IN SOCIETY'S REALM

Before it is too late. If you have a gray-haired mother In the old home far away, Sit you down and write the letter You put off from day to day: Don't wait until her weary steps Reach heaven's pearly gate, But show her that you think of her Before it is too late.

If you have a tender message, Or a loving word to say, Don't wait till you forget it, But whisper it today. Who knows what bitter memories May haunt you if you wait? So make your loved one happy Before it is too late.

The tender word unspoken, The letters never sent, The long-forgotten messages, The wealth of love unspent; For these same hearts are breaking, For these some loved ones wait; Show them that you care for them Before it is too late.

TO MY MOTHER.
May 8, 1916.

Today all over the nation, Goes forth a mighty throng, Voicing their laudation, With flowers and with song. They are taking to their mothers The story ever new; It is sweeter than all others, "My Mother, I love you."

And you, oh mother dear of mine, Are far away from me, Down where the Southern soughing pine Keeps vigil by the sea. You sit with blinded eyes and wait— The winged one who'll come To take you through the pearly gate That leads to Light and Home.

You sit with patient folded hands Deeming your life work done; You welcome life's fast slipping sands And wait the guerdon won. You long for loved ones gone before, You long for fadeless blooms; You long to reach the farther shore Which holds no nights—no toms.

Oh precious mother, waiting there Down where the Jasmine blooms, I fain would kneel beside your chair While these flowers bloom; I fain would kneel at tombs. And would tell you of your worth, And how your sympathy In darkest hours have given birth To strains of melody.

But as I may not go I send These blossoms pure and white, And dream I see you o'er them bend To read their message right. And while you drink their fragrance sweet I pray you wing a prayer, That once again on earth we'll meet Before we meet "Up There."

DEAR LADIES

It's Parisian Sage That Makes That Other Woman's Hair So Bewitchingly Lustrous.

When we say that Parisian Sage is the most wonderful hair tonic, dressing and beautifier known to mankind, we are simply stating a fact that you can easily prove.

Get a large 50 cent bottle today; use it for two weeks; if it isn't the most delightful and refreshing tonic you ever used; if it doesn't drive out dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp, you can have your money back.

Mrs. Francis Koegel, 41 West Jessamine St., St. Paul, Minn., on Nov. 16, 1909, wrote: "I have used several hair tonics, but there is none that can compare with Parisian Sage.

"It cured my falling hair and dandruff, and it does not only cure those troubles, but it is the best hair grower in the world."

Parisian Sage is creating a sensation wherever introduced. It is not sticky or greasy. It is in great demand by women of superior taste and refinement who desire fascinating and luxuriant hair that never falls to compel admiration.

To Observe "Mothers' Day."
Washington, D. C., May 7.—The governors of nearly all the states of the Union and the mayors of many of the chief cities of the country have issued proclamations requesting a general observance of "Mothers' Day" tomorrow, when homage shall be paid to the mothers whose lives have been full of denial and self-sacrifice for their sons and daughters.

Starting in 1908, the idea being that of a Philadelphia woman, Miss Anna Jarvis, the movement has grown with remarkable rapidity, until this year its observance will be nationwide, and hope is expressed that it will soon become an international festival date, observed by Christians the world over and possibly by Moslem and heathen—for it is the one subject on which all mankind can unite in common reverence.

FRATERNALISM

The following is an extract from an address delivered by C. B. McConnell, consul of Wichita Falls Camp No. 12006 Modern Woodmen of America, at a joint entertainment recently given by the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of this city:

"The United States of America is a great country—a country, be it said, where there are more secret fraternal societies with a larger aggregate membership than in all other civilized countries on the face of the globe, and chief among the societies is the M. W. A. To win such success as the M. W. A. has attained is unprecedented in the history of fraternalism, which, in itself, embraces all the best and most admirable history of civilization of the past twenty centuries.

"To fully appreciate our marvelous success and to comprehend how wonderful is our society's present average increase of about 14,000 new members per month, it is only necessary to say that in the United States there are something over three hundred other fraternal benefit societies. A great number of these societies were thoroughly organized and were enshrined in the hearts of millions of our American citizens when our society was born on January 5th, 1883, at Lyons, Clinton County, Iowa.

"There must be merit in a plan of protection that commanded, and still commands, increasing success in such a well filled field; there must be more than merit, for all fraternal societies are meritorious in a greater or less measure. The M. W. A. must be superior to all, else it would not at this time, when only twenty-seven years of age, stand like a young giant, head and shoulders above its seniors and attract double the amount of new members monthly than even the most popular of the other fraternalities.

"The secret of our success lies in our thoroughly representative form of government, our distinctly American camp ceremonial and ritual, the broadness of our fraternal teachings, the liberality of our plan of protection, our perfect harmony, our superb organization, our unexcelled system of field work and the unexcelled ability and honesty and economy of our management, which shows a per capita expense of management fifty per cent less than any other society of like magnitude in the world wide.

"The members of the M. W. A. absolutely rule the society, a one-man organization, no council of ten to meet behind closed doors—deaf to all appeals; every move is made in the broad light of day.

"The members are free; nay, more welcome, to walk into their head office at any time and examine all books, all records there on file. The officers are but servants to the members; theirs to command in every service, looking to the promotion of the society's interests.

"During the twenty-seven years of Woodcraft's existence there has been paid to beneficiaries over eighty-nine millions of dollars. If this sum was all in silver dollars and piled up one on top of the other, it would make a stack 127 miles high.

This society is now paying death losses at the rate of a little more than $720,000 a month. This means $168,000 a week, $24,000 a day, $1,000 an hour and $16 a minute, or, every time one's watch ticks four times, day or night, Sunday included, this great society is dropping silver dollars in the lap of a widow or orphan of a deceased member.

"Great indeed are the wonderful things that can be accomplished through the co-operation of a million men who love their homes.

"Here let me pause long enough to quote what is probably the last words penned for publication by the late Grover Cleveland. As the words of a man with the broad experience of our late president, they should impress the most thoughtless. Mr. Cleveland wrote: "It is a regrettable fact that there are still so many bread winners in this country who, through carelessness, neglect or procrastination, carry no life insurance for the protection of their families. With the facilities afforded by sound, trustworthy American life insurance companies, I can scarcely understand how any prudent, sensible man, engaged in active work or business and not possessing an assured income and fortune, should fail to protect himself and those dependent upon him, with a reasonable amount of life insurance. It seems to me that to do this is but to discharge a duty imperatively suggested by intelligent foresight and wise precaution."

"I believe you will all agree with Mr. Cleveland that we should all throw some protection around our homes and our loved ones.

"And now I would like for you to agree with me when I say you can find no better plan of protection than that offered by the Modern Woodmen of America. I would like to interest you in our society to such an extent that every gentleman present would make application for membership in the Modern Woodmen, and that every lady present would make application for membership in the Royal Neighbors' Association. The R. N. A. is the auxiliary of the Modern Woodmen of America and, as it has duplicated the Modern Woodmen in success in almost every particular, I can assure you that just as many good things can be said of that society as has been said of the Modern Woodmen.

"In order to do this, I want to take a few minutes of your time in telling you about some of the workings of our order:

"In the first place, let me say we have three funds, namely: The benefit fund, the general fund and the sanitarium fund. The benefit fund is created by the payment of your monthly assessment, the amount of such assessment per $1,000 being regulated or determined according to your age at the time of joining the society. This fund is used for no other purpose than that of paying death claims, so, you see, when a man who joins the society at the age of twenty-five, pays his assessment of $1.00 on a $2,000 certificate, he knows to a certainty that one hundred cents of that dollar goes direct into the home of some deceased Woodman. The general fund is created by a per capita tax of $1.00 a year, which amount is paid out of our local camp's general fund. This fund is used in defraying the running expenses of the order. The sanitarium fund is created by the payment of the local camp general fund the sum of 20 cents per member per year, making our total per capita tax $1.20 per year, which, as I have stated, is paid out of the local camp's general fund. The sanitarium fund is used in maintaining our sanitarium for consumptives of the order, this sanitarium being located near Colorado Springs, Colo., at which place we own 1,000 acres of land under irrigation, and any member of our society who is suffering with that dread disease—tuberculosis, may go there and be treated without a cent of expense to himself or family; and, while it may seem incredulous to those who have given the matter but little thought, our staff of physicians are continuously effecting cures from the great white plague. And, friends, when I read in our official paper letters written by the members who have been cured, letters such as: "how they left their homes in health and in spirits," and "Feed! Feed! Feed! That dreaded monster—consumption—attended deep in their flesh, sapped, as it were, their very life blood away; and how later on they were dismissed from the sanitarium well and strong; when I read these letters of thanks and expressions of gratitude for what the Modern Woodmen have done for them in their hopeless condition, it makes my heart swell with pride to know that I, as a Modern Woodman, have been instrumental, in a small degree, in restoring these neighbors back to health and in sending them back to their homes—homes that are made doubly happy by the seemingly miraculous rescue from the grave.

"The Modern Woodmen of America are doing a wonderful amount of good. They are not only administering to the wants of the members, but providing protection for their families and loved ones, as well. As a society, it has opened up new avenues in the fraternal world; it is reaching out and grasping every good thing that comes within its reach and is converting every honorable and possible means to the achievement of its beneficent objects. The lessons taught in our camp rooms are the self-same lessons taught by the Lowly Nazarene when He said to His disciples: 'Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself.' There is being instilled into the hearts of our million members the beautiful lesson of 'The Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God.'

"This, friends, is the lesson being taught in 14,000 camp rooms of the Modern Woodmen of America. "Woodcraft in the past has been a series of successes. "With a membership of more than a million intelligent, law-abiding, true American citizens, there need be no dark forebodings for the future.

"The Modern Woodmen of America have performed every duty they have been called upon to perform; they have risen equal to every occasion. "When the first note of alarm of the Spanish-American war was sounded they declared their true American spirit by notifying the members that if they died for their country's sake their certificates would be paid and compelled every other fraternity to follow their patriotic lead in this respect.

"The M. W. A. lodge has never faltered nor turned aside from its chosen sphere, but has constantly enlarged its sphere. Its destiny is world-wide; it's duty is to the people of no one country, but in the years to come it will administer to all; its basic principles will endure forever, because

Before it is too late.
If you have a gray-haired mother
In the old home far away,
Sit you down and write the letter.
You put off from day to day;
Don't wait until her weary steps
Reach heaven's pearly gate,
But show her that you think of her
Before it is too late.

If you have a tender message,
Or a loving word to say,
Don't wait till you forget it,
But whisper it today.
Who knows what bitter memories
May haunt you if you wait?
So make your loved one happy
Before it is too late.

The tender word unspoken,
The letters never sent,
The long-forgotten messages,
The wealth of love unspent;
For these same hearts are breaking,
For there some loved ones wait;
Show them that you care for them
Before it is too late.

TO MY MOTHER.
May 8, 1916.

Today all over the nation,
Goes forth a mighty throng,
Violating their laudation,
With flowers and with song.
They are taking to their mothers
The story ever new;
It is sweeter than all others,
"My Mother, I love you."

And you, oh mother dear of mine,
Are far away from me,
Down where the Southern soothing pine
Keeps vigil by the sea.
You sit with blinded eyes and wait
The winged one who'll come
To take you through the pearly gate
That leads to Light and Home.

You sit with patient folded hands
Deeming your life work done;
You welcome life's fast slipping sands
And wait the guerdon won.
You long for loved ones gone before,
You long for fadeless blooms;
You long to reach the farther shore
Which holds no nights—no toms.

Oh precious mother, waiting there
Down where the Jasmine blooms,
I fain would kneel beside your chair
While they kneel at toms.
You would tell you of your worth,
And how your sympathy
In darkest hours have given birth
To strains of melody.

But as I may not go I send
These blossoms pure and white,
And dream I see you o'er them bend
To read their message right.
And while you drink their fragrance sweet
I pray you wing a prayer,
That once again on earth we'll meet
Before we meet "Up There."

A few of the young people enjoyed a delightful picnic supper at Lake Wichita Monday evening. It was an informal affair and everyone present spent a delightful evening.

Those in the party were: Misses Sadie, Willie Mae and Carrie Kell, Esther Goraline, Miss Francis Dixon, Sibyl, Jewel and Flora Kemp, Margaret Priddy, Messrs Britton Gould, McClasson, Fox, Newton and Claude Maer, and Mr. and Mrs. Lowery.

The "500" club was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Walker at her home on Scott avenue. While the meeting was very informal, it was thoroughly delightful, each guest being made to feel at home, and being given such an open and cordial welcome, the spirit of good fellowship and congeniality immediately filled every heart, and the afternoon was full of unusual social pleasure.

After spending some time in playing "500" the hostess served an ice course. In a cut, Mrs. Du Val was given the favor, a beautiful hand-painted picture.

Mrs. Shepperd was hostess to the Young Ladies' Club on Saturday afternoon at her home, 707 Scott avenue.

After being delightfully welcomed the guests were invited to play "42" and "500," which game they enjoyed for several hours.

FRATERNALISM

The following is an extract from an address delivered by C. B. McConnell, consul of Wichita Falls Camp No. 12006 Modern Woodmen of America, at a joint entertainment recently given by the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of this city:

"The United States of America is a great country—a country, be it said, where there are more secret fraternal societies with a larger aggregate membership than in all other civilized countries on the face of the globe, and chief among the societies is the M. W. A. To win such success as the M. W. A. has attained is unprecedented in the history of fraternalism, which, in itself, embraces all the best and most admirable history of civilization of the past twenty centuries.

"To fully appreciate our marvelous success and to comprehend how wonderful is our society's present average increase of about 14,000 new members per month, it is only necessary to say that in the United States there are something over three hundred other fraternal benefit societies. A great number of these societies were thoroughly organized and were enshrined in the hearts of millions of our American citizens when our society was born on January 5th, 1883, at Lyons, Clinton County, Iowa.

"There must be merit in a plan of protection that commanded, and still commands, increasing success in such a well-filled field; there must be more than merit, for all fraternal societies are meritorious in a greater or less measure. The M. W. A. must be superior to all, else it would not at this time, when only twenty-seven years of age, stand like a young giant, head and shoulders above its seniors and attract double the amount of new members monthly than even the most popular of the other fraternities.

"The secret of our success lies in our thoroughly representative form of government, our distinctly American camp ceremonial and ritual, the broadness of our fraternal teachings, the liberality of our plan of protection, our perfect harmony, our superb organization, our unexcelled system of field work and the unexcelled ability and honesty and economy of our management, which shows a per capita expense of management fifty per cent less than any other society of like magnitude in the wide world.

"The members of the M. W. A. absolutely rule the society. There is no one-man organization, no council of ten to meet behind closed doors—dead to all appeals; every move is made in the broad light of day.

"The members are free; nay, more welcome, to walk into their head office at any time and examine all books, all records there on file. The officers are but servants to the members; theirs to command in every service, looking to the promotion of the society's interests.

"During the twenty-seven years of Woodcraft's existence there has been paid to beneficiaries over eighty-nine millions of dollars. If this sum was all in silver dollars and piled up one on top of the other, it would make a stack 127 miles high.

This society is how paying death losses at the rate of a little more than $720,000 a month. This means $168,000 a week, $24,000 a day, $1,000 an hour and $16 a minute, or, every time one's watch ticks four times, day or night, Sunday included, this great society is dropping silver dollars in the lap of a widow or orphan of a deceased member.

"Great indeed are the wonderful things that can be accomplished through the co-operation of a million men who love their homes.

"Here let me pause long enough to quote what is probably the last words penned for publication by the late Grover Cleveland. As the words of a man with the broad experience of our late president, they should impress the most thoughtless. Mr. Cleveland wrote:

"It is a regrettable fact that there are still so many bread winners in this country who, through carelessness, neglect or procrastination, carry no life insurance for the protection of their families. With the facilities afforded by sound, trustworthy American life insurance companies, I can scarcely understand how any prudent, sensible man, engaged in active work or business and not possessing an assured income and fortune, should fail to protect himself and those dependent upon him, with a reasonable amount of life insurance. It seems to me that to do this is but to discharge a duty imperatively suggested by intelligent foresight and wise precaution.

"I believe you will all agree with Mr. Cleveland that we should all throw some protection around our homes and our loved ones.

"And now I would like for you to agree with me when I say you can find no better plan of protection than that offered by the Modern Woodmen of America. I would like to interest you in our society to such an extent

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity
—Tonight and Sunday, partly cloudy weather.

With Dr. Rankin supporting Johnson and Dr. Gambrell espousing the cause of Poindexter, the statewidens seem hopelessly divided on the gubernatorial question, and those who vote for either will do so without much hope of seeing their favorite elected. With such a condition confronting the statewide forces, thousands will refuse to vote for either and line up for either Davidson or Colquitt. Dr. Gambrell succeeded Sterling P. Strong as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, while Dr. Rankin is the editor of Home and State, and one of the most able pulpit orators of the state. Both have their following.

A fine of five hundred dollars can be inflicted on any proprietor of a hotel or rooming house who refuses to give to the census enumerators the names of all guests, or who makes statements that are afterwards proven incorrect. It might be well then to bear this in mind when the enumerators call around, as Uncle Samuel is not one to be dilly-dallied with, and if the enumerators are so disposed, can cause those who fail or refuse to answer questions considerable trouble.

Just now a good soaking fall of rain to the amount of an inch or two would be more welcome than if all of the candidates for governor would pay us a visit in one day. When we have bumper crops, there is not much time left after caring for them, to discuss politics and politicians, and such a thing as election for governor would not attract so much attention.

The Wichita Falls Broom Manufacturing Company of this city, received an order today for a car load of brooms from a firm at Los Angeles, California.

POOR OLD-FA.

The marriage of Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt Tuesday to Lieut. Reginald Owen of the British army recalls the first marriage of the bride. She was then 18 years of age and a schoolgirl when the love affair of an artist twice her age occurred. It was in all probability one of those delightfully romantic affairs of the very girlish girl that are usually stopped from one to twenty times in the life of every pretty girl. But this one refused to end in spite of the efforts of a father. The marriage ended as he predicted it would.

Volumes of romance are filled with tales of cruel and sordid fathers, who for insufficient reasons, refuse to their daughters permission to marry the perfectly worthy men of their choice. Along about chapter ten the girl in the case usually leaves her father in his wrath and is married. Of course, it turns out just at the last that her lover, as a matter of fact, was merely in disguise and not a street car conductor at all, but the Crown Prince of Spaghetti. In the book, the girl always leaves father in his unjust wrath. When she returns with the noble prince and the simple villagers gather about the depot with brass bands father relents.

In real life, however, she often leaves a broken hearted old man who gave the best years of his life to provide for her future of which he would be proud. While she was making mud pies he was working overtime that his dreams of her happiness might not fade into thin air. About her baby form all the romance of his life was entwined. He knew men and he knew the world. He could look a man in the eye and tell without the assistance of a detective agency just what kind of a man he was, and if he opposed the match it was because his daughter's interests were near his own heart. In real life she runs away and finds after it is too late that pa did have a little sense after all. If she ever gets back it is most frequently but to stab his crushed hopes fatally with the sight of a shadow of his former blithesome little fairy.

Fiction hasn't given father a square deal.—San Antonio Express.

Berlin Ready for Roosevelt Week.
Berlin, May 7.—Elaborate arrangements are being rapidly carried out for the welcome here of Theodore Roosevelt the first of next week. They are on truly a magnificent scale. In addition to the royal audiences, official visits, receptions and banquets which have attended the former president's visits to other European capitals, there will be a number of events affording opportunity for brilliant spectacular effects.

The most reliable newspapers here freely express the opinion that Col. Roosevelt's visit will mark a long step toward the further strengthening of the cordial relations between Germany and the United States. There have always been many influential Germans who have entertained real affection for the United States and who have deplored the little tariff quarrels and misunderstandings which have sometimes marred the relations between Germany and the great American republic. But even these persons are surprised at the effusive compliments which the Berlin press is already showering upon Colonel Roosevelt and the official preparations that are being made to give the distinguished visitor a magnificent reception.

To Explain New Kind of Matter.
London, May 7.—English scientists are looking forward with keen interest to the lecture to be given next week at the Royal Institution by Prof. William H. Bragg of Adelaide University on the new form of matter of radiations from radium, which, according to Prof. Bragg, are neither solid, liquid nor gas, and yet are matter. The professor declares that the particles shot out incessantly by radio-active substances travel with a velocity of 10,000 miles a second and pass straight through any other substance they may encounter.

WITH THE FIGHTERS.
Ray Bronson and Jack Redmond will clash in Anderson, Ind., May 17. The Army A. A. of Boston expects to clinch a match between Jimmy Walsh and Pal Moore for May 17. From the stories floating from the Jeffries camp, it is hard to tell whether the big fellow is getting ready for a fight or the hospital.

For his end of the recent Philadelphia bout, Stanley Ketchel received $9,375, while Sam Langford took down $5,625. Soft money for a six-round muss.

To Be Tried for Bath Tub Murder.

Newark, N. J., May 7.—Interest in the mysterious death of Mrs. O. C. Wardlaw Martin Snead at East Orange N. J., in November last has been revived by the near approach of the date set for the opening of the trial of Miss Virginia O. Wardlaw, Mrs. Caroline B. Martin and Mrs. Mary W. Snead, who are charged with the murder of the victim of the famous bathtub tragedy. The case has been called for trial on Wednesday of next week and there is every indication that the case will be strongly fought and will go down in the annals of criminal history as one of the most puzzling and peculiar cases ever known in this country.

Mrs. Okey Snead was found dead in the bathtub of the house No. 89 West Fourteenth street, East Orange, on November 29, 1909, and so peculiar were the circumstances surrounding her death that the authorities began an investigation to ascertain the true facts in the case. In the afternoon of November 29 some woman called up the police of East Orange, asking for the address of the coroner. When the woman was informed that there were no coroners in New Jersey, she informed the police that a woman had committed suicide in No. 89 West Fourteenth street. Dr. H. M. Simmons, one of the deputy county physicians was sent to the house and found the body of the young woman in the bathtub. The tub was full of water and the entire body of the woman was submerged. At first the physician did not suspect that there was anything wrong, especially as he found pinned to the clothes of the woman, a note stating that she had committed suicide. Closer investigation convinced him, however, that the woman had been dead more than twenty-four hours. As the bathroom was the only one in the house it seemed strange that the body had not been found sooner. The explanations offered by the three women in the house did not satisfy the physician, and upon his report a careful investigation was begun by the police authorities.

It was ascertained that the victim of the tragedy and her aunt, Miss Virginia Wardlaw, had moved into the house on West Fourteenth street ten days before the finding of the body. They had no furniture excepting a cot and a soap box, which served as a table. The two women had no money and had subsisted on milk, biscuits and a few oranges. The investigation was continued and an amazing mass of material was brought to light. It appeared that the three women indicted for the murder of Okey Snead were near relatives of the victim. The aunt of the dead woman, Miss Virginia Wardlaw, comes from a well connected Southern family and at one time was president of Soule College, at Murfreesboro, Tenn., and later a member of the faculty of Roanoke College, Salem, Va. The exact circumstances which led to the decline of the family fortunes are not known, but it seems that Miss Virginia Wardlaw, accompanied by Mrs. Caroline B. W. Martin, the mother of Okey and Mrs. Mary W. Snead, mother of Okey Snead's husband, Fletcher W. Snead, came to New York some years ago probably in the hope of recovering their fortune. At first they lived at the Waldorf-Astoria, later at the Manhattan Hotel, but as their funds began to run low, they rented a modest house in Flatbush. After two months they moved to an even less pretentious house in Brooklyn and after a few weeks to the house, in East Orange. What became of Okey's husband has not yet been definitely ascertained. He was not seen for a long time and his next of kin pretend to know nothing of his whereabouts.

It has been ascertained that the women have been in a desperate financial condition for several years and have borrowed from many wealthy persons, giving their notes as security. As a strong moment of suspicion is considered the fact that the life of the victim of the bathtub tragedy was insured in ten companies for an aggregate of $32,000. The insurance companies at first suspected that the body of the young woman in the bathtub was not that of Okey Snead, but the body was positively identified by several persons, among them by the doctor who had treated Okey Snead when her baby, which died about a year ago, was born. Another strange feature is the fact that six or seven wills purporting to have been signed by Okey Snead, and making her aunt and some other relatives the beneficiaries.

Notwithstanding their poverty, the three accused women have been able to obtain most able counsel. Miss Virginia Wardlaw will be defended by Franklin W. Fort, the son of Gov. Fort; Mrs. Martin by Mr. Chandler W. Riker, a former prosecutor of Essex county, and Mrs. Snead by Messrs. Samuel and Abner Kalisch. Many influential men are interested in the case and have offered financial assistance to the three women accused of murder.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The Giants have been doing nice work and getting their share of the close games.
 Manager Hugh Jennings of Detroit has certainly signed a bunch of fine young twirlers.
 Bob Ganley is playing right field for Newark, N. J., and is hitting in big league style.
 Under Billy Smith's management, the Buffalo team is showing class in the Eastern League race.
 As he will be the regular first baseman, Bud Sharpe should make good with the Boston Doves this season.
 Plank, Davis and Hartel have been with the Athletics ten years and look to be just as good as ever.
 "Dots" Miller, the Pittsburgh second baseman, has been hitting at .400 clip so far this season.
 The Boston National League club has sent Fred Loise back to St. Paul, where he played all last season.
 Evidently the frost that nipped the fruit trees on his farm also put a crimp in "Uncle Cy" Young's wing.
 Charles T. Lathers, former University of Michigan shortstop, has been sold by Detroit to Montreal.
 Both St. Louis teams will have to take a brace if they expect to climb up and associate with good people.
 With a veteran "Chanticleer" outfield and "incubator" infield, Chicago fans have already started to crow over the White Sox.
 Mayor Shank of Indianapolis says that Charlie Carr's Indians will have to play better ball or he will give Sunday baseball the gate.
 Bernard Gustave Savage Dunbar is under arrest at Columbus, O., for frisking the Cleveland team out of $590 worth of property at Alexandria, La. Nice game for a Raffles, that.

After working several years Assemblyman McGrath of Brooklyn has succeeded in getting his Sunday baseball bill passed by the New York General Assembly. It is now up to the senate to make the needed hit and win the game.

What Are You Willing to Pay for Coffee

20, 25, 35, 40c per lb.—you, of course, don't want anything cheaper than 20c and in the range quoted we have the very best coffee that can be produced for the price.
 Continental at 20c and Concord at 25c are, of course, the most popular, because of the price.
 "Lexington" is a new grade we have just added; it is 35c, while "Revere" is the top notch of coffee perfection, at 40c.
 Now let us give you a coffee secret:
 When you pay 25, 35 or 40c per lb.
 for either Concord, Lexington or Revere you are not extravagant in the least, for you get enough additional strength for each 5c extra that you pay to make that many more cups of better coffee in each case for each step up in price you naturally get better flavor and more of it.
 Give Lexington or Revere a try out on our recommendation.

The Direct Action Gas Range IS BEST

BECAUSE:

It has no oven bottom to burn out.
 No dangerous pilot lights to cause explosions.
 Enameled steel walls which do not rust.
 5 feet of gas will finish biscuits on both racks starting with cold oven.
 Burner caps not connected, but loose; easy to clean.
 Does not heat the boiler when you bake or roast.

Memorials in Marble, Granite and Bronze.

Did you ever wander through a beautiful well-kept cemetery, where the hand of man had been displaced in beautiful landscape and monumental decoration, and as you wandered through that silent garden of beauty and solemnity did there not come stealing over you a deep sense of pride for the city, the nation or the individual, as the case may be?

Whether you were in the private, public or national burial grounds, and even though you had no one near and dear to you sleeping within their silent confines you felt a deep sense of pleasure and satisfaction, because you are a human being, and seeing such you have all the attributes that the word human being composes, such as a soul, a strong sympathetic nature, an artistic temperament, a strong regard for the beautiful and artistic, and greatest of all there is awakened that ever present desire within the human breast to perpetuate by beautiful and impressive reminders, the virtues of those we love.

It is not given to all of us to see within reach of us a deep feeling of pride and tender thoughts for the nation or the individual that commemorates, and perpetuates, the virtues and good deeds of their heroes and departed loved ones.

Show me a nation that perpetuates the memory of their statesmen, soldiers and citizens and who try to keep afresh the memory of their lives of virtue and usefulness, and I will show among the leaders of the world.

This strong development of our better, truer natures has been one of the means towards the wonderful advances of the human race. The desire for self-preservation comes first in the category of natural laws; the desire to perpetuate in word and deed the virtues of those we love comes next. This desire caused even the less enlightened races to erect monuments in token of their appreciation or in memory of their departed dead. As we advanced, and during the glory of huge granite shafts were erected to the memory of their heroes and ideals, and but for the invasion of savages, and the terrible ravages of many wars these would be standing today to fulfill the purpose for which they were erected. Who doubts from the slight glimpse we get of this beauty and grandeur, but that it has been the means of great advancement?

The reason this strong desire in the human heart to perpetuate the memory of our departed loved ones is so strong a factor in the advancement of the human race, is, because it calls for retrospection and introspection on the part of the individual.

In our retrospective moods, we think only of the virtues, the best interests, and requests of those we loved in life; then this calls for introspection concerning our own life, our faults, etc., and in thinking of these we strive toward our own advancement, and betterment.

There are only three kinds of material that will withstand the ravages of time successfully, and being true material calls for imitations, I would advise those purchasing memorials to beware of cheap grade goods, and imitations. The something just as good. These goods when left exposed to the onslaught of time will crumble and fade to an unsightly mass, the name in whose memory you erected them will be lost and blotted out forever. The three materials above mentioned that you will make no mistake in buying are Marble, Granite and Bronze. A suitable and lasting memorial need not be expensive, if you go to the right dealer and talk the matter over carefully he can supply you with what you want and at the same time keep within your means.

In his early career in the army he participated in the campaign against the Crow Indians in 1887, and against the Sioux in 1890. He reached the grade of captain in 1898, and in the same year became superintendent of the United States cavalry. In the Cuban campaign he won promotions for gallantry in the actions at Santiago and Las Guasimas. In 1889 he was appointed superintendent of the West Point Academy, a position he held for eight years. In 1906 he was put in command of the department of the Visayas in the Philippines, and after his services there he was transferred to his present command, with headquarters in Atlanta.

New Base Ball Park at Lake Wichita

Of the many extensive enterprises and liberal investments the city of Wichita Falls is today deriving great benefits from through the progressive ideas and plans of Mr. J. A. Kemp and Mr. Frank Kell, the new baseball park at the lake is creating more favorable comment, both at home and at a distance, than any one of the others and, while the plant will be used for other purposes, such as concerts, shows, political and other meetings, as a ball park it will be the most complete in every detail to be found in the country and the improvements the most expensive in this section. There is no question but what the plan to use the park as an early training ground for some one of the national league clubs next spring will materialize and as a result, weekly excursions from all directions will bring many visitors here to see the league teams, who always travel through this section in the spring, play the team that for the time being, at least, will make Wichita Falls their home. This means that from about February first to the latter part of April every daily paper in the country will have more or less to say in each issue about Wichita Falls and as an advertisement it should prove equal to all other publicity plans combined.

An electric street car line through the best residence section of the city of Wichita Falls and the adjoining country, the last half mile along the top of the dam that makes possible the largest body of fresh water in the state of Texas, covering over 3000 acres of land, connects the hotels, depots and business portion of "the best built" city in the state with the baseball park, one of the many big features of the pleasure and summer resort of Lake Wichita.

The grounds, 600 by 600 feet, enclosed by an eight-foot fence of matched flooring, are graded as near level as possible and as systematically cared for as a race track during a big meeting. In fact, the same up-to-date sprinklers, rollers, harrows and floats purchased for the fair grounds adjoining, another of the big features at this place, are used to keep the diamond and out-field in the best possible condition. No ground rules are needed here. Only the longest hit, combined with the fastest base running can result in an earned home run. There are no "bleachers" at this park. The immense grand stand that seats over 3,000 has a weather proof roof and the entire front is wire screened in the safest manner. It stands on a concrete foundation, forty feet back of home plate, extending parallel with the base lines and beyond first and third. The usual delay through foul tips is prevented to a great extent by wire netting thirty feet high along the front of the roof.

The center section is reserved, the seats have backs and arms and there is a row of private boxes in front.

The convenience and comfort of the players have been fully as well looked after as the interests of the public. A building 33 by 40 adjoining the new hotel, Lakeside, where the home and visiting teams will take their meals, has been erected for the exclusive use of the players. The office, or sitting room commands a view of the lake and a wide roof covers the very commodious porch on three sides. Two large rooms, one for the permanent use of the home club and the other for visiting teams, each holding eight double beds, afford ample room for up to sixteen men. The beds are of iron, white enameled, and have forty-five pound cotton felt mattresses resting on the best of coil steel springs. These two rooms are well ventilated, properly screened, new and clean. Each has a connecting private concrete shower bath room with hot and cold water, modern plumbing and all conveniences.

The management fully realizes the day of rowdy ball is past and that the public demands gentlemanly sport, free from disputes and in selecting the team that will represent this city, attention has been paid to conduct and habits, on and off the grounds, as well as to ability as ball players and it is a sure thing the team that can come here and misbehave in any way, in view of the treatment and comforts offered, is beyond all hope and will feel somewhat lonesome.

General admission to the grounds and grand stand, 25 cents. Ladies will be admitted free except on Sundays or holidays. Reserved seats, 25 cents extra, except to ladies, who are given a choice seat free at all games. Gentlemen, when accompanied by ladies, also admitted to the reserved seat section. This liberal plan insures a lady unattended freedom from annoyances and the best of protection from the time she steps into the carriage or street car up town that takes her to the grounds, until the game and return trip are over. Box parties and afternoon gatherings exclusively of ladies, will surely be very popular under the favorable circumstances. The team will be known as the "Irish Lads," after a very popular cigar, for which the Blair-Hughes Company are the distributing agents in this city, Mr. Wiley Blair presenting the handsome uniforms that were selected by Collier & Hendricks from the choice samples submitted by the well known sporting goods house of Spaulding & Company, Chicago.

The opening games will be played with the strong Henrietta team Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 13th, 15th and 16th and should establish a new record for attendance in this city. Mr. Frank Kell offers a season ticket for the gentleman and lady to the who will guess the nearest to the number of paid admissions on the opening day. The guess with the parties' name and address to be mailed to Palmer L. Clark before May 12th.

About three games will be booked each week on the home grounds with the strongest independent clubs in this section and the balance of the time will be devoted to return dates in other cities. The teams are the same to all comers and inures a good contest, as the winning team gets sixty per cent of the general admission and the loser gets forty per cent. Expenses in the way of hotel and railroad charges are guaranteed visiting clubs and the Irish Lads will book games on the outside of the city on the same basis.

It can be said without fear of contradiction, that Wichita Falls offers more and better accommodations for the national game than can be found at any other place combined, to say nothing of the additional amusements at this popular resort such as boating, fishing, hunting, bathing, fine race track, fair grounds, fancy stock farm, dancing, bowling, billiards, pool, roller skating, merry-go-rounds, ferris wheels and other similar attractions too numerous to mention.

OLD MEXICO

The Coming Great Mining District of this Continent

Mining Progressing

It is known that for centuries before the advent of the white man into Mexico, the natives gathered from the surface or gleaned from the river beds, great quantities of the precious metals, which they cast into bars or skillfully wrought into useful and ornamental forms. Their conquerors found walks paved with silver; temples lined with gold, and gold and silver articles of great variety and beauty for personal adornment and other purposes, but the treasures which they received as gifts or took by force, gave them only a hint of the marvelous mineral wealth of the country they had captured. However, the passion for gold has been ever strong in the human race, and the adventurous prospector and industrious miner were soon abroad seeking the hidden source of Mother Earth from which the filmy flakes, and tiny grains and shining nuggets of the Aztecs had come. They found them, too, and since the day when Montezuma, under stress of circumstances, surrendered up the golden treasures of his people in the tribute of the invaders, the Empire over which he ruled has yielded many billion dollars worth of new mineral wealth, and Mexico now stands as the greatest producer of silver, the second greatest producer of copper, and one of the leading producers of gold in the world.

Investment

Mining goes steadily on and the industry is in a more active and flourishing condition in Mexico than it ever was before. The mineral production of the country now amounts to many million dollars per month in value. The government is doing every thing it can to popularize the mining business and as a result, signs of substantial progress are to be found on every side.

It is evident that an era of great prosperity and wide-spread development of the rich mineral resources of the country is now starting on its way. Extensive mineral grants, long inactively held, and rich old mines, heretofore unpurchasable at any price, and for generations worked merely enough to meet family expenses, are opening to persistent efforts of foreign capital, courage and energy, for commercial operation.

Modern methods are superceding the crude and primitive ones that have prevailed for hundreds of years. Machinery is supplanting and supplementing human muscle and animal power, and science is solving difficult problems in the treatment of ores. Mills and smelters are getting more numerous and are affording greater accommodations and conveniences than have heretofore existed.

Native mining labor is cheap and plentiful, mining supplies are conveniently obtainable, and the laws, have been liberalized so as to foster and protect the mining business, means of transportation and communication are being constantly extended; money has been placed on a gold basis, exchange is stable and commercial facilities with other countries are good.

With this great record of the past with thousands of tons of ore cropping out in its mineral sections everywhere and with its large area of virgin mineral ground still remaining untouched, and unexplored, Mexico today, offers opportunities for successful mining ventures not surpassed in any country in the world.

Investments are as safe as in any of the mining sections of this country, and already immense amounts of American and European capital are going into every line of business there.

The Rothschilds, and other leading bankers of Paris, Berlin and London, the Guggenheims, Green, Lewisohns, Schwab, Hearst, and others of New York. M. W. Gates and associates of Chicago, Lawson and others of Boston, and many prominent people of Philadelphia and elsewhere are some of the well known capitalists who are largely interested in mining enterprises there.

The Mining Industry of Mexico

The first mining boom to affect this continent concerned the deposits of Mexico, and although mining has been carried on actively for nearly four centuries, and the production of silver exceeds that of the United States, it is believed that the development of the mineral resources of the republic has been only begun.

The extension of railroad lines throughout the republic is certain to prove a great stimulus to mining in the territory affected. The development of water power also promises to be a great benefit to the industry. Movements are on foot to supply several of the historic camps with electric current from power stations upon neighboring streams.

Mexico deserves all the attention which it is receiving from mining men, and will continue to be of especial interest for years to come.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

MAKING CLEAN MONEY

Rev. Robert McIntyre, a noted divine, in a sermon some few years ago, said "I admire a miner's wealth. It is clean. There is neither blood nor tears on it. It is acquired away from the cut throat competition that characterizes ordinary ventures, nobody has been pinched; nobody has been wronged. The miner who digs a fortune out of the ground has the satisfaction of knowing that he hasn't robbed a soul, even though he becomes a thousand times a millionaire. The man who makes a fortune on the Board of Trade or the Stock Exchange, or in building up a gigantic business house, adds nothing to the world's store of available wealth, in other words, the world is no richer because he is richer, but he is richer rather because someone is poorer. The miner, whether he digs out $10 or $10,000, adds that much to the world's wealth and with the added wealth he contributes just that much to the possible amount of the world's comforts and pleasures. The miner is today the king of wealth producers of the country, and I honor him above all others. It needs no apology to emulate his example or assist him in his efforts.

Mining Investments Pay Largely.

The Daily Mining Record says: It is an undeniable fact that the most influential business men of the world have turned their attention to mining, the source of nearly all wealth; for persons who have been enslaved to the idea that the only safe proposition was a five per cent, or six per cent security, now realize that many millions of interest have been lost to them through heeding the advice of those interested in cheap

The Board of Directors of this company decided at their meeting yesterday to place 100,000 shares only of this stock on the market at the price of par value being $1.00. The money derived from the sale of the first 100,000 shares is to be used for immediate development. This is all that will be placed on the market at this price.

money, and that among the banking institutions of the west, eight and twenty per cent per annum is not considered a hazardous western profit or excessive dividend on the great majority of our guilt-edged mining securities, and further, the richest men in the world are mining kings, many of whom have grown powerful enough through the proper application of originally a moderate capital and it is proven that while millions of dollars have been lost in railroads, farm mortgages, eastern industrial and building associations, the mining industry steadily advances, making enormous profits for its supporters, building great states and cities, and points with pride to the American possession of 253 mines that have paid dividends over $625,000,000.

U. S. Government reports show that the mines of the United States produced $1,092,224,380 in 1901, which exceeds the total combined value of the wheat and cotton crops.

The mineral resources of the United States show a greater ratio of increase than any other industry.

The annual dividends of the mines are greater than those paid by all the railroad interests in the country.

The profits of the mines exceed the profit of all the banks of the country.

Mining is one of the most certain and profitable of all pursuits, and when conducted under proper conditions may be considered as safe as the most conservatively managed manufacturing business.

The products of the mines represent the basis of all prosperity and wealth. The miner is in reality the only permanent wealth producer. Wealth taken from the ground is new wealth that is actually created, and no one is wronged or made poorer through its creation. It belonged to no other man, and it does not lessen the value of the property that any man possesses.

PROFIT IN MINING

Comstock sold one-quarter interest in his mine for $6000. The mine produced afterwards $600,000,000 and shares sold at $1875 each. Calumet and Hecla paid its early investors $1500 on each $1 invested, and shares went from $1 to $840 each. United Verde sold for 50 cents a share and is now paying $700 per cent. dividends at that price. This mine went begging for $30,000 fifteen years ago, until it was purchased by Senator Clark, who recently refused a $100,000,000 offer for it made by a Belgian syndicate. The Le Roy mine was sold entire in 1890 for $12.50. Its market value is now $10,000,000, and its stock has gone from 2 cents a share to $50 a share, and paid 6000 per cent. on first cost. One hundred dollars invested a few years ago in it is now worth $250,000 and has paid $35,000 in dividends. Gold coin sold at 1 cent a share, is now worth $5.50 and has paid 4800 per cent. on first cost. One hundred dollars invested in it in 1896 is now worth $55,000, and has paid over $11,000 in dividends. Home Mining Company stock advanced in seven months from 30 cents to $25 per share. Granite Mountain advanced in two years from 10 cents to $75 per share. The Copper Queen was once offered for $3000 and refused. It pays now millions every year. The Bonanza Mine, of Eastern Oregon was offered for $500 in 1896, with no takers. It is now producing $1,000,000 a year. The Independence Mine, at Cripple Creek, was located as a prospect. A few years later it was sold to an English syndicate, for $10,000,000. Two hundred and fifty dollars invested in Silver King in 1893 is now worth $9000, and paid over $4000 in dividends. Ten dollars invested in Swansea in 1895 is now worth $4500, and has paid $3100 in dividends. The Homestead Mine, in Dakota has paid $12,000,000 in dividends, and its stock advanced 5000 per cent. Alaska Treadwell has paid $5,000,000 in dividends, and its stock has advanced 2300 per cent. Anaconda has paid $22,000,000 in dividends and was recently sold to Rothschild for $40,000,000.

Boston & Montana has paid $26,000,000 in dividends. Quincy has paid $13,000,000 in dividends. United Verde has paid $17,000,000 in dividends. Calumet & Hecla has paid $50,000,000 in dividends. Ontario has paid $14,000,000 in dividends. Con. Cal. & Virginia has paid $77,500,000 in dividends. Homestake has paid $12,000,000 in dividends. Granite Mountain has paid $12,120,000 in dividends. St. John del Rey has paid $13,726,000 in dividends. Tamarack has paid $8,500,000 in dividends. Parrott has paid $5,750,000 in dividends.

Fifty other mines have paid from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 in dividends. No commercial business can begin to compare with mining as a profitable pursuit.

That carefully selected mining investments are safer, more permanent and more profitable than any other, there can be no question. The comstock Lode of Virginia City, Nevada, has produced in twenty years the enormous sum of $316,650,486, while it is estimated that there is yet $35,000,000 in the tailings; and the output of the Witwatersrand district in South Africa for ten years previous to the Boer war was more than $400,000,000. And mining is yet in its infancy.

Anaconda paid a profit of $6,000,000 in 1901; Calumet and Hecla has paid $88,000,000 in dividends; Crown Point stock advanced from $274 to $1825 in one year; Consolidated Virginia stock sold 1885 at 11 cents a share, in 1886 at $65; Best & Belcher advanced from 60 cents to $23.50 in one year; Belcher sold at $6.50 per share in 1871 and $1550 in 1873, and the mine has paid $15,379,200 in dividends; the Idaho Gold Mining Company has paid its stockholders in dividends seventeen and one-half times more than its entire capital stock, 1750 per cent profit.

We cannot impress too strongly upon those desirous of taking advantage of the opportunities offered for large returns upon investments, that it is at the initial stage—when most investors are timid—that decision and action should be made.

In all the millions made out of mining—and they are larger than all other business of a commercial character combined—by far the greater part has been made by early and decisive action. Hundreds of cases can be cited where the investor looked in to the prospects of large returns with the same care as he would in any other investment—and every investor should exercise this caution—and considering the well known fact that over 50 per cent of mining businesses are large successes, as against 5 per cent in ordinary businesses—was rewarded with returns that no other business could possibly yield.

In a report made on these properties, the Santa Rosa, Roberts and Nevada Mines, the firm of Place Elton, Mining Engineers of Oaxaca, say: "The three properties together form a good basis for a strong mining company and the very fact that they have been chosen from among the best available properties in each district of the gold belt makes failure impossible, provided the mines are developed in a rational and scientific way and by men competent to handle them. By having sufficient capital ready to gain each point of the development scheme in turn, and using everything to best advantage, there is no failure possible, and it can be expected that the three mines will in time become one of the largest gold producers in Oaxaca and the world.

$2500 to the Ladies of Wichita Falls

We will pay to the lady $10 for the first best cake made from Calumet Baking Powder; $5.00 each to the next 3 ladies who bake the next 3 best cakes. This money is in the hands of Mr. Vic E. Stampfl. All ladies will bring their cakes to the Cream Bakery and when this contest is over there will be 3 ladies appointed to decide on the prize cakes. Then the cakes will be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds of same will go to the Wichita Falls Fireman Fund. We feel like every lady should take a great interest in this contest for it will help us to put our fire department on a sound basis. There is nothing that is of more protection to our great city than a good fire department, and I brought our Fireman Fund to Mr. Crane's notice, who is general sales manager for the Calumet Baking Powder Co., and he responded with $25.00 in cash to help us build our fire department fund and this $25.00 will be divided with the ladies who bake the 4 best cakes from the use of Calumet Baking Powder. Now if the ladies of Wichita Falls take the proper interest in this contest it will help us to decorate our hall in fine shape. Notice the columns of this paper and they will explain when this contest takes place. We will notify the ladies in plenty of time so they can get their free cans from their grocer which you have noticed being advertised in this paper. Each family will get a free can and a very fine book free. So just watch the columns of this paper and it will tell you the time to call for your free can so you can enter this baking contest. The name of each merchant will appear in this paper that has Calumet Baking Powder. Mr. Crane says he wants every family to give Calumet Baking Powder a personal trial and I can say that I can recommend Calumet to you.

For further information in regard to this Fireman Fund you can ask me and I will explain it to you in detail in person. I want to say again to the ladies of our great city of Wichita Falls that Mr. Crane has placed the $25.00 in my hands which will be distributed with the ladies who bake the best cakes from Calumet Baking Powder just as soon as the decision is made by the appointed committee to decide on the 4 best cakes. We will bake a cake and put the $25.00 and cake together in our window.

Yours truly, VIC E. STAMPFL, Cream Bakery, 307-11

A board may be half an inch wider or quarter of an inch thicker at one end than at the other, yet they can't see the difference. They discover the difference, however, when they come to use the lumber. Then they kick.

The trouble was repaired, however, in time for him to fill his engagement.

The impression which exists regarding the gravel pit at which the recent accident occurred, that it is the property of the city, is erroneous. The city has never gotten a single wagon load of gravel there and is in no way responsible for the condition that exists there.
