At the meeting of the stockholders yesterday afternoon at the office of Messrs Kell and Kemp an organization of the company which is to erect and own the five-story steel structure on the Northeast corner of Ohio avenue and 8th street was perfected, which is to be known as the Wichita Falls Investment Company, and Attorney C. C. Huff is now preparing the necessary papers to amend the charter of this corporation, increasing its capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000, naming the following as the incorporators and who will act as a board of directors for the first year: J. A. Kemp, Frank Kell, O. T. Bacon, J. J. Perkins, G. D. Anderson, W. J. Bullock, and T. R. T. Orth.

The brick building which now occupies the lot was sold to a party for the sum of $500, which is to be removed immediately, and the contractors, the Texas Building Co., of Fort Worth, are to have the building completed by January 1st, 1911, failing in which they agree to forfeit the sum of $50 per day for each day after January 1st that is required for its completion. The Investment Company also agree to pay to the contractors $50 per day in addition to the contract price for every day the building is completed and ready for occupancy before the date specified in the contract.

Including plumbing, wiring, elevator, etc, the cost of this structure will be approximately $130,000, and this, with the $20,000 lot, will run the total to an even $150,000.

The contractors expect to begin active work by May 1st, and hope to have it completed before the time specified.

This building including the basement, will be really a six-story.

15,000 VETERANS MARCH IN ANNUAL PARADE AT THE MOBILE REUNION

By Associated Press. Mobile, April 28.—With fifteen thousand veteran soldiers of the Confederacy marching today beneath the battle-scarred flags they followed in the sixties, to the soft strains of Dixie played by two-score of bands and encouraged by the biggest crowd Mobile ever entertained, the annual parade of veterans passed into history. The line of march was elaborately decorated with hunting and streamers and huge arches carried the words "Welcome to Marchers."

Major General Harrison, commander of the Alabama division was grand marshal of the parade. There were

TO REMOVE MAYOR.

Warm Factional Fight is On in Denison Today

Texas News Service Special. Denison, April 28.—Petitions are being circulated and signed by citizens here today calling for the removal from office of Mayor A. W. Acheson. For nearly a year the mayor has been trying to dismiss A. P. Wood, city tax assessor and collector, but the other two members of the commission refuse to concur in the dismissal. Tuesday Wood was notified by the mayor to turn over his books, key and money to the city treasurer, and vacate the city hall. No reason was given for the mayor's action, it is said. It is known Wood did not support Acheson in the city campaign. Wood has held office here for ten years. Under the recall clause in the charter twenty per cent of the voters' signatures are necessary to oust a member of the commission. Feeling is high.

Don't Neglect to Get in the Census.

Mr. Citizen, make it a point to see that you and every member of your household is enumerated by the census-takers. This city's standing for the next ten years will be judged largely by the showing it makes in this census and it will require little effort on your part to see that the count is complete, as far as you are concerned. If the enumerator has not visited you yet, notify the Chamber of Commerce and tell that office where you may be found. Don't put it off any longer.

SECURED $1,760 ON FORGED CHECK--FORGER CAPTURED

Special to The Times. Archer City, April 28.—A man who signed his name as Lee Beardon, walked into the Powers State Bank yesterday afternoon and presented a check for $1760, stating that his father, whose endorsement was on the check was a prominent business man of Olney. The cashier knowing that there was such a man at Olney as Beardon, who was a highly respected citizen and business man, finally cashed the check, but became suspicious of the man shortly afterwards, and called the Olney Bank by phone, who, being under the impression that the Archer Bank had stated that the check was drawn for $1760 instead of $1760, and said that if it bore the endorsement of Beardon it was good for that amount.

A second conversation over the phone, however, was had, and it developed that the man who represented himself as the son of Mr. Beardon of Olney, was an entirely different person, and Sheriff Ed Goodwin was immediately notified and given a description of the man who had succeeded in getting $1760 on a forged check. After a short time the fellow, who appears to be about twenty-five years old, was located and placed under arrest, and all of or nearly all of the money secured and turned back to the bank.

Unique Composite Picture of Roosevelt and Emperor William

The visit of Colonel Roosevelt to the emperor of Germany is one of the most interesting events of the remarkable trip now being made by the former president of the United States. Both are known as men who speak out in meeting, both have strong likes and dislikes, and the entire country is waiting to see which will prove his right to be known as the real strenuous one. From the composite picture it appears that Roosevelt over shadows the German Kaiser.

person all the money he had secured from the bank.

While he refuses to give his name, the mark on the sweat-band of his hat indicates that it is Frank Lake. The forger claims that his father is a stockman in Raines county, and says if the officers will take him there he can easily make bond.

REMOVAL IS CERTAIN.

Practically Sure That T. C. U. Will Build in Fort Worth.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, April 28.—While definite announcement has not been made, the citizens who have been making an effort to secure the Texas Christian University, now located at Waco, today declared it is certain that the University will accept Fort Worth's offer and establish here. This city is to raise a $100,000 bonus, and donate a tract of not less than fifty acres. The trustees and citizens committee held an executive meeting this morning after which the trustees returned to Waco.

It was later learned that the Texas Christian University asks a bonus of $200,000 and that the full amount is not yet assured, but the citizens committee declare they will experience no difficulty in raising the amount.

HENRIETTA WILL PLAY WICHITA NEXT SUNDAY; GOOD GAME PROMISED

The Henrietta baseball team, Wichita's old time diamond rival, will be here next Sunday for a game with the locals and local fans are awaiting the contest with interest. Henrietta and Wichita were evenly matched last season, Wichita Falls gaining the supremacy only after several hard fought games. The local team has been strengthened recently and is now believed to be without a peer in North Texas.

The Wichita nine is in Vernon today for a series of three games with the nine there. Wichita won four straight from the Wilbarger boys last week, but the latter may be able to do better on their home lot.

GLIDDEN TOUR NOT TO TOUCH WICHITA

WILL GO DIRECT FROM FORT WORTH TO OKLA. CITY, SAYS PATHFINDER.

TOO FAR OUT OF LINE

Unsuccessful Effort Was Made to Bring Tour Through Wichita Falls.

The hopes of Wichita Falls' automobile enthusiasts, that this city would be included in the official route of the Glidden tour, as a point between Fort Worth and Oklahoma City, were shattered this morning when a telegram was received from Dan Lewis, the official "pathfinder" that it would be impossible to include Wichita Falls in the trip this year.

It is believed from this that the tourists will go as directly as possible from Fort Worth to Oklahoma City and that Gainesville will get the tour instead of this city. Wichita Falls had strong hopes that the tour would come here from Fort Worth and that this city would be a "night control" which would have been very beneficial. It is believed that Wichita Falls is too far out of line to make it practicable to include in the tour.

Tentative plans for the entertainment of the tourists had been made by some of the local autoists and the visitors would have been royally cared for had they come by way of this city. The Glidden tour touches a different part of the country every year and it will probably be a number of years before Wichita Falls has an equally good opportunity to secure this event.

FIRST AERIAL DERBY IS WON BY LOUIS PAULMAN AT MANCHESTER TODAY

By Associated Press. Manchester, April 28.—Louis Paulman, who won the first aerial derby today upon landing here was given a tremendous ovation and unstinted praise for his feat. White, his plucky competitor, was showered with congratulations over his splendid attempt. As soon as White learned of Paulman's success, he called for three cheers for the victor. The distance from London to Manchester is one hundred and eighty-six miles.

By Associated Press. Paulman did the last twenty-four miles in exactly twenty-four minutes, out-distancing the special train bearing his wife, Farman and the other friends who accompanied him.

"IRISH LADS" PLAY AT HENRIETTA TODAY--TEAM CONSIDERED GOOD ONE

The Lake Wichita baseball team left this afternoon for Henrietta where it will play the team of that city today. This is the first game the "Irish Lads" play and the result will be watched with considerable interest. The team is considered one of the strongest amateur aggregations in the state. Two of the Naylor boys from Farmersville, Witherspoon and Morris from Denton and a number of others of equal fame in the Texas baseball world are on the team. The team will probably not play any games locally until the baseball park at the Lake is completed, which will be in about thirty days.

Cyrus W. Field's Son is Destitute.

New York, April 28.—Many persons doubtless were surprised when they read the statement of a census enumerator a week or so ago that he had found among the outcasts of the Bowery a man who had once been prominent in the diplomatic service of the United States, also two former members of Congress and a number of men who in their day, before drink and adversity had overtaken them; had occupied high positions in the pulpit, at the bar, and in the medical and other professions. Surprising the statement may be, but not at all improbable, as is evidenced by the case of Edward M. Field, the story of whose life has again been brought into print this week.

After living for years the life of a common vagabond and tramp, subsisting for a time on the bounty of those he knew in prosperity, and later cared for by the Salvation Army, Edward Morse Field, the favorite son of Cyrus W. Field, the "Father of the Atlantic Cable," is in Bellevue Hospital destitute and suffering with nephritis. If he lives to leave the hospital he will probably return to the Bowery to resume the life he has led for the past fifteen years. He has no visible means of support, and his friends long ago abandoned his case as hopeless.

Less than twenty years ago Field was one of the princes, if not one of the kings of Wall street. He was rich, honored, beloved—beloved most of all by his beautiful wife, the sister of his partner, Daniel Lindley, and by his father, who, John Bright said, was "the Columbus who moored the Old World beside the New" with his Atlantic cable. When disgrace came to Edward M. Field it broke his wife's heart and killed his father.

Field has not only the distinction of being the son of Cyrus W. Field. He is the nephew of the three famous Fields—Stephen J., a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; David Dudley, authority on international law, leading abolitionist, and member of Congress, and Henry Martyn, the noted author and divine.

In 1891 Edward M. Field was charged with wrecking the brokerage firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co., when he failed for $3,000,000. He disappeared, was found and was committed as insane to an asylum in Buffalo in 1892. It was always disputed that he was insane, and it is certain that he enjoyed full liberty within the institution. He was released as sane in 1894 and was then liable to trial on several indictments for forgery and grand larceny, but he was not tried and in 1898 the indictments were dismissed on the ground that there was no possibility of convicting him.

He continued to go down hill, was arrested at various times for drunkenness, and once for stealing a coat in a Broadway office building. He was picked up on the Bowery in 1904 and sent to the psychopathic ward of Bellevue. At that time he was living in a lodging house in the neighborhood of Hell's Kitchen.

About two years ago Field drifted one night into the Hadley Rescue Mission in the Bowery. In the mission that evening was Bradley Lee Gilbert, a well known architect, who now occupies as offices the suite of Cyrus W. Field in the building at the foot of Broadway, from whose windows Edward M. Field used to signal his yacht off the Battery when he was ready to have it carry him up the Hudson to his home. Gilbert was an early friend of Field in college days. When he found Field in the mission he persuaded him to go to the "mourners' bench." The mission people took an interest in him and found him employment in the Salvation Army lodging house in Chatham Square. There he continued to make his headquarters until overtaken by the illness which again necessitated his removal to Bellevue.

More C. and O. Capital.

Richmond, Va., April 28.—At a special meeting here today the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad took favorable action on the proposal of the directors to increase the company's capital stock from $66,000,000 to $100,000,000 by the issue of convertible bonds to the amount of $37,200,000. The proceeds of the bond issue, it is understood, will be used to close the deal for the Hocking Valley and of the other purchases which the Hawley interests have been arranging with a view to strengthening the Chesapeake and Ohio systems. The new bonds will bear 4 1/2 per cent interest, and will run for twenty years, and will be convertible into Chesapeake and Ohio stock at par at the option of the holder, after one year from date of the bond.

Taft's Seat for a Ball Game.

Chair to Be Occupied by the President Will Be Marked With Metal Plate.

Mayor W. A. Magee has secured the box which President Taft will occupy when he views the Pittsburg-Chicago ball game at Forbes Field May 2.

That the President is taking much interest in the event scheduled for his entertainment by President Barney Dreyfuss and his brother, Charles P. Taft, owner of the Chicago club, is indicated by the fact that he has made known where he desires to be seated and at what angle he will observe his favorite player—the mighty Wagner.

Box No. 125, in the first balcony, immediately above the Pittsburg players' bench, about midway between the home plate and first base, has been reserved for the president. Mr. Taft regards this as the most desirable point from which to witness the game.

Director Joseph G. Armstrong, director of the Department of Public Works, brought Mr. Frenz, lessee of the box for the season, to the mayor's office, where he was told that the President of the United States had indorsed his judgment as to the proper point of vantage from which to "root for the home team," and Mr. Frenz most graciously tendered No. 125 for the use of the President.

It was also agreed that after the game the chair—or chairs—occupied by Mr. Taft shall have placed upon them plates of gold, silver or other precious metal, upon which shall set forth the fact, duly attested by the mayor, that they did on May 2, 1910, hold the distinguished figure of the then President of the United States.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Big Parade of Veterans.

Mobile, Ala., April 28.—Through the streets with gay flags and bunting the gray haired veterans of the Confederate Army marched in martial array today, thus bringing to a spectacular close one of the most successful reunions they have held in recent years. The city offices, banks and many business houses were closed, and the people of Mobile made the occasion a holiday. Long before the parade started the streets were packed with humanity. Every window along the route was filled and the public stands in the parks and at prominent street intersections had no vacant space.

Spontaneous and enthusiastic applause greeted the veterans all along the line of march. Though Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi had the largest number of marchers in line, there was no state or division of the veterans' organization that was not well represented. The line was interspersed with numerous bands and the air was filled with the melody of familiar southern airs. One of the most unique features of the parade that was greeted with cheers all along the line, was a genuine wagon train, such as were in service during the war. The train, which consisted of eleven wagons was equipped and manned by members of Forrest's cavalry corps.

His dam Wilkie McGregor is a great brood mare by the greatest stallion of his day, Robert McGregor, 2.17 1/4. His second dam Virtie Wilkes is also a great brood mare and is by Red Wilkes, sire of 177 standard performers.

HERE IS ONE OF THE BEST BRED STALLIONS IN AMERICA, and if you will send for his tabulated pedigree and study it you will find that he traces to George Wilkes, Hambletonian 10, American Star, Pilot Jr., and other great sires through producing and performing lines that prove the above statement beyond all doubt.

He is one of the BEST LOOKING STALLIONS and best dispositioned horses in the country as you can see by calling at the stables.

Bred in Kentucky, Ashland R. is now nine years old, stands nearly 16 hands high, weighs over 1,100. His colts are larger than he is even from small mares, are the same rich bay with black points, heavy manes and tails, round full made bodies on good legs with plenty of bone and muscle and sell for fancy prices on account of their style, action and speed.

Messrs. Kemp and Kell asked Mr. Palmer L. Clark, President of the Chicago Horse Sale Co. and former owner of Clark's Horse Review, one of the leading turf papers, to select a horse that would do the breeding interests of this section the most good, and his choice as a result of thirty years experience is in keeping with the many solid improvements and expensive advantages Wichita Falls has been favored with by these gentlemen.

Ashland R. will make the season at the low fee of $15.00 cash. For years past he has commanded the best mares in Ohio at $50.00. NO OWNER INTENDING TO BREED A MARE THIS SUMMER CAN AFFORD TO MISS THIS CHANCE.

STORY ABOUT LEVY.

When Second Baby Arrived He Left Orchestra.

No more popular figure existed in the old Theatre Royal, Dublin, than Levy, the conductor. He was the father of some very celebrated musicians—one of them was Levy, the cornet player, who made such a sensation with his cornet and his diamond rings in the promenade concerts at Convent Garden, under Riviere's direction, twenty-five years ago. Old Levy had a very large family ("Paganini redivivus" was another of his famous sons), and a story is told that when conducting an overture to an opera in the Theatre Royal, a boy jumped up from under the stage and said:

"Misther Levy! Misther Levy! Your wolve has just had a baby."

"The Lord b. spraised for all his mercies!" said the conductor, keeping the baton going.

In a few seconds the boy again appeared.

"Misther Levy! Misther Levy!"

"Well, boy, is anything wrong?"

"Misses Levy has had another baby, sor!"

"Thank heaven! All's well!" And the baton was waved with greater vigor working up the orchestra to a tremendous flourish. Once more he was disturbed by the same messenger.

"Misther Levy! Misther Levy!"

"Get out, boy! What's the matter now?"

"Gegorra, there's another. As y' call 'em trins!"

The conductor rose and putting down his baton, said:

"Gintlemen, it's toime I wint home and put a stop to this!"—Harry Furness in the May Strand.

New Bishop of Hartford.

Hartford, Conn., April 28.—The consecration of Rev. John J. Nilan as bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Hartford took place in this city today and was the most brilliant ceremony of its kind ever seen here. It began in St. Joseph's Cathedral at 10 o'clock this morning and consumed nearly four hours. Interest in the occasion was increased by the attendance of many eminent priests and prelates.

Archbishop O'Connell of Boston conducted the ceremony, assisted by Bishops Walsh of Portland and Feehan of Fall River. Mgr. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, preached the sermon. Bishop Harkins of Providence, Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America, and numerous other noted churchmen were present.

The new bishop is fifty-six years old and a native of Newbury, Mass. He received his education at Nicolet College, Canada, and at St. Joseph's Seminary, Troy. After his ordination in 1878 he was connected with churches in Boston and other cities and towns of Massachusetts. For the past seventeen years, until his appointment to succeed the late Bishop Tierney of Hartford, Father Nilan was pastor of St. Joseph's church in Amesbury, Mass.

A Change in Mrs. Stilwell's Meetings.

On learning that this will be the closing night of the Baptist revival, and not wishing to do anything to conflict with it, we will arrange Mrs. Brigadier Stilwell's service in the First Methodist church for Friday night at 8 o'clock. She will meet the ladies as previously announced at 3 p.m. Friday. She will speak in our hall tonight; her subject will be "Twenty-eight Years a Salvationist."

LOST HIS ALBORUS.

Austin Statesman.
Colonel Henry Watterson, who, despite his potential ability as a leader, has formed the habit of changing his political view as often as he changes his shirt, recently declared that it was the verdict of history "that the best of all governments is a wise and benevolent despotism," and he thinks that the election of Roosevelt to the presidency in 1912, which he declares that nothing on earth (not even Mr. Roosevelt) can prevent, will be the commencement of this benevolent despotism. He says:

Theodore Roosevelt would seem fitted by temperament, education and training for this work. He is a patriotic American with humanitarian proclivities. He is an incorruptible man. He has shown himself fearless of consequences. If the people are sick and tired of the slow process of constitutional procedure; if they want in the white house a president who, disregarding the letter of the law, will substitute his own interpretation of its spirit and intention; if they think that the reign of hypocrisy and cant and graft which marks our professional politics may be ended by the abolition of a ruler who as Roosevelt himself puts it, "translates his words into deeds," and who charged with the cleansing of the Augean stables by an election putting the seal of the popular approval upon conceded excesses in the use of power and bidding him to go forward and apply the same remedies to a disease otherwise incurable, then Theodore Roosevelt fills the bill to perfection, for he comes directly from the family of the kings of men and is a lineal descendant of Caesar and Cromwell.

The colonel has had several lucid intervals since 1896, but they have none of them lasted long enough for any practical use. For more than twenty years he has been so track-shy and middle-sore that it was hardly worth while to enter him in any race where a spasmodic bolt or a buzzard's shadow on the track would throw the race. Only six months ago we were lauding him to the skies for his optimistic forecast of democratic success. He had started beautifully, had taken the pole in the race and was running with head in the air and tail in the timber, but alas, the buzzard shadow of Roosevelt's return crossed his vision and he broke—shuffled down to a fox-trot, and is now preparing to shun the home stretch and take to the feeding grass. The great trouble with the colonel is not lack of faith or continually or even bookworm. The truth is the old man has lost his alborus—we do not know what this is, and never heard of it before, but are morally certain he has lost it, and unless it is in some manner restored to him he will never live to witness the coronation of Kink Theodore I. We remember many years ago to have seen cows treated for lost cud. The animal was thrown flat on her back, her neck stretched out to its full extent, a mop made of old rags, saturated with nux vomica and hot beeswax asafoedita alicum-frazierfat, chewed rosin and taw, was introduced into the gullet, when she was released and told to "belch for it." Whether this treatment would be efficacious in restoring a lost alborus we do not know, but the serious nature of these constant relapses from even partial improvement would recommend the experiment.

The papers which are espousing the cause of Candidate Colquitt seem very apprehensive of the action Dr. G. C. Rankin is likely to take. For a while they were abusing him because he gave encouragement to Davidson; then, when he switched, apparently gave some evidence that he preferred Poindexter to Johnson, that pleased and tickled them immensely, because they knew Poindexter entered the race after Johnson had announced, and both being advocates of statewide prohibition, were anxious for the two to divide the strength of the pros, as much as possible. It has been a very noticeable fact even, since that the papers which are making Colquitt's fight are more friendly to Poindexter than they are to Johnson, which is a very good indication that these papers regard Johnson as the stronger of the two. Dr. Rankin, it seems, is about to make up his mind to drop Poindexter for the reason he has become convinced, and has succeeded in convincing others that it was useless for the pros to divide their strength between Johnson and Poindexter, and while he, personally, prefers Poindexter, will vote and use his influence for the election of Cone Johnson. This last "flip" of the reverend gentlemen does not set well with the Colquitt papers, which, strange to say, or the same papers that sang the praises of Dr. Rankin at the time he took it upon himself to make few speeches and write a few strong articles in defense of Senator Bailey. Then he was a hero, now according to the way these papers view it, he has utterly disgraced himself and his calling by entering politics. But let us hope the doctor will survive these attacks. He has not yet said definitely who he will support for governor, but the mere fact that these papers keep such close watch on his movements is evidence that they believe he has a great influence, and are doing their utmost to break it down.

Davidson carrying water on both shoulders is a funny spectacle to Texans who know his profound dislike for that fluid; but when one goes into politics he goes in to win, even if he has to overload his stomach with so weak a beverage as water. Will the prohibitionists be taken in; can the ants be fooled by Davidson's double-dealing? We shall see.—Austin Statesman.

The people naturally distrust the fellow who is afraid to take a firm stand and stay with it, but sometimes it is the case that the people delight to be deceived and place in office men in whom they have no confidence whatever, but suffer themselves to believe that he is better fitted for the office, even if he does talk and vote one way and act another. It may be that way in Davidson's case.

Judge Poindexter's campaign manager is telegraphing his friends to "Get all prohibition democrats in your country to urge Rankin to endorse Poindexter. Flood him with letters." What's the matter with Rankin? Is he getting balky and inclined to kick over the traces? What pulling he has done has been for Poindexter. Is he about to hitch up to the Johnson band wagon?—Bonham News.

R. V. Davidson formally opened his campaign in a lengthy and conservative speech at Waco on the 21st of this month. Since that time Colquitt is busy answering that speech, and Poindexter has forgotten for once to jump on Johnson. The News is still of the opinion that the man who gets more votes than Davidson will be the next governor of Texas.—Bonham News.

Parisian Sage is the greatest dandruff cure and hair dressing in the world. It is not sticky or greasy, and is used by women of taste and refinement, who desire fascinating and luxuriant hair that will compel admiration. It is guaranteed to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Large bottle only 50 cents at druggists everywhere, and Week's Drug Co., Mail orders filled by the American makers, Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Wm. Stafford, Eau Claire, Wis., wrote on November 3, 1909:
"This last summer I had a great deal of trouble with my hair. It began to fall out and I tried various remedies, but none helped me. I was beginning to become alarmed, for I was nearly bald.
"One morning I noticed "Parisian Sage" advertised, so I bought a bottle. The effect on my hair was astonishing. The natural color was restored and I now have a fine head of hair. I recommend Parisian Sage to everyone. It is wonderful."
Mrs. George Stork, 48 N. 5th St. La Fayette, Ind., on Nov. 1, 1909, wrote: "I used your hair grower Parisian Sage, and was pleased with it. It is a scalp cleaner and hair grower."

Pope as a Witness.
Pope, like Garrick, made but a poor figure in the witness box. He was cited to appear in defense of Bishop Atterbury when that prelate was tried for high treason in the house of lords in 1723. "I never could speak in public," he told Spence afterward, "and I don't believe that if it was a set thing I could give an account of any story to twelve friends together, though I could tell it to any three of them with a great deal of pleasure. When I was to appear for the bishop of Rochester in his trial, though I had but ten words to say and that on a plain point (how the bishop spent his time when I was with him at Bromley), I made two or three blunders in it and that notwithstanding the first row of lords (which was all I could see) were mostly of my acquaintance."—London Standard.

The Lost Company.
"Hungry, I suppose?" said the sharp faced woman as she opened the door just a little bit.
"W'y, no," answered the ragged wayfarer. "I've clean forgot how to be hungry. But I'm out and out lonely."
"Lonely?"
"Yes. You see, I hain't had nothing to eat for so long that I've got so thin I can't cast no shadow, and you ain't no idea what company a man's shadow is to him while he is travelin' along the road."

Archness.
Sally Gay—What a cunning little fellow Mr. Callipers is! Dolly Swift—Cunning? Why, he's dreadfully bow-legged. Sally Gay—Yes, but that gives him such an arch look, you know—Truth.

THE CABINET LEAK.

Daniel Webster Was Not Long in Discovering Its Source.

Once years ago, when Daniel Webster was secretary of state, there was an important foreign matter up for discussion before the cabinet, and the utmost secrecy was of course maintained, but the whole thing was blazoned about in a few hours after the cabinet meeting. So the president hastily sent for his cabinet to talk over this leak. Each man had a different idea of it.

Finally Mr. Webster arose, saying, "You gentlemen, go on with your discussion, and I'll be back in a minute." In a few minutes he returned and repeated every word that had been spoken in the room in his absence. He explained that if by standing close to the door outside the cabinet room you held your ear to it you could not distinguish one intelligible word, but if moving back from the door and a little to one side upon a certain spot in the carpet you kept an attentive ear every word could be plainly heard as though whispered. Some enterprising eavesdropper had been experimenting with the door and had found that upon that exact spot there was some acoustic property of the door or room that conveyed the sound in perfect entirety.

"Going—Going—"

The auctioneer had auctioneered for the last time, for he was very ill and lay now almost at death's door.

Beside his bed stood the doctor and the auctioneer's wife, anxiously watching each symptom, each movement, each respiration.

"Doctor," hoarsely whispered the hammer wielder's wife, "what is his pulse now?"

The doctor raised the patient's wrist. "His pulse," he answered, "is now going at 104."

The auctioneer sat up excitedly in bed.

"Going at 104!" he cried feebly. "Going at 104! Who'll make it 105? Do I hear 105 for a pulse that has been running steadily for forty-seven years and never once stopped? Will you bid 105? Who'll make it 105?"

But no one made it 105. And a minute later the auctioneer was going—going—gone!—Exchange.

How Eskimo Women Die.

On her first entrance to her new hut of snow an Eskimo woman is buoyed by hope of welcoming a son. What of her last incoming to those narrow confines? She knows that the medicine man has decided that her sickness is mortal when she is laid upon her bed of snow. She gazes upon the feebly burning lamp beside her, upon food and drink set close at her hand. She sees her loved ones pass out of the doorway that needs no tunnel entrance to keep chill air away, for presently the door is sealed with snow. The chill of death pierces through her enveloping furs. Her tomb insures that no long tarrying will be hers. The soul, companionship with her, may refresh itself with food; but, starving and freezing, her feeble body will witness even that soul's departure and know that its hour has come to perish alone.—Harper's Bazar.

HEINZ always has been the leader in his line of products and here is his latest lead:
He uses fresh apples as a filler in making both strawberry and blackberry preserves.
The combination is a delicious surprise.
This combination is not used so much to cheapen the product, as to get the combined flavor of both fruits and yet it does lower the cost, considerably, for Heinz strawberry and blackberry and cherry preserves—PURE—sell at 90c and $1.00 per crock, while the combination sells at 75c PER CROCK.
Don't fail to order a crock of this, as you are sure to like it immensely.

Save money in baking

Thousands of housewives, many of them members of the famous Health Club of St. Louis, save money every baking day. Their success in making delicious biscuits, cakes and pastry is due to Health Club Baking Powder. They have no "bad luck bakings" because every spoonful of every can of is blended and tested by experts. It has the highest leavening power of any baking powder made. And so you see you need only use one little teaspoonful of Health Club when all other kinds require twice as much.

If you want to be a better cook, bake easier and save money, always ask your grocer for Health Club Baking Powder—the powder all good cooks use.

This little cottage has been reproduced a number of times and is especially suited to the needs of a small family. There are six rooms so arranged as to be easily taken care of. There is a large living room across the entire front. The living and dining rooms are finished in plain red oak, stained, and early English brown. The floors are of birch, finished natural. The dining room has a built in sideboard with high stained glass windows at each side. The exterior of this cottage is pleasing, sided to a belt course and shingled above. The shingles are stained brown, and siding and trimmings are white and the roof a moss green. Size 26 by 28 feet. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,200.

By special arrangement with me the editor of this paper will furnish one complete set of plans and specifications of design No. 837A for $15.

Johnny Kling's failure to join the Cubs has given Tom Needham plenty to do behind the bat.

The Pittsburg champions got a good start and it is evident that the National league teams will have to "go some" to down the Pirates.

Pitcher Oberlin, who had a trial with the Boston Red Sox three years ago, is now playing with the Washington team.

"Buck" Wheat has started the season with Brooklyn like a real big leaguer. He looks genuine to the fans of Dodgerville.

Robert L. (Bobby) Carruthers, Frank L. Genins, Edward Eckman and Thomas White have been appointed umpires in the Three-I league.

In a recent game Bayless, center fielder of the Atlanta team, made a single, double and three triples out of five times at bat.

Catcher Ossie Schreckengost has been sold by Columbus to Louisville. Schreck and "Rube" Waddell composed a star battery with the Athletics a few years ago.

Tunis F. Dean, the well known theatrical manager, has closed his season with the Blanch Bates company and joined the Toronto club. When it comes to the financial side of the theatrical and baseball business, the man who invented money hasn't anything on Tunis.

FINAL APPEAL ON CENSUS MATTER

CITIZENS URGED TO BE VERY SURE THAT THEY ARE INCLUDED IN COUNT.

WORK CLOSES SATURDAY

Wichita Falls' Population Will Be Determined Before End of This Week.

The following open letter was issued today by President Huff of the Chamber of Commerce: Ho the Citizens of Wichita Falls: The United States census is now being taken, and upon the result depends the official figures of our population for the next ten years. Every person living in this city is deeply concerned in having the enumeration full and complete. The census must be finished by Saturday night, April 30th, and it is very desirable that the name of every man, woman and child living in Wichita Falls on that date shall be included in the enumeration. The census takers and their districts are as follows: P. C. Maricle—beginning at the Wichita River on Lamar, thence south to Eleventh street, thence west to corporation line, including Floral Heights.

Louis B. Jenne—beginning at Adams and Ninth streets; thence southwest on Ninth to Lamar, thence southeast on Lamar to Wichita Valley railroad, thence southwest on Wichita Valley railroad to Broad, thence east to Mississippi, thence north to Waco, thence east to Virginia, thence north to Fort Worth, thence east to Holliday Creek, thence following the meanderings of Holliday Creek north to Barwise, thence west to California, thence north to East Lake, thence northwest following the west bank of East Lake to Ninth street, thence southwest on Ninth to Lamar, the starting point.

Clyde Maricle—beginning at the Wichita River on Lamar; thence south to Ninth street; thence east on Ninth street to the corporation limits.

H. T. Canfield—beginning at the corner of Lamar and Eleventh streets; thence south to the Wichita Valley railroad, thence west following the railroad and corporation line to R. E. Huff's residence.

W. F. Jourdan, acting as the representative of the Chamber of Commerce, is co-operating with these gentlemen in seeing that no name is omitted from the list.

For the welfare of our city, we earnestly ask that you assist in securing an accurate census. If you have not been counted, please write or telephone P. C. Maricle, telephone 437, or telephone 322, or call up the office of the Chamber of Commerce (telephone 390) and the census enumerator in your district will be notified to call at your residence. If you expect to be absent from home, secure a census blank from Mr. Jourdan and fill it out properly, leaving it at your residence to be given to the enumerator when he calls. Make it your business to see that you and every member of your family are counted and help us to "pull together" for the best interests of Wichita Falls.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, R. E. HUFF, President.

Some Important Questions.

Denver Post. Years ago woman was not allowed to solve the problems that touched the events of her life or the lives of her children. Now all is changed. She is credited with good sense, fine feelings and high judgment, and to her the questions that are stirring the world are offered; and, we are glad to say, are generally met with commendable feminine wisdom.

For every thinking woman there is a chance to consider vital points. There is your daughter who must be given a choice between marriage and business. Approach the weighing of this subject with an unbiased mind; you will be able to decide more clearly after reading the discussion. While we are on the discussion of children, there is a valuable hint about the most vexing time of the day—bed-time—a clever mother's scheme for tucking the little one in bed with smiles on its face.

The shopping evil ought to attract women by its forbidding sound. It holds an explanation and a condemnation; you must find for yourself which is emphasized. Then the call of the club is trumpeted forth in entertaining words, but underlying all there is the serious aspect of the club life of women.

Thanks be to the recognition and high ability of our American women, these important questions can be left to her. Through the alchemy of her mind they will pass and emerge in the clarified condition that is characteristic and necessary for good healthy action.

Just received a large shipment of the nicest screen doors ever seen in Wichita Falls. Be sure and see these before buying.

Leaving Cards

Chicago Tribune. There is always a sort of doubt, it seems, as to the proper number of cards to be left in calling. There was a time when callers were obliged, in some instances, to leave behind them veritable packages of cards. No matter how many of the members of a household were in society, a card must be left for every individual, and on the occasion of every call. Today card etiquette is so simplified that any woman can follow it without danger of serious mistakes.

The majority of calls between women are exchanged on their appointed days at home, and then the cards are left by the caller on a tray in the hall.

If the hostess' unmarried daughters receive with their mother the caller need not leave any cards for them, even though they are in society.

A feminine caller does not call upon the men, therefore she does not leave her card for them.

When a call is made without any previous assurance of finding the person called upon at home the caller usually takes the requisite number of cards from her case before ringing the doorbell. If the hostess is entertaining a sister, a friend, her mother or a married daughter at the time, the woman calling then takes out three of her own cards, and with these in her hand she awaits the servant. Should the servant reply "not at home" to her question, she hands the cards to him and goes on. If the answer is that the ladies are in the drawing room, she puts her cards on the tray in the hall as she passes in to greet her friends. When one goes en intime to see a friend on her day, it is not absolutely necessary to leave cards in the hall, but it is just as well to do so.

The Home Mission Society of the Methodist Church is going to present the Merchants' Carnival at the opera house Tuesday and Wednesday nights, May 3rd and 4th. All the leading business firms will be represented by young ladies in appropriate costumes. Fine drills, pretty costumes, good singing, good music, colored-light tableaux, together with many comic features will make up the evenings' programs. A great deal of interest is already awakened in the affair and it promises to be one of the most unique and successful entertainments ever given in the new opera house.

The fire alarm turned in at one o'clock this afternoon was caused by the burning of the chicken house on the premises of T. J. Taylor, corner Eleventh and Lamar. After clearing out the house, the negro man who was doing the work, concluded that it ought to be fumigated in order to rid it of insects detrimental to the raising of poultry, and the fire got beyond his control. The prompt response of the fire department saved the barn and other buildings adjoining. The damage is of little consequence.

The baseball team at Lake Wichita have arranged to go to Altus on May 6th for a series of three games with the Altus team, to be played on May 6th, 7th and 8th.
