SPECIAL SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

C. S. MONTGOMERY ELECTED INSPECTOR OF PLUMBING AND WIRING.

ALARM AT WATER STATION

Fire Chief Stampfli Authorized to Construct an Alarm to Pump House

The city council met in special session last evening at 7:30 with Mayor Pre-Tem Reed presiding. The position of Gas, Plumbing and Electric Inspector was created and C. S. Montgomery was elected by the council. The fire chief was authorized to complete the fire alarm system by providing direct connection with the water works station. A motion was made, but passed to the next regular meeting, providing that shade trees shall be planted ten feet from the property line. Alderman Richolt and City Engineer Hickley were authorized to purchase man-holes and intakes for the storm sewer.

The meeting was opened with a discussion of the matter of regulating the distance at which shade trees should be planted from the property line, a motion was made to provide that all trees should be placed ten feet from the property line. Action on the motion, however, was deferred until the next regular meeting in order that the matter could be given further consideration by the board.

A resolution was adopted creating the office of Inspector of Gas, plumbing and electric wiring and relieving the city engineer of the duties of the inspection of plumbing and wiring, which resolution provided that until March 1st the newly appointed inspector should receive a salary at the rate of $64 per month for the month of March $67.50, and after that $75 each month.

There were six applicants for the position of inspector when the matter of selecting that officer was taken up by the council, and when the vote was taken C. S. Montgomery was the successful applicant, receiving the unanimous vote of the council. Mr. Montgomery, who was present, thanked the members for the honor and promised to give his best efforts to the faithful discharge of the duties of the position.

Fire Chief Stampfli appeared before the council with a request that the department be provided with a direct alarm connection with the water works plant for use in notifying the engineer of a fire and of the danger for a direct water pressure through the mains. At the request of the aldermen, Mr. Stampfli communicated with Mr. Stokes by phone and by him was informed that the water company would install the alarm system if the city would provide the necessary equipment, and the council thereupon authorized the chief to make the improvement at once.

The matter of intakes and manholes for the storm sewer was discussed at some length by those present and as a solution of the proposition, Alderman Richolt, who is chairman of the street committee, with City Engineer Hickley, was instructed to investigate the matter and order such equipment as was required to meet the demand of this feature of the work.

OPTIMISTIC CITIZEN TALKS INTERESTINGLY OF FARMING CONDITIONS AND FARMERS

Wichita Falls has no more public spirited citizen than E. J. Bean. He is an optimist of the right sort and in lean years and in fat years is always working for Wichita Falls and the agricultural development of the section. Mr. Bean says that after all the farmer is the man who pays the bill, and in the prosperity of the farmers lies the future of Wichita Falls. I saw something the other day that pleased me as much as the five story office building or any other of our enterprises. It was a farmer driving a load of manure, said Mr. Bean. "To my mind that farmer and his load of manure were the symbol of a new epoch in this section. When Wichita coun-

WEST IS DIVIDED OVER NEW COURT

FIGHT BETWEEN EL PASO AND AMARILLO IS OBSTACLE TO ITS ESTABLISHMENT.

COMPROMISE IS PROPOSED

Pro Steam Roller May Have Effect— Hudspeth Takes Determined Stand.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 25.—The determined stand which El Paso has taken in its attempt to secure the headquarters of the proposed new appellate court has changed the situation here and West Texans are deciding on a new course of action.

A certain number of the representatives will vote for no headquarters but Amarillo, and will insist that this be assured in the bill creating the new court. Certain others are just as determined that the new court headquarters should be in El Paso and will never vote for Amarillo. In the senate Senator Hudspeth is determined for El Paso and Senator Johnson is equally determined for Amarillo.

This discussion within the ranks might ruin the chances for the establishment of new court, but now it is planned to bring the contending factions together with a new plan.

This is to establish two new judicial districts, one with headquarters at Amarillo and the other with headquarters at El Paso. Such a move would be supported solidly by the West Texas and Panhandle delegations and they might be able to secure enough votes from other sections represented to secure its passage. Proponents of this plan point out the fact that these courts would be in rapidly growing sections and that the demand for two courts cannot be deferred for very long.

Steam Roller in Evidence. The complete victory of the pro steam roller in the senate Monday may have its effect on this. Under the rules adopted the senate will elect the members of the committee on judicial districts and there is no doubt but that this committee will be composed almost wholly of pros. As Senator Hudspeth has fought these pros with great vigor and some success, his request for a court at El Paso may not be received with the favor that would be accorded Senator Johnson, a pro who has voted it straight all the way through.

West Texans won the first fight for legislation on the floor of the house Monday afternoon, when they secured the engrossment of the bill which prohibits hunting or fishing on enclosed land without the consent of the owner. The bill was fought out in the committee room last week and when it was subject to the same objections that met it in the committee. These objections were not very logical, most of the legislators opposing it, appealing to the sympathy for the small boy who enjoys rabbit hunting.

West Texans in Earnest. Representative Hamilton of McCulloch made the first real speech of his legislative career in support of the bill and called the attention of the other members to the fact that this was the first bill he had ever asked them to support.

"I am sorry," he said, "that every time a measure comes before this house for the benefit of West Texas the members from other parts of the state oppose it. No major in West Texas has ever denied anyone the privilege of hunting on his land, but the West Texas ranch owners do need protection from careless hunters." After an ineffectual attempt to kill the bill by cutting out the exempting clause, it was passed to engrossment by the house and will pass when brought up for final enactment.

Earlier in the day West Texans met and held a caucus on the wolf scalp bounty bill. There was a good deal of laughter around the house about a caucus on wolf bounties, but the West Texans were in earnest about their measure and announced at the end of the caucus that they had enough votes pledged to secure its passage.

El Paso in Fight. Austin, Tex., Jan. 25.—Men here from the Panhandle for the purpose of boosting the claims of Amarillo as the best site for the location of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals are rather inclined to think their senator, W. A. Johnson of Memphis, has endangered Amarillo's chances by tying up so completely with the dry question of license. Amarillo boosters are not only thinking this, but they are saying so.

Lawyers here from the Panhandle capital declare Senator Johnson has antagonized himself, politically, with men who will not support him one minute after the anti-prohibition bills now pending are put out of the way. They feel and say friends of Senator Claude Hudspeth of El Paso will work with and vote for him to the last.

El Paso is squarely in the fight for the location of the court. She was placed there today by a delegation which arrived this morning and which is headed by Mayor C. E. Kelly. Others are: William B. West, Judge J. H. Harper, W. S. Clayton and George Wallace. They rejected all overtures looking to the "Border City" remaining out of the contest, and started proceedings in lively fashion. The El Pasoans issued a statement tonight in which they say they are confident of success.

Senator Johnson said today: "Amarillo had a start of six months on El Paso, and we are going to win. We have already gotten a unanimous report in the house, and there will be a favorable majority report in the senate. Of course, Senator Hudspeth will have a minority report made, but the friends of Amarillo are strong enough to adopt the recommendation of the majority of the committee."

"We had hoped El Paso would remain out of the contest. There is danger that neither Amarillo or El Paso will get the court, but there is none of El Paso getting more votes in either branch of the legislature than our little city does. I feel sure of final success to the matter, though I admit the personal popularity of Senator Hudspeth will at least muddy the waters."

Rehatch's Mineral Well. This is to certify that I have been drinking Rehatch's Mineral water for months. I have suffered with stomach trouble for about eight years.

Indigestion, gas, collecting, the stomach causing severe pains to shoot through the lungs, which continued to get worse. I had been sick all summer and was a walking drug store. The last severe attack I had my husband called in Dr. W. H. Walker, and he prescribed Rehatch's Mineral water as the best remedy he knew of. I had very little faith in it, but was determined to give it a fair trial. Before I had used one case I knew it was helping me. I have taken less strong medicine since I have used this water than I have taken in fifteen years. I had been of great benefit to our son. I heartily recommend this water to those who suffer with stomach or liver trouble.

STATE IMMIGRATION BUREAU IS PROPOSED

Frisco Official Advocates 'Repeal of Constitutional Provision, New Bar.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 25.—Editorial comment on a state immigration bureau, which will demand the repeal of one of the provisions of the Texas constitution, is the suggestion of S. A. Hughes of the immigration department of the Frisco, who was here Monday afternoon visiting W. J. Doyle. He has established recently a colony of immigrants at Goodlett, Hardeman county.

Such bureaus are now maintained by Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Virginia, Georgia and Arkansas. The Oklahoma senate has just passed a bill providing for the establishment of such a bureau in that state.

The object of the state bureau is to bring settlers into the state, making special reports upon lands and other conditions that may be given to prospective residents.

Under the Federal law of three years ago, each state is permitted also to maintain a representative at Ellis island or some other part of entry to confer with the people in regard to opportunities in their states.

The constitutional provisions that stands in the way of action by Texas is an inhibition against any expenditure to bring persons into the state.

With the establishment of a state immigration bureau and the campaigns that would be carried on by the railroads as a result, Mr. Hughes estimates that the population of the state could be doubled in ten years.

"The tide of immigration is now turning to the South and Southwest," said Mr. Hughes. "It has been to the Northwest, but is now taking a turn and there should be the most complete co-operation between the business men of the state and the railroads in carrying on a settlement campaign."

Under the present conditions, the immigrants who arrive, though most of them are naturally farmers, settle down in New York or some place attracted by the relative high wage scale. Their savings are then sent back to the European postal banks, with the idea of purchasing a farm in their native country at from $500 to $400 an acre. If we can reach these people and show them the advantages of the cheap lands of the West this money will be kept in this country and the state will receive the benefit of development and the railroads will receive their reward in the increased tonnage of farm products."

REPORT MADE OF UNIQUE LAND DEAL

Kingsville Man Tried to Purchase Ranch That Did Not Exist.

Kingsville, Texas, Jan. 25.—A stranger dressed in the garb of a prosperous ranchman put up at the Kings Inn hotel here last week, representing himself as owner of 11,000 acres of land adjoining the town of Bishop, about six miles northwest of Kingsville.

He took the hotel proprietor, Henry Miller, into his confidence, stating he desired to cut the tract up and sell it out. The result was the sale of a sixty-day option on the entire tract to the hotel man at a moderate figure.

A regular legal document was then drawn up and duly signed. The stranger, who gave his name as Hill and signed the option document "The Hill Ranch Co. per T. C. Hill, owner," at Mr. Miller's suggestion, engaged H. Kito, the Yoakum Japanese citrus fruit expert, to order sufficient orange trees to plant about twenty acres, handing Kito a check drawn on a Houston bank for $375.

He agreed with Miller and Kito to return for them next day in his auto in order to show them over the Hill ranch. Failing to put in an appearance at the appointed time, inquiry was made by phone through Secretary Wright at the King ranch. Mr. Wright stated that no such ranch existed within twenty miles of either Kingsville or Bishop.

It then dawned upon the hotel man and the fruit expert that they had been duped. Further inquiry was instituted by long distance phone and the man was located at Raymondville, sixty miles south of here. The officers at that place took him into custody, but, after thinking the matter over, Mr. Miller declined to file complaint against the man, stating the amount mulcted from him was insufficient to justify radical action.

LITTLE STORIES.

Stole a Trolley Car.

Thomas Keeley and James Gallagher stole a trolley car from the local traction company at midnight and had a joy ride of more than an hour's duration. The experience was a thrilling one. The empty car was standing on a switch in this city ready to go to the barn. The crew had left the car temporarily.

When Gallagher and Keeley came along one dared the other to get aboard and take a ride, and Keeley said he ran electric cars once, and was not afraid.

Both men got on the car and started on a wild run toward the end of the line. They had a hairbreadth escape at a railroad crossing, and came near running over a number of people at street crossings.

At the town of Albany they came near colliding with another car full of passengers. In the mad dash through the town of Ashley Policeman Kearney was the first to have suspicions that all was not right. He saw the men wore no uniforms and the car had no passengers.

As they slowed to pass another car the policeman jumped aboard and placed both men under arrest. After a hearing they were held for trial in court.—Wilkes-Barre Dispatch to the Philadelphia Record.

In Adams County.

"They wuz a fight up to Cy Hoopole's house las' night."

"Was there?"

"Yep, Cy's oldest boy is jest of age an' Cy said he had a right to sell the boy's vote, an' the boy said he'd sell his own vote, an' they clinched—an' Ma Hoopole had to pry 'em apart with a stove poker."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No Chance to Talk.

When Mayor Gaynor of New York was a guest of President Taft at the white house he told the newspaper correspondents that his throat was too weak to permit his giving them an extended interview. Then, wishing to save his throat, he took a long walk with John Barrett, the diplomat, who is noted as the most loquacious man in public life.—Popular Magazine.

Dustless Tails on Cows.

In his spick-and-span dandified and disinfected barn near Montclair, N. J., the owner of a large dairy was horrified a few days ago on realizing that dust was in the place. A gleam of sunlight through a knothole shown on the floating dust particles.

Thereupon the dairy owner gave orders that before milking time the tail of every cow was to be sprayed with filtered water from an atomizer. Now, when the cows swing their tails while milking is under way there is no likelihood of their switching contaminating dust into the pails.—New York World.

The Dog Fancier.

"My neighbor has a dog for which I am willing to pay $1000," said the householder, "but the owner won't sell. He stands out for $2000. I may possibly be able to get the dog for $1500, but I doubt it." And he shook his head pensively.

"Why do you want the dog so badly?" inquired somebody.

"To break his neck. He barks all night."—New York Times.

CATTLE BREEDER HONORED TODAY

Name of James Nelson Brown Admitted to Place in Farmers' Hall of Fame.

Champaign, Ill., Jan. 25.—With interesting exercises the name of James Nelson Brown, originator and promoter of the Illinois State Fair and early importer of pure-bred cattle, was admitted to a place in the Farmers' Hall of Fame at the University of Illinois. Included among the speakers and other participants in the ceremonies were Governor Bennett, President James of the University of Illinois, Dr. Frank Crane of Chicago, James M. Orsb, president of the Illinois State Fair, and Alvin Sanders, editor of the "Breeder's Gazette," and member of the national tariff board. The portrait of James N. Brown was unveiled by his great-granddaughter, Miss Lynette May Brown.

The name of James N. Brown is the second to be placed in the Hall of Fame at the university, that of Cyrus B. McCormick inventor of the reaping machine, having been placed in the hall last year. The names of men selected as candidates for future admission, one each year, are: Jonathan B. Turner, father of land grant colleges, to be admitted in 1912; Isaac Funk, successful pioneer breeder of live stock, to be honored in 1913, and, in 1914, Philip D. Armour, leader in his day in the development of a large and profitable market for animal products.

BASKET BALL FAST BECOMING FAVORITE

Game Unknown a Few Years Ago is Now Liked by Amateur Players.

The rapid development and popularity of basket ball has furnished a field for investigation, and if the surface enthusiasm that is manifested might be taken as a gauge, then the game for winter sport will soon rank as the most popular of the virtually new games.

Basket ball in athletic clubs and various gymnasiums has been a factor for many seasons, but with the inauguration of many new leagues and the natural development of the game and players that followed, many points that have heretofore gone unnoticed are furnishing the interest essential to make the game a success.

Basket ball as played in college has always been an interesting game to the players and such followers as had been placed in a position to master the finer points, but to make this sport as popular as baseball or other sports that hold the attention of the American sport-loving public, it must be understood in all its different angles.

This, of course has been but a matter of development and as the game grows in popularity by the forming of new leagues and clubs it is only natural that such a clean, wholesome sport should be popular.

The number of players required to play this game naturally detracts from it as a team, constituted of five members cannot master the following that of baseball or football team with its regular number of players and substitutes will hold but the school spirit "a force that has no equal," has helped to overcome this and eventually it would not be surprising to see league games, somewhat along the lines of basketball, that would attract many hundreds of people.

Game Has Future. It is admitted that baseball has lived and grown for the fact that it has been kept clean from all sorts of crookedness, therefore with the caliber of players required to play class games of basket ball, it is not foolish to suppose that the game is ordained to a bright future.

The game as played in the college and by the ward and high schools boys is different, and such it should be for it will take development to bring the same plans of fairness to the two classes that are divided only by age and experience. This difference will soon be overcome and eventually one rule book for scholastic and collegiate players will be issued.

Of course, there are the "doubting Thomases," who are wrapped up in baseball, wrestling, boxing and other strenuous sports, who will declare that the game may reach a certain point of development and then by slow degrees die out only to be revived at irregular intervals, but to those that know the game and see the clean sports that are possible in the further development, they know differently. There are the men, too, that keep the real true American sport as clean as it is.

These men mostly play square when indulging in a game of competition,

INSURGENTS OPEN CAMPAIGN IN N. Y.

OPENING GUN FIRED BY POINDEXTER AT BANQUET OF TWO HUNDRED

ROOSEVELT MAY ENLIST

Speaker Declares New Organization Formed Only to Secure Reforms.

New York, Jan. 25.—The National Republican Progressive League, whose organization was announced in Washington already has started its campaign in New York state. The opening gun was fired at a dinner of 200 prominent New York Republicans last night. An effort will be made this week to enroll Colonel Roosevelt, Colonel Poindexter of Washington was selected to introduce the new organization to New York.

"The only thing that can be said about the league," he declared, "is that contained in its constitution and the announcement of the principles for which it stands. Its constitution directly limits the activities of the league to the fulfillment of the principles announced. It has no other object than to promote the movement which was begun in congress a year ago and which is so firmly grounded in the West that it cannot be ignored or displaced."

"In answer to a question as to whose movement it is I can say very definitely that it is no man's movement but belongs to the people. The movement is as broad as the number of those behind it. It is not organized to advance the interests, political or otherwise of anyone in it. I may say, parenthetically, that it is against the buying of seats in the United States senate."

"This word 'insurgent,' you know, used to be a term of opprobrium, but now is a word of honor and high repute. If there's one reason why the insurgent movement has wide acceptance in the West, it is because the people out there are accustomed to freedom and independence from dictation. The speaker of the New York assembly said in an address on the direct primary law that the people of this country are not able to govern themselves, but that they need leaders to do that work for them. This sentiment is not accepted in the West. Here are the essentials of any platform of real control of government by the people."

"The direct primary, direct legislation, a severe corrupt practices act, the extension of the primary to the election of delegates to national conventions and the Australian ballot."

money for the county. Of course Judge Felder is interested in administering this department of the county work as economically as possible, but where the expenditure of a few dollars would relieve actual suffering Judge Felder is not stinting the money. Indeed in all matters pertaining to the duties of his office Judge Felder is exhibiting a personal interest that is praiseworthy.

To Build Concrete Votex.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 25.—E. B. Shiffley, city engineer of Wala Wala, Wash., received from the British government recently a patent covering a method invented by him of building boats of reinforced concrete. He has already secured Canadian and French patents and patents in this country and Germany are pending. Several years ago, when at work for a construction company on the Ohio river, Shiffley built his first vessel which was a success, and applied for a patent. An Italian inventor was ahead of him a few days, however, and Shiffley set about to invent another boat. He thinks it will be but a few years when river boats, barges and floating docks will be built of concrete. He says for river use the boats need be but two inches thick. Shiffley says the United States government has boats in use in Panama which, he thinks, infringe his patent.

CHARGES MALLORY OWNS TEXAS STEAMERS

Railroad Commissioner Asserts That Independent Line Has Been Grabbed.

Washington, Jan. 25.—To investigate why the Federal Government has not prosecuted railroads and railroad officials for combining to raise freight rates in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, and to inquire into the status of interstate commerce legislation pending before this session of Congress which is proposed to benefit shippers of the Middle West and South are the purposes of a visit to Washington by W. D. Williams, president of the Traffic Association of the Middle West and member of the Texas Railroad Commission, and J. L. Powell of Wichita, Kan., president of the Kansas and Oklahoma Shippers' Association. They find there is little chance of amendments, which would give relief to the vast territory interested.

Commissioner Williams asserts the Texas Railroad Commission is getting very impatient over the failure of the Federal authorities to prosecute railroad presidents and their lines for illegal agreements, proven to have been made at hearings for the purpose of charging exorbitant freight rates.

"We believe they should be prosecuted in the courts for these criminal agreements just as violators of other laws are prosecuted," said he tonight. "If Texas could get more steamship lines, excessive freight rates would be forced down by water competition but we will get no relief through steamship lines as long as the trusts continue to gobble up independent lines that are established."

"You can quote me as saying we have discovered the Mallory interests have bought the Texas City line, that we have positive proof of the deal, and that water traffic from Texas ports is monopolized by one concern. So that the interests back of this deal may know that I know what I am talking about, just say that the Mallory Steamship Company has registered certificates of ownership of the Texas City Steamship Company in Bath, Me., a rather isolated place. It is required by law a certificate of ownership of a steamship line be registered at some port on the coast along which the company's boats ply."

"We learned of some visits to Bath, Me., by certain steamship officials, and, thinking it an odd time of year for pleasure visits, investigated with the result the deal was uncovered."

A traffic measure, which the associations represented by Messrs. Williams and Powell are particularly anxious to see enacted into law, is that requiring the valuation of railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission as an element in fixing rates. Messrs. Williams and Powell were appointed a committee by the Traffic Association during this session in the interest of legislation to further regulate railroads and rates. Commissioner Williams conferred with Senator Bailey today and spent several hours with the clerk of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce. Tomorrow he will devote to an investigation of legislation before the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Commissioner Williams will leave Wednesday for Chicago, where he will appear before the Railroad Securities Commission to protest against depriving States of the power to fix the amount of securities to be issued by railroads in the States.

"PAID IN FULL."

A New American Playwright.

A new recruit to the "too small band of intelligent" American playwrights is noted in the person of Eugene Walter. His play, "Paid in Full," produced at the Astor Theatre, New York, by Wagenhals and Kemper, shows Mr. Walter, in Mr. P. Eaton's phrase, to have "decisively joined" the afrosaid band. Critics are as one in admitting the power of the new drama; Mr. Eaton, of the New York "Sun," confesses to the "thrill of discovery" not aroused since "The Great Divide" came before the public two years ago. Mr. Winter of the Tribune, call it a "strong play, steadily interesting and destined to long-continued success." Alan Dale in the American speaks of it as a "find," perhaps the best find of the season. The sum and substance of all the criticism may perhaps argue that there is more of promise than entirely successful performance in the work; but then it is pointed out that in this we have a second play of a young dramatist. A legal contest of managers over the rights of the production of the play has brought out the interesting fact that the author of the play, the distinct success of the year, has only recently taken his meals in cheap duffy restaurants and slept in Bryant Park. Mr. Eaton thinks the author has the "priceless possession of the born dramatist," and gives the play's story in the words of "Paid in Full" opening in a Harlem flat, the home of Joseph Brooks and his wife, Emma, young people, worried along on so small a salary that they have no maid. Joe is full of bitterness toward his employer, Captain Williams, president of the Latin American Steamship Company, a veritable ex-sea wolf from the Pacific, who applies to business his old methods of the sealer. That he is paid so poorly inspires in Joe a kind of half-baked socialism, which vents itself in ugly harangues at his wife. She is a little surprised when he begins to steal his employer's money.

"That he stole for his wife's sake, as he tells her, is quite true, in a sense. But the audience accepts the statement as another exhibition of catchiness, and the author passes on to the further development of his story. One wishes to cry 'Hold!'—to get at Joe's exhumating psychology a bit. But Mr. Walter does not permit it. Instead, Joe blustily makes the proposal to his wife that she shall go to Williams' flat and try to save him from jail. Of course such a proposal kills once and for all every vestige of sympathy for Joe, and brands him utterly as a skunk."

"Paid in Full" will be the attraction at the Wichita Theatre, Wednesday, February 8th.

INDIGESTION
Relief in Five Minutes and Permanent Cure or Money Back.

When O. F. Marchman states that he has a remedy that only costs 50 cents and is guaranteed to cure any man or woman who suffers from food fermentation, or money back, what are the poor stomach sufferers in Wichita Falls and vicinity going to do about it?

Food fermentation causes belching, sour stomach, gas eructation, heartburn and that jump of lead feeling as you probably know.

The name of this most remarkable stomach prescription is M-I-O-N-A. Most people call them M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets because they know that there is no remedy so good for indigestion or stomach disorders. Here is one opinion:

"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than a year. I bought one box of M-I-O-N-A and it cured me. I would not be without a box in the house for $5.00. It saves a lot of doctor bills when you can be cured for 50 cents."—Arthur Sederquest, 6 Nichols St. Wakefield, Mass.

M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets cost 50 cents a box at Macchman Drug store and druggists everywhere and money back if they don't cure.

BISHOP HENDRICK ON CHURCH FEDERATION

Outlines His Views in Speech Before President Taft at the White House.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Humanitarian and philanthropic efforts of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America were outlined by Bishop E. H. Hendrick, of Kansas City, Mo., president of the Council in a speech before President Taft at the White House today.

Bishop Hendrick presented the greetings of the Council on the occasion of the annual meeting of its executive committee. He said:

"Our fathers in the very first amendment to the Constitution forbade Congress to make any law respecting the establishment of religion, wisely deeming it the duty of the Church to establish the state and not the duty of the state to establish the Church. Thus from the beginning, in the free exercise of their religious views, the various churches have expressed their devotion to the best interests of our common country, notably to Washington and Lincoln, when our national government began and when it was in greatest peril. The memorable responses to these greetings showed how grateful they were to the highest executives in our land in the two preceding centuries. Representing more than 40,000,000 ministers of the gospel and some 17,000,000 communicants, or nine-tenths of the Protestants of our country, federated in a permanent organization known as 'The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America,' we bring Christian greetings to the Chief Ruler of the greatest nation in history standing for self-government."

"As former greetings were made by individual Churches and were welcomed by our rulers when the fate of the nation was yet undecided, much more we believe will be welcomed this Christian greeting to our Chief Magistrate by the federated Churches as the sign of the compact and growing strength of our National Union. The late Mr. Justice Brewer declared that such a Federation of Churches was also an unmistakable proof that ours is a Christian nation despite the fact that we have no established Church."

"We are happy to state that the growing spirit of catholicity and the belief that the work of the Churches could better be done in cooperation than in separation ripened into this notable and permanent federation; not of individual Christians but of the Churches, and that by the authority and the unanimous action of the highest ecclesiastical assemblies of the land."

"Believing with Webster that what makes good Christians makes good citizens, we are glad to state that in addition to the distinctively religious work which is sought to be done by all the Churches as never before, such as Home and Foreign Missions and the vast work of evangelism, the Federal Council of Churches is doing in unique humanitarian and philanthropic work calculated at once to bless and to strengthen the nation. Thus through our large standing committees of some two hundred leading ministers and laymen, careful study is being given to the advancement of such great interests as Sunday Observance, Temperance, the Society of the Home, the Church and Social Service, and Literature and Education."

"Happy results have attended these efforts in checking race-track gambling, an annulling loose divorce laws, in stopping twelve-hours-a-day labor and that for seven days in the week in certain industries, in bringing about kinder relations between the Church and Laboring men, in safeguarding the physical and moral well-being of women and children who are bread-winners and in promoting wholesome literature and the better intellectual development of our youth."

"In all this we are unitedly seeking the highest welfare of our great nation whose Chief Magistrate has our daily prayers and our royal aid. We rejoice to recognize as resident one who is exceptionally acquainted with our great and varied national interests, and who fully commands our confidence so that we are content to see through his eyes a completed Panama Canal and the conservation of the best possible good of the Philistines whose little brown men he deigns to call brothers."

Has New Machine.
The Green Dairy has received and installed a new bread moulding machine that is one of the most complete and successful known to the bread making art. The machine has a capacity of sixty loaves per minute and in the first run made this morning 748 loaves were turned out in forty minutes.

The machine will mould either the 10-inch or the 14-inch loaf and can be changed from one to the other in a second's time. BISHOP THURSTON WAS CONSECRATED Service of Consecration Will Be Held in Minneapolis, Minn., Today.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 25.—The service of consecration of Rev. Theodore Payne Thurston as bishop of the diocese of Oklahoma took place here today, and was one of the most notable ceremonies in the history of the Episcopal Church in this city. It was 10 o'clock before the procession of bishops, clergy, laymen and chorists who were to take part in the service reached St. Paul's church. The decorations of the church were most elaborate and it was crowded to its capacity.

The number of bishops participating was larger than usually takes part in a ceremony of the kind. Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, the presiding bishop of the church, officiated, assisted by the Right Rev. Francis K. Brooke, missionary bishop of Oklahoma, and Right Rev. Frank R. Millspaugh, bishop of Kansas. The presenters were Bishop Brewer of Montana and Bishop Edsall of Minnesota. Rev. Samuel C. Welles of Virginia, Okla., and Rev. Theodore Scaggs of St. Paul were the attending prebys. The consecration sermon was preached by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts, who was dean of the Episcopal Theological Seminary when Mr. Thurston was a student there.

A FAMOUS ACTOR WAS REMEMBERED

Today is the Centennial Anniversary of the Birth of Jas. E. Murdoch.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 25.—The fact that today was the centennial anniversary of the birth of James E. Murdoch was recalled by the inmates of the Forrest Home for Aged Actors, some of whom were personal friends and professional associates of the great actor. Mr. Murdoch, who was one of the last of the celebrated actors of the old school, of which Forrest, Macready and the elder Booth were the chief exponents, was born in Philadelphia, July 25, 1811, and much of his professional career was closely identified with this city. It was on the stage of the old Arch Street Theatre, in 1839, that he made his first appearance behind the footlights, and later he became manager of the Chestnut Street Theatre. After making numerous successful tours of the United States and Canada, and also appearing in England, Mr. Murdoch retired from the stage and spent his declining years on a farm near Cincinnati, where he died in 1893, aged eighty-three.

TEXAS IN THE LIMELIGHT

In the matter of politics New Jersey gives Texas a hard run for first place.—Allentown Democrat.

About the only important revelation made at the Baltimore banquet was that Mr. Bailey of Texas has taken charge of the democratic party.—Cleveland Leader.

Editorial writing is easier in Texas than anywhere else in the world. Nine-tenths of it consists in exhorting citizens to pay their poll taxes.—Columbia State.

Colonel Roosevelt, who says he will go to Texas in March, is not feeling as cocky as he was in September. Then he would have ordered Texas to march to Roosevelt.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Colonel Scruggs of Atlanta, Ga., tore the coat off a balliff the other day. The Kentucky colonels are the best judges of liquor; and the Texas colonels the best shooters, but the teariest colonels in the hall blamed country are to be found in good old Georgia.—Springfield Union.

The Texas legislature is said to have adopted as its motto "fewer and better laws." This would be a good motto for the legislative bodies of all the States. In Texas we should think there should be more criminal legislation and less lawmaking that deals with common rights of the people.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

FRUIT SHIPMENTS FROM WASHINGTON

Industry Has Developed to Be a Very Extensive and Important One. Spokane, Wash., Jan. 25.—Strong statements on the profits to be made by investment in fruit lands in the United Empire are constantly being put into circulation by orchard land companies and many of these articles are considered extravagant. However, it is only necessary to cite a few instances showing returns from developed orchards and plans being made for further exploitation to show in facts and figures what has been accomplished during recent months in some of the fertile sections. At North Yakima, Wash., west of Spokane, 689 cars of fruit were shipped in 1910. This does not include the express shipments, which would make 50 cars more. There are also about 125 cars of apples held in storage. Figuring the average car at 640 boxes and the boxes at $1.50 each, the returns on apples alone in that section were $950,000. One hundred and twenty carloads of fruit was shipped last year from the Chelan valley, northwest of Spokane. This includes about 20 carloads of summer and fall fruits, the remainder being winter apples. This does not include seven cars of apples still in the hands of the growers nor the fruit which supplied the home demand. Estimating the crop at $550 a carload, which is a conservative estimate, the growers received more than $73,000 for the crop of 1910. A big irrigation project is now under construction and when completed it will water 10,000 acres of land in the Chelan district. The Northwest Packing company has been incorporated with a capital of $250,000 to take care of the surplus products of the rich Lewiston, Idaho district, south of Spokane. The factory will take care of the large residue of culls and quick perishing small fruits, much of which is at present going to waste. In the White Salmon Valley district, southwest of Spokane, another large orchard development company has been organized with a capital of $200,000. This corporation known as the White Salmon Orchard Development company, has acquired 1,800 acres of raw land at a price of $80,000.

JOSEFFY REPORTED A SKILLED PERFORMER

A few words by way of announcement will be read with interest by all looking for something really new and of high grade. Joseffy is an innovator in the field of magic. Educated in the best technical schools of Europe, a life-long student of music and the sciences, he has had that training of the head and hand that is so necessary to success in his profession. Taking up the threads of original investigation and invention where the great French magician, Robert Houdin, dropped them, he has carried forward the work that the great Houdin began, applying himself to the task of putting magic on a scientific basis, with gratifying results. Joseffy is recognized among all magicians as the cleverest originator in the profession. All of the paraphernalia and devices used in his performances are his own invention and manufacture. Many of the best known magicians before the public carry his inventions and rely upon him to furnish them new ideas in legereidmain. As a musician, Joseffy is not only a skillful performer, but is endowed with that rare gift of discrimination which enables him to make just such selections as are enjoyed by popular audiences everywhere. His repertoire consists of the best lighter classics, which he renders with a brilliancy, polish and artistic perfection rarely attained by violinists. The stage of the High School Auditorium is being raised and enlarged temporarily to accommodate this number, which will be the Lyceum attraction Friday night.
