentioned in the first proposition, to be completed within eight months after the contract is signed. The first proposition was for a $100,000 stock company, half of the stock to be subscribed by Wichita Falls parties and a site donated. Under the new proposition Wichita Falls has only to donate the site and promised no bonus or stock subscription.

The proposition was endorsed by the directors and will be acted upon finally not later than March 15. Mr. Kentner and his associates returned to Sapulpa last night, but will return as soon as the site can be turned over to them here. They expect to have the plant in operation by the first of January 1911.

The plant will employ about seventy-five people and will cost nearly one hundred thousand dollars to construct. Mr. Kentner and his associates have already erected plants at Coffeyville and Chanute, Kansas and Sapulpa, Oklahoma and the Wichita factory will be their fourth. While it is not known what induced these gentlemen to make this city such a modified proposition, it is believed that they came to realize Falls as a brick plant location would overcome the expense of placing the stock they expected to dispose of here. It is understood that they have located clay and shale beds in the vicinity of this city which make the location of a plant here still more advantageous. The prospect of cheaper gas was also taken into consideration.

SERIOUS WRECK.

Two May Die as Result of Southern Pacific Collision.

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Mch. 5.—Four men were injured, two probably fatally in a wreck in the Southern Pacific yards at Glidden at seven o'clock this morning. Johnson, engineer, thrown from the cab, face and head cut; R. D. Allen, engineer, thrown from the cab, back hurt and internal injuries; William Duffy, fireman, bruised and cut. All the injured were brought here.

The scholarship will enable him to take the law course at the University without having to pay the fees and charges usually necessary.

The ex-students making this offer, include T. R. Boone, F. W. Household,

PARK OFFER TO BE CONSIDERED

LARGE TRACT DONATED BY J. A. KEMP WILL PROBABLY BE ACCEPTED BY THE CITY.

COUNCIL WILL ACT ON MATTER AT MEETING MONDAY NIGHT—TRACT IS BEAUTIFUL ONE.

The tract on Holliday Creek, which, as stated in the Times yesterday, will be given to the city by J. A. Kemp for use as a park, is a more magnificent gift than at first appeared. This tract comprises about one hundred acres, with natural shade and the possibilities of its development as a public park are manifold. It is understood that the tract is presented to the city on the condition that it will be improved and made suitable for public use. Mr. Kemp has been asked to be at the council meeting Monday night to explain his offer.

It is probable that if the city accepts the park it will be turned over to one or all of the local civic organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce and in this way the tract can be developed into a very pretty park. In spite of the size of the tract, it is thought that it is none too large to be improved and beautified and there is every reason to believe that the city will accept the offer.

PINCHOT ON STAND.

No Indication of What Course Defense Will Pursue.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., March 5.—Before a diminished crowd the cross examination of Gifford Pinchot was continued today. The course pursued by Attorney Vertrees in going over the testimony in detail gave no indication as to when the defense will finish with the witness.

Pinchot concluded his testimony by stating anew that he had practically no personal knowledge of matters upon which he testified. He had been on the stand four days.

WANT WAGE INCREASE.

Formal Demand is Presented to Eastern Railroads.

By Associated Press. New York, March 5.—The firemen and engineers of thirty-two eastern railroads have submitted to the General Managers' Association a formal demand for an increase in wages. This demand involves fifty thousand firemen on railroads east of the Mississippi and north of the Baltimore and Ohio. In addition to the increase in wages, changes in working conditions are asked for.

NEW LINE TO OKLAHOMA TO BE KNOWN TO WORLD AS THE NORTHEASTERN

"Wichita Falls and Northeastern" has been decided upon as the name for the new railroad that is to be built from Wichita Falls to Oklahoma City and the line, when built, will be known by that title. "Wichita Falls and Oklahoma City" was suggested for the road, but as there is already a "Wichita Falls and Oklahoma" it was thought best not to have a name so nearly conflicting.

There are no new developments in the new railroad situation today and the matter seems to be resting for the present with the Charlie and Oklahoma parties.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING.

It Seems to Work Like a Charm in Wilbarger.

Special to The Times. Vernon, Mch. 5.—Considerable interest was aroused among local people one day last week when J. W. Hingst, who has a farm out in the German colony, drove his wagon to our streets. The interest was not due to the fact that Mr. Hingst was driving a wagon, but to what it contained. In the body proper there was a load of fine corn, possibly 30 bushels. At the rear of the wagon on top of the corn, was a fine bale of cotton, just in front of which was found 15 bushels of sorghum seed. Corn is now worth about 65 cents, middling cotton 14 cents, and sorghum seed $1.00 per bushel. These figures applied to the above problem would show that Mr. Hingst materially increased his bank account before returning home. It goes to show further that crop diversity in Wilbarger county is exactly what is making so many of our farmers wealthy.

LOST BOTH LEGS.

Bad Accident On the Santa Fe Near Amarillo.

Special to The Times. Amarillo, Mch. 5.—News has reached Amarillo of the horrible mangling of R. R. Miller, fireman on the Santa Fe, at Lakewood, first station south of Roswell, both legs having been ground off below the knees. Full details of the accident have not been furnished, but it is understood that the unfortunate man fell beneath the engine while engaged at his duties.

Mr. Miller formerly lived in Amarillo and was at that time engaged with the Santa Fe and has a large number of friends here who will be shocked to learn of the horrible accident.

NEW CONCERNS ARE IN PROSPECT HERE

REPRESENTATIVES OF TWO MANUFACTURING PLANTS ARE IN WICHITA TODAY.

MAY SUBMIT PROPOSALS

Primary Object of Visits Here, However, is to Look Ground Over for Later Investments.

Two new companies have representatives in Wichita Falls this afternoon looking over the ground with a view to establishing plants in this city and they may submit propositions to Wichita Falls very shortly. The representative of the United States Packing Company arrived this afternoon and a representative of the Texas Cement Roofing Company is also here. Both the gentlemen are in the care of local parties.

It is not known what the visit of the packing company representatives means at this time, although it is hoped that he comes in a position to submit a definite proposition. The roofing company is planning to move its plant from Dallas and Wichita Falls is much favored. This plant would cost seventy-five thousand dollars to erect and would employ about one hundred hands. The getting of this concern here depends largely, it is understood, upon what inducements Wichita Falls is willing to offer.

If these representatives are ready to submit propositions today, a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors will probably be held this afternoon to consider the matter. It is believed, however, that they are here more to look the situation over with a view to submitting definite proposals later on.

C. W. Snider of Clinton, Mo., and W. S. Poynton of Sehell City, Missouri, are in the city today and are understood to be here with a view to making investments. Both are substantial business men of Missouri and it is reported that they intend to become interested here.

"The Girl and the Gawk" company arrived this afternoon for its return engagement at the Wichita Theatre tonight.

By Associated Press. Bonham, Tex., March 5.—Following the arrest yesterday of Miss Annie Nabors of Dallas, charged with setting fire to Carlton College here, causing a loss of eighteen thousand dollars, it developed today that the blaze originated in a closet where matches were applied to a lot of music and papers. It is alleged in the complaint that Miss Nabors, who is fifteen years old, was prompted by an alleged wrong.

AT THE WICHITA THEATRE

"The Girl and the Gawk."

Miss Della Locke, the beautiful and accomplished star in "The Girl and the Gawk," which is to appear at the Wichita Theatre tonight, is quite an accomplished cook and during the summer months when the Lockes are at their home in Mound City, Mo., Miss Locke spends a great part of her time in the kitchen. She gives the following recipe for an old-time Lenten cake, which is very appropriate at this season of the year. As made by the old rule, this cake was rich and exceedingly delicious and differs from the majority of the cakes of our day in that it must be boiled before baking to insure the altogether delightful result. Here is the recipe:

Beat six ounces of castor sugar and half a pound of good butter with a wooden spoon until smooth and creamy; then beat in three fresh eggs, one by one. Sift in three quarters of a pound of flour in which has been sifted a pinch of salt and a teaspoonful of baking powder and two tablespoonfuls of mixed spices. Add the grated yellow rind of one orange and one lemon, half a pound of candied peel, cut in small strips; half a pound of clean currants and one quarter of a pound of sweet almonds, blanched and chopped fine; mix all thoroughly together. Then add a half wine glass full of brandy and a little saffron. Mix again very thoroughly and drop the dough in one lump from the bowl into a round buttered cake tin; tie tightly over its top a scalded and well-floured pudding cloth; place the tin in a kettle of rapidly boiling water and let it boil steadily for three hours. The cake must then be carefully taken from the tin. Work the edge of the top up like a little fence and brush it all over with a beaten egg. Place it on a well buttered baking tin and let it bake slowly in a moderate oven until the crust is hard and crisp and nicely colored. Sprinkle powdered sugar thickly over it and let it stand on a sieve until cold.

Many of the Wichita Falls people will remember this clever little actress and supporting company for their excellent work with the same attraction during the latter part of January.

"A Stubborn Cinderella."

"A Stubborn Cinderella," the most successful of all musical comedies, which broke the records in Chicago for consecutive performances, having played 500 times at Chicago's best theatre the Princess; six months at the Broadway Theatre, New York, and twenty-one weeks in Boston and Philadelphia, is now making new records on the road with Harry Stone, the well-known comedian in the feature role, as "Mac." Mr. Stone has always been a popular favorite since his initiation in musical comedy. The original production comes here almost direct from its run in these cities. It is one of the biggest successes that will play here this season with its original massive production, pretty girls and select company.

There are twenty catchy song numbers, most of which are hits. The song, "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," sung by Grace Edmond, the prima donna, is one of the best songs Joseph Howard ever wrote.

"A Stubborn Cinderella" is under the personal direction of Mort H. Singer, the producer of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," and other big hits in musical comedy. In the cast with Harry Stone and Eva May Carey are Lillian Goldsmith, who played "The Girl" in "The Time, the Place and the Girl" company; W. H. White, Lester Crawford, Francis Pierlot, Claire Noefke, Charles Haigh and Josephine Baird and a chorus of 15, including the famous Pony Ballet. The attraction comes here on Wednesday March 9th.

Miss Eva May Carey, the prima donna in "A Stubborn Cinderella," the quality musical play soon to appear in this city, is the possessor of a remarkable voice. She recently finished a five-year course abroad where she has been studying under the careful direction of eminent professors. She recently gave up her grand opera career and is following in the footsteps of Fritz Scheff, who forsook grand opera for musical comedy. Miss Edmond has successfully appeared in "Cavalleria Rusticana," singing the role of Santuzza. Other grand operas in which she has sung are: "Martha," "Il Trovatore," "Balfe's Sleeping Queen," "Aida," "Mignon," "Carmen," "Traviata" and several of the Wagner roles.

Thrift and Economy Go Together.

Wherever you see things about a farm that indicate thrift, you may be positively certain that the owner of that farm practices economy. He knows it is cheaper to have good, comfortable barns, sheds, pens, chicken houses and other outbuildings than it is not to have them. The cost may be a little burdensome at the time, but he knows that they are a mighty good investment, and he has them, whatever the cost.

Possibly YOU need more buildings, but fear the cost is too great. Don't you believe it would be a good idea to come in and let us tell you exactly what the cost would be? The chances are that they won't cost as much as you imagine. We are offering especially low prices at the present time.

CITY PLAN FOR WICHITA FALLS

Street Improvement and Street Lighting. The Railroad's Dilemma—Stern Side of Civic Development.

It is to the more practical side of city planning and city development that the Times wishes to devote its attention in this article. In the initial article of this series, which appeared last Saturday, space was devoted to the simpler features of civic development. Unfortunately, perhaps, the idea of beauty and attractiveness can not always predominate. There is a practical side of the question that must be seriously considered.

We began in the front yard last week and worked out across to the sidewalk and the curb, which brings us very naturally to the street, after we have crossed the gutter.

The gutter is deserving of more attention than is evident at first. Even when the street and sidewalk are paved, unless the gutter is taken care of, bad weather makes it disagreeably prominent. In this respect, however, Wichita Falls is rather fortunately situated. The topography is such that there need be no hesitation about going ahead with the paving down-town without first constructing sewers. The reason for this is simple enough. The business section, while lower than that part of the city known as "the hill," is higher than a short stretch of territory intervening between it and the hill.

Eighth street will illustrate this statement. The "hill" commences to rise beyond Travis street. Going from Travis street downtown, one is climbing, almost imperceptibly, but none the less surely and the slight incline there will have the effect of preventing the residence section's being drained down into the business district. Were it otherwise, it would be the rankest folly to lay a single yard of pavement before the storm sewers were constructed.

But that does not benefit this low section between the business section and the hill and the time will come when the construction of a storm sewer running practically the length of the city along Lamar avenue will be made a necessity. This must be done before that section can be paved. Such a storm sewer would drain not only the major portion of the business section, but would carry off water from the residence section as far west as Bluff street.

Before the end of 1910 the street paving will have been started, at least, and probably that time will see eight or ten blocks completed. So far, Wichita Falls has builded wisely and well in this particular. Provision has been made for the paving of practically the entire business section and as each successive year increases the city's revenue, the paved district will doubtless be gradually extended westward into the residence section.

The adoption of the state law has facilitated this work to a very great extent. The Times has long enough confidence in the public spirit of Wichitans to predict that when paving has once started the contractors will be unable to put it down fast enough to satisfy the property owners. Now that we have street cars, it requires a stretch of the imagination to realize how we ever got along so many years without them. In general, we will come to feel the same way about paved streets, once we get a start along that line. It is going to be expensive, sure enough, but a city worth living in is a city worth paying for.

The Times believes that Wichita Falls will always have to depend upon permanent pavements for her good streets. There is no cheaper road material available and considering the heavy cost of hauling limestone rock, it would be nearly as expensive to construct macadam streets as it would be to pave. Paved streets, once constructed, are permanent and are not a continual source of expense.

So far as the present is concerned, the street situation seems able to take care of itself, but Wichita Falls will never be satisfied with her thoroughfares until she gets them, in both the residence and business sections, paved.

Wichita Falls now has a total of about fifty street lights, including both the gas and electric illuminations. That is not enough, as our readers will readily admit. When the street car company complies with the order to place arc lights at its intersections in the residence section, there will be some improvement, but the worst need along this line is in the business section. So far from being the "great white way" of the up-to-date city, the downtown streets are in semi-darkness and what lights we have are not kept burning as assiduously as is possible.

There is a plan suggested to have clusters of incandescents at fifty-foot intervals through the business section. This would be not only a beautiful, but a very serviceable lighting system and the Times sincerely hopes the movement in this direction has not died "a bornin'."

We are glad to be able to state that both the water and gas companies are making allowance for the city's growth in laying their pipes. The water company is planning to replace many of its present mains with some of larger size and the gas company is fast getting equipped to handle the city's growth for some years to come. It is pleasing to note, also, that the city is making preparations for the fires of the future and is getting fire-fighting equipment that would do credit to the biggest city in the land.

Another feature of the sterner side of city development is now in evidence. The railroads entering the city are outgrowing their facilities and they are up against the yard question good and hard. Both the Katy and Denver have made efforts to secure property adjoining their yards, with little success, and as the city continues to grow the lack of these facilities will be more and more discommoding. Nobody looked far enough ahead to see that the city's business and traffic was certain to outgrow the facilities that were provided for the railroads years ago.

The railroads of the city are now solving this problem as best they can and it is thought that the solution is about at hand, although the definite announcement of the plans has not yet been made.

Wichita Falls is peculiarly constructed in that while the residents of Floral Heights are two miles from the City National Bank, there are vacant lots in the opposite direction from this bank within a distance of a few hundred yards, across the railroad tracks. Much of this land has already been acquired by parties whose intention it is to put it on the market in lots before many days. As that part of the city fills up, as eventually it is certain to do, the crossing of the railroad tracks at 7th street will be fraught with more and more danger and inconvenience. It will require nothing less than a viaduct at this or some other convenient crossing to obviate the danger, and in building for the future this phase of the question cannot be overlooked.

The question of where the city is going to grow next is worrying more than one property owner at this time. So far, the growth has been to the southward and westward, but Holliday Creek blocks extension on the south and there is some limit to the growth on the west. It seems safe to predict that those available parts of the city less distant from the business section are to be filled up at an early date. If a packing plant or cotton factory should be acquired, there would have to be provided many new homes for the new citizens and it is needless to point out that these homes could not be provided to the westward.

Consequently, the growth must be gradually to the northward and eastward. Already that part of the city between the business section and the river bridge is filling slowly and it will not be very long before it stretches well across the river, especially if a factory of some kind should be constructed over there, which is not without the range of possibilities, by any means. And then the growth to the eastward is almost equally as certain.

Note is made of these things simply in connection with the general conception of what the city is going to be as it grows. It is not too early to take these facts into consideration, and while the development and action along these lines must be gradual and natural, it is none the less positive in its demands as it grows.

Civic development is very largely a matter of cold business dealing. There is a sentimental side, also, in the ratio of about one to three to the business side. The Times today presents what purports to be the more practical side of the question; that is, the outlining of plans that are called for more thorough commercial necessity than through anything else.

Wichita Falls has all but lost sight of one of her saddest necessities—the public park. But there is more in store for Wichita Falls in this way than now appears, as will be explained next week, when the Times hopes to get away from the end realities back to the roseate possibilities.

THE STAFF OF LIFE

Cereals have proved their value as human food for ages.

According to modern analysis, as well as to well-founded traditional knowledge there is an amplitude of potent and strength-giving and other factors in oats, corn, wheat, rice and other varieties of the graminiferous products to warrant their use as a mainstay and staple food. Bread has been for centuries recognized in the telling popular phrase as "the staff of life," and popular phrases are usually founded on sound experience. Going back to the roots of the language, our word "lord" is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word "loaf-waerd"—the loaf-keeper or dispenser, who was, of course, an important, feudal figure. The Roman may cry "panem et circenses" for grain and pleasure. Despite the strictures of dyspeptic Carlyle, the Scotch, with their oaten cakes and oatmeal porridge, are a robust race. The Chinese have for centuries flourished on a fare of rice; the aboriginal Americans had maize as their chief food; the Southern Latin peoples partake mainly of spaghetti and the northern peasantry eat their black bread made of various grains.

And so (examples might be multiplied indefinitely to attest the value of cereals in the human economy. At this time cereals are to be obtained in many varied and palatable forms. As manufactured, there is an infinite variety of them which might beneficially be turned to account in the daily regime. The objection may be urged, that immediately this is done the new demand will cause a rise in prices in view of the two-fold fact that the manufacturers of cereals have conducted in their interest a campaign the feature of which is a fixed price for cereals and that the supply is too ample with our yearly "bumper crops." Philadelphia Telegraph.

LET SOMETHING GOOD BE SAID.

When over the fair fame of friend or foe,
The shadow of disgrace shall fall,
Instead
Of words of blame, or proof of thus and so,
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow-being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears
is wet,
If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy, no soul so dead
But may awaken strong and glorified,
If something good be said.

And so I charge ye, by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which the Saviour bled,
And by your own soul's hope of fair
renewal,
Let something good be said!

The wonderful growth of my business is the result of clean business methods. HONESTY and FAIRNESS are the two corner stones to which I can point with pride to my success, and the solid rock of TRUTH is the foundation upon which my business is built.

Today the oxcart is laid aside; and instead we have the automobile and trolley cars speeding across the country at a speed that was never dreamed-of a few years ago. The courier on horseback is replaced by the wireless telegraph. The candle gives place to the electric light, and diseases which meant death a few years ago are now handled with comparative ease. So if the old method of treatment have led you to believe that nothing can be done for you, it will pay you to investigate the new. We never get too old to learn and you may be surprised at the quickness of your cure.

—Tonight and Sunday, generally fair.

Hist! There's "gambling in futures" going on—not behind closed doors nor in the darkest corner of a storm cellar, but right out in the open. Demagogues, Pharisees and keepers-of-the-brother! To the forum! To the sheriff's office! Here's the Texas Nut Company of Denison contracting for peanut crops "not yet planted!" And the price is a good 'un, too. Seventy cents the bushel for Spanish peanuts isn't to be sneezed at. The farmers are making contracts accordingly. Plunge on the 70-cent contract and plant peanuts. Follow the crop with battleship hogs and let our big-baying plank roll give your ready cash account an additional boost.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Democratic primary elections will be held in every county in Arkansas on March 30th for the purpose of making nominations for all state and district offices. There is a red hot campaign on now for the office of governor between the present governor, Geo. W. Donaghy, who is seeking a second term, and C. C. Kavanaugh, the latter a prominent citizen and politician of Little Rock.

One secret of Wichita Falls' growth lies in the fact that when a man who is thinking of locating here—comes to investigate he finds the the boosting hasn't been overdone.

COMMENTS ON THE TIMES' POET.

Ye editor with tuneful lay about the spring is gittin' gay; he makes us think the time is May in his very recent say. He showeth plainly, quite that he is full of rhymes as one can be; he showeth much abilitie in grinding out his poetree.

We are thankful that the Daily Times has on it's staff a man that rhymes—but, stop, perhaps that we are wrong about the author of that song.

Perhaps the force were all asleep and never saw the devil creep into the sanctum where they keep the things at which he may not peep.

And feeling sorry for the men, within the editorial den, he took unto himself a pen and wrote that spring piece there and then.

Now if the editor had guessed that one amongst them was so blessed he would sure have long ago pressed him into doing his big best.

He'd had him booming Wichita instead of writing up the thaw—he'd have him shouting hurrah for the best town he ever saw.

Although spring fever might run high, and he longed to be beneath the sky by the babbling brook with hook and fly hopping for nibbles by and by—

He must not think such thoughts as these but cast about how best to please the patrons who delight to find pearls from the pen of such a mind.

So give him space, who'er he be; curb not his pen, for we would see more of his pretty poetree; we deem him quite an odditie.

If we are not much mistaken he is the same who says, "I taken—my pen in hand to try and waken higher self of him forsaken."

Please do not cut your poet out, but give him space to put to rout the clouds that gather round about—the clouds that make us sulk or pout.

But give him paper white and clean whereon his thoughtful thoughts serene might hap'ly stop and there converse and say unto the world, "I seen."

Hoping that you will hear our plea and—sit aside a space for he who wears his talent gracefulee, we ask for more spring poetree.

—A. B.

When we, who court the Muse would sing, the glories of the gladsome spring, it brings no uncton to our heart to charge it to the devil's art. The thoughts that rise in the springtime must needs come out in tuneful rhyme, in editorial poetree, our editorial ecstasee, about the brooklets and the rills, and flowers springing on the hills and leaflets swaying in the breeze, so we to set our minds at ease, must sing in editorial rhyme the glories of the glad springtime. The sweetest songs since Time began were issued from the tongue of man, not in the summer's heated glare, nor in the chill of winter's air, nor yet 'neath autumn's golden skies do poets stem the thoughts that rise. So, gentle critic, while you say the truth about our tuneful lay, and though your comment flings a dart into our editorial heart, we cannot think you really blame and still insist that spring has come.

SENATOR GORE ON THE BLIND.

Memphis Commercial Appeal.
Senator Gore of Oklahoma is the only blind member of the United States Senate. He is likewise one of its most brilliant members. Afflicted all his life, he is peculiarly sensitive to discussing his infirmity and never refers to the condition of the sightless if he can help it. It is a word he dreads and it is seldom used by his conferees in conversation with him.

Last week Senator Gore, to the surprise of everyone, delivered an address before the Pennsylvania Home Teaching and Free Circulating Library for the Blind.

Incidentally, Senator Gore advanced ideas which show how deeply he feels his affliction and the affliction of others who are born or become blind.

It was the senator's first address upon this subject. He advocated an entire change in the methods of educating the blind. He made a strong plea for the education of the sightless with children who see and have sound eyes. The education of blind children in institutions intended for their care alone he declared to be a grave mistake. The blind, he said, must live and work and struggle for their existence with seeing people, and to herd blind children together in institutions or schools where they are cut off from all contact with those who make up by far the greater part of the world in which they live and must liber make their way is to utterly unfit them for the struggle and to doom them to almost certain failure.

There is much truth in this statement of fact. Senator Gore speaks from a field of wide experience and as one of the unfortunate, sounds a note of warning which should be heeded by those who have the education of the blind under their observance. By mingling with other people, the sightless become accustomed to their infirmity and are better equipped to meet the subsequent exigencies of life.

A few days ago the News had something to say about the adaptability of Texas to the business of dairying. Some of the advantages of this state for the carrying out of this industry were pointed out. It is gratifying to note that since that time two or three additional creamery companies have organized or on the point of organization. The best information that the News has at hand is to the effect that there are forty-nine creameries in active operation. This is certainly encouraging. In this connection it is well to take into consideration the fact that the prosperity enjoyed by the creameries is also shared by the communities in which they are located, and particularly by the farmers who furnish the cream for the plants. As an example, attention may be called to an item appearing in the News last week from Bonham, stating that John W. Morgan, living near Honey Grove, has received for cream from seven cows during the year $601.14. In addition he has fed and raised more than $100 worth of hogs on the skim milk, besides furnishing milk and butter for his family. All the cream was sold to a Paris creamery. The dispatch says further: "Mr. Morgan will give up farming on a large scale and devote more time to the dairy business, as it has proven to be more profitable than farming."—Dallas News.

BALDHEADED ROW

Early Plety not Always the Cause of Baldness

Inasmuch as it is an excepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which The Weeks Drug Co., has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic and is pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America and by The Week's Drug Co. for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

HURT BY DYNAMITE.

Curiosity of Small Boys Comes Near Proving Fatal.

Special to The Times.
Clifton, Mich. 5.—Dale and Frank, the two younger boys of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Falls were painfully hurt last Wednesday morning while playing with a dynamite cap they had found, and in their childish curiosity, led them to try a hammer and nail in the examination of their find, and when it exploded the little fellows were badly hurt, Dale having one of his four fingers blown off at the first joint and the palm and wrist pretty badly bruised. Frank, the baby, was pretty badly bruised and cut about the neck breast and hip, but his wounds were the least of the two. Dr. J. C. Carpenter was called at once and has been treating them with good results and says they are doing as well as could be expected. The affair was bad enough, but it is considered indeed fortunate that the little fellows escaped with their lives.

SOUTHWESTERN EXTENSION.

It Will Probably Reach Archer City by March 20th.

Special to The Times.
Henrietta, Mich. 5.—The Southwestern expects to get its rails laid into Archer City by March 20, is the statement made by General Superintendent Parks of the Southwestern recently. This is some five or ten days later than the date originally fixed, but there have been several small delays that were not expected to occur.

Just now the fore is held up on account of the failure of a contractor to finish up a little stretch of grade on time. Rock was encountered in making a cut and it has to be shot out, which takes time. They expect to have it ready for the ties to go down by Monday, meantime the track layers are not idle, they are putting in the time surfacing the track already laid.

NEGRO GIRL KIDNAPPED.

Negro Preacher Wanted Her to Pass Hat for Him

Special to The Times.

Ardmore, Mich. 5.—Excusing his crime of kidnapping by saying he needed the little girl he took with him to help him in his meetings, Elbert Kellum, a negro preacher of the Methodist persuasion, languishes in the Carter county jail. Kellum is 25 years of age, the little girl he took with him on a long tramp is 10 years old.

Two years ago a negro family named Jones moved here from Texas and was cultivating a farm eight miles northeast of Ardmore. Kellum, the young negro preacher came to make his home with the family. Last Monday morning Maggie Jones and her younger sister were sent to school as usual. While en route to the school house the preacher accosted the children and told the older one her father wanted her to accompany him to a neighbor's to take a music lesson. The smaller one went on to school and the parents knew nothing of the kidnapping until the child returned Monday afternoon. The father at once began a search for his child. The sheriff's office here was notified and Officers Stone and Cole at Berwyn were set to work upon the case. All kinds of reports were received and many rumors bothered the officers in their search, but Wednesday afternoon near Denison the capture was made. For three days and two nights the man and girl had been alone. They spent the days walking and the nights sleeping under trees and crouching behind rocks. The child was exhausted and appreciated being apprehended and will be glad to be restored to her parents. Kellum told the county attorney yesterday evening when he was locked up that he needed the child in his services to take up collections and to do the singing. He offered no further excuse. Dr. Parish, the county physician, was called to see the child. He reported that she had not been imposed upon by the preacher, who kidnapped her, and the crime of kidnapping is the only one placed opposite his name on the prison register.

T. H. Stone and Steve Cole were the captors and they had a very tiresome journey tracing the negro as he avoided civilization all he could and often did without meals and forced the child to live on very little. He was evidently making his way to the negro settlements in East Texas, where he dreamed of the times he would have preaching and having the little girl pass around the hat.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS.

Prohibition Situation in Potter County Is Unchanged.

Special to The Times.

Amarillo, Tex., March 5.—The local option contention in Potter County seems to remain in a state of unrest, with the preponderance of evidence rather in favor of the appeal. While this is true, it is known that a certain per cent at least of the prohibitionists are against appealing the case.

One thing is practically assured, however, and that is that the various charges of local option violation will rest without trial on the docket until final action has been taken by the Court of Civil Appeals, in the event of appeal.

The case is being much talked of by both sides of the contention and the state of agitation will not subside until something definite results.

NEW NORTHWESTERN DEPOT.

Is One of the Most Handsome Structures in Altus.

Special to The Times.

Altus, Okla., March 5.—A. T. Hagen is about the happiest man we have seen in a long time. Ever since the Wichita Falls and Northwestern built into Altus, he, as agent of that road, has been transacting business in a shack, called a depot. But his troubles are over, for he has moved into the new brick depot, and wears a smile that won't come off.

The new depot is a fine and well apportioned building. This new road has set an example that the Frisco and Orient should follow. Mr. Hagen takes pleasure in showing his friends through his new home.

Early corn should be planted to supply the work animals with sufficient food. Animals need green food to give appetite, and tone up the digestive organs. Adam's Early Hickory King are good varieties for this purpose. Sweet corn may also be planted for this purpose. After the plants have been harvested, the land may be sown in cowpeas.

IN SOCIETY'S REALM

ENOUGH.

Oh, what is enough for one, my love,
Is always enough for two.
The stars and the noonday sun, my love,
Will satisfy me and you.
One roof is enough to cover up twain,
One little umbrella for the days of rain,
One little love-song with a soft refrain,
Will certainly nicely do.

Oh, what is enough for one, my love,
Is always enough for two.
There's heat enough in a ton, my love,
For any fond lovers true.
One cozy parlor will serve us well,
One dining-room, with one dinner-bell,
And one little cook and a hired 'gel,
Will carry us nicely through.

Oh, what is enough for one, my love,
Is always enough for two.
And when the old day is done, my love,
I'll prove it with joy to you,
I'll show you how one dear little chair
Holds plenty of room and some to spare,
At twilight time for a loving pair
Who know how to bill and coo.

Yes, what is enough for one, my love,
Is always enough for two.
In troubled times or in fun, my love,
One portion will always do.
One dear little home with one front door,
One sweet little sea by the moonlit shore,
One heart, one soul, one mother-in-law,
Is ample for me and you!

A surprise party was given Miss Lucy May Priebe by her mother, Mrs. C. F. Priebe, at her home two miles from town last Saturday evening in honor of her eleventh birthday. The friends arrived at 3 o'clock and the evening was spent in playing various games, after which dainty refreshments were served.

These missionary afternoons are fast becoming the most popular of the society's meetings and a large number of members and friends were in attendance.

Mrs. McKee in a most capable manner, led the devotional exercises, reading the scripture lesson on the feeding of the five thousand from the few loaves and fishes, bringing out the truth that only by the application of the little faith and the small means can great things be accomplished.

'The Indian' was the subject under consideration and each member responded to the roll-call with some item of interest concerning him.

Miss Kemp read an interesting account of the old-time Indian with his superstitions and disregard of civilized ways.

Mrs. Fain, who was unable to attend sent an excellent substitute from her pen on the church's duty toward saving the soul of the red man.

Dr. McKee rounded out the program with a talk on Sunday School matters, after which the social hour was most pleasantly spent in music, serving of refreshments and conversation.

A generous free will offering was taken.

Mrs. Ed Howard gave two of the prettiest afternoon affairs of the season when she entertained at '42' on Thursday and Friday afternoon of this week. The parlors and dining room were beautiful in their decorations of splendid ferns and potted plants, the yellow oxalis being in prominence as the color scheme was in that golden tint. Gayety was given free wings and a most happy time was spent. The refreshments were charmingly and beautifully spread, consisting of a salad and ice course, ending with coffee.

The guests for the two afternoons were:

In a cut Mrs. McKee of Oklahoma, was given the favor, a beautiful hat pin.

FREDERICK IS BUSY.

Two Gig Factories Now in Sight for Oklahoma Neighbor.

Special to the Times.

Frederick, Mich. 5.—With work rapidly proceeding on one new factory building and two others practically assured, Frederick is rapidly taking on proportions of an industrial center. Announcement was made yesterday morning that the contract between the local committee and J. W. Blackwelder of Hickory, North Carolina, for the location of the knitting or hosiery mill had been executed, and that work on the foundation of the mill would begin March 10. The only thing that will cause these plans to miscarry will be a lack of co-operation on the part of citizens in assisting the committee to raise funds to acquire some more land needed, and no trouble of this kind is anticipated. Secretary Mounts of the commercial club yesterday said that a committee would call on the business men within the next few days for this purpose. They will doubtless meet with generous responses in this movement which means so much to Frederick.

The contract for putting in the foundation has been let to the Frederick Concrete Stone Works.

By March 10 blue prints showing the detailed plans for the mills will be received by Mr. Mounts and the contract will then be let for erecting the building. The building is to be 50x150 feet, two stories high, and will be of brick on a concrete foundation. It will be located on the southeast corner of the Holloman land, east of the Frisco and south of the Wichita Falls & Northwestern tracks. Seventy-five people will be employed to begin with. The company will be known as the Frederick Milling Co.

The Grand Leader Millinery is in their old stand up stairs on Indiana avenue, entrance stairway next to Morris' drug store. 231-3t

Officials Kept Busy by Big Strike; Soldiers and Scenes In Philadelphia Streets.

The burning of cars in Philadelphia, assaults on strike breakers and other forms of lawlessness led to vigorous action by the authorities, especially Governor Edwin S. Stuart of Pennsylvania, who is a Philadelphian; Mayor Reyburn, District Attorney Samuel P. Rotan and Director of Public Safety Clay. One of the pictures shows the use made of the American flag by some of the sympathizers with the strikers. They dumped a heap of rubbish on the track and then stuck a flag upright into a pile in order to stop the progress of a car. The picture also shows some of the state fencibles who proved powerless to check the mob.

If your system of farm management has not been profitable, reduce the area of arableland. It is no disgrace to fall in the management of a large farm. Few men have such extraordinary ability. You may have success with a small farm. Try it.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Alderman J. M. Bland today filed his resignation as a member of the city council. Mr. Bland states that he has found himself unable to give his duties as alderman sufficient time to properly carry them out and that in continuing to hold an office which he was too busy to attend to, he felt that he would be laying himself open to criticism. This leave Alderman E. P. Walsh as the only hold over alderman and a practically new council will be elected next month.

The charter of the "Wichita Falls & Wellington" Railway has been filed with the Secretary of State at Austin. This charter covers the Texas end of the Northwestern's extension from Altus to Wellington.

The police are looking for someone who made off with a horse hitched in front of a barber shop on Ohio avenue yesterday afternoon. No arrests have been made as yet.

News has been received here of the recent wedding of Ernest Dieton of this city and Miss Floyd Sewell of Chickasha, Okla., on March 2nd.

FARM AND STOCK

Books are often the cheapest and best equipment on the farm.

Do not plant more cotton this year, but gather more from what you do plant.

Thoroughbred stock not only pay their board, but lay up something for the "rainy day."

Clovers should be treated more kindly by the farmers of the Southwest. They have the power of taking free nitrogen from the air and storing it for use of the plants. They are soil renovators—meat producers and mortgage lifters. Give clover a place on your farm this year.

If pasture has not been provided for the work animals and young stock on the farm, this should be provided for this spring. You will see the wisdom of this if you attempt to live on dry foods alone. When you provide vegetables for your table, do not forget the work animals.
