A DECISIVE BATTLE WILL BE FOUGHT SOON

CLASH EXPECTED BETWEEN CHINESE AND IMPERIAL TROOPS BETWEEN CHAN KANG AND NANKING.

REBELS ARE CONFIDENT

Many Have Dead Relatives to Aveng and Their Enthusiasm is Amazing—Will Attack From Three Sides.

Shanghai, Nov. 18.—It was expected here this morning that the revolutionists and imperial troops would come to a clash somewhere between Chan Kang and Nanking. If the revolutionary forecast is correct this will be the beginning of the decisive battle of the war. Attacks have been carefully planned during the past three days. A large body of rebels with guns, provisions, ammunition and horses have been sent from Chan Kang by rail and are advancing on Nanking, 45 miles distant, also bodies of troops are converging on the imperial outposts with the object of delivering attacks from three sides simultaneously.

The equipment of the revolutionists is excellent and they are well officered, many of their leaders having had foreign military training. The enthusiasm of the troops is amazing. Many have dead relatives and all are wrought up to the highest pitch by the accounts of atrocities perpetrated at Nanking by General Chang's troops. Estimates of the strength of the imperial forces vary widely. The backbone of Chang's army appears to consist of 7,000 Shanghai troops who are well equipped with the short of ammunition and poorly equipped with artillery.

Imperial Troops Demand Pay. Peking, China, Nov. 18.—Governor of the Province of Honan has requested the immediate dispatch of three million taels with which to pay the troops, declaring that unless their wages are paid he will be unable to prevent the soldiers from joining the revolutionists and declaring the independence of that province. The revolutionists appear to be well supplied with funds which is in striking contrast to the imperial treasury.

Revolutionary Forces Recruiting. Amoy, Nov. 18.—Foreign consuls have assumed control of the imperial customs and postoffice and the dragon flags on these buildings have been lowered. Several days before Amoy declared for republic, the imperial authorities became ineffective and the consular refuse to recognize the provisional government pending the confirmation of its authority from Foo Chow the capital of the province.

Revolutionary forces are recruiting rapidly and detachments of picked men have been sent to the interior of the province to restore order. Today's reports from Chang Chow are that the factions there have reached an agreement and that fighting has ceased.

Strike Settled. Cleburne, Texas, Nov. 18.—The street car strike here was settled last night and the cars are running today.

Denton High Vs. Y. M. C. A. Gridiron Battle This Afternoon

The Denton high school football team engaged in a game with the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at the city baseball park, and if the appearance of the visiting team counts for much, the game is one of the most interesting which has ever been played in this city. The Y. M. C. A. boys expected themselves an confident of victory, as did also the members of the Denton team, and for this reason a close game is expected by all informed concerning the merits of the two teams.

Americans Ordered to Ports. London, Nov. 18.—Cable dispatches from Tien Tsin, today, announce that the American minister has issued preliminary orders to all Americans in the interior to take up their residence at once in the nearest port.

CASTRO DEFEATED AT SAN CRISTOBAL

REPORTED THAT FORMER PRESIDENT AND FORCE OF REBELS OVERWHELMED.

PRES. GOMEZ WAS READY

Had Troops Mobilized Ready to Fall On Castro at First Opportunity. Defeat Decisive.

London, Nov. 18.—The Venezuelan consul has received cable advices from Caracas informing him that ex-President Castro, at the head of a considerable body of revolutionists has met with disastrous defeat near San Cristobal. Castro's whereabouts has been a matter of uncertainty for several months. Venezuelan censors have allowed little news of him or the present revolutionary movement to sift through, but dispatches from neighboring countries have made it evident that a revolt of some seriousness was either brewing or already launched. Most of the advices however, have carefully insisted that Castro had no part in the uprising. Most of the recent news on the subject came from Willemstad Thursday last. This was to the effect that Castro was residing on his estate at Cucuta, Columbia on the Venezuelan frontier, which is less than 50 miles from San Cristobal. The moment Castro crossed the frontier he found himself face to face with serious opposition. President Gomez has had 3,000 men mobilized near the border ready to fall on Castro as soon as an opportunity is offered.

TEXAS COWBOY SAVES OWN LIFE

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 18.—William Hamilton, a cowboy from the Texas Panhandle, saved his life with a revolver when he fell into a corral of wild steers and the frightened animals threatened to trample him to death. Hamilton got to his feet and immediately drew a big revolver. He fired full in the face of the on-coming steers and crippled one. Then as the others gobbled short he seized one by the horns and rode it until the animal got close enough to the fence for him to scramble off and climb to safety.

Number of New Wells Located and Work Started This Week

The week just closing has seen prospecting for oil scattered over a large area in Northwest Texas, and in a score of communities within a radius of sixty miles from Wichita Falls locations for test wells have been made and in many instances material for derricks has been placed on the ground and work started.

Electric—Largest production in Texas and greatest average production per well of any field in the United States. Daily production exceeds 12,000 barrels and average per well is above 300 barrels per day.

Wichita Falls—Culberson Oil company drilling five miles northwest of the city. Wichita Falls Oil & Gas company will contract this week for drilling of a well on the Avis ranch about eight miles southeast. Kemp & Kell are preparing to drill on the Tyson farm two miles northwest of the city, and numerous other wells in prospect.

DINNER SERVED TO AUDITORIUM BUILDERS

Dinner was served today at the tabernacle ground, corner Tenth and Scott, to about one hundred men and boys, who are engaged in erecting the building. Fried chicken and hot light-bread rolls were the features with enough potatoes, peas, pickles, pies, coffee, etc., thrown in to provide a square meal for everyone.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMAN PAINFULLY SCALDED

Wichita Valley, running out of Wichita Falls, was severely scalded on the right side, right arm and right side of his face and head last night when a plug blew out of his engine while running about two miles south of Holiday. That he was not scalded to death he regards as miraculous.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED HENRIETTA TEAM 11 TO 0

In the football game played yesterday afternoon between the High School team and Henrietta, the High School was victorious by a score of eleven to nothing. The game was a hard fought one from start to finish, the result being in doubt until the end of the last quarter. A third game will now be necessary in order to determine which team is the stronger, as both have won one victory each, and have suffered one defeat.

COMMISSIONERS ACCEPT NEW COUNTY JAIL

The commissioners' court this afternoon accepted from the Van Dorn Iron Works Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, the completed steel work of the new county jail, and paid over to the representative of the company the contract price of $6,667. The court also went into the details of the finishing touches for the new building and arranged with Contractor Ernst for the final completion. There remains only a little mason work. Some of the plumbing and some work is to be done and the contractors expect to have this done and ready to turn over to the county in about twenty days.

TWO MEN KILLED WHEN FAST PASSENGER TRAIN STRUCK WAGON

Richardson, Texas, Nov. 18.—The outbound Houston & Texas Central passenger train the "Hustler" struck a wagon and team in the middle of town this morning demolishing the wagon and killing two men. They were Rev. W. O. Wallis, a retired Methodist minister, and R. C. Rippey, a farmer. The train does not stop here. One of the mules was killed. Wallis and Rippey were returning from the gin with a bale of cotton. They were caught on the crossing and apparently did not see the train approaching. A bale of cotton in the wagon was torn to pieces. Both men were prominent in the community.

U. S. TROOPS READY TO MARCH TO BORDER

Troops Ordered to Be in Readiness. Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Commanders of American troops in the vicinity of the Mexican border today were ordered to hold themselves in readiness to proceed immediately upon request from the proper federal officials to enforce the neutrality laws of the United States.

WAR DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES REGULAR TROOPS WILL REMAIN ON DUTY.

SECY. KNOX IS INSISTENT

Efforts of Texas and Federal Officials to Prevent Neutrality Violations Will Be Backed Up.

Torreon, Mexico, Nov. 18.—Martial law was declared today as a result of the general strike which began several days ago. No disorders so far have been reported.

Gomez Outlines Plans for Revolution. Mexico City, Nov. 18.—A revolution whereby he would overthrow Madero and place himself in the presidency is outlined in a letter which the Imperial has received from Emilio Vasquez Gomez, at San Antonio. He says he would declare the recent elections void, dissolve congress and establish the ideals on which the revolution was founded.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Probably as long as Gen. Bernardo Reyes and his following remain on the Texas side of the Mexican frontier the Federal Government will not relax its vigilance against the fomenting of fresh trouble from the American side against the established Government of Mexico.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT QUASHED

JUDGE KOHLSAAT REMANDS INDICTED BEEF PACKERS FOR TRIAL MONDAY.

THE PACKERS APPEAL

The U. S. Circuit Court Had No Power to Issue Writ, Judge Declares. In Issuing Order.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—The government won another move in its fight to bring to trial the nine indicted Chicago meat packers, when Judge Kohlsaat in the United States Circuit Court quashed a writ of habeas corpus issued several days ago.

Judge Kohlsaat held that the circuit court had no power to issue the writ, except in extraordinary circumstances and in the present case was without that right.

"To do so," he said in the decision, "would be to attempt to review the finding of the United States district court. The order of the court will be to quash the writ, remand the defendants for trial, and surrender them to their sureties." Levy Mayor, counsel for the packers, moved for an appeal to the Supreme Court. After hearing the arguments by the packers' attorney, Judge Kohlsaat refused to interfere with the trial of the packers scheduled to begin Monday in the court court. The packers, appealed to the Supreme Court.

COMMISSIONERS ACCEPT NEW COUNTY JAIL

The commissioners' court this afternoon accepted from the Van Dorn Iron Works Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, the completed steel work of the new county jail, and paid over to the representative of the company the contract price of $6,667. The court also went into the details of the finishing touches for the new building and arranged with Contractor Ernst for the final completion. There remains only a little mason work. Some of the plumbing and some work is to be done and the contractors expect to have this done and ready to turn over to the county in about twenty days.

Two Men Killed When Fast Passenger Train Struck Wagon

Richardson, Texas, Nov. 18.—The outbound Houston & Texas Central passenger train the "Hustler" struck a wagon and team in the middle of town this morning demolishing the wagon and killing two men. They were Rev. W. O. Wallis, a retired Methodist minister, and R. C. Rippey, a farmer. The train does not stop here. One of the mules was killed. Wallis and Rippey were returning from the gin with a bale of cotton. They were caught on the crossing and apparently did not see the train approaching. A bale of cotton in the wagon was torn to pieces. Both men were prominent in the community.

To Attend Opium Conference.

New York, Nov. 18.—Among the passengers sailing for Europe today on the steamship Lapland were several members of the United States delegation to the international opium congress which is to be held at the Hague next month. The party included Dr. Hamilton Wright of Maine and Henry J. Finger of California, who have been appointed delegates, together with the secretary, Frederick L. Huidekoper, and the assistant secretary, Wallace J. Young. Bishop Brent, the chairman of the delegation

This was made clear anew today by the announcement of the War Department that the additional regiments of cavalry and infantry on the Mexican border which were to have been withdrawn this month will remain on duty a while longer.

The soldiers have seen long service in the field and the War Department has an excuse to return them to the winter comforts of barracks life, but Secretary Knox on behalf of the State Department, was insistent that the troops remain to guard the frontier as long as this country is harboring a possible disturbing element against the peace of Mexico. This view finally won out and the efforts of the State officials of Texas, the Department of Justice and the customs officers to prevent violations of neutrality in Texas-Mexican border will be backed up by the two regiments of regular troops stationed on the border.

Report Expected Soon.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 18.—In the American Federation of Labor convention a report is expected soon from the committee on the president's report to which the resolution to appropriate $50,000 for the defense of McNamara was referred. The recommendation by the committee is expected to be followed by a lively argument.

Fowler Resumes Flight.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 18.—Aviator Fowler resumed his flight eastward at 10:55 this morning.

Morgan's Church to Celebrate.

New York, Nov. 18.—Beginning tomorrow, St. George's Episcopal Church, in East Sixteenth street, overlooking Stuyvesant Park, whose most distinguished communicant is J. P. Morgan, will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary as a parish. The celebration will cover three days and will embrace services of a religious, historical and educational character. St. George's was formerly the Chapel of Rest of Trinity Church, built by the mother church in Beekman street in 1752, to accommodate those who didn't want to go so far downtown as Trinity, at a time when Beekman street was considered a far uptown. In 1811 it was endowed by Trinity, and made a separate parish.

Collision Near Tucumcari.

Delhart, Texas, Nov. 18.—Fast freight No. 91 westbound on the Rock Island this morning collided head-on with a passenger train five miles east of Tucumcari, New Mexico. The failure of the telegraph lines makes it difficult to secure details. Brakeman George White and Fireman C. L. Moore are among those injured.

HOW BIG CONCERNS FIGHT EACH OTHER

Independence (Kan.) Reporter. There are wheels within wheels. It has been asserted many times that the Standard Oil Company also owns the Texas Company, but men in this field who have watched closely the operations of both companies do not take any stock in the story.

When the hearing was on at Houston both Mr. Cullinan and Mr. Sharp of the Texas Company on the witness stand attempted to give the impression that their company was being crushed by the Standard Oil Company.

The article very cleverly set forth that since the Magnolia Petroleum Company had entered Texas, the stock of the Texas Company had declined to $86.

This is just another step in the campaign of the Texas Company, with Mr. Cullinan at its Texas head to reopen the old Standard man hunt in Texas and through hatred to vouchsafe to the Texas Company a monopoly of the Texas oil business.

Independent oil companies operating in this part of the country of which the Texas Company is the largest hope to make Texas the base of the American petroleum oil business.

Opposing the realization of this hope of course, is the Standard Oil Company, the gigantic overshadowing oil trust, which has concentrated its refining operations chiefly at Chicago, and New York and established the base of the American oil trade at New York.

Officials of the Texas Company seem serenely confident that, if they can get just an even break with the Standard under state and federal law—no more than that—they will be able to hold their own and to steadily increase the volume of their profitable business.

Today Standard Oil, exploiting the southwestern oil fields, transports its crude oil by pipe line to refining stations at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Chicago and New York.

The Texas Company brings crude oil from Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas fields to its Dallas and Port Arthur refineries, refines it and ships it thence by rail and water through out the world's central and eastern portions of the United States.

that of the Texas Company in the oil trade of Texas and the southwest. The Pierce-Fordyce Association (successors to the Waters-Pierce Oil Company—64 per cent Standard), it has been understood, means to establish or purchase a refinery in this state.

There is a dramatic, unwritten story of the oil business in Texas and the Southwest which awaits for its historian. Beginning with the famous trust agreement of the early '80's, by which Standard Oil and H. Clay Pierce under the name of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, of which Standard Oil owned 66 per cent) divided the territory of the United States between them—Standard agreeing not to retail oil in Pierce's territory and Pierce agreeing to buy his refined oil from Standard's refineries and not sell refined oil in Standard's territory—dating from that agreement the oil trade's history made more history—financial, political and legal—than any other item in the long list of the Southwest's industries, lumber not excepted—and lumber by the way, has some mighty racy unwritten history yet to be put on paper.

The inquiry conducted by Franklin K. Lane, a member of the interstate commerce commission, was part of a general investigation which the commission is making with regard to oil pipe lines. It began in California, was transferred to Houston, went from there to Oklahoma and will move on to the East.

The interstate commerce act of 1906—the Hepburn law—contains in its preamble a line—an eleventh amendment—declaring oil pipe lines to be common carriers. It does not, however, elaborate this declaration into a set of regulatory rules, such as apply to railroads.

The Standard Oil Company, as such, does not own any pipe lines or refineries in Texas. The Prairie Oil & Gas Company admitted to be a standard concern, does own pipe lines in Oklahoma, one carrying crude oil from the Oklahoma fields to Whiting, Ind., and another carrying oil from the Oklahoma fields to Baton Rouge, La. The Baton Rouge line, in Oklahoma, is technically owned by the Oklahoma Pipe Line Company, a Standard Company. Under Oklahoma law he Standard is obliged to admit that its Oklahoma pipe lines are common carriers within that state.

The Texas Company, with headquarters in Houston, owns a thousand miles of trunk pipe line and an additional thousand miles of feeder line through which it brings crude oil from Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas fields to its refineries at Dallas and Port Arthur.

The legal powers of the federal government henceforth, at least under the Taft administration, seem likely to be exerted to restore so far as possible the old order of more or less free competition. How far the federal statutes can be made effective to restrain or break up—not merely legally but actually—the new centralized organization of the nation's interstate industries, remains to be seen. Men who control big competing industries seriously doubt whether President Taft and his attorney general will be able with the word of law to all back into being the vanished physical organization of American industries.

The Texas Company brings crude oil from Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas fields to its Dallas and Port Arthur refineries, refines it and ships it thence by rail and water through out the world's central and eastern portions of the United States.

Mr. E. A. Smith was down to the Miller lease, 11 miles southeast of Archer City with a party of supply men yesterday. He reports the rig already up for the Miller well, and drilling will commence Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Miller is a California oil operator who has taken leases on some large tracts in Archer county.

News From the Oil Fields

Grandfield Company Organized.

The local oil company, which has for the past several weeks been passing through a formative period, but had apparently struck on a financial snag and fouled its rudder, was galvanized into new life Tuesday by the arrival of W. R. Harrington of Kansas City, who has seven quarter sections of land just west of Grandfield.

A meeting of the citizens interested was held Tuesday night and adjourned until Wednesday afternoon, when it was proposed to reorganize the old company and secure a charter under the state laws.

At a meeting of the stockholders Tuesday afternoon Dr. J. H. Heben was made chairman and J. E. Harrington, secretary. It was decided to incorporate with a capital of $25,000 and articles of incorporation were very promptly drawn up for the new company by Attorney W. E. Lindblad, and in order to get quick action he was instructed to take the document to Oklahoma City in person and hurry the issuance of the charter.

The Enterprise is informed that $18,000 of the capital has already been paid in, and the remainder will be placed without any trouble.

It is proposed to put down the first well either on the Anderson or the Wright quarter section, both of which belong to W. R. Harrington—Grandfield Enterprise.

Producers Company's New Wells.

The Producers Oil Company is drilling in several wells this week, and some of them promise to be good ones. Wagoner No. 8 is on the same and as Corsican Co., Woodruff & Putnam No. 2, namely 1901 feet, and will be drilled in in the next day or so.

A few days fishing job is still in Stringer No. 1.

A rig is being built on the west side of the Blanner lease, offsetting the last River Oil Company's Allen No. 1. Tate has withdrawn his suit against the company and Tate No. 1 which has been shut down several weeks at a depth of 750 feet, will resume drilling next week—Enterprise News.

Corsicana Company's New Wells.

Putnam No. 7, one location north of No. 2 on the west line of Woodruff & Putnam lease is showing up for a good well at the 1540 foot sand.

No. 12, two locations from the east end on the north-line of the Woodruff & Putnam lease, is at the 1600 foot sand and is showing up excellently.

No. 2 Allen has been placed on the pump and is estimated at 300 or 400 barrels.

No. 2 Brown and Cross is flowing 300-300 barrels, natural.

The Colquitt-Ousley campaign for votes is being worked to a finish. The Cotton Conference is supposed to be the winning number. Colquitt tells the farmers what they already know and then Ousley faithfully records his sayings as wonderful, marvelous, the essence of wisdom.—Bonham.

Well, the conference of governors has been held, and Messrs. Colquitt and Ousley carried off the honors, but still the price of cotton continues to go down.

Norman E. Mack, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, according to an interview given out yesterday, says that ex-President Roosevelt is now an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for president, and believes it will be a neck-and-neck race between him and Taft. Mr. Mack, no doubt, bases his opinion upon the editorial appearing in the November Outlook upon "The Trusts and Taft's Policies," written by the ex-President.

The Dallas News says that little village in Alabama where eighteen men have been murdered within the last eight months is probably what is known as "a wide open town," where the commercial interests demand that personal liberty be allowed to have a full play and that nothing be done that tends to "hurt business." It is not within our province to condemn murder, nor do we propose interfering with the cause of any wrong more than we do the forty-seven homicides in Dallas within a like period, but we would like to know if the close vote upon the constitutional amendment last July tends to change the attitude of our esteemed contemporary upon the question of Statewide prohibition? If we remember aright, the News was opposed to the amendment and in favor of local self-government.—Houston Post.

If the Dallas News has not changed front on that question it has all the reason in the world for doing so now.

DRUNKEN MEN ON TRAINS.

Shall a train's crew in Texas assume the duty of guarding especially any passenger on the train who is drunk and more or less incapable of taking care of himself?

The question has come up before the Supreme Court of the State. A man drinking in a railroad train—admittedly drunk—under showing of having fallen or with having been thrown from a car platform and killed, leaves heirs to sue for damages. The basis of the suit in the original court in which damages were awarded against the defendant railroad company, was that owing to the man's intoxicated condition the train's crew did not guard him properly in his passing out upon the platform. upon the fact that the term "drunk" indicates a condition that is subject to many degrees of inebriety, Justice Dibble says:

An approval of this charge would be an approval of the doctrine in this State that the carrier is required to exercise greater care, caution and protection for passengers who are voluntarily drunk or intoxicated, than for those passengers who are sober and orderly, and that without consideration as to the degree of intoxication, whether it has reached the stage of hysteria, the height of generality, the daredevil spirit of producing incapacity of self care, are inseparable of those acts that menace limb and life. To such a rule we cannot subscribe.

The Express heartily endorses Justice Dibble's point of view. Under the Texas statutes a man—having his own liquor with him in a train—violates the law if he shall drink alone from his own decanter. If in this case the man got his degree of drunkenness in the train, he did so against the law. If he came into the train drunk it certainly was not equitable that the few men in a train's crew should have given service to the drunken man to the neglect of sober passengers.

Even if it should be held that a station agent should not have sold a ticket to a drunken person—that such a person in drunken condition should be prohibited from entering a car—it is too well known that a friend at the station may buy the ticket and help the half-helpless man aboard without suggesting more than that the friend is lame. The soberest man that ever lived, moving toward a platform of a car on a rough bit of track, often gives an excellent imitation of a man wholly intoxicated. Furthermore, in hundreds of cases of "sleepy drunks" a trainman would need to depend upon his sense of smell of liquor to determine whether the sleepy man has even touched liquor.

We might add as a suggestion additional to the law against drinking on trains in Texas, that its intent could be strengthened by prohibiting a man known to be drunk from boarding a train beyond the next station where he might be put off with a conductor's check reading his passage through after he has recovered from his condition. And yet in this most earnest effort to comply with this suggested law, a novice might estimate the suits for damages that would originate from such a law in six months' practice—provided the novice could write down a long string of figures.—San Antonio Express.

Those papers opposing the candidacy of Morris Sheppard for the senatorship, lose an opportunity to say that Sheppard, being a Woodmen of the World, is counting on the united support of that organization. Doubtless Mr. Sheppard is a member of that organization, and is held in high esteem by its membership. Such a man would honor any organization, secret or otherwise, but that does not, necessarily mean that because of his being a Woodman that all the others are bound to vote for him. Secret orders as a rule, have as little to do with politics as possible, and if all the Woodmen give Morris Sheppard their undivided support there will be other reasons than that he is merely a member of the order. There are thousands of voters in Texas not members of the Woodmen of the World and who have never seen Morris Sheppard who will give him their support for the reason they are acquainted with his record and from that have him sized up as a clean, honest man, and in point of ability to represent the great State of Texas on the floors of the United States Senate, the peer of any one of his opponents already announced, or of any that may now have the matter of becoming a candidate for the senatorship under consideration.

HARMON'S ANTI-TRUST ACTIVITY DISCUSSED

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—A general attack upon the decree of the Circuit Court of New York in the dissolution of the American Tobacco Company and a specific comparison of the activities of Attorney General Wickersham and former Attorney General Judson Harmon in enforcing the Sherman anti-trust law against great combinations enlivened yesterday's hearing of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which is investigating the trust problem with a view to new legislation.

Senator Pomerene of Ohio, on vigorous questions directed toward H. B. Martin, a witness, asked if he knew of "any justification for the head of a department of the Government to take the position that he will not enforce the criminal provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law." "There appears to be little effect in the Department of Justice to enforce the criminal provisions of the law," said Senator Pomerene. "Do you know of any authority which justifies an Attorney General's position that he may enforce the statutes in the civil courts, but decline to enforce its criminal provisions? I regard the course of the department in its failure to enforce this provision as most reprehensible."

Senator Oliver replied to the attack on the Attorney General. He wanted to know what the witness thought of the comparatively reprehensibility of an Attorney General who actively and successfully enforces a law like this and proceeds toward successful civil prosecutions as compared with one of his predecessors who did not, and who practically declared the law a dead letter.

"I refer to former Attorney General Judson Harmon of Ohio," said Mr. Oliver, looking across the table to Mr. Pomerene.

Senator Pomerene declared it was not Mr. Harmon, but his predecessor, Richard Olney, who had said in substance that the law was a dead letter. Mr. Harmon, he said, took up and pushed to a decision in the Supreme Court the trans-Mississippi case and made every effort to revive the Sherman law.

The dissolution decree in the tobacco case was characterized during the hearings, as a construction of the Sherman law that failed to restore competition or meet the spirit of desired trust control.

Senator Cummins said he did not believe there could be actual competition enforced under the present Sherman law.

Changes in the Sherman anti-trust law to prohibit such a reorganization as that sanctioned in the American Tobacco Company case and to prevent such delays in prosecution as have occurred in the beef trust hearing, were declared necessary by Senator Cummins today at the hearings before the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate.

Questioning H. B. Martin of the Anti-Trust League, Senator Cummins referred to the decree in the tobacco case authorizing reorganization of four companies and called attention to the announced purpose of the Department of Justice not to interfere with the reorganization.

"I do not believe the organization of four companies will restore competition, but in the minds of the authorities it is apparently in harmony with the anti-trust law," said Senator Cummins.

"In my opinion the anti-trust law will not maintain competition, and it ought to be amended and strengthened."

Mr. Martin said the Anti-Trust League, of which he is secretary, proposes to fight the dissolution decree in

OIL LOTS FOR SALE ELECTRA OIL FIELD $10.00 EACH

The Powell Oil and Development Company owns in fee simple 211 acres of land situated about three miles south, 63 degrees east from the Electra Oil Fields. This company is putting 87 acres of this land on the market for the purpose of developing holdings.

The land is a part of the H. & G. N. R. Survey of land located in Wichita County, Texas, Survey No. 21, Abstract No. 142. Oil men of experience consider holdings as being in the heart of the oil bearing territory for the reason that the geological survey marked by the government shows that the oil strata runs northwest and southeast from the town of Electra.

The first shallow oil encountered is about three and a half miles southeast from our holdings. This 87 acres of land is near enough the railroad to afford shipping facilities. It is also within one mile of a two hundred acre tract bought by the Fordyce Oil Company for tankage purposes.

OUR PLAN. There are 6188 oil lots as shown by plat on file with the county clerk of Wichita County. Each lot contains 690 square feet. The purchaser of each lot is entitled to one share of capital stock of the company, when same is finally organized. When one half of the lots are sold we will at once begin operations on a deep well to be put down to a depth of 2,000 feet, unless oil or gas in paying quantities is found at a less depth, and when well is completed it will be turned over to the stockholders to be managed by a Board of Directors. 100 lots in the center of the field will be reserved for the deep well. The price of these lots is $10 cash in hand.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County-Greeting:
You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Wichita for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, Jos. Rinefeldt, whose residence is unknown to be and appear before the Hon. County Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be held in the County of Wichita at the Court House thereof, in Wichita Falls, Texas, on the 4th day of December, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 28th day of Oct. A. D. 1911, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1493 wherein J. R. McMullen is plaintiff and Jos. Rinefeldt is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

Suit upon two certain promissory notes for the sum of $250.00 each, executed by defendant, on Sept. 28th, 1910, to M. J. Moran, bearing date on the day and year last aforesaid, and payable to order of said Moran at Wichita Falls, Texas, due 60 days after date and January 1st, 1911, respectively, bearing 10 per cent per annum interest until paid, and providing for usual 10 per cent additional for attorney's fees if collected by law or placed with attorney for collection. Plaintiff alleges that said M. J. Moran transferred said notes and lien thereon, and that plaintiff has placed said notes in the hands of an attorney for collection; that said notes are entitled to following credits, to-wit: the 60 day note, Sept. 30, 1910, $50.00; Nov. 3, 1910, $100.00; Feb. 1, 1911, $50.00; Feb. 13, 1910, and note due Jan. 1st, 1911, $50.00; that defendant has not amount paid on said notes $550.00 leaving a balance of principal of $150.00, besides interest and attorney's fees; that said notes are past due and unpaid, and defendant, though often requested, refuses to pay same or any part thereof, to the plaintiff's damage in the sum of $300.00; that defendant, for purpose of securing said notes, did on Sept. 26, 1910, convey to M. J. Moran who transferred said lien to plaintiff the following described personal property, to-wit: one 38 Overland Automobile, 25 horse power, No. 68, being same car purchased by M. J. Moran; 1 John Deere Lister and Planter combined; 1 Poland China sow with 8 shoats, each weighing about 100 pounds, and sow about 250 pounds, 1 dark brown mare, 7 years old marked O K on left hip, 16 hands high; 1 black mare, four years old, named Delia, 14 hands high; 1 white horse, named Little Star in forehead, about 16 hands high; 1 surrey, two seats and buggy harness; 1 heavy britchen and harness; 1 lumber wagon 3 1/4 inch; 1 Jersey cow, 6 years old, unbranded; 1 red cow, 3 years old unbranded; that said conveyance is described and set forth in a certain Chattel Mortgage filed September 25, 1910 in Chattel Mortgage records, Wichita County, Book 14, Page 154; that on March 11, 1911, and other dates plaintiff, at special instance of defendant, repaired and furnished material on said Overland Automobile at various times to the value of $91 for which defendant agreed to pay; that said Automobile is in possession and has remained in possession of plaintiff for the charges last aforesaid, and upon which he asserts his lien for labor and material furnished; that defendant has failed to pay said account, although same is past due and unpaid, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $100.00.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment for his debts, interest, attorney's fees, costs of suit, for foreclosure of his Chattel Mortgage Lien on above described personal property, and for foreclosure of his lien for labor and material on said Automobile furnished and performed and that same be decreed to be sold according to law, and for general and special relief.
HERIN FALL NOT, And have you before said court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Wichita Falls, this, the 4th day of November, A. D. 1911.

George Stalter, 70, feeling death approaching, did not propose to have any fight over a will disposing of his estate at Lima, Ohio.
He paid all his debts, bought a coffin, paid in advance for the funeral, found he had a cash balance of $595.44, and made out 72 checks for $8.27 each for his 72 heirs. He wrote letters to accompany them, sealed and addressed them, and put them in the bank to be mailed after his death, which took place a few days later.

HOWARD HOTEL WILL OPEN NEXT SATURDAY

The new Howard Hotel will be formally opened next Saturday, Nov. 25. By that time it is expected the new office fixtures will be installed, and this with work that has already been done will make the place one of the prettiest in the city.
In the opening of the new Howard some important changes are also announced in the policy of the management as well as in the plan of operation. Until the first of the year it will be conducted on the European plan, after which a dining room will be added, and patrons will have the choice of either the American or European plan. The Howard will be conducted as a strictly first class hotel, catering to the best class of trade, and no objectionable features will be permitted.

Trapper Kills About 100 Wolves.
San Angelo, Texas, Nov. 18.-Killing eleven big wolves since October 10, last, John Corbett, the well-known West Texas trapper, says he has terminated all the wolves, with the exception of one, in Reagan county and the western half of Irion county and the northern part of Crockett. He has been trapping in that section the last eighteen months, and during that period he has killed about 100 lobos which he was paid $25 apiece by ranchmen and $5 per scalp by the county. A striking evidence of the wolf's strength is the fact that one recently killed a 2-year-old steer.

P. W. Holston and his bride have arrived from Hillsboro, where they were married last Tuesday. The bride was Miss Myrtle Peck. The entire membership was divided among these committees and each lady will be asked to make the bazaar a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Woodhouse and daughter, Addie, will leave next week for Tampico, Mexico, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse were here when the Fort Worth and Denver was built into the little settlement and have many friends who will wish them success and comfort in their new home.

The members of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Carrigan, 1106 Austin street, on the evening of Friday, November 24th, for the purpose of effecting an organization with improvement as the guiding motive. The choir is now under the instruction and leadership of Mrs. Alleh, of the Wichita Falls Conservatory of Music, who will tender her services for an indefinite length of time.

The Christian Endeavor social which was to have been held at the Carrigan residence on Austin street, tonight, has been postponed until some future date on account of the death of Lee McEwell, which occurred last night. Several of the members of the Endeavor were most intimate friends of Lee, and for this reason and out of respect to him the social has been postponed.

In Honor of Mrs. Sublette. Mrs. Mat Noble was hostess at a delightful party at her home at 1813 Ninth street yesterday afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 o'clock in honor of her sister, Mrs. P. B. Sublette of Nacodoches. There were players for seven tables and a very delightful afternoon was spent. Following the games dainty and delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Sublette will probably remain here another week.

A Novelty at the Ruby. A novelty in moving pictures is the Pathe Weekly, shown at the Ruby Theatre for the first time this week. The Pathe Weekly is a resume, in motion pictures, of the important news events of the week, shown in pictures much after the style of the illustrated weeklies, except that the views are in moving pictures.

The vauveller act at the Ruby this week has also been a very attractive feature of the program. The team is Willis and Esabelle, billed as an Australian novelty act. Willis is one of the best ventriloquists ever seen on the local stage, and Miss Esabelle gives a number of very pleasing songs.

Girls Basket Ball Team. The girls of the Senior class of the High School met yesterday afternoon and organized a basket ball team. An effort will be made to secure games with teams in nearby towns. The following officers were elected: Miss Della Young, chairman; Pollie Hale, corresponding secretary; and Edith Luecke, treasurer. Miss Parker has consented to train the team. The following girls will be candidates for positions on the team: Della Young, Marie Johnston, Goldia Morris, Mabel Cloud, Mamie Hall, Tommie Hale, Edith Luecke, Mabel Hord, Dorothy Beavers and Monic Melver.

Y. W. C. A. Bazaar. The active members of the Y. W. C. A. met Wednesday to perfect arrangements for their bazaar which will be held the 15th and 16th of December. It was decided to have five attractive booths with the following in charge: Mrs. Harry Robertson, the hand painted china booth; Misses Benson and Gardner, assisted by Mesdames McDowell and Harisook, the doll booth; Misses Nellie and Ward Mary Gibson, the California perfume toilet articles booth; Misses Pope, Mitchell and Stratton, assisted by Mrs. Reid, the market booth;

The Art Literature Club met in regular session Tuesday, November 14th with Mrs. Chas. Bean. Ten members answered roll call with current events, and then Miss Childers took the leadership and the club reviewed its work for the past four meetings. This review was rendered more than usually interesting by Miss Childers, who rounded out and filled in the lessons with the contemporary history of the time in which the artists lived. A paper on Chester French, by Miss Ward, and Mrs. Novy by Miss Childers, finished a program replete with interest. The club is now settling down for the winter's work and a strong interest is being shown by our leaders and members. We hope our other four members who were detained by illness and unexpected business will be able to attend the next meeting. After enjoying delicious refreshments of chocolate and cake, lemon jelly and rich cream, we adjourned to meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Hartsook.

Unity Club Meets. Roman Literature was the study lesson for the Unity Club at its meeting at the home of Mrs. H. B. Patterson at her home on Tenth street yesterday afternoon. Most of the members were present and a very interesting afternoon was enjoyed.

The program was opened by a musical number by the hostess and was followed by the roll call when current events were discussed. Mrs. A. H. Carrigan contributed a very interesting and thoughtful paper on "The Influence of Greece on Roman Literature." Miss Jewell Kemp read an interesting discussion on the "Poets Who Influenced Rome."

Following the program dainty refreshments were served. The club will meet next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Allen, 1105 Barnett street, and a number of ladies were present to enjoy the fascination of this game.

The guests arranged themselves around three tables, and after the final score had been counted up it was learned that Mrs. O. T. Bacon had won the largest number of games. No prize was given, but Mrs. Bacon was acknowledged as the champion.

After the games had been finished a salad course, followed by one of ice cream, was served, during which many interesting topics were discussed by the members of the club. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Allen's hospitality were: Mesdames T. W. Roberts, Eugene Sherrod, A. E. Myles, O. T. Bacon, Mendel, T. T. Reece, Frank Blair, Wiley Blair, Dr. Jones, Morris Marcus and the Misses Lucile Sherrod and Shakelord of Mississippi, who is here as the guest of Mrs. Sherrod.

After having stoutly insisted for several seasons past that only through a blouse matching the coat and skirt in color could a two-piece costume be saved, Paris women have gone to the other extreme this season, by adopting with enthusiasm white and cream colored blouses. But these blouses are chiefly of one particular kind, the models of fine net, daintily embroidered, wrought with fine hand tucks, sometimes lace-trimmed. These have taken the place of the fine lingerie blouse and are worn by Parisians even with the heaviest of wool velvet suits, offsetting to some extent the exceeding warmth of the woolly and furry and fleecy materials which the tailors are exploiting this fall.

These net blouses most often in front under some sort of frill, though this is not obligatory and an appearance of front opening is often combined with an actual back opening. The sleeves are invariably long, with cuffs of some sort, possibly only tucked around the arm and with clusters of tiny horizontal tucks on the inner seam at the elbow to give elbow blouses and with enough vertical tucks in the sleeve to give it some slight droppered designs on fllet nets are to be had which, when combined with marquisettes or other sheer materials produce some stunning effects. Real hand-made fllet laces may be had with hand worked designs, but the effect and finish of the machine made imitations are very similar, and these are the goods that will be bought by most women. Macramé, Irish crochet lace, Cluny still be much used. Sleeves for evening wraps are made very large, and among the new models are those having the long shoulder line with the sleeves attached. Draped skirts are as yet only moderately successful on this side of the water, though their popularity in Paris is very great. Ribbon trimmings are still in high favor for millinery.

substance or body so that it will not be too limp. Very often a plaited frill of the ne falls over the hand, finishing the close fitting cuff, and sometimes there is a frill around the top of the high tucked collar; but this is often most unbecoming and should be adopted warily. Charming little novelties of detail are introduced into these ne blouses despite their general family resemblance; and of course hand embroidered and fine laces can make the little trifles surprisingly expensive, though some of the simpler hand made models have quite as chic an air as the more ornate.

There are also many very modish blouses in soft white satin and white crepe. These are on the line with which the French call tailored, though like the French tailored costumes, the models are far from having the severity once associated with the phrase "tailor made." Some of the blouses, however, do to a certain extent correspond with the New York idea of the tailor made shirtwaist; in that they are simply plaited or tucked from the shoulder, open down the front and have long sleeves.

This severity is usually softened in one way or another, usually by delicate frills of net or lace. One popular model which is seen with variations in almost all of the exclusive importing houses, has a plaited frill of fine lace or fllet or chiffon crossing the front of the simply tailored white-satin blouse diagonally. Little buttons and simulated buttonhole loops of the white satin are the only other trimmings. This model is seen with white chiffon or net frill bordered by a narrow-bow of black chiffon or net and with buttonholes bound narrowly in black, the touches of black with the white being very effective.

The plain silk blouse is undoubtedly extremely fashionable and popular at the present time, yet a blouse of chiffon, exactly matching the color of the suit with which it is worn, when mounted over some bright-colored satin, is such a pretty relief from the soberness of the one-toned gown that many women cling to it in spite of what certain fashion makers may say.

This blouse may be indisputably a part of the costume and yet not be unbecoming in its dark coloring; and it can be made as simple or as elaborate as one pleases. For this reason the velvet blouse will remain in first fashion throughout the winter season, although it will be seen in no variety. It is asserted that lace will be used in greater profusion than ever before, so one may look for blouses of all-over lace in a heavy weave, veiled with chiffon, tulle or mousseline de sole.

Every indication points to a tremendous increase in the popularity of laces. It is predicted that not only will the heavier types of laces be used during the winter seasons, but that even the very light varieties will be employed more extensively as the season advances. Heavy laces, such as real Venice, Cluny, fllet and Irish effects, will be much worn as well as the machine made imitations of these laces. The popularity of cotton and silk marquisettes will make Venice laces great favorites. Beautiful patterns of lace or em-

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK
Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—J. Ogden Armour and a dozen other of the great Chicago packers are to be arraigned in the United States District Court in Chicago Monday for trial on indictments alleging violations of the criminal provisions of the Sherman anti-trust act in the alleged maintenance of an "unreasonable" conspiracy to restrain the meat industry of the country. The Federal government has spent eight years in its investigation of the alleged "beef trust" and an endeavor to bring the principals to the bar.

The so-called Steel Trust Investigating Committee of the House of Representatives is to resume its hearing in Washington Monday. It is expected the first hearing will be directed toward raising a charge for the transportation of ore by the steel trust roads in Minnesota. J. Pierpont Morgan and Andrew Carnegie are scheduled to appear before the committee and their testimony is awaited with keen anticipation.

Interest in the work of the Interstate Commerce Commission is expected to center in the proposed investigation into the business of the express companies. The first hearing is to be held in New York Wednesday. The express companies have shown some disposition to oppose the investigation and it is not expected that any information will be gained in the matter except as the result of a strenuous fight.

The "Underwood for President" boom probably will be heard from during the week. In Birmingham a big banquet is to be given Thursday night in honor of the minority leader in the House. The affair has been arranged by the Democrats of Alabama and will be attended by prominent party leaders from all over the South.

The annual football game between the eleven of the West Point and Annapolis academies will be played in Philadelphia Saturday and will be made an occasion for the usual large and brilliant gathering of army and navy officers, public officials and society folk.

Currency reform will be the all-absorbing topic at the annual convention of the American Bankers' Association, which will assemble in New Orleans Tuesday and continue in session through the greatest part of the week. Other conventions of the week will include the National Road Congress in Richmond, Va., and the annual meeting of the Mississippi-to-Atlantic Inland Waterway Association, in Montgomery, Ala.

A number of notable men and women are to observe their birthday anniversaries during the week. Sir Wilfred Laurier's seventieth birthday, on Monday, will be fittingly marked by the Liberal members of the Dominion parliament. Hetty Green, the "world's richest woman," will attain her seventy-sixth year Tuesday and four days later Andrew Carnegie, who has just given further evidence of his desire to

New York Horse Show Opens.
New York, Nov. 18.—Well known horse lovers from many cities throughout the United States and Canada were here today to attend the opening of the National Horse Show. It is the twenty-seventh annual event of its kind in the metropolis and the last horse show to be held in Madison Square Garden, which is to be razed next spring to make way for a new office building. In all essential respects it shows this year closely resembles its predecessors. Both the entries and the prize offerings are slightly in excess of the previous high figures and the program pays more attention to the soldier horsemen than heretofore. Otherwise it is the same old show, as gorgeous and brilliant as high-stepping horses, beautiful men in magnificent gowns, music, lights and other accessories can make

TO BE TRIED FOR MURDER OF HUSBAND

Denver, Colo., Nov. 18.—Great interest is manifested here in the case of Mrs. Gertrude G. Patterson, the opening of whose trial upon the charge of having murdered her husband, Charles A. Patterson on September 25, last, is set for next Monday, in the Criminal Court of this city. Both the State and the defense are reported to be ready for the trial and it is expected that the proceedings will be unusually interesting and sensational.
The tragical death of Charles A. Patterson, formerly a promising young man with a bright mind and a fine athletic record, but, at the time of his death a physical wreck suffering from tuberculosis, was the culmination of several years of misery owing to domestic infidelity. Patterson came from a good family. His mother is the principal of one of Chicago's public schools and his brother, Harry S. Patterson, is one of the counsel for the International Harvester Company.
Charles A. Patterson was a high school student in 1907 and stood well in his studies besides being one of the crack athletes of the school. While roller skating in the winter of that year when he won the championship of Illinois, Charles became acquainted with Gertrude Gibson, a handsome and attractive girl a few years older than he. It seemed to be a case of mutual love at first sight, although later events had a strong tendency to make this match appear in a somewhat different light. It was the girl who proposed marriage and the boy was only too willing to accept the proposal. They were married in Chicago in 1908 and for a while seemed to live happily in a handsomely furnished flat on the South side.

The marital happiness, however, did not last long. Confessions which his young wife was said to have made to him concerning her former relations to Emil W. Strauss, head of the firm of Strauss, Eisenrath & Co., clothing manufacturers in Chicago, changed young Patterson's life from happiness to misery. He began to suspect that his wife, although she had tried to minimize her guilt in her confessions and had asserted that she had completely severed her relations with Strauss, was not true to him, but continued her intercourse with Strauss and received money from the latter.
Only a few months after her marriage to Patterson Gertrude Patterson left her home and went to Europe, where, it is said, she traveled several months with Mr. Strauss. During her absence Patterson had an attack of pneumonia, which left him an invalid, suffering from tuberculosis. He was not a strong character, and though knowing his wife's past and realizing that he had ample cause for jealousy, he continued to love her and would have willingly condoned all her past offenses, had she reformed and remained true to him. Partly on account of his physical condition, partly because of the unrest and unhappiness which poisoned his life the young man, who was only twenty-six years of age, was unable to work and his mother and his brother supported him.

When Gertrude Patterson returned from Europe, her husband took her back and for a while peace seemed to be reigning in their home. Patterson's health, however, failed so rapidly that he went to Denver, accompanied by his wife. The change of climate only temporarily benefited Patterson's condition. After six or seven months he became so ill that he entered a sanitarium for consumptives. His wife, on September 10, filed a suit for divorce against him in Denver, charging cruelty and about a week later Patterson filed a suit in Chicago against Strauss, asking $25,000 damages for alienating his wife's affections.

On the afternoon of September 25 last Mrs. Patterson called at the sanitarium and asked for an interview with her husband, hoping to induce him to withdraw his suit against Strauss. They took a walk in the suburb of Montclair and during an altercation Mrs. Patterson, it is charged, shot and killed her husband with a revolver, firing two bullets in his back. She was arrested and upon the testimony of several witnesses formally charged with murder. When arraigned she pleaded not guilty and claimed that she had fired the shots in self defense.

DANGER IN DELAY.
Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Wichita Falls People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy and Bright's disease, follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys and have always the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Wichita Falls.

H. J. Awker, 301 Scott Ave., Wichita Falls, Tex., says: "I know from personal experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for kidney trouble. For years I was bothered by rheumatic pains that sometimes rendered me almost helpless. I finally learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a supply I used them with satisfactory results. I have taken them occasionally during the past six years and have always received prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SOON

comes the day when the stately American gobbler places his majestic head beneath the gullotine, the emerald merchant gets as busy as a prairie dog with two holes, and the small boy begins to make mental measurements of his stomach capacity, wondering if it will hold more than it did last year. The good housewife busies herself preparing all the highly palatable indigestion promoters that have tickled the tastes of the epicurean kings since Methusalem got out of the Castoria division. Everybody seems glad, even the town dog adds an extra wag of cheer to his caudal appendage, on which has hung so many tomato cans and even the crouch so far forgets himself as to smile and admit that the sun has a perfect right to rise and set. All this is occasioned by the fact that the foremost nation of earth worships at the shrine of the Prince of Peace, who in Gethsemane paid the greatest debt that mankind ever owed and is about to give thanks to Him who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb and at whose beck and call this system of worlds and myriad of moon move. But there is a pain for every pleasure, a grief for every gladness, and an awakening to every dream—in the cold gray dawn of the morning after—Don't forget we have what you will want, the sequel to the story is mustard plasters, dyspepsia tablets, headache stoppers and Epsom salts. Our delivery service is ball bearing.

MARCHMAN'S DRUG STORE FREE DELIVERY 702 Indiana Avenue Phone 124

$10.00—Reward—$10.00 We want every family in Wichita Falls to test our fresh roasted coffee, and see the difference between it and goods roasted out of town. We know that one pound means repeat orders, and are willing to pay something for that first order. Have hit upon the following plan—Commencing Wednesday, November 15th until December 1st we will take orders for a special blend at 35c per pound. This coffee to be roasted by us and delivered the same day it is roasted. Each pound purchased entitles the purchaser to submit a name for this particular blend and we will pay the party who submits the most appropriate name (which we will adopt for this blend) the sum of Ten Dollars. We are to be the sole judge, but the Ten Dollars will be paid to someone who submits a name for the coffee. The coffee will be delivered and award made as soon as possible after December 1st—which will be within the first five days of the month. Our solicitors will make a canvas of the city but that no one may miss the opportunity we will accept telephone and mail orders and orders may be left at the store. Now we promise you will get more than full value for your 35c and in addition you get a chance at the $10.00. If the coffee don't make good we are the loser as we are staking our reputation as roasters on this deal. All coffee sold by us under the name adopted will be exactly like the first pound. As these orders will be small will expect to collect on delivery. O. W. BEAN & SON Grocers and Roasters of Fine Coffees
