ROCKEFELLER WAS HARD UP

SO GATES TOLD MERRITT WHO BELIEVED HIM THEN—NOW KNOWS HE LIED.

DELAYS WERE BRUTAL

Gates Efforts Were Just to Hold Him Off—Oil King Said He Never Speculated.

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 22.—Witnesses who had been summoned to testify before the House Steel Trust Investigation Committee have been notified to come to Washington at the present session of the committee—and it is probable that the inquiry will close for the present after Leonidas Merritt of Duluth finishes his testimony today relating to the Rockefeller loans in the Maraba ore properties in 1902. It is probable that the full committee cannot meet until December to act on the protest of the Steel Corporation that the hearing should not be continued at present on account of the government's suit against the corporation.

Merritt related how in 1902 he went to New York with Gates to see Rockefeller. Gates urged him to accept a consolidation of interest proposed by Rockefeller. "Gates took me before Rockefeller," said Merritt. "I felt honored, by being called before such a magnate. He seemed to be a kindly, brotherly sort of fellow. He talked about the weather and asked after my family. He said as we would agree to the consolidation he proposed, he would take care of us. He also said he never speculated and for that reason would not take any stock in the consolidation."

Witness said Gates told him Rockefeller was hard up. "By Jolly," Merritt added, "I believed him then, but now I know that Gates lied."

Merritt said it was a brutal way in which he was delayed in the steps of the deal proposed by Rockefeller, saying, "in the meetings Gates merely tried to talk time away. One entire meeting that cost sixty dollars was wasted on a discussion of five dollars he had paid to a bookkeeper. I didn't realize then that the delays were just an excuse to hold us off."

Chairman Stanley of the committee was asked at this juncture if he thought the testimony competent to the inquiry. He replied: "The chair feels that right at this minute he is

DRILLING WATER WELLS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

There is being drilled on the premises of the Cream Bakery on Seventh street, a test well for pure soft water, which if struck will be utilized to fill the wants of the bakery. Work began on this well this morning, and it will probably be finished in two or three days time.

In reaching a determination to drill for this water, Mr. Stampfl was guided by the knowledge that a stream of the purest, clearest and softest water to be found in this city, is known to flow somewhere in the vicinity. A well recently drilled for the Dobson Electric Company has already tapped this stream, as has also three wells put down by Pond's Laundry, which firm has been using water in the operation of their laundry from this source exclusively, for some time, and the management states that better satisfaction could not be given by any water.

If the stream is really tapped by the Stampfl well, the water will be used with eight inch casing, and will be drawn from the well by means of the electric power system which has been installed in the Cream Bakery for some time. It is found to be as pure as it is claimed to be, this water will be tapped by a number of other business firms in this city in the near future.

performing the greatest public service he ever did in his life."

"In connection with the Interstate Commerce law," asked the steel attorney.

"To humanity," replied Stanley.

Merritt later said that he told Gates in connection with the consolidation proposed by Rockefeller: "Go back to John D. Rockefeller and tell him that when I steal for a living I steal for myself."

PLOT TO ROB HOTEL SAFE IS FOILED

By Associated Press. Daltart, Nov. 22.—Two bottles of kerosene oil was poured out in the parlor of the Desota hotel here about midnight, and ignited. The fire was discovered quickly and extinguished by guests and the hotel people. It is believed it was a plot to rob the safe. One suspect was detained by the police.

DETAILS NOT YET WORKED OUT

PRESIDENT KEMPNER OF GALVESTON COTTON EXCHANGE BELIEVES FUND WILL BE OF BENEFIT.

WILL LOAN $50,000,000

New York Bankers Make Announcement Following Conferences With Southerners.

By Associated Press. Galveston, Texas, Nov. 22.—Speaking of the plan of the New York bankers, announced last night, to advance fifty million dollars at twenty-five dollars a bale to enable the farmer to hold their cotton, President I. H. Kempner of the Galveston Cotton Exchange, said that fund would be of great benefit if handled judiciously, but that numerous practical details had not been announced such as where cotton will be held, whether each shipper shall have the right of marketing his own cotton, and whether the identical cotton shipped by each farmer shall be held.

Announcement Concerning Fund.

New York, Nov. 22.—New York bankers who have been conferring here for the last few days with representatives of the Governors' Conference and the Southern Cotton Congress announced yesterday afternoon that they had raised a fund of $50,000,000 to be placed immediately in the cotton belt States for the purpose of handling the cotton crop of 1911 and enabling growers to participate in any rise in the market.

The negotiations were conducted on behalf of the South by Gov. Emmett O'Neal of Alabama; Senator Bailey of Texas, who has been advising his colleagues as to the legal aspects of the proposition; E. J. Watson, president of the permanent Southern Cotton Congress and Commissioner of Agriculture of South Carolina; and Clarence Ousley of Fort Worth, representing the Governor of his State.

The bankers who will furnish the fund, according to the statement, are headed by Col. Robert M. Thompson of the brokerage firm of S. H. P. Pell & Co., of this city. The financial support of several of the strongest banks in New York has been given to the plan, the statement says.

The plan proposes to advance the grower $25 per bale on his cotton, based on the market value at the time of the loan. No interest will be paid on the loan, the only charge being $1 a bale, which is regarded as a legitimate minimum charge for expense of grading and handling. The cotton is not held nor taken from the channels of trade, but is placed at the best advantage. The grower is given the right to designate the day of sale prior to Jan. 1, 1912, and will participate in any advance in price to the extent of three-fourths of the rise of the market.

The details of the plan are yet to be worked out. It has been decided, however, to place the fund through State Commissioners of Agriculture of a State, and these committees shall be empowered to sell when cotton reaches 12 cents, and compelled to sell when it reaches 13 cents, regardless of advice from the growers. Provision against any violation of the Sherman anti-trust law is contained, the promoters believe, in a clause empowering each committee to name the day of sale in the event the market climbs to 12 or 13 cents.

"Of course," reads the statement, "everything depends upon the acceptance of the plan by the individual farmer in connection with his pledge to reduce acreage the coming year."

Following is the announcement of the plan: "The announcement was made here today, following conferences that have been in progress several days between prominent bankers of New York and leading representatives of the South, such as Governor O'Neal of Alabama, Clarence Ousley, representing Gov. Colquitt of Texas, and E. J. Watson, president of the permanent Southern Cotton Congress and Commissioner of Agriculture of South Carolina, that a plan has been presented to these gentlemen, representing the Governors' conference and the Southern congress, composed of producers, business men and bankers of the South, which means the placing in the cotton belt States of about $50,000,000 immediately for the handling of the cotton crop of 1911.

"In other words the proposition is to give the farmer $25 per bale advance on his cotton, without interest,

SUFFRAGETTES GO TO PRISON RATHER THAN PAY FINES

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 22.—Unrepentant suffragettes, many of them still in their teens were this morning sentenced in the Bow Street court to fines or imprisonment for their demonstration yesterday. Most of them chose to go to prison rather than pay the fines.

charging him only $1 a bale to cover expenses of grading and handling, letting him turn over the cotton to the holders, who will advance him $25 per bale and give him the opportunity to designate the date of the sale prior to Jan. 1, 1912, and to participate in any advance in price to the extent of three-fourths of the rise in the market.

"It is calculated that by the present ordinary holding prices the farmer takes all chances of a rise in the market. By this plan he takes no more chance than he did before and has every opportunity of maximum participation in a rise in the market, meantime paying the debts he has to pay and saving the losses sustained by country damage (lack of proper facilities) and by loss of weight and warehousing charges.

"Provision is made against any apparent violation of the Sherman law, in that each State committee appointed by the Governor or Commissioner of Agriculture of each State has the power to name the day of sale if cotton reaches 12 or 13 cents, which, according to testimony gathered, gives only a close legitimate profit on the cost of production.

"Of course everything depends upon the acceptance of the plan by the individual farmer in connection with his pledge to reduce acreage the coming year. The individual farmer alone can make success possible.

"The undertaking is favored by a number of bankers, of whom Col. R. M. Thompson is head, he being a widely known bull of the firm of S. H. P. Pell & Co., bankers and cotton men, and all necessary machinery for caring for the cotton has been provided. The committeemen here have been assured by a number of the strongest banks in New York of a thorough backing of these already strong interests.

"The gentlemen here, as well as President Barrett of the National Farmers' Union, consider the plan acceptable to the growers, and they are tonight returning to their respective States to present it to their people, and if it be agreeable to the producers to put it into immediate operation. Senator Bailey of Texas, who is here, has been advising as to the legal aspects of the proposition."

W. B. HONAKER DIED AT SHERMAN TODAY

A dispatch received here this afternoon announced the death at Sherman this morning of W. B. Honaker, president of an oil company bearing his name. Mr. Honaker's home was at Farmersville and he was taken to Sherman a few weeks ago to undergo an operation.

Mr. Honaker has spent much of his time during the last few months at Electra looking after the sinking of a well about five miles east of that place. This well is still drilling and another good showing was reported a few days ago.

TEMPERATURE WILL DROP TONIGHT

A temperature of twenty degrees above zero can be expected in Wichita Falls before tomorrow morning. The U. S. Weather Bureau has forecast much colder weather tonight and tomorrow over the Panhandle and all of North Texas. Cloudy skies and high winds are reported all the way up the Fort Worth and Denver. Snow is expected in the Panhandle and in Oklahoma.

Fowler Delayed at Abilene.

By Associated Press. Abilene, Texas, Nov. 22.—Aviator Fowler, who was expected to leave here at ten o'clock this morning, was delayed by a twenty-five mile wind.

Weatherford, Texas, Nov. 22.—Fowler will stop here for exhibitions on his trans-continental flight.

SUIT IS FILED AGAINST BENSON

SAMUEL E. BELL ASKS FOR RECEIVER FOR PRODUCING OIL WELL AND VALUABLE LEASES.

VARIOUS ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff Charges He Was Fraudulently Ousted From Douglas Lease.

Samuel E. Bell of Smethport, Pa., has filed suit in the district court against Andrew Benson, A. A. Little and others for damages and the partition of valuable oil leases in which he claims an interest under a contract filed for record in the office of the county clerk. He also prays for the appointment of a receiver to have charge of the well now producing oil on one of the leases.

In his petition he sets forth that under a contract with said Benson and others he was given a share in leases on 5870 acres under an agreement that he was to drill three oil wells on locations named by the defendants. One of these wells was to be started on a certain Douglas tract on or before September 15, 1911. He alleges that he started to drill on this Douglas tract before September 15, according to contract but was fraudulently ousted by the defendants. He alleges that he is ready to drill other wells according to the contract but that the defendants refuse to designate the locations on which they shall be drilled.

R. E. Huff and Carrigan and Householder are attorneys for the plaintiff. Leases valued at more than a hundred thousand dollars are involved in the suit.

Estimable Lady Passes Away.

Mrs. H. J. Blakemore died at the family home, corner of Bluff and Fourth street this morning at 3:45. Death was due to pneumonia from which the deceased had suffered for some time.

In the death of Mrs. Blakemore the community loses a most estimable woman. She was one of the pioneer residents of the city, and her life has always been a model of Christian living. She was born August 20, 1857. To mourn her loss she leaves a husband and two sons, N. P. and W. K. Blakemore, both of whom reside here.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home. The services were conducted by Rev. Edwards of the Church of the Nazarene, and interment was made at Riverside cemetery.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God in His allwise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst, and take to Himself our beloved brother, Robert Lee McDowell, Jr.,

Be it resolved that we as a Sunday school extend to his parents, brothers and sisters our heart felt sympathy. Be it further resolved to extend to them our thanks for the privilege of Robert Lee's association as a member of our school.

Be it further resolved that while we will miss Robert Lee's presence his example will still be with us. For he being head yet speaketh, we would not ask him back again; he can not come to us, but we may go to him.

F. H. GOODNIGHT, MARY R. MCKEE, Committee appointed by the Sunday school.

Seattle Appears Indifferent.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 22.—With less than two days of life left, H. C. Beattie, Jr., condemned to die at dawn November 24 for the murder of his wife, today reacted quietly in his cell, apparently unable to comprehend that there is no hope that he may escape the extreme penalty for his crime.

In Memory of Confederate Dead

Kaufman, Texas, Nov. 22.—A handsome memorial in honor of the Confederate soldiers of Kaufman county was unveiled here today with interesting exercises. The monument is twenty-seven feet high and consists of a granite shaft surmounted by a statue done in Italian marble of a Confederate soldier standing at "make ready."

A Good Move.

By Associated Press. Texarkana, Texas, (Nov. 22.—Because of the typhoid scare the officials of Texarkana have announced they are taking steps to establish a public abattoir and inspection for dairies and meat.

MAKING NEW MAP OF WICHITA COUNTY

County Engineer Snoddy has under his supervision, an experienced draughtsman, who for the last two months has been employed in compiling an accurate map of Wichita county, which map, when completed, will show all of the existing surveys and sub-divisions of land in this county, with the names of the present owners attached.

This map is being constructed in two sections, and the first section, showing the owners of land in the northern half of the county, will probably be completed this week, after which work on the second section, or map of the southern half of the county, will be pushed as rapidly as possible. It is expected to have the whole map completed and ready for reference at the end of a few more weeks.

The need of an accurate map like the one now being compiled has long been felt by those interested in lands in this county, and more especially so, since the beginning of the oil activity in Electra, as there has not up to the present time, been any sure way of determining just who is the owner of any certain strip of land, except by going to the trouble of looking it up on the county deed records, or by consulting with an abstractor.

Upon the completion of the present map, however, oil men and others, by merely referring to the map, will be able to determine the owner of any block of land in this county, as well as the relative situation of the block in question, as compared with the location of other blocks. The map will be found to prove of great convenience to all whose business has to do with Wichita county lands, and will fill a long felt want.

Twelve Hundred People Attended Dedication of New Auditorium

Under a substantially built tabernacle 80x140 feet which has been erected since Friday of last week Evangelist Ham "began a meeting," as he puts it, last night with approximately 1200 people present and room left for many others.

No effort was made to sermonize and the evangelist's text was taken from an expression he had heard on the street which voiced the general surprise that such a building could be erected in so short a time. He occupied practically the whole time telling of how the work had been accomplished and by the time he had finished the list of those who had been especially active and instrumental in making it possible to be in the building in so short a time it appeared that almost the whole city had had a part in the work—and so they have. Everybody has taken an interest in the enterprise because it is everybody's building.

Closing his remarks the evangelist said that the Christian people of the city were under lasting obligations to those who were outside the church and insisted that they were duty bound in a still greater degree than ever before to try to bring to the unchurched masses the light and liberty of the Christian religion. He said that if God's people evidenced the same interest in the matter of saving the lost that several men had in the matter of financing, erecting and equipping the tabernacle there would be remarkable things brought to pass in the next few days.

At the close of the service Dr. McKee offered the dedicatory prayer, turning the building over to the purposes of the most high God and the advancement of His kingdom and pleading that He would use it as a mighty means of grace in reaching and saving the lost of the city as well as a medium for the unifications of the Christian forces of the city.

Following this short talks were made by Dr. McKee, Rev. Hamlin, Rev. Burroughs, R. E. Huff and Mr. Kemp. Many were delighted with Rev. Burroughs' relation of his experiences as a missionary in Wichita Falls some thirty years ago, when he declared that a little old log school house which stood not more than twenty feet from the site of the tabernacle was the only auditorium in the town. The point he made was that there was nothing great except by comparison with other things—hence he was able to appreciate the magnitude of the present building all the more by contrasting it with the little log building of early days.

Evangelist Ham announced that tonight his subject would be "Has God cast off His People, or what is God doing to do with the Jew?" Incidentally he stated, before he had finished his announcement that God had not cast them off entirely, but that He had a greater, grander purpose yet to be accomplished through them which he promised to disclose tonight. Much interest has already been manifested in what the evangelist may bring to light concerning this people and it is expected that the tabernacle will be well filled.

MRS. PATTERSON ON TRIAL TODAY

PROSECUTOR BENSON OUTLINES PLAN OF STATE IN DENVER MURDER TRIAL.

A DELIBERATE MURDER

State Will Attempt to Show Woman Killed Husband to Prevent Interference in Divorce Suit.

By Associated Press. Denver, Colo., Nov. 22.—The beautiful woman whose life story features the cardinal elements of human nature, braced herself in a crowded court room here today and heard Special Prosecutor Benson for the State charge her with premeditated murder. The woman was Gertrude Patterson said to have been plucked from obscurity by a Chicago millionaire; trained to a season of luxury and then married to Patterson, who was picked for her by her millionaire admirer. Benson said that the prosecution would try to show Mrs. Patterson was caught in a compromising position with another man by her husband and that she killed her husband for fear his discovery might interfere with her divorce suit.

The discovery of the wife in a compromising position was thus described by the prosecutor: "On Saturday night preceding the shooting which occurred Monday morning, the State will show by witnesses that Patterson, accompanied by a friend of whom the state has been unable to find, paid an unexpected call at his wife's home. He found her sitting on the porch with Geo. W. Strain, a Denver man, and when Mrs. Patterson saw him she ran into the house crying, 'My God, there comes my husband.'" The prosecutor said the State would show that Mrs. Patterson had told Strain of her husband's temper and that Strain had come armed. Mrs. Patterson unbraided Strain, saying, his actions would interfere with her divorce case and then asked him for his pistol, which he gave her. On the Monday following, the prosecutor said Mrs. Patterson met her husband and after walking some distance with him shot him twice. Witnesses of the shooting will testify she fired the second shot while her husband was on his knees.

Miss Chamberlain May Be Recalled To Witness Stand

Lincoln Center, Nov. 22.—Mary Chamberlain, the par ty victim who finished her testimony yesterday may be recalled for a character cross-examination today.

John Schmidt, a defense witness this morning was asked whether any one said Miss Chamberlain should not be tarred. Schmidt said: "Both Mr. Simms and myself warned the boys against doing what they had planned. But they were not to be stopped. Any others of the party, he said, except himself, A. N. Simms, Sherrill Clark and James Booze left for the scene of the tarring on motor cycles or in buses while he and three others went on foot.

"Did you have any part in the tarring?" he was asked.

"No sir, I did not. We started to cross the country to the roads, where the tarring was to take place but we did not reach there in time to see it. While we were on our way Ed and Mary passed us on their way back home. Then some of the members of the party came by and they told us they had tarred Mary."

Schmidt, who was one of Ed Ricord's bondsmen, was asked why the bondsmen gave him up. He replied that they feared Ricord would leave. Ricord was the man who confessed.

Facing the men who, she claims, composed part of the mob that dragged her from a carriage and applied tar and feathers to her body, Mary Chamberlain, the Shady Bend school teacher, took the stand late Tuesday and began a recital of the story that residents of this county have both dreaded and anxiously awaited.

After telling how Ricord called her by telephone to make a dance engagement, she declared that he addressed her in an indecent manner twice and she asked him to turn back to Shady Bend. She told of being seized and tarred by masked men, none of whom she recognized at the time.

"Where was Ricord?"

"He was over by the fence."

MILLION DOLLARS FOR STOMACH

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until the end it became incurable.

His misfortune serves as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give over; thing he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the wall of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are no more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall store, O. F. Marchman Drug Store.

MOVE OFFICES TO CHICAGO.

Texas Company Changes to Be Announced by Directors. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—The Texas Oil Company, one of the largest independent oil companies operating in the Southwest, will move its purchasing and traffic departments, now located in St. Louis, to Chicago on the 1st day of January.

Formal announcement of the change will probably be made following the annual meeting of the directors of the company to be held in Houston, Texas, tomorrow.

For the last five years, the company has maintained traffic, sales and purchasing departments in this city. Offices in the Mercantile Trust Building. The company also has a four-story office building and a distributing station at Shrewsbury, St. Louis county. The downtown offices will be given up, while only the distributing station will be continued.

The local offices have been in charge of William T. Loftin, as manager, who probably will be transferred to Chicago offices.

The Texas Company maintains departments in St. Louis, New Orleans, El Paso, Pueblo, and Atlanta. The opening of the Chicago offices will be made in connection with the opening there on the first of the year of its new plant.

SOUND BANKING IS PARAMOUNT

TARIFF AND TRUST ISSUES FADE INTO BACKGROUND BESIDE CURRENCY REFORM.

ENDORSES ALDRICH PLAN

Present Banking System Antiquated and Does Not Meet Needs of Conditions Today.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 22.—Proposed changes in the tariff and trust laws of the United States, vital, as they may be, fade into the background in importance beside the necessity for a sound banking and currency system in the opinion of President Schurman of Cornell University. In addressing the American Bankers Association today, President Schurman so declared, adding his endorsement of the National Reserve Association plan and offering his cooperation to the association, if it should be desired or needed, in securing its enactment into law.

"The general public has no idea of the importance of our banking and currency system and the protection of the financial interests which they represent," he said. "Questions of tariff and trust laws, especially if embittered by personal feuds, easily gain possession of the public mind. But promotion of the public welfare without any passion and to fury is much more difficult undertaking. The advocates of banking and currency reform have behind them as their support the laws of the physical universe and the industrial life of mankind; and in spite of indifference and even opposition they are bound in the long run to prevail."

"Nevertheless, I believe a thorough and extensive campaign of education will be necessary. The benefits of reform inure to the public generally. It is not the bankers but the public who suffer. And the first lesson to be emphasized in our campaign of education is this: That banking and currency reform is the concern, not of bankers, not even of financiers but of the American public in general."

"When panics come and wage earners are thrown out of employment and farmers with good property cannot borrow money at a moderate rate of interest, and no one can get cash necessary for the transaction of routine business and checks are not accepted at face value, the public must be made to understand that these evils in which all alike are participating are due to a cumbersome antiquated and unscientific system of banking and currency and that they could be eliminated with the reform of that system."

Whomever can improve the American system of banking and currency improves American business and confers a benefit, not only on businessmen, but on every one who is engaged in any of the tasks of production or distribution, on the farmer and the laborer, as well as on the trader and the capitalist. If Senator Aldrich has, after conference with bankers and business men and economists and other groups of intelligent citizens worked out on sound business principles a plan for the reformation of our currency and banking system which can be fitted into existing conditions without involving abrupt or revolutionary changes his name will be ranked among the foremost financial statesmen of modern times, and he will have laid before our people a program of practical reform which, in view of the magnitude of the interest involved and the terrible severity of the evils to be remedied, should take precedence of every other question of contemporary public policy."

"In comparison with a sound banking and currency system, proposed changes in our tariff and trust laws important and urgent as they may be to themselves, fall into the background."

"You will not misunderstand me. I recognize the propriety of bringing our tariff laws into a closer harmony with the conditions of modern industry and commerce, and the demands both of the consuming and the producing public. And though I am firmly convinced that business on a large scale is absolutely essential to efficiency in the modern world and should be protected and encouraged by all proper and legitimate means, I hold out less emphatically that the public have a right to be protected from oppressive monopolies. But whatever the losses, inconveniences and sufferings which may be attributed to our tariff and trust laws, they are far less than the losses, inconveniences and sufferings which are due to the imperfections of our banking and currency system. To the supreme importance of this issue, therefore, it is indispensable that the public should be aroused."

"The business of the country has undergone consolidation, co-ordination and centralization at a tremendous rate. But our bank system is paralyzed by decentralization and lack of co-ordination. To realize how antiquated that system is one has only to imagine trade and commerce con-

NEW KING WILL BE CROWNED IN SIAM

Special to the Times. Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Announcement of the appointment of Col. Leo Feliger, commanding the Sixth Cavalry, now in the Philippines, to represent the United States as military attaché at the coronation of the King of Siam draws public attention to the ceremonies that will make the city of Bangkok a center of attraction early next month.

The leading nations of the world will be represented at the coronation. Prince Fushimi has been named to head the Japanese delegation and England is sending an embassy headed by Prince Louis of Battenberg. France, Germany, Italy and other European nations also are sending special ambassadors.

The coronation and festivities in connection with the crowning of the new King will extend over an entire week. From every part of the Siam as kingdome the princes and nobles and military and civil officials will assemble in the capital to renew their allegiance to the new sovereign. The tenor of the oath that they are required to take on this occasion seems to show how Siam has preserved its own identity. Here are some of the phrases used in it:

"We pray the powers of the deities to plague with poisonous boils and with all manner of horrible diseases the dishonorable, the disobedient, and the treacherous. When they have deserted this life may they be sent to horrible hell."

The new King, whose full name is Somdet Chulafa Maha Vajiravudh succeeded to the throne upon the death of his father a year ago last October. He was born about 30 years ago and was proclaimed Crown Prince when he was 15. He was educated in England and learned soldering at Sandhurst, Aldershot and Potsdam. Later he spent some time in Paris, and then having acquired a good conversational acquaintance with both England and French, he was sent back to his country to go into training for the duties which he would later have to perform.

COLDS VANISH. Quick, Sensible Method That Does Not Upset the Stomach.

Have you heard of the overnight cold cure that is putting colds in the head and chest out of business between sunset and daybreak.

Here it is. Cut it out and save it if you don't need it now. If you have a cold, cough, throat soreness or acute catarrh, be sure and try it tonight just before going to bed. Pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises, then go to sleep and awake with a clear head free from mucus.

HYOMEI is guaranteed for catarrh of the nose, coughs, croup, asthma, sore throat and bronchitis, or money back. Bottle of Hyomei 50 cents at O. F. Marchman's and druggists every where.

MAYOR OF PARIS COMMENDS REV. HILL

The following letter has been received by Mayor T. B. Noble: Paris, Texas, Nov. 20, 1911. To The Honorable Mayor, Wichita Falls, Texas.

I noticed from reading the conference report in today's paper, the Dr. W. Hill, who has been stationed at the Centenary Church during the year now closed; will go to your city. I cannot speak too favorably of this excellent man, and great preacher. I am a member of his old church here, and therefore in a position to speak with authority when I tell you that he will prove a distinct acquisition to your city and community generally. His going away is a sincere personal grief to me. But this is a part of the game with all Methodist people, and I am always submissive to the will of the bishop.

When he reaches your city I sincerely hope you will make it a point to meet, and become acquainted with him, for I assure you he is just such an acquisition as cities do not secure every day.

I would thank you also to refer this letter to the Chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church of your city, to the end that they make suitable provision for his reception of the good man and his excellent family. This last paragraph of my letter is possible superfluous but sometimes among Methodists, who are so accustomed to changes this important matter is overlooked.

Wishing you success in our common calling, I am, Yours very truly, ED H. McCUSTION, Mayor.

For the first time in the history of New York State the Socialists have elected a member of the legislature.

In announcing that he would be a candidate for a third term, Governor Donaghey of Arkansas declared he would make the liquor question the paramount issue of his campaign.

MILLIONAIRES MADE RAPIDLY IN TEXAS
ONE EVERY TWO DAYS, RECORD OF FATHER TIME.
PER CAPITA WEALTH GAINS

Father time, single handed, has been making millionaires of the Texas property owners at the rate of one every two days (or its equivalent) and his mint is running along with increased momentum. No gold mine ever poured forth its stream of wealth with such volume and perpetuity as that of the increased values of property in Texas, and no prospector can stake out a claim more promising than a Texas real estate investment.

The assessed value of all property has increased during the past decade from $946,320,258 to $2,388,500,121, making a net increase of $1,442,180,866 or 152 per cent. As the assessed value represents probably not over 50 per cent of the true value of property, we find an actual increase in wealth of approximately three billion dollars during the past ten years. This remarkable increase in wealth must be attributed to either one of two causes; first, increase in property values, such, for example, as land worth $10 per acre in 1900 and worth $20 per acre or more in 1910; second, increase in property such as money, building material, live stock and movable property coming into the State. However, a careful study of the figures justify an estimate of $1,770,000,000 as an increase in property values and $1,230,000,000 as an increase in property.

The amount shown as increase in property values is pure cream and measures, with reasonable accuracy, the unearned increment on investments in property and shows a daily ten year average net increase in property alone of $485,000. The amount shown as increase in property represents the flow of outside capital into Texas and gives a net daily ten year average of $337,000.

In 1900 our assessed wealth per capita was $310, and in 1910 it was $610, making an increase of $300 per capita or 97 per cent. Our population during the past decade has shown an increase of 27 per cent and our assessed wealth an increase of 152 per cent. No more forceful evidence of progress and prosperity can be produced than the above comparison and it speaks the dialect of every nation.

EXPRESS INQUIRY BEGINS IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission began a series of important hearings in this city today with the object of determining whether the rates charged by the big express companies doing business in the United States are reasonable and just. The investigation is regarded as one of the most important that the commission has yet undertaken. It is the direct result of numerous complaints received from commercial organizations and individual shippers in all parts of the country. These complaints have cited many alleged abuses incident to the regulations and practices of the express companies. The commission will endeavor to find out why the express companies persist in keeping their tariffs practically secret. The basis of their division of profits with the railroads also will receive attention. The express companies have shown some disposition to oppose the investigation and it is not expected the inside facts in the matter will be gained except as the result of a strenuous fight.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Wichita Falls—Many Citizens Tell of It. Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Wichita Falls still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case: J. M. Cloud, 622 Seventh St., Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and I endorse them whenever I have an opportunity. Other members of my family also use this remedy when in need of a kidney tonic and the results are always satisfactory. About two years ago I first got Doan's Kidney Pills from the Wichita Drug House, when I was suffering from kidney trouble and they brought me so much relief that I told my experience with them in a statement that has since been published off and on. I am now pleased to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills again, for I know that they are a reliable kidney medicine." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. NAT GOODWIN STOPS LITIGATION

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 22.—Nat Goodwin, the marrying comedian and his former wife, Edna Goodrich, have decided to stop paying big fees to the attorneys for expensive litigation, and have signed an agreement whereby Miss Goodrich is to receive $65,000 in consideration of her giving up all claims on Goodwin's estate. Goodwin is to pay all expenses including the hotel bill of $2,300 contracted by his last wife at the Hotel Ansonia in New York. According to the terms of the agreement, which was signed in New York by Miss Goodrich and then sent to Goodwin at Little Rock, Ark., for his signature, and finally forwarded to Mayor T. H. Dudley of Santa Monica, the trustee of the Goodwin estate, the payment of $65,000 must be made to Miss Goodrich by December 15. Otherwise the agreement is void.

ducted today as it was fifty or one hundred years ago. Yet that is the decentralized condition in which under the present system our banks are actually left. The evils of decentralization and lack of co-ordination are felt especially in times of threatened panic. There are not reserves enough in the country to protect all the banks. But they are widely scattered and each jealously guards its own. That, however, is the very time when reserves should be centralized, subject to single control and ready for application at any point in the country where danger especially threatens. It is as though a town were to be protected against fire when each citizen possessed a private reservoir of water and would not allow his neighbor to use it.

"The second fundamental evil from which our banking system suffers is the lack of elasticity in the credit it furnishes to the country. The loans to the country thus ensuing cannot be calculated. Senator Aldrich's plan furnishes a method for unifying our present banking system into one comprehensive system; and while it thus secures co-ordination and centralization, at the same time it provides for that elastic-city which is so notoriously lacking at the present time. "On the dangers of Wall street exploitation and control the public will be sensitive and suspicious in the extreme. Yet the Aldrich plan seems to reduce to the lowest possible degree the opportunity of exploitation by Wall street. So far as appears it might be said that possibly is wholly eliminated. But in view of the subtle machinations with which the recent history of American finance has made us familiar one may hesitate to make such a positive assertion. One may however, venture to declare that it would be difficult to lay down greater precautions than those embodied in this plan.

Gov. Colquhoun says he is not afraid of the Campbell-Ransley-Sheppard combine. The gentlemen named can doubtless reply they are not afraid of the Ambrose-Busch-Budweiser-Colquhoun combine.—Waxahachie Enterprise.

When both sides to a political fight declare they are not afraid of each other, the prospects for a lively campaign next year are very promising. The issue seems clear, and the voters will have little trouble in settling the matter in the July primary. In the language of Dr. Rankin, "let's on with the battle."

Up in Kansas the courts are attempting to bring to justice a bunch of fellows who tarred and feathered a young lady, and so far as can be learned at this distance, her only offense was that she was the possessor of a beautiful face and figure and blessed with most charming and winning manners, so much so in fact that she excited the jealousy of some of the ladies of that community, both married and single, who were less attractive, that they induced their brothers and husbands to hatch up and put into execution a plot that would result in the humiliation of the charming young woman, who had been employed as a school teacher in that community. The plot consisted of hiring a man for the sum of $5.00 to make a date with the young lady to take her across the country a short distance to a dance, and on reaching a lonely spot the mob pounced upon her, stripped her of her clothing and after sneering her over with tar and feathers, turned her loose in the night to make her way back to her home the best way she could. The ring-leader of the mob is a man of wealth and he is resisting prosecution to the bitter end. The way it looks now, it is well for the defendants that such a dirty trick was not played on Texas soil. There is no penalty under the law that can possibly punish adequately such a cowardly deed.

For years past farmers in clearing new land have found dynamite a great help in removing stumps from the ground, but a series of experiments made at a New Jersey experimental station have shown a new use for the explosive in pulverizing and aerating hard subsoil for tree planting. Under the direction of the manager of the station a number of holes thirty-three inches deep and fifteen feet apart were dug with a crowbar. Half of a dynamite cartridge was lowered into each hole and carefully tamped at a depth of nine inches below the surface of the soil, and all of the cartridges were wired so that the explosions were simultaneous. The first discharge were in groups of sixteen holes to show the power of dynamite in rendering the subsoil porous for the growing of wheat and other cereals. The explosion shattered the subsoil for a distance of fifteen feet from the point of discharge, the hard soil being disintegrated and rendered porous. The presence of dead worms and other insects injurious to plant life indicated that they were unable to withstand the deadly effects of the explosion. The cost of farming with dynamite in the breaking up of subsoils is estimated at about eight dollars per acre, and it is said the process may be repeated with advantage every five years, but it is well to suggest that only an experienced dynamite should be employed to break up the subsoils with the explosive. In the hands of an amateur it would be a great danger to the life of any man or beast in the vicinity.—New Orleans Evening States.

IS ROOSEVELT A CANDIDATE?

New York World.
In Theodore Roosevelt, Wall Street finds a new champion—a new "safe and sane" candidate for president. In his attack on President Taft and "our chaotic government policy as regards business," he makes Wall Street's grievance against the Taft administration his grievance. He makes its objection to the Sherman-anti-trust law his objection. He makes its protest against the steel trust suit his protest. He makes its contempt for competition his contempt. He makes its demand for new legislation his demand. The value of the service which Mr. Roosevelt is rendering to Big Business can not be overestimated. He presents Wall Street's resentment against Mr. Taft more forcefully and coherently than Wall Street itself has been able to do.

His voice J. Pierpont Morgan's celestial ire against the government that dared attack the steel trust more eloquently than Mr. Morgan has voiced it. He comes to the relief of Big Business at a critical time, when it sorely needs an advocate who can command the attention of the country and smear its schemes over with a varnish of political progress.

He provides the mask of radicalism which any movement to prevent Mr. Taft's re-nomination requires in order to be successful.

He secures to Wall Street's theories of trust regulation an audience that no other man could obtain.

He again richly deserves "the influence of the great Morgan interests which have been so friendly to us," even in his contemptuous reference to the "many" progressives who "represent in reality in this matter not progress at all but a kind of sincere rural torism"—even in his generous endorsement of the Gary-Peikins theory of government regulation of prices.

Less than a week ago when Mr. Roosevelt gracefully accepted William Barnes, Jr., as boss of the republican party in New York, the World asked if he were not again a candidate for president. The Outlook article may be accepted as a full and complete answer. Mr. Roosevelt is palpably a candidate and his extraordinary political genius has set for itself the task of bringing about a coalition between the anti-Taft progressives in Wall Street, and the anti-Taft plutocrats in Wall Street. Of his coalition he expects to be the beneficiary. Mr. Roosevelt is not given to disinterested political effort.

The country may as well face the fact that he is seeking a third term—not in the open manner of an avowed candidate but by the indirect process of making Taft's re-nomination impossible. That he should reach out for Wall Street's support for his ambition is in no way inconsistent with his record. He solicited Wall Street's support in 1904. His campaign fund came chiefly from Wall Street. Two of J. P. Morgan's partners assisted in the collection of campaign tribute and part of the insurance money was handled by one of them. Mr. Harriman was invited to the White House a few days before election and returned to New York to raise the $250,000, which, he boasted, turned 50,000 votes in New York city alone, "making a difference of 100,000 votes in the general result."

As president he made one of Mr. Morgan's partners secretary of state and Mr. Morgan's son-in-law assistant secretary of the navy. At Mr. Morgan's request he licensed the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by Mr. Morgan's steel trust, a transaction that he is still defending in the face of the government's suit. During the Roosevelt panic, he turned the United States treasury over to the committee of financiers of which Mr. Morgan was the head. No other president ever denounced Wall Street so vehemently and no other president ever took such pains to make sure that the deed did not square with the word.

Mr. Roosevelt would be the logical Morgan candidate for president in 1912. No other candidate representing Wall Street's present desires could command such support. No other candidate with the faintest chance of election would more fully merit the confidence of Big Business. No other candidate could be more thoroughly relied upon to help "unscramble the eggs."

SEEING A JOKE.

It Depends on the Brand of Humor to Which One is Accustomed.

Foreigners, as a rule, do not understand our wit and humor. Sir Alfred Harmsworth once remarked to me, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, that American humor was coarse and sometimes brutal. Mark Twain and Finley Peter Dunne are the only American humorists who are accepted by Englishmen. On the other hand, we do not appreciate the humor of Punch, the Englishman's delight. I have seen an Englishman laugh heartily over a joke in Punch that I couldn't see any point to until it was explained to me, and no doubt that gentleman considered me as dense as we consider them when we tell them a funny story and get a sort of pained look, rather mystifying to be sure, instead of the laugh which was expected.

It is the local application of the joke that counts the world over. The funniest thing I ever saw was the charge a yearling Hereford bull made at a barbed wire fence in the Texas Panhandle. He struck the fence full tilt, and the rebound caused him to turn a complete back somersault. He landed on his hoofs all right, and there he stood all straddled out with a look of astonishment on his face that was almost human. It was so ludicrous that I lay down in the mesquite grass and rolled over in spasms of mirth. Then he began to bawl like a whipped child, turned tail and ran as from a banisher. I was at dinner in a Bradford club and told about it, expecting to get a laugh, but all I got was this from Hon. Smith Feather, mayor of that Yorkshire city: "By Jove, I didn't know those wire fences were so strong. It's a jolly good thing the poor brute wasn't injured."

WATERSPOUTS.

Old Time Mariners Fought Them With Noise and Cannon.

In the waterspout the medieval mariner saw a malevolent living monster—a sea dragon. There were various means of combating them. Once all sailors carried black handed knives, which the monster was believed to hold in special abhorrence.

When a spout made its appearance these knives were produced and pointed in its direction, waved in the air so as to make the sign of the cross or, according to the recommendation of certain contemporary authorities, driven several times into the side of the ship. Certain passages from the gospel of St. John were recited as charms against waterspouts.

A loud noise of any kind was also believed to be efficacious against them—shots, the clash of swords, the beating of drums and gongs, etc. The custom of firing cannon against waterspouts, says the Scientific American, dates back at least as far as the sixteenth century. The original idea appears to have been to frighten them away by the noise of the report, but in the later times it was believed that the watery column could be cut in twain by the cannon ball and the spout thus dissipated. It would be interesting to know whether the canonading of waterspouts is still sometimes practiced. It was certainly common much less than a century ago. It is hardly necessary to say that it is entirely futile.

The Babwae.

Englishmen are familiar with the name "babwae," applied to the Scotch halfpenny, but to few does it bring the association of a baby queen and a loyal people. It appears that the first attempt at the portraiture of the unfortunate Mary, queen of Scots, was made in her infancy, and her small face was engraved upon the Scottish halfpennies at the time of her coronation in 1543, when she was but nine months old. A number of these small coins are still preserved, and it will be easily understood how the name "babwae," or baby, came to be given to the coin bearing the effigy of the baby. The halfpenny of Scotland is still commonly called the babwae, although the baby face no longer appears on it.—Pearson's.

The Wise Bride.

"Yes, the girls gave the bride a commiseration shower."
"What in the world is that?"
"Why, they all told her how sorry they were she was going to marry such a man as the coming bridegroom."
"That must have hurt her feelings."
"No, it didn't. She knew there wasn't a girl there who wouldn't have given her eyes to get him!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mixed Metaphors.

A well known bishop, speaking in the upper house of Canterbury convocation on prayer book revision, rather startled some of his Episcopal brethren by declaring, according to the Church Family Newspaper, "We are not writing on a clean slate; there is a good deal of grit under the door."

No Wender.

"My husband has never spoken a cross word to me."
"You lucky woman! How long have you been married?"
"Nearly two weeks."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Gallantry.

Who?—It seems to me as though we had met somewhere before. He—Impossible, fraulein, else I should have fallen in love with you before!—Fraulein Blatter.

Do not accustom yourself to consider debt only an inconvenience. You will find it a calamity.—Johnson.

Commissioner Dave Thomas is now enjoying a new automobile he recently purchased.

SET TRAP FOR WOLF CATCHES AN EAGLE

C. M. Moore caught in a steel trap which he had set for a wolf on his farm north of town last night a large American bald eagle, which measures six and one half feet from tip to tip. Aside from a slight injury to the toe of one foot, the eagle was in good condition, and was exhibited on the streets of this city today, tied only by a strong cord.

Mr. Moore says that this is the second eagle which he has captured lately, and the one caught today is only a small specimen, he having previously snared an eagle which measured nine and one half feet from tip to tip. This eagle for a long time was a menace to small calves, chickens and other domestic stock about Mr. Moore's place. These two eagles are the only ones reported in Wichita county for a long time, and such birds are seldom seen in this part of the country.

Program at the Gem. On account of the excellence of the picture and the great interest shown in the Vitograph Monthly of Current Events, shown at the Gem Theatre yesterday, we have decided to keep it and show it again today. With it will be two other good pictures, and a new song entitled "It's Great to Meet a Friend from the Old Home Town." 155-1tc.

News From the Oil Fields

Two oil wells and possibly four are to be sunk near Iowa Park immediately. S. W. Reed of Marietta, Ohio, is already at work on a derrick on the Fassett ranch three miles from that place and Diamuke and O'Neal are placing material on the ground for a derrick on the Overby farm half a mile east of town. Several other wells are in contemplation but arrangements are not so far advanced that they can be made public at this time. Recent developments at Electra have strengthened the belief that the field extends eastward and the people of Iowa Park are looking forward to the time when the derricks will dot the landscape about that town as thickly as at Electra.

Three Wells Near Lawton. Lawton, Okla., Nov. 22.—The next fifteen days will see three derricks equipped with drills in active operation within six miles of Lawton, according to the present intentions. Drilling at the Marple well, just east of the city, will commence this morning. A Mr. Catton from Electra has arrived and will take charge of the drilling at the Marple well today. Mr. Catton is an experienced driller and has been in the oil business all of his life. He says that indications for oil and gas are excellent at the Marple well, which is now 1100 feet deep. Frank Marple stated last evening that the drilling would be pushed continuously from this on. Stock in the company has been sold and it is now able financially to drill to any depth desired.

Rol Robertson, in company with an expert, left yesterday for Aubrey, Texas, where a drilling outfit will be loaded and shipped to Lawton to be placed on one of the farms they have leased near this city. The Epstein Oil Co., is moving a drilling rig from Faxon this week to commence operations on the Simmerman farm six miles east of the city. Frank Coon has charge of this work.

W. C. Heath, of this city, secured oil leases on his 900 acre farm this morning. The land lies six miles northwest of the city on the Iowa Park road, between the Denver tracks and Big Wichita River.

A. A. Little is having casing pipe and other material hauled out to the well he is boring on the old William's farm near Thornberry. Dr. Wade Walker owns part of this tract of land.

It is reported that the Producers Company has leased about seven thousand acres in the vicinity of Dean Station. The names of the parties whose lands were leased have not been learned.

Getting Ready to Drill at Dean Station. Jack Kelly who has leased 2400 acres of the Price, Campbell, Hughes and Culbertson lands west of Dean Station is placing material on the ground for a rig about half a mile east of that place and expects to be drilling within ten days. Three miles northwest of this place the Benson people have located a test on the Taylor farm near the old Thornberry postoffice. Old oil men believe that better locations could not be made and the progress of the drilling will be watched with much interest. Mr. Kelly, who was in town today reports that right of way men from the Frisco are in that section buying right of way for a line into Wichita Falls.

Drilling Started at Bacon. Actual drilling operations on the Culbertson test well, five and one-half miles northwest of town, began this morning, when the machinery was started, and the bit placed in the ground. The outfit being used is one of cable design, and about ninety days are expected to be required in putting down the hole.

A number of local business men have taken stock in this well, and one of the most competent drillers in the country has been secured to see that the well is drilled to a depth of two thousand feet, if it is found to be necessary to go down that far. The man who will have charge of actual drilling operations is W. J. Kerwin, who has the distinction of having drilled the first gas well in the Petrolia oil field. Mr. Kerwin has had many years of drilling experience in oil fields, and the majority of the wells drilled by him have always proven to turn out successfully. The water needed for drilling purposes in this well will be hauled over the Northwestern railroad from this city to Bacon siding, from which place the scene of drilling operations is not far distant. All other necessary details have been attended to, and no delay which will interfere with the pushing of the well to completion as rapidly as possible, is anticipated. The chances for striking oil or gas with this well are said to be especially good by all experienced oil men who have been consulted, and the fact that the spot chosen for drilling operations lies almost exactly half way between the famous Electra and Petrolia fields is also considered by many as a good indication that this well will be successful in tapping the oil stream. Upon completion of Culbertson test, it can be more definitely stated whether or not there is a continuous

The Art Literature Club held a very interesting session with Mrs. C. B. Hartsook at her home, 1416 Eleventh street yesterday afternoon. Only two members of the club were absent. Mrs. Emma Childress was the leader. At the conclusion of the program an elegant salad course was served. Mrs. A. M. Hartsook of Honaker, Virginia was a guest of the club.

Dr. and Mrs. Miller entertained a few of Dr. Miller's professional friends at a turkey dinner at their hospitable home, corner of Thirtieth and Traxler streets last evening. Those who enjoyed their hospitality were: Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Daniels, and Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Hartsook.

Mrs. C. C. Taylor, 1005 Eighth street was hostess to a few friends last night at a surprise party in celebration of her husband's 23rd birthday. Vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed after which luncheon was served in the dining room where twenty-three candles burned about a magnificent cake. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Taylor many happy returns of the anniversary.

Alma, Where Do You Live?
That oft repeated question, "Alma, Where do you live?" is to be answered at the Wichita Theatre tomorrow night when Joseph M. Weber's production of this popular musical farce is to be seen.

This play which had a season's run in New York at Weber's Theatre was originally a French play by Paul Herve and Jean Biquet and was translated into German and in this language was presented at Adolph Pail's Theatre in the Metropolis where it received much unfavorable criticism on account of its suggestiveness. Joseph M. Weber, its present producer, witnessed it and seeing possibilities for it in English had it Americanized by George V. Hobart, whom it is said did his work very cleverly omitting the salaciousness, but retaining all the humor of the piece which together with the attractive music has made it one of most enjoyable entertainments of its kind now before the public. The story is very brief in regard to plot but quite long as to incident. A country jumptin named Pierre is made legatee of a large fortune on condition that he does not fall in love nor propose to a woman before he becomes of age. Should he break the provision of this will the fortune will go to theobald Martin and his prospective son-in-law. Only one day remains from the reading of the will to the carrying out of its provisions. Then said and his friend engage a pretty girl named Alma to make love to Pierre and seek to ensnare him into a proposal. Alma really falls in love with the youth and while she makes him love, he prevents him from proposing until after the twenty-four hours are up. There are fourteen songs in the play, each one of them a gem and while of rather a higher order than usually to be found in this class of a production—they are still of that tuneful kind that sends the audience out whistling the air. Mr. Weber with his usual regard for lavishness has prepared a production that is fully equal to all demands and it is promised that the company will be first class in every respect. At the head of the organization is Miss Nanette Flack. Among the others are Charles A. Murray and Matt and Davies, the former, a popular comedian who has appeared here of ten at the head of his own company and the latter a well known tenor.

Two Merry Tramps.
Of "Two Merry Tramps" many pleasing things have been said by the critics, not only in larger cities but in the night stands as well during the past three seasons where "Two Merry Tramps" have been presented, about Wood & Ward's production. The play being strictly a musical comedy with three acts and a bevy of pretty girls.

The title of the piece is somewhat misleading, but it is only the title for from the rise to the fall of the curtain it is just one of the elegant, jolliest and liveliest comedies that has enlivened the musical field. Never for an instant does it bring a blush, but instead brings laughter that is irrefragable. For the past eight seasons it has played to packed houses in the middle west and appeals to the elite of fashion and all that is refined. The comedy is natural, the music catchy, the scenery magnificent, the costumes gorgeous and the cast all that is desired.

This attraction will be at the Wichita Theatre soon.

Commercial Secretaries Appointment Commission to Investigate Industrial Conditions.

The Welfare Commission which the Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association of Texas has organized will hold sessions in Dallas, Ft. Worth, San Antonio, Houston and other cities in Texas and hear the views of men of affairs on the needs of Texas. The following are a few of the questions which the Commission will undertake to answer:

Sixty-eight per cent of the farmers of Texas do not own their farms. WHY?

We need 50,000 miles more of railroads in Texas and there is not a mile of road under construction in the State today. WHY?

We have 140,000 miles of unimproved public highways and during the past ten years we have permanently improved only 2,900. WHY?

We have 4200 miles of navigable rivers but no steamboat lines ply our waters. WHY?

We buy from other States $75,000,000 worth of feed stuff annually. WHY?

According to estimates of the Farmers' Union it costs 12 1/2 cents per pound to raise cotton and it sells for a less price. WHY?

We owe $1,100,000,000 to parties outside the State and will have to borrow ten billion more to develop our resources and yet large insurance companies and other sources of cheap money are not doing business in Texas. WHY?

The Farmers' Union report that they are paying 8 and 10 per cent for money loaned on cotton in their warehouses, although cotton is the best security in the world. WHY?

Texas cattle are rated by the Federal Agricultural Department at $14.79 per head and Illinois cattle at $28.02 per head. WHY?

There is shipped into Texas 100 car loads of cured meats per week. WHY?

The Texas farmers haul $1,200,000 of raw material per day to the foreign factory. WHY?

We raise between three and four million bales of cotton annually and manufacture only 40,000 bales. WHY?

The Railroad Commission of Texas values the railroad property at $210,000,000 and the Commission at $495,000,000 and the Tax Assessor at $240,132,572. WHY?

OIL LOTS FOR SALE

in the ELECTRA OIL FIELD $10.00 EACH

The Powell Oil and Development Company owns in fee simple 311 acres of land situated about three miles south, 62 degrees east from the Electra Oil Field. This property is being offered for sale on the market for the purpose of developing holdings.

OUR PLAN.

These are 4188 oil lots as shown by plat on file with the county clerk of Wichita County. Each lot contains 600 square feet. The purchaser of each lot is entitled to one share of capital stock of the company, when same is finally organized. When one-half of the lots are sold we will at once begin operations on a deep well to be put down to a depth of 2,000 feet, unless oil or gas in paying quantities is found at a less depth, and when well is completed it will be turned over to the stockholders to be managed by a Board of Directors, 100 lots in the center of the field will be reserved for the deep well. The price of these lots is $10 each in hand.

Iowa Park Texas

Offers the best and safest opportunity for property investment, either as an oil speculation or a permanent investment in the State of Texas today. It lies in the proven oil field, but speculation has not yet reached it. It is surrounded on all sides by oil development, and at any time is likely to bring in a string of wells that will astonish the world. The first oil discovery made in North Texas was on Iowa Park townsite.

Lots 25x94 feet ..... $30.00

Lots 50x142 feet ... $50.00

For a limited time we are offering 200 lots in the original townsite at the above prices. These lots are right in the residence district, and adjoin the J. T. Overby tract, on which an oil well is now being drilled. Corner lots sell at the same price, but the purchaser must also buy the adjoining lot.

Hon. B. G. Dawes, of Marietta, Ohio, one of the big financiers of Ohio, has purchased 10 of these lots and considers them one of his best investments. There is already one oil well drilling within a few hundred feet, and on all four sides of our land, wells are being put down.

GRAND JURY CHARGED ON SUNDAY OPENING

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 22.—In a special charge to the Seventeenth district court grand jury Tuesday morning, Judge Swayne instructed that indictments be returned against "every man who in any shape, form or fashion aids or abets in the opening of theatres and picture shows on Sunday."

Judge Swayne gave his grand jury a similar charge when that body was convened three weeks ago, but so far no indictments have been returned. In his special charge Tuesday morning he declared that it had come to him that a large number of the best citizens had entered into a conspiracy to violate the laws.

The charge in part follows: "Gentlemen of the grand jury, I have sent for you to give you an additional charge. I don't know whether I ought to do so or not, but then I any of you ask me any questions feel like what I do and say should be done publicly so that everybody will know the view of the court upon these questions.

"The question is Sunday opening of these picture shows and theatres. Now, I do not make any charge against anybody, I do not know that such a thing exists, but I understand from very good authority that there seems to be a conspiracy among some very good and estimable citizens of Fort Worth to encourage the violation of the law. I am not charging you here for the purpose of assisting you in any way possible toward getting indictments against any such conspirators, nor would there be an law for doing that—understand. I do not mean to charge you that you ought to indict these men who have encouraged these people to do this, but to indict the people who are aiding and abetting it.

"It seems to me that it is a deplorable condition of affairs when good citizens, and a large proportion of them—I don't care if it is a majority of the citizens of Fort Worth or this county—it is a deplorable condition to my mind that any set of good citizens should bind themselves together for the purpose of encouraging the breaking of our laws. It creates a disrespect for all kinds of laws, and good citizens to get together and say they want our laws broken.

"Here is a Sunday law; it is plain that he who runs may read a Sunday law that says that thing of that kind cannot be run on Sunday; and yet I hear that there is a large proportion of our citizens in Fort Worth who are encouraging, abetting and aiding in every way they can these people who are violating this law.

"Not only do I hear that, but I understand—I do not know whether it is true or not—that each and every one of such violators are arrested and taken before the city court—I don't know whether they do it for this purpose or not, but under the law, whoever gets them first has jurisdiction—that they can plead former jeopardy because they are arrested, but they can plead in abatement that these cases must be determined before they can be tried in the county court—and it seems to me that the officials who are doing that, while they are not violating the law, but violate the spirit of the law, if they want the law enforced why not go down there and arrest those men and take them to the court and there have them tried for those offenses, knowing at the time they go out to get jurors that those jurors will be selected possibly from men who have signed the application for them to go along and violate the law. I understand they have not only signed their names, but have had them published in the papers to encourage the violations of the law.

"It seems to me that it is a pretty state of affairs that our grand jury has to sit idle here and see those cases taken to the city court and tried there, 75 or 100 at a time, when it is known at the time that they will not be convicted. For the reason that that judge down there, I don't care how good he is, I don't care how strong his personality may be, he has to sit there quietly and let that jury determine the case without any kind of instruction to them. There is no law that allows the city judge or justice of the peace to charge a jury what the law is. The law those men are violating is absolutely plain, and I understand they come there acknowledging they have violated the law and the juries go out without any kind of instruction from the city judge and return verdicts of not guilty.

"That being the case, it seems to me that the situation demands that I should charge you gentlemen to look thoroughly into that proposition and indict them for Sunday opening; don't indict them for working on Sunday; indict every man who is engaged in it; indict every man who owns a show, every man who sells tickets, every man who aids and abets in any way, shape, form or fashion the opening of these theatres on Sunday. It seems to me that the exigencies of the occasion, after they have tried so many cases down there and tried them all in a bunch, without any kind of instruction from the court, demand that you more thoroughly investigate it and return bills accordingly.

MISS NANNETTE FLACK Prima Donna in Joe Weber's brilliant Musical Play, "Alma Where Do You Live?" at the Wichita Theatre November 23.

of this you will meet with the disapprobation of a large proportion of our citizenship; but, gentlemen, while on do that, remember that at you lack is the law of the state of Texas. It is not for you to say whether or not it is popular; it is not for me to say that, nor for us to say that we desire to stand in with these gentlemen who would like to have the law, violated for the reason that they are our friends, or for the reason that they may have influence in this county or this state; but it is for us and for me to do our duty irrespectively of public opinion.

"We want to see that we have the laws enforced in this county simply and solely because the laws have been enacted and all people must have respect for the laws of the country.

"Gentlemen, return to your room to you duty; I have done mine.

BASEBALL NOTES

The Central Association magnates have voted down a proposition to increase the salary limit.

Chief Bender of the Athletics, took part in 31 games last season, making 11 put outs and 58 assists without an error.

Friends and neighbors of catcher Meyers presented him with a loving cup when he returned to his home in Riverside, Cal.

Hereafter the sale and distribution of all tickets for world's series baseball games will be in charge of the National Commission.

The New York Giants are playing in Florida this week and will arrive in Havana November 25. Several games will be played in Cuba.

With a new president, a new manager and a new ball park the Boston Red Sox should be able to show Hu fans lots of class next season.

Pacific Coast league fans predict that Ryan, the Portland player who goes to Cleveland, will make a bigger sensation than Bodie did last season.

Nothing slow about the Chinese fans. As soon as their baseball season was over they framed up a war in order to have a little excitement during the winter months.

The Virginia league is split wide open. Three clubs stand for the reelection of C. R. Williams, of Roanoke, for president, and the same number of clubs are holding out for W. M. Bradley, of Richmond.

When asked his opinion of the Giants' defeat by the Athletics, Christy Mathewson said, "Great pitchers and seven men in the regular line-up who can hit over .300 is a combination that cannot be beaten."

comes the day when the stately American gobbler places his majestic head beneath the guillotine, the cranberry merchant gets as busy as a prairie dog with two holes, and the small boy begins to make mental measurements of his stomach capacity, wondering if it will hold more than it did last year. The good housewife busies herself preparing all the highly palatable indigestion promoters that have tickled the tastes of the epicurean kings since Methusalem got out of the Castoria division. Everybody seems glad, even the town dog, adds an extra wag of cheer to his caudal appendage, which has hung so many tomato cans and even the grouch so far forgets himself as to smile and admit that the sun has a perfect right to rise and set. All this is occasioned by the fact that the foremost nation of earth worships at the shrine of the Prince of Peace, who in Gethsemane paid the greatest debt that mankind ever owed and is about to give thanks to Him who tempers the wind to the sheep and lamb and at whose beck and call this system of worlds and myriad of men move. J. T. Montgomery, one of the attorneys for the defense in the famous split-bale cotton case, entitled Moody & Co., of Galveston vs. Huddiseth, Alexander & Co., M. K. & T. Railway Co., City National Bank of Bowie and the Wichita Falls Compress Co., says the jury rendered a judgment of $17,000.00 against defendants. Mr. Montgomery is preparing a motion for a new trial to be presented within the legal limit allowed by law. If this motion is overruled, defendants will appeal to the court of civil appeals at Dallas.

The contractors are excavating for the foundation of the J. A. Kemp dwelling in Floral Heights. The same construction company that built the City National Bank building has the contract.

W. H. Downing has discovered a good bed of gravel on his land near the city, which he thinks can be used for either building foundations or road making.

SUITS RESULT FROM BELLEVUE WRECK

Suits for damages against the Fort Worth and Denver growing out of the wrecking of a passenger train near Bellevue a few weeks ago were filed today by A. B. Blanke and his daughter, Eva Blanke of this city. Ten thousand dollars is asked in each case. The complaint alleges that the track and road bed were in a bad state of repair and that the track was in an unsafe and dangerous condition; that it was negligently left in such condition by the railway company's agents, servants and employees and that such negligence was the direct and approximate cause of the injuries to the plaintiffs. Montgomery and Britain are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

$10.00—Reward—$10.00

We want every family in Wichita Falls to test our fresh roasted coffee, and see the difference between it and goods roasted out of town. We know that one pound means repeat orders, and are willing to pay something for that first order. Have hit upon the following plan—Commencing Wednesday, November 15th until December 1st we will take orders for a special blend at 35c per pound. This coffee to be roasted by us and delivered the same day it is roasted. Each pound purchased entitles the purchaser to submit a name for this particular blend and we will pay the party who submits the most appropriate name (which we will adopt for this blend) the sum of Ten Dollars. We are to be the sole judge, but the Ten Dollars will be paid to someone who submits a name for the coffee. The coffee will be delivered and award made as soon as possible after December 1st, which will be within the first five days of the month. Our solicitors will make a canvas of the city but that no one may miss the opportunity we will accept telephone and mail orders and orders may be left at the store. Now we promise you will get more than full value for your 35c and in addition you get a chance at the $10.00. If the coffee don't make good we are the loser as we are staking our reputation as roasters on this deal. All coffee sold by us under the name adopted will be exactly like the first pound. As these orders will be small will expect to collect on delivery.
