WOULD AVOID DEBATE.

By Associated Press. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 30.—W. J. Bryan had nothing to add today to his statement last night regarding the proposed debate between himself and Senator Bailey at Atlanta, except to repeat the objection which he made when the subject was broached at El Paso, namely that a debate would tend to divert attention from issues to individuals.

OAT MARKET UP.

Total Advance For This Week Has Been Ten Cents.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 30.—Amid scenes of great excitement the prices of oats for September delivery advanced to fifty cents, as compared with the closing figures of forty-four and a half cents yesterday. The sensational advance which makes a total gain for the week of ten cents, is due to a concentration of bulk contract grade gains in the hands of a few leading cash grain buyers.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS AT FREDERICK LATELY

Frederick, Okla., Sept. 30.—Augusta Krause, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Krause, living on North Thirteenth street, was thrown from a buggy and seriously injured yesterday afternoon. She is now recovering from her injuries and the physicians think that no permanent ill effect will result from the accident.

The little girl was in the buggy with Mrs. Steinbock and Mrs. Anna Krause, and was returning home from a drive when at the corner of Thirteenth and Hermosa avenue J. A. Carr came from the south in his automobile. The machine frightened the horse and it jumped to the side of the street, throwing the buggy against a telephone pole and all three occupants were thrown out, very painfully injuring Miss Augusta Krause.

Mr. Carr stopped his machine as soon as he could and took the injured girl to the home of her parents, a short distance away, when a physician was immediately summoned.

Concussion of the brain was the worst thing to be feared, and it is very fortunate that the affair proved no worse.

George Hancock, who was arrested here the first part of the month on a charge of attempt to rape, was bound over in Judge Moore's court to await trial in the district court. The bond was fixed at $2,500.

Some of the latest stunts in photography have been pulled off in Wichita Falls this week by H. Kushman, who is representing Burr-McIntosh. The pictures that have been taken have been for advertising purposes and are considered rather marvelous.

One of them, taken from the roof of the lake pavilion is nine feet long, and shows every feature of the lake. It was taken with a camera that turns on a pivot and instead of being one picture, is really a long string of little pictures, each fitted perfectly on to its neighbor and forming a composite whole that is remarkable.

Pictures have been taken from the top of the Wyatt Hotel and the court house and from vantage points in the country near here. As a result there are about eight excellent panoramic views of Wichita Falls, the lake, Floral

MONEY COMMISSION MAY BE APPOINTED

THERE IS NEED OF SOME CONCERTED PLAN FOR NEW MONETARY BILL.

Cotton—New Orleans
New Orleans, Oct. 1

The Aldrich-Vreeland Act Will Be No Longer Effective After July, 1914.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—In something less than five years, to be exact, on June 30, 1914, the Aldrich-Vreeland financial act will expire by limitation, and unless before that time it is replaced by a wisely-framed measure of broad scope, the country will again be in the perilous situation that is commonly believed to have resulted in the panic of 1907-08. There is a general realization of the necessity of legislation on this subject, but a wide difference as to far. Speaker Cannon believes that a mere extension of the present law, with perhaps a few amendments in details, will suffice. President Taft looks with favor upon the proposition to create a great central bank, and there are all sorts of intermediate schemes. Probably that which commands the greatest support will be based upon the recommendations of the Monetary Commission, which has been quietly but effectively at work for more than a year gathering material for the construction of the actual legislation.

A campaign of education is about to begin, for it is understood by Senator Aldrich, who heads the Commission and by the students of finance, that it will be difficult to arouse the interest of the mass of the people in the details of this rather abstruse subject, and that only by general agitation can the National Legislature be brought to the point of action. If it required ten years to bring about a revision of the tariff, certainly a period of less than five years is none too long to perfect and enact legislation on a subject so complex and important as is involved in a general revision of the entire financial system of the republic. Therefore, soon after the return to America from Europe of Senator Aldrich and Professor Andrews and other members of the commission, which is expected to be about the middle of next month, preparations will be made for the publication of the preliminary report of the commission, and it is hoped that this can be ready for submission to Congress when it re-assembles in December. This will be only the beginning, for the full report is to be comprehensive in scope and it cannot possibly be completed within another year, but this will serve the purpose of directing public attention to this important subject and will afford the Senators and representatives material for study to fit themselves to grapple knowingly with such legislation as may ultimately be proposed by the Monetary Commission.

This commission has been up to this point engaged in a careful study in the European capitals of the financial systems of Great Britain and the principal continental powers and a mass of data of the greatest importance to the students of finance has been collected. It is realized that none of the systems as a whole, is adapted to the needs of the United States, because of the peculiar conditions which exist in this country, but in most of them are found some features that may be of value as a foundation for the projected new American plan. Attention will be directed to defects of the existing system which has grown up by accretion, causing it to be described as patch work and as one no longer capable by reason of lack of elasticity and unnecessary restrictions of meeting the business needs of the country.

Though nominally created with the purpose of dealing only with the subject of currency and the bond issues on which the latter is based in large part, the commission has enlarged its scope so as to include the national banking system, and it is believed that even the state banks will be dealt with in the forthcoming report. The projected great central bank will be fully exploited, for there is reason to believe that even in banking circles, considerable misapprehension exists as to the functions of this institution. Based on the history of the operations of the old United States Bank, destroyed by Andrew Jackson, apprehension exists among the officials of national and state banks that this central bank may trench upon their business and be a formidable competitor, so this phase of the matter will be fully dealt with by the commission. The most substantial objection that has been advanced against that project is based upon a doubt whether one central institution would be sufficiently responsive to emergency demands from some distant section of the country, and the suggested corrected measure, looking to the creation of branches of the central bank has only strengthened ed the fear of the existing banks that the United States government is to enter the field of competition with them.

Recent action by Mr. Murray, the comptroller of the currency, involving the assumption of absolute responsibility by bank directors for every part of the banks' business, guarding against loans without proper security to directors and requiring the closest co-operation between the national and state bank examiners in the inspection of the operations of the banks have resulted, it is believed, in bringing these institutions into a much higher state of efficiency than on a sounder business basis than they have ever before enjoyed and the comptroller is fully convinced that with public confidence in the banks fully restored there is no reason to apprehend any struggle or competition for business between the National and state banks on the one hand and government central bank on the other.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS IN MORMON TABERNALE

Salt Lake City, Sept. 25.—President Taft spent the day in comparative quiet here today. The day's program began with a breakfast attended by two hundred citizens at the commercial club, followed by an organ recital at the Mormon tabernacle. The President was then driven to Saltair, a bathing resort on the lake, and then played golf. Tonight he will be a guest of honor of the Alta club at dinner and will later hold a reception. He leaves Salt Lake Sunday at noon after a brief speech at the Mormon tabernacle, and reviewing the living flag of school children.

TELEGRAMS DELAYED.

Effect of Aurora Borealis is Felt in Texas.

Fort Worth, Sept. 25.—Both the Postal and Western Union Telegraph Companies today reported that all their wires over the state were out of commission for long periods, due to the effect of the Aurora Borealis, which rendered the wires useless. This is a most unusual occurrence this far south and the Aurora itself is seldom seen south of Canada. Messages piled up in Dallas relay offices.

Counting Dead in Louisiana.

New Orleans, Sept. 25.—The counting of the dead who perished in Monday's tropical hurricane that swept the states of Louisiana and Mississippi, will undoubtedly continue for several days. Conservative estimates today with additional reports of wrecked boats and homes along the Louisiana coast place the death list at not less than a hundred and fifty, and it will probably include more.

SEMME'S MEMORY HONORED

BAILEY PLANS TO REPLY ONCE MORE

WILL ANSWER BRYAN'S LATEST SPEECH NEXT SATURDAY OR MONDAY.

BRYAN'S SWARM COME BACK

Nebraskan's El Paso Speech is Characteristic and Comprehensive Argument.

Gainesville, Sept. 28.—Senator Bailey said today that he had decided to reply to W. J. Bryan's El Paso address on either Saturday or Monday in Fort Worth. He will talk in the Coliseum and a crowd of probably eight thousand will hear him.

The senator is spending today in reading Bryan's speech which was delivered yesterday and he will prepare an exhaustive reply, supporting his contention against free raw materials. Bailey would not discuss Bryan's address today, preferring more time to read it thoroughly. Bailey expects to make still another reply to Bryan, if the latter continues addressing Texans against their stand on the tariff.

Bryan's address at El Paso yesterday was more of a personal attack than his former address at Dallas, and he said several things apparently intended to reflect upon the senator personally.

His principal criticism of Bailey's attitude was that it was the same as that of the republicans on the same question. He told of the binding force of platform demands and pointed out that the senators who voted for free raw materials carried out the wishes of practically all of the democratic party.

Bryan did not confine himself to Bailey. He took a thrust at those who have accused him of being here to help Campbell's interests and while he did not reply directly to this charge, he said that his mission in Texas was to increase the democratic majority. Those who said that he was losing friends, he said, were mistaken; he was merely locating his enemies.

Over three thousand people heard the El Paso address, which was well received.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED.

Ed Ballew's Grandson Met Death Today at Vernon.

Vernon, Sept. 28.—The seventeen-months-old grandson of Ed Ballew, was burned to death this morning when his dress caught fire from stove coals. The baby's mother had gone to a neighboring house for water, leaving the baby alone in the kitchen. In her absence it drew open the hearth of the cook stove. His screams summoned the mother and neighbors, but the child died almost immediately. The body was badly charred.

C. B. TURTON KILLED.

Former Citizen of Wichita Falls Meets Sudden Death in New Mexico. From Tuesday's Daily.

A telegram to friends of the family in this city from Mrs. C. B. Turton, who is visiting at Little Rock, Ark., announces the killing of her husband at Dawson, New Mexico, at 9 o'clock last night. The telegram gives no particulars, and was worded, "Carl killed at Dawson, New Mexico, last night at 9 o'clock."

Mr. and Mrs. Turton resided in this city for a number of years, and while here Mr. Turton was a conductor on the Denver, later was assistant yard master.

Mrs. Turton has many friends here who will sympathize with her greatly in the loss by death of her husband.

NEW ROUTE TO ANGELO.

Extension of Road From Ballinger Will Give Direct Connection.

The acceptance by San Angelo of Morgan Jones' proposition for a road from Ballinger to that city will give that city almost direct connection with Wichita Falls and will cut off twelve hours off the time needed to from this city to San Angelo. It takes mail leaving San Angelo at night, until the afternoon of the second day following to reach this city. With the extension from Ballinger, there will be an almost direct route between this city and Angelo, it being necessary to change only at Abilene.

SUIT FOR RECEIVER.

Stockholders of Eureka Mining Company Want Injunction.

San Antonio, Sept. 28.—J. K. Lamb, in behalf of several stockholders of the Eureka Gold Mining Company, today instituted suit requesting a receiver for the company's assets. The plaintiffs also ask for an injunction restraining the sale of the mining property in Mexico by J. P. Nelson and the officers of the company.

Old Money.

Mr. F. H. Denison of this city, is the possessor of a relic in the shape of an old piece of paper money (one-sixth of a dollar) bearing date of February 17, 1776, and issued "according to a resolution of Congress, passed at Philadelphia." On the reverse side are the names of the thirteen original states, linked together in a circle, in the center of which are the words, "American Congress; we are one." The relic has been in her family for years and she prizes it highly.

DIES IN DENVER.

Pioneer of Terrell Succumbs in That City.

Terrell, Tex., Sept. 25.—Word was received here today that G. W. Sage, aged fifty, a pioneer of Terrell, died at a sanitarium in Denver this morning. He was en route to the convention of the National Undertakers' Association when taken ill. He will be buried here.

PROSPECTORS HERE GOING TO SEYMOUR

IT IS BELIEVED THAT GOLD EXISTS THERE IN PAYING QUANTITIES.

SEVERAL NUGGETS FOUND

Chicago Parties Willing to Install the Machinery and Work on Shares.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The finding of gold nuggets about eight miles south of Seymour in Baylor county, has attracted a great deal of attention recently and already prospectors are commencing to drift into that section with the idea that an appreciable amount of the precious metal is to be found there.

There seems to be no doubt that some small gold nuggets were really found in Baylor county and it is possible that there is pay dirt there in quantities to make it worth one's while to mine it. This idea is strengthened by the fact that some Chicago parties have already made an offer to install all needed machinery and do the work for half of the proceeds. It is understood that the owner of the land upon which the nugget was found declined this offer.

All sorts of rumors are afloat regarding the find and in some parts the impression seems to prevail that another gold mining territory such as started the rush to California, exists there.

Gold in Texas is not a new discovery. Prominent geologists have from time to time announced that there is a great wealth of gold in this state, especially on the upper Colorado. Just what the developments at Seymour will be remains to be seen.

Trouble in Securing Jury.

Fort Worth, Sept. 28.—A venire of sixty talesmen was exhausted this morning when eighteen were excused in an effort to secure a jury for the third trial of Frank McCue in Judge Simmons' district court on a charge of killing Earl Mabry at Dallas two years ago. Nine were excused because they opposed the death penalty. The second venire of sixty was summoned this afternoon. Only seven jurors have been approved by both sides.

Two men in Fort Worth, Texas, got excited over the North Pole controversy, and one of them was fined for assaulting the other. Texas debates usually are vigorous.—Manchester Union.

The control of waterpower franchises and the elimination of the use of money in political contests are to be the chief issues upon which Lieut. Governor John Strange will conduct his fight for the republican gubernatorial nomination in Wisconsin.

EXHIBIT CAR PLAN MEETS WITH FAVOR

IS ENDORSED BY DIRECTORS OF ASSOCIATION AT QUANAH THIS MORNING.

125 DELEGATES PRESENT

Address By J. A. Arnold of Fort Worth Is Feature of the Foranoon Session.

From Friday's Daily. Quanah, Tex., Sept. 21.—Seventeen towns of Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma are represented at the district meeting here today, with a total of one hundred and twenty-five delegates. Three new clubs have been entered as members.

The directors at the morning session decided to recommend the exhibit car plan to the general meeting this afternoon and sentiment is largely in favor of adopting the idea. The cost of this scheme will be about $2700, which is to be shared by about twenty-five towns, each having a representative on the car at a cost of $100 each. The car will tour Indiana and Illinois.

Quanah arranged a splendid entertainment for her visitors. The illustrated lecture by President Arnold of the state association was received with much interest. The general session will be held this afternoon, when further talks will be heard and the next meeting place selected.

HARRY WHITNEY RETURNS.

Peary and Hubbard are Gathering Arctic-Cook Evidence.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 28.—The Arctic vessel Jeanie, with Harry Whitney of New Haven, the big game hunter, on board arrived here from the Greenland coast by way of Indian Harbor, Labrador.

Bar Harbor, Me., Sept. 28.—Commander Peary and General Hubbard today again conferred over the proofs which Peary has gathered from various sources to show that Dr. Cook has not reached the north pole. Peary's proofs are various in character, some of which in a court of law would be described as direct evidence, while others depend entirely upon deductions.

St. Johns, Sept. 28.—Whitney stated that Cook, whom he met in April of this year at Annatook, declared he had reached the north pole a year before and pledged him not to tell Commander Peary. Peary's steward, William Pritchard was present when the statements were made.

WICHITA TO SHIP CORN INTO BLACK LAND BELT

From Tuesday's Daily.

John L. Cleveland, of Cleburne, is in Wichita Falls today to look after some shipments of corn to his home country and for the first time, probably, in history, this section will ship feed stuffs to the black land belt. Cleburne is in the center of the black land belt and is the county seat of what is supposed to be one of the richest counties in the state. According to Mr. Cleveland, that section was hit fearfully hard by the drought and is therefore compelled to draw on this section for its necessities. This is a state of affairs that has never been known to exist before.

Mr. Cleveland is one of Cleburne's oldest settlers and has long been a prominent business man of that city. While in Wichita he is the guest of Frank Kell.

Bryan Threatens to Return.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 28.—W. J. Bryan left last night for his home at Lincoln, Nebraska, accompanied by his son and daughter-in-law. He said he has no further speaking engagements in Texas after his speech here yesterday, but will return to Texas to defend tariff views whenever he gets ready and he feels called upon to do so.

A seal of oil has been discovered in the Gulf of Mexico, just south of the Texas oil fields. It is so calm that even a baby wouldn't get seasick on it.—Charleston News and Courier.

If Mr. Bryan has heretofore had his doubts about it being an easy matter to raise hell in Texas, he has them no longer.—Louisville Times.

A Texas citizen was run over by a water wagon. That's the only way the water wagon can catch 'em down there.—Allentown Democrat.

Wichita Falls, Texas, October 1, 1909.

A LIVE ONE.

Wichita Falls Times: The combined deposits of the five banks located at Amarillo, as shown by published statements, are $2,085,561.15. When it is taken into consideration that this is at least one-third in excess of what the deposits in those banks amounted to one year ago, it is sufficient evidence that, commercially speaking, Amarillo likes a whole lot of being a "dead one."

Well, who said Amarillo was a "dead one"? Nobody. There is no one so lost to shame as to even hint at such a thing. If by any chance there is anywhere any man who is not sure that Amarillo is alive, let him ask anybody who lives there—if he dares.—Dallas News.

State Press seems dull at times. For further evidence that Amarillo is often referred to as a "dead one," consult some of the anti-literature now being sent out from state headquarters.

A Harvard man in a divorce trial recently said his ideals of love permitted him to love all women. Maybe his ideals will permit it, but the women probably won't.

Until after an election has been ordered on the question of local option for Wichita County, the Times will request its contributors to withhold their communications on the subject. To publish all of such contributions would call for more space than the Times can spare. After the election is ordered, it will, in the judgment of the Times, be in order for an intelligent discussion of the question through the press, and the Times stands ready and willing to give a reasonable amount of its space to each side for that purpose. Editorially, it will, from time to time, say what it sees fit and proper on this subject, as it has always done. The communications already received will be filed away and when the campaign is started they will be given space.

The Chronicle steadfastly refuses to take stock in the unseemly, not to say disgusting, wrangle over the question of who really discovered the north pole. Both the distinguished gentlemen have discovered the pole so far as we are concerned, or care—that is, we have their word for it, and in the end that is all we will have. Privately we are for Dr. Cook, chiefly because he has manifested the proper spirit and because Peary has not, and if the worst comes to the worst as between the Cookites and the Pearyites, we will be a Cookite. Lieut. Peary is hereby thusly advised and he is further informed that he has created a very bad impression on the public mind and if it ever comes to a vote Van Zandt will go against him.—Wills Point Chronicle.

The Denton Record and Chronicle criticizes the University of Texas for raising its entrance standards again and complains that by the time a young man has completed his preparation for his life's chosen work, he is twenty-five or twenty-six years old. We must say that it sounds peculiar for a paper in an intellectual city like Denton, to object to anything in the way of educational advancement. The goal of university training is not the diploma, despite the popular notion, but is an education. Diplomas are cheap enough; a certain New York man will get you one from any college that you name, almost, for a consideration. But the training and culture that are results of a real university education are cheap at any cost, even when it takes twenty-five years to secure them.

A hen in Jasper county, Texas, is reported to have laid 166 eggs in 166 consecutive days. Up in Northwest Texas such a thing would not have been permitted; the old lady would have been permitted to hatch out more egg-laying wonders.

An Oklahoma lady suggests that if suffragette campaigns were conducted only by the most beautiful women, they would be successful, but we doubt if even a bunch of pretty girls could get anything from the Texas Legislature.

Altus is getting acquainted with the Wichita Way of doing things. Concerning the arrival of the first Northwest train, the Democrat says: "The building of this road has been a marvel of rapidity. When the Wichita Falls gentlemen first made their proposition to the city, and were willing to guarantee the completion of the road by the first of January, many of our people were skeptical. They had seen other roads building to the town that required more time. But the road is completed to the city three and a half months ahead of schedule time."—Wichita Times.

The people now have confidence to believe that they will be dealt with justly by the people of this state and are encouraged to push their work more than for several years past, and many miles of new lines are sure to be built, and that will keep Texas growing, in spite of the short crops of this year.—Star-Telegram.

According to reports from Washington the basis for representation in Congress will be fixed at 225,000 for each congressional district. The increase in population it is asserted, will entitle Texas to six more congressional districts, making a total of twenty-two in all. The population of this, the Thirteenth District is given as 373,000, and that of the El Paso District as 450,000. The latter, without disturbing its lines other than dividing it in half, has sufficient population to entitle it to two congressmen. By cutting off a few counties on the district adjoining the Thirteenth, another district could be made, and doubtless this will be done when the time comes for redistricting the state.

In answer to a criticism that was "making enemies in Texas," Mr. Bryan, in his El Paso speech replied: "No, I am not. I am merely driving them out in the open from under cover." If he should be permitted to live, his life over again and make a speech every day during that life, he will never be able to utter a greater truth than the short sentence above quoted. Senator Bailey has his friends and has no doubt added to them since the Bryan-Bailey controversy arose, but every fellow who has had it in for Bryan during the past twelve years is now taking advantage of the situation to play even.

Always have something good to say to strangers about Wichita Falls. It does not become a good citizen to "knock" on his town, even if things are not just to his liking. The time to settle any existing differences of opinions will come up in the proper way for adjustment in the regular and proper way, and then will be the time to voice your sentiments. If you are in the minority join in heartily with the plan outlined by the majority for the building of a greater Wichita Falls.

To judge from the following in the Altus Democrat, it would seem that somebody has been telling something: Did you walk down Main street about 8:30 or 9 this morning? Did you notice the large crowds of tired looking men which lined the sidewalk? They were some of the ones who took in the big excursion to Wichita Falls yesterday. The excursion train did not arrive here until about 7:30 this morning, getting out of Wichita Falls about 12:30 last night. The excursionists all report a good time and their looks go far toward confirming the report.

The Newcastle Register has the right idea about it—listen:

"Wichita Falls is the busiest town we know of in Texas. We were up there two days this week and it looked good to us. Every fellow you saw or met was in a hurry. Secretary Gohlke of the Chamber of Commerce, is a live wire and the right man in the right place. The only criticism we could make, (if a criticism) is that the real estate men of that growing city do not take hold and follow up the prospects and propositions he gets on foot."

R. Q. Evans of Greenville will make the race for Congress in the Fourth district against the present incumbent, C. B. Randell, who is now serving his fifth term, and if the Fourth can't furnish any better or more able man than Evans to oppose him, he will experience but little trouble in winning his sixth term.—Wichita Times.

The Times man must have been talking to somebody from Greenville—Denton Record-Chronicle.

The accommodations at the A and M. College have been filled and a large bunch of boys will soon experience the exhilaration of sleeping in a tent while the weather is being revised downward. What a benevolent and fatherly administration Texas has, to be sure.

Ballinger and San Angelo papers have formed a mutual knocking society and each knocks the other with regularity. Being the only two wet towns in West Texas they ought to be in sympathy with each other, and besides, knocking isn't the West Texas way.

The city council of Teague has officially recognized Dr. Cook as the genuine North Pole discoverer. While this endorsement is not valuable in a scientific way, it is additional evidence of Texas' unfailing ability to get on the right side.

During the past four years Wichita Falls has added more to her population and wealth than any other town in the state of Texas. Not only has the city grown and prospered, but Wichita county has grown, both in population and wealth in about the same proportion as has Wichita Falls. This splendid showing has been accomplished by pluck and enterprise, and so long as that spirit prevails, both town and county will continue to grow and prosper.

The following special to the Dallas News from Washington shows up well for the national banks in Texas.

The consolidated statement of the 489 national banks in Texas, exclusive of the six reserve banks in the larger cities, at the close of business on September 1st, shows loans and discounts amounting to $103,282,185; lawful money reserve in banks, $5,621,445; individual deposits, $96,049,067. The average per centage of legal reserve to deposits was 18.96.

After all, it has not yet been proven that the discovery of the North Pole will be of any real value to anyone, save the fellows who made the discovery, who no doubt will lecture and write books for the rest of their lives, and those who hear and buy the books will receive in return nothing, save knowledge for their time and money. The question naturally arises, do we get value received?

There is neither ryme nor reason in the protest of the Salt Lake City ministers against Taft's speaking in the Mormon temple. It has been the custom of the Protestants of that city for years to attend the concerts at the temple on Sunday and yet no voice has been lifted in protest. It strikes one the objection is somewhat far-fetched.

B. Q. Evans of Gainesville, will make the race for Congress in the Fourth District against the present incumbent, C. B. Randell, who is now serving his fifth term, and if the Fourth can't furnish any better or more able man than Evans to oppose him, he will experience but little trouble in winning his sixth term.

There is more genuine, sincere and hearty boostability in the city of Quanah today than there was ever crowded into a similar space before. The Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma Association of Commercial Clubs is meeting there and they begin boosting where the others leave off.

A New York man paid $300 for a pie. In the absence of authentic information, we must necessarily assume that it was made from one of our Wichita County pumpkins to command that price.

An eminent Austrian specialist says that people do not die because they are ill, but that they are ill because they are dying. It doesn't matter; we are just as dead one way as we are the other.

A rather pretty alliteration would be, "Clarendon, the Pittsburg of the Panhandle." Watch our smoke.—Clarendon Times.

Do you hope to secure Pittsburg's other attributes along with the smoke?

If, instead of arguing tariff matters with Bailey, Bryan would reply to the charge that his mission in Texas is to launch Campbell's senatorial boom, he would improve his standing among the democracy of the state.

"We Boost for Altus," was the legend on the badges of the excursionists from Altus yesterday. Come again, boosters; you're as welcome as the flowers in May, and we hope it rains so they can grow.

Since Peary's "indictments" of Cook, one can see where he was right in not wanting a home-coming celebration. The reception committee ought to meet him with a rope.

The much-vaunted empty jail in angelic Amarillo, seems to have been caused more by the ability of her offenders to get out of jail than by a lack of wrong-doers.

The president will be fed on corned beef and cabbage at San Antonio. That sounds rather homely and plebeian, but you must remember that it will be Texas beef and Texas cabbage.

Our desire for letting well enough alone forbids us taking any part in the newspaper discussion about the weather we are having. Memories of last August are still with us.

With new high-water marks in the prices for both hogs and cotton made in the past few weeks, there ought to still be a few who are content to be tillers of the soil.

Denton poultry raisers complain that their chickens are being eaten up by fleas. We are glad to note that the fabled insects have changed their base of supplies.

And still no city has applied for the site of the state leprosy hospital. We the Fort Worth Board of Trade endorse Amarillo for it.

SCENES ARE CHANGING

Up-River Towns are Today Taking Part in the Celebration Ceremonies.

New York, Sept. 29.—The Half Moon and Clermont sailed up the Hudson River today to carry inspiration to the cities and towns which begin their part of the celebration. Historical exercises appropriate of the day, are being held at the public schools and several tablets were dedicated at points of historical interest.

Wilbur Wright started his flight in his aeroplane at eight fifty-seven, remaining in the air ten minutes, passing over the top of Castle William, and making a complete circuit of the island, a distance of two miles.

Later Wright made another flight during which he crossed the lower bay and passed around the statue of liberty. He made this flight in six minutes and thirty seconds. Wright said he believed he made fifty miles an hour on his return trip.

AMUSEMENTS

Tim Murphy is on the way with his cheerful optimistic personality to furnish an evening of gay and tender amusement to theatre goers at the Wichita Theatre on Saturday matinee and evening.

Mr. Murphy never grows stale and he never grows old because his humor springs to the front of human nature. He acts no remote and awful characters, but the native American, the man of today, the man at our elbow, and in one mood or another he is acting one of us. "Oh, Wad some power the giffle gie us to see ourselves as others see us!" sang good old Bobby Burns. If we can not reflect ourselves the actor can, especially can the comedian. Tim Murphy one day told the writer that his characterizations were never based on one person he had seen or studied but that every day of his life in his home, on the street, in a store, in a theatre, he noted humors and traits which he ticketed and put away in the stores of his subconsciousness to use when the time came to create one of those delightful characters the public love so much. It may be in the way a man takes a cigar out of his mouth, or handles a pen when he begins to write or is silent or talks, or tilts his hat, or takes a friend's hand, or glances at an enemy, or holds himself in sorrow, or laughs down the troubles of life—he preserves there all these little touches of human nature for the mosaic of a natural sketch in the next comedy. When he appears here next Saturday Mr. Murphy will display a new character, better it is said than any other that he has had, in his latest success, "Cupid and the Dollar," a new three act American comedy by a new dramatist, Charles Jeffrey. At the head of Mr. Murphy's company is talented and charming Miss Dorothy Sherrod and not less interesting is the source from which she studied the characterization which she acts in "Cupid and and the Dollar" is a comedy whose story is founded on international marriages and on the habit of American parents educating their children and neglecting themselves. The scenic embellishments and the modish dressing of the ladies are said to be very beautiful.

In addition to this play, Mr. Murphy has consented to give a special ladies and children's matinee at which he will present his famous success, "Old Innocence." This is the play that Mr. Murphy presented here last season and gave universal satisfaction.

WILL HARDLY ACCEPT.

Bryan Expected to Refuse to Debate at Atlanta.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 29.—W. J. Bryan will not arrive here until tonight, and so far it is not known whether he will agree to debate at Atlanta, Ga., with Senator Bailey on the tariff. It is declared here that Bailey has not so far made a special request for a debate and consequently the Nebraska will in all likelihood notify the Atlanta citizens that he will not go there to debate.

RUN DOWN BY TRAIN

Peter Murray of New York in Hospital At Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Sept. 29.—Peter Murray aged thirty-one is in the college hospital today suffering injuries about the head and shoulders as a result of being run down by a Rock Island passenger train on the Trinity river bridge late last night. His home is in New York.

Governor Harman of Ohio, who has been mentioned as a possible presidential candidate on the democratic ticket has accepted an invitation to deliver the oration at the democratic day celebration to be held at the Texas State Fair in Dallas next month.

Although the state primary in Alabama will not be held until next year, the contest for office has become so tangled up with the question of prohibition that the vote on the latter in November is likely to decide who is to be the next governor of the state, the next United States senator and to fill all the other important offices.

The youngest member of the select company engaged for the New Theatre in New York, Miss Leah Bateman-Hunter, arrived from England the other day. She is only seventeen and is said to be the youngest actress who ever played Juliet in London.

Both Mme. Yvette Guilbert and Albert Chevallier will make American tours this season, but will appear separately. Mr. Chevallier keeps to his coster impersonations, while Mme. Guilbert will sing English folk-songs.

Nothing daunted, Mr. Bryan has stepped down into Texas and taken a hand in running Senator Bailey's state. We think we can see the finish of that fight before it fairly begins.—Augusta Chronicle.

"A Broken Idol," "The Motor Girl" and "Havana," which have been summer shows in New York, will soon be on the road.

Judge Robert S. Lovett of Texas is the latest to answer "here" in the call of the roll of self-made men.—Atlanta Constitution.

the Dollar." Original, though in another way from Mr. Murphy, she took as her model a well known American girl to whom conspicuous international reputation has come in the newspapers and magazines during the past year. Those who have seen "Cupid and the Dollar" are said to have experienced no difficulty in recognizing the original from Miss Sherrod's artistically realistic study. Some inkling of the unknown may be inferred from the fact that "Cupid

AUTO FIRE ENGINE IS BOUGHT BY CITY

CITY COUNCIL MAKES PURCHASE OF NEW EQUIPMENT AT A MEETING TODAY.

WILL COST ABOUT $7500

Need of New Engine Shown at Fire Which Broke Out as Council Met.

From Tuesday's Daily. The city council this afternoon purchased the automobile fire engine for which there has been considerable recent agitation and the machine will be here and in use by the first of the coming year. The company supplying the machine agrees to furnish an instructor so that the local firemen may become proficient in handling the apparatus, and the city's contract is considered a good one.

The need of an engine was demonstrated shortly before the council convened. The department responded to an alarm on 8th street near the convent where a barn on the premises of Lee Simmons were afire. The line was laid in good time, but the fire assumed dangerous proportions on account of the pressure, which was very poor.

The total cost of the engine will be delivered, close to the full amount appropriated, $7,500. The city is able to pay cash for it owing to an arrangement with the banks, who advance the money on two-year notes.

Wichita Falls will receive a total of $8,916.50 from the public school fund of the state for the support of the schools of the Wichita Independent School District this year, being entitled to the sum of $6.25 for every child of scholastic age. There are 1,426 children of scholastic age in the district according to the school enumeration, which gives the above amount.

This amount does not include the apportionments for transfers, which will be quite material, as a large number of new families have moved into this city since the beginning of the year, entitling the schools of this city to a certain proportionment of the individual apportionment.

The direct tax of fifty cents per $100 valuation for the district, figured on the city valuations will give the schools an additional revenue of over eighteen thousand dollars and the total income for the support of Wichita's institutions during the present session will be over twenty-six thousand dollars.
