WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1910

NUMBER 309

SUIT IS FILED FOR $25,000 DAMAGES

ACTION GROWS OUT OF INCIDENT AT ELECTRA SEVERAL WEEKS AGO.

DOCTOR IS MANHANDLED

Claims to Have Been Beaten By Railroad Crew and Ejected From Car.

Suit was filed yesterday afternoon in the district court by J. A. Presley against the Fort Worth and Deaver for a total loss of twenty-five thousand dollars damages, ten thousand of which are named as actual and fifteen thousand as exemplary.

This suit grows out of an incident which is alleged to have occurred at Electra several weeks ago. The plaintiff alleges the defendant was traveling with a car of household goods which the defendant road had a contract to transport from Wichita Falls to Chillicothe. At Electra, says the petition, the plaintiff was forcibly ejected from the car by the employees of the road and after being badly beaten and bruised by them, was confined in the Electra jail for three hours, without process of law. The plaintiff is a physician and was moving from Woodbine, Cooke county to Haskell county, when the incident occurred.

He alleges in his petition that his personal injuries, resulting from the ejection and confinement, entitle him to ten thousand dollars actual damages, and he also asks fifteen thousand dollars exemplary damages. He claims to have been riding in the car by the authority and permission of the agent here. Coombs, Coombs & Tipton of Haskell are his attorneys in the case.

DEPLORES EXTRAVAGANCE.

New York Banker Says Automobiles Are Cause.

El Paso, May 10.—That the tendency to extravagance is a great menace to the nation was the declaration of J. T. Talbot, of the New York City National Bank to the convention of Texas Bankers Association in his address here this afternoon. He said it is show by the increase in loans by National banks and asserted that automobiles have a great deal to do with the high cost of living. He deplored the fact that many borrow to buy automobiles. Secretary J. W. Hoppe, of Austin, recorded 139 members this year.

Dallas will likely be the next place of meeting.

HYDE STILL ON STAND.

He is Witness in His Own Defense at Kansas City.

By Associated Press.
Kansas City, May 10.—Dr. Hyde resumed his testimony in his own behalf when the criminal court opened this morning. The physician smiled as he came out of his cell and skipped up the steps into the court room. Mrs. Hyde was waiting for him.

Hyde testified that on his return from New York some typhoid and diptheria germs and some cyanide of potassium were missing from his office. He had planned experiments in bacteriology with the germs and used cyanide to kill vermin. He never gave cyanide to a human being.

SMOTHERED IN PILLOWS

Inmate of Epileptic Colony Meets a Tragic Death.

Ablene, Tex., May 9.—Helen White, aged twenty-three, an inmate of the state epileptic colony, died last night from accidental smothering. The patient had a convulsion during the night and got her head down among the pillows, thus smothering her. She came from Stephenville, Texas, and had been an inmate of the colony six years. Justice of the Peace H. R. Keeble held an inquest and pronounced a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

BALLINGER ON STAND.

He is Still Testifying to Congressional Inquiry.

Washington, May 10.—Secretary Ballinger continued under cross-examination by Attorney Brandies when the Hallinger-Pinchot investigation was resumed today. Commissioner of the General Land Office and Chief Field Division Schwartz will take the next witness to take the stand for the defense.

FOR RELIEF OF SUFFERERS

President Taft Makes Appeal for Contributions.

New York, May 9.—President Taft, an president of the National Red Cross society, today made a strong appeal for contributions to relieve the earthquake sufferers in Costa Rica. He asks that subscriptions be sent to Costa Rica or deposited with the local Red Cross treasurer. The fund is to be disbursed by the American diplomatic agent in Costa Rica. The American Red Cross has received from the city of New Orleans $1,000 as its contribution to the earthquake sufferers at Cartago. The state department has been informed by the United Fruit Company that the company had contributed $25,000. This fund, no doubt, will be distributed by the company's agent at San Jose. The house today passed a bill authorizing the war department to loan blankets, etc., for the use of the earthquake sufferers.

OKLAHOMA DOCTORS

Annual Meeting Being Held at Tulsa Today.

Tulsa, May 10.—Eight hundred doctors are here attending the eighteenth annual meeting of the State Medical Society which convened today. A campaign will be instituted against the fly and mosquito and urging better general sanitation for the state.

FOUR NEGROES ARE HURT AS RESULT OF AFFRAYS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Two affrays took place in the negro settlement late yesterday afternoon, resulting in two negroes being shot and two others badly injured. Joe Jackson, a negro bartender, was hit by a charge from a shot gun, said to have been in the hands of "Smoke" Gibson, and a negro boy also collected several souvenirs from the same source. The shot was not intended for either of the marks, but for another negro, who escaped unscathed. Later in the evening Doc Ferguson and Frank Brady engaged in a carving match, in which the latter was victorious by a score of forty-six to six. Brady skipped out. Dr. Coons patched up Ferguson as well as possible, taking forty-two stitches in various parts of his anatomy. He will recover unless blood poisoning sets in. None of the others are more than slightly injured.

LOWER PAPER RATE.

Argument Presented Today Before Railroad Commission.

Austin, May 10.—The Railroad Commission hearing today considered the rate on print and newspaper. Q. T. Moreland of the Fort Worth Freight Bureau, argued for a reduction from the present rate of 67 cents to 25 cents per hundred. A. G. Munro, manager of the San Antonio Light-Gazette argued on behalf of the newspapers. It was taken under advisement.

SUMMER COTTAGES TO BE BUILT AT LAKE WICHITA; WARM WEATHER COLONY

Work is to be started shortly on the construction of several summer cottages at Lake Wichita and if this innovation proves popular, a number more will be added. Three are to be built within the next few weeks and if they are found to be desirable as summer homes, more will be added. The cottages will be lightly constructed and with an idea more for coolness and comfort than anything else. It is believed that they will prove very popular and will form the nucleus of a populous summer colony on the shores of the lake.

ROOSEVELT AT BERLIN.

Given Hearty Greeting—Will Dine With Emperor.

Berlin, May 10.—Colonel Roosevelt arrived here today from Sweden. He was met at the railroad station by the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Von Schoen on behalf of the Emperor and staff of the American Embassy. The Roosevelt party was driven to the residence of Ambassador Hill, in court carriages. The party will be luncheon guests of the Emperor and Empress at Potsdam today.

FORT WORTH OR WACO.

Choice for T. C. U. Site Lies Between These Two.

Dallas, May 10.—Either Fort Worth or Waco will likely get the Texas Christian University location. It is believed the Board which is in session here today, has already decided, but that the announcement will not be made until tonight.

COMMISSION GIVES NEW COTTON RATE

PETITION OF FARMERS' UNION GRANTED IN ALL ESSENTIAL PARTICULARS.

REDUCTION OF FOUR CENTS

All Commissioners Agree on Lower Rate, But Colquitt Wanted Five Cents.

Special to The Times.
Austin, Tex., May 10.—Constituting a majority of the railroad commission, Messrs. Mayfield and Williams yesterday announced the long-expected decision on the question of cotton rate reduction. Their joint agreement makes a reduction of 4 cents in all maximum territory, allowing the rate to continue to include all terminal charges, carrying the cotton to the wharves in all Texas ports when desired. The present differential from Houston and Beaumont to Galveston and other ports is continued. The joint agreement of Commissioners Mayfield and Williams provides for a 4-cent reduction and the inclusion of terminal charges, while the decision of Commissioner Colquitt, filed April 20, but not hitherto given out, calls for a 5-cent reduction and the exclusion of terminal charges. The rates at present, include terminal charges, but, by common consent, and not under order of the commission. The decision as reached makes a local rate to Galveston.

The details of the decision are yet to be worked out and the commission therefore requested that there be no speculation as to its final and full application. Commissioner Mayfield is now ill in his room. The decision as written by Commissioner Williams and indorsed in full by Chairman Mayfield, is as follows:

"For the sake of getting together on a reduced rate on cotton, I waive for the present my individual objection to the differential system, being in a minority in my opinion thereupon, and propose to agree with the other commissioners:

"1. To reduce the rate 4 cents in all maximum territory and by reasonable proportion in mileage territory.

"2. To let the rate continue to include all terminal charges, carrying the cotton to the wharves in all Texas ports when desired.

"3. To continue the present differential rates from Houston and Beaumont to Texas ports.

"4. To carry forward all compress rules under suspension as they now are, so the same may be put into force at once, if abuses arise.

"5. To permit the concentration of cotton for other than compress purposes at any port or inferior points in Texas in line of shipment all concentrated cotton to move forward during the season of shipment and not afterward. Concentration charges to be refunded when bill of lading issues for concentrated cotton and upon the surrender of inbound expense bills."

SENATE TAKES ACTION

Passes Resolutions on Death of King Edward and Adjourns.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Adopting a resolution of condolence, presented by Senator Cullom on behalf of the committee on foreign relations, the senate adjourned at 3 o'clock today out of respect to the memory of King Edward. The action was taken without comment and there was no remark except that Mr. Cullom, in presenting the resolution, asked for immediate consideration. The resolution follows:

Resolved, That the death of his royal and imperial majesty, Edward VII, the bereavement of his people and the loss to the world of his warm and kindly influence for peace and good government are deeply deplored by the senate of the United States of America.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolution be communicated through the department of state to the government of Great Britain.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect the senate do now adjourn. Accordingly, the senate at once adjourned.

ROOSEVELT'S STATUS

Press Urges That He Be Appointed a Special Representative.

London, May 9.—If Mr. Roosevelt adheres to his traveling program, he will arrive in London May 16. The fixing of May 20 as the date of King Edward's funeral will, however, preclude the possibility of the former president delivering his Romanes lecture upon the original date arranged, which was the 18th. It is hoped at Oxford university that an arrangement can be made for a postponement of the lecture until after the obsequies.

If Mr. Roosevelt is in London the day of the funeral he will be expected to attend, but the question has already arisen as to what his status would be upon that occasion. He could hardly be treated as a private individual and the public would certainly expect that he be given a place among the notables. The press repeats the suggestion that the American government appoint Mr. Roosevelt its special representative at the funeral.

NEW CADDIS WELL

Shreveport, May 10.—A thirty-five hundred barrel oil well was brought in by the Benedictus Trees Co. of Jena Bayou, near the Texas line today. It is the largest in the Caddo field.

PRESIDENT OF TEXAS DOCTORS SAYS HE HAS IMPEDED ALL PROGRESSIVE MOVES.

JUMPED PLATFORM DEMAND

Governor Severely Criticized For Impediment to Public Health in Texas.

Texas News Service Special.
Dallas, May 10.—Over three hundred were present when the forty-second meeting of the State Medical Association convened today here. The welcoming addresses were followed by the address of President W. B. Russ, of San Antonio, who scored Governor Campbell.

The actual business will begin this afternoon when the house of delegates, the governing body of the organization meets. Waco and Amarillo, want the next meeting.

Dr. Russ in his address, said: "Governor Campbell saw fit to veto the Tuberculosis Bill on a flimsy pretext. He made the law providing for a Leprosarium in-operative by withholding the appropriation and seriously crippled the Board of Health by cutting out every dollar of the appropriation he dared showing that in his judgment, a dollar is of vastly more importance than any consideration for the democratic platform, yet he would have us believe he stands for the enforcement of the demands. By every means in his power, he has forced a minimum interpretation of the legislative acts to provide and care for the public health. He is one man connected with the legislative affairs in the state who has been entirely out of sympathy with the enlightened thought of the day on public health matters."

IOWA PARK ITEMS.

South Park, Texas, May 10.—Mr. Will Burnett, who ranches a few miles southwest of town, was bitten by a wolf a few days ago. The wound was rather severe one, but he is able to be about in his buggy. Mr. Ducas of Bonham has been the guest of Mr. C. H. Clark for some days. Work is progressing on the new Methodist church.

HOUSTON ITEMS.

Mr. T. H. Chandler of Stephenville will deliver the Commencement address for the public school, May 20. Mr. Chandler is one of the leading lawyers of Texas, and one of the most fluent speakers in the state. Twenty new books, "The Makers of History," were received for the school library this week. "Mother's Day" was appropriately observed at the Christian and at the Baptist churches Sunday. Local talent presented a play at the school house Saturday night, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. The play was well rendered and the proceeds will apply in paying for the encyclopaedia and other books for the school.

BRADY WANTS SPEECHES.

Political Atmosphere in McCulloch County Warming Up.

Brady, May 9.—Political matters have warmed up here considerably since Colquitt made his speech on May 5, and the Poindexter forces have met and issued an invitation to their candidate to address the people of Brady before the election, and the Johnson forces assert that their candidate will be urged to make an address here also and that they will assure one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Brady to greet him when he arrives. Until this campaign there has never been a candidate for governor here during the battle, but the rapid settlement of the country promises to make this one of the battlegrounds for the politicians in the future.

OPPONENT FOR BEALL.

Dallas County Attorney to Announce Candidacy for Congress.

Dallas, May 9.—It is expected at the Dallas county courthouse that County Attorney Dwight Lewelling will announce in a few days as a candidate for congress against Congressman Jack Beall, as Lewelling today emphatically denied that he will be a candidate for judge of the criminal district court.

The Fifth congressional district comprises the counties of Dallas, Rockwall, Bosque, Ellis and Hill. Lewelling's friends say that his ability as a stump speaker will make him a formidable candidate, even in the counties where he is at present little known.

OREGON GRANGE IN SESSION.

Oregon City, Ore., May 10.—Several hundred delegates arrived here today for the opening of the annual convention of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry. The good roads movement, postal savings banks, the initiative and referendum and other questions of public interest will be discussed by the convention.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Pacific Coast Wants Bishop in that Section.

By Associated Press.
Anheville, May 10.—Today's session of the Methodist Conference began with the usual religious services led by Rev. Tarbour, a missionary from Brazil. President Jefferson, of the church Extension Board, then addressed the Conference. Many memorials and appeals were referred to the proper committees. A memorial was introduced from the Pacific Conference asking that a bishop reside on the Pacific coast.

An assessment of two and one half cents per member for the erection of a Southern Methodist Church in Washington was carried. The committee on federation reported that no plans were being considered for the union of the three bodies of the German-Methodists in Texas and that such a union was not expedient.

MANN AMENDMENT LOSES

It Authorized Acquisition of Competing Stock by Roads.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., May 10.—By a vote of one hundred and sixty-nine to one hundred and sixty, the house today defeated the amendment to the Railroad Bill offered by Mann of Illinois, which authorized the acquisition by railroad companies of stock of competing transportation lines.

AUTOMOBILE ORDINANCE

LOWERING SPEED LIMIT IS TO BE PASSED SOON

At its next meeting the city council will consider the enactment of an ordinance regulating automobile driving in this city and a city speed limit will be fixed. At present the city can assess fines only under the general law, which allows a maximum speed of 15 miles per hour. This is considered entirely too fast for the safety of the public and an ordinance will be passed fixing the limit at 8 or 10 miles within the city limits.

In spite of the fact that a maximum speed of 18 miles an hour is now permitted, several local automobilists are not satisfied to go that slow and as a consequence have been called upon to make contributions to the city treasury. Seven dollars and a half is the present rate for joy rides, but it may be found necessary to raise the price if the diversion becomes too popular at that quotation. The matter will be taken up by the council at its next meeting on Monday night.

EAST 7TH STREET WILL BE EXTENDED

NEW ROAD TO PETROLIA ENTERING CITY FROM EAST PRACTICALLY ASSURED.

BUILD TWO NEW BRIDGES

One is To Be Constructed Over Holidy Creek on New Road and One Over Bear.

The long-desired new road to Petrolia out East 7th street is to become a reality soon and the county commissioners are today perfecting the arrangements for its construction. It will extend directly west from the Denver depot, circling the baseball park and connecting with the present road about two miles east of the city. The new road will enable those coming in from Petrolia and other points in that direction to come directly into the business section without the delay and danger of crossing the tracks in the southern part of the city.

Bridge architects and contractors are here today to figure on the bridge which it is proposed to construct where the new road will cross Holidy Creek about a mile and a half east of the city. A steel bridge is to be erected there.

The extension of east 7th street has long been considered as necessary and there has been considerable agitation for it. C. W. Bean appeared before the commissioners yesterday afternoon on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and argued in favor of the new road.

The commissioners also expect to construct a new bridge over Bear Creek, north of the city, and will probably approve the plans for both it and the Holidy Creek bridge at this session of the court.

STEPS INTO HOLE

Fourteen-Year-Old Girl Drowned at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Tex., May 9.—Clarice Edmonds, the 14-year-old daughter of J. L. Edmonds, was drowned in a small pond a mile and a half northeast of town today. She waded out a few feet from the bank and suddenly stepped into a deep place beyond her depth. A little brother made an effort to rescue her and came near being drowned. The little girl was taken out of the water by Albert Coley, who was passing by, but life was extinct and all efforts to revive her proved futile.

"The Clothiers"

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York May 10.—It must have been a severe blow to some of the merchants of New York when Mrs. Theodore Octavia Moss, the eccentric widow of a veteran theatrical manager of great wealth, died last January. Since her death it has come to light that Mrs. Moss had a mania for purchasing all kinds of things for which she had absolutely no use. It is said that in the last twenty years of her life Mrs. Moss spent $600,000 alone at a certain fashionable store on Fifth Avenue. When her magnificent home on Madison avenue was searched after her death, fully four thousand unopened packages containing dress goods, lace, embroideries, silks, satins, linens, millinery trimmings, etc., were found piled up in a spare room on the top floor. Many of these goods, which bore the labels of various fashionable merchants of New York, had been purchased many years ago and had never been touched since they had been stored away after having been delivered to the purchaser. The son and two grandsons, being the only heirs of Mrs. Moss' estate, had no use for the accumulation of dry goods and had them sold at auction the other day. The jewelry accumulated by the money mad widow were sold some time ago and brought $30,000, although it had originally cost a great deal more. How recklessly and indiscriminately Mrs. Moss spent her money may be inferred from the fact that among the goods found in unopened bundles and auctioned off were several dozen bundles of feathers and millinery trimmings, five hundred parasols, one hundred fans and many dozens of kimonos, shawls, beaded capes and velvet gowns.

Aristocratic circles of Gotham are all in a flutter of excitement over a most shocking occurrence. The other day the Princess Lwoff Parlaghy, the distinguished portrait painter, who, with her retinue, occupies a suite of twelve rooms at the Plaza, was the cause of a most serious affront to the Duchess of Manchester, who also occupies a suite in the same hotel. Of course, there is a story to that occurrence, but it is, by no means, so sensational as the busy scandalmongers of the city would like to make it. When the princess came to the Plaza last fall she brought with her, besides a small army of servants and a shipload of trunks, her pet dog. As the rules of the hotel do not permit dogs to be taken in the elevators, the princess requested that one of the elevators be set aside for her exclusive use. Her request was granted and ever since that time one of the elevators was reserved for the exclusive use of the princess, her dog and her servants. The other day the princess had just returned from a ride in the park and stepped into her special elevator, to have herself and her dog taken to the second floor. Just then the Duchess of Manchester, whose suite is on the third floor, attempted to board the lift, but the sitting door was shut in her face. The Duchess took another lift and immediately telephoned to the manager, complaining of the rude treatment that was accorded her. The situation was explained to her and that ended the matter for everybody, except the gossips.

Lieut. Edmund Blaney, in charge of the Atlantic Avenue Police Station, Brooklyn, proved himself a Spartanlike father the other day when he caused his own son to be locked up on the charge of disorderly conduct. Young Blaney was engaged in a fight with another young man when he was arrested by an officer. Notwithstanding his protestations, young Blaney was taken to the station, where his father was at the desk. Lieut. Blaney repressed his emotion and sternly took the pedigree of the prisoner and entered it in the records. Then he ordered the prisoner searched and locked in a cell. Lieut. Blaney has been on the police force for many years and bears an excellent record.

George Liable, three feet high, who belongs to the company of midgets playing at the Hippodrome, appeared complainant in the municipal court the other day against the manager of his company, a man of more than six feet and broad in proportion. The scene looked like a modernized parody on the David-Goliath incident of biblical fame. The suit was about some money matters and was adjourned to arrange a settlement. That was the long and short of it.

There is a man in the town of Milltown, N. J., who has gone about as far in anticipating his death as any man can go without committing suicide or dying a natural death. The man is a Grand Army veteran and in comfortable circumstances. Some years ago he purchased a lot in the cemetery of his town and every year since that time, on Memorial Day, he has been in the habit of decorating his prospective grave and planting a little American flag upon it. He also had a tombstone, properly inscribed, put on his grave and only the date of his death needs to be filled in to make it complete. A few days ago he bought a metal coffin in which he expects to be buried. On next Memorial Day he intends to have his picture taken, decorating his own grave. There is a grim humor in the man's doings.

There is a mortgage of fifteen hundred dollars upon the rectory of Christ Church, Williamsburg and, to remove the incumbrance, the pastor of the church appealed to the members of the congregation to contribute money or anything that could be converted into money to wipe out the debt. The collection was made after service on Sunday and on that day the church looked like the waiting room of a suburban railroad on Saturday evening, when the commuters, loaded down with parcels are homeward bound. Hundreds of parcels were handed to the ushers who made the collection and the pastor was greatly pleased over the apparent willingness of his church. A few days later the parcels were opened by a committee in the presence of the pastor and a jeweler. As package after package was opened and the contents were exposed to view, the hopes of the pastor dropped like the mercury when a blizzard sets in. Nothing but old junk! Cheap silver watches of mythical age, tarnished and mottled pocket knives, plain spoons with the silver worn off, but lated silver coins and cheap jewelry of the department store kind formed the bulk of the contributors. The jeweler examined the lot and finally said that $150 would be a good price for that whole lot. A ten-dollar gold piece enclosed in a small box was the only thing of value contributed by the congregation, which includes quite a number of wealthy families.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity
—Northern division.—Tonight and Wednesday, cloudy weather.

County Assessor Bullock is authority for the statement that the natural increase in property values in Wichita County for the past year, including everything, will be at least one million more than last year, which means that the total will reach eleven million. A million a year is doing tolerably well.

Several more members of the Tenth Street Auto Racing Club have contributed to the city's exchequer, recently. They think it's worth the money, and the city needs the money, so everybody ought to be satisfied.

Several exchanges have recently published an article headed: "Will the price of meat come down?" We are not qualified to give any expert testimony on the subject, but we can make a darn good guess.

The outrageous rates for fire insurance now being charged in Texas are hurting the business interests of the state worse than the drought. In fact, the people are being held up to a greater extent by the fire insurance companies than by any other trust or combine, and the worst feature of the business is that they, the insurance companies, are charging these rates according to rulings and schedules approved by state officials. If the various candidates for governor would devote just a little of their time in telling the people what relief they might look for, or expect, in the event of their election, it would be appreciated. The people certainly need in the governor's office a man who has the backbone of a James Stephen Hogg, and had that been the case, there is no sort of doubt but that the insurance companies would have been glad to remain in Texas and do business and take for their trouble a reasonable compensation. It is perfectly ridiculous for anyone to assert that the rates now being charged are not extortionate and unreasonable, and all that is necessary to prove this assertion is to compare the rates now being charged for fire insurance in Wichita Falls to that of towns in Oklahoma, which afford not one-half the fire protection as does this city, and yet these Oklahoma towns are getting their insurance at from 50 to 100 per cent cheaper than Texas towns. It is not right or just to charge that one is being literally robbed, unless there are facts to sustain such a charge, but, in this instance, there is abundance of proof to prove all that has been asserted in this article. Just why the officials of as great a state as Texas will stand idly by and permit such things to go on is a question the present administration should be held to answer for. It would also be of some interest to the people of Texas to know just why it was that at least one of the state officials resigned his office just after the present schedule for the fixing of insurance rates had been concocted and approved by him, and which one of the insurance companies he is now working for.

When a man says he has seen the comet it doesn't necessarily mean that he got up that early; he may have just been going to bed.

We have a sort of premonition that something is going to bust loose when Roosevelt and Wilhelm get together.

SITTING ON LOST OBJECTS.

No One, Not Even a Paralytic, is Exempt from Suspicion.

Human nature is so absurd. After all these years when a thing is lost the searcher after it is invariably convinced that someone is sitting on it. There is no reason to suppose such a thing. Persons have been accused of this very trick for centuries, they always rise, though under protest and in revolt, and the object is never, or very seldom, discovered under them. The lost object may be of a shape that one could not sit on comfortably; but that does not change matters in the least. With desks and tables and shelves and pigeon holes and no end of other likely places to look over, everyone always insists that you rise. Nothing else has quite the power to make that burning rage rise in one's breast. It is so unfair. There are some persons who would suspect a paralytic who had been sitting in the same spot for twenty years of concealing under him the thing they had mislaid twenty minutes ago.

It cannot be that they seriously think people prefer sitting on chairs already occupied; it must be that in the annoyance of being unable to find what they want they need the relief of making everyone else as uncomfortable as they are. This is the most charitable interpretation to put upon their actions, for though it is tiresome of them it is not feeble minded, and to imply that you are sitting unconcernedly on a hair-brush or a pair of manicure scissors is insulting to your intelligence and theirs. The suspicion is so instinctive however, and the hot desire to prove one's innocence follows so quickly after, that if anyone enters into a room announcing pettily, "I can't find the parrot anywhere," the assembled company would rise as one man to refute the mute implication.—New York Evening Sun.

What Are You Willing to Pay for Coffee

20, 25, 35, 40c per lb.—You, of course, don't want anything cheaper than 30c and in the range quoted we have the very best coffee that can be produced for the price.

Continental at 20c and Concord at 25c are, of course, the most popular because of the price.

"Lexington" is a new grade we have just added; it is 35c, while "Revere" is the top notch of coffee perfection, at 40c.

Now let us give you a coffee secret:

When you pay 25, 35 or 40c per lb. for either Concord, Lexington or Revere you are not extravagant in the least, for you get enough additional strength for each 5c extra that you pay to make that many more cups of better coffee in each case for each step up in price you naturally get better flavor and more of it.

Give Lexington or Revere a try out on our recommendation.

NEW DEFENDER OF COAST.

Great Mortar is Being Built By Government.

Washington.—The Government is at work on a new mortar of greater carrying power and will install it at Panama when the canal is completed. The term bomb has become almost obsolete in the vernacular of the military service, and yet that term best conveys to the lay mind the idea of the projectile fired from the mortar battery. These projectiles, always fired into the air at an angle of 45 degrees or more, fired in salvo—that is, four guns fired simultaneously—and designed to drop from a fearful altitude with a velocity little less than that with which they left the muzzle of the mortar, are designed especially to pierce the comparatively light armor of the decks of warships, and if possible to penetrate to the vitals of the ship before they explode.

The present style of mortar projectile weighs 1000 pounds, and has an effective range of 10,000 yards, but it is proposed soon to substitute a lighter projectile, one weighing about 700 pounds, but which will have an effective range of 17,000 yards. As this is the first announcement of the purpose of the military authorities in this regard it will doubtless be received with surprise, but in coast defense corps will be formally announced by the authorities themselves.—Boston Evening Transcript.

A "Bill Bailey" Joke.

An actor talked sadly of Will Cannon, author of "Bill Bailey" and "Good-Goo Eyes," who died in poverty last month in Michigan.

"Poor Bill," he said, "was too happy-go-lucky to save; but, then, he didn't get out of his songs the profit that a good business man would have got. Bill was too flighty to do much business."

"One April Fool day in Shawmut he and I entered a barber's to be shaved. The shop was empty. The barber had slipped out somewhere. 'We'll have some fun,' said Bill, and throwing off his coat and hat, he drew on a white jacket."

"An old gentleman came in."

"Shave, sir?" Bill asked politely.

"Yes, please; close?"

"Bill lathered him and rubbed the lather in with his fingers. Then he lathered him again, and going to the rack put on his coat and hat and lit a cigar and calmly started out."

"Here," said the old man, sitting up in the chair, "aren't you going to shave me?"

"Oh, no, sir," said Bill, with a look of surprise. "We only lather here, sir. They shave four doors below."

To Guard Purity of Drugs.
Washington, D. C., May 10.—The first session of the United States Pharmacopoeial Convention since the passage and coming into force of the pure food law began here today with a full attendance, and will probably continue for at least a week. The United States Pharmacopoeial Convention is an incorporated body, chartered under the laws of the District of Columbia, July 7, 1906, and is continuous, with power to conduct revisions of the United States Pharmacopoeia under the constitution and by-laws framed by the convention. The present session of the convention is of exceptional importance, as it will deal with the task of undertaking a thorough revision of the United States Pharmacopoeia which, under the pure food law, will be the standard of the purity, strength and composition of all drugs and medicines included in it.

The last revision of the pharmacopoeia occurred in 1890, before then merely a standard guide, it was not enforced by law, but now, under the new food and drug law, the book is an official work, the requirements of which every pharmacist and dealer in drugs must copy under penalty of the law. The task of the revision committee of the present convention, headed by Dr. Joseph P. Remington, of Philadelphia, will be extremely difficult, owing to the fact that the views of the delegates, more or less influenced by the wishes of the bodies which they represent, as to the manner in which the revision shall be made, are widely divergent. While some of the delegates favor a restriction of the pharmacopoeia to a limited list of drugs and medicines in more or less common use, so as to take in not only the drugs and medicines already mentioned in the last edition, but a large number of new drugs which have come in use since the last revision and are, therefore, not described and standardized in the book. They are willing to concede only the dropping of certain obsolete drugs no longer prescribed by modern practitioners.

Many of the medical and pharmaceutical associations throughout the country have passed resolutions favoring some policy in revising the pharmacopoeia and there is a strong faction, headed by the New York delegates, upholding the principle that all articles commonly included in the medical stock of the pharmacist, and definite standards and tests suitable for the use of the practicing pharmacist should be provided for them, in spite of the fact that their therapeutic properties may not commend them to the better informed practitioner of medicine. The delegates maintain that the drugs left out would still be used by many physicians and it would be dangerous to leave them without protection of a legal standard.

The convention is a thoroughly representative body. Three of the delegates were appointed respectively by the Surgeon General of the army, the Surgeon General of the Navy and the Surgeon General of the Hospital Service, while other delegates represent the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture and nearly every important medical and pharmaceutical college and association in the country.

WOMEN'S BEAUTY.

Imperfect Digestion Causes Bad Complexion and Dull Eyes.

The color in your cheeks won't fade, the brightness in your eye won't vanish, if you keep your stomach in good condition.

This was the advice of a prominent physician to a woman's club in Boston and it is good advice. Belching of gas, heaviness, sour taste in mouth, dizziness, biliousness and nausea occur simply because the stomach is not properly digesting the food.

The blood needs nourishment to carry vigor, vim and vitality to every part of the body and when food ferments in the stomach enough nourishment is not supplied.

Mi-on-a stomach tablets give instant relief to upset stomachs, but they do more; they put strength into the stomach and build it up so that it can easily digest a hearty meal without giving its owner hours of misery.

Mi-on-a is sold by druggists everywhere and by Week's Drug Co. at 50 cents a large box. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion or any stomach distress or money back.

Rear Admiral Marx Retires.
Washington, May 10.—Today, after a career of 46 years of faithful and efficient service as an officer of the United States navy, Rear Admiral Adolph Marx, famous as the recorder of the naval board that fastened upon Spain the blame for sinking the battleship Maine, was placed on the retired list of the navy on account of having reached the age limit. Admiral Marx was born of Jewish parentage in Saxony in 1848 and came to the United States when a child. He entered the naval academy from Iowa and graduated with the class of 1868. He served in the naval campaign in Cuban waters in 1898 and later was naval attaché to Governor-General Taft in the Philippines. Recently he has acted as chairman of the Lighthouse Board.

Women's Club Federation.
Cincinnati, O., May 10.—Visiting club women from all parts of the country thronged the streets of Cincinnati today, and the arrival of every train added to the number already in the city by hundreds. This great gathering of women, of whom more than 3,000 are expected as accredited delegates, is here for the tenth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Though the formal opening of the gathering does not take place until tomorrow evening there are numerous interesting events in the way of committee conferences and features of entertainment scheduled for tonight and tomorrow.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Maakato is the first city of Minnesota to adopt the commission plan of government.

The anti-saloon forces are organizing in Oregon to make the state "dry" in 1911.

North Dakota democrats are out to land the vice presidential nomination in 1912 for Governor Burke of their state.

Former Governor W. M. O. Dawson of West Virginia has issued a denial of the report that he is a candidate for the United States senate.

Former President Roosevelt is expected to speak at the biennial convention of the National Republican League to be held in New York next month.

Iowa prohibitionists have nominated a complete state ticket, headed by E. A. McEachron, of Waterloo, as the candidate for governor.

Thomas Kerahaw, C. C. Featherstone and Colonel E. L. Bleasie will contest for the governorship in the democratic primaries in South Carolina this summer.

Governors Stuart of Pennsylvania, Ansel of South Carolina and Donaghey of Arkansas are expected to take part in the great Sunday School parade in Washington next week.

The democratic state convention will meet in Charlotte on July 14th, to name candidates for the offices to be filled at the election next November.

Democrats of South Dakota have chosen Chauncey L. Wood of Rapid City as the gubernatorial candidate to head the ticket to be voted for in the state primaries next month.

The opinion seems to be gaining ground in Georgia that former Governor Hoke Smith, who was defeated for re-election last year, is likely to again make the race for chief executive.

The most exciting local election the city of Denver has witnessed in years is to be held May 17, when a vote will be taken on the question of saloons or no saloons. The anti-saloon forces are making heroic efforts to arouse public sentiment in favor of their cause.

Montana is entitled to be called a banner republican state. In more than two-thirds of the counties of the state the democrats have not elected members of the legislature in recent years, and the chief strength of the party now, as formerly, is centered in the mining camps and about the smelters.

United States Senator Charles A. Culberson is now reported to be almost wholly recovered from the nervous breakdown which has kept him from Washington for a number of months. The senator has just sent his papers to the secretary of state of Texas announcing himself as a candidate for re-election. This was necessary, in view of the approaching primaries in Texas.

John W. Kern's acceptance of the nomination for United States senator on the democratic ticket completes the line-up for the coming campaign in Indiana, and the people are looking forward to one of the greatest political campaigns in the state's recent history. The chief contest will be over the United States senatorship. On the one side will be Senator Beveridge, the progressive, the foe of Cannonism and of a tariff which is "too protective," and on the other John W. Kern, twice honored by the democracy of Indiana with the nomination for governor and once the running mate of William J. Bryan on the national ticket.

Hon. S. M. Foster on Odd Fellowship.

Following is an excerpt from an address delivered on "Odd Fellowship," by Hon. S. M. Foster of this city at Newcastle on April 26th, as written by C. M. Shuffler and printed in the Oiler Enterprise of April 29th.

"In eloquent terms he then introduced the principal speaker of the day, Hon. S. M. Foster of Wichita Falls, candidate for district attorney.

In one of the greatest fraternal addresses we ever heard he told us that Odd Fellowship was more than 91 years old; that its principles were actuating the hearts of men long before the time of Mr. Wilder. As an outgrowth of love in his heart, Mr. Wilder formulated our principles and organized the first lodge and called it "Washington Lodge No. 1."

Following so closely upon the revolution, for a while it had a hard struggle. Finally the second lodge was organized in Baltimore, and called "Franklin Lodge." Then it began its marvelous growth. The speaker then paid a glowing tribute to womanhood. He actually said that a woman could keep a secret. He told us that the purpose of the order was to uplift mankind. Its practical workings are to relieve the widow and orphan in distress and to look after the comforts of a brother in adversity.

Here he gave us two beautiful and touching illustrations of this work. He told us of their Orphan Home, worth $125,000, where the fatherless receive an education. What impressed us most was that no saloon man, bartender, or other attache of the saloon, can be an Odd Fellow, and that no man who is thoroughly imbued with the order would drink. Following this, the strongest appeal to liberty loving people we have ever heard, was made by this brilliant young lawyer to unite and never cease to struggle until the shackles of the liquor traffic were broken. It was indeed a great speech; one that the thoughtful man will never forget. Sometimes he carried us away on the wings of his eloquence until we could almost feel the sphyra of heaven blowing upon us. Long may he live to sway the world by such burning messages.

Temple Entertains Firemen. Temple, Tex., May 10.—The State Firemen's Association began its annual convention and tournament here today. Firemen, accompanied by delegations of citizens and bands, poured in on every train. In honor of the visitors the business section of the city is handsomely decorated. Today was devoted chiefly to the reception of the delegates and the formal opening proceedings. The program for tomorrow and Thursday provides for a big parade and hook and ladder and boss races and other prize contests. Hillsboro is waging a vigorous fight for next year's meeting of the association.

BABY SAVED BY CRIES.

Father Rescues Son From Cistern While Mother Gets Ladder.

Amarillo, Tex., May 9.—Only the screams of the little son of Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Clagett of Pampa school saved him from drowning at that place yesterday.

The little fellow was at play in the yard when the parents heard its voice in distressed, sharp cry. They ran to the cistern just in time to see the body of their baby sinking beneath the four feet of water.

Prof. Clagett hastily jumped into the cistern and raised his son as the latter sank finally. The mother, in the meantime had not lost her head, but procured a ladder by which the father and baby left the near-water grave.
