NUMBER 43.

Hundreds of Excursionists Coming Here Tomorrow

Wichita Falls and Northwestern and Southern trains carried out extra passenger equipment today to accommodate the Fourth of July traffic tomorrow. Reports from agents along the Northwestern indicate that the special excursion trains will bring hundreds of people into the city.

The Corns Petroleum Company commenced drilling Monday on their well No. 4, on the Woodruff-Putnam lease. At the depth of about fifty feet they encountered a streak of oil bearing sand which made quite a showing but the drill was not stopped to test it. It seems that Bob Craig can find oil anywhere he starts a drill.—Elocar News.

The Electra Oil and Gas Co. decided to go to deep sand with their well No. 7, as they considered the chance good for a big gusher at one of the lower strata, and know they have a fine paying strata which they can pull back to if necessary.—Electra News.

There was no excitement nor were any of the aviators exhausted. They climbed from their machines and walked calmly away with friends. One machine carried a passenger.

A REVIEW OF COMMERCIAL PROGRESS IN THIS STATE

Mineola is building a cannery factory which will be open for business in the near future.

Cameron is preparing to hold an election for issuing bonds for good roads in Milam county.

Hardeman county by which Quanah is the county seat is preparing to hold an election for the purpose of building good roads.

Fifty miles of macadam roads are being built leading out from Abilene in six different directions.

The truck shipments from the country immediately surrounding Beaumont amounted to more than two hundred cars for the season just ended.

The Lone Star Candy Company has been organized at Wichita Falls. A full line of candies, candied nuts and crisp goods are manufactured and distributed through the wholesale companies of Wichita Falls. A large building will be erected for the company in the early fall.

One of the largest ice cream factories in the state has been opened at Paris. The plant is equipped with electric freezers and a large force of workmen is maintained. Shipments are made by every train leaving Paris and the plant is decidedly a paying proposition.

A new cotton gin has been erected at Steves in Chambers county and is in readiness for this year's cotton crop. It is a highly satisfactory and an excellent one. It is also to be used by the Beaumont Cotton Oil Company in time for this year's harvest.

Milam County Good Roads.
The Cameron Commercial Club has a good road movement on foot and has employed an expert engineer who visited that city, inspected the roads in the precinct and the local supply of road building material.

The good roads question is gathering momentum as it rolls along and scarcely a county in the state but what has either recently held an election or is preparing for one.

Truck Growers to Organize.
An effort is being made to organize the farmers of Northeast Texas into an association for the promotion of the agricultural interests and especially the fruit and truck growing interests of that section of the state.

Mr. W. M. Porter, a successful fruit and truck grower of Mineola, is leading the movement and offers to furnish seed to all farmers in that section for demonstration purposes, the same not to be paid for unless a successful crop is raised. Mr. Porter, who is one of the most successful agriculturalists in the State, believes that the possibilities for agricultural development in Texas are unlimited and is a strong advocate of diversified and intensified farming.

Peck's Potatoes.
Mr. J. P. Peck of Sulphur Springs has just marketed nine acres of potatoes which brought one hundred bushels to the acre. The net profit which Mr. Peck realized from his nine acres after deducting the cost of cultivating, fertilizer, etc., was six hundred and ninety-four dollars, and the land is now planted in cotton.

There are unlimited possibilities for the diversified farmer in Texas and the experience of Mr. Peck is only one out of many hundreds throughout the state.

The Town Builders.
The Commercial Secretaries met at Temple on June 27-28 and discussed the problems of Texas developments.
Putting all the horse dollars to work and bringing new dollars into Texas was the general line of discussion and the solution proposed was education both at home and abroad.

The Texas dollar has not in every instance the courage of its conviction and frequently seeks safety in our bank vaults or invests in venor-lien securities rather than take a chance in the productive lines of industry. It is short in both courage and volume.

The foreign dollar is more or less crepuscular until it has taken a course of instruction from the Commercial Secretaries and learns of the wonderful opportunities awaiting it in Texas.

We must look to the Secretaries to tell us our resources and to teach the nations the possibilities of Texas investments.

The Commercial Secretaries Institute.
The Commercial Secretaries held their annual institute at Temple last week and over one hundred secretaries registered for instructions. This is the third annual institute the Association has held and each year interest and attendance increases.

Mr. J. B. Babcock, Secretary Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was elected president. J. B. Carrington, Secretary San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, was vice president, and E.
F. Johnson, Secretary McKinney Commercial Club was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

Texas Exhibit in New York.
The Commercial Secretaries in their meeting at Temple last week raised five thousand dollars to defray the expenses of an agricultural exhibit at the New York Exposition next fall. Descriptive literature of Texas will be distributed free at the Exposition.

Rebbit advertising is about the most convincing method of presenting our possibilities and New York is a good place to make the display.

Cotton Goods.
Uncle Sam has just issued a preliminary statement showing the general results of the thirteenth census of establishments engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods which indicates that King Cotton is getting closer to the human race every day.

In wearing apparel we have an increase of 90 per cent during the past decade. We now manufacture 7,000, 000,000 square yards of clothing per annum. We have 500,000,000 pounds going into the manufacturing of curtains, carpets, upholstery, etc., and other classes of household goods and we use in commerce 320,000,000 pounds for ropes, awnings, twine etc.

The total value of the products manufactured in the United States last year was $600,000,000 and the quantity of cotton consumed 2,322, 000,000 pounds.

Plainview Grapes.
Col. R. P. Smythe of Plainview in a recent article urges the farmers of that part of the state to give more attention to the culture of grapes which he has been growing successfully near Plainview for years.

Col. Smythe has twenty varieties of grapes and in a vineyard only three years old, he reports a yield of one hundred and forty pounds of grapes from five grapevines. On an acre of ground containing five hundred grapevines, this would mean 10,000 pounds of grapes.

Grapes are easily cultivated, need hardly any labor and are one of the crops that make the most on the smallest area.

Rousing Good Roads Meeting.
One of the most enthusiastic good roads meetings ever held in the state took place at Franklin in Robertson county last week. More than two hundred farmers and business men were present and it was decided to petition the commissioners court to hold an election in the near future for the purpose of voting $100,000 for building a macadam road from the Falls county line across Robertson county to the Brazos county line.

The proposition of building a highway from the Red river to the Gulf was heartily endorsed and the Robertson county road, if built, will form a link in the great trans state thoroughfare.

Our Cotton Production.
The Agricultural Bulletin issued by the Federal Census Bureau on cotton production for 1910 shows 22,403,000 acres of cotton harvested in 1910 yielding 15,432,151 bales of 500 lbs each; the average production per acre being 17 1/2 pounds. The average price of cotton was $14.69 per hundred pounds. The average number of bales ginned by the Texas gins was 724.

The distribution of our cotton production shows 59 per cent manufactured in the United States, 32 per cent exported and 9 per cent remained in the country at the close of the year. There was imported in the United States during the year 136,740 bales, the cotton coming from Peru, China, India and Egypt.

The total stock of cotton in the United States at the close of business on February 28th, 1911 shows 38 per cent in other hands.

The United States produced 60 per cent of the total quantity of the cotton crop of the world; British India 18 per cent; Egypt 8 per cent and Peru 4 per cent.

Texas produces 30 per cent of the cotton raised in the United States and 29 per cent of the world's crop.
We manufacture only 2 per cent of our production.

Sub-irrigation in Texas.
Mr. N. Y. Seymour of Premont Nueces county, is successfully cultivating an orange grove by means of sub-irrigation, which method is fast gaining favor in this state. The grove consists of 18 acres and is in the heart of the citrus fruit district of Texas.

By means of sub-irrigation it is proved that the moisture is retained longer and that it is possible to apply intelligent farming methods, in the strictest sense of the word. Sub-irrigation is practically a new enterprise in this state and is as yet in its infancy, having been introduced in this state a little less than two years ago. The experiment has been tried in Kansas and other neighboring states and the farmers of Texas who have tried it out for a declare that the results are satisfactory.

The subject of irrigation is one of the most important questions before the farmers of Texas, and with the broadening out of the scope and possibilities of man's substitute for rain that section of Texas where rainfall is insufficient may be made to bloom like a garden of roses.

Texas Factories.
Uncle Sam has just completed an inspection of his Texas factories and he finds the factory doing a busy dollar. Every dollar invested in manufacturing produced forty-three cents in value added to the raw material.
Out of every dollar produced by the factory, labor received fifty-one cents.

Texas Play Ground.
Port Arthur is building a Texas play ground on Sabine Lake. They will spend a quarter of a million dollars in constructing a pleasure pier a mile out in the water. It will cover an area of ten acres and will be supplied with up-to-date park equipments.
Our ports are our play grounds, for people will always love to congregate where land and water meet.

Mabledean Items.
Mabledean was on the outskirts of the storm Saturday, so did not get wind enough to do any particular damage nor rain enough to do much good. Though south of us buildings were blown down, cotton beaten into the ground by hail and ruined and the pastures swept clean of grass by hail and rain so now they have plenty of water but no pasture. Flying size chickens were in much evidence scattered over the yard the next morning.

Mrs. Katherine Clark Thomas, from Wichita, is spending a few days with the home folks this week.

On account of threatening weather the prohibition club did not meet Saturday night. The next and last meeting will be on the 8th of July. The same program with additions will be sent also will have a talk by Rev.
Crutchfield from Henrietta.

Eva Fouk spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Clark.

Mr. Price and daughter, Maude, had a rather unpleasant experience Saturday in coming home from Wichita.
They were overtaken by a terrific wind and hail storm. Mr. Price in holding his frantic team was exposed to the full fury of the storm and as a consequence was severely bruised by the unusually large hail stones which soon reduced Miss Maule's hat to a thing of the past besides giving her plenty of hard knocks. This is the second storm she has been in this summer.
The first time she escaped unhurt but had the misfortune to have her big guy torn to pieces.

From the St. Louis Times.
Selling fiery by day in a woman's furnishing shop and whirling through the air in her aeroplane in the evenings is the double life of Miss Enid Hibbard, a new woman-aerone. And she engages in each for adventure. She says she has just as much fun out of being a saleswoman as out of her aeroplaning. Clad in a mannish suit and manipulating an aeroplane in Kinloch Park with daring and coolness has won Miss Hibbard enthusiastic plaudits from aviation experts.

With all her youth, Miss Hibbard has lived an eventful life. The daughter of a well-to-do Colorado business man, she is an expert chauffeur and an actress. Accomplished and pretty, Miss Hibbard came to St. Louis from New York with her friend, Miss Emily Keene, and through Miss Keene's brother, Young Walter Keene, a student at Benoit's field, became interested in aviation to such an extent that she determined to make that her life profession.

Miss Hibbard during the day conceals the adventurous side of her existence as effectively as did Doctor Jekyll in his Mr. Hyde career which blossomed with the coming of twilight. She enters into a discussion of the styles with all enthusiasm and her appearance is harmonious with it. Women have gazed with envy at the lines of her figure and the style of her clothes.
That head-of-brown hair that during the day droops down to the nape of her neck in a mass of coils and curls in the evening is transmuted securely with long business-like hairpins.

The high-waisted imported gray silk gown which scarce allows a step wider than a hobble is changed for a severely tailored white duck suit with a wide plaited skirt, and the tiny French slippers for stout boots.

To Miss Hibbard aeroplaning is not fringed with more danger than running a motor boat. She will embark on her professional career as an aéro-planeist in a few months. Already she has received offers by the score, and one she is thinking favorably of holds out to her a contract for one flight daily price per flight $750. No bad is it? Talk about a capitalist having a easy place. He has to clip his bond coupons, anyway, to get money.
Miss Hibbard will outdistance him for flying two minutes in a straight flight she will receive a salary larger than a king's in comparison.

Corners Egg Market To Feed War-Prize Eggs.
The egg market in several villages about San Francisco has been cornered by Miss Jennie S. Crocker, who uses the eggs to feed the Boston terriers and French bulls in her $100,000 kennels.
Each dog receives at least two eggs a day. Veterinarians say an egg diet for dogs is unknown and are watching the experiment with interest.

Smile in Court Waits Suit for Separation.
While the separation suit of Mrs. Florence Whitbeck against H. C. Whitbeck was on trial at Poughkeepsie, Justice Morchauer saw the couple smiling at each other.
The court decided there was hope and adjourned the trial for three months to give them a chance to "kiss and make-up."

A Purer Cane Syrup Cannot Be Made the result could not be one whit better. Velva is the pure juice of the choicest Louisiana sugar cane, clarified and then sealed in cans that prevent even the possibility of inside fermentation or deterioration from outside influences. Prohibition Snap Shots

Note.—The matter published in this column is authorized by the county prohibition committee, J. M. Bell chairman.

To the law abiding citizen, who hesitates to help vote the saloons out of business on the 22nd, because he is afraid of "blind tigers" and "bootleggers," stop and think a moment over your own inconsistency. It takes two people to violate the prohibitory law, just like it takes two or more people to violate any other law; the man who sells and the man who buys. We have "blind tigers" and bootleggers" now, in all the saloon towns, who sell liquor Sunday, election days and week days. And low-down white men and negroes, who will take money from boys who want liquor, and to gratify their own appetite for a few drinks, will furnish a boy or an habitual drunkard with all the whiskey they want and are able to pay for. The fact is, that from any standpoint you can view the open saloon it is worse than the most "heinous" violations in the prohibition States, because men who violate the law, must make preparations for coping with their enemies. And men or boys who buy illicit whiskey or beer, are not and will not make good citizens, either with or without the open saloons. And certainly, the local officers backed up by the power of the State can better enforce the laws statewide than local officials, and yet the anti (?) love local option because the laws are enforced.

To the weak-kneed brother, if you are a Texan and are proud of your State, don't let those false anti stories from Kansas and Oklahoma prevent you voting statewide; help make Texas an example of a law abiding State. Let Kansas and Oklahoma enforce their own laws, and say to yourself as for me and my house, we will help make Texas a dry State, and then help enforce the law.

Shot 'Em Up Fierce.
Last evening word was sent to this city for some of the county peace officers to go out to the Emzy Jones farm about ten miles west of Quanah, and take Carl Jones to jail, as he had been shooting up the family of Emzy, as well as one other person. This was done and Carl now is the honored guest of Sheriff Walker.

From what could be learned, Carl developed a grudge which nothing but plain and fancy shooting could satisfy. So he got out his gun and proceeded to chase a young man named Davidson, over the country, commencing the shooting when about a mile away. Then after exhausting his ammunition he came in and proceeded to Emzy's house, where he cut down on Mrs. Emzy, shooting into the door, coming close to her head. Fortunately Carl's aim was bad owing, he says, to the fact that the gun "draws a little to the right." Twenty-one shots were fired by Carl before he quit and not even a chicken was injured.—Quanah Observer.

Texas Asks Maine to Be "Example."
Augusta, Me., July 3.—From far off Texas a cry for aid has come to Maine, its most distant sister State. What Governor Colquitt of the Lone Star commonwealth wrote to Governor Plaisted isn't exactly what the Carolinian governors said on memorable occasions, but it deals with the same subject.
On July 22 Texas votes on a statewide prohibition law, and Maine's ruler has been invited to go down and on behalf of the "antis" picture Maine as the "horrible example" of prohibition law.

President Taft in Indiana.
Marion, Ind., July 3.—President Taft arrived in this city shortly before noon today for a visit of a few hours while on his way to Indianapolis. On the arrival of the special train at the station, where thousands of cheering people had gathered, the President was met by a special reception committee of one hundred leading citizens. The presidential program for the afternoon included a visit to the National Soldier's Home and the delivery of brief addresses before the Indiana bankers and editors assembled in convention here.

LATE SPORTING NEWS

UMPIRE ASSAULTED FANS LEAVE GROUND

CROWD AT BALL GAME IN NO UNCERTAIN MANNER CONDEMN PUGILISM IN GAME.

DIVIDE A DOUBLE HEADER

A demonstration that will go a long way toward keeping the baseball game clean in Wichita Falls and free from pugilistic exhibition which sometimes mar the greatest of all sports took place at the Lakeside ball park Sunday afternoon when the fans in the grandstand and bleachers, almost as one man, voiced their disapproval and condemnation of the assault upon Umpire Lally by Pitcher Green of the local team.

An assault upon an umpire when the latter had his back turned and was walking away from the pitcher's box, by a player who had evidently lost his temper because he was in danger of being hit by a ball was an outrage that the fans would not stand as a result of their protest Green was withdrawn from the game and had also been sent from the field and suspended from the team the management would not have deserved the criticism that the assault provoked and would in a measure atone for the outrage perpetrated by a local player. Instead of being sent from the grounds Green was allowed to remain and actually had the terminology and was permitted by the management to go out on the coaching line in the second game.

This was more than the fans could stand and to the everlasting credit of Wichita Falls, it can be recorded that more than half of them left the grounds.

Not satisfied with an exhibition of brutality and then of shameless audacity Green made known his contempt for decency by an offensive gesture.

Green has been popular with the local fans but his actions yesterday were almost the limit. While Green himself is an object of criticism the more criticism should probably be directed against the management which permitted him to again go on the coaching line after the assault.

Excluding the disagreeable incident the double-header between Cleburne and the Irish Lads Sunday afternoon was the snappiest exhibition of baseball seen on the home lot this season.

The visitors won the first game by a score of 6 to 5 and the local took the second in the eighth inning of an agreed seven inning contest by a score of 2 to 1.

Green's assault on Umpire Lally took place in the ninth inning of the first contest. The umpire was walking toward the bench to examine a ball that had been thrown out of play when Green ran toward him, falling him to the ground before the latter knew that an attack was intended.

While the two games were closely contested there were few features those worthy of mention being the fielding of Brown for Wichita Falls and of Stewart for the visitors, the home-run of Witherapoon and the batting of Art Naylor who secured five hits in nine times up, three hits being credited to him in four times at bat in the second game. A play worthy of special mention was the one-hand catch of Stewart on a fowl to deep left field. Jones pitched a splendid game and held the visitors to four scattered hits in the eight innings played in the second contest.

As a result of the blow delivered by Green, Umpire Lally was unable to work for the remainder of the contest. Reed of the Cleburne team finishing the first and Reed and Myers umpiring in the second game. The attendance at the game was not up to expectations for a double header, although there was quite a good sized crowd present.

Unique photograph of pole vaulter in action. Coyle, the star vaulter of the New York A. C., is here portrayed in the act of descending after he had cleared the bar at a height of twelve feet. Contrary to the customary twisted expression on the faces of athletes in action, Coyle displays no facial contortion. His teeth are gritted and his fists are clinched. His body is in a semi-circular shape, with his legs crossed. It appears that he cannot unravel himself in the twelve foot drop and must therefore alight on his stomach. But, as soon as he begins descending, the vaulter straightens up, and as he nears the ground assumes a crouching position, so as to lessen the impact when he strikes the ground.
