VITAL STATISTICS REPORT FOR MAY

REGISTRAR OF STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT MAKES REPRDT. WORKINGS OF NEW BOARD.

BIRTHS EXCEED DEATHS

Total Births 4,397, Deaths 2,240—Pellagra Claims Four Victims and Tuberculosis 287

Austin, Tex., June 25.—Registrar Clyde D. Smith of the State Health Department today issued his vital statistics report for the month of May with a statement to the effect that it shows the workings of the new State Board of Health law and sanitary code better than any other report yet issued under the new regulations for vital statistics.

The report shows births totaling 4,367 and deaths totaling 2,440. There were five deaths from the dread pellagra, and tuberculosis was extremely fatal during the month, leading the list of leading causes of death, there being 287 deaths from it.

Of the seven deaths reported at extreme old age, the person who died at the greatest age was a Mexican and the other six were negroes.

In speaking of the report, Registrar Smith said:

Shows Effect of Law "The vital statistics report for May shows the effect of the law better than any previous month, there being reports from more local registrars than ever before. The physicians are showing an interest in the registration of births and deaths and are using care in seeing that all questions on the certificate are properly and accurately answered. They are also using the uniform blank to a greater extent and the department trusts that in a short time a certificate of the old form will be unknown.

The report of vital statistics for May, 1910, follows: Births Males 2,249 Females 2,072 No sex given 46 Whites 3,983 Blacks 384 Alive 4,231 Stillborn 136

Deaths by Ages Under 1 year 473 From 1 to 5 years 336 From 5 to 10 years 65 From 10 to 20 years 144 From 20 to 30 years 273 From 30 to 40 years 198 From 40 to 50 years 184 From 50 to 60 years 174 From 60 to 70 years 225 From 70 to 80 years 186 From 80 to 90 years 89 Over 90 years 20 Unknown 79

Total 2,440 White, male 1,057 White, female 955 Black, male 219 Black, female 209

Total 2,440 Leading Causes of Death Tuberculosis 287 Diarrhoea and enteritis, under 2 years 281 Pneumonia 228 Diseases of infancy 161 Senile debility 155 Organic heart disease 138 Causes ill-defined 98 Bright's disease 57 Cancer 57 Congestion and hemorrhage of brain 57

Table with 2 columns: Disease Name, Count. Includes Typhoid fever (44), Diarrhoea and enteritis (43), Dysentery (35), Acute nephritis (35), Malarial fever (34), Paralysis (32), Suicide (30), Inanition (27), Simple meningitis (25), Peritonitis (23), Homicidal (23), Measles (22), Convulsion of infants (21), Whooping cough (18), Influenza (17), Accidental drowning (16), Diphtheria (16), Pellagra (6).

The six deaths from pellagra occurred in the following counties: Jones, 1; Navarro, 1; McKinney, 1; Dallas, 1; Williamson, 1; Erath, 1.

Extreme Old Age Andrea Mildola, female, Mexican, El Paso, 111 years; Jim Gray, male, black, Minerva, Milam county, 107 years; Harriet Bonner, female, black, Corsicana, 105 years; Albert Darden, male, black, La Grange, 100 years; Rachael Hale, female, black, Georgetown, 100 years; Dick Hines, male, black, Fort Worth, 99 years; Emily Byars, female, black, Columbus, 95 years.

Illinois Reform Conference Peoria, Ill., June 27.—Under the general caption, "The Breakdown of Representative Government in Illinois," numerous public-spirited citizens from all sections of the state rallied in Peoria today for a two-days' non-partisan conference at which the recent alleged exposures of legislative corruption at Springfield are to be discussed.

While no specific grievances were mentioned in the call for the conference it is understood that the open hostility of the Illinois general assembly to progressive legislation is to be the general object of attack. The assembly is blamed for thwarting the popular movements to secure legislation enabling cities to adopt the commission form of government, to secure civil service reform and improvements in election laws, and improvements in election laws, reform in judicial procedure and perfection of a direct primary law.

United States Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon and Winston Churchill, the New Hampshire author and political reformer, have accepted invitations to address the conference. Senator Bourne is scheduled to speak on the "Oregon plan" of electing federal senators and Mr. Churchill will discuss the "short ballot."

No Will Left by Rich Californian San Francisco, Cal., June 27.—In the probate court today a hearing was held on an application for letters of administration in the estate of Peter James Donahue, the wealthy San Franciscan who died several months ago in the Isle of Wight, England.

Peter James Donahue was declared an incompetent by the superior court of this city in 1905. At that time an inventory was filed showing that the value of his estate was over $1,250,000. As he left no will it is expected his estate will be divided equally between two nephews and two nieces. One of the nephews is a resident of this city, while the other nephew and the two nieces reside in Ireland.

Oswald H. Ernst Brig. Gen. Oswald H. Ernst, U. S. A., retired, was born near Cincinnati, June 27, 1842, and received his education at Harvard College and the West Point Military Academy. In his army career of over forty years he served in many capacities. After taking part in the closing campaigns of the civil war he was given charge of many important engineering works. He was a member of the government commission that went to Spain to observe the solar eclipse in 1870, he inaugurated the great work in deepening the channel at the entrance to Galveston harbor, and served in Porto Rico during the war with Spain. For five years he was superintendent of the West Point Academy and at various times he served as member of the Isthmian canal commission and the international commission upon the condition and the use of waters adjacent to boundary lines between the United States and Canada. Gen. Ernst was retired for age in 1906.

American Farmers are Getting Wise.

They have discovered the truth of the old adage that "A stitch in time saves nine," which, applied to the business of farming, means that it's a lot cheaper in the long run to have good barns, granaries and other outbuildings on the place than to put up with the rickety, makeshift affairs that some farmers used to think good enough.

Don't you say you can't afford needed improvements till you know what these improvements would cost. Come in and let us tell you the cost of the material for any new building you want.

Defeat Colorado Frost by Telephone

Never have the orchards of Colorado yielded such bountiful crops as those produced during the year 1909, this unprecedented production being due to an unique battle waged against the frost king when the fruit trees were in blossom.

Experiments made in a small way in previous years had demonstrated the fact that the temperature in the orchard areas could be raised when necessary by the use of heaters or "smudge pots," as they are commonly called. Crop failures by freezing in the two years preceding had taught their lesson, and in the Grand Valley alone 300,000 smudge pots were purchased and placed in the orchards, ready for use in case a fall of temperature should jeopardize the tender buds. And it was well that these precautions were taken; for just at the time when the orchards were beautiful in their mantle of pink bloom, the warning came of the approach of the enemy—Jack Frost.

Then it was that a campaign began with human intelligence and ingenuity pitted against the elements of nature. But the forces of the orchardists were scattered. A secret ally was the United States Weather Bureau, the officials of which volunteered to give information of the approach of the enemy. Citizens of the towns and cities in the fruit regions also allied themselves with the orchardists, volunteering to man the artillery—the smudge pots—when called upon.

Jack Frost was jubilant. He would move upon the orchards in the dead of night. The Weather Bureau was far removed from the proposed battle field, and the citizen volunteers would be unaware of the need of their services. Slowly and silently he moved out of his mountain bivouac upon the unsuspecting valleys.

But Jack Frost had reckoned without his host.

As he emerged from his icy retreat, all the forces of a great telephone system were sent to the aid of the fruit-growers, and like lightning flashes the copper messengers carried warnings from the observation stations of the weather bureau to the central exchanges of the telephone system. And from these the warnings were flashed out over the wires into the fruit districts, by young women who willingly and faithfully shared in the responsibilities of the contest.

"It is rapidly growing colder," they said, as one by one the orchardists responded to the persistent ringing of the telephone bell, "be prepared to light up the heaters inside of an hour." Soon lights were flashing, teams were hurried into harness, fuel was distributed for use in replenishing the heaters. Meanwhile, other young ladies at the telephone exchange were calling out the volunteers in the towns and cities.

"The thermometer has reached the danger point; you are needed in the orchards." And that was all.

Soon automobiles, bicycles, wagons and all sorts of conveyances were rushing men from town to the country. All was hurry and bustle. Again came the voice of "Central" over the wires.

"Light up, the thermometer registers twenty-nine." (The buds are considered safe until the temperature falls to twenty-nine.)

And just as the Frost King's silent, invisible hosts of destruction reached out to grasp the tender blossoms, thousands upon thousands of tongues of fire burst forth to bid defiance to the enemy. Gradually the heat increased, holding the icy forces at bay. From one o'clock in the morning until dawn the contest continued, when, the appearance of his ancient enemy, Old Sol, the Frost King retreated to his mountain stronghold.

A half-dozen nights the attack was repeated, but the copper messengers of the telephone system were ever vigilant, and not once did they fail to warn the orchardists in time to prepare the defense. Thus did the telephone save the fruit—an asset to Colorado estimated at $3,000,000.

But the victory was not entirely complete and absolute. There were cases in which the fruit grower had failed to provide himself with telephone service. He failed to receive the warnings of the weather bureau, and lost his crop. It is told of one grower who had no telephone, that, being informed by a neighbor of the probability of frost, he got his alarm clock for one o'clock a. m. The alarm failed to sound, and he lost his crop, valued at $2,500.

Another grower on the Western Slope was offered $25,000 cash for his twenty-acre farm. He refused. He fought the frost and in the fall shipped apples to the amount of $12,000 and peaches amounting to $10,000. He realized within $3,000 of what he was offered for his farm, and still owns the land. He had a telephone. And the telephone saved the fruit.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due

Wichita Falls, Tex., June 27, 1910. Editor Wichita Times:

As I am an old settler of Wichita county since 1881, almost continuously, I helped to organize the county and naturally feel a great interest in the welfare and progress of the county. I have watched the county through its many changes since its organization. I've seen it in its prosperity as well as its adversity. I feel proud of being a citizen of this county, and knowing that the best efforts of my life have been for the welfare of Wichita county, I noticed in your valuable paper some days since the mention of the Hon. Will Skeen's name, being used in regard to the caption of the noted outlaws, Foster Crawford and Kidd Lewis. I feel that Mr. Skeen deserves honor for the part that he took in this affair. When any citizen of this county does an honorable act, I think he should get all the honor due him, but as an old settler, I do believe that all the men that took part in that affair should be honored. Among others that should be honored is the Honorable R. L. Randolph, better known as Pete Randolph, as he was one of the parties that was in the chase from the time the bank was robbed until they were captured, and helped to guard them until they were placed in jail. For his services he was paid $65 of the reward money. Of this amount Mr. Randolph gave $45 to Mrs. Dorsey, whose husband was murdered by these outlaws. I believe that any citizen of this county should be honored for every deed that he does. I believe as good citizens of this county, we should scan the history of the county and search the records, and where we find that a citizen of our county has done an honorable deed, honor him for it.

I hope you will publish this in your valuable paper. Best wishes for the success of Wichita county.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity.
Tonight and Tuesday, partly cloudy weather.

That business is dull and the money market is tightening up cannot be disputed, but this condition cannot be attributed altogether to the bad condition of crops throughout the country, though that has something to do with it. Bountiful crops are not always a sign of good times, no more in fact than short crops are followed by hard times. The disturbed political conditions of the country are cutting considerable figure in the present business depression, not only in the south and west, but throughout the entire country. At the last presidential election the Republican party promised the people of the United States a revision of the tariff downward, and the party won a great victory. Instead of making good the demands of the party platform in that respect, the tariff was revised upward instead of downward, and the cost of living, which it was thought had reached the limit under the two administrations of President Roosevelt, has been made considerably higher by the administration of Presdent Taft, while the increase of wages has not increased in proportion to the cost of living. This condition has caused political distrust, and when the people, or any considerable number of the people, lose confidence in the administration, hard, close times are the inevitable result. It was so with the second administration of President Cleveland, when the president refused to carry out the party's platform demands, and a panic, in the midst of bountiful crops, was the result. Today the republican party is hopelessly divided, and confidence will not be fully restored until it is definitely settled which wing of the party will win a victory in the fall election. Indeed, the prospects are very flattering that this division in the G. O. P. will give the next congress to the Democrats, and if such a good thing should happen, there is every reason to believe that the tariff will be revised downward instead of upward, and prosperous times will again be restored.

Twenty-seven Texas counties got into the "pork-barrel" for Federal buildings. Three of them were in Mr. Stephens' district, two of which were put in, however, by the senate. Although such towns as Clarksville, Brownwood, Cuero, Marlin, Bryan, Longview, Uvalde, Belton, Huntsville, Yoakum, Weatherford, Ennis, Stamford, Atlanta, Bay City and Beville—all in Denton's class and most of them perhaps smaller—got appropriations, it is worthy of comment that Denton was omitted. Indeed, if any bill for a Federal building for this city was even presented, the Washington dispatches failed to make any mention of it. It's time Denton's claims were being recognized by the congressman from the Thirteenth district in some other way than the mere pleasure of voting for him every two years.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

In his address in this city last Saturday Hon. Cone Johnson, candidate for governor, made the direct charge that money was sent to Austin during the last session of the legislature at the time the submission question was being acted upon; that money to be used for the defeat of submission was sent to Austin, and he challenges any one to ask him to produce the proof. That is no Bascom Thomas bluff, and if those who do not believe that "a slush fund" was used at Austin, they can convince themselves by calling on Cone Johnson to produce the proof, and in the event he does not come through with the proof, he should withdraw from the race.

AS TO THE POPULATION OF WICHITA

For the information of the more than 1,200 people who are interested in the population contest ran in The Times from May 23 to June 18, The Times will say that it will be impossible for it to decide who the winner or the winners of the $25.00 in gold are until the official figures are announced from Washington. The following letter from E. Dana Durand, director of the census, to Mr. R. E. Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, will show why the result has not been announced:

Washington, June 23, 1910.
Mr. Robert L. Huff,
President, Chamber of Commerce,
Wichita Falls, Texas.

Sir:
Hon. John H. Stephens has referred to me your letter of June 17, with reference to obtaining a certificate of the population of Wichita county, Tex. In reply thereto, you are advised that the enumerators' returns for Wichita county have not as yet been received in Washington, but that the certificate in question will be issued at the earliest practicable date after the receipt and examination of the schedules in this office. No charge is made for furnishing information of this character.

Very respectfully,
E. DANA DURAND, Director.

No, my son; the millionaire Ranken of Missouri, who gave $3,000,000 to the A. & M. College of Missouri, is not related to our own beloved Rankin. Our Rankin never gave anything away, except his friends and his advice, and mayhaps, the view halloo to a pack of fanatics when conversation game was running for its life.—Austin Statesman.

Unkind, ungenerous and altogether uncalled for. Two years ago the Statesman could not say too much in praise of Dr. Rankin, but since he has seen fit to choose his political course without consulting the Statesman's oracle, that newspaper is going the limit in disparagement of the man. There are a number of Texas papers slurring Dr. Rankin this year which were proud of his assistance to a cause they advocated but recently.—State Press.

perceivable along that line in this section of the country, and the only thing that keeps our hopes up is the weather man, who keeps saying, "Partly cloudy weather, with indications of rain." He probably is doing his best, as two or three slight sprinkles have occurred within the last few days.

The Times is in receipt of a copy of the Dayton (Ohio) News Special New Home, Edition, containing 210 pages, beautifully illustrated and printed in three or four colors, giving a complete history of that city and her industries for the past one hundred years. It lays claim to being the largest paper ever published, and The Times does not question the truth of the assertion. It is certainly a wonderful piece of newspaper work, and doubtless will do great missionary work for that thriving and prosperous manufacturing city.

LOCAL RAILROAD NOTES:

ROCK ISLAND OFFICIALS GO THROUGH TO MANGUM

on the siding there and are putting their time fishing and otherwise enjoying the lake attractions. They are accompanied by their families.

J. A. Farrell, who was chief dispatcher here for the Fort Worth & Denver up to April 1, will return here shortly to accept a similar position with the Wichita Valley. He has been at La Junta, Colorado, since April. He will succeed W. G. Hyde, resigned.

The dispatcher's office on the Denver has been moved to the front end of the Lory building, and the attaches of that department can now work in much more comfort than heretofore.

The Wichita Falls & Northwestern has already received part of the new equipment ordered several months ago, and the remainder will be here shortly. One hundred and fifty box cars were ordered and a number of these were received recently and are already being put into service. Some new passenger cars, three new engines and some other new equipment is en route.

General Passenger Agent Fontaine and Superintendent Cotter of the Wichita Falls & Northwestern accompanied the Rock Island officials north as far as Frederick on their trip this morning.

A NEW PRESERVE THAT IS BETTER THAN HOME-MADE

Our Bismark brand of preserves, including raspberry, blackberry, strawberry, and plum are new and are better than home made. They are made of the finest fruits that are especially grown for this brand, nothing else in them but sugar and apples. The apples being used as a filler and their tart flavor cuts the over sweetness of ordinary preserves and makes a most delicious combination.

We have these preserves in quart mason jars at 40c, and when you consider your time and the hard work of putting up your own preserves you can easily see the saving.

More than fifty people have tried this new preserve and are now constant users—let us send you a trial jar—you will want a dozen then.

Warm Campaign in North Dakota
Bismarck, N. D., June 27.—A political campaign that presents many interesting features is being brought to a whirlwind finish in North Dakota.
Day after tomorrow the voters of the state will participate in a general primary for the selection of candidates for two United States senators, two representatives in congress, governor and other state officers and justices of the state supreme court.

The fight between the stalwart and progressive factions of the Republican party has waged for nearly a year and with the near approach of the primary election it has steadily increased in intensity. Each faction has a candidate for each office and in addition there are several candidates running independently for governor and congress.

The progressives claim that the stalwarts are corporation tools, allies of Aldrich and Cannon, and that the wave of protest against the Washington machine is going to sweep North Dakota clean next Wednesday. They are centering their fire on Senator P. J. Mc-Cumber, and to a less extent on Congressman L. B. Hanna, both of whom are candidates for re-election. The progressive platform commends Theodore Roosevelt and indorses the Taft administration. It deals with the Payne-Aldrich tariff measure in the following language:

"While we firmly adhere to the principles of protection, we do not believe that the promises of the Republican national platform, nor sacred pledges to the people, are fulfilled in the Payne-Aldrich law. We believe the tariff should be further revised with a view to protect more equally the interests of the consumer, upon whom falls the heavy burden of over-production and resulting increase in the cost of living."

The stalwarts have been extremely bitter in their attacks on the progressives. First of all, they dispute their opponents' exclusive title to the name
"progressive." They call the progressive leaders "irregulars" and declare the latter are hostile to the Taft administration, and that the progressive leaders, the insurgent members of congress, blocked the Taft legislative program. The old stalwarts take the stand that they are the administration Republicans, standing for real party progress, and the "progressives" are nothing but political disturbers, trying to ride into office on a popular vote.

Tom F. Marshall is the progressive candidate against Senator McCumber
for the long term and he has waged a vigorous campaign. The candidates for the short term for senator are Edward Engerud of Fargo for the stalwarts, and Congressman A. J. Gronna for the progressives. The field is open to independent candidates, and two have filed for the progressives. The field for the senate. They are Dennis Hannifin, squatter governor of North Dakota, and H. N. Miller of Don-brook. Neither is expected to carry much figure in the result of the contest.

There are eight candidates for the two congressional nominations. H. T.
Helgesen of Milton and Judge W. S.
Lauder of Wahpeton have the progressive indorsement. Congressman L. B. Hanna of Fargo is indorsed by the stalwarts. Other candidates in the field are John Flittie of Williston,
James Johnson of Minot, Thomas R.
Moeckler of Bismarck and Alfred Blaisdell, present secretary of state.
The chances for the success of Congressman Hanna are generally considered very good, though he is the object of fierce attack.

The situation in regard to the Republican gubernatorial nomination is very complicated. The progressive candidate is James A. Buchanan, who ran for treasurer two years ago. C. A.
Johnson of Minot, who headed the Republican ticket two years ago, has the indorsement of the stalwarts. Three independent candidates are in the running and are expected to draw from the leaders. In addition to the governorship there are several interesting contests on for other places on the state ticket.

In regard to the judicial nominations
a new plan is to be tried for the first time. According to this plan the supreme court justices will be voted for on a separate ballot. There are no party designations, and men of all parties will vote the same ballot.
There are three places to fill, and the six who stand highest will be put on the general election ballot. From them the three will be chosen.

In view of the split in the Republican ranks the Democrats of North Dakota have high hopes of victory this year. They confidently expect to elect Governor Joh Burke for a third term.
There are usually twice as many Republicans as there are Democrats in North Dakota, and for a Democrat to be elected governor twice, and perhaps three times, is making the Republican leaders keep awake. The Democrats hope to elect their entire state ticket but are not counting much on the United States senatorship, as the legislature is always overwhelmingly Republican.

Big Conference of Red Men
Muskogee, Okla., June 27.—The big conference of Indians which is to hold forth this week at which the leaders of the red men will discuss the final abandonment of tribal customs and laws and the preparation of the Indian for the enjoyment of all the privileges of American citizenship is attracting much attention. The conference is proclaimed as the last big gathering of its kind to be held by the aborigines
of the American continent.
The Commercial Club of Muskogee is the sponsor for the movement and it has invited many prominent representatives of the various departments of the federal government to confer with the Indian chiefs. Others interested in the welfare of the Indian have also been asked to take part and to assist in teaching the Indian how to take up the burden that civilization is thrusting upon him.
A number of delegations of Indians have already arrived here for the conference and others are reported on the way. Among the tribes that are expected to be represented are the Choctaws, Cherokees, Seminoles and Chickasaws
of the Five Civilized Tribes, the Iroquois from New York, the Sioux from Dakota, the Kickapoos from Southwestern Texas, the Apaches from Arizona, the Florida Seminoles and the Klamaths from Oregon.

Bill's Ignorance
"Shakespeare says 'there's nothing
in a name,'" remarked the boarder who loves to make quotations.
"That's all right, but it merely shows Bill's ignorance," remarked the practical man who sat near the landlady.
"How's that?" queried the quotation lover.
"Well, you just go to a bank and try to borrow money on your own name and see how quick you'll be told to get another name with-yours, and one that has something in it, too."

He Was Excused

The man had been summoned to serve as a jurymen before Judge Reilly and asked to be excused because he owed the Democrat four years' subscription and he wanted to go and hunt up the publisher and pay it before he forgot it again. "Do you mean to tell this court," demanded the judge, "that you would deliberately go out and hunt up a man to pay a bill instead of waiting for him to sue you?" "I do, your honor." "Then you are excused. I don't want any man on a jury in my court that will lie like that."—Kearney (Neb.) Democrat.

Dear Jasper:-

I have met that fussy pill plant on Eighth street, and say, the information is mine, that dump makes them all look an old maid at a mother's congress or a bunch of amateurs begging for car fare after the game, and in the matter of foam building and that soda water joke they have the others nine miles down the speedway with a bursted tire and a dead engine and in perfume and feature medicine they joy ride while the others count the ties.

Take 't from me, lad, I am for the fussy one strong enough to pull a dray.

I beg to still be yours until Bugville ruins Chicago as a commercial center. BILL.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Last Saturday Mr. C. B. Nutt replenished his horse feed supply by ordering a sack of oats, bran and chops and the grain was delivered safe and sound to his barn before noon of that day, but when Mr. Nutt went to his barn just after sundown he discovered that all three of the sacks of feed had been stolen. The tracks of the wagon in which the thieves evidently hauled off the feed were visible, and showed to be a narrow-tired vehicle. The bermuda grass in the alley was also mashed down, indicating that the thieves were boys and that the sacks were too heavy for them to carry. This is only one case of a number of a very similar nature that have been reported during the past month. On yesterday (Sunday) the thieves stole feed from the barn of J. R. Jordan, and from the amount of feed being stolen from the various barns in the city, it would seem that there are more than one, or, if only one, he must have a lot of stock to feed or is disposing of the feed in some other way. The officers seem unable to detect them, though the nuisance has been going on for quite a long time.

B. J. Bean, who was one of the delegates from this city to the State Retail Merchants' Association meeting held at Houston on the 23rd, says that the resolution passed by that association in regard to the calling of the legislature by Governor Campbell for the purpose of repealing or amending the fire-insurance law, did not ask for a restoration of the old rates, but called for "equitable rates to be restored."

The Chamber of Commerce has received an inquiry from a resident of Venezuela, who wants to know about Wichita Falls, saying he has heard of this city. He contemplates coming here to live.

Marriage licenses were issued Saturday to J. G. Riley and Bonnie Leach of this city, T. W. Crow of Hobart and Miss Katie Brown of Bowie, James A. Jeffries and Miss B. Parker of this city.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a short session this morning to complete the arrangements for the entertainment of the Oklahoma visitors tomorrow.

The funeral of Jonas Johnson, the negro who was killed Friday night, took place yesterday. It was largely attended, several hundred negroes being present.

The Wichita delegates to the Merchants' meeting at Houston returned Saturday afternoon. They report that they had a hard fight to win, but that it was worth it.

The Bowman community, just across Lake Wichita in Archer county, enjoyed a good rain yesterday, according to G. R. Decker, who was in the city today.

Mr. W. W. Little, who is at the Wichita Sanitarium, is reported as some-better today.

Fully two hundred fishermen were at Lake Wichita yesterday and some good strings were brought in. Going out Saturday night and staying until Monday morning is the popular procedure.

Sid W. Smith, editor of the Electra News, was in the city, having brought Mrs. Smith to Miller & Smith's Sanitarium for the purpose of undergoing a surgical operation tomorrow.

Mrs. Fred Litken was operated upon yesterday at the Wichita Falls Sanitarium for appendicitis, and is reported doing nicely today.

A meeting of the Wichita Gun Club has been called for tonight at Pennington's store and all members are expected to be present.

Mrs. J. H. Howell of Petrolia is at the Wichita Falls Sanitarium with her little boy for treatment.

The condition of Mrs. C. W. Morgan, Jr., is reported as some better today, and hopes are now entertained for her recovery.

STRIKE IS IMPROBABLE
Dallas City Firemen Will Likely Remain at Work
Texas News Service Special.
Dallas, Tex., June 27.—As a result of the conference of the committee of firemen with the City Commissioners here this morning, the announcement was made that there will be no strike of city firemen, the men agreeing to stay with their jobs in the expectation that the city will do the square thing when the budget is made up. No trouble is expected.

The authorities say eighty-five per cent of the men have withdrawn from affiliation with the American Federation of Labor.

WASHINGTON QUIETS DOWN
Capital Rapidly Assuming Aspect of Summer Quietude
Texas News Service Special.
Washington, June 27.—The national capital is rapidly assuming the aspect of its usual summer dullness. A large number of representatives and senators left Saturday night and Sunday for their homes, including a majority of the Texans, the remainder of whom return this week. President Taft and his family will go to Beverly, Mass., their summer home, for the annual vacation.
