CROPS IN CENTRAL AND EAST TEXAS BADLY DAMAGED BY TEMPERATURE.

MERCURY AT FREEZING

Cotton Is Damaged Beyond Reparation in Many Sections of this State.

Telegraphic reports received by the Times from various parts of the state indicate that crops in Central and East Texas have suffered very severely as a result of the cold weather of the past forty-eight hours. As outlined in the dispatches below, cotton is hopelessly damaged in many places, while fruit and vegetables of all kinds have been seriously blighted.

As far as can be learned, the damage was confined to the eastern and central parts of the state and Northwest Texas did not suffer. While the weather in this section has been decidedly chilly for April in the past few days, it lacked a great deal of being cold enough to do any material damage to any of the crops.

Texas News Service Special.
Fort Worth, Tex., April 25.—The cold wave which struck Texas last night extends to the gulf and includes all of East Texas, where much damage was done to fruit. The mercury at Fort Worth registered thirty-two degrees. Potatoes, beans and tomatoes suffered from frost, but cotton in this section escaped injury. Cotton is reported killed in various localities, especially in Central Texas. The loss by cold and frost in Texas will reach many thousand dollars, but not so heavy as that reported in other states.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., April 25.—Reports of severe damage have been received from practically all of the gulf states and the states farther north report conditions much worse. Texas is said to have suffered severely, Palestine reporting a temperature of thirty-four degrees. Ice has formed in many sections of Missouri and the Georgia crop is reported heavily damaged. All cotton up in many parts of the south is killed and the seed is rotting in the ground.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., April 25.—Reports today from many sections of Louisiana and Mississippi indicate that thousands of acres of cotton have been severely damaged by the cold of last night and the night before. Many cases of replanting are necessary. Truck and fruit farms suffered considerable injury.

Texas News Service Special.
Jacksonville, Tex., April 25.—Reports from all over Cherokee county say that the freeze last night caused damage amounting to thousands of dollars; that potatoes and tomatoes are ruined, but that the peach crop appears to be only slightly damaged.

By Associated Press.
Montgomery, Ala., April 25.—Snow and sleet are reported over the state with temperatures from thirty-nine to thirty-six above. All fruit, most vegetables and a large percentage of cotton are believed to be killed.

By Associated Press.
Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—For the first time in the history of Atlanta an April snow fell early today and continued for three hours.

ROOSEVELT IS GUEST OF HONOR AT BANQUET BY THE CITY OF PARIS

By Associated Press.
Paris, France, April 25.—Colonel Roosevelt was entertained at the Hotel Deville by the municipality of Paris today. At luncheon two hundred covers were laid. Several speeches complimentary to the guest of honor were made and Roosevelt responded. An immense crowd acclaimed the former president as he entered and left the building.

morning damaged corn fifteen per cent in this section; tomatoes, forty per cent; cotton, fifty per cent; peaches, thirty per cent. Strawberries were not harmed. The mercury registered thirty-three degrees.

Texas News Service Special.
Shreveport, La., April 25.—The coldest April for twenty years was experienced here today, the mercury dropping to thirty-four degrees and a light frost slightly damaged cotton. Ice covered the ground in some places and it is feared this will kill the cotton recently planted.

Texas News Service Special.
Weatherford, Tex., April 25.—Ice formed in Parker county last night and the frost hurt cotton and potatoes and corn was killed in the low lands.

VETERANS GATHERING FOR ANNUAL REUNION; MOBILE IS EN FETE

By Associated Press.
Mobile, Ala., April 25.—The city is en fete for the reception of the Confederate Veterans, with the streets and public buildings gaily decorated with bunting and flags. Although the mercury dropped to thirty-nine above last night, the sun is shining today, but a veritable gale of wind is sweeping in from the gulf. The real opening of the reunion takes place tonight when the Sons have the first session. Trains are arriving every half hour and by night the city will be jammed to its gates with Old Veterans and their friends.

The Wichita band gave an impromptu concert this morning in front of the city hall and the young men performed in a very creditable manner, to the enjoyment of a large crowd.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OFFER IS SUBMITTED; IS VIEWED WITH FAVOR

A commercial college, one of this city's long-felt wants, will be established in Wichita Falls within the next few months provided the proper encouragement is extended the promoters of the enterprise. P. Henry of Dallas, a man of many years experience in business college work, is behind the movement. He wishes the business men of Wichita Falls to guarantee fifty pupils within thirty days after the school opens. This guarantee is to take the form of a scholarship and when the fifty pupils have been enrolled, each one taking out one of these scholarships will be reimbursed, so that in reality, none of the business men will be anything out of pocket. Each scholarship costs thirty-five dollars and a number have already been taken. Every citizen who is desirous of helping this proposition along is urged to see or phone either G. D. Anderson, T. J. Taylor or John C. Tandy and agree to take one scholarship. Wichita Falls has long felt the need of a school of this kind and it is felt that this opportunity to secure one should be taken advantage of. The initial investment here will represent an expenditure of probably two thousand dollars.

S. P. MERGER.

Date For Hearing Will Be Sometime in October.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., April 25.—The hearing of the government case for the dissolution of the merger of the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific Railroads will take place about October first. The selection of a definite date and place will be made by the judge of the eighth circuit court at St. Paul in May.

THE THIRD DEGREE.

Modern Inquisition Being Investigated By Senate.

By Associated Press.
Washington, April 25.—The Senate committee on Judiciary voted today to conduct an examination into what is known as the "Third Degree" methods of extorting confessions from persons charged with crime; also the practice of employing persons in disguise as jurors.

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON

WEEKLY MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS HELD TODAY.

FOR BUSINESS COLLEGE

Proposition Is Presented and Acted On Favorably—Other Questions Considered.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce disposed of several pending matters at their session this morning, the most important being the decision upon what course to pursue with regard to the proposed reorganization of the district association at its meeting here tomorrow as explained in another column.

P. Henry of Dallas presented a proposition for the establishment of a business college in this city. He was introduced by Rev. R. R. Hamlin. Mr. Henry's proposition is to locate his school here provided the Chamber of Commerce will guarantee the placing of fifty scholarships so as to insure a good start for the institution. The directors endorsed the offer and appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Taylor, Anderson and Tandy to see what could be accomplished along this line.

J. B. Marlow and Myles O'Reilly were appointed to represent the Chamber of Commerce at Sapulpa, Oklahoma, when the new brick plant is opened there this month. This plant was constructed by the same parties who propose to locate one here and it was felt that the Chamber of Commerce should accept the invitation extended it.

Representatives of the band were present and they stated that their organization had reached the point where it was able to make a definite request. The assistance of the Chamber of Commerce was pledged in the raising of $135 monthly which will be required. The Chamber of Commerce will also purchase the uniforms when the members are ready for them.

T. R. Orth was appointed to represent the Chamber of Commerce in the investigation of the paving material at El Paso. The directors then adjourned.

Governor Hughes Accepts.

WILL OPPOSE THE DENTON SCHEME

WICHITA FALLS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL NOT AGREE TO PROPOSITION.

INSURGENTS CAN'T VOTE

Only Six of the Clubs Will Have Any Voice in Action of the Association.

When the district association of commercial clubs meets in this city tomorrow, the plan to turn its affairs over to one man, on the magazine proposition as outlined in the Times on Saturday, will be met with determined opposition on the part of the Wichita Falls delegates. An effort will be made by the Wichitans to reorganize the association on the original plan—that is, of sufficient size and backing to advertise this section thoroughly and to place men in the homes of the field to bring people into this part of the state. Failing in this effort, the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce will withdraw its support from the organization and allow it to stand its way along the lines suggested by James T. Denton, if the other clubs so desire.

Quann and the other clubs in the "insurgent" movement are in the embarrassing position of being unable to vote, as they are several months behind with their dues. The only clubs in good standing are Matador, Paducah, Iowa Park, Newcastle, Devol, and Wichita Falls. All of these it is believed, can be counted upon to vote with Wichita Falls.

The morning session of the clubs will be devoted to this and such other matters of business as may come up for attention. Denton will probably be here with a large following from the towns who are with him in his scheme but very few, if any, of the towns are in good standing and consequently will not have any vote in the disposition of his proposition.

In the afternoon the visitors will be taken for a street car ride to Lake Wichita, followed by a motor boat ride on the lake.

Whatever the result of tomorrow's meeting may be, Wichita Falls need not worry. The expense of the district association to this city has been considerable and while the benefits have probably been in proportion, the other towns that are members have been receiving much greater benefits than the dues they paid entitled them to. Some of them have never paid more than one or two months' dues and yet their names appear on all the organization's literature and they get nearly as much benefit from the booklets as do the towns who have their dues paid in full.

It is possible that Denton may be able to organize a separate association among the clubs that gather here, but it is fairly safe to say that Wichita Falls will not be a party to it and that so far as the present organization is concerned, the local Chamber of Commerce will oppose the adoption of the Denton scheme.

MAY EXTEND TO WACO.

Sherman-Dallas Interurban May Build To South.

Texas News Service Special.
Waco, April 25.—John Haven, of Denison, a stockholder in the Texas Traction Company who is here today said that President Strickland of that company had decided to extend the line of the interurban to Waco. The road now runs from Denison to Dallas.

COLD WEATHER CAUSES ADVANCE IN PRICES OF THE NEW CROP COTTON

By Associated Press.

New York, April 25.—Reports of storm damage to the young cotton crop over a wide area in the south caused an advance of thirty points, or a dollar and a half a bale on most of the new crop months here today.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., April 25.—Freezing weather and snow in many sections of the south sent cotton up a dollar and seventy-five cents a bale on the opening in the local future market today. The new crop is reported killed in many places.

At noon the new crop months showed an advance of two dollars and a half a bale over the close of Saturday. The long staple seed sold as high as one hundred and fifty dollars a ton and ordinary varieties fifty to seventy-five dollars a ton.

COLQUITT'S EPITHET IS STRONGLY RESENTED BY KONE, IN STATEMENT

Texas News Service Special.

Austin, Tex., April 25.—Agricultural Commissioner Kone today declared the attack upon him by O. B. Colquitt at Rockwall was "unjustified and unpatriotic," and says he is willing to compare his record in the state's service with Colquitt's.

The latter is reported as referring to Kone as a "broken-down politician."

Y. M. C. A. WILL BE INCORPORATED

DIRECTORS DECIDE TO LEASE QUARTERS FROM THE METHODIST CHURCH.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Proposed Constitution of Organization Is Adopted by Directors At the Meeting.

At a meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon steps were taken to incorporate the organization and a charter will be taken out under the laws of the state. When this is done the management of the association's rooms will pass from the trustees of the First Methodist Church to the directors of the association. The constitution of the association, after being amended so as to make this possible, was adopted formally by the directors.

President Gibson announced the following committees:

Finance—J. W. Bradley, chairman; R. E. Huff, N. Henderson, Wiley Blair, Mark H. Moore.

Educational—Ed Howard, chairman; H. A. Fairchild, T. B. Greenwood, T. L. Toland, J. T. Roberts.

Social—Lamar D. Fain, chairman; F. Piner Avis, John Gould, A. F. Blue, C. V. Durland.

Membership—J. T. Gibson, chairman; E. D. Kelley, J. C. Mytinger, P. C. Maricle, L. A. Webster.

Religious Work—E. D. Kelley, chairman; W. J. Bullock, R. E. Carey, G. A. Smoot, J. J. Dolman.

Physical—William E. Huff, chairman; Frank Collier, W. F. Weeks, Harry Thornberry, C. R. Hines.

House—E. G. Cook, chairman; P. H. Pennington, B. J. Bean, L. D. Rhodes, G. E. Friberg.

Publicity—D. A. Jacobs, chairman; G. H. Trevathan, D. M. Perkins, W. C. Barriekman, C. C. Huff.

The house committee was instructed to take steps at once looking to the installing of the heating arrangements for the swimming pool and bath and to put in the other equipment needed before the arrival of the gymnastic apparatus. The finance committee was authorized to employ a collector to secure the outstanding dues.

The question of holding a public opening after the gymnastic apparatus has been installed was discussed, but no action was taken. It is probable, however, that the rooms will be formally thrown open to the members and the public with a function of some sort when the equipment has been installed.

BLANTON TRIAL BEGINS.

Fort Worth Police Captain Claims Self Defense.

Texas News Service Special.
Fort Worth, April 25.—The trial of Captain Tom Blanton, of the police department, charged with killing W. H. Britton here recently was commenced before District Judge Swayne this morning. Out of a venire of 150 men, two jurors were secured by noon. Blanton claims self-defense.

PIERCE DIDN'T ARRIVE.

New Oil Company So Far, Not Materialized.

Texas News Service Special.
Austin, Tex., April 25.—H. Clay Pierce, who was expected here today in regard to the formation of a new partnership in the Fordyce Oil Company, failed to arrive. It is reported that he will be here in a few days and is returning from a Mexican trip.

COLEMAN QUIET TODAY; NEGROES WERE CHASED FROM CITY YESTERDAY

Texas News Service Special.

Coleman, April 25.—The city is today quiet after yesterday's race riot in which a number were seriously but not fatally injured. About a dozen negroes were beaten and driven out of town by a mob of five hundred white men who became enraged when a negro nearly drove a carriage over a white boy. Until recently no negroes resided here and the whites resented their coming. The rioting did not cease until one o'clock this morning.

Stray Topics from Little Old New York

New York, April 23.—Every now and then Chinatown furnishes a little excitement for the police of New York.

The Chinese are a peculiar people. So far as their relations to the rest of the community are concerned, the Celestials are peaceful and law-abiding. If they have a secret grudge against the "Melicans" they content themselves by taking their spite out of the "Melicans" shirts, collars and cuffs. Within their own race, however, the Chinese are fierce partisans, ever ready for a feud between their Clans or Tong and murders are of comparatively frequent occurrence among them. Many American citizens do not quite understand why the police authorities of New York take so much trouble to suppress these periodical outbreaks of violence between the Tong. Why not let them fight it out without interference, so long as they choose their victims from among their own race? It is believed that, if given half a chance, the Chinese would exterminate themselves and thus settle the much disturbing Chinese question.

The French are credited with being responsible for the invention of the innocuous form of duelling but it was left to an American to invent an innocuous method of committing suicide. The inventor who, however, has not yet applied for a patent, is a prosperous contractor of Princeton, N. J. More than a week ago he was awarded a big contract, which made him so happy that he concluded to celebrate the event. He celebrated so thoroughly that he did not become sober for a week. Having concluded his celebration, he returned to his home. It is not particularly surprising that he met with a somewhat frigid reception by his better half. The contractor, being in that maudlin state of sentimental contrition characteristic of the "day after" the man retired to his room, muttering, "I guess no one wants me here any more."

A few moments later his son, who happened to be in the adjoining room, heard him say, as if speaking to some one else: "Charlie, I look you once more in the face. Now, I am going to shoot you in the heart." The boy hastened toward his father's room but before he reached the door he was terrified by the report of a gun. He rushed into the room, expecting to find his father dead on the floor. Instead, he saw him standing in front of the shattered mirror, his shotgun in his hand and a perplexed expression on his face. The man had aimed only too well at his reflection in the mirror and could not understand why he was not hurt.

No time was lost at the wedding ceremony the other day by which Miss Elizabeth Maria Hurry, daughter of Randolph Hurry, formerly of the law firm of Hurry & Gallup, became the wife of Mr. Lawrence Swift. It was a case of "rapid transit," as one of the hurriedly invited wedding guests called it. The friends of the bride and her life partner are wondering whether the couple will live up to their name in the raising of a family.

"Dame Fortune be a fickle wench" says an old song and experience confirms the correctness of that statement. There is another saying, that Providence gives luck to those to whom it has denied good sense; for the correctness of that belief also, experience daily furnishes ample proof. One of the most striking examples was furnished the other day by a salesman for a jewelry house who, by a strange coincidence, hails from Providence, R. I. That salesman, who seems to be a particular protegee of Dame Fortune, left his sample case, containing thousands of dollars worth of jewelry on the sidewalk in front of the Hoffman House on Broadway all afternoon, while he spent his time chatting with a friend in the cafe of the hotel. Toward evening a policeman, who had noticed the case several times in the course of the afternoon, picked it up and took it to the station. Several hours later the owner of the case remembered that he had left it unguarded in front of the hotel and when he found it was gone, he went to the police station to report his loss. After he had given a description of the case and its contents the property was returned to him and an investigation showed that it was perfectly intact.

It is a dangerous thing for a merchant in New York to make himself unpopular with the boys in his neighborhood. Boys, everywhere, are apt to get into all kinds of mischief and New York boys, particularly the kind that may be found in the wild and woolly districts of the lower East and West sides, are inclined to be reckless and vicious. A certain tailor of the "Masher" description, who had incurred the dislike of the gamins in his neighborhood, was showing a tailor-made gown to one of his customers, when a shower of over-ripe henfruit came through the open doorway and bespattered the tailor, his customer and the tailor-made gown with malodorous yellow. The outraged merchant rushed out and received another volley of hen fruit from the half dozen youngsters peered in front of his shop.

The tailor grabbed one of the boys and held on to him until a policeman came, while the other boys fled. The boy was fined $5, but that afforded but little satisfaction to the irate sartorial artist, whose loss is estimated at nearly $100.

It was a bitter pill for the aldermen of New York when they passed a resolution the other day, appropriating $275 to pay for the engraving of the resolutions presented by them to Dr. Frederick A. Cook on his return from Copenhagen. Alderman Dowling, the Tammany leader, who had introduced the resolutions calling for the honoring of Dr. Cook, defended his position. "If Cook bunked us," he said, "he also bunked the King of Denmark; so he didn't do anything great by gold-bricking us. I don't know whether he discovered the pole or not. It was said that he did and we passed a resolution to honor him. The cost to us of our experience is not to be compared with what it cost the king to pay for the luncheon he gave to Cook." A suggestion by some alderman to pass a resolution to recognize Peary as the discoverer of the North Pole was promptly suppressed.

For some time the citizens of Rockville Center, L. I., have been stewing with indignation because the postal authorities insisted upon spelling the name of their town "Rockville Centre." The other day the Rockville Centre Board of Trade passed a resolution, "To inform the United States Government how Rockville Centre is properly spelled and to request the United States Government to spell it that way. 'Now, Will the United States Government be good.'"

WORLD'S SMALLEST VILLAGE.

Built By Boys' School in Redhill, England—Houses of Wood and Iron. London—Fonsham is undoubtedly the smallest village in England. It is situated in an old sand pit in Surrey, one hundred feet or so above Redhill. Fonsham Church tower is about two feet high and the rest of the village is in proportion.

This extraordinary pigmy village is in the grounds of the Philanthropic Society's farm school at Redhill, and is the work of the boys there. They are building it as a hobby. The architect is Rev. Canon Vine, warden of the school. He drew the first plans and encourages the boys in their task.

Fonsham's solitary inhabitant, as far as a visitor could see, was a spider that lives in the postoffice. Until recently this same building had another occupant, a toad, but he has moved to other quarters.

The village consists of a church, a postoffice, force, carpenter's shop, a manor house, with stables and lodge, and a dozen or so villas and cottages. Each building is perfect and to a scale, built either of wood or iron.

But Fonsham's crowning glory is a ruin—an adequate model, to the scale of 1 to 40, of Fountains Abbey, built of plaster.

This village is up to date, too. It has a railway station, with platforms, and a commodious engine shed and station yard, and over the village forge is displayed the Twentieth Century sign: "Aeroplanes repaired here."

The village inn is suffering from depression; its sign has recently broken down.

A canal with a lock, working gates and lockkeeper's house, is quite one of the prettiest features of the place. But perhaps of all the buildings the church is the masterpiece. It is complete with pews, lectern and altar, and boast a peal of bells that chime out on the still Fonsham air on special occasions.

Well kept roads run through the village, and cottage gardens in the spring time are models of all that a cottage garden should be.

Each building, so a correspondent was told, is built on exactly the same principle that a full-sized house is built.

Each story has properly laid floors on joists, and most of the houses are well furnished. The manor house has a billiard room with a slate bedded table.

This model work is looked upon by the masters of the school as an excellent practical exercise in the subjects taught in the various mechanical shops.

The boys are immensely keen on the work and take an infinite amount of pains to get every detail quite correct, and the excellence of their work is testified to by the splendid way in which the buildings stand the weather.

Next spring there is to be a thorough spring cleaning of these foot-high buildings; they will be painted and put into thorough repair, and further development is under consideration. Chicago Inter-Ocean.

It Doesn't Make Any Difference, One Must Spend.

It's enough to make anyone feel crestfallen to come up against a rope and a head waiter, and be told one can't get in. Getting the rope at Lobster Palace is much like "getting the hook" on amateur nights at music hall. It makes a person feel unutterably, cheap, and "cheap" is a word that gives Lobster Palace society the horrors. Spend money! That is the cry. Marry it, steal it, raise checks, mark cards, rob tills, or kill your poor old grandmother for the insurance; but get the money and, when you get it, spend!

Broadway's hysterical loathing of cheapness, and of feeling cheap, gives the restaurateur a whip hand. The head waiter suggests expensive dishes, and his victim buys them to show that he "has the price." To secure a well-placed table in a popular restaurant on a busy evening almost always involves the payment of a dollar or two of "honest graft" to the head waiter who reserves it for you. What a horrid, clear vision head waiters must have of human nature! How they must laugh together over the antics of the people that they serve! How excruciatingly funny they must find it to be tipped by men not nearly so well off financially—or even mentally and morally—as they themselves!

Penn Grant at Auction.

London, April 25.—The original draft of the famous grant of the Province of Pennsylvania to William Penn signed on March 4, 1681, was included in an interesting lot of American documents and letters offered for sale at Sotheby's today. The draft of the Penn grant is on 22 large folios, stitched together and confers the title of Captain General on Penn and the right to levy war against an armed foe. In addition to the Penn grant the letters offered for sale included many dealing with affairs in Boston, New York, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Virginia, Maryland and the Carolinas.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 25.—Fully 1,500 delegates and visitors are in the city attending the forty-sixth annual convention of the Indiana Sunday School Association, which held its first session this morning. The annual reports prepared for the convention by the various officers and committees show great gains in the number of Sabbath Schools and membership throughout Indiana. The convention will remain in session until Friday and will be addressed by Governor Marshall, Rev. F. B. Meyer of London, Bishop Hartzell of Africa, Marion Lawrence of Chicago, and others of note.

So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis Croup and Asthma.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below, whether you have catarrh or not:

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

The Weeks' Drug Co. has a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei) which is a vaporized air, so antiseptic, that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ infested membrane, it kills all germ life, gives relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.

The price including hard rubber inhaler, is only $1.00. The hard rubber pocket inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of Hyomei, you can get it for 50 cents.

THEY WANTED TO KNOW.

Two Curious Men and the Pullman Company.

"Probing the Pullman Company" is the title of an article contributed to the May American Magazine by Lynn Haines. The following is quoted, in part, from it:

"Two men—in Minneapolis—never bought a berth without wondering why it cost so much. Neither ever laddered his way to a loft in the limited without sensing the injustice that compelled the same price for an upper as for a lower. Neither ever tipped ajar the portals of Ethiopian courtesy without the feeling that the porter's portion, at least sufficient to insure a little alacrity and an occasional smile, should assume the shape of salary from his employer. After such considerations as these, instead of sleep, the economic phases of the situation would intrude far into the night. There were hours and weeks and years of this and then the story starts.

"George S. Loftus, complainant, and James Manahan, attorney, began an investigation of the Pullman monopoly before the Interstate Commerce Commission in August, 1907. In the beginning it applied only to the rates between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago. Later, the complaint was amended to include the sleeping car business of the entire country. The first hearing was held in St. Paul in November, 1907. After adjourned sessions of the commission, extending over nearly two years, the inquiry was concluded at Washington in June last year. The decision is still pending.

"Two vital facts, however, have been incontrovertibly established by this Loftus-Manahan investigation: (1) The Pullman Company has no competition to affect its prices and comparatively little rivalry in its field of operation, which includes a continent. (2) Prevailing prices for sleeping car accommodations are so profitable that they have yielded more than adequate dividends and also added, by surplus profits nearly one hundred millions to the business.

"The fight for the regulation of this monstrous public service corporation is now nicely started. It should result in a substantial reduction in rates. The Pullman Company has thus far been able to maintain its monopoly without much attention to government; if it is forced into a political alliance with the railroads, the corollary years to bring about equity in rate arrears to bring about equity in its relations with the public."

SOME HIGH LIVING!

Speaking of high living, how does this sound, from the journal of the U. S. Senate?

For apollinaris, lithia and white rock water from July 6 to December 31, 1909, $734.96; for Cloverdale water, from December 1 to December 29, 483.

And here is another item that might be interesting to the constituency of the various members of the upper branch of congress:

February 16, 1909—Taxicab service in taking senators home from night sessions, $4.50.

March 3, 1909—Taxicab service in taking senators home from night sessions, $25.

March 3, 1909—Taxicab service in taking senators home from afternoon session, $24.

March 3, 1909—For hire of three carriages for use in taking senators home from night session, $10 each, $30.

March 3, 1909—For hire of one carriage for use in taking senators home from night session, $5.

No wonder so many people would like to go to the senate.

Attention is called to the fact that in the nomination of Earl W. Hodges for secretary of state, the democracy of Arkansas produces the youngest man ever nominated for that position in the United States. Mr. Hodges is a bright young fellow, and in the recent state primary defeated a man of exceptional political strength in the person of Guy B. Tucker, a state officer and also a member of the national committee from Arkansas.

Unless the basis of representation is changed by the present congress, Texas will be entitled to several more congressmen after the present censusing is completed, and the question of redistricting the state will be an interesting problem before the next legislature. It is generally a hard problem to arrange the districts to suit the taste of all of the aspirants for seats in the lower house of congress.

Keep it in mind that in rendering assistance to the census enumerators you are also performing a service for the city of Wichita Falls. Every person in the city should be listed, and in securing this result every citizen can render a little help.

An enthusiastic friend of Theodore Roosevelt is urging that the ex-president become a candidate for a seat in the house from New York and then run for speaker.

IN FULL SWING.

With the opening speech of former Attorney General Davidson the campaign for the democratic nomination for governor of Texas is in full swing. And in Texas there is so much room to swing in.—Arkansas Gazette.

this morning and thousands of acres of cotton are believed to have been killed. Replanting will be necessary. Corn in the bottom lands was also killed. The thermometer registered thirty degrees this morning.

Texas News Service Special.
Hillsboro, Tex., April 25.—A heavy frost visited here last night, killing corn in the lowlands. Potatoes, tomatoes, beans and other garden truck is killed. The extent of the damage will not be known until tomorrow. A frost last April killed nearly thirty percent of the corn.

Texas News Service Special.
Denison, Tex., April 25.—Cotton and corn in the low lands were severely damaged by the frost of last night and fruit and vegetables also suffered. The mercury is at thirty-six degrees.

Texas News Service Special.
Galveston, Tex., April 25.—The temperature went down to forty-five degrees here this morning, breaking all records of the weather bureau for April weather.

Texas News Service Special.
Waco, Tex., April 25.—The thermometer is at the freezing point today and there is frost in the bottoms. Fruit and corn are damaged.

FIGHT WHITE PLAGUE.

Tuberculosis Sunday Observed by Pastors All Over Country.

New York, April 24.—Nearly all of the leading churches of the city, in common with those throughout the country joined today in making this tuberculosis Sunday. The movement has the support of President Taft, the governors of nine states and the mayors of hundreds of cities.

Rev. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity church, said every man and woman who calls himself or herself a Christian is pledged to service in the movement. He and all pastors emphasized the fact that tuberculosis is not only preventable, but is curable, and recommended plenty of fresh air and sunlight as the best physicians.

CIRCULARS DISTRIBUTED.

Washington Churches Give Active Support to Warfare on Disease.

Washington, April 24.—Pulpits of all denominations in Washington today united with those of every other large city in the nation in the fight on tuberculosis. Thousands of circulars telling of simple methods to prevent the spread of the plague were distributed and the locations of the free dispensaries of the city were widely advertised.

"THIS IS MY 13th BIRTHDAY."

Princess Victoria of Wales.
Princess Victoria Alexandra, the only daughter of the Prince and Princess of Wales, was born at Sandringham, April 25, 1897. Her name is Victoria (for her great-grandmother), Alexandra (for her grandmother), Alice (for a grandaunt) Mary, but she is known to all her friends and acquaintances as Princess Mary. She is receiving the same careful training that characterizes the education of all the members of the British royal family. Under her father's instructions she has become an expert fishwoman and has been taught to handle a gun. She is a great favorite of her mother, with whom she is often seen driving in the afternoon, and with her brothers, of whom she has five.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.
Chicago, Ill., April 25.—Many floral remembrances and congratulatory messages poured in upon Bishop and Mrs. Charles Edward Cheney at their home in Michigan avenue today on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. Bishop and Mrs. Cheney were married April 25, 1860, in old Trinity Church in this city. The wedding reception was held in a little frame house at State street and Jackson boulevard, now in the very heart of the retail business district. Chicago at that time had a population of but little over 100,000. Shortly after his marriage Dr. Cheney became pastor of Christ Episcopal church and still occupied the same pulpit. Since 1878 he has been bishop of the Reformed Episcopal synod of Chicago.

Resolutions of Thanks.

The following resolution was passed by the official board of the Free Methodist church at Wichita Falls, April 23, 1910:

Whereas, in the providence of God and the kindness of Bro. W. H. Huey for a lot and the kind friends of the city we have a place of worship in the city of Wichita Falls; therefore be it

Resolved, that this society and also the church at large extend to Bro. Huey our heartfelt thanks for the donation of a lot on which to build and to the citizens of Wichita Falls for their liberal donation in cash to build a house in which to worship. May God abundantly bless each and every one who assisted us in the prayer of this society.

She Wasn't Afraid. A crowd gathered on the street to watch a handsome fox terrier that was running about, nose in air. White froth was running from the mouth. "He's mad!" "He's a dog!" "That's a fat man!" "He's stood in the center of the crowd with wide open eyes. He was too mad or too frightened to wobble." At this juncture the policeman arrived. A dozen voices began to tell him that the dog was mad; that it must be killed; that it had been snapping at the children; that it began to froth when it passed a pool of water, and how best to shoot. A tall, quiet looking woman pushed through the crowd and started toward the dog. A dozen men yelled at her. Two or three men grabbed at her. She picked the dog up and started out of the crowd. The policeman stopped her with: "Madam, that dog is mad. He must be shot. Look at the foam coming out of his mouth." "Foam!" she said contemptuously. "That's a cream puff he was eating." —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Printing a Coin on Linen. The print of a silver coin or medal may be made on silk or linen by dipping the fabric in a solution of nitrate of silver and stretching it over the face of the coin until the image is imprinted. The linen is sensitized by dipping it into a solution of nitrate of silver, made by dissolving sixty or eighty grains of nitrate of silver in one ounce of water. Wet the portion of the cloth which is to receive the impression in the solution and when nearly dry draw it over the face of the coin and tie it at the back. Expose to a weak light, and in a few minutes the raised design of the coin will appear on the linen. As soon as the print is dark enough remove and wash in clear water. When nearly dry iron it smooth with a warm iron, placing a piece of tissue paper over the print. In printing from the coin or medal it is advisable to paste a piece of paper on the reverse side, so that the silver will not come in contact with the sensitized fabric.

Student of Shakespeare. The office boy sat in the corner busily engaged in reading a book. Strange to say, it was not "The Adventures of Banks Jim," "Daisy Dean, the Demon Detective," nor even a thrilling narrative of more or less correct life on the plains. He was reading Shakespeare. An expression of peace and joy was on his face that caused those who knew him to wonder if he had at last experienced a change of heart. His eyes sparkled, and his whole expression was one of happiness. Finally he turned to a worker at another desk. "Say, Jim," he said, "I've got a question for you. Did you ever read Shakespeare?" "Yep," was the reply. "And d'yer know what he talks about?" "Yep." "Den maybe you can help me." "What is it?" "Well, I want to know which was de man, Romeo or Juliet?"—Youth's Companion.

Losing His Mind. "Mother, guess you'd better send fer th' doctor," gasped Uncle Charlie Seaver as he sank into a chair and rocked back and forth, holding his gray head. "Eakes all! Ye haven't been and got the misery in yer head, have ye, Silas?" gasped his astonished wife, dropping a pie tin. "I dunno what's the matter, but I've alwus had a hunch my mind 'd go some time. It's cum, I guess. I noticed th' trouble fust last week when I plumb forget to go up an' swear off th' $100 assessment till it was too late. Then I neglected to go to th' school meetin' last night to fight agin the new commissioner. But, wuss and wuss, I didn't guess within eleven pound seven ounces of th' weight of Wal Weaver's big hog killed today. I guess my mind has gone all right. I'm about all in." —Puck.

Tuning Forks. The tuning fork was the invention of John Stone, royal trumpeter, in 1811. Though the pitch of forks varies slightly with changes of the temperature or by rust, they are the most accurate means of determining pitch. Tuning forks are capable of being made of any pitch within certain limits, but those commonly used are the notes A and C, giving the sounds represented by the second and third spaces in the treble staff.

An Incentive. "Won't you try to love me?" he sighed. "I have tried," she replied kindly, but firmly. "My rich aunt has just died," he went on. "In that case, dear, I will try again." —Puck.

A Blunt Answer. Mother (to her daughter)—You'd better accept Peter, my dear. He is a nice boy, though he may not be handsome. After all, good looks fade, don't they, papa? Father—Rather!—Fleegende Blatter.

The Ways of Men. Many a man who would be "unable to find the family Bible if he hunted all day would have no difficulty in putting his hand on the cork-screw, even in the dark."—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Empty Dream. Bobby—Say, sis, what's a "empty dream?" Doty—One you have who's you've been sent to bed without any supper. —Cleveland Leader.

THE UMPIRE AND HIS GAME. "He Made the Kickers Play Out the Last Inning." Speaking of the doings of the veteran umpires, an old timer claims that Honest John Kelly is entitled to the record for freak doings among the indicator handlers. Back in the American association days, in a game played on the old Union grounds in Allegheny, Galvin was pitching for Pittsburg against Casey of the Athletics. Kelly was the umpire. In the ninth inning, with the score 5 to 0 in favor of the Athletics, the first man up for Pittsburg made a home run hit to center, and the visiting team at once set up claim that it was too dark to play. The center fielder came all the way in and pretended that he could not see the ball in the gathering darkness. "Here," said Kelly; "give me a glove," and with that he started for center field. "I'll see how dark it is out there," he said. "You, Casey and Galvin, bat me out a few." Players and spectators gasped, but Kelly made good his bluff. He went out to deep center and, with the smoke of the mills lying low about him, actually caught ten or fifteen long line drives and high flies from the bats of the two pitchers without missing one. Then the umpire came in and, taking off his glove, said: "Play ball. If I can see 'em out there, you fellows can." The game was resumed, and the Pittsburgs won in a great batting rally by 6 to 5.—New York World.

WET AND DRY MOONS. Old Superstition and Cold Facts From the Astronomers. There is an old superstition which dies hard, and that is that the position of the horns of the new moon tells what the weather will be. If the horns of the crescent are on the same level it will hold water, and hence it is a dry moon, but if it is tipped up then the water will run out, and it is a wet moon. One thing has helped keep this belief alive. The moon is "dry" in the part of the spring that is usually fair, while it is "wet" during the season of autumn rains. If this were a sure sign of the weather we could have our predictions published many years in advance, for an astronomer can predict the exact position of the moon at any time in the future. The cause for the different positions of the crescent is simple. The moon is south of the sun in the autumn and north of it in spring. The crescent is found by the light of the sun falling on the moon, and the horns are naturally in a line perpendicular to the direction of the sun from the moon. That is all there is to this old superstition.—Boston Herald.

Confucius. Confucius regarded his own life as a failure. He spoke against ambition, yet he coveted high office, nothing less than that of political adviser to some great ruler. A man of the highest lineage in China, he was yet poor and early supported himself by teaching. His pupils showed him an extraordinary devotion. The pick of the young men in his native state of Lu sat at his feet, and it was they who transmitted his tremendous influence. But Confucius saw not his immortal success, but his temporal failure. Only for a few brief years did circumstances permit him to exercise his practical genius for government. He became first a magistrate, then chief criminal judge in Lu, and, to quote Professor Legge, "crime ceased." Confucius, however, became dissatisfied with the ruler whom he served, a weak man who neglected his duty and gave himself up more and more to dissipation, so he resigned his post and banished himself.—London Spectator.

Posthaste. He kicked off his wet boots, slid his tired feet into a pair of carpet slippers, lit his pipe, sat down in the easy chair with a sigh of relief and declared that twenty thousand wild horses couldn't make him stir from the house till morning. "Henry," remarked the lady with the knitting needles, "you posted that letter I gave you this morning, I suppose?" "I did, my love," he answered unblushingly. "I asked me to postpone her visit for awhile," his wife went on. You see?—Henry did see. His wife saw too. What she saw was the tired man jump from his chair, kick off his slippers, put on his boots and skip out into the street as if rain was the very thing he liked wading through. And when, five minutes later, Henry came back with a tale that he'd just been to see how the thermometer outside the postoffice stood she smiled.—London Scraps.

Not Guilty. It was 4 a. m. and Bilkins crept softly into the house and removed his shoes, but as he tiptoed up the stairs one of the treads gave a loud creak. "Is that you, John?" demanded Mrs. Bilkins from above. "No, my love," replied Bilkins. "It's the stairs."—Judge.

Short Stories. She—Short stories seem quite the thing just now. He—I should say so. Nearly every fellow I meet stops and tells me how short he is.—Boston Transcript.

The Chatterbox. "Miss Chatter is a sort of talking machine, isn't she?" "No, not a perfect machine. She ticks the 'ax-hust.'"—Baltimore American.

Carnegie Library Dedicated.
Washington, D. C., April 25.—Many friends of Howard University joined with President Taft and other distinguished men and educators this afternoon in dedicating the new Carnegie Library building which is designed to make the university the best equipped institution in the country for the education of the negro race. In addition to the address of President Taft the program of exercises included an introduction by President Thirkield of the university, a message of greeting from Andrew Carnegie, the donor of the library, and addresses by Dr. Frank W. Gunsalus of Chicago and Herbert Putnam, librarian of congress.

The new library is a handsome edifice of the colonial type of architecture, with massive pillars and broad steps at the entrance. The larger portion of the main floor is given over to the library proper, with the modern steel bookracks capable of shelving 60,000 volumes. The second floor contains rooms for the faculty and board of trustees and a special reading room for the 400 medical students of the university. The basement includes a library hall, with platform and chairs for 300 persons, a newspaper reading room and bindery.

Cold Storage Hearing Begun.
Washington, D. C., April 25.—The Senate Committee on Manufactures today began a series of hearings on Senator Lodge's bill prohibiting the cold storage for more than one year of foodstuffs which may pass into interstate commerce. Senator Heyburn of Idaho, the great champion of the pure food law, is chairman of the committee, and it is said to be his intention to summon all the experts necessary to make a thorough study of the cold storage system.

Heinze Case Up Again.
New York, April 25.—After numerous delays and postponements the case of F. Augustus Heinze, the "Montana Copper King," who is charged with over-certification and misapplication of the funds of the Mercantile National Bank, was on the docket in the United States Circuit Court today and the indications are that the trial will proceed without further delay.

The case against Heinze had its origin in the financial panic of 1907 and has been dragging through the courts ever since. The initial indictment against him was filed more than two years ago and the last one on March 3 of this year. In the meantime, there have been all sorts of arguments as the result of which some of the courts in the original indictments were dismissed. There now remains forty-seven different counts charging over-certification and misapplication of the funds of the Mercantile National Bank, of which Heinze was the controlling factor.

Centenary of Noted Naval Surgeon.
Lancaster, Pa., April 25.—One hundred years ago today there was born in this city Jonathan M. Foltz, who was one of the noted pioneers in the medical service of the United States navy. Dr. Foltz served conspicuously in the Mexican war and in the Civil War he was fleet surgeon to Admiral Farragut. He conceived and put into effect the quarantine measures which prevented a yellow fever epidemic at New Orleans, during the federal occupation of the city, while the fever was raging with great virulence in Pensacola, Galveston, Key West and other gulf ports. After the war President Grant appointed Dr. Foltz chief of the bureau of medicine and surgery and surgeon general of the navy with the rank of commodore. Dr. Foltz died in Philadelphia in 1877.

STATE POLITICS.

Polindexter is outcampaigning Johnson and Davidson and seems to have moved up to second place next to Colquitt in the race.—Corpus Christi Caller.

Dr. G. C. Rankin, the noted Texas prohibition leader, is outspoken for Hon. A. S. Hawkins for lieutenant governor, stating that all prohibitionists should support Mr. Hawkins. We'll wait and see if they do.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

The good that Colquitt has done in behalf of the people of Texas as railroad commissioner is recommendation enough to justify them in electing him governor, and they are going to do it, too.—Gainesville Register.

Mr. Johnson is not the first man in Texas politics who has attempted to ride the pros into office after having failed to land a plum while beat in the brush for the saloon league. Cone is a wise boy, but his present race will teach him a lesson that he will not soon forget.—Bonham Favorite.

It's either Johnson or Colquitt for governor, judging from the trend of things political. If you want to be on the winning side now is the time to get into the band wagon and ride while the music sounds good. Indications are favorable to Johnson's election right now, and he is growing all the time.—Italy News-Herald.

Cone Johnson ridicules Colquitt and Polindexter for rushing to Gainesville in order to receive "Joe Bailey's blessing." But when it comes to sprinting Cone need yield the palm to no man. The record he made for the "dry" belt when he decided to run for governor still stands.—Mertzon Star.

As we see it, neither the prohibition nor the Bailey question have any proper place in the gubernatorial race, but that they are there, nevertheless, none can deny. Neither have anything to do with the respective candidates' fitness for the exalted position, and if a candidate comes to you seeking support on either, you should scratch him. Vote for the man you consider the best qualified to give Texas a clean, business administration, and who does not pander to political prejudices.—Ballinger Ledger.

A talk with two citizens of Taylor county this week convinces us that both Johnson and Polindexter will carry Taylor county for governor. One said that Polindexter will carry by three to one over all others; the other said Johnson will carry it over all others two to one. So, there you have the forecast—just like it will be almost everywhere.—Haskell Herald.

It is said that R. Vance Davidson really believes that every man he ends a circular letter is foolish enough to consider it a compliment and think that the back-tax candidate knows him. The fact is most people think that Mr. Davidson secures the list of names to which he sends literature just as does the fellow who has cheap jewelry or an infallible cockroach exterminator to sell by mail.—Menardville Messenger.

Governor Tom Campbell is quoted as saying that Mr. Davidson is a losing proposition for governor and he has decided not to take the stump in his behalf. In other words, Mr. Campbell is now in the same condition as Dr. Rankin; they both desire above all else, to defeat Mr. Colquitt, but are in a quandary as to who can do the job. It is not very becoming in a young man to offer older heads advice, but if Mr. Campbell and Dr. Rankin will accept the advice of the Favorite and join forces with the Polindexter crowd, they will accomplish the defeat of the gentleman whose scalp they are after.—Bonham Favorite.

Robert Vance Davidson says there is a lumber trust; William Polindexter says there is no lumber trust. Robert Vance Davidson was attorney general for five years. If there was a lumber trust he should have prosecuted the trusters. If there is a lumber trust, his friend, Mr. Lightfoot, should prosecute the trusters. Thomas M. Campbell, in his campaign for governor in 1896, said there was a lumber trust. He was elected governor and then he forgot all about the existence of a lumber trust, or an alleged trust. These political wood-pulp ante-election speeches make the average man very weary and political hot-air burners would be amusing if they were not so costly.—Dallas Times-Herald.

A 2000 Mile Talk.

Possibly the longest telephone connection ever made through Amarillo was established yesterday morning when five companies of the Bell Telephone System combined to bring about a connection between Pueblo, Colo., and Terre Haute, Ind. The service was afforded for the relatives of Sheldon Bell, who was arrested in Pueblo on an insanity charge.

The young man lay for five minutes in his room at the hospital and conversed with his relatives in Indiana. The toll exacted by the combined companies amounted to $1.00 a minute and before the connection was made the companies did not desire to take the responsibility at any rate. Bell's people, who are wealthy, insisted on the arrangement, however, and the wires were joined first at Chicago, then at Kansas City, then at Amarillo and finally to Pueblo. The route by the wires was about two thousand miles.

Bell declared that the voice of his wife, with whom he talked, was low, but quite distinct, and he was able to understand most all of what she said.—Amarillo News.

Toronto's Big Horse Show.

Toronto, Ont., April 25.—The final touch has been given to the elaborate decorations of the Armories an all other arrangements practically completed for the opening of the Canadian and Military Horse Show here tomorrow. Added brilliance will be given the opening by the presence of their Excellencies the Governor-General and Countess Groy. The entries this year eclipse all previous records of the Toronto association, both as to numbers and class and the management is looking forward to the most successful exhibition of its kind ever given in the Dominion. Numerous special events will mark each day of the show, which will continue until the end of the week.

Consecrated as Bishop.

London, Ont., April 25.—With all the splendor of the Roman Catholic ritual, Father M. F. Fallon of Buffalo, was consecrated bishop of London here today. St. Peter's Cathedral, spacious though it is, was unable to accommodate the large throng that sought admittance to witness the ceremony.

The Most Reverend F. P. McEvay, Archbishop of Toronto, was the consecrator, Rev. James Fallon of Ottawa the preacher, Bishop Scollard of Sault Ste. Marie and McDonald of Alexandria assisting in the primary ceremony. Nearly two-score priests from various parts of Canada and the United States filled the honorary offices of the ritual, headed by Rev. Father Downey of Windsor, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Confederate Veterans at Mobile, Ala., April 25.—The city is rapidly filling with visitors and delegates to the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and the reunions of the affiliated organizations of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Daughters of Confederate Veterans and the Southern Memorial Association, which will be in session here during the first part of this week. The whole city is lavishly decorated in honor of the veterans and is receiving them with genuine hospitality. Judging from present indications the reunion will have a record attendance. The reunion of the Sons of Confederate Veterans will open tonight with a grand welcoming meeting in German Reller Hall, the headquarters of the organization during the reunion week. The Confederate veterans will hold their meetings in a large tent, seating about six thousand, which has been erected for that purpose near the Tent City, where two thousand veterans will find accommodations. The camp has been established on the shore of Mobile Bay, which saw the last naval struggle of the war, the battle between Admiral Buchanan and Admiral Farragut, and upon the western part of which the last land battle of the Confederacy was fought. Directly adjoining the "tent city" the commissary and kitchen are located which will supply from 2,000 to 2,500 veterans with free meals during the reunion. Monroe Park, where the reunion will be held, is within easy reach by a number of trolley lines. The most elaborate arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the veterans and other visitors have been made in addition to the numerous public entertainments, balls, excursions and camps there will be many social affairs of a more or less private nature in honor of the veterans and their ladies. Great rivalry is expected between the delegations from Little Rock, Macon, Chattanooga and several other cities anxious to secure the reunion of next year for their respective cities. The complete program of the United Confederate Veterans' Reunion is as follows: Tuesday, Morning session at 9 o'clock, at Auditorium, Monroe Park. Music by band while the convention is assembling; relinquishment of authority of committee of program and order of arrangements, by Mr. W. K. P. Wilson, chairman; calling convention to order, by Gen. George F. Harrison, commanding Alabama division, U. C. V.; invocation by Rev. R. Linn Cave, chaplain general U. C. V.; Music—"My Country, 'Tis of Thee," United Confederate Choirs of America; Recitation—Poem of welcome, written for the occasion by Hugh G. Barclay, by Miss Vera Williams; Address of welcome on behalf of the state of Alabama, by Governor Braxton Bragg Comer; address of welcome in behalf of the city of Mobile, by Hon. P. J. Lyons, mayor; address of welcome in behalf of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, by Clarence J. Owens, commander-in-chief U. C. V.; Song—"Soldier's Dream," by Thos. Halliwell, of Mobile; recitation by Miss Minnie Reese Richardson of Alabama; address and turning the auditorium over to the veterans, by Jacob D. Bloch, chairman of executive committee; response and acceptance of auditorium, by Gen. Clement A. Evans, commander-in-chief U. C. V.; announcement of committee on credentials and committee on resolutions; adjournment. Afternoon—2:30 o'clock: Assemble at auditorium, Monroe Park; music by band while convention is assembling; calling convention to order; music—Confederate Choirs of America; address by Hon. L. B. McFarland, of Memphis, Tenn., orator of the day; adjournment. Wednesday, Morning session—9 o'clock. Music by band while convention is assembling; invocation by Rev. Alfred G. Moses, rabbi congregation of Shaarai Shomayim, Mobile; music—Confederate Choirs of America; report of committee on credentials; report of the committee on history; song—"Last Rose of Summer," by Mrs. Emma Lavretts, of Mobile; report of the committee on Battle Abbey; selection of place for next meeting; miscellaneous business. At noon the convention will suspend business and take part in the exercises of the memorial hour. Afternoon session—2:30 o'clock. Music by band; report of committee on resolutions; music; report of monument committee; election of officers; miscellaneous business; adjournment. ALL TALK "IDO" AT THIS CLUB.

Members Say It Will Be the Coming Language of the World. Six men sitting on opposite sides of a table in the old capitol read communications from correspondents in as many parts of the earth—all written in a common language—"Ido." Ido, it was explained, is a simplification of Esperanto, and, according to the six members of the Ido club, there is "nothing to it"; every one in the world will be ordering meals, transacting business and communicating in Ido within a comparatively short period of time. "Ido is going to be the international tongue in a few years" said one of the members, as he handed the interviewer a postal card written in far away Turkey and mailed to one of its members. The epistle was studied by the reporter, but the purport of the message was just about as clear as Chinese to him, so he asked the "instructor to translate it. He did so, and the words sounded like a cross between an Irish "come-alley" and a chinook fandango, with Italian accompaniment. Ido, according to Henri Jacob, the secretary of the local society, the membership of which in this city is very limited, indeed, is much easier to learn than Esperanto and can be understood without previous study. When the club decides upon a word which does not conflict with any other language it is pounced upon, figuratively speaking, and sent to the headquarters of the Linguo Internaciona at Paris, France, which rules upon its adoption for the Ido dictionary, and so on ad infinitum.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Hearing on Parcels Post.

Washington, D. C., April 25.—Advocates of the domestic parcels post system are to be given an opportunity to present their arguments upon that subject at a series of hearings which began today before the house committee on postoffices and post roads. Under the postal union convention and numerous special treaties with foreign countries packages of merchandise weighing as high as eleven pounds are transmissible in the foreign mails at a very low rate of postage. Rural communities and city merchants are advocating an extension of this system to the domestic mails. The opposition to the proposal comes principally from the express companies.

"A WORLD OF THE DEAD."

Ex-Convict's Indictment of the English Prisons.

A scathing indictment of the British prison system—the most poignant cry from out of the depths of the "world of the dead" since the "Ballade of Reading Jail" was published—appears in the April number of the Hibbert Journal.

This article on the penal laws severity, by "One Who Has Suffered It," makes the following detailed comment on imprisonment and its consequences: The writer states that imprisonment—

- 1. Is slavery. 2. Is a school of crime. 3. Destroys men morally, physically and mentally. 4. Is wholly evil in its effects. "One Who Has Suffered It," who served a sentence of six years for the misappropriation of money, tells how terrible was the penalty he had to pay for his offense.

He asserts that "did men and women in this country realize what imprisonment actually means and is, they would immediately free all prisoners by main force, put the wardens at work which is not depraved and make any continuance of the horrible thing impossible.

"After having foolishly pleaded guilty and received sentence," he continues, "some of the single-time malefactors asked a fellow-sinner who had been there twice before, 'What is it we are going to?' "Hell!" he replied. The hopeless misery of his eyes betrays a fresh shudder whenever that scene lives again in my memory." The writer tells of the incessant degradation and body and soul-killing labor which make up the prisoner's workday, until he "crawls back at night a beaten animal, in worse plight relatively than any animal under the heavens," to the cell which is "really a kennel."

"Here, then, arrives the grand occasion on which prison administrators delight to dwell—the 'reforming' influence of thirteen or fourteen hours of darkness! Oh, the tortures of those fearful nights wherein the hellish beleaguering of insanity must be strenuously repelled! By the time the prisoner feels himself falling asleep he must quit the hammock and resume his place on the daylight rack.

"British authorities have unanimously adopted the rule of the infamous Kouriskina, most infamous among old-time Siberian governors—that everything is deprived a prisoner unless granted by special permission. He has no rights whatever, either a man or an animal.

"His food may cost some £7 yearly, and no laboring beast could be adequately fed for that. His clothes and bedding cost some £4, and no laboring beast could be harnessed and stabled for so little. The system appropriates a pound of force and returns an ounce.

"When, by and by, he can eat the unpalatable mess provided, he acquires chronic indigestion, dimness of eyesight, thinness aurum, roarings in the head, gastric spasms, shortness of breath, sickly giddiness and absence of 'staying' power generally. In addition, he may contract heart disease. These things are usually concomitants."

"One Who Has Suffered It" argues that it is proved that imprisonment "creates criminals, a distaste for labor, and insanity," and the rending asunder of families reacts calamitously on all involved.

Regarding the efficacy of imprisonment as a deterrent on offenders under sentence, he says: "There is a very simple and conclusive test. If imprisonment justifies itself as a deterrent, none, or but a slight proportion of such offenders will be reconvicted, resented and reimprisoned. On the contrary, however, some two-thirds of the denizens of prisons have been previously imprisoned."

"The man who has come back from 'a world of the dead' concludes his plea for a wider and wiser humanity in dealing with criminals.—London Express.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

The Ninth Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Steal," was the subject of a very interesting lecture at the First Presbyterian church last evening by Rev. J. L. McKee. This lecture was the ninth of the series of lectures on the Commandments by this pastor and explained the purposes and interpretations of the commandment very forcibly.

Ira Wills and Jim Marlow, two well known local automobilists, contributed seven and a half dollars each to the city treasury this morning for making a race track out of 10th street on Saturday. Judge Rye fined them ten dollars each at first, but knocked off two and a half for cash. Jim says it was worth it.

President J. A. Kemp and a large party of friends are on an inspection trip up the Northwestern today, going as far north as the Elk City extension has been completed.

The Wichita Falls baseball team defeated Vernon yesterday afternoon by a score of six to one, making four straight victories for the home team over the visitors.

The concert at Lake Wichita yesterday afternoon was enjoyed by a large crowd in spite of the windy and disagreeable weather which prevailed.

The sidewalk widening force is now at work on Indiana avenue between 7th and 8th streets on the west side of the avenue.

WOMEN EMPLOYES EXCEL.

Boston Business Men Deny Charge That Girls Do Less Work Than Men.

Boston girls are mad? No, they're glad.

Have it any way you want to. One thing, however, is a certainty—they are extremely grateful to the many prominent business men of Boston, who have come to their defense and taken issue with the officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad by declaring that women are the equal and in many respects superior to men in various branches of work, and that they will not even consider the question of supplanting women by men, even though the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has taken that step.

The question has aroused so much interest that various women's clubs in Greater Boston will discuss the issue raised by the railroad corporation, namely, that the average young woman employee does 30 per cent less

STATE POLITICS.

Pointdexter is outcampaigning Johnson and Davidson and seems to have moved up to second place next to Colquitt in the race.—Corpus Christi Caller.

Dr. G. C. Rankin, the noted Texas prohibition leader, is outspoken for Hon. A. S. Hawkins for lieutenant governor, stating that all prohibitionists should support Mr. Hawkins. We'll wait and see if they do.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

The good that Colquitt has done in behalf of the people of Texas as railroad commissioner is recommendation enough to justify them in electing him governor, and they are going to do it, too.—Gainesville Register.

Mr. Johnson is not the first man in Texas politics who has attempted to ride the pros into office after having failed to land a plum while beating the brush for the saloon league. Cone is a wise boy, but his present race will teach him a lesson that he will not soon forget.—Bonham Favorite.

It's either Johnson or Colquitt for governor, judging from the trend of things political. If you want to be on the winning side now is the time to get into the band wagon and ride while the music sounds good. Indications are favorable to Johnson's election right now, and he is growing all the time.—Italy News-Herald.

Cone Johnson ridicules Colquitt and Pointdexter for rushing to Gainesville in order to receive "Joe Bailey's blessing." But when it comes to sprinting Cone need yield the palm to no man. The record he made for the "dry" belt when he decided to run for governor still stands.—Mertzon Star.

As we see it, neither the prohibition nor the Bailey question have any proper place in the gubernatorial race, but that they are there, nevertheless, none can deny. Neither have anything to do with the respective candidates' fitness for the exalted position, and if a candidate comes to you seeking support on either, you should scratch him. Vote for the man.
