WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1910

NUMBER 255

BIG IMPROVEMENTS BY NORTHWESTERN

TO SPEND ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR SHOPS IN THIS CITY.

TO BEGIN WORK SHORTLY

Will Be Used For Repairs of Approximately Two Hundred and Fifty Miles of Railroad.

Approximately one hundred thousand dollars will be expended by the Wichita Falls and Northwestern Railway in the erection of shops in this city, according to an announcement at the offices of the road this morning. Machinery contractors are now in the city to bid on the machinery for the shops and it is expected to begin work at an early date.

It has been an open secret for some time that the Northwestern officials were contemplating extensive improvements here and it is believed that still other improvements are to be made in addition to the shops.

No announcement has been made as to the location of the shops, but it is believed that they will be erected across the Wichita River. The Northwestern not long since acquired about eighty acres of land in the "V" between the Northwestern and Denver tracks and there is every reason to believe that it is intended to erect the shops at this point, as there is no available location on this side of the river. The shops will add a large number of men to the "tin-bucket brigade" of this city and will be worth many times their original cost.

The shops will be used for the repairs of the entire system, and by the time they are completed will serve about two hundred to fifty miles of railway, possibly more. Work is to begin at an early date.

PLANS CHAUTAUQUA FOR NEXT SUMMER

NINE-DAY EDUCATIONAL EVENT AT LAKE WICHITA NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION.

CAN ACCOMMODATE 3500

Seating Capacity For That Many in Ball Park With Ample Camping Ground Nearby.

If the plans of Farmer L. Clark can be carried out a nine-day Chautauque will be held at Lake Wichita next summer with some of the foremost lecturers in the country as performers. If local people will take the matter up with sufficient interest, there is no doubt that one of the most successful affairs of this kind ever held in the southwest can be provided next June.

Mr. Clark proposes to erect a speakers stand in front of the grand stand in the baseball park. The grandstand is in the shape of an "L" and the speakers stand will be put up near where the two wings are joined. Thirty-five hundred people can be accommodated in the grandstand. Within a few hundred yards is a beautiful grove with unlimited camping space and nearby will be the race track, furnishing stable room for the horses and vehicles, thus providing every possible convenience for the comfort of the visitors, even those who do not wish to patronize the hotel. It is thought that the Lake amusements will serve as an additional attraction.

The grand stand will be covered with a gravel roof, giving ample protection from rain and sun and the comfort of the visitors would be looked after in detail.

Mr. Clark is in touch with popular lecturers from all over the country and could get up a program such as was never before presented in the Southwest, giving an attraction that would bring people here from every part of this section. He believes that the plans can be carried out and is determined to put the matter through. It is proposed to have the program begin on a Saturday and continue for nine days, lasting over two Sundays.

HARD FIGHT TO SECURE THE 1911 MEETING OF ODD FELLOWS IS MADE

With Houston and Dallas as competitors, Wichita Falls is putting up a game fight for the 1911 meeting of the Texas Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, and every effort is being exerted to land the meeting. Telegrams have been sent to the convention by the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor T. B. Noble, all of the banks and by the officers of several fraternal organizations of this city. Both Houston and Dallas and Houston are trying to land the next meeting and it will take a hard fight by Wichita Falls to defeat them. The Wichita delegation went equipped for a hard contest and it is believed this city will yet win out. The selection of a 1911 meeting place will probably be made tomorrow.

PARK QUESTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

CITY COUNCIL RECEIVES FORMAL OFFER FROM MR. KEMP OF 100-ACRE TRACT.

ALDERMEN VIEW SITE

Legal Objections to City's Acceptance May Arise, But the Outlook is Favorable.

At last night's session of the City Council, the offer of J. A. Kemp to donate one hundred acres of land southwest of the city, for a park, was submitted by Mr. Kemp, as was indicated in the Times last week. The council was appointed a committee to inspect the park this morning and consider the advisability of accepting the offer, which is made on condition that the city improve and maintain the park.

The Council, accompanied by Mr. Kemp, viewed the park this morning and as a result of their visit they are inclined to accept the offer provided it can be done without violating the law. The tract is outside of the city limits and as a result it is a question whether the city can expend the public funds to improve it. As soon as this feature of the question can be decided, the Council will decide whether or not to accept the offer.

The tract is about one hundred acres in size, thickly wooded, and its topography is such that the expense of laying it off would be small compared with the immense benefits. The desirability of the park and the city's pressing need for park space make it imperative that some way of accepting the offer be devised and it is believed that whatever legal barriers there are in the way can be surmounted. The question will be carefully considered.

YOKUM TALKS ON SOUTH'S FUTURE

RAILROAD PRESIDENT SAYS POSSIBILITIES OF THE SOUTHERN STATES ARE UNLIMITED.

GOVERNMENT SHOULD AID

Says That Railroad Construction and Prosperity Always Run Hand in Hand.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, La., March 3.—"The government can afford and is inclined to co-operate with you in this important undertaking so long as the government feels that you are satisfied with the slow process of building up the resources of Louisiana, and the public men of Washington will also be satisfied," said B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Company. Mr. Yoakum was speaking of the necessity of building up the south in an address before the New Orleans Board of trade.

Mr. Yoakum said: "For almost a century our government has looked with indifference at the rich unused lands of the southern states, while the British government furnishes its money and credit to aid Egypt to reclaim waste lands in the valley of the Nile 5,000 miles away."

"The low, rich lands of the south, which have hitherto been regarded as a matter of interest only to the southern states, have now become a matter of importance to the whole country. First, the people need the food, cotton and other products which your low lands will produce in abundance. Second, these lands are needed for settlement by the American citizens who are now seeking homes in other countries. Sixty thousand people moved from the United States to Canada last year. They carried with them $1,000 each, or $60,000,000. Our people are leaving thickly settled districts where the price of farm lands are high. This means that our own people are building up an empire belonging to a foreign nation at the expense of our own country."

The necessity of more lands under cultivation to produce more food and clothing need only be stated to give the second strong reason why the government must take an interest in the waste lands of Louisiana and other southern states. Your rich lands may be drained at a cost of $5 per acre located near the congested centers, and will produce the kind of food that supplies the kitchens of the consuming masses. The government is interested in reclamation in the northwest, but the administration at Washington has become interested in the irrigation projects of the northwest, because the people of the northwest became interested in the development of their country and urged their claims.

"A drainage bill permitting the drainage of southern lands was introduced by a western senator at the last session of congress. It was killed by a southern senator. This opposition, which attracted but little attention then, stopped for the time important work for the south's development. There are 148 senators and representatives in congress from the southern states. By working together with one object in view, they can accomplish much; in fact, they can get what they want if they go after it."

"The state of Louisiana has ten million acres that can be made into rich farms at one-half of that cost, or $5 per acre. These idle lands are enriched by centuries of decaying vegetation and deposits of silt. They are the richest and deepest alluvia soil in the world. This applies equally to the twenty-five million acres of alluvial soil on both sides of the Mississippi River in the states of Illinois, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri.

"The small sections of these swap lands which the drainage bureau of the government has surveyed shows the cost would not exceed $5 per acre to put them in readiness for the plow. Valuing these lands at $10 to $15 per acre, when drained and cleared, will stand to cost $25 per acre. In cultivation, their value would be from $75 to $100 per acre. In other words, for an investment of $10 to $15 an acre in drainage and clearing, the increased wealth of Louisiana would be more than 600 million dollars."

"The value of this work does not stop with making these lands tillable. It is conservative to estimate $50 per acre annually from crops, which would mean an annual increase of 300 million in the products of Louisiana, or to put it in another way, each dollar invested in drainage would pay $6 annually in products. This, in connection with the upbuilding of new towns, sugar mills, cotton mills, rice mills, railroads and other industries, shows the importance of starting this work under a broad and comprehensive plan, with the aid and co-operation of the federal government. The government is waiting for you to say what you want. Everyone must realize what it means in raising vegetables and products from such rich soil to the masses who are struggling under the burden of the high priced food. The government could afford to make surveys and lay out plans on a comprehensive scale; the government could afford to supply the main drainage channels for the surplus waters to make their way to the gulf. If it will undergo the surveys and provide the main channels for drainage, private capital will do the rest. For every fifty cents the government will expend, private capital will spend $5 to push forward and complete the work of reclamation to make your state in land values and productivity one of the strongest and richest of the nation."

"The state of Arkansas is leading in drainage work. The swamp area of Arkansas is smaller than that of Louisiana, but Arkansas has sent a committee of farmers and business men to Washington, who have discussed the question with President Taft, the secretary of agriculture, Speaker Cannon and their congressmen. They have been promised support. Louisiana should send a committee to Washington to see the president and your representatives and ask them to join the people of Louisiana in giving you support for the development of your resources. They should go to Washington to talk in the interest of the state and not politics or questions foreign to your development."

"There are 76 million acres of swamp lands in the United States, 58 million acres of which are in the southern states—a greater acreage than the states of Tennessee and Kentucky. This fertile area is not being utilized as it should. While local in its development, it is nation-wide in its effect to provide food for the people. Let the senators and representatives of the southern states co-operate with the agricultural and business interests of the south, and we will make farms faster than they were ever made in the history of the world. It is a big task, but the south is equal to it if it will only take hold of it."

"It must be inaugurated by the business and farming interests of the south through public sentiment and co-operation at Washington, the senators and representatives in congress take a personal interest and work with the people of the southern and southwestern states."

"What the south needs is more workers of the right class to take hold of its untilled soil, timber and mineral lands and make the south what it should be."

"This important work cannot be considered wholly from a local or selfish standpoint."

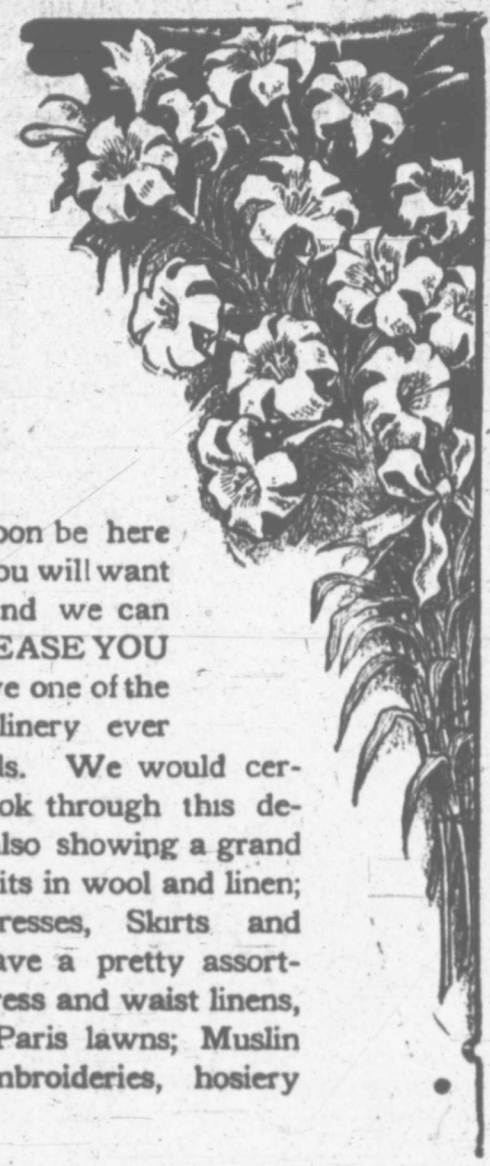

"Railroad construction and prosperity of our country run hand in hand. During periods when extensive new mileage of railroads are constructed, we have good times. When new construction is limited, we have hard times. During prosperous times from five to six thousand miles of new railroads annually have been built for the last thirty years. Last year we dropped off to 3,500. The prospect for new construction does not indicate more than 2,000 miles during the year of 1916. There was never a time when railroad construction was more necessary in the development of the country's resources than at present. The attitude at Washington is against new railroad construction. They are inclined to try new theories that will re-

Thrift and Economy Go Together.

Wherever you see things about a farm that indicate thrift, you may be positively certain that the owner of that farm practices economy. He knows it is cheaper to have good, comfortable barns, sheds, pens, chicken houses and other outbuildings than it is not to have them. The cost may be a little burdensome at the time, but he knows that they are a mighty good investment, and he has them, whatever the cost.

Possibly YOU need more buildings, but fear the cost is too great. Don't you believe it would be a good idea to come in and let us tell you exactly what the cost would be? The chances are that they won't cost as much as you imagine. We are offering especially low prices at the present time.

CAMPAIGN ENDED.

Seattle May Pry Off the Lid in Election Tomorrow.

Seattle, Wash., March 7.—One of the fiercest municipal campaigns in the history of Seattle came to an end today. Tomorrow the voters will choose a mayor, comptroller, corporation counsel and members of the city council. The republicans today confidently predict the success of their ticket, which is headed by Hiram C. Gill as a candidate for mayor. The democratic ticket is headed by former Mayor William Hickman Moore. The United Labor party has a third ticket in the field, with Charles H. Miller, a barber, as their mayoralty candidate.

The question as to whether Seattle shall be a "wide open" town or shall continue to keep the "lid" closed, is regarded as the chief issue of the mayoralty contest. In the primary campaign which led to his nomination on the republican ticket Gill went before the people with the flat declaration for an open town, asserting that certain restrictions which have been enforced would be immediately removed if he was elected mayor. His campaign for election has been clearly conducted along the lines of this issue.

William Hickman Moore, the democratic candidate for mayor, entered the race on a conservative platform. Judge Moore served on the superior bench for many years and was a member of the state senate for two terms. His popularity elected him mayor of Seattle, but his course in office displeased the politicians and as a result he was defeated at the end of his first term.

Stomach Dead—Man Still Lives

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and desire relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomach by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put energy, strength and elasticity into it, and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by The Week's Drug Co., and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named Mi-o-na, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes for 50 cents. Remember the name, Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They never fail.

COMMISSION MEETS.

Minnesota Shippers Complain of Overcharges on Freight.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 8.—A great array of railroad legal talent assembled in Minneapolis today to defend their roads in a series of important cases up before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Alleged freight overcharges are the issues involved in the cases, in which the complainants are leading merchants, manufacturers, lumbermen and others in Minnesota and neighboring states. The Burlington, Minneapolis and St. Louis, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and other leading roads are among the defendants.

Dr. E. M. Wiggs, who has been attending the Chicago Veterinary college for the past six months, desires to announce that he will be back in Wichita Falls about the 20th of March and again engage in the practice of his profession. He will be located at 308 Lamar. 249-41c

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity.
Tonight, partly cloudy weather;
colder. Wednesday, partly cloudy.

The rumors to the effect that Wichita Falls is soon to have a union station into which the passenger trains of all roads now entering this city will run, if they should prove true, would be worth a great deal to this city. The waiting rooms in the railway stations are, as a rule, regarded as the parlor of the town in which they are located, and if they are large, commodious, comfortable and neatly kept, the stranger entering our gates will naturally form a good impression of our city, and when he goes away he will have good things to say about us. It is the same way about our hotels. Wichita Falls has outgrown her present accommodations afforded by the railway stations as well as her hotels. She needs at least one or two more good hotels, and a large union station.

The Houston Post suggests that with the return of the open street car the five-cent hog will vie with the ten-cent article.

WRONG IMPRESSION OF THE SOUTH.

Manufacturers Record.

A current press report credits Frank Anderson, personal representative of B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the board of directors of the St. Louis & San Francisco railway, as saying that demagogic politics is preventing the expansion of Southern railroads; that extensions are not being built just now because it is almost impossible for them to get the money. Also, that one-horse politicians advocate bills for unnecessary laws to govern railroads, and that no big railroad will undertake to spend money while these laws exist.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Anderson has been erroneously reported, as the situation in the South with respect to railroads and politicians is by no means like what he has apparently pictured it to be. There was a time a couple of years ago when the notoriety-seekers among certain classes of politicians endeavored to curry favor with voters and thereby gain advantage themselves by hitting at railroads whenever possible, but it did not take them long to find out that there was a large and influential element in their constituencies which did not at all approve of wholesale condemnation of corporate enterprises and of efforts to control them in every possible way by law. They saw that this was having the effect of keeping capital out of the county and preventing natural and reasonable development of resources. Even in Texas, where railroad legislation was quite as radical against the corporation as in any other state—and much more so than in most of them—there has been a vast change of sentiment, with the result that the railroad progress now under way there is something phenomenal.

It is only necessary to refer to the work which is being done in the western part of Texas by the Santa Fe System to demonstrate the falsity of the statement that it is impossible for the railroads to get money for construction in the south. This company already has under construction several hundred miles of line, and has just let the contract for another line of more than 100 miles, which will probably be extended further. Moreover, the Texas Central Railroad is about to begin the building of a branch nearly 60 miles long, and its main line extension of about 100 miles will probably be started this year. The Santa Fe also has much other new work in contemplation, there being at least 200 miles of construction projected in Texas. Notwithstanding that these and other roads are active with extension work, there are several new railroad enterprises which are being carried out with determination. The Wichita Falls and Northwestern Railway is one of the roads that is pushing onward, even into Oklahoma, where antagonism to railroads was until recently very radical. The fact that these roads are going ahead with their work of extension and improvement is good evidence that the anti-railroad sentiment in its radical forms has greatly abated.

If those Wellington people really want the Northwestern, they can get it, but, in city building, what is worth having is worth paying for.

The news that the secretary-general of Guadalupe had been shot would be more interesting if it stated where in Guadalupe he was.

We must ask Samuel Gompers not to call out the street car employees of Wichita Falls as part of his sympathetic move.

Since the performance of Millionaire Cudaby the popular idea of that class of citizenship is subject to some revision.

Application has been made at Austin to discharge the Waters-Pierce receiver. What's the matter—is the money all gone?

The people do not always lose. The Pennsylvania capital grafters have been sentenced to the penitentiary.

Wichita Falls reached out and pulls this prosperity package: A planing mill with forty men on the Saturday night pay roll. The Panhandle firing line is inspiring. Let Texas get all that's coming to it.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The Dallas grand jury has been instructed to investigate the recent lynching there. What tremors those five thousand prospective defendants must feel!

The new "night letter" telegraph service is said to be for the special benefit of the ladies. Buy what lady could express all she wanted to say in fifty words?

I represent the Sherman Steam Laundry here. A fair part of your patronage solicited. Basket leaves Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Bundles called for and delivered. Leave bundles at Imperial Barber Shop.—254-5tp SAM VANHOOPER.

"THIS IS MY 66th BIRTHDAY."

Sir William Matthews.
Sir William Matthews, the eminent British engineer who is known as the world's harbor builder, was born in Cornwall, March 8, 1844, and was educated by private tutors. He adopted the profession of civil engineer and in the course of time became chief of the firm of Goode, Son and Matthews, who have constructed harbors and piers in all parts of the world. One of the most notable engineering feats carried out by this firm was the construction of the famous Colombo harbor. Their biggest undertaking, however, was Portland harbor, which locks in the largest area of deep water of any British artificial harbor. It took twenty-three years to place the millions of tons of masonry and concrete into position. Still another great project recently completed by the firm was the construction of the gigantic national harbor at Dover, designed for the protection of British warships. For a number of years Sir William Matthews has been an advisor to the Admiralty on harbor works and kindred subjects.

That Cup of Coffee is just right

That is the way a certain man in Wichita Falls expressed his opinion of his coffee one morning last week. He said to his wife: "That coffee has just the right strength to make it really enjoyable and the flavor is just what I always imagined perfect coffee would be. What brand is it?" "Revere," replied his wife. "Oh, this is the coffee that Hardeman & Roberts talk so much about!" "Yes," replied the wife. "The kind they say is always the same!" "Yes," "Well, if it is always as good as this, you'd better use it all the time, as it is certainly the best coffee we have ever had, and a coffee, at that, too. There's surely no high price for high quality in THAT coffee. Better tell them to be sure and always send us Revere coffee from now on." "Revere will give YOU the same satisfaction every day, too. Better give us a standing order for it." Packed in 1, 2 and 3 lb. tin and retails at 40c, 75c and $1.10 each.

AT THE WICHITA THEATRE

"A Stubborn Cinderella."
"A Stubborn Cinderella," the quality play by the authors of "The Time, The Place and The Girl," will be the attraction at the Wichita Theatre on tomorrow night, March 9th. This time, however, the show is of an entirely different character from the plays these authors have given up in the past. Instead of depicting characters in the middle class, they have reached up a bit and brought interesting titled aristocracy from Scotland and well-to-do Americans. Slang expressions have been entirely eliminated from "A Stubborn Cinderella" and in their place correct English and handsome show girls and "brollers" in fetching costumes which they change often, add lustre to the scenes.

A most complete story is told in "A Stubborn Cinderella," while interspersed throughout the action of the piece are twenty decidedly clever song numbers, many of them being distinctive hits. Especially is this true of "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," being introduced in the last act in the descriptive ballet entitled "The Orange Fete," in which beautiful scenery and costumes make a brilliant picture.

Mr. Mort H. Slinger in producing "A Stubborn Cinderella" has provided a most capable company for the engagement here, with Mr. Harry Stone at its head. He is ably supported by a big company, with Miss Eva May Carey in the leading female role. Others in the cast are W. H. White, Lester Crawford, Lillian Goldsmith, Charles Haigh, Francis Pierlot, Claire Noellke and Josephine. A big chorus of show girls with good voices, pretty faces and wearing some dazzling costumes adds much towards making the show a success.

Quite a number of distinct song hits are sung, the best, perhaps, being "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," "What's the Use," "Don't Be Cross With Me," "If They Had Only Let Adam's Rib Alone," "Don't be Anybody's Moon But Mine," "I'm in Love With All the Girls I Know" and "Love Me Just Because."

DRUGGISTS' MEET.

War on Retail Drug Trust May Be Waged by Them.

New York, March 7.—The stockholders of the American Druggists' syndicate met here today to consider ways and means of fighting the new retail drug trust, which is trying to obtain control of the retail drug trade in the large cities of the East and of New England by establishing 'chains' of drug stores selling drugs and other articles usually found in a drug store at cut prices. The new trust, which is said to be headed by officers of the United Cigar Stores Company and backed by Standard Oil capital, is also branching out in the large western cities and the independent retailers in Chicago and other western cities are about to organize with a view of joining the Co-operative American Druggists' Syndicate in its fight against the trust.

The American Druggists' Syndicate is conducted by the retailers belonging to it themselves and manufactures special brands of goods for its members. One of the principal objects of today's meeting is the consideration of the proposition to increase the capital stock of the syndicate sufficiently to enable it to buy a controlling interest in the retail drug stores of the large cities throughout the country. The syndicate proposes to have its own wholesale agency in every city where it has members.

BASEBALL AFFAIRS.

Central League Meeting at Dayton Today.

Dayton, O., March 8.—With President Carson in the chair, the magnates of the Central League assembled here today to adopt a schedule and complete all other arrangements for what is generally expected to be the most successful season in the history of the organization. Statements made by the various club representatives indicated a general feeling of optimism all along the line. Harmony among officials and players, improved grounds and increased seating capacities, and teams more evenly balanced to all appearances than in former years are the factors that are believed to insure a highly profitable season and an interesting pennant race. According to the tentative schedule drawn up, the season will open with South Bend playing at Zanesville, Grand Rapids at Wheeling, Fort Wayne at Terre Haute, and Dayton at Evansville.

ANNUAL MEETING TODAY.

Fight to Control Company is on in New York.

New York, March 8.—Financial circles are awaiting with considerable interest the results of the annual meeting of the Pittsburg Coal Company in session in Jersey City today. For nearly a year a fierce fight has been waged for the control of the great corporation. A strong syndicate was organized by Pittsburg and New York financiers with the object of buying control of the company. Within a few months the syndicate threw no less than ten million dollars into the enterprise. When the officers of the company became aware of the plans of the syndicate they entered the battle with all the business ability they could command. The officers promptly declared a dividend 1 1/2 per cent, which has since been paid. This effectively stopped the buying of stock for control and it is believed that the annual meeting will result in a victory for the officers of the company and the final rout of the syndicate.

HERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Heinze's Euchred Sweet Pickles---These are made from a very ancient English receipt and are much superior to any sweet pickle on the market---very appetizing and healthful.

Our line of condiments, pickles, relishes, sauces and so-forth is varied and complete---We confine ourselves to no one line but pick the Very Best from the World's Supplies. The largest cities fail to show a more complete and varied line than we carry.
