WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1910

NUMBER 15

THIRTEEN-INNING GAME YESTERDAY

THE "IRISH LADS" AND ALTUS GO FOUR EXTRA INNINGS TO A TIE.

BOTH SCORE IN ELEVENTH

Large Crowd See Game and Both Teams Supported by Many Rooters.

Lake Wichita and Altus battled thirteen innings to a tie yesterday afternoon at the lake park, darkness ending the contest. The game was about as evenly matched as it could have been and neither side was able to obtain any advantage. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 2 to 2, where it stayed until the eleventh inning, when Altus apparently won the game by running in three scores. In the Lads' half of the inning, however, they duplicated this performance, leaving the score once more hopelessly tied. Two more innings were played, when darkness brought the game to an undecided close.

Both teams were in better form than in the two preceding games. The Altus team had a large coterie of rooters in the grandstand and a good play by either side brought plenty of applause. Some trouble with umpires well experienced and four changes were made before Tuille Speer was given the indicator, and his work gave cooperative satisfaction.

Altus took the lead in the first inning when an error and a hit let in one run. By the fourth inning Wichita Falls had tied the score and gained a lead of one, which she held until the eighth, when Altus made her second run and tied the score. Several times in the extra innings it seemed that the game would end, but each time the side was retired scoreless, until the eleventh. Altus scored after two were out, on an outfield error. The three-run lead seemed a difficult one to overcome, but by a consistent hitting game Wichita Falls brought in three runs and kept the score tied.

It is seldom that a park is opened with a series of three games as interesting as that completed yesterday. The home team won the first two games in good form and failed to win yesterday's only after a hard struggle.

SPEECH BY ROOSEVELT IN LONDON TODAY VERY MUCH OF A SENSATION

By Associated Press. London, May 31.—Theodore Roosevelt was today presented with the freedom of the City of London. He accepted the honor by making an address at Guild Hall giving the motherland some bold advice as to her duty toward the troublesome dependency of South Africa and Egypt.

"It was," Roosevelt said, "either right or not right for Great Britain to be in Egypt and establish order there; if it was not right she should get out."

As a whole the speech constituted the most forcible expression on foreign topics the visitor has made during his European tour.

IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Washington, May 31.—The statute of Missouri prohibiting foreign corporations from doing business within the State is today pronounced unconstitutional by the Supreme court of the United States.

John Cort, president of the association, says he has certain assurances that such a bill will be passed in several states.

TO ENJOIN INCREASE.

Government Officials Decide to File Suit at Once.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Following a conference today between the president and Attorney General Wickesham, it is learned that a decision was reached to file an injunction suit against the proposed increased freight rates.

PAVILION AT LAKE TO BE CHRISTENED "COLONNADE" MANY SUGGESTIONS MADE

"The Colonnade" is the name selected for the big pavilion at Lake Wichita as a result of the prize offered by Mr. Kell for the most appropriate name for that structure. A great many names were submitted by the ladies in this contest and it was difficult to make a selection, but the decision was finally in favor of the above title, which was suggested by Miss Pauline Sloan, an attaché of the Times office. The pavilion will be known as the "Colonnade" now and henceforth.

FURTHER INVESTIGATION.

Grand Jury in Illinois Will Question Legislators.
By Associated Press. Springfield, Ill., May 31.—Preparations were made today for further investigations into the legislative bribery by the Sangamon grand jury. Representative McManis, republican, and McCullough, democrat, both from the Forty-second Senatorial District, from which Senator Holt comes, and both of whom voted for Lorimer the day he was elected, will be quizzed.

Subpoenas were issued today for Representatives Foster and Staymates both Democrats, who voted for Lorimer for Senator. A subpoena was issued for State Fish Commissioner Cohn, who will be questioned about rumors concerning attempts to block fish legislation.

NEW KEY RATES.

Feeling is Reported Very High in El Paso.
Texas News Service Special. Austin, Tex., May 31.—The Fire Rating Board today received a number of key rates which include: Sherman, 44 cents; Corsicana, 50 cents, and Greenville, 59 cents.

H. D. Knight, representing the board, today returned from a trip to El Paso. He says feeling is high there as a result of the recent raise in insurance rates.

NICARAGUA INSURGENTS WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF GOVERNMENTS FLIGHT

Texas News Service Special. New Orleans, May 31.—Cablegrams were received at the Texas News Service Bureau this morning telling the details of the defeat of the Madriz forces. The Madriz junta had also received messages today to the same effect. Five hundred government forces are dead from fighting and pestilence as a result of operations this week about Bluefields. The greatest casualties were caused by the rapid-fire machine guns from the Estrada forces.

The defenders of the city lost one hundred killed and wounded. The friends of Madriz in the New Orleans Junta said "President Madriz may as well abandon the struggle in Central America, for evidently the government is about to be supplanted by that of Estrada." It seems the American State Department is determined to put Madriz out of business and the quicker he makes concessions looking to permanent peace of the country, the more concessions he is likely to receive himself.

This statement was made following the receipt of news here that the United States had ordered more troops to Nicaragua.

Cablegrams received here this morning from Bluefields, Nicaragua, say: "A conference early this morning, in which Estrada's staff participated, practically decided to engage Madriz's remaining forces in open battle on the field here this afternoon or tomorrow. The decision was reached following reports of scouts that the Madriz men are greatly weakened, and probably unable to withstand an attack because of lack of provision and the ravages of disease in the camp."

COPYING AFTER TEXAS.

National Theatre Owners' Association Wants More Stringent Laws.
New York, May 30.—The directors of the National Theatre Owners' association here have adopted a resolution urging the passing of laws "to insure perfect freedom in the booking of attractions for all existing theaters or new theatres that may be constructed."

Each representative of the association in the district which he serves to pass a law similar to the Texas and Missouri anti-trust laws, which compel the proprietors of theatres to show their books to producing managers and to book any attractions for time that is available on their books.

John Cort, president of the association, says he has certain assurances that such a bill will be passed in several states.

ACCIDENT ON SANTA FE.

Fireman and Brakeman Aged Severely Injured.

Texas News Service Special. Gainesville, Tex., May 31.—Two were injured in an accident on a south-bound freight train on the Red River bridge of the Santa Fe at 4 o'clock this morning, when the side rods were loosened, became detached and crashed into the left side of the locomotive cab, where were seated Fireman J. L. Stephenson and head brakeman I. C. Stevens. Stephenson was hurt internally and bruised on the head and limbs. Stevens has scald wounds and bruises on his body.

BIG ELEPHANT A THIEF.

Alice Pulls Ring From Woman's Finger at New York Zoo.
New York, May 30.—Zoo authorities at the Bronx zoo regretfully admitted this morning that Alice, the biggest elephant at the zoo is a thief. She stole a diamond ring yesterday from Miss Elizabeth Morrill of Chautauqua, N. Y., who was feeding crackers to her. The ring, which was in Miss Morrill's finger, was loose and Alice apparently snatched it under the impression that it was good to eat.

Alice is esteemed to be more valuable than the ring, and therefore there will be no surgical operations.

THOROUGH SUCCESS, WAS CELEBRATION

AFTERNOON PASSED WITHOUT A SINGLE MARRING INCIDENT. ALL SATISFIED.

VISITORS RETURN HOME WANT DEFINITE ACTION

Many Remained Over Until Today, Going Back on This Afternoon's Trains.

The visit of the excursionists to this city yesterday came to an end late yesterday evening and at about eight o'clock last night the special train over the Northwestern pulled out with a cargo of tired, but satisfied, Oklahomans.

The afternoon was spent at the lake in various ways. Many went rowing or took motor boat rides and the other amusements were also liberally patronized. The ball game was a drawing feature to the extent of over two thousand. The only feature of the affair that did not seem pleasing to the visitors was the fact that there was no formal reception extended on the part of the Wichitans. This was largely out of the question, as the train stopped in town only long enough for the visitors to get dinner and it would not have been possible to carry out such a program as that held on the occasion of the recent visit of Wichita Falls to Elk City. Most of the excursionists were more than satisfied with their trip here, but there were some who thought that Wichita Falls might have appeared more glad to see them.

Several hundred of the visitors remained over today and the rooming houses were filled to their capacity last night. Practically all returned to their homes on this afternoon's trains.

There was a dance at the lake pavilion last night, attended by about one hundred couples, who followed the trail of the light fantastic until after midnight. Music was furnished by the Wichita band.

The occasion passed off without any disagreeable incidents and there was not a thing to mar the success of the affair. Good nature prevailed and the celebration, while now history, will long be pleasantly remembered by all who took part.

TO SETTLE DISPUTE.

Hague Tribunal to Arbitrate the Newfoundland Fisheries Matter.
By Associated Press. The Hague, May 31.—The arbitrations of the tribunal before which will be tried the issue between the United States and Great Britain, growing out of conflicting interpretations of the Newfoundland fisheries treaty of 1818, will hold the opening session at 9 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

LYNCHING IN MISSOURI.

Negro Who Resisted Officer is Hanged. By Mob.

By Associated Press. New Madrid, Mo., May 31.—A mob yesterday stormed the jail and took a negro from the prison and lynched him on the banks of the Mississippi river here. The negro was charged with striking Marshal Richards after he and other negroes were ordered from a street corner.

Mrs. Doney to Testify.
By Associated Press. St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—Mrs. Dora Doney will be a witness in her own behalf, probably tomorrow. She will testify that she is a slave to morphine as a result of the administration of the drug by her husband, Dr. Doney, and further declares she knows nothing of the arsenic found in the stomach of William Erdor.

ROADS BOND ISSUE AGAIN AGITATED

QUESTION OF THIS IMPROVEMENT BROUGHT UP FOR ACTION ONCE MORE.

WANT DEFINITE ACTION

New Bridges Contracted For Have Revived Interest in This Question Again.

The county road question is being revived and since the decision of the county commissioners to improve the bridge facilities, both here and in other parts of the county, the matter is being considered again with renewed activity. The plan is to ask for a pro-rated bond issue of fifty or seventy-five thousand dollars and to improve all the roads radiating from this city.

The extension of east Seventh street is the first object and this has already been made feasible by the construction of the new bridge across Holliday Creek. The filling in of the gap between the city limits and this bridge will probably be started at an early date. The question of a bond issue for county roads has been agitated several times, but no definite action has yet been taken, and it is felt that the time has come to get the matter under way.

There is need of at least good roads to the south and east, while practically every thoroughfare in the county would stand more or less improved.

The county commissioners took the matter up, in an informal way, at their last session, but will hardly call an election for the bonds until a petition is presented. With the new bridges contracted for and contemplated, it will be possible to give Wichita county, particularly that section of it immediately contiguous to Wichita Falls, a good road system and settlement seems to be in favor of having some definite action taken.

SAYS SHE IS INNOCENT.

Woman Arrested in Connection With Kellner Crime.

By Associated Press. Louisville, May 31.—Persistent questioning last night of Mrs. Wendling, failed to shake the woman in her first declaration that she knew nothing of the crime. Diligent investigation by the police and detectives is weaving a strong chain of circumstantial evidence about the missing janitor for the apprehension of whom the police will set out a drag net which will sweep every part of the country.

The Kellner family today offered a reward of one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Alma. Mrs. Lena Wendling was present in the police court today and her case was continued until June 8. Mrs. Wendling denies all knowledge of the murder of the girl.

ROOSEVELT MAY STUMP TEXAS FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINEES THIS SUMMER

By Associated Press. Washington, May 31.—As a preliminary to writing the history of Texas, Theodore Roosevelt will enter the political arena of Texas and other States this summer in behalf of the nominees of the Republican party, according to an announcement made here this morning supposed to have come from Collector Loeb of the port of New York, who is regarded as the political representative of the former president during his absence. Democrats discussing the announcements this morning expressed great interest in the development and are wondering what Roosevelt will do if the tariff bill is made one of the issues by the Democratic nominees for the governorship of Texas. The stated Republican belief is that it means Roosevelt will support the administration. The insurgents approached had nothing to say. Whether the Texas congressmen and Senators join in repulsing the invasion or Roosevelt or mind their own political fences is a matter of conjecture. No direct statement was had from Texas today. Roosevelt will spend several months on Cecil Lyons' ranch following the campaign.

SHORT WALKOUT.

Garment Workers Out One Hour at Fort Worth.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, May 31.—Because the manager of Miller Bros. overruled factory objections to the girls going on a picnic on Memorial Day, as directed by the head of the union, one hundred garment workers struck here this morning, remaining out one hour. It was the shortest strike ever known in local labor circles. The manager urged the employes to work yesterday, pleading that he was behind with orders and offering double pay. The reprimand, following the refusal and the picnic yesterday resulted in a brief walk-out this morning.

CITY OF MEXICO ROCKED.

Slight Earthquake Shock Causes Much Alarm.

City of Mexico, May 30.—A slight earthquake of about one and a half minutes' duration was experienced here tonight beginning at 10:25. The oscillation was from east to west. No damage was done, but for a time, considerable apprehension was felt, particularly among guests at the various hotels.

Many who had retired hurried into the hallways scantily clad and those in the lobbies ran into the streets. In the residence districts also hundreds of people left their homes hurriedly, but the wave had passed almost before its significance was realized.

STRIKE ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

Wholesale Dismissal Follows Ultimatum by Employes.

Texas News Service Special. Houston, May 31.—The trackmen especially the section foremen are being dismissed by the wholesale today between Houston and San Antonio along the Southern Pacific as a result of the ultimatum by the maintenance of ways employes last night demanding increased pay and threatening a strike if rejected, at six o'clock tonight. The Southern Pacific officials say the places of the men will be filled easily.

BROOKLYN HANDICAP TODAY.

SPLENDID SHOWING BY TRACTION CO.

NO MISHAPS OR DELAYS

Crowd Was Handled Expeditiously and Without Trouble of Any Character.

A total of over twenty thousand people were hauled Sunday and Monday of this week by the Wichita Traction Co., that many fares being recorded on the registers. Of this number about eleven thousand were carried yesterday and nine thousand Sunday, making a really remarkable showing for the two days. Had the new cars been here, permitting the Traction company to haul the crowd in stead of having the Southern relieve it, this number would have been several thousand larger.

The two days' crowd was handled without a single accident of any kind, without any delays and without even so much as a minor dispute of any kind to mar the excellence of the record.

Yesterday afternoon every one of the cars and trailers made precisely every trip to the Lake loaded to the guards with passengers and most of them were equally crowded coming back. Up to nearly 11 o'clock this morning the heavy traffic continued. New switches have been recently installed near the Southern crossing, with a loop at the Lake, make the expeditious handling of cars very easy and a time schedule was put on that made few delays possible.

The new street cars are now en route to this city and will probably be here this week. There are eight of them, double-truckers, and of nearly twice the capacity of the present coaches. The Traction Company will be able to give as good service as any line in the State when the new rolling stock arrives.

When it is remembered that the line has been in operation less than nine months and that Wichita Falls is the smallest city in the State with a car-line in operation, the above showing will be considered still more remarkable. Very few of the smaller lines in the State are being profitably operated, but the Wichita line is undoubtedly an exception to this rule.

BUTCHERS AND DAIRYMEN WHO VIOLATE PURE FOOD LAW TO BE PROSECUTED

Texas News Service Special. Austin, May 31.—The prosecution of dairymen and butchers violating the pure food law of the state is the program outlined today by Commissioner J. S. Abbott, following complaints filed against eight San Antonio dealers yesterday. The commissioner declares those who are violating the law will have no rest until they pay the penalties. The reports indicate many violations over the state.

NORTHWESTERN GRADING FOR EXTENSION, NORTH TO HAMMON, OKLAHOMA

The Northwestern is now grading for its extension north of Elk City, which will extend eighteen miles, to Hammon. The grading is well under way and steady progress is being made, although it will be some time before steel is laid.

Steel is being laid on the Altus-Holla branch at a rapid rate and the first of July will probably see the completion of the road to Holla. This part of the work has been considerably delayed by rains, but is now progressing satisfactorily.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Republicans of Wisconsin who are supporters of the national administration, will hold a conference in Milwaukee next week.

In September next New Hampshire will nominate candidates for all offices from the governorship down, by direct vote.

Speaker Cannon is quoted as predicting that congress will not adjourn until July 15th, at the earliest, and possibly not before August 1st.

Either former Governor John Lind or Congressman W. S. Hammond is expected to be the democratic candidate for governor of Minnesota this year.

Governor Fort of New Jersey declares that he is not a candidate for any public office, and that if ever again he accepts an office it will be a judicial one.

At a general primary next August the democrats of South Carolina will vote for candidates for all state offices, for United States senator and members of congress.

The name "socialist" was first applied to the party in 1835 in England, and at that time Robert Owens' little gathering was known as "the association of all classes of all nations."

It is said that an eight-foot ballot will be required in the state election in South Dakota next November, owing to the large number of measures to be voted on under the initiative and referendum.

The question of Senator Baile's personal choice has become a leading factor in the gubernatorial contest in Texas, where a fierce five-cornered race is on for the democratic nomination.

In the coming primary in Oregon nearly a dozen aspirants are expected to make the race for the governorship, which office is now filled by Secretary of State Benson, because of the election of Governor Chamberlain to the United States senate.

It is said that ninety per cent of the cities of any size in Kansas have adopted or are working under the commission plan of government. Among them are Kansas City, with a population of 100,000; Topeka, the state capital, Wichita and Leavenworth.

Nine states have state-wide prohibition. Three of these—Maine, Kansas and North Dakota—are northern states. The others—Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Mississippi—are southern states. Whether other states are to join the list will be settled by the elections of the states this fall.

Although the election does not take place until next year, the Kentucky democrats are already discussing nominations for the contest. A full state ticket must be chosen and a candidate for United States senator endorsed. Three years ago the republicans carried their ticket by nearly 17,000 majority, and came within a few votes of controlling the legislature. But, although they lost that body, they elected, through democratic divisions, their candidate for the senate—Governor W. O. Bradley. Since then the democrats have settled most of their differences and as a consequence they are entertaining hopes of victory next year.

Brooklyn Handicap Day.
New York, May 31.—A notable array of horses was announced for the Brooklyn Handicap today, the opening event of the spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club at Gravesend. The early indications pointed to an enormous crowd of spectators. Today's race is the twenty-fifth renewal of the famous event. The distance is one mile and a quarter, and the value of the race to this year's winner will be about $8,000.

Interest in the Epsom Derby.
London, May 31.—Though the court mourning will deprive this year's Derby of its social prestige, the famous event to be run at Epsom Downs tomorrow promises to be one of the much interest and importance as ever to the regular followers of the turf. The early betting on the race is unusually heavy. Lord Roseberry's Nell Gow and Lemberg continue the favorites, at odds of 3 to 1.

Jack Goodman vs. Jim Driscoll.
New York, May 31.—The feature of the Fairmont Athletic Club show tonight will be the bout between Jack Goodman, the New York lightweight, and Jim Driscoll, the lightweight champion of England. The two fighters are regarded as evenly matched and the contest promised to be one of the fastest of the season.

Natal Day in South Africa.
Cape Town, May 31.—The union of the four South African colonies—Transvaal, Cape of Good Hope, Natal and Orange River State—became an accomplished fact today, when the new government of United South Africa was formally proclaimed, with Viscount Gladstone as the first Governor-General. The inauguration of the new government was made the occasion for a general holiday. Hundreds of visitors came to Cape Town to witness the inauguration ceremonies and the city presented a festive appearance. The Governor-General took the oath of office in the presence of an immense crowd which thronged the vicinity of the legislative palace. The Governor-General was surrounded by the dignitaries of State and the official representatives of the four colonies which have now come under the administration of a single central government.

The inauguration of the union government marks the dawn of a new era in the history of South Africa. It is regarded as a striking example of the essential vigor and soundness of the British political system that within the decade that saw the outbreak of the Boer war the four provinces of South Africa should, of their free motion, unite to form one state, with a single parliament. This is what is achieved by the Constitution, which became effective today. The Constitution provides for substantial unification. The new government is to be strongly centralized, following the Canadian rather than the American or Australian plan in reserving all powers not specially delegated to the provinces. Practically all the interests and affairs of the provinces are placed in the hands of the central parliament, the purely local and administrative business of each province only being in the hands of a provincial council, which also is subject finally to the authority of parliament.

The administrative officers of the new government are to be at Pretoria, the capital of the Transvaal, while the supreme court and other high courts will be established in Bloemfontein, the chief city of the Orange River State. The sessions of parliament are to be held in Cape Town, which is to be the seat of the legislative government. The parliament is to consist of two houses, the senate and the house of assembly. The senate is to consist of thirty-two elected and eight nominated senators, four of which latter are to be appointed in virtue of thorough acquaintance with the wants and wishes of the colored races of South Africa. The appointment of the eight nominated senators is to rest with the Governor-General in council, and they are to hold office for ten years. The elected senators are to be chosen by the provincial councils, each province being entitled to eight representatives.

The house of assembly is to consist of 112 members chosen directly by the voters and assigned to the various provinces in the following manner: Cape of Good Hope, 51; Natal, 17; Orange River Colony, 17; Transvaal, 36. Members of both houses must be British subjects of European descent and have resided in the Union for five years. The principal of proportional representation, with the single transferable vote, is adopted for all elections provided for under the constitution. No voter is to be disqualified solely on the ground of race color.

The Governor-General has selected General Louis Botha, premier of the Transvaal, to form the first ministry cabinet of united South Africa. The first elections will probably not be held for several months. In the meantime the cabinet will have to refashion to a considerable extent the whole administrative system heretofore divided among four governments. The cabinet will also have numerous appointments to make, patronage to dispense, and precedents to lay down of supreme importance to the future character and welfare of the new dominion.

General Botha is regarded as a man highly qualified for the important position to which he has been chosen. His career is one of the most remarkable examples in recent history. Ten years ago he was an ordinary member of the Transvaal Volksraad. A few months later his courage and energy brought him to the supreme command of the Transvaal forces. For over two years he sustained against the British a struggle whose helplessness he realized from the beginning. When the inevitable end came near it was his influence with his people that turned the scale in favor of a formal surrender which preserved the political cohesion and moral self-respect of the Boers and incidentally insured his own supremacy as their political leader.

Roosevelt's Visit at Guildhall.

London, May 31.—Theodore Roosevelt was the guest of the City of London today at Guildhall, and was formally presented with an address by the City Corporation, handsomely embellished and in a gold casket. This ceremony, commonly referred to as the presentation of "the freedom of the city," was in pursuance of a time-honored custom, dating from many centuries back, which demands that whenever the head of a state or other person of great distinction visits England, he shall be entertained by the Corporation of the City of London in their ancient and picturesque Guildhall.

Owing to the court mourning many of the picturesque and spectacular features were of course omitted from today's ceremony. Nevertheless the visit to Guildhall and the informal reception were attended with considerable magnificence, and the occasion, which added one more to the many historical incidents in the annals of the ancient City of London, afforded the population of the metropolis an opportunity of manifesting with spontaneous good-will their friendly sentiments toward the United States.

The reception in honor of Mr. Roosevelt was attended by over 1,000 guests, among whom were the ministers of the cabinet, high officers of state, members of the city government, and many representative Americans. Minister Ried accompanied Mr. Roosevelt to the Guildhall. The scene within the historic edifice, where General Grant was once feted, was given a touch of color by the presence of numerous military officers and civil dignitaries in their brilliant uniforms and robes of office. The Lord Mayor, wearing a long trailing crimson robe and miniver cape, welcomed the distinguished American in behalf of the City of London and formally presented to the distinguished American the gold casket containing the address of the City Corporation. A brief reply by Mr. Roosevelt, acknowledging the cordial reception accorded him by the inhabitants of London, concluded the formal ceremonies. Later the former President and the members of his family were given an opportunity to meet the officials of the City of London and numerous other persons of distinction who attended the reception.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity.
Tonight and Wednesday, fair.

One of the many important things to be accomplished by the next legislature will be that of re-districting the state. Conditions have changed very materially during the past few years, and as the senatorial districts are now composed, some of them have only about 12,000 people, while others have nearly 40,000. This is not right, as it gives as much power to the senator who is the representative of a district composed of 12,000 people as it does to the senator who is supposed to voice the sentiment of his district having a population of 40,000.

The result of the local option election in Cooke County Saturday was a decisive victory for the prohs, as they made gains in every box in the county over the 1905 election, at which time the county went wet. The total vote of the county, as given by the Daily Register was as follows: For local option, 2353; against local option, 1954. Two years ago nearly all of the leading business men of Gainesville lined up against local option, but after a two years' trial, some of them repented of their action and voted to close the saloons.

The Cooke county gentleman who said a few weeks ago something to the effect that under certain conditions he would prefer to live in hell and rent out Texas, judging from the returns of the election held in that county last Saturday, will now be perfectly justified in having his ticket punched for the nearest county where such conditions do not prevail.

The Times isn't very proud of the fact that the Elk Citizens, coming here from a town about half as large as Wichita Falls, found only dirt streets to compare with the brick pavements

To the very agreeable surprise of all reports from the country surrounding Wichita Falls are to the effect that there will be a few crops of wheat harvested in this county this year that will make an average yield of twenty bushels per acre, and also a few crops of oats that will yield as much as forty bushels per acre. Of course there are many crops of both wheat and oats that will not be harvested at all, on account of the extreme dry weather which prevailed during the winter and spring months, but the majority of the wheat crops are now being harvested, and it is conservatively estimated they will yield all the way from seven to twenty bushels per acre. This is by far better than was expected one month ago, or, before the recent rains began to fall, which have not only made it possible for the making of a fairly good wheat crop, but made it possible for the raising of record-breaking corn and cotton crops this year. This condition of our crops reminds those of us who have resided in this section for the past twenty or thirty years that just about as fairly good crops have been made from poor prospects, as bad crops or dismal failures have been the outcome of very good prospects.

The News has received from Mr. W. R. Ely of Baird and from three gentlemen at other places assurances that some of the straw ballots recently sent in and published were never taken at all, and that returns were really made up and sent to the press merely as a joke. There is no way to determine the genuineness of most reports of this sort, and, while the News would really prefer to give such expressions to its readers, it believes that to do so, under the circumstances, would be misleading, and has decided to leave out returns of the straw ballots hereafter.—Dallas News.

Straw ballots spell nothing, anyway. During the Hogg-Clark campaign the big papers of the state, all of whom were supporting Clark with all their might and main and wanted to "Turn Texas Loose" made it their business to take straw votes of every passenger train, and the result was nearly always in favor of Clark, but when the time came to publish the result of the election, it was all the other way.

In his speech at Ennis yesterday Judge R. V. Davidson, candidate for governor, among other things, said: "Colquitt may fawn at the feet of Bailey to get votes; Johnson may stand mute and motionless while Bailey charges and continue to charge him with uttering and circulating slanders and falsehoods about him, but henceforth I ask no quarter and will give none," which means, if it means anything, that if Senator Bailey is really spoiling for a scrap, he can get it for the asking. The world has a just contempt for a coward and any man who professes to be big enough to ask the people of Texas to elect him as their governor should not allow to go unchallenged the charge that he is a slanderer and falsifier.

The dispatches from Washington yesterday stated that the statesmen observed Memorial Day. What did the senators and representatives do?

Cotton Gambling.

San Antonio Express.
Harvie Jordan of Atlanta, Ga., President of the Southern Cotton Growers Association, in an address before the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers Association in Little Rock, Ark., said among other things:

"It is an outrage that any system should be permitted by which a half dozen gamblers can stand in a pit in New York and control the prices of the raw and manufactured products of 20,000,000 people."

There is not much argument to be made on an assertion of this kind. It is perfectly evident that half a dozen gamblers who are looking after their own interests alone should not be permitted to rule the interests of the 20,000,000 producers.

But someone has to step in between the producer and the manufacturer or consumer. There must be a removal of that cotton from the farm, a sale of the cotton by the farmer to someone. The producers of cotton have not been particularly energetic in providing a means for selling their cotton. Until a few years ago, when various organizations were formed, the producers had completely overlooked the selling end of the business. It is an outrage, but it is an outrage because the cotton producers permitted the gamblers to get a foothold.

In various Southern States Legislatures have been called to legislate the cotton exchange gambler out of existence. This legislation has not been a marked success. There is a good reason for the existence of the cotton exchange gambler. The cotton producer leaves his purse wide open, and it is a mighty temptation. It is slight wonder means for avoiding the law are invented and the purse approached by devious just as successfully as it was once approached by direct means.

Numerous plans for transacting business between manufacturers and cotton seed crushers and cotton producers have been suggested. Mr. Jordan, himself, suggested two or three. Let them be put into effect. They are the best possible means for putting the cotton exchange gambler out of business.

Not long ago Kansas City was storming about high freight rates. Various legal appeals and other means were adopted without success. Finally it was decided to organize a company and put boats on the river, reviving a means of transportation that has slowly dwindled to its decay. The outlook was never brighter for success than at present. The way to get rid of bad economic systems is to put better ones in their places. Legislation against theft when men leave the wealth unguarded is purposeless.

INVESTIGATING DEATH.

Several Witnesses Before Grand Jury in Jim Poole Case.

Dallas, May 30.—Jim Poole, a brick-mason, and a member of the local union died about two weeks ago in a rooming house in East Dallas. Death was supposed to have been from natural causes, but some bruises on the face of the dead man have resulted in a further investigation of his death.

As a result, it is stated, several persons have already been before the grand jury. It is said that Poole was known to have had something like $400 in his possession just before his death. This money, according to the story now current, has never been located since. What became of the money, and the fact that the bruises on the face looked suspicious, are the causes leading up to the investigation, which it is said is now being made.

Death of T. M. James.

Mr. T. M. James, a carpenter, aged 54 years, died at his home at 1703 Bluff street at 10:35 this morning of pneumonia.

Deceased was a member in good standing of the order of the Woodmen of the World, and leaves a wife and five children.

Funeral services will be conducted from the family residence tomorrow morning, the hour not having been announced definitely this afternoon.

COST OF BAD, NOT GOOD, ROADS.

Facts All Go to Show That They Are a "Ruinous Luxury."
The Kansas City Star turns upon the man who argues against the good roads movement on the ground of economy—and there are a few in Georgia also—one of the most complete and logical answers we have yet been presented on this vital issue.
Instead of saving money by not building or improving highways the Star shows that communities actually lose money.
It is, all over again, the insane policy of saving at the spigot and wasting at the bung.
And this is how our lively contemporary takes the cuticle off the sporadic "lightwad" element in every settlement:
"The plea that good roads are too costly belongs only to the cheap statesman, the moss-back and such old-fashioned publications as the Joyville Clarion. It has no place in the consideration of the problem of modern road building.
"The primary purpose of securing good roads is to eliminate the enormous and everlasting cost of bad roads. Modern country roads bear the same relation to the rural districts as paved streets bear to cities. Paved streets for municipalities are, first of all, a business proposition. The comfort and convenience afforded by them is a matter of secondary consideration. No city could be built on mud streets. Neither can agricultural communities be developed on mud roads. And any condition that retards the fullest development of country life is an expense that spells ruin and bankruptcy in the end."
Conclusive in this connection is the story from Sumpter County, Georgia, cited recently by the Constitution. A well-to-do but unanalytical farmer in that county had refused to contribute a strip of his farm for a new roadway, because he didn't believe in good roads on principle. The road was built, regardless. The day after it was completed he was offered $10 an acre more for his 300 acres than he had priced them previously—and then, without a taker!

There is no answering such a demonstrative argument as this one. It exactly confirms the assertion of the Star that it is not a problem of the cost of good roads, but of the ruinous luxury of bad roads.
In every county in Georgia exist conditions more or less parallel with those obtaining in Sumpter. Money is locked up in Georgia farms, Georgia forests, properties generally, waiting only the vitalizing magic of decent highways.
The Star estimates that Kansas has lost $10,000,000 dollars in its mudholes in the last ten years.
How many millions is Georgia losing, has Georgia lost through her mudholes?
The farmer who raises the extravagant objection of economy to the good roads movement ought to be waited upon by a seriously minded and persuasive committee of his more progressive neighbors.

CLOSE CALL FOR TEDDY.

Roosevelt Has Narrow Escape From a Big Elephant.

At last we came in sight of the mighty game. The trail took a twist to one side and there, thirty yards in front of us, we made out part of the gray and massive head of an elephant resting his tusks on the branches of a young tree—elephants hardly ever feed at noon. A couple of minutes passed before, by cautious scrutiny, we were able to tell whether the animal we could see was a cow or a bull, and whether, if a bull, it carried heavy enough horns. Then we saw that it was a big bull with good ivory. It turned its head in my direction and I saw its eye; and I fired a little to one side of the eye at a spot which I thought would lead to the brain. I struck exactly where I aimed, but the head of an elephant is enormous and the brain small and the bullet missed it. However, the shock momentarily stunned the beast. He stumbled forward, half falling, and as he recovered I fired with the second barrel again aiming for the brain. This time the bullet sped true, and as I lowered the rifle from my shoulder I saw the great lord of the forest crashing to the ground.

But at that very instant, before there was a moment's time in which to reload the sick bullet parted immediately on my left front, and through them surged the vast bulk of a charging bull elephant, the matted mass of tough creepers snapping like pack-thread before his rush. He was so close that he could have touched me with his trunk. I leaped to one side and dodged behind a tree trunk, opening the rifle, throwing out the empty shells, and slipping in two cartridges. Meantime Cunningsham fired right and left, at the same time, throwing himself into the bushes on the other side. Both his bullets went home, and the ebullient stopped short in his charge, wheeled and immediately disappeared in the thick cover. We ran forward, but the forest had closed over his wake. We heard him trumpet shrilly, and then all sounds ceased.—Theodore Roosevelt in Scribner's.

MODEL ROADS BUILT.

Miniature Highway Constructed As Working Models.

Fort Worth, May 31.—The Texas Commercial Secretaries Association is having road models made, each about 2 1/2 x 5 feet in size, of eight varieties of macadam road, including plain or regular gravel, V shaved foundation, regular tarred, tarred (penetration method) tarred (Gladwell method), and bituminous tar slag; and of other forms or road making those of simple earth, and of sand clay, gravel, telford, burnt clay, oiled earth—in all, fourteen forms of construction, modeled from the real materials designated and united by an adhesive to keep in place, showing at a glance how each particular style of road is made, and how differing from other forms—a short kindergarten course in modern road making without words.

These models will be exhibited by the Texas Commercial Secretaries Association at many points in the state at the fall fairs and at various lectures, conventions, exhibitions and various gatherings, while at the State fair at Dallas someone will be present with the models to discuss and explain any problems of roadmaking not properly understood, and to strongly advocate and recommend the great value of good roads in any state or section for its agricultural, industrial, social and even intellectual upbuilding (making it easier to get to and from the schools) and that good road investment is simply another way of saying good paying investment.

Jackson, Miss., May 30.—The supreme court today in the case of Fuller vs. the state, rendered a decision, the effect of which will be to legalize the sale of brands of near-beer in Mississippi providing such beverages contain a percentage of alcohol so small that if drunk to excess they will not produce intoxication.

The court held, in reversing the lower court, that the burden of proof must rest on the state, and in arrests of this character it must be conclusively proven that the beverage sold, when drunk to excess, will produce intoxication.

AFTER DINNER COFFEE

Having a demand for a strong, black, heavy-body Coffee for "After Dinner" we are now roasting a pure, straight, Aden MOCHA and are giving it a fuller roast than ordinary. If you want something that will make you sit up and take notice, this is the stuff—nothing finer in the WORLD. We mean it.
