NEWSPAPER MAN DEFIES COMMITTEE

STAR TELEGRAM REPORTER REFUSES TO BE SWORN OF TO FUSES TO BE SWORN OR TO TESTIFY.

MR. WOLTERS' SECRETARY

Also Refuses to Answer Pertinent Questions—A Test of Authority Said to Be Planned.

Special to the Times.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 14.—C. L. Kavanaugh, a representative of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Ed McCarthy, former secretary to Jake Wolters defied the Senate election investigation committee this morning. Kavanaugh flatly refused to be sworn and declined to testify concerning certain information alleged to have been imparted to him during the late prohibition campaign. McCarthy testified concerning immaterial matters but absolutely declined to answer pertinent questions relative to his knowledge of the recent statewide prohibition campaign.

Chairman Kavanaugh informed the two witnesses that the committee would take up their cases this afternoon. It is not known just what procedure will be taken.

The anti this morning believe that the pros have planned to put on a witness who is friendly to their cause but who will refuse to testify in order that predicate may be laid for action by the Senate; that the Senate will then order this witness sent to jail and that the contumacious witness will then appeal to members of the Court of Criminal Appeals in chambers the tribunal in which the pros prefer to make the test.

Chairman Vaughan of the Senate committee when asked about this matter these hands, shook his head and explained, "I have nothing what ever to say."

The anti declare that if the pros do this, and if the Court of Criminal Appeals should decide in favor of the committee, the decision will be barren of results. One prominent anti suggested that any person not desiring to testify might go before a District Judge who did not believe the committee have authority and this judge would order the release of such person.

An appeal might be taken, he said, but as the Court of Criminal Appeals is not in session the appeal could not be heard until term time, which begins in October. In the meantime the Legislature will be adjourned and the committee will have dissolved.

He regarded it as altogether improbable that the committee would be given existence beyond the adjournment of the special session, since the authority for such continued existence can not come except by joint action of the two branches of the Legislature and with the approval of the Governor or by a two-thirds vote of each branch of the Legislature overriding the Governor's veto. He concluded, therefore, that any person not desiring to testify could refuse to do so and yet escape punishment.

Governor Colquitt and a number of the anti Senators talked together at the Driskill Hotel, but what they discussed could not be learned.

Chairman Vaughan of the Senate committee also had a long talk with Senator Meschum, a prominent anti. After it was over, Senator Meschum observed that the pros seemed to be "getting civilized," but refused to explain.

Senator Vaughan, when questioned about the matter said, "On the day that Mr. Gray refused to testify I told Senator Watson that we were willing to furnish the anti an opportunity and every facility to test the power and authority of the committee at any time they would agree to take the matter before the Appellate Court of the State, either the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Supreme Court, that we would lay the predicate for them to test our powers whenever"

Circuses Headed For Texas; Save Up For 'Em, Boys

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 14.—Circus time is approaching and the big trunk lines connecting the north with the southwest are preparing to handle the long trains of animals, equipment and circus troupes.

Two circuses, Hagenbeck & Wallace and Miller Brothers' 101 Ranch already have arranged for transportation over the Frisco. They will go from Fort Worth to Brady, Brownwood and other Texas points.

Four circuses will visit in Fort Worth this fall, and about six in all will come to Texas. The big shows travel through Texas usually within about thirty days in October and November.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The summer term of the Wichita Falls Conservatory of Music closes next Friday, with eight applicants for graduating certificates. The exercises incident to the granting of the diplomas will be held in the studio, and those interested in the work of the conservatory are invited to be present.

The fall term opens on Sept. 11th, and indications all point to a most successful season both from an artistic and a financial standpoint.

The course of study as outlined by Dr. Dunavski will embrace language and expression, voice, piano and string and wind instruments, and arrangements have been made to secure some of the best talent in the country as instructors.

There will be four courses in piano instruction, ranging from that for the beginners up to the very highest studios in the art. Dr. Dunavski will have personal charge of the higher classes, with Mrs. J. L. McKee, who is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and also an instructor for some time in that institution, as his first assistant.

Miss Effie Forsyth, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music of Boston, and a teacher for five years in the Kansas City College of Music, will be his second assistant, and Miss Horton of Dallas, will have charge of the lower classes.

Voice culture will be under the instruction of Mrs. Dunavski, who is a graduate of the Royal College of Music, of London, England, with a degree of bachelor of arts.

The violin instruction, as well as that of other string instruments and brass instruments, will be given by Fred Fuzer, of the Cincinnati College of Music.

The instructor in language and expression has not yet been engaged, but the directors are in communication with a number of well known teachers.

FURTHER MOB VIOLENCE FEARED

TROUBLE HAS BROKEN OUT BETWEEN WHITES AND BLACKS NEAR DURANT.

THE NEGROES ARE FLEEING

Negro Who Assaulted White Woman Shot and Killed—His Body Then Burned.

Special to the Times.
Durant, Okla., Aug. 14.—Trouble broke out between the negroes and whites at Caddo, Okla., today as the result of the lynching here and a posse is reported chasing an armed negro near Diamond, north of here and other lynchings are feared. All the negroes are fleeing from the county.

A negro whose identity has not yet been ascertained, was shot and killed near Durant, southeast of Durant about 1 o'clock Sunday morning after a running fight of more than two hours' duration with a posse led by Deputy Sheriff W. M. McFarridge and Constable Jeff Easley, both of this city.

The negro's body was literally riddled with bullets. None of the posse was injured. The body was brought to this city, and after being identified by Mrs. L. R. Campbell as the body of the negro who Saturday outraged and shot her at her home north of this city, it was taken by a mob of angry citizens and burned on a vacant lot near the business center of the city.

The officers were powerless to do anything with the mob, and it was only after considerable persuasion that they were induced to refrain from burning the body as soon as it arrived in town and before it had been viewed by Mrs. Campbell and others who saw the negro who assaulted the woman.

An automobile bearing the body and the officers arrived here about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The body was immediately taken from the officers by the mob, which had thronged the streets all night with the avowed intention of burning the negro as soon as he was brought to the jail in this city.

Feeling was almost equally as intense at Caddo and other places in the county. After the mob had been persuaded not to immediately dispose of the body it was taken to the jailyard and there remained until about 9 o'clock when it was taken before the stricken woman, who readily identified it. Then the mob again took up the cry, "burn him, burn him," and with a rush made off for the nearest vacant lot, where the fire was quickly kindled.

The burning was witnessed by several thousand people, but after the first rush all seemed to be orderly and quiet.

The assault upon Mrs. Campbell stirred the county as nothing of the kind has ever aroused it before. It is estimated that fully 1,000 men joined in the chase after the black brute, and from the start his escape was regarded as almost an impossibility. As far north as Wapanucka posse were on the lookout, while men from DeWitt, Texas, advanced as far north as Red River, and guarded every passage.

Small parties scoured every section of the county. Officers report that scarcely a family within a radius of fifteen miles of the scene of the crime slept until the negro was run down, the men and boys all joining in the hunt. Several hundred went out from this city.

Soon after the mob formed in the streets of Durant last night, a crowd of more than 100 men and boys visited the various residences in the city where negro domestics are employed and warned them to leave the city. A general exodus of negroes followed this morning.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 14.—A most interesting and spectacular astral phenomenon is promised the country Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week. Mars and Saturn will be in conjunction Wednesday night and the following night. Mars and Saturn the moon will be in conjunction.

Mars apparently will pass very close to Saturn, and to the naked eye. Wednesday, it will appear as bright as a double star, since the distance between the two will be only twenty minutes of an arc or about two-thirds the apparent width of the moon. Mars will pass north of Saturn and the moon will be to the left or east of the planets. It will be close Wednesday night, but Thursday the three will almost appear as one.

Officers of the International Typographical Union

Officers of the International Typographical Union, which opens its annual convention in San Francisco today.

Above are: International President James M. Lynch (on the right) and J. W. Hays, secretary-treasurer. Below is Hugo Miller, president of the German Typographical Union. These three men comprise the executive committee of the I. T. U.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 14.—The fifty-seventh annual convention of the International Typographical Union opened in this city today with delegates throughout the United States and Canada. Addresses of welcome were made by Mayor McCarthy, the officers of the local union and others, and were responded to by President James M. Lynch. The convention will continue its sessions about five days, during which time much important business relating to the affairs of the organization will be transacted. The principal matter to be considered and acted upon is the contract between the union and the Newspaper Publishers' Association. The present contract expires this year, and it is said a large majority of the membership favor its renewal with possible changes of a minor character.

The initial session of the convention included the presentation of the annual reports of the several officers. These reports showed the present membership to be 56,185, a gain of over 4,000 during the year. During the year the organization paid a total of $122,579 in old age pensions.

ASTRAL PHENOMENON TWO NIGHTS THIS WEEK

Mars and Saturn in Conjunction on Wednesday and Moon Included Thursday.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 14.—A most interesting and spectacular astral phenomenon is promised the country Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week. Mars and Saturn will be in conjunction Wednesday night and the following night. Mars and Saturn the moon will be in conjunction.

Mars apparently will pass very close to Saturn, and to the naked eye. Wednesday, it will appear as bright as a double star, since the distance between the two will be only twenty minutes of an arc or about two-thirds the apparent width of the moon. Mars will pass north of Saturn and the moon will be to the left or east of the planets. It will be close Wednesday night, but Thursday the three will almost appear as one.

Except for the moon, the two will be the brightest objects in the sky Wednesday night, says astronomer Father Brennan. "Mars is very bright now, almost as bright as Venus; Saturn is also bright and the two together will form a sight well worth looking at."

They will rise about 10 o'clock Dallas time, and stay together all night side by side. They will be very conspicuous. The picture presented by two planets will be impressive Wednesday, but not so spectacular as the sight of the planets and the moon together the following night.

ATWOOD STARTS ON LONG FLIGHT

FROM ST. LOUIS HE WILL FLY TO CHICAGO, THEN TO NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

MADE GOOD START TODAY

Flew From St. Louis to Springfield, Ill., a Distance of 98 Miles in 2 Hours and 25 Minutes.

Special to the Times.
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—Expecting to reach Chicago before sundown this evening Harry N. Atwood who left St. Louis this morning on his flight to New York, again soared into the air at one o'clock this afternoon and was off at a terrific rate of speed.

Amid cheers of many thousands Atwood began his flight from St. Louis this morning across the continent to New York and thence to Boston—a distance of 1,460 miles. He made a spectacular circle over the city and at 8:45 sailed northeast.

He landed in Springfield at 10:30 making the trip from St. Louis to Springfield, a distance of 98 miles in two hours and 25 minutes. His machine worked perfectly and no accidents of any kind occurred.

Brighton, Ill., Atwood passed here at 9:17 this morning at a terrific speed.

Alton, Ill.—Atwood passed here at 9:07 flying in a high straight line north.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALBA HURSH

Yesterday morning at about ten o'clock the remains of Mrs. Alba Hursh were escorted to the city cemetery by a small crowd of sympathizing friends and relatives and there deposited in their last resting place, Rev. O. T. Cooper, pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, conducting the short but impressive funeral service. In many respects it was the saddest funeral to be conducted in Wichita Falls for a long while, and the three motherless children together with a sister, heart-broken and grief-burdened beyond power of expression by mere words, were by no means the only ones who could restrain tears as they stood by the open grave, thus paying a silent but most beautiful tribute to the worth of the noble woman who, for the past year or more had made such a brave fight.

The three children of Mrs. Hursh have been given home by their aunt, Mrs. Brisco, and they left yesterday for Tucuman, New Mexico.

FOURTEEN BOX CARS IN BAD PILE UP

Freight Wreck Near Oklaunion Delaying All Passenger Trains on Sunday.

Thirteen box cars on No. 19, the northbound red ball freight, were piled up in a bad wreck near Oklaunion at about nine o'clock Sunday morning. The pile-up was caused by the breakdown of a heavily loaded car near the front of the train and the cars behind came on in a pile. Traffic was delayed more than ten hours and the track was not cleared until nearly ten o'clock Sunday night. Passenger trains ran to the scene of the wreck and transferred.

Twelve of the thirteen cars in the wreck were loaded with merchandise, most of which, however, was saved. No one was injured in the wreck.

Committees Completed For S. S. Convention

Full committees for the district Sunday school convention here Sept. 5 and 6 were named at a meeting of the officers of the Wichita Falls Sunday school Sunday afternoon.

HARMON'S PICTURE CAUSED BIG STIR

McNEALUS MOVED THAT IT BE REMOVED FROM WALLS OF SENATE CHAMBER.

MOTION WAS WITHDRAWN

When Lieutenant Governor Promised That Picture Would Be Removed—Haymon Supporters Meet.

Special to the Times.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 14.—A stir was created in the Senate this morning when McNealus of Dallas moved that the sergeant at arms be instructed to remove a picture of Governor Harmon of Ohio which had been pasted on the blackboard in the Senate chamber with an inscription beneath it setting forth that it was the likeness of the man who would probably be the next president of the United States.

Lieutenant Governor Davidson, who was presiding, asked that the motion be withdrawn, and stated that he would see that the picture would be removed. McNealus acquiesced and the resolution was withdrawn.

By an amendment offered by Weinert, the Senate concurred in the House amendment fixing the contingent expenses appropriation at twenty thousand dollars instead of thirty.

At half past ten o'clock this morning the Senate recessed until four o'clock this afternoon. After adjournment groups of senators gathered to discuss the Harmon picture incident. McNealus is a close friend of W. J. Bran and a supporter of Woodrow Wilson.

As she was carrying a bucket of water through the yard Mrs. Sarah Newman, 61 of Hartshorn, Okla., while on a visit with relatives near Thornberry, suddenly lurching forward Saturday evening and died before those who saw her fall could reach her. Apoplexy is believed to have been the cause of her death.

The body was embalmed by E. G. Hill and Sunday night was taken to Hartshorn for burial.

J. P. Newman, of Hartshorn, a son of the dead woman met the funeral party here and accompanied the body of his mother to Hartshorn.

First Bale of Cotton In Today—Brought 12½ Cents

The first bale of cotton of the 1911 season was sold on the street this afternoon, the purchasers being McCarty & Son. The bale weighed about 400 pounds, and brought 12½ cents per pound. It was raised by Walling of Burkburnett. Mr. Walling brought the cotton to Wichita Falls Saturday, but could not get it ginned until this morning, when the Haynes gin was fired up especially to gin it.

In addition to the price of the cotton, a considerable fund was subscribed by the merchants as a premium for the first bale.

Harmon Avoids Bryan

Columbus, O., Aug. 14.—The Jefferson Club, the insurgent Democratic organization of Franklin County, held its annual outing at Orientang park today with William J. Bryan as the guest of honor and principal speaker. Governor Harmon declined an invitation to attend the gathering. The reason for his declination, according to his friends, was his desire not to meet face to face in his own State Capital the Nebraska leader, who has openly declared war upon him as a presidential candidate.

Ex-President Roosevelt as a Witness

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at the witness stand, testifying before the House committee investigating the "steel trust." The ex-president created a ripple of excitement when he took the stand, unannounced. Among other things, he declared that he assumed responsibility for everything he did in the steel trust matter while acting as president and added that, if he had it to do over again, he would act the same. He explained at length his giving permission to the deal by which the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company became a part of the United States Steel Corporation.

OLD TIME COWBOY IN PUBLIC LIFE

Earl Brewer, Nominated for Governor of Mississippi—Once Pinned Cows in Texas.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 14.—The nomination of Earl Brewer for governor of Mississippi adds another to the list of those who began life as a cowboy in Texas and afterward became famous. Brewer like many other American boys with real red blood in their veins, heard the call of the west and early in his career came to Texas where he was fascinated with life on the ranch. Of course he wanted to be a cowboy. This desire was gratified on one of the large ranches in the central part of the southwest section of the state. A day or two after he made his appearance at the ranch house the annual roundup began. When Brewer was shown the broncho he was to ride and told to be careful as he would find trouble if staying in the saddle, he laughed and said: "I could ride that little pony without either bridle or saddle." A little later, however, he had a different notion about riding a real Texas broncho. No sooner had he mounted than the animal tied itself in a couple of three double bowknots and Brewer hit the sod. But the young man from Mississippi was game and never stopped until he had that broncho perfectly under control, displaying the same grit in breaking the animal to the saddle that has been characteristic of his efforts since in all things to which he has turned his attention. It is related of him that he made one of the most fearless riders on the ranch. Many of his old associates in Central Texas recall with much satisfaction the days when Brewer was one of the liveliest boys in the "bunch" always ready to do his part at any of the rough work that came to a cowboy in the early days.

Fighting the Boll Weevil.

Uncle Sam has been spending year in the Texas cotton field studying the habits and characteristics of the boll weevil and he is rapidly becoming acquainted with the little Mexican pest which strikes terror to the heart of the Texas farmer and sends the cotton bolls scattering from the sparsely planted fields.

Bulletin No. 111 just issued by the Federal Bureau of Census of cotton production announces that cotton growers have become more and more successful in subduing the ravages of the boll weevil. They have proved that the cotton plant can be bred to have low fruit, limbs and to throw most of its life force into the lower and middle portions and that by better methods of cultivation and fertilization the maturity of these parts of the plant can be so hastened that a large percentage of the crop may be so advanced that the boll weevil will not have multiplied early enough to do much damage.

It is very gratifying to learn that cotton growers are learning to very materially minimize such damage and that the weevil situation is being placed under control.

For fire insurance see Kell, Perkins & Craven, room 208, Kemp & Kell building.

INDIAN BATTLE AT HAMMON PICNIC

(Hammon Advocate)

Among the attractions at the picnic was a show battle between the Indians and cowboys. Some of the participants had been participants in scenes more real and exciting, and the younger ones were soon drilled and ready for action.

The scene was well staged and was characteristic of Indian warfare. Following the Indian parade the cowboys came in and shot up the crowd. Then they were attacked by the Indians, who, after a fierce struggle, took their "chuck wagon" away from them and captured General Moss but not without much loss. About the time they had securely tied the General, reinforcements of the cowboys came up, vanquished the enemy and captured the prisoner.

This part of the program was gotten up only a day or two before the picnic, but it was enjoyed immensely by the large crowd. The old time cowboys seem inspired with the spirit of the early seventies, and the Indians were equally vigorous. Sam Elliott as captain of the cowboys protected his men in a most noble manner. The thickest of the battle found him at the front with his trusted sixty or more, ready for action.

The Big Chief led his men in an admirable manner.

George Hutton was probably the most seriously injured of any, he being stabbed by a squaw.

The rescue of Miss Carrie Fields and Miss Lucille McKinney Elliott and later was a thrilling act, for which they deserve much credit. They rode bravely among the red men rescued by young ladies and escaped without injury.

Last night the pipe of peace went to rounds among cowboys and Indians and a treaty was signed to hold good until August 9 and 10, 1912.

COTTON PROSPECTS GOOD AROUND PETROLIA

(Petrolia Round-Up) The prospect for a bumper cotton crop is flattering indeed for Petrolia and her trade territory for the date the last month has fallen just right. We have talked with many farmers from north of town and they all seem to think that the cotton prospect is as good as has been for years, though there is a few fields that are a little late on account of so much dry weather during the spring months, and there has been but little damage so far by the boll worms. What south of town the farmers report that some fields the cotton is entirely gone, but it is to be hoped that it is not so bad in this community as some seem to think. The general opinion is that we will make an average crop, and if we do that we will be going some when we consider what an average crop here would mean in other localities. And a good price is almost assured. Feed stuff is looking fine and a good acreage has been planted such as maize, kafir corn, cane and June corn. Most of it will mae well but very little more.

JOHN SKEEN DEAD AT ROCHESTER, MINN

V. G. Skeen left this morning for Oklahoma City in response to a telegram announcing the death of his brother, John Skeen, at Rochester, Minn., where he had gone to undergo a surgical operation. He died at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. His remains will be brought to Oklahoma City for burial and the funeral will be held there Wednesday morning. The deceased was about thirty-eight years of age and was reared in this city, where his many friends are sorrowed at his death. For years he was with the Dorsey Printing Company, at Dallas, but recently went to Oklahoma City, where he engaged in the bank fixture and office supply business with a partner and was doing a splendid business. A short time ago he underwent a surgical operation in Oklahoma City which left him in a worse condition than before. He was then taken to Rochester for treatment under the celebrated Mayo brothers but without avail. He leaves a widow and several children, a mother Mrs. W. P. Skeen who lives in this city and four brothers, V. G. W. E., J. C. and T. C. Skeen, and one sister. The latter resides at Dallas.

FAILED TO FALL FOR THEIR GAME

Special to the Times. San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 14.—Two young men dropped into this city today with a get-rich-quick scheme that looked like a sure winner. They made their play and were in the hands of the officers in less than one hour, even if their game was so new that the brand was unblemished. In the language of those who live by their wits, their plan was a "sure thing." It was this way: Three check suit cases were checked to this city from a point in Arkansas over the I. & G. N. A young man called on the baggage man in this city with a check for one of the cases and lamented the fact that he had lost the other two checks. His description, however was so accurate that he was permitted to take them. An hour later another young man called for the baggage and presented the checks. Failing to get them, he at once claimed fifty dollars on each. It was clear that the road was in for the loss. But before paying it or promising to do so—the baggage agent having "smelt a mouse"—the matter was placed in the hands of the officers. A little investigation exposed the game and the two young men fell into the embrace of the law. Thus another get-rich-quick scheme came to naught. It is understood that the same game had been worked successfully in a number of places in the north, particularly in Iowa and Illinois.

To Commemorate Famous Indian Battle Marlow, Ind., Aug. 14.—This city presents quite a martial appearance today, with the numerous soldiers and Indians gathered here to take part in the great military and historical spectacles to be given every night this week at Goldthwaite Park, in which the Battle of the Missisnewa, fought near Marlow in 1812 between soldiers under Col. Hamilton and the Indians, is to be reproduced. The spectacular shows to be given during the week and in which the last of the Mima tribe of Indians, including several descendants of Chief Gabriel Godfroy, who fought so valiantly in that battle, will take part, have been arranged by the Missisnewa Battle Ground Association for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of the battle ground, which will be dedicated to the memory of the American soldiers and Indians who fought and died there.

Periodical commercial clubs are like wet weather springs. During the rainy season they run, but in dry weather they rest. The town with this kind of organization will move along in the even tenor of its way, waiting for something to turn up. When something comes its way, a big rush is made, mass meetings called, and every body gets busy. As a rule by the time the machinery is put in motion the opportunity has passed on, and the "wise" citizen settles down to whittling on goods boxes to explain why the town lags out. It makes one think of the blotter—as a rule you can never find it until the ink gets dry.

"THIS DATE IN HISTORY."

- August 14, 1786—Maryland adopted a State Constitution. 1781—Washington decided to transfer his army from New York to Virginia. 1848—The Territory of Oregon organized by act of Congress. 1857—The new Louvre, Paris, inaugurated with great ceremony by Napoleon III. 1870—Admiral David G. Farragut died. Born July 5, 1801. 1876—First wire stretched across the East River for the Brooklyn suspension bridge. 1893—A volcanic eruption occurred on the summit of Cape Harrison, in Labrador. 1910—A fire caused much damage to the International Exposition at Brussels.

If reports from the country are to be verified by the result of tomorrow's election the proposition to vote $200,000 worth of road improvement bonds will be defeated if a majority of the country vote can defeat it, and if it carries the majority against it in the country will have to be overcome by the majority given in its favor in the city. Just what has caused this change of front, the Times is unable to figure out. The movement to vote these bonds was started by the Farmers Union at its meeting at Burkhardt, and at this meeting resolutions, (strong ones) were passed setting forth reasons for voting good road bonds at this time. As a result of this meeting a mass meeting of the taxpayers of Wichita county was called, and it was well attended. There was little opposition to the issuance of bonds apparent at this meeting. The only question that came any way near dividing the mass meeting was the amount, one faction contending for a bond issue of $100,000 and the other for $200,000. The $200,000 proposition prevailed by a good large majority, and the commissioners' court ordered the election for August 15th. It was distinctly a movement inaugurated and put through by the farmers, and while all taxable property within the corporate limits of Wichita Falls will be taxed for the payment of interest and principal on this proposed bond issue of $200,000, not one cent of the money realized from the sale of the bonds can be secured for the improving of the streets in Wichita Falls. On account of this fact there is some opposition to the proposition in the city, but as a whole it is believed that a majority of the property taxpayers will vote for it. If there ever was a time when good road bonds should be voted it is now and why there should be so much opposition to it from farmers is difficult to understand. Only about 25 per cent of the tax to pay off the interest and principal on these bonds will come from taxes levied and collected on farm property. The remainder and larger part being against taxable property in Wichita Falls and the railroad property within Wichita county. If the bond issue is voted down in tomorrow's election, it will only go to prove that the farmers are not always as sincere as they should be, or else when they asked for this election they really were in favor of voting bonds for improvement of roads, but have since that time had another notion. So far as the people of the city are concerned, they as a rule are rather indifferent about the matter, and many have been induced to drop their opposition to it by reason of the fact that it was a movement originated and put through almost wholly by the farmers. This only goes to prove that the

DEFIES COMMITTEE

they would agree to make the test in one or the other of these courts, and that I would ask nothing more than his word that the issue would be made in one of these tribunals. That proposition has not been accepted. Today in conversation with Senator Meachum I renewed the proposition to him. He did not say what would be done.

Senator Vaughan said the committee did not intend to afford an opportunity for the test to be made before some District Judge who had been determined upon as the man to apply to, but wanted the tests made by the highest Judges of the State. He and also Chairman Nickels and Mr. Cureton last night said that the committees have no disposition to deal with any one harshly, but they do mean to enforce the powers of the committee. They invite citizens to cooperate with the committees in developing the information which the respective branches of the Legislature have ordered to be procured. They add that it is not likely that a test of the powers of the committees will be made for several days, as there are enough witnesses who will obey the process of the committee to keep them busy for a few days. In that connection Senator Vaughan said: "We are not seeking information with the view of punishing anybody but solely in order that the Legislature may properly perform its functions. We are not trying to determine the guilt or innocence of anyone."

It now develops that the two investigating committees determined to travel separately, not because of a disagreement, but in pursuance of an agreement. It is said that it was anticipated that some of the anti would refuse to obey the processes of the committees, and it was therefore determined that the Senate committee should summon such witnesses, whereas, the House committee would work upon pro witnesses and that an interesting contrast would be presented.

Senator Townsend last night said that if the anti should get some District Judge to interfere with the investigating committees, he would bring the Judge for contempt. The Legislature, he declared, is not without power over Judges.

It seems probable that before the end of the present week some court will have passed upon the rights of the investigating committees. It also seems probable that the Governor will have the general appropriation bill in his hands, and consequently a chance to pass upon the lump sum appropriation for the end of this week. If that some of the anti would refuse to obey the processes of the committees, and it was therefore determined that the Senate committee should summon such witnesses, whereas, the House committee would work upon pro witnesses and that an interesting contrast would be presented.

While it is true that in a certain sense the Governor will be called upon to say whether the appropriation shall stand, or whether the Attorney General's Department shall shut up shop because of want of sustenance, at the same time it is true that he can and probably will, give the Legislature a chance to "guess again" if it sends him the appropriation bill at any time soon.

This afternoon John W. Pope, of Dallas, local option prohibitionist and former secretary to Congressman Jack Beale, testified that Jeff Cox, of Rockwall, a member of the legislature about July 1, offered to pay his expenses if he would speak and a week later offered him to name his own price. If he would make twenty speeches against prohibition John would make him a check for $10,000. Mr. Beale, testified that he made three speeches for which he received a pay or expense. He was offered money but declined.

The Way of True Repentance

A view of repentance not often emphasized was presented by Rev. O. T. Cooper, at the First M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning.

"They went out, and preached that all men should repent," Mark 6:12 was his text.

It is a true law, ideas precede feelings. Feelings result in or at least largely determine outward conduct. In an especial sense is this a fact when we come to study the spirit and temper of repentance. If a man did not think there would be no need for godly sorrow, or the forsaking of sin, he would not care to turn again and do works meet for repentance.

But man must think. And the thoughts which engage his mind about God, the kingdom and righteousness govern the interest the individual will manifest in these high themes. Dr. Bruce gives us assurance in these words, "If God be a Father, then repentance will mean ceasing to regard Him under any lower aspect; if man be a being of infinite importance as a moral subject and son of God, then repentance will mean realizing human dignity and responsibility; if righteousness of the kingdom be spiritual and inward, having reference not merely to outward acts but to motives, then the summons to repentance will be a call not merely to a life or more, but to a new life, a new self, so far as to determine between true and false righteousness. What we want in this discussion is to find the way of true repentance.

First—Repentance a Condition of Salvation.

Our Lord began his public ministry in Galilee with the proclamation "The kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and believe the gospel." He went out two by two. He gave them authority over unclean spirits. Their message as they should go here and yonder was to preach that all men should repent. Jesus thus here, as well as elsewhere makes repentance the initial step as a condition of obtaining the kingdom. Mr. Wesley was wont to say "repentance is the porch and faith is the door to the house of religion."

(1) What is the Christian interpretation of repentance? John the Baptist came crying, "repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Yes, both in tone and in drift there is a marked difference between the teaching of John and Jesus. To be sure the words are almost identical. The meaning, however, is wide of identical. The men are different. Their messages are both true, but how much richer and fuller in meaning the one from the other. The contrast is striking at two points. Let us look at them.

(1) The first is the doctrine of inwardness that John knows nothing about. For example, compare the sermon on the Mount with the directions given by John the Baptist to the publicans, soldiers, and others who he sought what he would have them do. (Luke 2:10-14). The sermon on the Mount is positively an exposition of the righteousness of the kingdom. Yet negatively we may regard it as an exhortation to repentance. Jesus calls men to look into their hearts, to examine the motives and affections. John directs men in the way of outward conduct. See the difference. Christ turned the thought from the act to the disposition—making his kingdom not of this world but a kingdom of better quality and more spiritual significance.

(2) The other point of contrast. Repentance with John the Baptist was a matter of details. The repentance Jesus preached was a matter of principle. It really meant a change in the end of life. For example, John's crying meant "Alter your ways, the king is coming." He was summoning the people to give a royal reception to the great sovereign who was to come among them. The holiday attire was to be done, nuisances were to be removed, the penitential fasts were to meet the mighty monarch. He differed from Jesus' teaching. He calls for more than reformation. More than merely to clean up and make ready. His call was to a change of mind. He would have them turn from John's repentance, as that preparation was sadly insufficient as a condition of entrance into his Divine Commonwealth.

(3) How about the believer's experience? The interpretation by Christ as to what the test and temper of repentance consists is something more than the theory of the visionary dreamer. It satisfies the twentieth century and answers the inquiry, "It is done work and amply paid." The testimony left in scripture and song and story tells of obtaining the place in the kingdom as men have true to the way of repentance.

(4) The elements of repentance in the believer's experience. The way as outlined by our Lord, and as the experience of the individual confirms several elements characterize the truly penitent and repentant soul. There have been many classifications. None are better than the analysis given by Dean Fillett. He epitomizes these elements under five heads, viz.—Genuine repentance says he consists of (1) sorrow for sin, (2) a resolution to forsake sin, (3) amendment, (4) reparation, (5) confession. Of these the first two are internal. God alone is the judge as to their genuineness. The other three are external—the world can judge by these evidences largely as to the sincerity of the motive prompting the acts. (2) The relation of faith and repentance. Faith, we claim is a condition of salvation. Repent and believe—that's the weight of the gospel message. Some times it is only repent, then again it is faith alone. Why is there the possibility of faith in the Philippian jailer who "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Does this imply faith is alone sufficient? Take the text, "all men should repent." This seems to indicate repentance is only necessary. Apparent as it may seem there is no contradiction in terms. There can be no truly converted soul without both repentance and faith. Where one occurs as a condition of salvation the other one is always implied. Saving faith includes true evangelical repentance. As a leading theologian has expressed it "If genuine repentance can be the act of none but a believing penitent, so faith can be exercised by none but a penitent believer."

Public Towels as a Health Menace

Kansas was the first state to abolish the common drinking cup in hotels, railroad trains and stations, and in the common schools. It has gone one step farther and, after September 1, the common towel will disappear from all public places. After an exhaustive investigation the chemists and bacteriologists of the Kansas Board of Health recommended that the common roller towel be forbidden as dangerous to the people of the State. The board at its June meeting adopted the order that, after September 1 the stiffly starched boarding house towel be cut up into individual towels and everyone have a clean face wipe whenever the exigencies of the occasion demand a facial bath. At the April meeting of the board an investigation of the roller towel was ordered. Towels were collected in the hotels and public schools of Topeka, Lawrence, Olathe, Kansas City, Kansas, and several other cities of the State. Railroad trains were boarded, and adjacent lines and the rolling stock in the washrooms examined. These were taken to the State health laboratories at the State University and examined. In some instances the bacterial count ran as high as 1,323,000 bac-

This Bank and Your Business. There are many banks in the country larger than The Wichita State Bank. They may have more capital and perhaps do a greater volume of business. But for the smaller business man, farmer or manufacturer, had it occurred to you that the small bank is the best place for the beginner to go?

The big bank is often cold-blooded and independent. Your business in the big bank is but an incidental detail, and your interests are scarcely noticed. The small bank, however, can give your business more time and attention, for it is interested in your success.

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN PETROLIA FIELD Another new company began operation in the oil field, under the name of the Ninety-Nine Pumping Company of Houston, Texas. L. P. Hammond, and John Presley are the local managers. These men are old time Petrolia drillers and have the reputation of being classed among the best well men in the state. This location is a "Wild Cat" proposition, as it is located on the Bob Twenty places west of town, and there has never been a well drilled as far out of the proven district in this direction before. Messrs. Hammond and Presley seem to be confident of success. And we are sure if oil or gas can be found on this lease it will be drilled in by them. The derrick was erected last week and active work was begun Monday morning.—Petrolia Round-Up.

BRUSHES BRUSHES are required for the good appearance of anyone, and in many ways they are important for your health, being necessary for the care of the teeth, the skin, your clothes and your hair. No one likes to use poor brushes. They are annoying and do not give good service and are really expensive because they do not last. The brushes we sell are durable, from the inexpensive tooth brush to the imported military hair brushes and are made to suit your individual requirements. Our first consideration in selling you a brush is to give you the most service for your money. This is more important to us than the profit we make and more important to you than the price you pay. 609 Eighth Street Martin's Book Store Very convenient place to drop in on way to and from postoffice and have ice cream or cold drink while you read. BONDS MUST CARRY BY TWO-THIRDS VOTE Opponents of the proposed $200,000 bond issue for road improvements to be voted on tomorrow have not been idle in the past few days and if the bonds receive the necessary two-thirds majority, some pretty close observers will be surprised. The votes will be cast at the regular polling places throughout the county. Qualified voters who are property tax payers can vote in the election. Ownership of real estate is not necessary, but the voter must own property of some description on which he pays taxes. The question to be voted upon tomorrow as set forth in the official call is: Shall the commissioner's court of the county of Wichita be authorized to issue bonds of said county in the sum of two hundred thousand dollars payable in forty years after date, with option of redeeming same at any time after ten years from date, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to levy a tax sufficient to pay the inter-

When Old Sol shows his glittering face and starts in to warm things, the crescent begins to widen out the streets; in fact when the good old Summer time makes Dante's Inferno look like a cold storage plant it is time to speed a whirl where fans whirl the glasses clink, where the white aproned lads treat you coldy while every wrinkle in your throat says thank you every time you sip the cold nectar. The time is today, the place is the Palace Drug Store, and you should bring the girl with you.
