GREAT ANXIETY FOR AMERICANS AT ACAPULCO

REPORTED THAT U. S. NAVAL FORCES WILL BE LANDED THERE TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

PRES. DIAZ' RESIGNATION

Formal Declaration of Private Assurance Are Awaited By Peace Commissioners.

By Associated Press
Washington, May 5.—Bulletin—Increasing anxiety is felt here for the safety of Americans in Mexico particularly near Acapulco. It is reported that the United States Naval forces will be ordered to Acapulco.

Urgent instructions have been sent by the war department to the commanding officers at Acapulco, to offer all possible aid to Americans. Ambassador Wilson has investigated the report that the two sons of Judge Melvin Goodman had been murdered by alleged revolutionists at their father's hacienda near Acapulco. Bandits are said to overrun this neighborhood. Wilson says Americans in Mexico City are also alarmed fearing peace negotiations may fail and anarchy break out.

Washington, May 5.—Despite the promise of peace that is held out as a result of yesterday's development at Juarez, Mexico, where the basis of a peace pact between the Diaz Government and Madero was reported agreed upon. Washington continues to take a gloomy view of the Mexican situation as a whole, and the War Department, as was told in these dispatches last night, is quietly but energetically preparing for a movement that spells either intervention or a forbidding demonstration on the frontier in the very near future.

As to Foreigners.
As the situation is viewed here, danger to foreigners in Mexico is more than merely possible within a few days, should revolutionists who are now reported hovering on the outskirts of the City of Mexico, attempt to force the fall of the capital.

Independent of the grave possibilities in the City of Mexico, there is a second danger, for even through the Mexican Government should be able to hold its own within the Federal district of Mexico, which is restored to Columbia, and even though a peace pact be consummated with Madero in Northern Mexico there would still remain some three or four independent revolutions against Madero.

No Disturbances in Mexico City.
By Associated Press
Mexico City, May 5.—The long awaited fifth of May dawned peacefully here today despite the reports of rumor mongers all week that this day had been selected for general rebel uprisings. The war department states that there are 3500 troops in this city and 2000 policemen, and that no attack on the City of Mexico is expected. Only a few thousand rebels at the most are within a day's ride of here. Neither the government officials or citizens underestimate the seriousness of the situation but nevertheless people are showing more op-

YOUNG MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

ROBERT ASHLEY-HAMLIN CRUSHED TO DEATH WHEN MACHINE OVERTURNED.

WHOLE CITY IS SHOCKED

Sam Sproles Also Hurt But His Injuries Are Not Believed Serious.

As the result of an automobile accident last night Robert Ashley Hamlin, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Hamlin, is dead and Sam Sproles, who was driving the machine, is suffering from severe injuries, including three broken ribs. The accident occurred about 9:15 on the lower Park road about three and a half miles out from town and was directly due to the blowing out of one of the rear tires of the machine.

The machine was being driven at a moderate rate when Mr. Sproles discovered that a change had been made in the road and some brush thrown across the old route. He had just made a turn when the discovery was made and as he steered his machine from the old road to follow the new, the accident happened and before the car could be stopped it turned completely over. There were four occupants, including Mr. Sproles, Ashley Hamlin, his sister, Miss Ola May Hamlin and Miss Myrtle Henderson, and it seems that when the accident occurred, Young Hamlin realizing the danger undertook to assist the young ladies out and as a result was caught under the seat when the car turned turtle and his life crushed out. The young ladies escaped with slight injuries, Miss Hamlin being slightly bruised, while Miss Henderson was unhurt.

In the capsizing of the car Mr. Sproles sustained three broken ribs, on the right side, but did not realize at first that he had been seriously injured. Later he became sick from the injury and suffered severely until medical aid was secured.

As soon as it was discovered that Ashley Hamlin was caught under the car the remainder of the party set to work to relieve him, the young ladies holding up the machine as best they could while Mr. Sproles pulled him from beneath. He was perfectly conscious and talked to the remainder of the party for several minutes, assuring them that his injuries were not serious and that he was not going to die. Later, however, he grew worse and died in about an hour after the accident.

Soon after the injury was sustained, G. L. Ellis, who lives near the place, was notified and he at once went to the home of a neighbor and phoned the city of the said incident. Drs. Burnside and Jones went out as quickly as possible, but the young man had expired and preparations

A Sensation Exploded

Pittsfield, Ill., May 5, 1911.
Daily Times.
Wichita Falls, Texas.
Jennie Billings is at her home in New Hartford. She has never been in Wichita Falls.

EDITH ST. JOHN.
The foregoing telegram from a married sister of Jennie Billings who in a sensational newspaper story was alleged to have been kidnapped upon her arrival in Wichita Falls a few days ago and whom the same paper on the day following the first sensational story said had spent the night in Wichita Falls and from here was believed to have gone to Fort Worth, will go a long way toward undoing the damage that has been done the business interests of Wichita Falls through the publication of the story mentioned. It is a well known fact, however, that a wild rumor always spreads farther than a correction and there may be some in the trade territory of Wichita Falls who will be afraid for their daughters and wives to visit this city after reading that ridiculous story.

Briefly, the story as published, was that Jennie Billings had written her brother here, Roy Billings, that she was coming to Wichita Falls to visit him. That he went to the train to meet her, but in the confusion of the arrival of trains failed to see her when she alighted. That he caught a glimpse of her as she entered a cab which was driven away rapidly.

Roy Billings, the young man named in the story, is employed by a Mr. Anderson, living in the country just beyond Floral Heights. He came here with the Andersons from Pike county, Illinois, where his family still lives several years ago, and has since made his home with them.

In an interview with a Times reporter Thursday afternoon Young Billings denied specifically that he had ever told anyone that he had received a letter from his sister saying that she was coming to Wichita Falls, or that he went to the station to meet her. He says the nearest he went to the station on the day mentioned was when he delivered some milk at the St. Charles hotel.

It was learned at the Anderson home yesterday that Roy had received a telegram last Saturday announcing the death of his mother in Illinois, and that she was buried last Tuesday. Roy was offered the expenses of the trip to go back to Illinois to attend the funeral, but declined the offer, preferring to wear out his grief here.

There is a sister living at Pittsfield, Illinois, whose name he gave a Times representative. The Times addressed a telegram to her and the answer to that telegram of inquiry is printed above. New Hartford is a small town in Pike county near Pittsfield.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR SENATE REPUBLICANS

Regulars and Insurgents Likely to Split Over Selection of President Pro Tem.

By Associated Press.
Washington, May 5.—The House is still hammering away today at the farmers free list bill with the Senate ostensibly idle although most of the Senators are very busy at committee work. Chairman Underwood, formally announced to the House that he would force a vote Monday on the free list bill.

The legislative whips of the Senate this far have not turned with their old time smoothness and there is now a prospect of a clash between the regular Republicans and the Insurgents over the president pro-tempore to succeed Frye. A caucus on this position will be held Monday.

BISHOP GARRETT HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Bishop Garrett, of Dallas, will conduct the services at the Episcopal Church next Sunday morning. He has many friends in Wichita Falls, for he has made this point in his journeys for more than thirty years.

TUESDAY'S SESSION WILL BE BUSY ONE

Several Matters of Importance Will Be Taken Up Next Week By Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday promises to be one of the most important held in many months, while no new propositions of special importance are to be considered, there are a number of matters of general interest that will be considered and acted.

At this meeting it is expected that a final report will be made on the cotton mill matter and while the substance of this report has not been given out, it is thought that the contents will be of a gratifying nature.

The matter of locating the electrical appliance factory will also come up for final disposition, it being understood that this date has been agreed upon as that upon which Messrs. Decker and Blakeslee will be ready to close up the proposition or abandon it entirely.

Other matters to be considered include the industrial promotion plan submitted by Secretary Day, upon which the committee appointed will make a report to the directors.

PROHIBITION SERMONS ON MOTHER'S DAY

Every Preacher in State Asked to Deliver Talk On Prohibition May 14.

Believing that the mothers of Texas suffer more through the open saloons than from any other thing the Statewide Prohibition Amendment Association has started a movement to have every preacher in the state to deliver a prohibition sermon on Mother's Day, May 14th.

Wichita Falls pastors to whose attention the movement has been called approve it and follow out the suggestion.

GRAND JURORS FOR JUNE TERM DRAWN

Following is the grand jury list for the June term of the district court to convene at this place on June 5: W. L. Robertson, J. L. Lea, L. P. Douglas, J. R. Pace, A. J. VanCleave, T. Overbey, W. H. Guinn, J. C. Ward, S. Y. Ferguson, W. R. Ferguson, W. A. Freear, L. H. Lawler, I. A. Farris, W. P. Trueblood, J. T. Williams, G. W. Filgo.

Famous Million Dollar Land Suit Compromised for $75,000

A compromise has been reached in the celebrated case of McKay and McKenzie vs. Eric and Swan Swenson, which was tried in the district court at this place last June, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiffs in the sum of $600,000, but upon which a new trial was granted by the court.

The settlement came through a compromise effected this week by the terms of which the plaintiffs are to receive $75,000 or 12 1/2 per cent of the verdict awarded in the trial referred to above.

largest in the history of West Texas, has attracted much attention on account of its size and the fact that the parties thereto are well known throughout the country. The suit was for a share of the profits securing from the sale of Espueto (Spur) ranch located in Dickens county. The property consisted of 600,000 acres and it is understood that the profits on the sale amounted to about $5-per acre of which McKay and McKenzie claimed that $1,000,000 would be their just share.

GRAHAM CONTRACTS FOR EXTENSION OF W. F. AND S.

OUR NEUTRALITY LAWS ANTIQUATED

NEIGHBORING NATIONS HAVE A JUST CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT AGAINST UNITED STATES.

BETTER LAWS NEEDED

Former Secretary of State Calls Attention to Defects at Peace Conference.

Baltimore, May 5.—John W. Foster, former Secretary of State, and one of the foremost authorities on international law, in an address before the Third National Peace Conference here today declared that the principal reason of the present conditions on the Mexican border was the need of better neutrality laws. Mr. Foster suggested three modifications which, in his opinion, the present laws should undergo: "First, Some restriction should be placed upon the free commerce as a mercantile commodity of arms and munition of war; and power should be conferred upon the President to limit or suspend, in his discretion, their export across the border in time of disturbance or insurrection."

"Second, It should be made unlawful for Americans to enter the military service of any power or chief of war with a nation with which we are at peace. It was the personal aid of Americans that gave strength to the Canadian rebellion in 1838, to the late insurrection in Mexico, and to the recent civil war in Nicaragua and Honduras. In this respect the laws of Great Britain, France, and other countries are in advance of ours. The British Foreign Bill of 1907 makes it unlawful for any British subject to enter the military service of any power at war with a nation with which its government is at peace, and it subjects them to heavy fine and imprisonment."

"Third, Greater power should be conferred upon the President, in time of civil disturbance on the frontier, to limit or prohibit intercourse across the border to prevent the abuse of our territory by foreign conspirators, and in his discretion to enforce martial law on our soil within the zone of disturbance. "Defects of our Neutrality Laws" was Mr. Foster's subject. He said in part: "The intercourse of our country with foreign nations is our first and most important duty to preserve the peace. It has long been known that Messrs. Kemp and Kell and their interests have been looking forward to a connection with one of the railroad operating between Fort Worth or Dallas and the port of Galveston with a view of making the Wichita Falls route a great grain carrying line. It is possible that such an arrangement will be made with the Rock Island, thereby obviating the necessity of constructing their own line into Fort Worth. The branch of the Rock Island operating between Dallas, Fort Worth and Graham would offer a means of reaching the Trinity & Brazos Valley in which the Rock Island owns a half interest and which would give a direct connection with Galveston. Cotton Contract Case in Court. County court continues in session and is disposing of business in a very satisfactory way. Yesterday afternoon the case of O. D. Hill vs. Frank Zoluder was concluded the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. This case in one in which Hill sued for money due in connection with a land lease. Today the court has been engaged in the trial of the case of E. H. Andrews vs. Furst Edwards Co., a cotton firm of Dallas, in which Andrews claims an indebtedness of $400 due him in connection with a cotton contract. The testimony had been concluded and the attorneys were arguing the case as the Times goes to press.

CITIZENS AGREE TO GIVE $35,000 AND RIGHT OF WAY FROM NEWCASTLE.

WITHIN THREE MONTHS

Work Expected to Start at Once and Trains Will Be in Operation Within Ninety Days.

Special to The Times.
Graham, Texas, May 5.—In a mass meeting here last night the citizens signed a contract submitted by Messrs. Kemp and Kell for the extension of the Wichita Falls & Southern from New Castle to this city a distance of about eleven miles. To secure the extension citizens of Graham have subscribed $35,000 as a cash bonus and have agreed to furnish a right of way. Messrs. Kemp and Kell on their part agree to have the line completed and in operation within three months and it is believed that work will start within ten days. Graham is jubilant over the prospects for securing the new railroad and a connection with Wichita Falls the "Busiest and Best Built City in Texas."

Both Messrs. Kemp and Kell are in the East in connection with the proposed cotton mill and on matters pertaining to railroad extensions both in Oklahoma and Texas. Upon their return important and authoritative announcements are expected relative to extensions beyond Hammond, Okla., and from Newcastle to Fort Worth and a new line from Wichita Falls to Lawton.

It has long been known that Messrs. Kemp and Kell and their interests have been looking forward to a connection with one of the railroad operating between Dallas, Fort Worth and the port of Galveston with a view of making the Wichita Falls route a great grain carrying line. It is possible that such an arrangement will be made with the Rock Island, thereby obviating the necessity of constructing their own line into Fort Worth.

The branch of the Rock Island operating between Dallas, Fort Worth and Graham would offer a means of reaching the Trinity & Brazos Valley in which the Rock Island owns a half interest and which would give a direct connection with Galveston.

Dynamite Resorted to Check Fire at Alpine

By Associated Press
Alpine, Texas, May 5.—Ten of Alpine's biggest business buildings were destroyed by fire this morning. The loss exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars, with insurance of twenty-five thousand. Dynamite was resorted to when it was discovered that Alpine's chemical engine, which is said not to have been re-charged for two years, was found out of order. Two chemical engines were rushed here from Marfa, after which the flames were subdued after cleaning out the block from the Holland hotel eastward. This is the same block which was burned in 1907. The fire started in a jewelry store in the Lackey building and inside of an hour its work was done. It had reached the wall of the First National Bank building when it was checked.

The heaviest losers were H. L. Lacy, $15,000; J. R. Holland, $15,000; W. J. Intyre, $9,000.

SCORES OF WHITES NEAR SIN KILLER GRIFFIN

Negro Evangelist Delivers Earnest and Vigorous Appeal for Better Life.

Sin Killer Griffin began his attack on sin; and the devil in the initial service of his meeting held last night. Quite a large crowd was present and the preacher made a vigorous and earnest appeal in his original way to those present to lead a better life.

There were quite a number of white people at the service, who listened attentively to the discourse. Griffin always attracts large crowds, and these as a rule increase in size as the meeting progresses.

Services will continue for ten days or two weeks at the tabernacle, built for the occasion on Ohio avenue, near the Alfalfa Lumber Company.

Big Plant at Waco.
Waco, Texas, May 5.—Ground is being broken for the erection of the plant of the Waco Sash and Door Company, which will cover seven square blocks, the buildings along occupying three blocks in the western part of the city. The cost will be $400,000.

Elks Minstrel Performers Must Forego Tobacco

The Elks Club room is about the busiest place in town these days. All day long you can hear some "bald singer," or "end man" going over his song, for the big Elks Minstrel Show, which is to be given at the Wichita Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday nights, May 10 and 11. "Id Rather be a Minstrel Man Than a Multimillionaire," is one of the most popular songs with those taking part in the show, and if you could hear the way our serious business and professional men are singing this at rehearsals every night, you would certainly believe it.

This is the one time when these busy citizens of ours cast off the cares of everyday life and turn themselves loose just to show their fellow-townsmen the funny side of their nature, and to prove what clever performers the theatrical world lost when they decided to settle down in Wichita Falls.

book of directions); as graceful and as light of foot as the famous Russian dancers.

The fellows who sell cigars and "coffin nails" will be glad when the minstrel is over, because all of those taking part in the big shows are cutting out all of these things that injure their "glorious voices," but the drug stores are more than making up for it, by the sale of throat tablets and gargles that are guaranteed to produce voices like Caruso, or Scottie.

There is no doubt but what the show this year will be the biggest of the kind to succeed. Everyone talking part is so interested and the material that they have to work with is the very best that money could get. Nothing is being overlooked that will make the show this year bigger and better than anything of the kind that has ever been given here before, and when the Elks start out to do a thing up right they never fail.

They have secured Messrs. Miller and Draper to produce the show for them. These are the same gentlemen that put on the other shows for the Elks here, and they bring with them an entirely new outfit of costumes, scenery, songs, jokes and everything else that goes to make up a perfect minstrel show.

Every Elks has tickets for sale and they report an immense sale. You buy these tickets now and exchange them for reserved seats next Monday at 9 a. m. at Marchman's Drug store.

85TH BIRTHDAY OF MAD EMPRESS

KINGS AND QUEENS, STATESMEN, CHURCHMEN ANN SCIENTISTS SEND MESSAGES.

IS A MOST TRAGIC FIGURE

Seppulture of Husband in View of Her Window—She Prays Daily at His Sarcophagi.

London, May 5.—The ex-Empress Eugenie, whom some writers are in the habit of speaking of as the most tragic picture in all modern history, reached her eighty-fifth birthday anniversary today and the occasion was marked by the receipt of congratulatory messages from kings and queens, statesmen, churchmen, scientists and other persons of distinction throughout Europe. In spite of her age she is in good health, and takes an active interest in everything around her. Of Scotch and Spanish extraction, the former Empress, in spite of the series of dramatic events which have clouded her life, is still a remarkably handsome woman, and she has still much of the charm that stirred the admiration of the spectators of her marriage with Emperor Napoleon in Notre Dame.

Since 1880 Eugenie has resided at Farnborough Hill, Hants, in a great house, surrounded by venerable trees. Prior to taking up her residence at Farnborough she had lived at Chislehurst, where the Emperor died, and which place she left because she could not obtain there the land for the building of a mausoleum for her dead. Some twenty-five years ago she erected the building, known as the church and abbey of St. Michael, which in 1896 she transferred to the monks.

Standing on the crown of the hill opposite her residence Eugenie is able to see the place of sepulture of her husband and son from her windows. To the mortuary chapel she goes daily to pray. There is an altar, before which a monk says mass, with only one mortal auditor. Every one else is excluded while the unhappy wife and mother is within. An armchair is placed at the foot of each of the two sarcophagi wherein lie the remains of Napoleon III, and the Prince Imperial, and first in one and then in the other, the ex-Empress often sits alone in prayer. Both tombs are decorated with floral wreaths and scattered flowers. Of the latter violets are the most numerous, and some of these are taken away as mementos by the visitors who are admitted when the ex-Empress has gone.

The mausoleum was built by Eugenie at a total cost of over $500,000. Behind the magnificent altar, on either side of which are the two granite sarcophagi, is a small door leading into the Benedictine abbey, and over this an arcossium has recently been built into the wall. It was designed by French architects, and is of stone throughout. This new work forms the framework of a tomb which is unique in England, if not in the world. In this tomb the former Empress will be interred when in the fullness of time she comes to die.

SUFFRAGISTS PLAN A MONSTER PARADE

EVOLUTION OF WOMAN FROM INFANT DAY WILL BE DEPICTED.

GOTHAM DEMONSTRATION

Representation From Men's Equal Suffrage League Will March With Women Enthusiasts.

New York, May 5.—Plans for the great suffrage parade down Fifth Avenue tomorrow afternoon are all completed. The promoters declare the demonstration will exceed anything of the kind ever given in this country. The evolution of woman from the sedan chair days to the present athletic age will be shown in the procession, with trades and politics brought in.

Leading the procession will be a big banner carried by three young women representing the organizations having the pageant in charge, the Woman Suffrage Party, the Woman's Political Union, and the Collegiate Suffrage League.

Following the leading banner will come a file and drum corps and Scottish pipers. The first part of the procession will represent the early days and the women of that time. Floats will show women in the earlier home industries, weaving and spinning, which have now been taken from the home and put into manufacturing.

Women in industrial pursuits will follow in squads, and next will be women farmers, actresses, artists, musicians and writers. A woman's band will march next leading the business women, social workers, women who drive their own motor cars, aeronauts and explorers, and a woman balloon maker, who will carry a balloon instead of a banner.

College women will march in caps and gowns, and there will be women ministers as well as women doctors, lawyers, engineers, architects, and teachers. There will also be a representation from the Men's Equal Suffrage League and a delegation of girl shirtwaist makers who will carry a crimson banner draped with black.

As far as possible every one will be on foot. A carriage however will be provided for the suffrage promoters, women who attend the first suffrage convention in the world, that at Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1848. In this will be Mrs. Willis of Rochester, Mrs. Greenleaf of the same city, Miss Rhoads Palmer and Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

- May 5, 1776—The second Congress met in Philadelphia. 1786—Opening of the States-General of France at Versailles. 1811—Dr. John William Draper, who made the first photograph, born near Liverpool, England. Died in New York Jan. 4, 1882. 1821—Napoleon Bonaparte died at St. Helena. Born in Corsica, Aug. 15, 1769. 1864—The great battle of the Wilderness began. 1902—First Congress of the Cuban Republic met in Havana. 1910—Nearly 1000 lives lost in an earthquake that destroyed Cartago, Costa Rica.

In answer to the many inquiries that have come to this office regarding an alleged kidnapping case, the Times is now in a position to state most positively that nothing of the kind occurred, and on investigating finds there was little if anything upon which to base such an absurd story. The young lady involved, and whose name has been dragged into this "Diamond Dick" story, is at the home of a married sister in an Illinois town, and for aught the Times has knowledge, has never set her foot on Texas soil. Wichita Falls, the Times must admit, does not present as clean a moral record as she could, but conditions here have never yet reached that stage where a young lady, coming for a visit to relatives, could be boldly kidnapped while waiting at the station to be conveyed to her relatives. Such ridiculous and sensational stories may, for a time, serve their purpose, i. e., sell a few extra copies of an extraordinarily "silly" journal, but that is all. As for the advertising Wichita Falls gets by such means, if persisted in, will result in great injury to the city. The paper in which the story appeared attempted on the following day to confirm it, and it has either been greatly imposed upon by some one, or has deliberately "worked off" a sensation to the detriment of Wichita Falls.

NEED OF RECALL.

From the New York American. What should be the reason of objection to the recall? What is the recall that it should be so much opposed? As an element of government it is nothing new. It is an experiment, but has been tested again and again. Wherever it has had adoption it has worked for good, and what communities possess it would not part with it.

The recall has flourished for years in California and Oregon. It has been often invoked and never failed of success. When an officer of Los Angeles was elected to protect the people from the criminal encroachments of local traction, and then sold out to the thieves, the recall was resorted to and he was turned out of place. When, the other day, a mayor of a western city was elected upon an anti-vice issue, and then sold out to the black powers of evil, the recall was resorted to and he was turned out of place. In his stead another mayor was installed, and the graftings and what immoralities they fed upon are already dwindling toward their disappearance.

Arkansas not long ago adopted the recall. Arizona—to be presently admitted—will carry it in her constitution. The recall is marching from West to East. Fifty years from now every community will possess it. In his private affairs every man has the recall. Were the government, by law, to take the right of recall from men in their private affairs it would breed a revolution. You have a coachman who gets drunk or tries to steal your horses. Must you continue to keep him? And yet his dismissal will be no more than just an exercise of the recall. You have a cook who burns the roast or poisons the pudding. Must you keep her? And yet her dismissal would be no more than just an exercise of the recall.

You might following that line of thought until in your list of examples you had included factory foremen, managers of big business institutions, whomsoever, indeed, is hired to perform duties of commercial worth and moment; should they, through idleness, viciousness, ignorance or drunkenness become unfit for the service or the trust to which they were called. Must you still continue them in their places for one year, two years, four? It would make bankrupt in the long run even so rich an institution as Standard Oil.

And yet what is the difference between public and private business? Should you elect a mayor who sells out your interest to a group of traction hands, or who, through ignorance or a drunken disregard of decency and right, betrays you or disgraces you, are you to remain powerless to rid yourself of him for the full four years of his term? Such an argument is the sublimation of the preposterous, and if applied in private business would mean that, having, through some blindness, named a burglar as night watchman to a bank for four years, that crackman must be continued in his position for four years albeit you had more than once caught him with his burglarious hands in the rich bowels of the safe.

If there is a city between the oceans which could have used the recall to advantage that city is the city of New York. Consider Mayor Gaynor for the year and a third he has been at the head of city affairs; consider his ways and his works. Upon a promise to cut expenses he is instantly more extravagant than his predecessors. Pretending to a zealous honesty, he signals his advent into office by selling $50,000,000 of city bonds at 4 1/2 per cent to J. Pierpont Morgan, and makes that interest payable semi-annually in New York, London and Paris, which deal in high finance costs the town something worse than a million and a half of dollars.

He arranges an exclusive lease of a twenty-mile strip 300 feet wide—it cost the city over three millions of dollars—to the Long Island Railroad for $250 a year, and is only restrained by injunction from executing that lease.

He pays $48,000 upon a claim for lawyer's fees which had been turned down by his predecessor and for which upon the services (?) rendered no judge and no jury would have given judgment in court.

He browbeats a police force and tortures crime and criminals until arming-offenses, as murder, highway robbery, assault and battery, are doubled in our midst, while arrests therefore fall off 50 per cent. Vice, unblushing and unafraid walks abroad in every street, and when respectable men and women complain in defense of their homes they are called by him "fools" and "liars" and told that "to know bad people they themselves must be bad."

He appoints as city chamberlain his pilot fish, Hyde, and Hyde, as such chamberlain, so manipulates the city money that he finally has $650,000 in a bankrupt concern at the moment of bankruptcy, and the public is now told that it will be luck if it gets back 60 per cent of it.

The above are only a handful of examples, to tell the whole mean story would fill a book. If New York had had the recall most of these disasters would have been avoided. Mayor Gaynor could have been recalled on the back of his payment of that $48,000 to Cobalan. Or, if popular vigilance had slept through that $50,000,000 Morgan bonds would have surely, through the recall, have brought about his dismissal would have carried with it Chamberlain Pilot Fish Hyde and so saved the public at that angle from both loss and disgrace.

Also vice and crime would have been checked in its black growth and the census of footpads, burglars and pickpockets diminished by one-half. Those who oppose the recall name and fear the people as the mob. The term "mob" had aristocratic invention, and was coined by silken thieves, ones who lived by pillaging the people, and did not by any augmentation of popular power, care to have their pillagings disturbed.

Today the same fashion of public bloodcurdling calls the people the "mob" and insists that no "mob" should be put in possession of so powerful an engine as the recall. This is the people's government, and if the deliberate action of the people, evidenced by their ballots at the polls is to be construed as "mob" government, then are we governed by a "mob." History proclaims a different story. Seldom, if ever, have the people of this country gone wrong when aroused by the invasion of their rights in take thought as to the remedy to be applied.

This is My 51st Birthday. James A. O'Gorman, the new United States senator from New York, was born in New York city, May 5, 1860. After finishing a course in the public schools he entered the College of the City of New York. From there he went to the University of New York law school, and was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law in 1882. He joined the Tammany Hall organization and became an active political worker. In 1885 he was elected a justice of the municipal court and four years later he was elected a justice of the New York supreme court for a term of fourteen years. Senator O'Gorman has been prominent in the counsels of Tammany Hall for many years, though it is said that he never allowed partisan politics to influence his work as a jurist.

were made to return to the city. In the meantime Rev. and Mrs. Hamlin, the parents of the young man and of his sister who was in the party, were driven to the sad scene by Mr. W. M. McGregor.

Returning to the city, the remains were taken to the home of the family, 1008 Austin street, where in a short time loving friends gathered to render such assistance as they could and to comfort the sorrowing relatives of the unfortunate young man.

It was announced this morning that Young Hamlin's death was due to injuries received in the breast upon which portion of the body rested the back seat of the car in its upturned condition, three ribs on his right side being crushed down upon the thoracic cavity.

Mr. Sproule, while amost prostrate with grief over the sad incident, and suffering from the injuries sustained, is reported today to be resting as well as could be expected and it is not thought that his injuries are of a serious nature.

When news of the sad affair became current this morning it cast a gloom over the entire city and many were the sad hearts who heard the story of the unfortunate accident. The deceased, who was 19 years of age, was a young man of noble character, highly respected by all his associates, and especially popular in the High School, where he was a student of high standing. Not only was he unusually studious and successful in his studies, but he was an active participant in the athletic events of the school and one was of the medal winners in the recent track meet of the Northwest Texas Athletic Association at this place.

The funeral service will be held from the Christian church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be in Riverside cemetery, and the funeral service will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Morton, assisted by other pastors of the city.

peace and cultivate relations of friendship with our coterritorial neighbor. And yet within the last few weeks we have seen local disturbances in the northern states of Mexico fanned into flames of war along the boundary line and our entire population astounded by the rapid concentration of our army for hostile operations. Those best informed tell us that this lamentable condition of affairs has been brought about largely by the abuse of foreigners of the contiguous territory of the United States and by the active participation of American citizens. Great quantities of arms and munitions of war, swading our custom-houses, have been surreptitiously introduced into Mexico. Large numbers of American citizens, both singly and in bands, accounted for war, have openly crossed the frontier and joined the forces which seek to overthrow a government with which we have in peace and war, carried on in battle his peace and when worsted in battle he sought a refuge within our borders, only to return at all and take part in a contest in which we should properly be neutral. A so-called "provisional" Governor of Chihuahua has openly established his office at El Paso, Texas, and therefore issued his orders and decrees in warlike correspondence across the frontier; while insurrectionary chiefs in other localities on American territory, were actively plotting against the established government of Mexico.

It is not necessary that we should consider the merits of the controversy in Mexico to pass judgment upon the condition of affairs on our southern border. Every patriotic American citizen who has regard for the honor of his country and its reputation among the nations of the earth must declare these events, and inquire whether there is not a remedy for them. It is desired that there has been a sincere desire on the part of the President and his Cabinet to enforce a strict observance of our neutrality laws. I am not so certain that a similar spirit has existed on the part of the local authorities, either Federal or State, along the frontier, where the neutral sentiment seems to be largely on the side of the insurrectionists. But whether or not the neutrality laws have been strictly enforced, it is plain to any student of our history who has given attention to the subject that they are antiquated and are in great need of revision and enlargement.

Await Word From Diaz. By Associated Press. El Paso, Texas, May 5.—News is awaited from Mexico City as to whether Diaz will accept the proposal made by Madero yesterday to make public the private assurance already given that he will resign. Meanwhile peace negotiations are at a standstill, the commissioners being confident of arranging all other terms within forty-eight hours provided Diaz says he will resign. Telegrams are pouring into Madero's headquarters from other rebels warning him that they will continue fighting if he consents to any arrangement which will continue Diaz in office.

Reports arriving at Madero's camp today say that large bodies of rebels are being mobilized to march on Mexico City if necessary. Present armistice for the Chihuahua district will expire at noon tomorrow. Even if it should not be renewed there might be no attack on Juarez for several rebel leaders think that such an attack should be abandoned in view of the possible complications with the United States. Instead the insurrecto army will be turned southward.

Minister de la Barra is confident that a satisfactory agreement will be reached at Juarez, and the government leaders say then they will have little difficulty in disposing of smaller rebel bands.

For the insurrectos to make a successful attack on Mexico City, the government militarymen say they would have to mobilize their scattered bands nearer the city and also bring south the forces now operating in Durango and bring northward the troops from almost as far south as the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. It is known that the number of rebels in this section of the Republic is growing constantly and that their confidence is increasing.

Reports current here of a battle at Tres Marias yesterday, 45 miles from Mexico City, between 200 rebels and a band of federalists which had been pursuing them for several days. There is no confirmation of the report.

Many Rebel Bands. These movements, while inspired by Madero's success in the north, are independent of the Madero "Provisional Government" and are as strong in Sinaloa, Tepic, Guerrero and Morelos as Madero's revolution has proven to be in Chihuahua, Sonora and parts of Coahuila. Likewise revolutionary leaders taking advantage of the general discontent have organized formidable forces that are operating with more or less success in certain Eastern States of Mexico. Miplster of Foreign Affairs of Mexico, de la Barra according to a dispatch from Ambassador Wilson yesterday, recognizes the fact that peace with Madero will probably affect only the northern frontier, including possibly the region around Torreon, where the Madero family has large business interests and a wide influence, so Minister de la Barra announces now that peace is in sight with Madero, independent peace negotiations will be attempted with the other revolutionary leaders, especially those operating in the States of Morelos and Guerrero, which most threaten the Mexican capital.

Country Torn and Ravished. The danger which official Washington sees, even though an effective peace can be made with the Madero revolution, lies in the fact that the country will continue to be torn and ravished by the operating of the independent revolutionary movements which are simultaneously in progress in widely-different parts of the country, unless the Government is put in a position to proceed aggressively against them.

That it lies in the Diaz regime to do this is not believed here. That the Diaz regime seems to have lost every vestige of its old-time virility, its military organization, as far as its officers and a large part of the rank and file are concerned, is loyal enough, but the country is so honey-combed with discontent that it is impossible to muster an army at this critical juncture that can cope with the rebellious bands.

Intervention Seems Unavoidable. It is the bringing of order out of such chaos and preventing the operations of the different independent revolutionary forces from degenerating into pure pillage and anarchy, which neither the Government nor the Madero faction might be able to curb, that is responsible for the feeling in high official circles that intervention in Mexico seems almost unavoidable. This event, it is declared, would be precipitated should the City of Mexico fall, and the criminal element gain upper hand by reason of insufficient trained men to control the situation, but it is not clear that intervention can be avoided even though the Government should hold its own in the capital and in separate districts throughout the country, with independent revolutionary bands ravaging the country for some time to come, now in conflicts with the Diaz Government, and later, perhaps, in conflicts with rival movements.

Powers May Force It. Slow as Congress and the Administration may want to go in the matter of Mexican intervention, it is believed here among diplomats and Government authorities that on the first personal safety of foreigners, strong European Governments will take steps to force intervention. It is a distinctly dread expectation among public men here that European representatives will at any moment precipitate the crisis by making representations that will leave open to this country, as far as now can be seen, no course short of armed intervention in behalf of the personal safety of all foreigners in Mexico.

Another Ray of Hope. Unless this crisis is precipitated within a very short period there is still one hope of its entire avoidance, which the American officials can see.

and that hope centers in the person of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, the only military idol that has ever been able to share the affections of the Mexican people with President Diaz, before the waning of the Diaz star. Gen. Reyes is speeding toward New York on a swift liner and is due to reach this country within a few days. In the opinion of those best fitted to speak, Gen. Reyes is the only public man of Mexico today who might whip into shape a loyal army and bring into submission the independent revolutionary bands. But to do it, he will have to seize the Government, that is, he will have to be the Government and usher in with new blood and new prospects to the people, a repetition of the iron-fisted dictatorship of Diaz in his prime. President Has Gloomy View. This view of the Mexican situation presents the gloomier side of the picture but it is the view which public men in the confidence of the President ascribe to Mr. Taft, and it is the view which is guiding the War Department in its energetic preparations for eventualities of the gravest character. As was pointed out in these dispatches last night, these preparations have been in progress for the past three days. They contemplate the swelling of Major Gen. Carter's provisional division at San Antonio to its full war footing; the mobilization of a second army division, the filling up of a waiting list from which the War Department can draw an immediate quota of commissioned officers for the speedy mobilization of a reserve for volunteer army corps, and the accumulation of a supply for the aggressive movement of large proportions. Ambassador Zamacona Hopeful. There is, however, a rosier view of the Mexican situation. It is held almost alone by Ambassador Zamacona and the attaches of the Mexican Embassy. The Mexican Ambassador returned a few diplomatic calls this afternoon, leaving everywhere in his wake most positive assurances that the trouble clouds of Mexico are rapidly dissolving. He was at tea this evening with Mrs. Taft at the White House. Ambassador Zamacona is a delightful conversationalist, speaking English as fluently and purely as a college bred American, but with a delicate tisp. A perpetual smile plays upon his face. It expands and contracts as occasion may warrant, but it is indelible. It expands greatly as he tells you that the Mexican Government and Madero today have completed the basis for peace in Mexico; that the clouds are vanishing; that the independent revolutionary armies in Morelos, Sinaloa and beautiful Tepic are roving bands, mere handfuls of men, seldom exceeding forty or fifty; that out of this travail will arise a newer and brighter political and commercial area for Mexico.

TODAY'S LIVE STOCK AND GRAIN MARKET

DECLINE IN HOGS CHECKED TODAY

MARKET HOLDS STEADY AT YESTERDAY'S AVERAGE—BULK TO $6.00.

STEER MARKET IS ACTIVE

Pens Cleared Early and Prices Hold Steady—Calves Were Unchanged.

Special to The Times. Fort Worth, Texas, May 5.—Hog prices held steady today at yesterday's average. The market opened weak at five cents lower but the salesman held back and forced the buyers to pay yesterday's prices and at the close the market had fully regained yesterday's prices average.

Today's receipts were 1800 head. One load of good quality sold at $6.10 and the bulk of sales ranged from $5.80 to $6.00.

Lightweights were quoted at $5.25 to $5.90. Mixed at $5.70 to $5.95. Pigs at $4.25 to $5.15.

CATTLE. Today's receipts were 1500 head, including 100 calves. The steer pens were cleared early, prices holding steady until near the close, when bidders quit. A load of caked steers sold at $4.55, and some grassers at $4.40 being only 35 cents apart. One bunch of South Texas caked steers weighing a thousand and fifty pounds or better will probably be shipped.

Feeders were steady some selling at $4.00. Cows were steady. Odd lots sold at $3.75 to $4.25. One load of heifers brought $4.20. Some Mexican bulls went at $3.10, thirty cents lower than the same kind brought two weeks ago.

Calves ranged steady to unchanged, the offerings being very common. SHEEP. Receipts were 150 head. The market was steady. Lambs sold at $6.50 and several loads of mixed sheep brought $3.50.

BRIBE SOLICITORS TRIALS ARE SET

Columbus, O., May 5.—State Senators George Kretzschmar, I. Huffman, and T. R. Andrews, Representatives A. C. Lowry and George B. Nye and Senate Sergeant at Arms Rodney J. Diegel, under indictment for soliciting bribes, were arraigned today and all pleaded not guilty. They will put up the defense that their dealings with the detectives were for the sole purpose of catching and exposing bribe givers. Prosecuting Attorney Turner said that he is receiving many anonymous communications several of which have led to the discovery of valuable information affecting legislative corruption. Several legislators have looked greatly worried after conferences with the prosecuting officials and it is said that some of them have made valuable admissions. The trials of the men pleading today were set for the week after next.

The Rate at Waxahachie. Waxahachie, Texas, May 5.—Fixing the rate at $1.65 per thousand feet the city council last night granted a thirty-year franchise to Detroit men to erect a gas plant here.

Government Appeals Cotton Corner Cases

Washington, May 5.—The government appeal of the cotton corner cases against Patton, Scales, Hayne and Brown was docketed in the United States supreme court today. The appeal brings a new question for decision, namely whether a corner constitutes a conspiracy in restraint of trade, monopoly of interstate commerce or a violation of the Sherman Law.

BATTING RECORDS BROKEN AT ALTUS

THIRTY-NINE HITS AND SEVEN HOME RUNS IN GAME THERE YESTERDAY. SCORE WAS 25 TO 11

Stopper Witherspoon Carries Off the Palm With Three Home Runs—Naylor Gets 7 Hits. Altus, Okla., May 5.—In a game that will be talked about as long as a fan or player lives who saw or participated in it, Stopper Witherspoon, Wichita Falls third baseman carried off all honors making three home runs one of which scored three others. Wichita Falls had entirely the best of it in a batting exhibition; getting twenty-four hits and 25 runs, while Altus got 15 hits and eleven runs. The game was played in a driving gust and windstorm, the wind blowing from behind the batters and carrying every high fly over the fence. In all Wichita Falls got six home runs. Art and D. Naylor and Brown getting one apiece. Ruoho for Altus also secured a homer.

The game was slow and featureless, the wind making it impossible for the pitchers to do effective work. Art Naylor secured seven straight hits. Clark, Miller and Cooper are the only Wichita Falls players who failed to hit. The score: Wichita Falls—AB R H PO A E Clark, ss. 5 3 0 3 4 1 Taylor, 2b. 6 5 3 2 1 1 Witherspoon, 3b. 7 6 5 2 1 0 A. Ardmore 6, Bonham 1. Ardmore, Okla., May 5.—Ardmore won yesterday's game from Bonham easily by hard hitting, touching up Hancock for seventeen safeties, while Trammel's teammates were according him faultless support. The feature was the hitting of Nicholson, and Hawkins of the locals. Hawkins, who played here for the first time, made good with the fans. One of Nicholson's hits was for three bases. CLEBURNE 4, DURANT 0. Cleburne, Tex., May 5.—The Cleburne team shut Durant out at Gorman Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 0. The visitors contested every inch of the ground and annexed nine hits, but could not get a man closer home than third, thirteen going out at first.

A. J. Robinson, Cleburne's new pitcher fielded his position well and made the initial score for Cleburne. His ball, fine support. Cronkite, the home team's right fielder, made a fine double play. Washington, center fielder for the visitors, pulled down a line drive by Spencer that might have cost a score.

Aaron Lacoofski, for two years captain of the Longview Cannibals, who resides at Texas, has been signed by the home team to cover the second sack. Crosier has been released. Twelve more games are to be played here. The new "Sunday" park has been completed and is ready for today's game.

Lawton 7, Gainesville 0. Lawton, Okla., May 5.—After winning the opening game with Gainesville yesterday, the Lawton left fielder threw it away and it took twelve innings to get it back again by a score of 7 to 6. Jensen pitched good ball until he got in a hole, and then lost his head. Capt. Metcalf strayed at the bat and in the field. Rich, Gainesville's center fielder, made a thrilling one-handed stop, shutting off a score. Mitchell was hit hard, but improved toward the end. The Best Preserves Olives and Sweet Relish in Town

Yes, we are absolutely safe in saying best in each case, for we have these three items packed under the Bismark Brand, which guarantees the quality positively.

The olives are the Big Queen variety, beauties to look at and delicious to eat and only 50c per quart jar.

The preserves are pure fruits and granulated sugar put up in the most approved manner. Your choice of Peach, Strawberry or Blackberry at 40c per quart jar.

The Sweet Relish is something a little out of the ordinary. Most refreshes are sharp and peppery; this one has a very pleasant taste, but borders on the sweet—not too sweet, though. A quart-jar is 35c.

Let us send you a jar of each of these

ANDREW CARNEGIE RECEIVES SIGNAL HONOR FROM PEOPLE OF MANY NATIONS.

IS CALLED A BENEFACTOR

Representatives From Many Countries and Officials and Dignitaries in Attendance.

Special to The Times.

Washington, D. C., May 5.—After having been paid homage by many of the rulers of the world—and by the people of many nations, Andrew Carnegie today received what is declared to be the first honor ever conferred upon an individual by a group of nations. In the presence of the President of the United States, the diplomatic representatives of many countries, senators, representatives, judges and other high officials, the world-famous philanthropist was this afternoon presented with a gold medal voted by the Pan-American conference held at Buenos Ayres last summer.

The formal presentation was made by John Barrett, chief of the International Bureau of American Republics. The diplomatic representatives of the various South and Central American republics embraced in the conference delivered brief addresses appropriate to the occasion. An inscription which appears on one side of the medal explains its importance. It reads, "Benefactor to Humanity." On the reverse side of the medal is engraved "The American Republic to Andrew Carnegie."

CURES CATARRH

Also Coughs, Colds, Croup and Sore Throat.

O. F. Marchman guarantees HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mei) to cure catarrh, acute or chronic; to cure colds, croup and sore throat, or money back.

In cases of deafness caused by catarrh, there is no remedy so efficient. HYOMEI is a liquid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia, and is a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic.

A complete HYOMEI outfit consisting of a bottle of HYOMEI and an indestructible hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. For treating catarrh of any throat or nose ailment, pour a few drops into the inhaler and breathe.

CHAMPION WOLF HUNTER.

W. M. Thompson Has Fine Record For Killing Wolves During Past Few Years—35 in 1911.

There recently appeared in some papers a news item from the western portion of the state that a man claimed to be the champion wolf hunter of Texas, having captured and killed thirty-six during the past year. This record is far from the best, one of our Wilbarger citizens, W. M. Thompson, having exceeded the deeds of the claimant to the honor mentioned. In 1909 Mr. Thompson landed sixty-nine wolves; the year following he succeeded in bagging only fifty-nine; and has during 1911, up to last Saturday, captured thirty-five of the varmints. He expects to outdo his previous records this year, having gotten an excellent start and the year is not yet half gone.

Mr. Thompson has a number of well-trained hounds; and wolf hunting is often enjoyed by himself and friends in the section to the southeast of Vernon near the Waggoner ranch—Vernon Record.

ENTER DR. SODA JERKER.

Man Behind the Fountain Prescribes For Many of the Slight Ills of People.

Not a day passes but soda dispensers in the drug stores of Wichita Falls give medical advice regarding mineral waters, headache powders and other remedies for bodily ills. They have more customers than most physicians, but their advice is given free and their charges for "medicine" is only nominal.

Many people entering a Wichita Falls drug store are doubtful whether the prescription case is in the front or in the rear, for the back counter at the mountain is crowded with mineral waters from wells all over the world and headache cures of all kinds. Dr. Soda Jerker is master of the situation and says as much attention ministering to the wants of people seeking relief as to those seeking merely the palatable products of the fountain.

"More people call for mineral water and headache remedies in a day than for any other concoction," said one of the dispensers at an Eighth street drug store this morning. "It is a fact that more people trust their health to the judgment of the soda fountain expert than to the physician. Headaches are getting commoner nowadays, and half the early morning-trade takes something to re-

Stray Topics From Little Old New York

New York, May 5.—The path of reformers is seldom smooth, and no matter how serious and well-meaning they may be, their efforts are rarely appreciated even by those who would be most benefited by the reforms. The moment a reformer leaves the field of speculation and theory and attempts to put his reform ideas to a practical test, his troubles begin and, with every step he takes, they increase at a rate so tremendous that he begins to wish he had never taken the first step. Reforming is a thankless undertaking, as many well-meaning reformers, like Collector Loeb, Mayor Gaynor and a few others have found to their chagrin and disappointment. By their efforts, they lost many friends, drew severe criticism and vituperation upon their own heads, and even if they succeeded in overcoming the active and passive resistance of their opponents, the knowledge of having conscientiously done what they considered their duty, was their only reward.

Some time ago Leonard McGee, attorney-in-chief of the Legal Aid Society, concluded he would become a reformer, but it is dollars to doughnuts that he has changed his mind about it. He thought, in his modest way, that he had found the solution of the servant problem and was confident that his little reform plan would end all difficulties offered by the servant problem. Now, however, he is not quite so sure of it. His plan was to refuse legal aid to all servants who quit without due notice to their employers, and to read all such applicants a lecture on playing fair. As about sixty per cent of all persons applying for legal aid were servants, and as fully sixty per cent of these had quit their employers while in a state of "nerves," or in a huff over some incident of a day's routine, the lecture course at first seemed promising. But the applicants did not appreciate these lectures. His true, the number of applicants dwindled to an astonishing degree, but Mr. McGee's mail increased in proportion. The letters came from servants who had been lectured and the messages were not only extremely impolite but, in some cases abusive and threatening.

The war against merchants who cheat their customers by giving them short weight or measure, is vigorously continued by the Commissioner of Weights and Measures. Many of the "honest" farmers, whose baskets were confiscated some time ago during a market raid by the commissioner and his deputies, actually had the check to demand the return of the confiscated baskets, saying that they "needed them in their business." They insisted that the baskets were of full measure, but when the commissioner offered to pay $100 for every one of the seized baskets that should prove full measure, provided the "honest" farmers would pay $100 for every basket under standard, not one of the farmers had the courage to take the offer.

There were no services at the Second Reformed Church in Somerville, N. J., the other Sunday, because the pastor failed to make his appearance. The case was rather puzzling to the congregation, as the pastor sent no word of explanation. Not until the following day was the cause of his absence ascertained. Some time ago he had made an arrangement with a minister in New York for an exchange of pulpits on the last Sunday in April. Unaware of the fact that there were five Sundays in April, the pastor hurried to New York on the morning of the fourth Sunday, to preach in his colleague's church. When he arrived at the church a trifle late he found his colleague conducting service as usual. Not until the service was ended did the New Jersey minister have an opportunity to learn from his colleague that there were five Sundays in April, at least this year.

For more than twenty-eight years the good citizens of Yonkers have pointed with pride to the tall figures "1682-1882" on the roof of their historic Manor House without a suspicion that anything was wrong with them. It was known that the figures were placed upon the building by the late Dr. Samuel Swift, a former mayor of Yonkers and they naturally supposed that the figures indicated that the manor house had been built in 1682. Recent researches by the Historical Association, however, have established beyond doubt, that the manor house was not built until some time after 1720 and that Dr. Swift, although he knew this, had the misleading figures placed on the roof, for the sake of arranging a bicentennial celebration and thereby gaining prominence.

The sense of humor of Mary Talbot, a girl of fourteen years—who was arrested upon the building by the late Dr. Samuel Swift, a former mayor of Yonkers and they naturally supposed that the figures indicated that the manor house had been built in 1682. Recent researches by the Historical Association, however, have established beyond doubt, that the manor house was not built until some time after 1720 and that Dr. Swift, although he knew this, had the misleading figures placed on the roof, for the sake of arranging a bicentennial celebration and thereby gaining prominence.

There were some exciting scenes in a case before Judge McAvoy of the City Court the other day. A lawyer named Charles H. Stoddard, had appeared before Judge McAvoy to argue a motion for the vacation of an order for his examination in supplementary proceedings. After hearing the long argument Judge McAvoy denied the motion and ordered Stoddard to swear. Stoddard became excited and refused to be sworn. When the judge insisted, Stoddard made a rush for the door and succeeded in reaching City Hall Park. He had a good start toward Broadway before he was overtaken and overpowered. He fought like a tiger, but was dragged back to the court room. Judge McAvoy severely lectured the rebellious lawyer and sentenced him to five days confinement in the Tombs and the payment of a fine of $2.00 for criminal contempt of court. Stoddard did not go to the Tombs willingly, but had to be dragged all the way.

Notes from Labor World

From about the year 1445 to 1775 the miners of Scotland were bought and sold with the soil.

A free-employment bureau for the City of New York is proposed in an amendment for the new city charter.

Preparations are being made by the machinists of New York City and Chicago to demand an eight hour day.

St. Paul, (Minn.) labor unions will co-operate in a movement to open the school houses of that city for social meetings of clubs and other organizations.

The annual convention of the New York State Association of Journeyman Plumbers, Gas and Steam Fitters and their helpers, will be held in Rochester May 30 to June 1.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the order of Railway Telegraphers is to be celebrated next month at Cedar Rapids Iowa, which was the birth place of the organization.

An additional expense of $500,000 per annum will be put upon Washington railroads by reason of the enactment of the "full crew" bill, which was signed by Governor Hay.

Railway mail clerks now have seven organizations in Minnesota and in the Dakotas, and are taking steps to become affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Massachusetts disbursed last year in wages in all industries $228,191,113 the three principal industries being boot and shoe manufacturers, cotton goods and machinery.

No permanent unions have ever been affected by working women in New Jersey, although three fourths of her industries require women and seventeen per cent are dependent upon women's labor.

The trade and labor council of Victoria, B. C., has adopted a resolution protesting against any member of any labor organization within its territorial limit becoming a member of the organized militia.

More than $14,000 has been paid out by the International Union of Hod Carriers and building laborers to their heirs, widows and orphans of their deceased brothers since the union began to pay death benefits four years ago.

During the year 1910 the shoe factories of the state of Missouri turned out products to the value of $40,000,000 and gave employment to twenty thousand men and women, paid out about $8,000,000 in wages and had a capital of $20,000,000 invested.

The Canadian minister of labor has appointed the Rev. C. W. Gordon, the novelist, widely known in his pen-name Ralph Connor, as chairman of the board of conciliation in the dispute of the coal fields of British Columbia and Alberta.

He is familiar with the conditions in the case.

Daniel C. Fisher of Dorchester, England, the only blind inventor of textile machinery in the world, is adapting a new invention to the conditions of the British Mills, whereby he believes he is going to be the means of completely revolutionizing the textile industries of all England.
