VOLUME 3 WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, MONDAY, APRIL 18, 1910 NUMBER 290

TO ACT ON PAVING MATTERS TONIGHT

QUESTION WILL BE UP BEFORE THE CITY COUNCIL FOR ACTION.

OUTLOOK IS EXCELLENT

With Few Scattering Exceptions All Property Owners Have Signed Petition.

The question of paving Tenth street will be up before the city council at its meeting tonight and largely upon its action depends the success of the movement. Ninety per cent of the property owners between Indiana avenue and Brook street on Tenth street have signed up for their respective shares and as soon as the city agrees to pave the crossings the work can be started. Some idea of the attitude of the property owners can be gleaned from the fact that a petition in opposition to paving was circulated Saturday and received only two or three signatures.

At this morning's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors a committee consisting of T. R. T. Orth, Frank Kell and R. E. Huff was appointed to appear before the council tonight and urge the aldermen to take favorable action on the property owners petition. The city administration, it is understood, favors the movement, but is unable to see where the money to pave the crossings is coming from and this question may hold the proposition up. It seems that the city treasury is none too prosperous at present, but it is planned to raise the money if possible so that the work can go ahead.

Some property owners on both 8th and 9th streets have been agitating the question of adopting the same plan in paving those streets and it is possible that petitions will be circulated among the residents on those thoroughfares. It is probable, however, that the paving of these streets will not be actively taken up until it is seen how Tenth street fares.

Since the Tenth street proposition was first brought up, the suggestion has been made that the pavements be extended beyond Brook street, to the extreme western limits of the city, making a paved boulevard all the way. Property owners west of Brook street have signified their willingness to do their part and the plan appears to be a very feasible one.

COTTON RATE HEARING IS UP TODAY BEFORE RAILROAD COMMISSION

Texas News Service Special. Austin, April 18.—The State Rail Road Commission this afternoon began its hearing on the proposed reduction of the rates on cotton shipments.

Hatton W. Summers of Dallas, representing the Farmers' Union, argued in favor of the reduction, while the railroad attorneys opposed the reduction. Summers will also have the last argument. Because the roads threatened to raise the interstate rates there was some discussion among the farmers recently over the proposed reduction.

DOUSTER CASES UP.

Nine Packing Companies May Be Tried From Missouri.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, April 18.—The taking of testimony in the duster proceedings against the nine packing companies by Attorney General Major of Missouri, was resumed here today before Special Commissioner Dillon. Fifteen witnesses are to be subpoenaed for the hearing. Among the number is Edward Tilden, said to be the president of both the National Packing Company and the St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision Company, and Edward and Ira Morris of the Nelson Packing Company of Chicago.

ROUGH RIDERS CALLED.

They Will Greet Roosevelt on Return From Africa.

Texas News Service Special. Oklahoma City, Okla., April 18.—G. E. Hunter, president of the Roosevelt Rough Rider Association, today issued a call for the fifth reunion of the organization in New York City on June 16th to 20th. The announcement says the reunion is for the purpose of "Giving our colonel a real Rough Rider reception." Nearly a thousand members will attend when Roosevelt returns to the United States on the 16th of June.

ORGANIZATION OF BAND WILL SOON BE FINISHED; REHEARSING NIGHTLY

The organization of a band for Wichita Falls is being rapidly perfected and there are now about thirty young men enlisted in the movement. They are holding nightly rehearsals and will soon be in shape to give the public the benefit of their practice. This movement started only ten days ago, but there are already a sufficient number of good musicians associated with it to assure its success. Every instrument desired is represented and all of the members have had more or less experience in bands before.

B. P. Boyer of Gainesville arrived to assume the leadership of the band. Mr. Boyer has been leader of the Gainesville band for a number of years but the poor support given him in a financial way at Gainesville led him to come to this city where the outlook is better. The band is fast getting into shape and will be prepared, probably to give open air concerts this summer. Its officers are Joe Seitz, president and Jesse Smith, secretary.

A number of negroes who were caught gaming, were fined in the city court this morning, each entering a plea of guilty.

In the evening the rival candidates for district judge, P. S. Martin and Judge Arnold, will speak to the crowd. DELIBERATE WRECK RESULTS FATALLY

THREE ARE KILLED AND SEVERAL INJURED WHEN TRAIN LEAVES TRACK.

RAILS WERE LOOSENED

Mail Clerks Burned to Death When Car Caught Fire—Investigation Under Way.

By Associated Press. Memphis, Tenn., April 18.—What seems to have been a deliberately planned wreck on the Illinois Central early this morning has resulted in the death of three mail clerks and the injury to a number of others. The wreck occurred near Jackson, Mississippi, where the engine suddenly left the track, carrying the mail car, library car and two Pullman sleepers with it. The mail car caught fire and was burned, with its occupants, before help could be summoned. No passengers were injured. Superintendent Hill and the other division officials who have been making an investigation, are convinced that the wreck was deliberately planned, by the removal of fish plates. Bolts and nuts were found scattered along the track at the scene of the wreck, all having been recently unsecured.

The dead: MAIL CLERK W. R. LOTT of Memphis.

MAIL CLERK JOSEPH TRELOR of Memphis.

MAIL CLERK WOODS (negro), of New Orleans.

The injured: Mail Clerk V. Howze of Memphis.

Mail Clerk E. D. Palmer of Memphis.

Engineer McKeer.

Fireman Eames.

Baggage-master Farrell.

The bodies of Mail Clerks Lott, Trelor and Woods were recovered.

Texas News Service Special. Electra, Tex., April 18.—The work of excavating for the two new brick buildings to be erected on Cleveland avenue by A. N. Richardson and D. T. Cross is progressing rapidly and the work will be pushed as fast as possible. The building will be twenty-five by seventy feet each, and when completed will add greatly to the appearance of that avenue. It is rumored that the Rice Mercantile Company will this week begin the erection of a store building on their lot on Wagoner street.

The road gang is at work grading the streets of the city and putting in culverts, which is a much needed improvement.

The Texas Company will begin drilling on their well No. 4 today. This well is 600 feet north of their well No. 1 and will be drilled with a rotary rig, this being the first rotary rig to be put to work in this field.

Work on Bywater well No. 1 will begin as soon as they can get the boiler set, which will be in a day or two.

HAVE ANOTHER TILT.

Henry and Cannon Clash on Question of Quorum.

Texas News Service Special. Washington, D. C., April 18.—Representative Henry of Texas and Speaker Cannon had another round today over the discussion of a quorum. This is the third tilt over this subject. Henry demanded that the speaker ascertain whether a quorum was present before reading the journal, according to the rule, but Cannon declared Henry could raise no question until after the reading of the journal. The Texas offered a resolution protesting against Cannon's action, but by a vote of 120 to 52 the house declared Henry's resolution was not privileged.

Tulsa, Okla., April 18.—The panel from which the jury is to be selected to hear the cases against Governor Haskell and five other Oklahomans, charged with conspiracy against the government in the Muskogee town lot cases, was reported to Federal Judge Pollock here today. Maskell's case is set for May 2.

TAKE ACTION FOR THOROUGH CENSUS

W. F. JOURDAN IS EMPLOYED TO SEE THAT ENUMERATION IS COMPLETE.

SHOW FULL POPULATION

He Will Work in Harmony and Co-operation With Government Enumerators.

With a view to taking a census that will show, accurately and completely, the city's population, the Chamber of Commerce this morning employed W. F. Jourdan of this city, to take charge of the work and act in conjunction with the enumerators in seeing that every single inhabitant of this city is properly enumerated.

This action was taken at this morning's meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and it is believed will have the result of showing the city's population at its true figure. Prof. Jourdan has lived in this city for many years and is probably better acquainted than any other one man. He will work in harmony and co-operation with the government enumerators and will assist them in getting the desired information from persons who are hard to reach.

The citizens, and especially the ladies, can help a great deal in getting up a perfect census by giving desired answers promptly and by securing the needed data of the other members of their households. The enumerators frequently find no one at home at houses visited and it might be well for citizens to get in touch with the enumerator for their section.

There is little doubt that Wichita Falls has ten thousand population and to the average visitor she appears to have more. This, however, is an idle claim to make, unless it is backed up by government figures and a little carelessness or neglect would cut down the totals very considerably. With the co-operation and aid of every inhabitant, Wichita Falls can secure what she is entitled to. Prof. Jourdan will devote his full time to the work and promises to show twenty thousand population if he can find the people to enumerate.

BANKERS UNDER FIRE.

Texas News Service Special. Granbury, April 18.—The case of S. E. Gaines, representative from Hood county, charged with the murder of J. W. Reese during the campaign of 1908, was called in the district court here today. This is the second trial, Gaines having been convicted and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on his first trial, but the Texas supreme court recently reversed and remanded the case. The selection of the jury commenced at ten o'clock. One hundred and fifty witnesses are present and it is expected the jury will be completed and the examination of witnesses commence late this afternoon.

RAILROAD MEETING HELD AT WOLTERS

CONFERENCE IS BEING HELD TODAY AND WICHITANS ARE IN AGREEMENT

WILL MAKE AGREEMENT

Wolters is Ready to Put Proposition Through North of Red River. Large Meeting Held.

A delegation representing the Wichita Falls and Northeastern is in Wolters Oklahoma, this afternoon in conference with the citizens of that city regarding the construction of the line. The Wichita Falls delegation left this city this morning in automobiles and arrived at their destination early this afternoon.

At a conference held several days ago between the local committee and the Wolters promoters, it was learned that everything was in shape for the construction of the line from Wolters to the middle of Red River and work is being started today at Wolters on the first ten miles of track laying.

The occasion is a memorable one in Wolters today and all the stores and schools are closed in honor of the affair. It is hoped, at the meeting which is being held, to reach some definite agreement regarding the construction of the road from Wichita Falls to the Red River and the meeting is being held largely for that purpose. The question of bridging Red River is the most serious one that confronts the promoters, but they hope to be able to eliminate this difficulty and start work on the bridge itself before the road project is begun.

The Wolters promoters have made excellent progress with their part of the work and are now understood to be in a position to build the line from the Red River all the way to Oklahoma City, leaving the construction south of the Red River up to Wichita Falls and the intermediate points.

The Wichita Falls delegation consists of J. B. Marlow, J. C. Tandy, C. W. Bean, J. A. Morris, N. Morris and Ed Howard. They will return to Wichita Falls tonight.

MUCH POLITICAL ACTIVITY.

Interest in Congressional Election is at High Pitch.

Rochester, N. Y., April 18.—All records for political activity in this section went by the board today in the wind-up of the campaign in the Thirty-second congressional district. Tomorrow the voters will decide whether George W. Aldridge, republican, or James S. Havens, democrat, shall be the successor of the late James B. Perkins in the national house of representatives.

This will be the third election of a member of congress since the passage of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, and unusual interest attaches to the result of the contest. In February the democrats had a larger majority than usual in electing a candidate to succeed the late D. A. DeArmond in the sixth Missouri district, and last month, for the first time, they carried the Fourteenth Massachusetts district, electing Eugene N. Foss as successor to the late William C. Lovering. Should they be successful in tomorrow's election in this district the democrats throughout the country will naturally feel much encouraged in their hopes to gain control of the next congress.

Mr. Aldridge, the republican nominee, is a former superintendent of public work and state railroad commissioner, and for twenty years has been the leader of the republican party in Monroe county. He is a native of Rochester and has been a life-long resident of this city. In his contest for the republican nomination his opponents endeavored to use against him the fact that he received $1,000 from the fire insurance companies doing business in this state, following the passage of a bill in which the fire companies were interested. Mr. Aldridge admitted taking the money and declared that his action was proper. He stated that the check was not a personal gift, but was used for the benefit of the republican party in Monroe county. The charges evidently carried little weight with the convention, for Mr. Aldridge was given the unanimous nomination and his friends believe that his personal popularity will win the election tomorrow.

Mr. Havens, the democratic nominee, was opposed for the nomination on the ground that he had not been a hard and fast party voter. He bolted Bryan in 1896 and openly supported Hughes against Hearst in 1906. In the Hill-Cleveland clash he stood valiantly by Cleveland and came often to the front in that cause. He attended as a delegate the national convention that placed Judge Alton B. Usker in nomination for the presidency.

To win the election tomorrow, Mr. Havens must overcome a normal republican plurality of imposing size. Representatives Perkins carried the district in 1906 by a majority of nearly 4,000, which is assumed to be normal for the republicans in a congressional contest, though in the presidential campaign in 1908 Mr. Perkins had over 10,000 plurality and 7,200 majority. In seeking to overcome that lead the democrats are counting not only on the insurance disclosures, but also on the influences that are believed to be content with the tariff, the outcry against the republicans, such as discontent with the tariff, the outcry against the high cost of living and the widespread feeling shown in recent town elections throughout New York, that a political change is due.

Reports from the mountains of Kentucky are to the effect that Caleb Powers is waging a picturesque fight for the nomination on the republican ticket for a seat in congress from the Eleventh district, now represented by Don C. Edwards. It is said that he has a fair chance to win. Powers was once sentenced to hang and twice sentenced to life imprisonment for alleged complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel. He was pardoned in 1908 by Gov. Wilson.

This small comfort is handed out by the New York Journal of Commerce to the fellow who has to buy meat and bread: "A decline in the price of pork of $2 per barrel within the last ten days or two weeks, a loss of 1 cent a pound in lard, $2 a hundred pounds in hogs, 6 cents a bushel in wheat and 10 cents in corn, and a demoralized flour market are pointed to by observers of current conditions as an undoubted forerunner of an era of cheaper food prices."

Before final adjournment the 16th the Mississippi legislature adopted a resolution calling upon the democratic state central committee to order a primary election in that state, accepting the challenge of Senator Percy to submit the question of selecting a senator to the people. Yardaman has agreed to the suggestion and it is expected that the whole matter will be threshed out again. The state would have fared better if Gen. Gordon had been permitted to remain in the Senate.

The ladies have apologized for hissing the president during his speech before the woman's suffrage association and everything is lovely again. The president rebuked the hissing women by saying: "Now, my dear ladies, you must show yourselves capable of suffrage by exercising that restraint necessary in conducting government affairs by not hissing."

"WHAT THE CHILDREN NEED."

Education in the Sense and Spirit of Self-control.

What the children need—for out of them are made the men and women of the future—is education from the start in the sense and spirit of self-control. Children should not, of course, be too much overruled or suppressed, for in a large degree their activities are normal, or their actions are indifferent from a moral point of view. The child mind cannot any more than its body be too much compressed and confined. Too many rules undo the work of all moral ruling. But while this is so the child should be taught to confine its conduct to a few leading principles of action, and be made to feel the strong, steady pressure of authority. It should never be allowed to let itself go and do exactly as it pleases. The serious fault of much of the modern psychology is that it makes overmuch of the "natural" development of the child, not knowing that as a garden "naturally" contains the seeds both of flowers and weeds, so out of the soil of the child will tend to grow to good and evil products, of which the one must be cultivated and the other suppressed. Character while it is developed largely by control.

As a matter of fact especially among the very rich and the very poor, many children grow up wild, wayward and self-pleasing, unamenable to law, careless of social duties, insistent on social rights (so far as they can be made to serve the selfish purposes of the subjects under discussion) and providing fit material finally for either prisons of insane asylums. While the asylums are caring for a small minority of the insane the wicked conditions that prevail in many modern quarters are making lunatics and quasi-criminals by the wholesale. Back of all this abnormality sin and crime is a lack of religious control of character from the outset and from the inside. Without moral training, which is essentially control and discipline, human nature grows like a rank and ugly weed. Let this fact be driven home on the minds and consciences of all parents, by all parents, by all moral teachers. If "obey" is the inexorable law of savage nature it is also the principle of grace. Without subjection of part to part, and of lower to higher, all society is in a chaos and civilization becomes impossible.—New York Observer.

PREMATURE BURIAL.

Statistics That Prove Such Happenings to Be Practically Unknown.

It is possible that an examination of the probability of premature burial, in the light of certain facts, may be of consolation to the less prejudiced of those who dread its occurrence. In all the thousands of post mortem examinations which have been performed throughout the civilized world during the last fifty years has there been a single instance of the supposed body under examination showing signs of life such as would infallibly appear at the dissection of a living subject? We venture to say that if this had occurred the world would have heard of it. We would point out, moreover, that the bodies upon which post-mortem examinations are performed are in no sense selected, but include those of persons of both sexes and of all ages who have died from all sorts of natural and violent deaths, and, at widely varying intervals of time before the aetio cadaveris.

In our minds this consideration at once disposes of the assumption that premature burial is of any frequent occurrence, and limits discussion to those unusual cases in which, either because of a trance condition having existed before the supposed time of death, or from the delay of rigor mortis, or from the temporary persistence of the body temperature of life, there are reasonable doubts of the fact of death. But, surely, these are just the cases in which expert opinion will always be sought, and in which burial will naturally be delayed until the onset of the incontrovertible sign of putrefaction.

Evidence more conclusive than that of opinion is forthcoming, for our Vienna correspondent describes the elaborate system of death certification which has been enforced in Austria during the last fifty years, which provides that every body before burial must be seen at least twice within forty-eight hours after death by two independent medical men and by one of them again immediately before the closing of the coffin. In no single instance has the fact of death been controverted during these repeated examinations, and to make assurances doubly sure in Vienna those persons who desire it can have the unconfined bodies of their dead friends kept under observation in special mortuary halls for as long as eight days before burial, but of the many thousands of bodies which have been laid out in this manner, not one has ever risen from its probatory bier.—London Lancet.

Texas, $5,000,000; Tennessee, $3,025,000; Georgia, $2,125,000; Oklahoma, $1,750,000; North Carolina, $1,650,000; Florida, $1,600,000; Virginia, $2,000,000; Alabama, $850,000; Mississippi, $325,000; West Virginia, $180,000, and Louisiana, $300,000, the total for these states being over seventeen million dollars, a decided advance over previous periods.

FIRST FOREIGN REQUISITION.

Governor Haskell Issues Papers for Return of Prisoners in Canada.

Guthrie, Okla., April 18.—The first foreign requisition since the statehood was issued today by Governor Haskell on the governor general of Canada for the return of Mrs. Lorena Matthews, a white woman, and James Chapman, a negro, on the charge of murdering Laurence Matthews, the woman's husband near Stillwater, Dec. 5, 1908. They are under arrest at Edmonton, Alberta.

Sheriff W. A. Fox of Payne county left today with requisition papers and will have to travel nearly twice across the continent to serve them. It will be necessary for him to go to Montreal to have the requisition honored and then back to Edmonton to get his prisoners.

The National Drink

The United States is the greatest coffee drinking nation in the world. According to statistics, the consumption of coffee in this country for the year 1909, was one billions pounds, an average of one dollar's worth for each inhabitant.

But of all the coffees sold, none compare with the CHASE & SANBORN Line in quality, flavor and uniformity. These coffees are the product of years of experience in growing, blending and roasting. They have a "body" that satisfies. CHASE & SANBORN'S Coffees are the only coffees good enough for Americans.

We handle these coffees in several grades, at 20c, 25c, 33 1-3c per pound, and

STATE POLITICS.

The gubernatorial situation is practically the same; if any change, Poindexter is gaining and is in the lead.—Wellington Leader.

Colquitt evidently thinks that if he can line up the anti vote for himself and keep the other vote divided, he will be elected governor. Colquitt is a shrewd and far-seeing politician.—Brownwood Bulletin.

The "trouble" has been transferred from the inside to the outside of the Anti-Saloon League. The "slow-fire" burners, being amateur engineers and amateur stokers, permitted the fire to go out.—Dallas Times-Herald.

Cone Johnson refuses to assist Poindexter and Colquitt in lambasting Davidson. Wonder why? Is there method in this quiet and gentle treatment of Davidson or is there a fellow feeling that makes them wondrous kind?—Ablene News.

Cone Johnson has bolted so many platforms that we doubt whether he could be tried on one or not, and a pleasant trip up Salt River won't be any new thing to Judge Poindexter.—Rising Star X-Ray.

Gubernatorial candidates should not worry too much as to which one Senator Bailey really favors for governor. The voters of Texas will decide this matter and on issues quite apart from the junior senator.—San Angelo Sun.

Judge Poindexter has doubtless wished many a time that he had not at the first told his hearers to vote for Johnson if they could not vote for himself. That's the Banquo's ghost that will not down at his bidding. It would be interesting to know by what process of ratiocination Judge Poindexter had come to reverse himself so completely.—Belton Journal-Reporter.

Without heeding his position upon the Bailey and prohibition questions, the candidacy of Colquitt for governor should appeal to the citizen who desires to see Texas have a good, clean, business administration, free from the hysteria of the demagogue. The Tribune believes that Colquitt will be elected, and it further believes that Texas will enjoy an era of development under his administration such as she has not experienced in many years. His record, both public and private, is such as to cause the people to have confidence in his honesty and ability to achieve just such a purpose.—Teague Tribune.

The Fort Worth Record had generally been classed as a Colquitt paper, and one that was in such close alliance with Joe Bailey that it dare not express an opinion nor take any stand on any question contrary to that of the junior senator. Some of these assumptions must be false, according to recent developments. Bailey comes out in open support of Poindexter for governor, but the Record has not yet announced its favorite. If the Record does support Colquitt then these wise guy politicians have gone wrong in declaring that this paper gets all its political inspiration from Bailey. Should the Record support Poindexter (as does Bailey), the wise guy still will be guilty of false prophecy. No matter which turn matters take, very many of the Bailey haters will find their political judgments reversed. But will they admit it? Never!—Childress Post.

Homesteaders Seek Montana Lands.
Great Falls, Mont., April 18.—The opening today of 700,000 acres of land in Chouteau county, the largest county in the United States, saw hundreds of persons assembled in this city in readiness to select and occupy their lands. No official entry or filing is to be made until next month, but the government land office decided that the selection and occupation of home steads might begin today.
The great tract opened to settlement is well developed and the avenues of communication are of a high order, a great part of the land lying along the Great Northern Railway line. The soil is similar to that of the major portion of northern Montana. The land is mostly tributary to the Marias River, and at frequent intervals are small streams and creeks.

"THE SENATE SNUFF BOXES."

Relics of Days of Webster and Calhoun to be Replaced by New Ones.
Washington—They put two new snuff boxes in the Senate chamber Wednesday. The memory of the oldest capitol employe does not go back to the time when the old snuff boxes were put in place. It is believed they were purchased soon after the British burned the capitol, and were taken from the old Senate chamber, now used by the Supreme Court, to the present chamber when the north wing was constructed.

In the early days these boxes were very popular and it was necessary to replenish their contents almost daily. Finally the covers became loose and were lost. In recent years few Senators have patronized the snuff boxes, although occasionally in a spirit of fun Senator Carter and one or two others have invited their colleagues to join them in a "little pinch."

For some time Colonel Ransdell, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, has been trying to purchase new boxes. He wanted something antique that bore a resemblance to the old boxes. Failing to get what he desired, he instructed Charles N. Richards, keeper of the stationery, room and the oldest Senate employe, to see what he could do. Mr. Richards found two small alquered boxes about an inch deep and three of four inches long, which were acceptable to Colonel Ransdell. They were filled with snuff and put in place near the exits of the marble room.

As long as Colonel Ransdell holds his place as sergeant-at-arms snuff will be available for any Senator who desires it. Colonel Ransdell is a stickler for all the Senate traditions. He never discards a Senate desk or chair as long as it can be mended. One of the historic Senate desks is that now used by Senator Owen. At this desk Jefferson Davis wrote his letters when he was a Senator from Mississippi.

At the close of the Civil War a party of Union soldiers visited the capitol and gained access to the Senate floor. One of them jabbed a great hole in the Davis desk with his bayonet. This hole was patched and the desk repolished. The patched portion of the desk is still an object of interest to visitors who are fortunate enough to be admitted to the floor of the Senate.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

All in All.
"There are many in the church and more outside of the church, who regard the doctrine of the Holy Ghost as little else than a speculative dogma of theology or a pretty conceit of the mystics," said the late Dr. John Watson (Jan MacLaren). "What it really means is the spiritual presence of God throughout all matter, all thought, all life, and especially in the souls of men. With this presence the conception of God is crowned and completed."

SCRIPTURE.

Mark 8:34-38.
And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me.
For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.
For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?
Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

ATHLETIC RACE MEET.

Canadians Are After the Boston Marathon.
Boston, Mass., April 18.—Canada is to make a great effort to carry off first honors in the annual Marathon race of the Boston Athletic Association tomorrow, a number of the best runners from across the border having entered for the contest. Included among them are John Roe of Toronto, Charles Cook of Hamilton, Fred Cameron of Amherst, N. S., and Gordon Wolf of Dartmouth, N. S.
The race, as usual, will be held over the famous 25-mile course from the little village of Ashland into the B. A. A. club house in this city. With over 150 entries, there is expected to be at least 100 lined up for the start. Ever since the first B. A. A. Marathon nearly twenty years ago, the event has grown steadily in importance until it has assumed not only a national greatness, but an international one, as well.

War Veterans Gather in Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., April 18.—Oakland has donned patriotic attire in honor of the Grand Army veterans of California and Nevada, whose annual department encampment will be opened here tomorrow to continue through the greater part of the week. Arriving trains today brought the advance guard of the visitors and it is estimated that by tomorrow morning the crowd will be one of the largest ever entertained in this city. In addition to the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and other affiliated organizations, will hold their annual sessions.

Health Associations Affiliate.

Sacramento, Cal., April 18.—The proposition of merging the several public health associations of the state into a general organization to be known as the Affiliated Public Health Association of California, was discussed at a meeting here today of representatives of the various associations. Greater efficiency of work is the aim sought by the consolidation.

TAFT WELCOMES D. A. R.

Over Thousand Delegates and Alternates in Attendance.
Washington, D. C., April 18.—With an address of welcome by President Taft, the nineteenth Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution was opened this morning in Continental Memorial Hall. More than 1,000 delegates and alternates from all the states of the Union attended. Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president-general of the society, presided, and, in addition to President Taft, the notable speakers included Thomas Nelson Page, the well known author, and John Barrett, director of the International Bureau of American Republics.

The congress will be in session throughout this week and already bids fair to be marked by several warm contests, the principal one being over the office of president-general. Mrs. Scott is a candidate to succeed herself and will run on the "regular" ticket. Her chief opponent is Mrs. William Cummings-Story, the candidate of the "insurgent" faction. It is rumored that the contest may be made a three-cornered affair by the entry of Mrs. Donald McLean, who retired as head of the organization last year.

The "insurgents" are confident of victory this year. They have been gathering campaign material since the last election, and have secured the support of a number of the leading officials of the society, including Mrs. Mary B. Wilcox, the recording secretary-general, who recently denounced Mrs. Scott in an open letter to the heads of the various chapters throughout the country, for the latter's action in discharging one of the clerks of the national society.

Alleged Bandits on Trial.

Hackensack, N. J., April 18.—Two alleged bandits, Vincenzo Carmico and Santo Genaro, were placed on trial before Judge Demarest here today on the charge of having held up and robbed over forty men at one operation. The robbery, which occurred several weeks ago, was one of the most daring ever perpetrated in this section. The victims were Italian laborers employed on public works near Glen Rock. On the night of the robbery all of them were assembled in a little shack where they were engaged in merrymaking. The bandits called them to the door, one by one, and marched them into the woods. After all of them had been tied to trees and gagged the robbers relieved them of over $1,000 in cash and other valuables.

To Try Oregon Land Cases.

Portland, Ore., April 18.—The suits brought by the government against the C. A. Smith Timber Company of Minneapolis to recover title to Oregon timber lands are to be tried at the session of the federal court which met here today. The suits, which have been pending several years, involve approximately 8,000 acres of land, estimated to be worth $600,000. The basis of the government's contention is that the parties who sold the lands to the Minneapolis company did not have good titles.

"THIS IS MY 69th BIRTHDAY."

James F. Morrison.
James F. Morrison, builder of the world's first long-distance telephone, was born in St. Johns, N. E., April 18, 1841. In his youth he taught himself telegraphy and during the Civil War became an operator for the B. & O. railroad. While acting as manager of his telegraph office in Baltimore he applied himself diligently to the study of electricity. After reorganizing the fire alarm system in Baltimore and constructing the first long-distance telephone line, 210 miles, from Georgetown, D. C., to Cumberland, Md., Mr. Morrison became a pioneer in the electric lighting field. As such he built the first permanent lighting station in New York. In later years he amassed a large fortune in the promotion of telephone and electric lighting and power companies in many parts of the country.

New York, April 18.—To the long and steadily increasing list of playhouses in the metropolis two more are added with the opening tonight of the Nazimova Theatre in Thirty-ninth street and the City Theatre, in Fourteenth street. It is to be devoted to plays of the intimate type under the direction of the Shuberts. The City Theatre, on the other hand, is a large house with a seating capacity of nearly 2,500. Sullivan and Kraus are the owners and Klaw and Erlanger the booking agents. In a general way, the policy of the house will be the present Broadway attractions at popular prices.

READS DIME NOVELS.

Oklahoma Governor Finds Surcease From Care in Lurid Stories.

Muskogee, Okla., April 18.—When Governor Haskell wants to get his mind completely off vexatious affairs of state, he reads dime novels and finds that it does the work. He came over to Muskogee to rest and get away from official duties for a few days. While here he added to his library a few copies of Nick Carter and Dead-Eye Dick. When a newspaper man found him in his private office reading Nick Carter he did not stop reading, either. He just kept on until he had finished. "Fine reading," quoth the governor as he laid down the gaudy copy of Nick Carter.

Concrete Mixing Machine.
A concrete mixing machine, which is run by a gasoline engine, has been installed by I. H. Roberts, the cement and concrete contractor.

This machine, besides doing the work more thoroughly, does it much quicker than by hand, taking the place of seven or eight laborers.

Mr. Roberts has just finished putting in the cement floor of the Rigby automobile garage, 5,000 square feet in all, and the job was completed within ten hours after it was started.

By the old way, it would have required at least three days to have completed that job.

Mr. Roberts now has his force at work putting in the floors in the Northwestern's building on Eighth street, where the machine is now at work.

His object in putting in this labor-saving machine was to be in a position to do the work thoroughly and more rapidly, and his enterprise in this respect will, no doubt, be appreciated by those who have concrete work to be done.
