With only about $35,000 of the necessary $200,000 stock to be subscribed, Wichita Falls cannot afford to let it be sold by that she failed to meet the proposition. Wichita Falls has never yet done a thing like that. It is true, she failed to land the packing plant, but that was not the fault of her people. They were ready, willing and anxious to do all that was asked of them. This $400,000 cotton mill, if secured, will surpass by far any manufacturing enterprise now located in this city or any that this city has heretofore had an opportunity to secure. Another meeting is to be held at the Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday, at which time the various committees appointed at the two mass meetings to solicit stock subscriptions, will make reports, at which time it is to be hoped that the announcement can be made that the necessary $200,000 stock will have been taken. If those who have property interests can be made to realize that such an enterprise will add greatly to the value of their holdings, out little trouble should be experienced in raising the amount.

Comptroller Lane may not succeed in convincing Gov. Colquitt that he knows his business, but if the State of Texas suffers financial loss because of the fact that the Governor has cut down the clerical force less than it has been for sixteen years, Gov. Colquitt will hear from the people at the next election. Texas is growing rapidly, and instead of being a less amount of work to perform in the various departments of the State, it stands to reason that there should be more. It is either that way, or else all the Governors, including Hogg, Culberson, Sayers, Lanham and Campbell were all men unfitted to fill the position of Governor of Texas, and were permitting wholesale graft.

Imagine the history of France and America with a Morgan in place of a Lafayette!

There would be no stars and stripes now under the sky—no free institutions, perhaps, in North or South America, in Europe or Australia. The whole future of democratic government as it lay before the world in 1776 would have been sacrificed to the temporary demands of business to the sordid dollar.

More and more, as time unfolds, we appear to be confronted by the inextinguishable choice—Humanity or the Dollar?—San Antonio Light-Gazette.

The recommendation is repeated that the limit of indebtedness which may be incurred by Philippine government for public works and improvements be increased from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

POSSIBILITIES FOR THE LITTLE ADVERTISER.

THE SMALL ADVERTISER BECOMES THE BIG ONE.—That's the story of advertising ever since the business developed from the little yearly card to the strong message that is looked for by the public from day to day. The possibilities for the little advertiser are always there. The potentialities of the success are present for each and all; but it is the man who has the potentiality of success in himself that develops from the small advertiser to the big advertiser. He is the man who is open to conviction, who can see power when it is manifested; who can not only see the power, but can apply it.

THERE IS A PAGE OR MORE of small advertisers in THE TIMES today. The men who are represented are small advertisers. Ten years from this time some of them will be big advertisers. There is no doubt about that. You cannot find a hundred business men in Wichita Falls that will not yield you several men possessing the kind of mind that makes for success. They will win in the competition of the business world because they are enterprising, daring, enduring, filled with the spirit that has made America the leader among the nations of the world.

THE MAN WHO THINKS ADVERTISING IS GOOD FOR EVERY BUSINESS IN THE WORLD EXCEPT HIS OWN is not that kind of a man. He would believe in advertising the business he already is in if he happened to be in some other kind of business. As a matter of fact, the man who talks that way does not think at all the way he does; but he knows that he does not—simply indulges in a mild bromide expression he happens to remember, simply to discourage real thinking on a subject that, as much as any problem of business, demands real thinking.

THERE IS A WAY TO DEVELOP EVERY BUSINESS in the country through advertising. There has been so much money made, and so many different kinds of business built up through newspaper advertising that it ought not to be necessary to say that. Yet some will doubt it. There are always doubters, but they are not the big winners. Some of the advertisers in this evening's TIMES are going to make a big success in advertising in the future. No one knows just who they are, but they are there. There are a great many different kinds of business represented, but the law of average is sure.

THE TIMES congratulates its advertisers and will watch their success with the keenest interest.

LIBERTY HURTING BUSINESS.

There can be no armed revolution in any country without temporary disturbance of business. If the citizens of a powerful nation own property in the country that wants to "revolute" and may call on the army and navy of their country to put down the disturbers because they interfere with their business—why, it follows that the day when political and social wrongs can be reformed by revolution is gone forever.

Think, for a moment, of 1776. There was a fringe of settlement on the Atlantic Coast and a few pioneer plantings in the valley of the Ohio and Mississippi. The colonists rebelled against British rule. They were by no means unanimous about it. They were poorly armed and equipped—mere struggling "insurrectos." But they made it mighty uncomfortable for George III.

Suppose that French capitalists had owned at that time mines, railroads and plantations scattered all over the colonies; that these capitalists had called on their government to mass troops and ships on the shores of America to intervene in the interest of business—to prevent business from being disturbed by the struggle for liberty!

Imagine the history of France and America with a Morgan in place of a Lafayette!

There would be no stars and stripes now under the sky—no free institutions, perhaps, in North or South America, in Europe or Australia. The whole future of democratic government as it lay before the world in 1776 would have been sacrificed to the temporary demands of business to the sordid dollar.

More and more, as time unfolds, we appear to be confronted by the inextinguishable choice—Humanity or the Dollar?—San Antonio Light-Gazette.

STRIKING INCREASES IN FARM EXPORTS

The Most Notable Crops Included in the Report Are Corn and Cotton.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., March 17.—Striking increases in American exports of farm products, the most notable among which are corn and cotton, are shown for the month of February, compared with the same month a year ago, according to a report issued today by the bureau of statistics, department of commerce and labor. The quantity of corn exported in February was practically ten and three one-fourth million bushels, against four and one-half million for that month last year. It is noted that the value of corn exported last month is far in excess of that of wheat, being 123 million dollars, against a little over a million dollars worth of wheat and three and three-quarter million.

For the eight months period, however, exports of wheat and flour in combination are larger in value than corn exports, the value of wheat exported in the eight months ending February last being seventeen million dollars and of flour thirty-two and three-quarter millions. While the value of corn exports is nine and three-quarter millions.

Exports of wheat last month were one and one-million bushels against one million a year ago; of flour 839,000 barrels against 523,000 in February 1910; of meat and dairy products ten and three-quarter million dollars in value against nine and three-quarter million a year ago, and of cotton 410,000,000 pounds against 169,000,000 pounds in the corresponding month of last year. Cotton exports aggregated $1,000,000 in value in the 1911 period; $348,000,000 a year earlier.

RANDELL'S CANDIDACY.

Mr. Randell's announcement of his candidacy for the United States Senate will clarify the situation. It will give the opponents of Senator Bailey something to fix their hopes upon, and as hope is a nobler quality than hate it should sweeten their tempers and soften their speech. Thus it may serve to bring on a season of intelligent discussion of more or less vital issues, and give somewhat of a surcease to mere fault-finding and vituperation.

For these reasons it should be welcomed by all good citizens—whether friendly or unfriendly to Senator Bailey.

All things considered, Mr. Randell is the most available candidate that could have been named by the opposition, though we shall not offend others who were in mourning by specifying his qualities. From the manner and the time of his announcement we imagine that he was not named, but named himself. In so doing he was wise, for there appears to have been much difficulty in agreeing, and the probability is that formal attempts to agree would have been more or less unsuccessful on account of rivalry among the aspirants for the adventure upon which Mr. Randell has valiantly entered—the delegate from Navarro, "the polished political essayist from Dallas," the gentleman from McLennan, the prophet of Texas, and the scores of men with their several followings and their watchful jealousies made harmony distressingly difficult. There was not such a call for any one of them as could be accepted as an imperative mandate, aspiration. Mr. Randell rushes boldly in where others hesitated to tread, and the force of circumstances will insure the success of his mission.

But we must not be factious, for really and truly we applaud Mr. Randell's valor, and sincerely we rejoice that there is to be a definite and responsible personal leadership of an impersonal and irresponsible foment that has vexed the State for these four years and more. In all seriousness it is high time for a contest of issues upon candidates who represent opposing ideas, for that is the only way under our political system of settling policies of government. We take it that Mr. Randell's announcement of glittering generalities will be followed in due time by an intelligent platform of particulars, and it need not be doubted that Senator Bailey will make himself perfectly understood. We indulge the hope that the Senator's opponents will spend the time between now and the formal opening of the campaign in magnifying their candidate and will not vex the public with petty and spiteful nagging at Senator Bailey. The need to groom their champion and coach him and train him well, for this contest is to be no "easy going affair." Mr. Bailey has prepared the way and Mr. Randell has been quick to accept the opportunity for a battle of issues which involve vastly more than a Texas senatorship. Upon one side is the acknowledged defender of historic democracy; upon the other is a daring exponent of many new doctrines which are making a noisy clamor among the marshes of distrust. It will be a mighty combat between those who dwell upon the hill-tops of confidence and those who dwell amid the lowlands of suspicion, between those who have faith in their fellows and those who almost doubt themselves; between those who love and those who hate; those who hope and those who despair—between the enduring and constructive on the one hand and the fitful and the destructive on the other.

There will be no middle ground of safety for timid noncombatants. We hope this forecast will not serve to intimidate the new candidate.—Fort Worth Record.

Consul Felix S. S. Johnson writes from Kingston, Canada: "The only topic now heard on the streets, as well as seen in the papers, is that of closer trade relations with the United States."

At the Theaters

At Ruby Theatre Tonight.

At the Colonial. Last evening's show was attended by a large crowd of enthusiastic show-goers and Pierce & Gordon's artistic way of rendering their high class "The Flag that is Yours and Mine" was vastly appreciated by the audience which packed the favorite amusement place. Mr. Pierce performs some magic and mysterious slight of hand performances which are entirely new and out of the ordinary and to say the least for him in his part is to say his act would do a big credit to Herman the Great.

Miss Gordon in her thousand mirrored dress was the sensational feature of the evening and when under the spotlight with her elegant costume produced a most beautiful display of rainbow colors that flashed all over the house.

Mr. Taylor rendered his great song "The Flag that is Yours and Mine" in his high-class way.

For tonight the management announces a complete change in photography, vaudeville and song.

Mr. Taylor will sing "If this Rose Told you all I Know."

The Colonial has a full 6-piece orchestra to render music.

"The Flirting Princess." Eulalie Jansen with Harry Bulger in "The Flirting Princess," Mori H. Singer's sensational hit, which comes to the Wichita Theatre, March 23, played an engagement in Paris just before joining "The Flirting Princess."

She made quite a hit with the Parisiennes and Paris made quite a hit with her. She played at the Theatre Marginy on the Champs Elysee. "I had never sung to a French audience before," she said afterward, "and I just wanted to see how I could get on with the Parisians."

The two stars were Eulalie Jansen and Yvette Guilbert. Miss Jansen, who had received a good many encouraging letters and cablegrams from friends in the United States, just before her first appearance, was immediately on the best of terms with the Parisiennes.

"I was a bit nervous, you know," she said, "because it is rather queer to sing before people in a language that most of them do not understand. But I helped them to understand by pointing more."

"How did you like Paris, Miss Jansen," she was asked. "Oh, I just love it—I could almost live there," she replied.

While in Paris Miss Jansen made a close study of the Apache dance, which was quite the rage over there, intending to present the same in this country, but strange to say, when she was engaged by Mr. Singer for "The Flirting Princess" and cast for the Vampire dance, just the opposite of the Apache dance, which is rendered by Chas. Morgan and Maude Emery in the same production with Mr. Bulger.

How to Win One of Our Golden Prizes With But Little Effort

This is your opportunity—will you let it pass you by? Do you realize the meaning of this? We shall be pleased to assist you in every possible way

How would you like to win one of the Golden prizes that will be given away by THE TIMES April 29th? Don't you think that you could use one of them to advantage? The writer knows very well that he could, and he regrets being unable to compete for them.

Don't you think the least of them will be worth working a few minutes or hours each day to secure; especially as it is going to be easy work? THE TIMES offers you the opportunity.

It will be much easier to secure votes and subscriptions for this paper than ever before. We give you practically the same telegraphic news that you would secure in towns five times the size of Wichita Falls.

It just means votes, and votes mean business for THE TIMES and it should not be hard to secure that. It is not hard to persuade a man or woman to subscribe for a paper like this one, the cleanest, best looking, newsiest and most up-to-date paper in Northwest Texas. The afternoon paper is going to the front nowadays. It publishes the news of today while it is news—not history—and you know things happen in the day time.

It is just a matter of showing THE TIMES to your friends and neighbors and taking their subscriptions. Even a three months' trial wins you votes and a six months subscription more votes, and a year's subscription wins you still more votes.

Renewals of old subscriptions count you the same—and those may be had for the asking. Every bit of business you secure will count handsomely towards rolling up your totals.

You men and women who have been wishing for something to do in your spare moments, who have been wondering when you could put them to a profitable use—here is your opportunity.

Read the opening announcement which appeared in THE TIMES yesterday, then nominate yourself or some member of your family for these Golden awards—then get busy.

Did you ever hear of such a liberal proposition? Did you ever have an opportunity to secure so much ready cash for a few weeks' work? Could you use either of the prizes to advantage if you won them? Of course you could. Just think what you could do with $500 in Gold Coin, or for that matter any one of the other Golden awards. This amount of ready cash would be the nucleus for a home and would have saved many a man from bankruptcy.

Before deciding to give Gold Coin as our prizes we had under consideration a great number of different awards, such as automobiles, pianos, horses, etc.; these are all luxuries, and called for additional outlay on the part of the lucky contestants. As we wanted to be practical and only give such prizes as would appeal to everyone, we decided to give you the cash and let you decide for yourselves what you would spend it for. Think over what you could do with our prizes, then send in your name as a prospective winner. Then get out among your friends and secure their support, before some one more energetic gets ahead of you.

Contestants should remember these facts. In each of the three districts THE TIMES will give absolutely free one $50 award, one $25 award, one $10 award and one $5 award. Then there are the two Grand Awards, $500 and $250, respectively. All that is necessary to win is to receive the largest number of votes, according to the conditions in THE TIMES.

If there is one single point in connection with this contest that you do not understand get in communication with the Contest Manager at once, either by phone, 167, or by mail, and have your doubtful points cleared at once. Then when you clearly understand everything lose no time in getting started.

Subscribers to THE TIMES who are in arrears on their subscription account and who pay up the same are entitled to votes according to the amount paid. When you pay up your subscriptions be sure and secure the votes to which you are entitled, because it will be impossible for us to allow them afterwards; they must be secured at the time payment is made. And remember that no votes can be allowed on a subscription for less than three months to The Daily Times or one year to The Weekly Times.

Votes are secured by subscribing to The Daily or Weekly Times, or by purchasing a Classified Advertising Book. These ballots can be held and voted later in the contest by the person holding them, but the daily coupon clipped from The Times are only good for one week from date of publication and will not be counted if voted after the vote date printed upon them expires.

Any resident in the three districts mentioned in our double-page announcement, who desire to compete in this great contest and win one of the valuable awards offered, should at once see that their names are sent to the Contest Manager. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, so it is desirable that the names be entered at once. Candidates who enter do not necessarily have to subscribe to The Times. Enter your name and your friends will assist you to do the rest. Should there be a tie for any one of the prizes offered the same will be divided equally between those so tying. The time is short, as the contest will end April 28th. There is no lottery attached to it in any way, you must get the votes to win. There is no lucky numbers or element of chance connected with it, and you will never know how popular you are until you enter a contest of this kind.

Late Sporting News of General Interest

Baseball in England.

New York, March 17.—Although baseball never yet has caught on in England, the National baseball association of London will this summer make another attempt to popularize the American Pastime in Great Britain according to advices received here.

The association has arranged an impressive schedule between teams made up of members of the Fulnel Park, Wrotham, Brentford, and Clapton Orient football teams and a similar schedule is proposed between the junior athletes. To this end, all boys under certain age will be admitted free to the practice grounds.

There are no particularly good players in London but an effort will be made to arrange a fixture between the Britishers and some Star Americans. The Rhodes scholars at Oxford will also have teams.

Kelley Goes East. By Associated Press. Chicago, Ill., March 17.—With his eye on the middleweight title, Hugo Kelley, the local middleweight, left yesterday for the East. The first of the series of contests that the 153 pounder is signed for will be a scheduled 12-round go with Billy McKinnon, in Boston on March 21. Kelley has signed to follow this up with clashes with Frank Klaus and Jack Dillon. Klaus, the Pittsburg boxer, will be Kelley's opponent in Boston on March 25. From Boston he goes to Toledo, where he will be seen in two fights. On April 24 he meets Jack Dillon in Indianapolis in a scheduled 10-round bout.

From Indianapolis he will return to the East again to fight Jimmy Gardner, before a New York club.

Jeffries To Europe. By Associated Press. New York, March 17.—Hugh McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter, has announced to friends here his intention of coming to America this summer for the purpose of persuading champion Jack Johnson to get back into the ring for a series of battles in London and Paris next fall.

"It is decidedly up to Johnson," says McIntosh, "to take on some of the numerous heavyweights who are ready to fight him, or announce his retirement and graceful withdrawal from the limelight—which has been covered upon him since that affair at Reno. Sam Langford and Al Kaufman are said to be two of the men considered by McIntosh, to meet Johnson."

Dovey Drops Dead. By Associated Press. As Others View It

An Amendment. A dictionary was offered in New York as a prize for the twenty-five most beautiful words in the English language. A lawyer won. Here are twenty-one of the words accepted from his list:

The prize is most appropriate. It will enable him to discover the word which, when combined with its usual concomitant, beauty, probably constitutes the most beautiful term in the English language.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Winning Gamble. Here's a case of luck or what not: William Jamison of Melbourne, Australia, bought in 1884, from George McCulloch for 210 pounds a one-seventh interest in a mining corporation in that country in the Mt. Lyell district. The one-seventh share is valued today at $5,000,000. Jamison showed the original bill of sale the other week at a farewell dinner in Melbourne prior to his departure for London.—New York Press.

Doesn't Make Him a Safe Bet. The Kansas democrats have announced themselves for Woodrow Wilson for president. However, there is question whether there are enough of them to elect him.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Only Plays the Sure Things. The fact that John D. Rockefeller is building an addition to his home leads to the supposition that the supreme court may not dissolve the oil trust.—Atlanta Journal.

Where One Is Better Than Two. New York has only one senator, but is feeling much better, thank you, because neither Depew nor Sheehan is the other one.—New York Post.

Big Boost for the Expo. Abe Ruler, it seems, will be unable to participate in the festivities incident to the Panama exposition at San Francisco.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Comments of the Press.

Mad at Himself.

Senator Joe Bailey got mad at himself Saturday and petulantly fired his resignation as senator over the wires to the governor of Texas. He had grown mad at himself because real democrats in the senate had refused to follow his leadership.

It is interesting to note that democratic senators persisted in voting for the Arizona constitution, which contained the initiative, referendum and recall. These are monstrous institutions in the eyes of Senator Bailey. He had so proclaimed them to his democratic colleagues in the senate. His democracy was of the sort that met with the unqualified indorsement of the old guard of republicanism in the senate, and when the democratic minority in that body voted for them in flagrant defiance of his warning, why he just felt like quitting.

It is characteristic of Senator Bailey that if he can't be "it" he won't play. There is no more pronounced and determined obstructionist in the senate than Senator Bailey. There is no other senator so thoroughly egotistical. There are few who are, from the modern progressive standpoint, so thoroughly rotten and shameless.

From the standpoint of the genuine democrat nothing is to be so much regretted as that Governor Colquitt of Texas did not summarily accept the resignation of Senator Bailey, even though the legislature of the state stood ready to re-elect him. As a democratic senator, Senator Bailey is quite sure to cause the party a great deal of embarrassment in the coming session when the effort is in progress to work out a democratic solution of the tariff. There is not a man in the senate who is really more undemocratic than Bailey.

Aside from all consideration of the fact that during his service in the senate he has advanced from one of at least moderate means to the rank of a millionaire; aside from the fact that disclosures concerning his relations to the Standard Oil Company were such as to reflect great discredit upon the senate, he is not a democrat, because he does not stand for that which is democratic. Texas with Bailey is in about the same attitude as Illinois with Lorimer, and nothing was more in keeping with the eternal fitness of things than that Bailey should appear as the chief champion of the section of Illinois corruption. Their sympathies were mutual.

Mr. Bailey has never been a good democrat. In 1890, when Mr. Bryan was nominated for the presidency, Bailey, who was then in congress, was just on the verge of revolt. But the democracy of Texas was too sturdily to permit one of its congressmen to bolt a democratic nomination, and therefore Joe Bailey was summoned to

SACRED CATTLE SENT TO GOODNIGHT RANCH

Buffalo Will Be Crossed With Indian Bred Cows—Herd is Growing.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 17.—H. A. Fleming, fiscal agent of the Goodnight American Buffalo Ranch Company, the headquarters of which are on the Goodnight ranch, forty miles east of Amarillo, was in the city on Wednesday to attend the Fat Stock Show. The company he represents is one of the most unique in the country, having for one of its purposes the maintenance of a herd of American buffalo and a large yearly increase of the almost extinct type, once so common on the plains.

Mr. Fleming came to this city several days ago to take a look over eleven fine head of Brahmas, sacred cattle of India, which passed through Fort Worth this week from Southern Texas, bound for the Goodnight ranch. The sacred cattle of India will be crossed with the American buffalo to produce what is believed will be one of the finest beef cattle in the world.

"Charles Goodnight, owner of the Goodnight American Buffalo Ranch Company, is a strong believer in diversified cattle raising and has been putting his principles into practice for a number of years," says Mr. Fleming. "This hobby, or idea of a new industry, finally led him to organize a company capitalized at $500,000 to promote the raising of a cross between the buffalo and the black Pol Angus, the Karakule sheep, imported from Russia, the new cross between the buffalo and the Brahmas, and many other types of cattle."

"Col. Goodnight has achieved great success in the buffalo industry within the past ten years. Starting on a herd of four, he has now a herd of 130, besides having sold more than $20,000 worth at the prevailing price of $500 per head, and having lost many through accidents and deaths. In another ten years his herd of buffalo will be worth $1,000,000 alone."

SWARM OF CANDIDATES.

Six Men Are Anxious to Take Randall's Seat.

Greenville, Tex., March 17.—There are now already six avowed candidates for Congressman C. B. Randall's seat in Congress with others to follow. Greenville will furnish at least two and maybe more. H. R. Mook having already announced as a candidate and B. Q. Evans said last night that he will certainly enter the race again. Besides Mook and Evans the other candidate already announced are Ivan B. Erwin of Honey Grove, B. L. Jones of Sherman, Sam Rayburn of Bonham and Tom Perkins of McKinney.

GOVERNMENT HAS EYE ON EL PASO

El Paso, Tex., March 17.—Smuggling of arms and ammunition across the Mexican frontier from El Paso must cease.

This in substance is the order received by Federal officials here. It is supposed to have emanated from Washington on the representation of the Mexican Government that El Paso has been the chief point from which help has been sent to the insurgents and the place in which the revolution has been planned and forwarded.

The new vigilance is believed to mean that any movement of or the presence of any supplies gathered here will cause close scrutiny.

The assertion of Minister Limantour that hereafter Americans caught fighting with the insurgents will not be shown any special mercy has caused consternation here.

Fifteen Americans captured at Casas Grandes are reported still in jail there. The Mexican authorities say it is not probable that they will be shot as bandits, but the insurgents junta still insists that it has reports from stadero indicating that the men never will be heard from.

The Canadian Pacific Railway promises to establish next spring a monthly line of steamers between Montreal and South America and another weekly line to the West Indies, Halifax and St. John, New Brunswick will be the winter ports for the service. Ordinary steamers will be required for the South American service, but, owing to peculiar conditions, specially constructed steamers will be necessary on the West India line.

LORIMER SCORED BY ROOSEVELT IN SPEECH

Former President Also Denounces C. N. Haskell as Unfit for Office.

Albuquerque, N. M., March 17.-Senator Lorimer of Illinois and former Governor Haskell of Oklahoma were used by former President Roosevelt as examples of men unfit for office, in an address here late yesterday.

"Unfit men have been elected to office both by popular and representative vote," said Mr. Roosevelt. "Such a man," he continued, "remains unfit for office whether he is unfit as Mr. Lorimer is unfit, who was elected by the Legislature of Illinois, or as Mr. Haskell is unfit, who was elected by popular vote."

Colonel Roosevelt also touched upon popular elections of Senators and New Mexico statehood. He received great applause when he said that New Mexico should have been a state long ago.

New York, he said, offered an object lesson on the question of senatorial elections. He said that with direct election New York would now have a Senator.

FROM SUNSHINE LAND

Cottolene is a vegetable product—without an ounce of hog fat in it. It is made from the choicest cotton oil, extracted from the seed picked on the fields of the Sunny South. It is a product of Nature, and makes wholesome, digestible, healthful food.

Cottolene is made in a cleanly matter—from Cottonfield to Kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. It is the one high-grade, absolutely pure and perfect cooking fat—and far preferable from a health and economic standpoint to lard, cooking butter or any other fat.

There is but one Cottolene—we make it. All good grocers sell it.

Pitchers Play Prominent Part in Pennant Drama

A glance at the roster of the American and National League teams shows the few changes have been made for the coming season. Practically no shifts of importance have been announced and now that the meetings are over and the schedules have been adopted, we can sit back and content ourselves with reading the dope until the magic call "play ball" is sounded on April 12.

Pitchers are very important actors in a pennant drama. By taking a peep at the past performances of several star twirlers we may get a line on the chances of a few of the teams, although dope of this kind is likely to go wrong, as a pitcher's arm is a questionable article. In last year's race the American League had the market pretty well cornered for good pitchers. It was the superior twirling of Connie Mack's men that landed the world series for the Athletics. The Cubs were unable to do anything with Coombs or Bender, while the Athletics had no trouble in connecting with the Windy City twirlers.

The only "no hit" games of the season were pitched by two American League men—Bender of the Athletics and Addie Joss of Cleveland. Bender's performance occurred on May 12 against Cleveland, while Joss pitched his no-hit game against the Chicago White Sox on April 20.

Mack has not disposed of any of his good men. Coombs, Bender and Plank are all there, and from present indications are in as good shape as ever. Bender led the American League pitchers last year with a percentage of .821, while Coombs was third with .775, and Plank ninth with .615. With three such men, and the large number of recruits from which to choose, the Athletics pitching staff should be one of the best in the league.

Manager Hal Chase of the New York Yankees, has signed up all last year's stars. At the close of last season young Russell Ford stood second in the American League pitching rank, with a percentage of .813. This young man proved the twirling sensation of the year, and during the coming season he should develop into one of the greatest pitchers in the world. Quinn-Vaughn and Warhop have also signed up for the season, and while they are not in Ford's class, they show possibilities of development. Hughie Jennings' two best bets, Last year Donovan won 18 and lost 7 games, and had a percentage of .720 being fourth in line, while Mullen won 21 and lost 12, his percentage being .636. There are also Willet and Summers, but the latter did not show good form last year. The Boston Red Sox have several good twirlers who should help to make things interesting in the pennant race. They are Collins, Smith, Karger, Hall and Cleotis. Washington still holds on to Johnson, who was very much overworked last year, and who is again the one best bet for the capital city.

In the National League we find the situation slightly different. The pitching staff of the champions, the Chicago Cubs, appears to be going back. King Cole made the best showing last year, winning twenty games and losing but four. Mordecai Brown, who was the sensation of the season a few years ago, won twenty-five games, but lost fourteen, and toward the end of the season showed the effect of being overworked. Overall, Ruelbach and McIntire are still on the roster and their rest during the winter months may have brought them back to their original form.

The staff which looks the best in the National League is that of the New York Giants. Mathewson, of course, heads the list. Last year he won twenty-seven games and lost nine, finishing the season with a percentage of .750, slightly below that of King Cole of Chicago, although the latter did not figure in so many contests.

There are also Wiltse, Ames, Crandall, Drucke, Raymond and Marquard, besides a host of recruits from the minor leagues. Last year Drucke made an unusually good showing for a newcomer, winning more than half the games he pitched, and his work is expected to show a marked improvement this year.

Other pitchers whose percentage augurs well for the future are Buggs, of Cincinnati; Richie, who was formerly with the Boston Red Sox, and now with the Chicago Cubs; Moore of Philadelphia, and Barger, of Brooklyn.

KINGDOM OF ITALY FIFTY YEARS OLD

Semi-Centennial Anniversary of Event Will Be Celebrated on a Grand Scale.

Rome, March 17.—The kingdom of Italy looked backward half a century today and bowed low to the statesman and soldier whose patriotic efforts brought about the Turin declaration of March 17, 1861, when united Italy came into being and Victor Emmanuel was designated as the ruler of the kingdom. It is the semi-centennial anniversary of this event that Italy is preparing to celebrate this summer on a grand scale. Beginning in the early summer and continuing until the late autumn there are to be an almost constant succession of festive and patriotic demonstrations from Sicily to the Alps. The features of international interest will be the great expositions in Rome and Turin. The movement which led to the unification of Italy had its beginning about the middle of the last century. At that time Victor Emmanuel II, a most liberal and statesmanlike monarch, occupied the throne of Sardinia. His great minister, Count Cavour, was an ardent believer in Italian unification. Inspired by Garibaldi, Mazzini, Cavour and other eminent and able patriots of the time, Victor Emmanuel joined France in the liberation of northern Italy, and then began to extend the kingdom of Sardinia.

"This is My 50th Birthday." Congressman Thomas M. Bell of the Ninth Georgia district, who before he became a statesman, was a traveling salesman, was born in White county, Georgia, March 17, 1861. His education was received principally in the common schools, which was supplemented by a course in an Atlanta business college. He then began his career in business and before long he had established a reputation throughout a large section of the South as a man who was able to "sell goods." His first entrance into politics was in 1898, when he was elected on the Democratic ticket as clerk of the superior court of Hall county, Georgia, which position he continued to hold several years. Mr. Bell was elected to the Fifty-ninth Congress and has been three times re-elected, practically without opposition. In the last two congresses Representative Bell served as the Democratic whip, having first been appointed by John Sharp Williams and later by Champ Clark.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Abilene, Kan., has adopted the commission form of government.

Texas will vote in July on the constitutional prohibition of the liquor traffic.

The West Virginia Legislature will meet in special session next month to consider a primary election law.

Frederick C. Martindale, Secretary of State of Michigan, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor next year.

Republican leaders in Kansas are hopeful that President Taft's visit to the State next fall will aid in restoring harmony among the rival factions.

Ex-Speaker Cannon, who is to take his seat on the "opposition benches" at the next session, has thirty-six years' service in the House to his credit.

Herando De Soto Money of Mississippi, who has just retired from the United States Senate, served in Congress longer than any other man from Mississippi.

Robert T. Williams, associate justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court, will be a candidate for the seat of United States Senator Owen, when the latter's term expires in 1913.

Although the Legislature of Nevada is Democratic on joint ballot, Senator Nixon, Republican, was unanimously elected, because he received a majority of the votes cast at the advisory primary.

The special session which will begin April 4 will be an altogether new Congress, the Sixty-Second, of whom members 141, 91 senators and 123 representatives, will be new to their places.

THE SENATE AND LORIMER.

So that is what the senate thinks of itself.—Chicago News.

Lorimer triumphs, but the senate must suffer.—Philadelphia Press.

The Senate has "vindicated" Lorimer; now who will vindicate the senate?—New York World.

It was a line-up for reaction and corruption, more than for Lorimer.—New York Press.

The whole proceeding has been one of the most malodorous in the history of congress.—Boston Journal.

Whatever one may say derogatory to the senate of the United States, none can charge it with inconsistency.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

It is not a vindication, and to a man sensitive and jealous of his honor it would bring no satisfaction whatever.—Chicago Record Herald.

There have been times when a man's right to a seat in the senate was judged on higher grounds than his right to be at large.—Philadelphia Record.

The Lorimer vote is chiefly valuable perhaps, in prevention of a precedent that might be exceedingly awkward for several of the forty-six who stood by him.—Indianapolis Star.

His case will continue to be cited as a "horrible example" of modern political methods, and cited as one of the strongest arguments for election of senators by direct vote.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

It is not for us to say that senatorial honor has smelt to heaven—if anything so unlikely may be imagined as the wafting of its savor in that direction.—St. Louis Republic.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Jimmy Murray, one of the outfielders signed by the St. Louis Browns, is a member of the life-saving crew at Ormond Beach, Florida.

Harry Lord has been named to succeed Rollie Zeider as captain of the Chicago White Sox. A year ago Harry was captain of the Boston Red Sox.

It is said that Pitcher "Babe" Adams of the Pirates is showing championship form this spring. Adams was in poor shape during the greater part of last season.

Manager McGraw has nothing on Manager Jimmy Burke of Indianapolis. McGraw sent a member of the Giants to Dwight and Burke has shipped his whole team to a sanatorium at Mt. Jackson, Indiana.

The Oakland Pacific Coast League team will not play many games at home this season. With the exception of Sunday morning, Thursday afternoons and mornings of holidays, all games scheduled for Oakland will be played in San Francisco.

Two Cities Want Big Regatta.—New York, March 17.—The executive board of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen at its annual meeting 16 this city tomorrow will decide whether Boston or Buffalo shall entertain the next national regatta, championship regatta. Many members of the association are urging the claims of Buffalo on the ground that the selection of that city would insure a full Canadian entry.

The Fort Worth Record is on sale at Martin's Book store on Ohio avenue. Orders will be taken there for delivery anywhere in the city. Irving Fair, agent. 234-6tp

Prizes for All

There are so many liberal prizes offered by THE TIMES that nearly everyone who enters the Contest will be more than rewarded for his or her efforts. See that your nomination is sent in today! Then interest your friends. Tell them that you are out to win. THE TIMES has done its part—the rest is for you and your friends. Each district represented is separate and distinct in itself, and the number of votes cast for candidates in one district has no bearing whatever upon the number of votes cast for candidates in other districts, except so far as the capital prizes are concerned. Each candidate who secures the largest number of votes in each of the different districts at the close of the contest is assured of at least a handsome reward. This does not prevent any candidate from going into another candidate's district for votes and subscriptions.

Receipt books and advertising matter will be sent candidates upon request. Candidates may be nominated and voted for at any time up to the very last day of the race.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the race, and may be polled or withheld at the discretion of candidates or subscribers.

In sending money in payment for subscriptions and Classified Advertising to THE TIMES make all forms of remittance to THE TIMES—not individuals. Cash must accompany every order where votes are to be issued.

How the Prizes will be Distributed

The City of Wichita Falls and surrounding territory have been divided into three districts, as follows:

One district in the City of Wichita Falls and two districts outside. The Grand Capital Prize—$500 in Gold—will be awarded to the contestant who secures the largest number of votes in the entire contest, irrespective of district.

The Second Grand Prize—$250 in Gold—will be awarded to the contestant receiving the second largest number of votes in the entire contest, irrespective of district.

The three $50 Gold Prizes will be awarded to the three contestants having the greatest number of votes, following the two Grand Prize winners. One in each district.

The contestants receiving the next largest number of votes in their respective districts, will each receive $25.00 in Gold, one in each district.

The contestants receiving the next largest number of votes will receive $10.00 in Gold; one in each district.

The contestants receiving the next largest number of votes will each receive $5.00 in Gold; one in each district.

Any contestant winning one of the Two Grand Prizes cannot win any of the district prizes.

The fact that there are four prizes for each district besides the two other prizes, makes it a certainty that there will be at least four winners in each district, and should one of the Capital Prizes be won by you or any other candidate in your district, there will be five or more prizes awarded in your district.

OTHER PRIZES WILL BE ANNOUNCED FROM TIME TO TIME.

How to Secure Special Votes

Votes are secured in this contest by paying subscriptions to THE DAILY TIMES in advance for three months or longer; the WEEKLY TIMES for one year or longer, and buying classified advertising books. Contestants are not restricted to getting subscriptions or votes in their own district BUT MAY SECURE SUBSCRIPTIONS IN ANY PART OF THE UNITED STATES, and if cash accompanies the order special votes will be issued. Contestants in one district are not competing with contestants in other districts except for the Capital Prizes. The division of districts so equalizes competition that every contestant has an equal chance to win the prize of his or her choice.

Besides the votes allowed on prepaid subscriptions, a coupon will be published in THE DAILY TIMES every day during the first two periods of the contest, good for the number of votes printed thereon. These coupons must be neatly trimmed around the border, properly filled out, and brought or mailed to the Contest Department of THE DAILY TIMES before the expiration date printed thereon.

BALLOTS CANNOT BE BOUGHT. THEY CAN ONLY BE OBTAINED BY SUBSCRIBING AND PREPAYING A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE TIMES, BY PURCHASING A CLASSIFIED BOOK OR BY CUTTING THEM FROM THE PAPER.

How to Enter the Contest

Send your name and address to the Contest Manager of THE TIMES. State that you desire to compete, and a representative of the Contest Department will call on you and explain the contest in full. Each contestant is entitled to one nomination, good for 1,000 votes. Contestants can nominate themselves. They do not have to be subscribers to THE TIMES. There is no obligation upon entering this contest, and it costs you nothing to try it. Every energetic man and woman in the territory covered by this paper should take a hand in this voting contest. Send you name or phone 167 and ask for the Contest Manager.

Condition of the Contest

Any person, man or woman, married or single, girl or boy, is eligible, providing the conditions set forth are complied with:

THE TIMES reserves the right to reject any nominations. Every candidate must be regularly nominated in writing on the blank printed in this paper or a similar blank furnished by THE TIMES.

Candidates must reside in the District or Territory from which nominated. No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another after receiving them for themselves. Ballot sent in for names not properly nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

A ballot will be printed in THE TIMES from time to time, and when properly filled out and mailed to the Contest Department, will be good for the number of votes printed thereon, provided they are sent in before the expiration date.

All ballots must be neatly trimmed or they will be rejected as informal. Postage must be fully prepaid or they will be rejected at the postoffice, hence not counted.

No employe of THE TIMES can be a contestant in this contest. Any question that may arise will be determined by the Contest Manager of THE TIMES, and his decision will be final and conclusive.

All paid-in-advance subscriptions, must be sent direct to the Contest Department of THE TIMES, and on receipt of remittance special ballots will be issued.

Special ballots are provided to carry with them additional voting value, according to the amount paid by a subscriber, and the length of the subscription.

No contestant will be permitted to vote—or have voted—more than ten thousand of the special votes at any one counting during the first two periods of the contest.

THE TIMES ALWAYS RESERVES THE RIGHT TO MAKE CORRECTIONS IN SCORES WHEN A MISTAKE HAS BEEN MADE. If too many votes have been credited they can be deducted either from the printed score or special vote slips.

Each published score is accepted as final by all contestants unless objection is made within one week from date of publication.

No protest as to the eligibility of any candidate will be considered if votes have been cast for said candidate for a period of ten days.

THE TIMES reserves the right to alter any conditions pertaining to this contest if so desired other than reducing the prizes that are to be given away, and the order in which they will be won.

The contest will be open Thursday morning at 9 a. m., March 16th, and will close at 11 o'clock p. m. Saturday, April 29th, 1911.

In case of a tie for any of the prizes offered by THE TIMES, the prize will be equally divided.

Contestants that live in one district are not prevented from securing subscriptions or votes in any other districts as votes will be allowed on any prepaid subscription secured anywhere in the United States. If an order for a subscription or classified book is sent with the money, votes will be issued in favor of any contestant that the writer may designate and returned to the subscriber or mailed to the contestant if so desired.

To secure the special vote ballots, all money must be sent direct to THE TIMES Contest Department by the contestants or their friends, as votes will only be issued at THE TIMES office.

Any person wishing to withdraw from the contest must write us personally, as no telephone message will be considered.

In accepting nominations all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above conditions.

SOME GOOD JOBS FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Near Approach of Congress Finds Many Applicants for Positions.

Washington, D. C., March 17.—With the near approach of the assembling of the Sixty-Second Congress the gathering of the office-seekers has given the hotel lobbies an appearance of old times. While the extension of the civil service in the late years has greatly reduced the number of official positions to be distributed among the faithful, the new Democratic House will still have at its disposal 500 or more jobs, many of them of excellent salary propositions.

The two best positions are those of clerk of the House and sergeant-at-arms. They pay $5,000 each a year. The doorkeeper's salary place pays $4,500, and is next best on the list, these being big jobs and a few more of the $3,000 and $3,500 class are filled by party caucus.

There are more good positions under the clerk of the House than in any other branch. The journal clerk draws $4,000, the chief clerk $4,000, the reading clerk $3,600, the second reading clerk $3,000, tally clerk $3,000, parliamentary clerk $3,600, printing clerk $2,500, disbursing clerk $2,500, file clerk $2,750, enrolling clerk $3,900. In addition there are more than fifty minor clerks under the clerk of the House drawing anywhere from $150 a year to $2,250.

There is another set of employees under the sergeant-at-arms. The deputy makes $2,500 a year, the cashier $3,000, and nine or ten more who make $712 a year up to $2,500.

The House postmaster is a comfortable berth. It pays $3,000 annually, and there is an assistant who gets $2,000. Also there are twelve messengers to distribute the mail and receive for their work $1,200 a year each.

The largest number of employees in any one branch works under the doorkeeper. There are no less than seventy-two of them. The assistant doorkeeper gets $2,500 a year, while the assistants and others in that department get paid from $750 a year up to $2,250.

The superintendent of the House document room draws $2,500 a year and his chief assistant $1,800. There are about ten other assistants who are paid $1,200 to $1,400 for their services. In all there are about sixty jobs in the House folding room. These employees fold and send out the speeches of the individual Congressmen. The superintendent of the folding corps gets $2,500 a year, and the others are paid from $600 to $2,000 a year.

The other House employees include ten cloak room attendants who get about $1,000 a year each, and there are twelve janitors who are on the rolls at $75 a month during sessions.

LITTLETON BEATEN BY TAFT AT GOLF

PRESIDENT AND DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN PAUSE AT TIMES TO TALK POLITICS.

MARTIN W. IS CHAGRINED

Augusta, Ga., March 17.—President Taft and Representative Martin W. Littleton of New York played an interesting game of golf yesterday. The match game was arranged last Saturday. In a way it was heralded as a contest between the Republican and Democratic parties, and the President as the representative of the former, unexpectedly won. Mr. Littleton, who at the last election had the distinction of defeating Colonel Roosevelt's friend and neighbor, Congressman Cox of Oyster Bay, was regarded by the experts here as having a shade on the President at the royal game. But he was taken entirely off his guard by the President's game yesterday, and Mr. Taft won rather handsily by a score of 2 up and 1 to play. The entire eighteen holes were played out and the President's score was 97 to Mr. Littleton's 99.

The match attracted great attention among the golfers at the Country Club. One of its most interesting features was the fact that the President and the congressman occasionally seemed to get sidetracked on some political issue or some point of constitutional law and would stand for several minutes gesticulating and arguing with each other, apparently forgetful of the game itself and heedless as to whether the balls, recently driven from the tee, had fallen into a bunker or not. The golfers who were playing behind the match seemed to enjoy the situation rather than to feel put out by the delay in their own games.

Mr. Littleton came in for a good deal of chiding in which the President laughingly joined in with the remarks, "You Democrats are always letting us Republicans beat you." Declaring he felt "utterly chagrined," the congressman left late yesterday for New York.

Returning from the golf links, President Taft found Representative John Dalzell of Pennsylvania waiting to see him.

"Hello, John," he exclaimed, "what the deuce are you doing here? Have you come to tell me you have changed your mind and that you're going to vote for Canadian reciprocity?"

The President's laughter rang through the corridors of the hotel as he slapped the congressman on the back.

Mr. Dalzell has been taking a little vacation at Alken, S. C., and ran over to Augusta for luncheon with a party of friends. Politics had nothing to do with his call.

John D. Rockefeller, who occupied quarters close to the President's at the hotel where both were staying, left yesterday for New York. It was reported here that Mr. Rockefeller, in the belief that the United States supreme court soon would hand down a decision in the Standard Oil trust case, desired to be close in touch with the situation at New York. Mr. Taft and Mr. Rockefeller met but once—a passing salute yesterday on the golf links at a distance of 200 feet.

ALL THE WRITING ALWAYS IN SIGHT

(The biggest order ever placed by any firm or corporation for typewriters for their own use) because their own mechanical experts, sitting as a jury, said it was unquestionably the best.

They examined all competing makes, tested them under every condition of stress and strain, and voted unanimously in favor of the L. C. Smith & Bros. The Duponts thus rendered you an invaluable service. Lacking mechanical experts of your own you can safely rely upon the decision of these two engineers, at the height of their call, who were willing to stake their professional reputation on the L. C. Many large concerns have already been guided by this expert opinion and have standardized as the Duponts did, with the typewriter that stood the test. There could be no test more thorough, or more unbiased decisions.
