THE HUDSPETH HEARING AT BOWIE, HIS BOND FIXED AT $6,000

Following is an account of the preliminary hearing given A. D. Hudspeth at Bowie one day this week, as taken from the Bowie Cross-Timbers:

"At the conclusion of a preliminary examination held in Bowie this week before Squire A. J. Mitchell of St. Jo, A. D. Hudspeth, charged, in conjunction with G. Alexandre, with swindling W. L. Moody & Company of Galveston, was held in the sum of $6,000 to appear before the grand jury of the July term of the district court at Montague. The first bond, set by Squire M. W. Minor at Montague, was $10,000. The names on the new bond are J. A. Ayres, C. R. Morgan, J. A. Deuman and P. N. Hudspeth.

"The case was taken up in the justice court room directly after dinner on Monday last, and, with one night session, continued until Wednesday afternoon.

"Quite a number of witnesses were heard, coming from Wichita Falls, Galveston and Bowie, their evidence filling forty-one typewritten pages. The Wichita Falls witnesses were used to establish the fact that four hundred or more bales of cotton were split at the Wichita Compress; that eight hundred bales (or packages) were made from them under the direction of A. D. Hudspeth and G. Alexandre; that the defendant and Alexandre, in the name of G. Alexandre, shipped these eight hundred split bales over the Katy to W. L. Moody and Company at Galveston. All of the minute details were brought out. W. L. Moody and Company's cashier was brought from Galveston and put on the stand. He testified that his firm took upon consignment the eight hundred bales of split cotton; that said cotton was represented to be of a stated grade, of average weight and density; that with this understanding by wire, together with the usual credentials by mail, he paid drafts against the eight hundred odd bales to the amount of $46,000; on these eight hundred split bales he placed an approximate value of $20,000; that his firm was swindled out of the difference.

"The attorneys for the defense were J. W. Chancellor of Bowie and W. S. Jameson of Montague. The prosecution was represented by County Attorney C. F. Spencer of Montague and Speer and Weldon of Bowie.

"The court room was crowded during the trial, the business men taking great interest in the proceedings."

PUPILS SERVE LUNCHEON.

Philadelphia School Girls Take Turns Waiting on Their Comrades.

"What shall public school pupils and teachers eat?" That is a question which bothered the minds of the members of the board of education. The committee on high schools for girls had, to its own satisfaction, solved the momentous question. In the opinion of the committee members the physical plays as important a part in the curriculum as the mental. In other words, the qualities of doughnuts and fudge are of as much moment as those of algebra and mathematics.

The plan is to control the luncheon arrangements in the school by the school itself, and a special committee was appointed to work out the scheme at the William Penn school. A "superintendent of luncheons" was engaged and, together with the "department of household science" in the school, the lunch question has been solved.

Each day two sets of girls from the cooking classes help in serving the lunch. Each girl is allowed daily ten cents in luncheon checks for this service, which is said to be voluntary. The luncheon service is entirely divorced from the control of the janitors and caretakers of the building. Two luncheons are served daily, one for the teaching staff, somewhat more extensive than that served for the girls.

A favorite combination lunch for the teachers consists of a 15-cent table d'hote service without a dessert, and 20-cent with a dessert. For 5 cents there is served one-fourth of a quart of soup and one roll, or two soda crackers.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

IOWA PARK BUDGET.

George Dunn is Accidentally Shot in the Leg.

Special to The Times.

Iowa Park, Tex., April 23.—Yesterday shortly after having started for an outing, Mr. George Dunn accidentally shot himself in the calf of the leg with a 22-rifle. The wound is painful, but not necessarily dangerous.

Mr. Walter Willard and Miss Ollie Hale were married Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Clements officiating. These are two of our most worthy and highly respected young people and we join their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

Mr. Schultz, who lives north of town, shipped a car of fat hogs Monday. About half of them were white.

Mr. Tuttle's bungalow is completed and is one of the neatest residences in town.

The Terhune & Company's gin will be replaced by a new four-stand plant. The old machinery has been already shipped away and much of the old building has been torn down.

The material for the new Methodist church is being hauled. The enterprise shown by this congregation is very commendable. The large, modern appointed building will be a credit to them and to the town.

Mr. Sisk, who recently moved here from Allendale, is building a very commodious residence on one of the most beautiful sites in town.

Rev. Morgan delivered an address at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon. The subject was: "Oddfellowship." The public was invited.

Memorial day is being fittingly observed here today with a program and decoration of graves.

The public school is preparing for its closing entertainments.

Mr. M. A. Small has moved to the residence he recently had built on his place near town.

The ladies of the Library Club will serve refreshments Friday afternoon at the Commercial Club room. The proceeds will go to buy more books.

EFFECTS OF COLOR BLINDNESS.

Grass and Scarlet Coat Are the Same Color to Some.

Dalton, the great chemist, said that diluted black ink on white paper gave a very similar appearance to him to the color of a florid complexion. Blood appeared to him very much like the color called bottle-green. Grass and a scarlet coat seemed to be the same color. He considered the face of a laurel leaf a good match for a stick of red sealing wax.

Babbage gives an amusing account of Dalton's presentation at court:

"Firstly, he was a Quaker, and would not wear the sword, which is an indispensable appendage of court dress. Secondly, the robe of a doctor of civil laws was known to be objectionable on account of its color—scarlet, one forbidden to Quakers. Luckily it was recollected that Dalton was afflicted with the peculiar color-blindness which bears his name, and that, as the cherries and the leaves of a cherry tree were to him of the same color, the scarlet gown would present to him no extraordinary appearance. So perfect, indeed, was the color-blindness that this most modest and simple of men, after having received the doctor's gown at Oxford, actually wore it for several days in happy unconsciousness of the effect he produced on the street."—Color-blindness and Its Dangers in the May Strand.

Milk Famine Threatens Boston.

Boston, Mass., April 23.—By the first of next week Milk street will be the only thing suggestive of the lactic fluid in Boston, if the plans of the Boston Co-operative Milk Producers' Association do not miscarry. The farmers all over New England have formed a close organization and have agreed to withdraw their milk from the Boston market after tomorrow, when the winter price agreements with the contractors will expire.

The farmer declares that on account of the cost of grain, the increased wages for help and other expenses that he can no longer stand the customary summer reduction in the price of milk. In other words, he demands that the winter rate must be maintained throughout the year and declares that unless the contractors agree to his terms Boston will stand a good chance of being so dry May 1st that her people will have to drink the sea water.

For Safe and Sane Football.

Philadelphia, April 23.—The fourteen members of the intercollegiate football rules committee assembled at the University Club in this city today to wrestle again with the difficult problem of eliminating from the gridiron game those features of play that have jeopardized life and limb. At the recent meeting in New York the committee practically agreed upon modifications in respect to most of the objectionable points of the game, the use of the forward pass being the only important point left unsettled. The general feeling appears to be that the forward pass will be retained in an improved form, with most of the red tape and delays abolished.

Racing to Begin at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., April 23.—Quartered at the Association track here are scores of fast horses who are to furnish the sport at the first of this year's meetings of the Kentucky State Racing Association, which will open tomorrow and continue through the coming week, to be followed by the meetings at Louisville and Latonia. About fifteen starters are expected in the Kentucky Futurity, which will be the feature event of the opening day.

New American Club in London.

London, April 23.—The American Universities Club of London has been opened to provide "a home when abroad for North American university men." The club starts its career with a resident and non-resident membership of between 600 and 700. Among its patrons are Lord Strathcona, Lord Castletown, Lord Brassey, Sir Gilbert Parker, Sir Ernest Shackleton and Sir Henry Norman.

To Sell Rockefeller Home.

Great Barrington, Mass., April 23.—The old home of the Rockefeller family in Muddybrook, a suburb of this city, is to be sold at auction tomorrow. The house, which was at one time the home of John D. Rockefeller's father, is now a part of the estate of the late Cyrus Avery, and is being disposed of by the executors.

"OTHER ATTRIBUTES."

Editor Review: My attention has been called to the following editorial in the Wichita Daily Times:

"James T. Denton's plan to take the headquarters of the Commercial Clubs Association away from Wichita Falls is a lovely one. The Times favors voting him a pewter medal for his ingenuity, resourcefulness and the other attributes that made him the greatest secretary Henrietta ever had."

This is characteristic of Wichita Falls and its newspaper exponents. They gloat over our misfortunes. Our adversity they roll as a sweet morsel under their tongues. I verily believe that if we should lose our colored population, or even our municipal debts, they would rejoice exceedingly and smite their thighs in ecstasy. It is very surprising indeed, that they recognize any good coming out of Nazareth. "Ingenuity, resourcefulness and other attributes" are good Noah Webster words, but the last one is rather indefinite. The Times should have cut it up into specific chunks so we could digest and assimilate it more thoroughly. Some of the critical ones may take advantage of this general and comprehensive word "attributes" and say Jimmie had cheek and gall, money, brains, diplomacy, graft or a hundred other things that can be found in an able secretary. We should call upon that paper to thoroughly explain itself. If it means well for our wandering boy, he should be "taken in and done for" a la the Golden Rule. If they are trying to drive him back to Henrietta we should get out an injunction, or have them arrested for cruelty to animals.

James T. is a Boomer.
An enterprise getter:
We love him still,
The stiller the better.
—Old Timer, in Henrietta Review.

At any rate, in appointing Gov. Hughes to the supreme bench the president removed the governor from the field for the presidential nomination.

The insurgents voted with the democrats on amendments to the railroad bill and one democrat, Congressman Russell of Texas, voted with the administration forces.

The continued dry weather has no doubt done great injury to wheat and oat crops, but this calamity does not seem to have had much effect upon the activity of things generally in and around Wichita Falls, and the year 1910 will be a record breaker for the city in the way of building, increased population and securing of manufacturing enterprises. Wichita county farmers have long ago ceased to depend upon wheat and oats as their main crop, and since that time their farm lands have more than doubled in value. They have discovered that diversified farming is the best plan, and at this time when there are at least double the population in the country districts as compared to five or six years ago, the acreage to wheat and oat crop, are now plowing and it was then. Many farmers, who have already given up hope of the wheat and oat crop, are now plowing and preparing their fields for cotton and other crops which have ample time to be planted, cultivated and matured before frost falls. In this way, the dread of a small grain crop failure does not scare them half as bad as formerly, and in fact some farmers have ceased altogether planting wheat and oat crops, except just a few acres.

Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas continues to smile while candidates announce for the place now held by him. The latest entry is Congressman Joe Robinson, ex-Congressman Brundage being already an avowed candidate and the friends of Gov. Donaghey pushing him into the race. The opposition to Davis will have to center on one man to have a show to defeat him. He is a stem-winder in a campaign from away up the creek. The election will not be held until 1912.

A woman suffragist is credited with the statement that in a few years it will be regarded as much of a disgrace to be the father of ten or a dozen children as it is now to be a drunkard. This statement is no doubt made with the full knowledge that Theodore Roosevelt is not in the United States. But he is coming back.

The Arkansas Gazette estimates the loss to crops in Arkansas from the recent cold weather in the neighborhood of one million dollars. Those fine strawberries for which Arkansas is famous were damaged considerably. The peach crop was also damaged.

The city of Little Rock and the State of Arkansas are to be congratulated upon securing the next meeting of the Confederate reunion for Little Rock. Texas helped to land the meeting for Little Rock and Texas will send her share to the meeting.

The only thing Wichita Falls is behind on is some person to come forward and claim to have been up early enough to have stayed out late enough to see the comet.

The census man is still after those who are hard to catch.

WOUNDED MAY RECOVER.

Details of Midnight Affair at Hempstead Learned.

Texas News Service Special, Hempstead, April 29.—Unless complications set in the physicians today announced that Sheriff J. J. Perry, who was wounded late last night in the duel between Aaron B. Shannon and Clarence Pool, will recover. Shannon and Pool are both dead. W. J. Pool, father of Clarence was today arrested. It is alleged that young Pool started firing at Shannon, his brother-in-law who yesterday filed suit for divorce. Shannon was shot in the back while making for the train going to Navasota. Pool was armed with a shot gun. The H. & T. C. station platform was crowded with people when the shooting took place. This was the signal for a general fusillade. Three passengers were hit. Shannon's body was sent to Independence today for burial. The funeral of Pool will take place late this afternoon.

Mexican Laborer is Victim of Accident at Del Rio.

Texas News Service Special, Del Rio, Tex., April 29.—Leandro Baldiles was instantly killed and Jose Guerrero seriously injured today, when the north wall of a warehouse fell upon them. They and six other men were working on the wall, which gave way, due to the crumbling of the fresh concrete foundation. The other men escaped. Baldiles leaves a wife and several children.

J. B. Marlow and Myles O'Reilly Back From Trip.

J. B. Marlow and Myles O'Reilly returned last night from Sapulpa, Okla., where they went as the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce to attend the opening of the new Kentner brick plant in that city. I. H. Kentner, who built the Sapulpa plant, will establish a plant in this city as soon as cheap gas is available. Mr. Marlow states that the plant is a splendid one, with a capacity of 150,000 brick per day. Mr. Kentner, he said, was well pleased with Wichita Falls and intended to make this city his home if he built a plant here. Matters in Oklahoma towns are reported very lively, although the corn and wheat crops are both in bad shape.

Parisian Sage Stops Falling Hair and Makes it Grow, or Money Back.

People who are not using Parisian Sage are not using the best, most delightful and refreshing hair grower and tonic in the world.

Parisian Sage is the big seller nowadays because when once tried no one ever goes back to the ordinary commercial tonics.

Read this: Mrs. Alberta Van Hise, 725 Monmouth St., Trenton, N. J., on Oct. 14, 1909, wrote: "I have used Parisian Sage, and can say, safely, that it has been very beneficial to my hair, stopping my hair from falling out and curing dandruff and making my hair much thicker and nicer."

"Last summer I had the measles and my hair came out in handfuls; I thought I would have to have it cut off. I got a bottle of Parisian Sage, used it, and it saved me from having my hair cut off."

Parisian Sage is sold by druggist everywhere and by the Weeks Drug Co., and is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itchy scalp in two weeks or money back. It makes women's hair bewitching, lustrous and uriant. Big bottle for 50 cents; mail orders filled, charges prepaid by American Makers, Glouco Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sweden Awaits Roosevelt.
Stockholm, April 29.—Intense interest is displayed by all classes in Theodore Roosevelt's visit to Stockholm next week, and great preparations are being made for his reception. The Swedish government plans to receive the former President of the United States with the highest honors. The American colony is preparing to welcome him and the literary, philosophical and scientific bodies, all desire to entertain him.

From all indications Stockholm will be as lavishly decorated in honor of Colonel Roosevelt as on the occasion of the recent visit to the city of the Russian and British rulers. In anticipation of an unusual demand the local dealers have laid in immense supplies of American flags and red, white and blue bunting. One of the chief features of the decorative scheme will be a handsome welcome arch to be erected at the entrance of Fredsgaten, a short distance from the railway station. The aldermen have voted the money for the arch and also for the decoration of many of the streets and public buildings.

Owing to the absence of King Gustave in the South of France the Roosevelt party will be officially entertained by Crown Prince Christian, who is acting as Regent. Upon arrival at the Stockholm Central Station the party will be received by Minister Graves and the attaches of the American legation. The Swedish government will probably be represented by Baron Trolle, the foreign minister, and several other high officials, while General Varberg, the governor of Stockholm, will be on hand to extend the municipal greeting.

The Roosevelt party will ride in the royal carriages to the palace, where they are to be entertained at luncheon. The way will lead through Strandvagen, the fashionable promenade of Stockholm, and through other streets which will be gayly decorated in honor of the occasion.

Former President Roosevelt will find much to interest him in the royal palace, a stately edifice built in the seventeenth century and little remodelled since then. It is beautifully situated at the head of the lake and its Hill, opposite the North Bridge. The Crown Prince and Princess occupy one portion of the palace, the King and Queen the rest. Though the state apartments are spacious and well furnished, they are without show and ostentation. The private apartments are filled with valuable books, pictures, casts and tapestries collected by the late King Oscar, who was famous for his learning, his love for science and his taste in art. The most valuable of the furnishings in the royal apartments is a collection brought from the Orient. Of great interest to Colonel Roosevelt and his son will be the immense billiard room occupying a part of one of the upper floors of the palace. This room is filled with trophies of the hunt collected by King Gustave, who is a great lover of outdoor sport. There are hundreds of deer heads, bears, moose and crocodiles.

Though the duration of their stay in Stockholm will be short it is expected that the Roosevelt party will find time to visit many of the interesting places in and about the city. They will doubtless inspect the National Museum and the Northern Museum, both of which are famous throughout Europe. Visits will be paid to the principal government buildings, all of which are spacious and many exceedingly beautiful. Two handsome buildings completed not long since are those occupied by the National Diet and the National Bank. These buildings show the wonderful strides Swedish architecture has made during the last two decades.

Connecticut League's Season.
New Haven, Conn., April 29.—The championship season of the Connecticut Baseball League opened today with Waterbury playing at New Britain, Hartford at Holyoke, Springfield at Northampton, and Bridgeport in New Haven. The prospects are bright for one of the most successful seasons in the history of the organization. The circuit remains the same as last year, though several notable changes have been made in the club owners, managers and players. The Bridgeport club, formerly controlled by the veteran Jim O'Rourke, is now piloted by Gene McGinn, formerly of Jersey City. Mike Finn, formerly of Little Rock, is the new manager of the Waterbury team. The league will play a season of 140 games, with September 10 as the closing date.

Cannon to Speak in Boston.
Washington, D. C., April 29.—Speaker Cannon is going to Boston tomorrow to speak at the Grant Day banquet of the Middlesex Club in that city. It is said here that "Uncle Joe" intends to take advantage of the occasion to pour some hot shot into members of congress and others who have recently incurred his displeasure by their criticisms.
