BRYAN CRITICISES CLARK'S UTTERANCE

SAYS SPEAKER'S DECLARATION FOR ANNEXATION WAS VERY INDISCREET.

ONE-TARIFF REDUCTION

THINKS PART OF WISDOM TO PROCEED WITHOUT WAITING FOR AID OF ANY OTHER NATION.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 28.—In a discussion of the Canadian election made in the coming issue of his Commonwealth, W. J. Bryan says that Speaker Clark's declaration in favor of annexation was a very indiscreet utterance for one occupying a position of authority and hints that it had much to do with the result because of the use made of it.

Mr. Bryan is of the opinion that it was unfortunate anyway that reciprocity was brought forward; first, because it gave the protectionists of Canada chance to appeal to anti-American prejudice; second, because it turned attention away from the real reason for tariff reduction and laid emphasis upon the idea that a tariff tax hurts the foreigner instead of the consumer at home. He adds:

"The Democrats favored the Taft-Lawler agreement because it made a beginning at tariff reduction. Now that it has been rejected, it is the part of wisdom to proceed with tariff reduction for the benefit of our own people without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. Protectionists in this country will use Canada's action as an excuse for opposing reductions, but Democrats will not, out of spite, permit continued exhortation by the tariff barons of this country merely because the tariff barons of Canada are to be permitted to continue their impositions on our Northern neighbors."

Southern Pacific Shops Close.

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, Sept. 28.—The Southern Pacific's action in closing its shops here last night is believed to be the result of the present strike agitation. Dissatisfaction among the railway employees of this city is more pronounced now than in many years.

TO RENEW EXHIBIT AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Secretary Day of the Chamber of Commerce is preparing an exhibit of the manufactures here at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the city hall. This will be maintained permanently and it is planned to make it representative of the city's industries. Such an exhibit was attempted once before, but it was never completed and was permitted to run down until there were a few of the unperishable articles only left. Hereafter the exhibits of perishable products will be renewed from time to time and the display kept up to date.

All manufacturers of the city are invited to make displays and should communicate with the secretary.

The football team of the Wichita Falls High School will probably be selected today. Two squads will make a final tryout this afternoon and the permanent team will be picked from among those who make the best showing. This team expects to play the Y. M. C. A. a close game later in the season. The captain, Carl Hammond has already received several challenges from neighboring towns.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT A DELIGHTFUL SUCCESS

Civic League's Anniversary Program Marked Epoch in City's Artistic Development.

In celebration of Wichita Falls' birthday anniversary the musical of the Civic League at the Wichita Theatre last night was a delightful success from both an artistic and financial standpoint, and so pleasing to those who attended as to mark an epoch in the history of the city's growth in classical lines, as well as a milestone in her existence.

The program was given by the faculty of the Wichita Falls Conservatory of Music, and in this their initial public appearance here, the artists won their way into the hearts of all who heard them, and demonstrated more forcibly than words can picture, the immense value it will be to have such an institution as a part of the city.

Dr. Dunaevski's playing was a revelation and Mrs. Dunaevski's sweet silvery-bell soprano was most charming. Miss Dabney, too, won esteem for her elocutionary art, and Prof. Pudor's violin solo "Legende" was another delightful number.

Preceding the conservatory program the Wichita Saate Band, under the leadership of Prof. Boyer, rendered a prelude program of several charming numbers, and Prof. Boyer gave a pleasing cornet solo, "The Hyperion."

F. Happy Day, as president of the Wichita Falls Conservatory of Music and on behalf of the ladies of the Civic League, thanked those present for their evidence of civic pride in thus commemorating the city's anniversary, and stated the objects of the conservatory and the value it was hoped to make of it for the city.

KNIGHTS WILL OBSERVE DISCOVERY DAY

The local order of the Knights of Columbus are making preparations to observe Columbus Day in this city on October 12th, and while the program for the celebration has not been completed the main features will be the celebration of mass at the Catholic Church at 9 o'clock in the morning followed by a picnic in some nearby grove to be selected, and the afternoon taken up with social conference and addresses by members of the order at the hall. There are about fifty members of the order.

Knights of Columbus organizations everywhere throughout the nation will observe this day with patriotic celebrations. The Texas Knights are planning a monster celebration at Austin on that date in which high church and state officials including Gov. Colquitt will participate. The local chapter cannot send a large delegation to Austin, therefore will observe the day with a program here.

FARMER KILLED BY HIS SON-IN-LAW

By Associated Press. Quanah, Texas, Sept. 28.—W. C. Richardson, a farmer aged 55, died here last night from gunshot wounds inflicted by his son-in-law, Lee Jackson. Richardson's wife had accused him with improper relations with his thirteen-year-old step-daughter. He had been in hiding until yesterday noon when he went home for dinner and is alleged to have grabbed up a shotgun precipitating the tragedy in which he was killed.

MURKEY DISAPPOINTED IN ATTITUDE OF POWERS

By Associated Press. Constantinople, Sept. 28.—It is officially stated here that several small Italian warships are cruising eight miles off Tripoli. They were examined by the searchlight of the Turkish transport, Derna, which arrived Tuesday at Tripoli, carrying heavy artillery and ammunition. The cruisers did not attempt to interfere with the Derna, which is now discharging her cargo. It is known that Turkey is bitterly disappointed at the refusal of the powers to Turkey's appeal for intervention. It is reported the powers say they were unable to interfere with Italy's plans.

Will Occupy Tripoli and Cyrene. Special to the Times. Rome, Sept. 28.—Italy in her demands to Turkey announces she intends to occupy both Tripoli and Cyrene.

SPOONY CHAUFFEUR BLAMED

Autoist Had Arm Around Girl's Waist When Machine Kills Negro. Lawton, Okla., Sept. 28.—No trace has been found of the spooony motor car driver who ran into A. A. Burr's farm wagon between Chattanooga and Grandfield Tuesday, killing George Rivers, a Negro cotton picker, riding on the rear end of the wagon. Burr suspects the machine to have been from Lawton and is here looking for it. The negro asked permission to ride with Burr and sat on the back end of the farm wagon, his feet dangling over. As they were passing through a timbered stretch near a creek a motor car dashed around a bend and hit the farm wagon, crushing the negro between the wagon and the hood of the car. Burr was thrown out, his team ran away, and the negro died from injury.

Before death the negro declared the driver had one arm around a girl and was kissing her as he turned the bend. The chauffeur reversed his engine and backed away before Burr could stop him.

WOLTERS EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE SOON

ANTI-PROHIBITION LEADER FREIND STATES, HAS DECIDED TO ENTER THE CONTEST.

CONSERVATIVE PLATFORM

His Canvass Will Be Made Along the Lines of Old Democracy Opposing Initiative and Referendum.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 28.—From one of J. F. Wolter's closest friends today comes the information that Colonel Wolter will positively announce for the United States senate at the proper time to succeed Senator Bailey. Colonel Wolter declined to commit himself and this friend was approached. The friend immediately answered: "You can't use my name but you can tell the people that at the right time Jake will be sure to announce."

If the friend knew what he was talking about, and he seemed to think that he did, there will be four candidates for the United States senate, maybe more. Out of this quartet of candidates it is said that Colonel Wolter will come out flat-footed against the initiative and referendum for state and national governments and will make his race wholly along the lines of old Democracy, attacking this doctrine so far as state and national governments are concerned, as one that is wholly populist. He will ask the support of the old time Democrats and in this attitude will find himself arrayed against the three senatorial aspirants and also against W. F. Ramsey of the supreme court, who aspires to the governorship.

It is to be noted with regard to Colonel Ball's announcement that he desires a senatorial primary preceding the Democratic primary. This plan might allow either Congressman Sheppard or Congressman Randall to get back in the race for congressman in the Democratic primary in their districts if they were defeated in the proposed senatorial primary for the United States senate, or if they were not one of the high two which Colonel Ball would send to the Democratic primary later.

Attorney General Lightfoot will not be a candidate for congressman in the first district to succeed Morris Sheppard, though he says that he has many letters, urging him to make the race. He will at the proper time announce to succeed himself as attorney general on the grounds that he has much uncompleted work after which he should look.

FORT WORTH VENDERS GIVE SHORT WEIGHT

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 28.—Is the Fort Worth man who buys grapes or other fruit from the street vendors getting a dime's worth for a dime? Chief Renfro of the police department says he is not.

Wednesday night the chief and Night Captain Bils made a round of the city and personally investigated the scales upon which the street vendors weigh their wares.

The result of their investigation shows that the man who makes a purchase from the average vendor gets from a quarter to a half pound less than he pays for.

According to the police authorities, many of the vendors weigh the hoppers in which the customer's purchase is weighed, in with the fruit. Others turn the little screw which adjusts the dials, around until the purchaser is charged for a half or quarter of a pound more than he secures. Scale springs were tested by the chief also, and it was found that many of them had been tightened to make them weigh more.

FREDERICK CHALLENGES LOCAL Y. M. C. A. TEAM

At Meeting of Y. M. C. A. Players Wednesday Night William Huff Elected Manager for Season.

About twenty candidates were present last night at the football meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. building. William Huff was elected manager, and John G. Anderson, assistant manager. It was decided to defer the election of a captain until a later date in order that the best possible man might be selected. The first practice of the season will be held tomorrow afternoon beginning at five o'clock on the old High School gridiron, corner of Thirteenth and Bluff streets. Many candidates who were unable to be present at the meeting last night have signified their intention of coming out for practice in the near future.

John G. Anderson, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A. when seen this morning, stated that football as it will be played by the Y team this season will be largely a college game. Several college men from different universities will play on the team and the manager is himself a college man. Those who witness the games this year will therefore see only the highest type of football, and will thus become familiar with the best features of the game.

A challenge has already been received from Frederick, Okla. is no ordinance which would bring about the punishment of men operating the scales which were not rightly balanced, but I am sure that the state law against swindling would cover that question.

The investigation last night may be but the beginning as Chief Renfro is contemplating a widespread investigation of scales in the city.

PICTURE SHOW WILL GENERATE OWN CURRENT

A picture show for Electra is the latest evidence of metropolitan airs for the bustling oil center. Sam Tritch, of the Gem Theatre, in partnership with E. N. Collins and Mr. James of Electra, are to be the proprietors of the new enterprise. The new theatre will also be called the Gem, and for its occupancy a new building will be erected, work to commence on it at once. The building will be 2x2x120, of frame construction. The firm will also install a gasoline engine and a private electric light and equip the place with handsome seats and fixtures throughout.

The electric piano now in the Gem here will be taken to Electra, and in its place here Mr. Tritch will install a Wurlitzer piano orchestra, the most modern of all automatic musical contrivances, equal it is said to an eight piece orchestra. It is expected the new theatre will be opened in three weeks.

35,000 TO STRIKE ON HARRIMAN LINES

CARMEN, MACHINISTS, BOILERMAKERS, BLACKSMITHS AND SHEET METAL WORKERS WILL GO OUT.

UNION DEMANDS REFUSED

Strike Will Be Called As Soon As Union Presidents Can Fix the Day and the Hour.

BULLETIN—Chicago, Sept. 28.—A strike on all the Harriman lines including the Illinois Central, will be called as soon as the presidents of the International Shipmen's unions involved can fix a day and hour according to J. W. Kine, president of the Blacksmiths' and Helpers' union. About thirty-five thousand men will be affected including carmen, machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths and sheet metal workers. Ten thousand men will go out on the Illinois Central alone. The men probably won't quit until the beginning of next week.

New York, Sept. 28.—Officials of the Union and Southern Pacific railroads here announced at noon today that they had refused the demands of the federation of employees of their lines.

Wages Will Be Cut on Rock Island, Chicago, Ill., Sept. 27.—Owing to slack business conditions, the Rock Island railroad has ordered a cut of 10 per cent in all operating expenses for the next three months. Most of the railroads have retrenched recently in some departments but the Rock Island is the first road to cut expenses on a horizontal percentage basis.

The retrenchment orders have gone from the general offices here to the general managers at the three division points. Instructions to the general managers are that they shall decrease operating expenses in the way they can do so best, provided that the cut amounts to 10 per cent. In some instances wages will be slashed and in others men will be laid off.

AUTOMOBILE STRUCK BY A FREIGHT CAR

What might have been a serious accident turned out most fortunately last night when an automobile being driven by P. H. Pennington was struck by a freight car.

Mr. Pennington, accompanied by Mrs. Lou Riley of 1508 Tenth street, was on his way to the farm of Dave Thomas, who is a son-in-law of Mrs. Riley's and who lives about four miles southeast of this city. When he reached the railroad crossing at the end of Ohio avenue, he noticed what he thought was a freight pulling out, but paid no attention to it because he thought that it was headed out of town. Upon reaching a point within a few feet of the railroad track, he found that the train was backing upon him and that there was danger of a collision. He attempted to stop and reverse his auto but the engine was killed and the train struck the car.

Both Mr. Pennington and Mrs. Riley retained their presence of mind and it fortunately happened that neither was injured.

The machine, although struck heavily was not demolished, and was able to be driven back to town propelled by its own power.

Five Burned to Death in Explosion of Can of Kerosene

The fire department has been enjoying a period of quiet for a long time, they having been called out only twice during the last month or more. One alarm was only a small fire in a barn, and the other summons was a false one. It is hoped that this state of affairs may continue.

By Associated Press. Hitchell, Ill., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Virgil Vandever and four of her children were burned to death when a can of kerosene used by her husband in starting the kitchen fire exploded this morning. The husband and two other children were saved.

Said She Wouldn't Have Believed It

A week or so ago a woman stepped into the store and asked me if I really believed that Campbell's Baked Beans were as good and as cheap as home baked beans. She said, "My family likes baked beans and wants them frequently. I bake them myself but it takes lots of time and once in a while I get weary of it. If I thought my family and I would like Campbell's Beans as well as my own I would be delighted for it would save lots of time."

I told her that a great many of my customers had had the same doubts but after one trial of Campbell's, had never baked beans again at home.

"Well," says she, "I'll try one can and see how they go."

Just the other day she ordered a dozen cans and said she wouldn't have believed that canned baked beans could be so good.

If you don't know Campbell's Baked Bean quality you ought to. Try them this week.

High Topped Boots the Season's Feature But Low-Cuts still "Go"

Nearly all of the fall buyers have returned from their familiar haunts in the wholesale shops of New York and Chicago and the local shops are well filled with the latest toggery.

The merchant has used every precaution in securing the most up-to-date styles on the market and is very careful to get the most refined article that is being shown. The shoppers are very bad critics and their aim is to please them.

The gowns that are being shown in the local shops are wonderful creations.

The laces form a great part in the wardrobe and special attention is given to them this season.

Shoes styles for the fall wear are being shown.

The high topped boot is the feature for the coming season. In contrast with the high topped boot is a demand in some sections for the low-cut shoe, popularly known as the "college girl's cut."

On the important question of the length of the vamp there is no doubt that the short vamp is still the favorite for the coming season.

Among the materials being used half leathers in dull and semi-dull finishes lead in popularity. Patent leather, suede, glazed kid and buckskin are certainly in demand this year. Tans are good and will be one of the leading colors in shoes this fall.

Satins will be used, but the velvet has gone back compared to the use of it a year ago.

The demand for long gloves this season is so great that it is rather hard for the manufacturer to furnish the supply. The short gloves will only be worn with tailored suits. And most of the suits have the three quarter length effect. The white glove will be the predominating color.

Veils are very artistic this season so light and airy. The chic little hats are being draped with the veil. The Parisian is really the only one that thinks that she isn't properly dressed without a veil when she goes on the street.

For a woman to be well dressed she must have properly fitted shoes becoming hat, fresh gloves and a veil. This is quite true, isn't it?

BRYAN WILL MAKE TOUR OF NEBRASKA

It is Understood His Speeches Will Be in Nature of Replies to Taft's Speeches.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 28.—William J. Bryan returned home today to celebrate with Mrs. Bryan next Sunday, the anniversary of their wedding. On week from today Mr. Bryan will start out on a three weeks' speaking tour through Nebraska. This tour, undertaken, in the interests of the Democratic State ticket, is already beginning to attract attention in political circles. President Taft is scheduled to speak in Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings and several other Nebraska cities the first of the week. Mr. Bryan will begin his tour a few days later and it is generally understood that his speech will be in the nature of replies to the President's utterances on national issues.

Trial By Jury.

Blackstone pays his tribute to the inestimable right of trial by jury in the following words:

"Greece fell; Rome fell; the republic of modern times that hovered around classic Italy fell; but England will endure for trial by jury will make the liberties of the Englishman eternal."

In the ancient times the thinkers and observers realized that the purest and ablest judges, however skilled in logic, were perhaps more liable to reach unjust conclusions from a mass of evidence than would be the concurrent of good men and true, empaneled as jurors taken from daily participation in practical affairs, weighing facts in the light of common experience; that in reaching conclusion of facts twelve men were less liable to error than one man; that life, liberty property and reputation were safe in the verdict of many than in the judgment of one mind. The best reasons differ and some writer has said: "Tis with our judgments as our watches; none go just alike, yet each believes his own." The courts in their machinery of judge and jury are sacred, united they are indeed the Palladium of our Liberties; the component parts are independence in their sphere of duty. The fathers of Texas have declared that the jury are the exclusive judges of facts in criminal cases. "The judges shall not express any opinion as to the weight of evidence."

The jury is bound by the law as given to them by the court; they view aside, whatever be their own views, or in the domain of the law the judge is supreme. The jury are sovereign in the domain of facts, and the judge must abide their conclusion when it is not guilty; however, honesty and widely he may differ each must recognize the dignity of the court as a whole. It is hackneyed saying, but none the less a priceless principle that ninety and nine guilty go unpunished rather than one innocent should suffer, and it is in recognition of this high sentiment that the law empowers the judge, with the stroke of his pen to annul a verdict of guilty if he thinks a wrong has been done. Not guilty is beyond the power of man to recall, but the law, woven from experience, furnishes shield to the dread word "guilty." When the jury says not guilty, let the accused go forth unpunished. Innocent men have been condemned, guilty men have been acquitted but no man should raise his voice to injuriously affect the right of trial by jury. The greater the clamor beyond the walls, the more cautious should be the judge and jury.

HE SOLD HIS WIFE TO A MILLIONAIRE

Mrs. Patterson Gives Her Reasons for Killing Husband.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 28.—"He split in my face and called me the vilest name a man can call a woman," was the reason Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson gave today for killing her husband, Charles A. Patterson, formerly a Chicago broker, here yesterday. Her attorneys, it is learned, will offer "temporary insanity," the result of "long abuse and final insult," as a defense.

Mrs. Patterson told her counsel that three months after her marriage Patterson sold her to Emile Strauss the Chicago millionaire manufacturer or who was sued by Patterson for the expense of a trip to Europe. The consideration, she said, was $1,500 and was paid to Patterson.

She charged Patterson urged her to resume these relations when they became short of money.

"I have my evidence in my husband's own handwriting that will absolutely clear me before a jury," she added.

She said she went to see Patterson yesterday to get him to withdraw his suit against Emile Strauss. "This he agreed to do if I would sign over to him my Denver home and certain Chicago properties," she said, "but I refused. Then the quarrel started."

NOT A QUANTITY BUT A QUALITY SHOW

It is not claimed that "A Woman of the Hour" which comes to the Wichita Theatre, October 5th, is a quantity show, but a quality show. An advance notice says:

It is purely an intensely dramatic product taken from Mary Jane Holmes' latest and best novel. You must read the book, you must see the play. See this young mother who sacrifices her all for her husband and her two boys. She goes through fire of love, hatred and villainy and comes out on top. Oh what a mother, what a story. Rev. Jas. H. Howard says, "as pure as gold, a sermon for you all." The play was a winner from the start. There is lots of action from rise to fall of curtain there are many clean specialties introduced by artists employed for that purpose alone.

A Felon Saved From a Life of Sin Through Kindness

Last summer Will Hudson was convicted in the Wichita county district court and sentenced to two years in the state prison on a charge of forgery. Yesterday The Times received the letter printed below requesting that it be published. In his note to the editor Hudson says: "I am a convict without means or friends except those mentioned in this letter and I hope you will publish this for me. If there is any charge please make it as small as possible and I will try to pay the charges if any."

"The written testimony of a felon saved from a life of sin by kindness" is the introductory pleading of his letter which follows:

"In June of 1911 I was in the Wichita Falls jail and the world seemed to be only a black void to me for I not only was a fugitive from justice but a fugitive from Christ as well. I can only say that I left the Wichita Falls jail with hope for my future and light with God. How was it brought about? You might ask. By fear? No, not by fear of punishment, but by kindness. I will remember the first time I saw Mrs. Coulson, Mother Coulson as the men there call her. I paid scant attention to her as my thoughts then were centered on what efforts I should make to regain my freedom and when my attention was called to Mother Coulson, Tony sneered. I have no apology to make for my behavior at that time for I was steeped in sin. The next Sunday Mother Coulson came to jail to see her boys, as she called them, and I saw how they loved and revered her. I thought to myself, surely there is something in Christianity if a woman like that gives her time to scatter cheer and sunshine and to try and make life more pleasant for the poor unfortunate outcasts of Wichita Falls. Not only did she comfort the wounded and bruised hearts and drooping spirits with cheerful anecdotes and sprightly conversation, but ministered unto the bodily man also, bringing food prepared by her own hands and all were free to partake of same. I looked forward to her coming, the third Sunday and when she had left I had a bad case of the blues I can tell you. I got to thinking of her kindness and of my past life and I wondered within myself was I worthy to have such a friend and I was forced to come to the conclusion that I was not. From that day on I tried to lead such a life as to make myself more worthy to be called one of her boys and I want to say right here that from knowing Mother Coulson I have gained mastery over myself and have faith and hope to start life anew, with courage and to bear the many small trials and temptations with fortitude. "Understand Mother Coulson is thinking of prison missionary work and am sure that she would win the hearts of all with whom she came in contact with, for I have learned from sad experience that while each official and guard in the prison system does his work thoroughly and well, they have very little time to spare from their duties to become acquainted with the men under their charge and it only needs in many cases, I have seen while here, a kind word and the gentle talk from some one like Mother Coulson to turn them from the black path of sin, into the broad path of duty, for I know that cases have come under my observation that when I have held conversation with several of them I have seen tears trickle down their cheeks and no one thought it funny, although I know that some people outside think that convicts are no better than brutes and liars and thieves. Still they would be surprised if they could get into close contact with them on religious topics, that very few are so hardened as the world might think, and love all do they reverence a good woman and such a woman as Mother Coulson could do inestimable good, perhaps showing some poor sinner the right path of duty to his country and the mercy of Christ, and am satisfied that countless tongues would rise up in future generations and call her blessed. I know there are men here who conscientiously try to live Christian lives and to abide by the rules and regulations and who prefer to help those who are not financially able to obtain small things necessary to their comfort, and who will try in all earnestness to show those who have never had the light of God's love to flood the black path and black years of confinement here with light, the love of Christ and mercy of God. I also wish to thank Misses Minnie Tyra and Mabel Brock for the many courtesies and kindness they extended me when I was in the Wichita Falls jail and I take this opportunity to show my appreciation to all concerned as I have promised to write to them and think this the best way to do so. May Mother Coulson and her co-laborers have many years to carry on this grand work, and may many hearts be touched; many souls be led to the judgment bar by their efforts is the prayer of their friend and well wisher.

Hay Fever.

Hay fever is a nervous affection that occurs annually about the same time. Its causes are various and the cure depends entirely upon the special exciting cause.

"The approach of the attack is generally characterized by a profuse flow of secretion from the nose, watering of the eyes, sneezing, insomnia, increased perspiration, a feeling of general discomfort—and in many cases, asthma.

The eyes (flinch from strong light there is a daily headache and noticeably lessened appetite.

It makes the first appearance in June, though such early cases are more or less rare. It runs its course in such cases in about two weeks and is never very severe.

Other cases announce themselves in July, and toward the end of the month the number increases until about the 15th of August all the hay fever patients in the land are suffering together and extending condolences to one another.

These cases continue, with little or no variation in their gravity until some time in October, or the approach of the first frost. Then they disappear as if by magic and do not return again until the following year. But the return may be expected at very nearly the same time, and in some cases on practically the same day.

While there are known to be at least fifteen different causes of hay fever, it generally makes its appearance in people of the neurotic type—that is, people inclined to be rather nervous.

And as a sort of consolation, by far the greater number of people afflicted are persons of high intellectual development. It appears that hay fever may be Nature's penalty for knowing too much.

The first, and most natural cause of hay fever is a general nervous condition of the entire system. The term "nervous" as used here does not mean that irritable condition common to those who are over-worked or over-worried. It means rather those who have an abundance of nervous energy, and who are continuously "on the jump" and who cannot concentrate or sit still in one place for very long.

A second cause is some deformity of the structure within the nose. This deformity, however, slight, may give the nasal lining an excessive sensitiveness to the minutest particles of flying dust.

The third cause is the pollen from certain plants. The kind of plant that causes the distress may vary widely in different individuals, so that the pollen which affects one may have no disposition to harass another in any way.

In all persons afflicted with hay fever fine dust will cause excessive sneezing throughout the whole year. The nose is sensitive to irritating influences that do not disturb other people.

Sea trips help some cases. Others have to seek an elevation of 1000 feet or more above the sea. Others need only a change of climate, so as to escape the particular flying irritation that sets up in them such distressing symptoms.

Whatever the cause, once its escape is learned, the avoidance of the trouble should be simple. But this is not always so. Occasionally, the very atmosphere that helped one

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over-all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need.

We urge you to try it. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

year will only aggravate the case the following season.

However, when a climate has been found where relief can be obtained no thought of returning home should be encouraged until the first frost has covered the ground. Then one may venture home in security.

Only temporary respite is granted though. The next year demands another migration for relief.

Hurrah for England! The fight between Bombardier Wells and Jack Johnson, the big smoke, has been given up because of the adverse attitude of the public.

It's too bad the attitude wasn't the same in America before it was discovered that Jim Jeffries couldn't come back.

The Dallas News intimates that there will be a fourth candidate to announce for the senatorship. Of those already announced, two are pro and one an anti. Just to even things up a bit, the fourth man should be an anti, and as Col. Jake Wolters stands head and shoulders above all other prospective anti candidates, the others should step aside and allow Col. Jake to enter.

The proven territory in the Electra oil field is being extended rapidly. There are rumors to the effect that the Honaker well, four miles northeast of the proven field is down about 1000 feet, and is now being drilled through the cap rock. When this is accomplished, those who are acquainted with conditions say oil will be struck, and in that event the field will be extended to that extent. It is also asserted the Buerbaum well, 9 miles east of Electra, is down about 900 or 1000 feet, and is now drilling in rock, which is considered a good indication that oil will be found in that neighborhood. Much depends on these two wells. If both should prove to be oil producers it will mean much for those who own property in that end of the county.

Among the very many good things that can be said of Governor Harmon is that he has succeeded in reducing the state tax rate in Ohio from five and six per cent to less than one per cent. This he accomplished by getting behind the tax-dodgers, and by the methods adopted he uncovered several billions of wealth that had prior to his administration escaped taxation. This has made Harmon justly popular, not only in the State of Ohio, but in other States, including Texas, but strange to say, those in Texas who are urging the claims of Harmon as against those of Governor Woodrow Wilson are the very same fellows who are condemning the administrations of ex-Governor Campbell, who did for Texas in the way of lowering taxes just about what Harmon did for Ohio. When the Campbell administration went out of power the State ad valorem tax rate was jumped from 4 cents on the $100 to the taxable value to 12 cents. It is true, the methods employed by Campbell were a little different from those put into effect by Harmon. Those who violated the Texas anti-trust laws were forced to pay heavy fines, and these fines made it possible to lower the state tax rate. Perhaps there are many things for which the Campbell administration deserves censure, but it is not for reducing the State tax rate, even if that end was accomplished by enforcing a law that had become to be regarded by some as a dead letter.

The Times sincerely and earnestly believes that the $150,000 road improvement bonds should be voted for preinct No. 1, on October 13th. If it should be found afterwards that the entire issue will not be necessary to make such improvements as may be decided on by those in charge of affairs, the remainder need never be sold or offered for sale. These bonds, if voted, as the Times understands the law, can be sold in any quantity that may be desired. There are some who will oppose the proposition because they are of the opinion that $75,000 or $100,000 would have been sufficient for all present purposes, and while they may be right in their contention, it strikes the Times that they should think seriously about the matter before voting to defeat it. It is a noticeable fact that wherever good roads bonds have been voted and the roads constructed, property values, have advanced steadily, caused principally by more people settling in those communities, and creating a better market for farm lands. There is not any instance that can be cited in any county in Texas where good roads bonds have been voted that the taxpayers and people in those counties are not ready to vote more bonds for construction of good roads at every opportunity that presents itself. It will be that way in Wichita county. If preinct No. 1 votes for good road bonds, it will not be two years until the other three precincts of the county will follow suit.

President Taft, without attempting to steal any of ex-President Roosevelt's race outside thunder, says that one of the greatest evils confronting these United States today is that of the divorce evil. He has not only pointed out the evil, but suggests a remedy, that the obtaining of divorces be made more difficult, and if this is done there may be fewer marriages, but there will be more babies. "If divorces are made more difficult," says the president, men and women would live better lives. They would not do those things which give cause for divorce."

THE DEATH OF STOLYPIN.

(By B. M. Carroll, in Houston Post)

With all the gorgeous pageantry of imperial Russia, and with all the picturesque ceremonial of the Greek church, they are burying Premier Stolypin. The czar will not be present at the funeral, and the grand duke who represents him will be decidedly uncomfortable, because the funeral of one victim is often made the occasion by the nihilists for the creation of several more. The great reactionary minister, the man who never smiled, the man who announced when he assumed the premiership that attempts would be made to assassinate him, has realized his anticipations and gratified that strange ambition to die for the czar. The czar is a mush-headed incompetent, who resembles in looks and incapacity England's new George, and is a worthy successor to the other unspokeable Georges who have preceded him.

The death of Premier Stolypin is picturesque enough and sufficiently dramatic to satisfy the demands of either grand opera or of moving picture shows. To have a seat of honor in a brilliant audience, in the presence of the czar, and to have the assassin's bullet strike the Vladimir cross, only one of the many decorations that blazed upon his breast as gifts from his emperor; to be able after the bullets struck to rise and salute the czar with the sign of the cross, and then sink gradually down while the great orchestra played the Russian national anthem, "God Save the Czar," and finally, to be able to send to the emperor the message that life itself was gladly surrendered in his service—such a death fulfills all the romantic requirements. It is grand, splendid, medieval, touching, magnificent; but it is also death. When the trumpeters have hushed their fanfare, and the patriarch has uttered his eulogy of the man who stood next to the throne, and the marble slab has settled down over the crypt in the mausoleum beneath which the dead statesman lies, death will persist for all the lingering centuries, and Stolypin will be just a forgotten unit in the number of mighty pillars that have crumbled in the effort to support the intolerable weight of a throne.

Stolypin was a great man, a great minister, and a sincere believer that only by the iron hand and the constant exercise of tyranny could tyranny be supported upon the throne. In life he was a striking figure—tall, of massive mold, brown-eyed, dark-bearded, with grizzled hair, and a pale, set face that never smiled. No man and no woman, it is said, has ever seen his face illumined by a smile since that day in 1905 when, at a brilliant reception at his place in Tsarskoe-Selo, a state carriage drove up to the front entrance and from it there descended two men in the gold-embroidered uniforms of high military or legion officers, carrying huge bouquets of flowers in their white-gloved hands. The men were anarchists, disguised, and as soon as they reached the reception hall they threw their bouquets into the center of the butterfly group that they supposed surrounded the minister. Stolypin was not there, but his two daughters were there, and the flowers, as they fell, exploded with loud detonations, flinging stinging shreds of iron and filling the great chamber with the acrid fumes of burnt explosives. The bouquets each concealed a bomb, and thirty-two members of the assemblage were dead and fifty were wounded and writhing on the floor when the smoke lifted and Stolypin came rushing in from his office in another part of the building. Among the dead he found his two daughters and knew that he had paid a heavier price for his allegiance to the puppet monarch than he would pay when his own life was at last forfeited.

While you are shuddering at the list of thirty-two butterfly dead in the salon of the minister's palace, remember also that it was in 1905 that the czar issued a false and lying ukase saying that freedom of the press was granted, and within thirty days sent thirty-two editors, who took him at his word, to the white horror in Siberia.

The pale, white hands crossed upon the decorated breast of Stolypin are the hands that signed the orders for persecutions to the Jews, the Finns, the Poles and other races in Russia that the "Slavs" hate. It was Stolypin who, as governor general of Saratov, directed the long list of Cossack brutalities and massacres, in which hundreds of men and women were not only whipped in the streets by the horsemen, but were trampled beneath the horses' feet and shot down into bleeding masses of poverty and rags by volleys from the Cossack carbines.

The women and children that Stolypin ordered killed in Saratov were not grand duchesses and royal princesses. They were not surrounded by men in armor and hordes of secret service men and spies who would visit instant or at least certain death on their assailants. The riders who trampled them could laugh and jest as the poor and helpless went down, because they were in danger of no reprisal; but only by saying good bye to life could any one hope to avenge the infliction of the death that was ordered. Stolypin, moved in the vicious circle of cruelty, outrage, murder and assassination, and fell, in his turn a victim to the hideous system. The men who slew his daughters and wiped the smile forever from his face had seen the faces of old women crunched beneath the hoofs of Cossack horses. The pale, trembling young lawyer who fired the fatal shots that removed Stolypin was mad with frenzy from the sight of the suffering of the many and added another victim to Russia's endless chain of horrors; rather, two other victims, himself first—and verified for Stolypin and for himself the grim, red prophecy that those who take the sword shall perish by the sword.

HARRIMAN-HILL RAILWAY WAR

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 26.—The old rivalry between the Hill and Harriman railroad systems between the Missouri river and the Pacific coast has broken out afresh and it is said Harriman's Southern Pacific has just dealt Hill's Burlington line a staggering blow by cutting the latter line off from all San Francisco and California traffic. Conditions are such that neither the Interstate Commerce Commission nor the federal courts can interfere in the fight and from appearances the rival lines will be permitted to settle the affair in their own way. And this time the fight is being waged on the rails, not in the stock market. The entire trans-Mississippi country is the battlefield instead of the narrow confines of Wall and Broad streets. Despite the fact that this is the most titanic struggle the western railroad world has known for 25 years, it is being waged so silently that the big rivals are no longer standing together and working harmoniously, as they have done in the past decade. The cause of the fight is the ownership of a simple $2.50 on each ticket sold by the eastern lines to the Pacific coast, but the effect produced is tremendous. And still greater effects are promised by the generals in command of the campaign.

The situation is complicated by the fact that Hill, in the fight, has the assistance of the big Rock Island railroad, which is in a position similar to Burlington, while Western Pacific, the new Gould road to the Pacific, is aiding Southern Pacific. Union Pacific, the main trunk of the Harriman system, is, in the present fracas, only a "looker on" and a bystander, and is taking no part in the struggle. However, the latter road is reaping a golden harvest while the other lines "scrap" among themselves.

The trouble began brewing a year ago when the interstate commerce commerce ordered Southern Pacific and other roads to reduce fare from Ogden to the Pacific coast from $30 to $25, but did not order a reduction of the through fare from Missouri river

News From the Oil Fields

Deep Well at Spur, Texas.

Spur, Texas, Sept. 28.—An artesian well is being drilled at Spur and the driller last week passed the 2,300-foot mark. As Spur has an altitude of 2,300 feet, the bottom of the well is just reaching the sea level. After having passed through about 1500 feet of solid rock, almost without a change has taken place in the last hundred feet to sandstone, more or less porous, and there is already an inflow from this stratum which forces itself to the surface. Some of the strongest artesian flows, inexhaustible under pumping, do not reach the ground level, and it is evident that there must be a pressure of 800 pounds to the square inch in the Spur well to send the water to the top. There has been no other deep boring in this vicinity or for some seventy-five miles in any direction, and the result of the expensive experiment is being watched with widespread interest.

The drilling of the well is progressing with an intention to penetrate to 3,500 feet if necessary.

The well is now some nine hundred feet in depth. The latest development is the striking of a stream of salty water. The water stood eighty feet deep in the well, until cased off. The drilling is going on again, nicely. —Altus Democrat.

Fred Stevens and Clark Ranney are back from Frederick, Okla., a town across Red river from Electra, Texas. They report a rig up at Loveland Okla., a town this side of Wichita Falls, Texas.—Tulsa Democrat.

Word was received in Tulsa yesterday of the death of J. A. Heydrick, whose death occurred in the hospital at Butler, Pa., where he has been an invalid since the first of March. Mr. Heydrick was one of the best known map men in the country and had drilled a great many wells in the Pennsylvania field. He was the man who drilled the first well in Oklahoma, having taken a lease in the early 80's from the Indian chiefs, which well narrowly missed being drilled in the heart of the Glenn Pool. Mr. Heydrick afterwards found that it was necessary to have the approval of the Secretary of the Interior to the lease and gave it up. Four sons survive him; J. C. Heydrick who is in Butler and has had the care of his father for some time; W. H. Heydrick associated with Michael Murphy in the oil business at Oakland City, Ind.; G. T. Heydrick, who is living here in Tulsa at present, and L. C. Heydrick, who is at Electra, Texas; all being among the best known of the oil fraternity. They have the sympathy of the oil men in their sad bereavement.—Tulsa Democrat.

SLIGHT SCRATCH CAUSES DEATH OF A. C. GRIESNER

Pioneer Citizen of Wichita County Succumbs to Blood Poison After Weeks of Suffering.

A slight scratch on the thumb several years ago resulted in the death of A. C. Griesmer, a pioneer resident of Wichita county, at his home in the Alledale community Thursday morning at 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. Griesmer sustained a scratch while at work on his farm. From this slight wound his thumb became inflamed resulting finally in blood poisoning. At first his thumb was amputated, but this did not check the spread of the poison and later it became necessary to amputate his arm. He had become so weakened however, by the poison in his system and by the shock of the operation that he could not rally and died after lingering several weeks between life and death.

Mr. Griesmer was a native of Ohio and had been a resident here nearly twenty-five years. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

The funeral party left the family residence at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon reaching the Bowman church at about 3 o'clock, where the funeral service was held and the body laid to rest.

A Tribute From a Neighbor.

The following short sketch of the life and character of A. C. Griesmer has been given The Times by one of his old neighbors and friends:

"The Death Angel visited one of the happiest homes in this community at one o'clock this morning and claimed for its victim Brother A. C. Griesmer. He was born in Miltenburg, O., August 27, 1853. He purchased his home in this community in 1887 and was married November 4, 1889. He leaves a loving wife and two daughters to mourn their great loss.

GREAT MEETING OF ROMAN CATHOLICS

Fifth National Eucharistic Congress at Cincinnati Preceded With High Pontifical Mass.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 28.—The opening today of the Fifth National Eucharistic Congress of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States was preceded by the celebration of high pontifical mass in the cathedral. The event was a most memorable one, as with few exceptions all the dignitaries and diocesan heads of the church in this country participated. The numerous archbishops and bishops wore their purple robes and berets, which with the white linen robes of the priests, made a most imposing spectacle.

The Most Rev. Diomedo Falconio, the apostolic delegate at Washington, officiated at the mass, assisted by Archbishop Farley of New York. Moderators of Cincinnati and other high prelates. The sermon was preached by Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul and was an exposition of the divine institution of the holy eucharist.

The business sessions of the congress began this afternoon, with Bishop Maes of Covington in the chair. The sessions will continue for three days and will be followed on Sunday by a solemn procession of the sacrament. The sessions will be devoted to the consideration of "The Real Presence" and related doctrines. Archbishop Henk of New Orleans will preach the closing sermon.

The congress is held under the auspices of the Priests' Eucharistic League, which has for its object the promotion of devotion to the holy eucharist. The league has about 5,000 priests enrolled in the United States. Bishop Maes of Covington is the director general.

GOOD LUMBER NOW MADE FROM PAPER

Conservation Congress Leader Finishes Investigation Which Proves Demand Can Be Supplied.

Kansas City, Sept. 28.—So nearly perfect is artificial lumber, made from paper, that there is no longer cause for worry over forest conservation, said J. B. White, chairman of the executive committee of the National Conservation Congress, here last night.

He had just returned from a trip through the Eastern States. Much of his time was spent investigating the manufacture of lumber from paper.

A superior quality of artificial lumber can be manufactured cheaper than natural lumber can be grown. With 58 per cent waste paper, 22 per cent straw, 5 per cent jute and 16 per cent wood fiber, a ton of fiber board, one inch thick or 1,100 feet of inch lumber, can be produced.

It is said that Victor Leon, the librettist of 'The Merry Widow' and Leo Fall the composer of 'The Dollar Princess' who are responsible for this piece have evolved a musical comedy that causes laughter of the button bursting variety... quickly translated into many languages and produced in the principal cities of the world and is still being played in Berlin and London. Harry B. Smith made the adaptation for the American stage and the piece was produced at the Globe Theatre, New York last winter where it had a long and prosperous run. It was then taken to the Studebaker Theatre, in Chicago where it duplicated its success in New York. 'The Girl in the Train' is somewhat different from other light operas; its theme is bold and its dialogue more pointed...

music is a specimen of the advanced art of Leo Fall, and has a swing and swish to it that is distinctly Viennese. The score has so many big numbers and its music is so tricky that an augmented orchestra is employed to bring out the full power of the composition. The principal part is that of a judge before whom a suit for divorce is being tried. C. William Kolb, a German character comedian is cast for this role, and it is said that his humor is irresistible and that his every line and action provokes laughter. The plot is extremely funny and deals with the marital troubles of a young court secretary who leaving his wife at home takes a railway journey and meets a pretty actress on the train who cannot secure a berth; he promptly gives up his compartment to her and the conductor who sees the incident in the wrong light talks about it and creates a scandal with the result that the young wife sues for divorce. The play is in three acts. The first is the courtroom scene with Mr. Kolb as the susceptible judge, who falls in love with both ladies, taking evidence that causes screams of laughter. The second act is a masquerade scene and the third a seashore resort in Holland where all meet again, and the estranged couple are reunited and the judge marries the actress. There are two prima donnas in the cast, Olga Steck, formerly of Fritz Schell's Company appearing as 'the actress' and Violet Seaton, a singer of note, in the part of 'the wife.' There is also a chorus of beautiful girls and an augmented orchestra.

Too much cannot be said in favor of 'good' music for it has a soothing effect; it charms and gives inspiration. The music of 'The Girl in the Train' is said to be far above that of the ordinary musical comedy. It has that bewitching swing in the waltz numbers that carries one into the realms of musicland.

HABEAS CORPUS TEST OF PROHIBITION LAW.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 28.—The first habeas corpus action to test the validity of the amended prohibition law passed by the Legislature of 1911 was brought in the Criminal Court of Appeals today by W. J. Wilson from Carter county. Application for issuance of the writ was waived by attorneys for Wilson pending a hearing on the application, which was set for hearing Oct. 2 at 10 a. m.

Wilson alleges that he is held in custody of Sheriff Garrett at Ardmore on a charge of having in his possession at his office in a livery stable at Ardmore three quarts of alcohol in violation of Sec. 4, Chapter 70, Session Laws of 1911. This section of the law limits the amount of alcohol and other intoxicants a person may have in his home or place of business for his own use. Wilson asks release on a writ of habeas corpus on the sole contention that the amended prohibition law of 1911 is void because it contravenes the Constitution of the United States and the State of Oklahoma. Attorneys for the State and defendant agree upon a statement of facts in the case the only question brought to the court for its determination being the constitutionality of the act in question. Wilson claims that he had the liquor for his own use, which is not controverted by the county attorney.

The police say that the wolves will be shot upon sight wherever they may be found.

LONG STAPLE COTTON SELLS AT 22 CENTS

Clarksville, Texas, Sept. 28.—The highest price paid for long staple cotton on the streets of Clarksville during the season was paid by W. R. Moore to C. Hocker of this place for four bales this afternoon. The four bales brought 22 cents per pound.

Mr. Hocker sold a list of ten bales each medium staple, at 13.30 cents. The cotton was raised by a negro tenant on a farm belonging to Mr. Hocker sixteen miles north of town. The highest price previously paid for long staple cotton this year was 21 cents, which was received by Ed Ferguson last week. Only a portion of the crop of Red River county is being offered for sale, the farmers preferring to hold for better prices.
