VERDICT OF GUILTY AGAINST DR. HYDE

JURY CAME IN THIS MORNING AND ANNOUNCED DECISION IN FAMOUS CASE.

GETS LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Case Is to Be Appealed and Defendant Has Not Lost Hope for Freedom.

Kansas City, May 16.—The jury in the case of Dr. Bennett Clarke Hyde, charged with the murder of Colonel Thomas H. Swope, this morning returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and his punishment was assessed at life imprisonment.

It is likely that the defense will ask for a new trial and take the case to the highest court in an effort to save the physician.

Hyde was indicted for the alleged poisoning of Col. Swope who was a millionaire and philanthropist. He was also accused of poisoning Christian and Margaret Swope, who died. The case was tried before Judge Latah and went to the jury at 9:55 on the night of May 13. The argument of the prosecution showed that Mrs. Hyde benefitted to the extent of two hundred and seventy-five thousand through the death of Swope and that the death of Christian and Margaret profited her about seventy thousand each.

When the verdict was announced, Mrs. Hyde threw her arms around her husband and wept silently. Dr. Hyde sat motionless and looked firmly at Judge Latah while the verdict was being read.

"I haven't lost hope" he declared as he was led away to his cell.

SHAKEUP ON KATY.

Ummerous Official Changes Understood to Be Planned.

St. Louis, May 16.—It is reported this morning that the general shakedown on the M., K. & T. will include the transfer of W. B. Groseclose from here to Chicago, to be assistant freight traffic manager. It is said J. W. Allen, now general freight agent of the Texas lines, will come here as general freight agent; that Allen will be succeeded by J. L. West, assistant here. That E. S. Briggs at Houston, is to become assistant general freight agent here when J. L. West, the present assistant here, succeeds Allen at Dallas, and that E. H. Coombs, at San Antonio is going to Houston as assistant general freight agent. The report is now officially confirmed.

STOKES CLARK ACQUITTED.

Is Found Not Guilty of Murder of the Ranger.

Weatherford, May 14.—The jury this morning returned a verdict of not guilty of the case of Stokes Clark, who was charged with the killing of State Ranger Homer White at the railroad station here over a year ago. Clark formerly lived at Fort Worth. The acquittal of Clark followed the trial in District Judge Patterson's court here in which able lawyers on both sides contended.

NO AGREEMENT YET.

Little Hopes of a Verdict From Hyde Jury.

Kansas City, May 14.—At noon the jury in the case of Dr. Hyde charged with murder of Col. Thomas Swope failed to agree. Prosecutor Conkling has given up hope that the jury will reach an agreement. Judge Latah announced today that he will probably hold the jury until Tuesday night in hopes of a verdict.

MALADMINISTRATION IS CHARGED AT CONFERENCE AGAINST LEADING BISHOP

Asheville, May 14.—When the General Conference of the Methodist Church, South met today a recommendation fixing the Episcopal residence was referred to the calendar. The Committee on Education reported on the differences between Vanderbilt University and the church and recommended that the Board of Trustees be invited to meet the committee in Asheville not later than May 18th to discuss the differences and adjust them if possible.

By an almost unanimous vote the Conference decided to adopt the resolution calling for a meeting of the Board of Trustees here.

The Committee on Episcopacy reported the receipt of a letter from W. F. Packard of the Conference, charging Bishop Morrison with maladministration.

Bishop Morrison at once demanded an investigation but later asked that the charges take the regular course. The filing of these charges may lead to the bishop's superannuation.

By a vote of the conference and at the request of Bishop Key of Texas, he was granted the superannuate relation. A committee of investigation was appointed by the bishops in the case of Morrison and the conference adjourned for the day.

FLOWING OIL WELL IS BROUGHT IN AT PETROLIA; AFFAIR KEPT SECRET

From Monday's Daily. Authentic information has been received that a flowing oil well has been brought in at the Petrolia field recently. The owners of the well for some reason refuse to confirm the rumor, but it is known to be a fact. The well was brought in about five days ago and was capped just as soon as the workmen could do so. It is located on the Taylor tract about two miles south of Petrolia and is the property of the Producers' Oil Company.

The facts regarding the depth and capacity of the well are being kept a close secret, and an air of mystery surrounds the well altogether. The Times is able to state upon the best authority, however, that the well has been brought in. Just why the matter has been shrouded in such secrecy is not known, but the owners evidently have good reasons for the course they are pursuing.

Oil Cases Reversed.

New Orleans, La., May 16.—The United States Appellate Court today reversed the decision in the case of Annie E. Snow against R. R. Hazelwood and the case of Harris Masterson against Annie E. Snow. The suits involve extensive claims in the Spindletop oil field, Houston.

Texarkana, May 14.—Dock McLane, a negro, was lynched at Ashdown, Ark., by a masked mob of 25 men in the jail yard last night. He was conveyed from the station to the jail by officers when the mob, which had been waiting, closed in on the party. Deputy Sheriff Head, in attempting to resist the efforts of the mob, was seriously wounded. McLane stabbed Ernest Hale, white, on April 3rd. He was taken to the Boston, Bowie county jail. Yesterday he was taken to Ashdown, when the lynching occurred. Hale is still alive in the hospital here.

PETROLIA GUSHER AROUSES INTEREST

FACTS ARE STILL BEING KEPT AS SECRET AS POSSIBLE BY PROMOTERS.

TO MAKE TEST SHORTLY

Known That 100-Barrel Tank Was Filled From Well Within Three Minutes.

From Wednesday's Daily. Interest in the oil field at Petrolia has been greatly increased since it is known beyond a question of doubt that the well recently brought in by the Producers' Oil Company is a "gusher."

Parties who know what they are talking about, say that a 100-barrel tank was filled to overflowing within the short space of three minutes, when orders were given to "cap" the well. The oil from this gusher flowed through a six-inch pipe into the 100-barrel tank. The same party who furnished the Times with this information, who is an experienced oil and gas man, gives it as his candid opinion that this "gusher" will produce from 800 to 1000 barrels per day. He also is authority for the statement that the company which brought the well in has made an offer of a bonus of $50 per acre for leases on some oil lands in the field.

The "gusher" is on what is known as the C. T. Taylor tract, and the terms of the lease provide that a thorough test must be made of all wells within fifteen days after they are brought in. This "gusher" was brought in thirteen days ago, and according to the statement of the Times' informant, the final test of the well can not be delayed but for two days longer, and when this is done, all that has been written about this particular well will be confirmed.

GENEROUS RAIN IN NORTHWEST TEXAS

HEAVY SHOWERS FELL THROUGHOUT THIS SECTION OF STATE LAST NIGHT.

THIS COUNTY IS VISITED

Three-Quarters of an Inch is Recorded Locally—Corn and Cotton Helped.

From Saturday's Daily. The success of the corn and cotton crops in Northwest Texas and Oklahoma was made practically certain last night by a steady downpour of rain, from half an inch to an inch and a half in depth, throughout North Texas and Oklahoma. Reports received by the Times today indicate that the precipitation was general throughout this section. In Northwest Texas there was rain along the Denver from Amarillo to Fort Worth and on the Valley out as far as Spur and as far South as Stamford.

Oklahoma was visited by a hard rain, covering practically the entire state. All points on the Northwestern were visited, the rain being about as heavy as the local showers. Points on the Wichita Falls and Southern were liberally visited, a hard rain falling during the night.

From Childress to Amarillo a heavy rain fell for about two hours and from Childress to this city about three hours. At Quanah the precipitation was one and seven-eighths inches, while from Decatur to Fort Worth on the Denver the rain fell was near the two-inch mark.

Rain fell from 2 to 4 a. m. at Byers and from 1 to 4 at Petrolia. Holiday, Dundee, Seymour, Bomarton and Goree were liberally visited, while about an inch and a half was recorded at Munday. Wehnert, Haskell and Stamford enjoy fair rains, with light showers at Anson. There was no rain at Abilene. All points on the Stamford and Northwestern branch of the Wichita Valley were visited, there being incessant rain for about twenty-four hours at Spur and heavy rains at Sargent, Aspermont, Peacock and Jayton.

The local rain began falling at about 1 o'clock and continued steadily for about three hours, about three-quarters of an inch being recorded by the weather bureau gage. The shower was unaccompanied by wind and soaked into the ground thoroughly, being just the kind of rain needed to help the corn and cotton. It was very welcome to farmers and everyone else. During the morning light showers fell intermittently, beginning about 9:00 o'clock. The sky gives promise of more wet weather before the day is over. Good feeling prevails locally since the rain and it is felt that the general outlook is much more optimistic. The rain will do a great deal towards making corn and cotton in this county and will be of general benefit to all crops.

Over an Inch of Rainfall.

From Thursday's Daily. Between eight and ten o'clock this morning one and one-eighth inches of rain fell locally, being the first real heavy rain this city has enjoyed in many months. The rain covered Wichita county fairly well and points along the Wichita Falls and Southern were also visited. There were good showers up the Northwestern, but outside of a few scattering showers, there was no other rain in this section.

This morning's rain will not be of great benefit to corn and cotton, but will give sufficient tank water on the ranches to last for months and will serve to set at rest the fears of the cattlemen on this subject. In town the streets were thoroughly soaked and deep mud is in evidence on all the streets.

The rain today has put sufficient moisture in the ground to set all fears as to corn and cotton at rest for some time and this county can now face dry weather without a quiver.

When it is remembered that up to this time a heavy shower or so has been the best to be seen locally in the way of wetness, this morning's rain will be more appreciated.

The creeks in this vicinity are up this afternoon following the morning's rain; there is a perceptible increase in the amount of water in the lake. The Wichita River has risen slightly since this morning and will probably be still higher before tonight.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, Tex., May 19.—All streams and creeks in this section are bank full today and many are overflowed, putting the lowlands under water. The rise is due to heavy rains in the last few days, the heaviest downpour being experienced last night. Trinity River is higher today than in two years and it is reported that the flood stage will reach Dallas tonight. The gauge here shows twelve feet. Wires are down in several localities, but the damage to property is slight. Rain fell last night—west, as far as Abilene; east, to Greenville, and south, to the Gulf.

Texas News Service Special. Weatherford, Tex., May 19.—The Clear Fork of the Trinity River is bank full today as a result of the rains last night, but falling at noon. In the electrical storm last night which accompanied the rains, a dwelling was struck by lightning and badly damaged, but no one was hurt.

Texas News Service Special. Durant, Okla., May 19.—An explosion attending the attempt of four robbers to wreck the vault of the Peoples National Bank at Wapanucka, 30 miles north last night was followed by a desperate battle with the citizens in which the yegmen fled to the railroad track and escaped on a hand car. One of the robbers was captured during the fight with the citizens when his horse was shot from under him. He was seriously wounded and his identity is not yet learned. The name of the citizen wounded is W. C. Gibson, who suffered a broken leg when the yegmen fled. The robbers used dynamite.

KEY GETS LOVING CUP FROM TEXAS MINISTERS AT CONFERENCE TODAY

By Associated Press. Asheville, N. C., May 19.—At the Methodist Conference here today Bishop Key was presented with a loving cup by the Texas delegation.

The matter of increased representation of laymen in the annual conference which was acted upon yesterday, was reconsidered today on the ground that the measure cannot be changed without a two-thirds vote by this conference and a three-fourths vote by the annual conference. The old law remains in effect.

The discussion then entered into the women's memorials for laity rights.

DIAMOND ROBBERY HERE LAST NIGHT

JEWELS TO VALUE OF SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS TAKEN FROM MRS. REID'S HOME.

TWO OTHER BURGLARIES

W. L. White and King Grocery Company Lose Small Sums of Money.

From Saturday's Daily. Three burglaries effected in Wichita Falls last night by unknown parties and one substantial haul and two smaller ones were made. The county authorities are at work on the cases and hope to be able to run the intruders down.

The residence of Mrs. M. L. Reid at 908 Burnett was entered sometime last night and diamonds to the value of six hundred dollars were taken. Entrance was effected through a back door by the thief, who secured the jewels and made his escape, the burglary not being discovered until this morning. He secured three diamonds, valued at about six hundred dollars and a small amount of money. A watch which he could have obtained without difficulty, he left behind.

The residence of E. L. White at 1510 Tenth street was also entered and about fifteen dollars was taken from the clothing of Mr. White at that place. A ten dollar bill was taken from a small roll of bills in the vest pocket, the remainder being allowed to remain, and about five dollars in silver was taken from the pants pocket.

The King Grocery store at 717 Seventh street was also entered last night, entrance being effected by forcing the lock at the back door. About four dollars was taken from the cash drawer, but as far as Mr. King was able to ascertain nothing else was taken. An attempt was made to enter the residence of Mrs. A. D. Anderson at 1106 Austin, but it was unsuccessful. The officers are exerting all possible efforts to locate the perpetrator of these burglaries and hope to be able to record an arrest shortly.

Walter Reid has offered a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest of the party or parties who perpetrated the burglary at the home of his mother.

BAILEY'S SUPPORT GOES TO COLQUITT

SENATOR WRITES LETTER TO PLAINVIEW FRIEND DECLARING FOR HIM.

FRIENDLY TO POINDEXTER

Senator's Platform, However, Does Not Please Him As Well As Does Colquitt's.
From Tuesday's Daily.
The below letter from Senator Bailey to S. L. Russell of Plainview, announcing himself in favor of Colquitt, was published in the Dallas News of this morning:
"United States Senate, Washington, D. C., May 6, 1910.—Mr. S. L. Russell, Plainview, Texas: My Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter in which you ask me the direct question as to whether, in view of recent developments in the contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas and the conflicting claims of some of my friends concerning my real feeling toward two of the candidates engaged in that contest, I shall take any part, active or otherwise, in behalf of Judge Poindexter or Mr. Colquitt, and if so which of the two it will be.
"As one of my constituents, you have the right to ask me this question and you are likewise entitled to have a frank answer from me. While I have, owing to pressing duties in the Senate, thus far refrained from entering into that contest, I have at this time no hesitancy in answering your question. No living man can truthfully assert that I have ever failed to announce my position upon any matter affecting the welfare of the people of Texas.
"It is doubtful if I shall feel called upon to take any active part in the campaign now in progress. The fact is well known that I have heretofore declared my personal friendship for Judge Poindexter, and I would now and at all times prefer to aid his election, but should the progress of the campaign develop such conditions as would endanger the election of Judge Poindexter to such an extent as to render his defeat morally certain, I would feel it my duty and the duty of my friends in Texas to give undivided support to Mr. Colquitt. Of course, my attitude toward the other candidates for the nomination is too well known to the citizens of Texas to make a statement with respect to them in the least necessary.
"Candor compels me, however, to say that while gratitude and personal considerations strongly incline me to support Judge Poindexter, Mr. Colquitt's platform in so far as it relates to the leading issues involved in the contest, more nearly coincides with

The nature of the plaintiffs demand being as follows, to wit: Plaintiff alleges that he is the owner in fee simple of the land hereinafter described, situated in Wichita County, Texas, and that for more than ten years next before the filing of this suit he has been in actual and peaceful possession of the said land, and has had same actually enclosed under fence and has paid all taxes assessed against said land and has been using, enjoying and cultivating same for more than ten years before the filing of this petition; that he has claimed said land against the world and held actual, open and adverse possession of said land against the persons whomsoever. The plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land, by virtue of the title above pleaded, holding same in fee simple, to-wit: 1st, Cole Tract; Survey No. 825 in the name of James Cole, Patent No. 429, Vol. 11, Abstract No. 41, containing 320 acres more or less. 2nd, Cowan Tract; That real property situated in Wichita County, Texas, located by virtue of Warrant No. 237, issued by the Commissioner of Claims and act approved February 13, 1860, to the heirs of David Cowan. Patented to said heirs by Patent No. 629, Vol. 13, Abstract No. 42, Survey No. 823, containing 320 acres, more or less. 3rd, Texas Emigration & Land Co. May Assignee of the Texas Emigration & Land Company by virtue of Certificate No. 1010, Patent No. 1162 Vol. 14, containing 169 acres of land, more or less. Plaintiff further alleges that on the first day of April 1910, he was seized and possessed of said land, and that on said day, defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises, and ejected plaintiff therefrom and unlawfully withheld from him, the possession thereof to his damage $10,000.00; that the reasonable rental value of said premises is $1500.00 per year; that the claim and apparent claim of said defendants, is a cloud upon plaintiff's title.
Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to appear and answer to this petition and that upon final hearing he have judgment for the title and possession of said land, and cancellation of the claim of defendants as a cloud upon his title, for his rents, damages and cost of suit.

STAND BY HOME.

Speaking of standing by home enterprises, it is a question upon which we all agree—in theory.

It is no trouble to establish by the statements of bankers that the home banks should have first consideration in the way of deposits and other patronage.

It is easy to show the justice of the argument in favor of buying your lumber from dealers who live here and contribute their share to the support of the city's welfare.

No one should consider for a moment the suggestion that the people of Wichita Falls should send away from home to get their flour, with an excellent home enterprise producing, as they declare themselves, the very best article obtainable.

The management of the brick plant will bear out the statement that none but home-made brick should go into the splendid buildings going up in the city.

The grocery dealers will agree with us that it is unfair to send away for supplies which they are ready to furnish at fair prices.

The spirit of standing by home enterprises contributes largely to the excellent business built up by the brom factory, for which the owners are no doubt grateful.

The home bakers believe in the statement that they are able to supply the demands in their line.

The home laundries insist, and they are correct, that they are entitled to first consideration in that line.

The dry goods merchants will testify heartily that a citizen of Wichita Falls who sends off to Sears-Robuck & Co. for goods which they are prepared to supply is unpatriotic.

The implement dealers and hardware merchants cannot see the justice of Wichita Falls money going to foreign fields for supplies which they handle.

The shoe dealers would feel slighted if any of us should get our supplies in that line from a mail order house.

Dealers in real estate could not see the justice of property owners turning their interests over to people who reside in some other city.

The automobile dealer will tell you that he ought to have some advantage over the dealer who resides outside of Wichita Falls.

The local insurance agent feels that he is entitled to the premium on policies written on Wichita Falls property. You could not convince the furniture dealers that it is right to send away for goods which they are ready to supply.

Local lawyers could hardly be convinced that it would be just to them to send to Dallas for an attorney to look after the litigation in the courts.

The physicians and dentists claim that they are prepared to take care of all business in their lines, and that home patronage should be given them.

Local capital invested in railroads feels that it should be given all the encouragement possible by home people.

The butcher stands ready to supply all demands in his line.

Local carpenters, bricklayers and other laborers feel that they have first call on work to be performed in this city.

Contractors who live here argue well that in giving them home business you are helping to build up your home town.

And the office-seeker—doesn't he sing well the song that his neighbor should stand by him as against the fellow who lives somewhere else?

These things are mentioned, not in the spirit of criticism, but to remind those who believe in and argue for home enterprises that the home printer is also entitled to the same consideration along that line. The money paid out for labor in the printing offices here is practically all spent among Wichita Falls business men, and the Times believes that the business men, in turn, should give the home printer first consideration on work which can be done at home.

"If we never used the paper to advertise . . . how could we expect the people to know we have a real live hardware store?" Is the pointed question asked by one of Wichita Falls' enterprising hardware merchants in an advertisement which appeared in yesterday's paper. There are several ways in which to draw trade to one's place of business. One is to hire a cheap speaker to announce to all within the sound of his "fog-horn" voice where the best bargains are to be obtained; another is to stand on the street corners and hang around the wagon yards and watch for a chance customer, and when he makes his appearance, nab and swing onto him like grim death to a "nigger" until you land him at your place of business and force him to buy something before you turn him loose. Nine chances to ten he will be willing to do this to get away from you and your place of business. But in order to get him in good humor before he leaves, give him a box of out-of-date collars, an old shop-worn hat, or something you have tried to work off on the unsuspecting until it is worn thread-bare, and if he is "easy" he will accept the gift and really thank you for it, and that kind of a fellow can always be counted upon as one of your regular customers. But, in the opinion of the Times, the best way to let the public know where you are and the business you are engaged in is through the columns of the newspaper, and the live-wire merchant who adopts that plan, is generally kept too busy waiting on his trade to fool away his time looking for customers outside of his place of business.

With only about eight thousand short of the necessary fifty thousand dollar packery bonus, it will be a great calamity to let it pass. Those property owners who have not contributed anything toward securing this splendid enterprise may reason that those who have already strained themselves to get it up to the $42,000 mark will contribute the balance in order to land the enterprise. But in this they may be mistaken. Let's get busy and make this $200,000 packery a certainty. As somebody aptly remarked at last night's meeting: "We can't make it rain, but we can build a packing house if we will only pull together."

The $50,000 bonus for the Wichita Falls $200,000 packery plant lacks only a few hundred dollars of being raised, and it is now almost a certainty that the packing plant will be landed. In the raising of this bonus, some from whom large donations were expected gave absolutely nothing. Others gave more liberally than they should, or more liberally than was expected of them. Those who gave nothing, and who own valuable property will share just as much in the benefits to be derived from enhanced values of property as those who gave liberally. It is unnecessary to mention their names, except to note that they were conspicuous for their absence on the subscription list.

Oh Lord, now that everything is coming our way, purge every democratic soul of hot air and vainglory, and insert large installments of common sense in every democratic cranium; and, oh, remember, Lord, our proneness to make fools of ourselves just when we have the world by the tail and a downhill pull, and see that we don't get in bad this time.—Houston Post.

THE "KNOCKER."

No city, however great may be the predominance of the booster element, is entirely free from the class known as "knockers." Oklahoma City, with all her enthusiastic boosters, has a few. Seattle, which is supposed to be the last word in boosting, has them. Not many, perhaps, but a few. It is not to be expected, therefore, that Wichita Falls should be entirely free from them.

By the term knocker, we do not mean a man who necessarily is ashamed of his town or who has no faith in its future. A man may be neither of these and yet give careless utterance to sayings that tend to discourage the newcomer and make him feel less hopeful and enthusiastic about what he had probably already decided was one of the best towns on the footstool. Whatever the spirit that prompts it, knocking is knocking. One of Wichita's strongest pulling cards is that it is unnecessary to exaggerate about her. The truth is good enough. One thoughtless, disparaging statement about Wichita Falls can do more harm than ten enthusiastic boosters can overcome.

In addressing the mass-meeting at the court house recently, President Emerson of the United States Packing Company, said that the man who was not proud enough of Wichita Falls to help build her ought to get out. It is a significant fact that both Mr. Emerson and Mr. Kentner, who is to build the new brick plant, are already among this city's most enthusiastic friends and they are overlooking no opportunity to put in a good word in her behalf.

A man who has been in Wichita Falls only a few months and who is associated with a concern that is doing more business than it can begin to handle, was heard recently to warn a prospective investor against "going too strong" here. The investor had already put in a good deal of money here and is going to put in more, so he wanted to know why. The other fellow was knocking because he lost some money in town lots in a "boom" town some time ago and he hadn't gotten the sand out of his eyes.

If we can't eliminate the knocker from our midst, we can at least counteract his vapings by putting in a good word at every opportunity.

Think about the union depot and the railroad shops that are to be built this year; the streets that are to be paved; the five-story building that is going up; the packing house and the brick plant and the other new industries that are coming. Balance these things against a poor wheat crop, which probably isn't half as poor as you think; and then, if you don't feel better about it—take Mr. Emerson's advice.

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge his enemies by trying to please everybody. If ever such an individual succeeded we would be glad of it; not that we believe in a man going through the world trying to find beams to knock and bump his head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing, and crowding all who differ with him. That, again, is another extreme. Other people have a right to their own opinion, so have you; don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you less for maintaining it, or respect you more for turning your coat every day to match the color of theirs. Wear your own colors in spite of wind or weather, storm or sunshine.—Memphis Democrat.

The world, as a rule, don't particularly fancy a coward. By displacing such qualities he may, for a time, succeed, but there is a turning point somewhere and he will reach it just as sure as he continues to travel that road. The very fellows who will pat him on the back for the non-expression of his opinions will find it to their interest to have him come out and side with them, and if he fails to do this or continues to "say nothing and saw wood," as the expression goes, these friends will denounce him as a coward, and that is just about what it amounts to. Be a man. Don't wait until you are absolutely sure that your opinions will meet with popular favor before you give expression to them. That method is both cowardly and contemptible and unworthy of a man who has any right to claim that he is a good citizen.

Now it is a packing plant that Wichita Falls is going after. There is nothing too large for that ambitious city to reach for. They will get it, too, and it will be a splendid point for such an enterprise.—Hall County Herald.

That is the way they all talk about us, and it must be so. Any enterprise seeking a location that is willing to do the right thing will always find a hearty welcome to Wichita. The acquisition of this new packing plant assures an addition of at least 1,000 people to the population within the next six months and that, with other enterprises locating here, will make Wichita Falls a city of at least 12,000 population by this time next year.

There never was any doubt, from the first moment the packery proposition was submitted until the bonus was completed that Wichita Falls would do her part. This discussion of the offer never included the question "Will we get it?" "We've got to get it" was the sentiment and when old Wichita peels her coat, shucks her gaiters and rolls up her sleeves, it isn't going to be very long before the chips begin to fly.

Fifty thousand dollars is an average of five dollars for every man, woman and child in Wichita Falls. Some of us were pretty badly bent, too, but when the last brick is laid next December, the fifty thousand will be on hand, ready for the men who are putting their money into the plant.

Natural advantages, and advantageous location, railroad facilities, good crops—all these a town may have; but when everything is said and the books are balanced and the real show-down comes—the town that tops the list will be the one whose chief asset is the determination and public spirit and all-round boostability of her citizens. Nothing can beat that. It's been tried more than once and the answer is always the same.

You could take this Wichita Falls bunch up in a balloon and drop 'em in the middle of a desert, or on top of a mountain, or into the brush, and in a few years they'd have a city there.

Judge Poindexter doubtless feels now like it is about time for him to withdraw from the gubernatorial race, since his friend, Senator Bailey, says that "candor compels me, however, to say that while gratitude and personal considerations strongly incline me to support Judge Poindexter, Mr. Colquitt's platform, in so far as it relates to the leading issue involved in the contest, more nearly coincides with my views than does that of Judge Poindexter. Should the progress of the campaign develop such conditions as would endanger the election of Judge Poindexter to such an extent as to render his defeat morally certain I would feel it my duty and the duty of my friends in Texas to give undivided support to Mr. Colquitt."

Here is a bit of city building gospel from the McKinney (Texas) Courier-Gazette. "The best way to build up a town is to stand by every man who does right. Whenever a man is doing well do not tear him down. All residents should be partners, not opponents. In all livelihoods the more business your rival does the more you will do. Every business man who treats his customers honestly, courteously and fairly will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow, it begins to die and the more people try to kill each others' business in their town, the more readily will utter ruin come to all. Stand together for advancement of every citizen. If a man shows ability to prosper do not pull him back through jealousy or weight him down with cold indifference."

The cry for more residence houses in Wichita Falls is fully as great today as it was a year ago, although more than three hundred have been constructed during that time. And again, the rents which that kind of property is bringing, which was thought to be high one year ago, are no cheaper today. This is as good argument as is needed that Wichita Falls should have more resident houses.

Senator Bailey says in a dispatch from Washington to friends in regard to that letter to a friend at Plainview, which appeared in yesterday's papers

"I do not know what the Dallas News has printed but I know that I have written no letter to anybody which, by any stretch of the imagination, can be construed as an expression in favor of Colquitt against Poindexter." Under and following this dispatch the Dallas News produces a photograph of the letter in question which bears Senator Bailey's well-known signature. Probably those of his friends for whom it is intended, will be allowed to place their own construction on the wording of the letter and if they can see no chance for the election of Judge Poindexter, rather than vote for Davidson or Johnson, will throw their support to Colquitt. That will make it easy sailing for Colquitt, but tough on Poindexter, the man who stood by Senator Bailey and helped him to fight his battle while the other fellow contented himself by saying "it is no fight of mine." It will show that Senator Bailey is not as true and tried a friend to Poindexter as the latter was to him. The writing of that letter, viewed from any standpoint, cannot possibly help the man for whom the distinguished Senator expresses a warm friendship, and just how Judge Poindexter can still claim that he has the support and friendship of Senator Bailey in his race for the governorship is rather difficult to understand. But probably he can do this. At any rate he will likely be asked to do so on his visit to Wichita Falls, which will be on the 20th, at which time he is to deliver an address in the interest of his campaign.

Up to the present time the donations of Wichita Falls' printing houses to the $50,000 packery bonus amounts to $340. Outside houses, who do more than half of the work, have donated $0,000.

WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

UNCLEAN PLAYS.

Quaker City Up in Arms Against Wave of Prurient Drama.

Two organizations—the Civic Club and the Federation of Catholic Societies—have recently been outspoken in their denunciation of a certain class of plays with which Philadelphia has seemed to have had a surfeit during the past month. Ministers' associations and decent people generally have also been unsparing in their criticisms of them. They have had more than sufficient cause for complaint. This city seems to have been made a dumping ground recently for a salacious class of so-called dramatic effort that is as deplorable as it is mendacious.

One play in particular which had nothing commendable to warrant its production, and which depended for its success entirely on its offensive plot and its still more offensive method of presentation, was allowed to continue for three weeks. During that time many persons who had purchased tickets without being aware of the character of the show were compelled to leave the theatre in the midst of the performance. Many women retired their cheeks brilliant with blushes; many men with their fists clinched in anger. The protests which stormed the box office of this particular play house have seldom been equaled in number and vehemence.

Another production which trailed immediately on its heels, lasted a week. The peculiarly biased crowds that went to gloat over the play, frankly advertised as "the fastest thing on the stage," finding it slow in comparison with the other, did not return, and, lacking also the support of those who, once bitten were, twice wise, it was compelled to close. Its fate seems to have contained the element of poetic justice, but the fact remains that it should not have been allowed to continue as long as it did, for, while it was less offensive than the former production, it was not such a decent man or woman would care to see presented. These are but two instances; there have been others.

There is not the least doubt that the patron of a theatre has a right to demand protection from such nauseous effusions. There is no inconsiderable class of men who buy tickets for a play on the spur of the moment, or at least, without having inquired into its merits. They pay their money and it is not right they should be denied full value for it. That value is not given when they are forced to leave before a play is finished. But, looking at the question from the standpoint of morality, the offense of such productions is all the greater. They cannot but degrade, and the degradation of the individual means a lower standard of morality for the city itself. It is to be hoped that managers will notice the clouds of denunciation that have been gathering for some time past and heed the warnings before the storm breaks.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

RECOVERS $40,000.

It Was "Earnest Money" Put Up on Race Track Deal.

El Paso, Tex., May 16.—The Juraz, Mexico Jockey Club and the earnest money deposited by Americans pending the establishment of a big race track across the Rio Grande from El Paso, figured in a suit in which District Judge Walthall today granted a judgment in favor of Harris Masterson and J. C. Ross of Houston, for forty thousand dollars against the Banco De Minero of Cahuahuana, Mexico, of which institution Enrique Creel, former ambassador to Washington, is president. The money was deposited in Creel's bank at the time the deal was pending. The land offered proved to be unavailable and the trade was not closed, but the money was kept by Alberto Terrasa, which was the cause of the suit.

Many, La., May 14.—James Gozey, the negro who was brought here from Kirbyville, Texas, charged with the murder of James Snow at Ayers, near Kirbyville, declares he confessed to the authorities because he feared lynching. NEW METAL'S WONDERS.

Lighter Than Aluminum, Hard as Steel, Impervious to Rust.

A wonderful new metal has been discovered which, it is claimed, will have an important bearing on the future of aviation.

Yesterday the discoverer described to the Daily Mirror the qualities of this new metal.

"It is 11 per cent lighter than aluminum," he said, "as hard as mild steel or wrought iron, and absolutely impervious to rust or to any acid."

"Sulphuric acid and nitric acid do not affect the metal in the least, while it has been in the sea water for six weeks and has been taken out as fresh as when it was placed there."

"You have only to let your imagination find play for a moment to see the possibilities there are in this metal."

"For airships, submarines and torpedoes, and in everything else where lightness and strength combined are essential it will be of enormous value."

"I am now engaged in building an airship of this metal, but for the present I am keeping the details secret."

"The new metal, which contains an alloy of aluminum, has not yet received a name. It is of silver color throughout, and never loses its brightness. It is rather dearer to manufacturer than aluminum."—Daily Mirror.

Don't Use Ordinary Salt!

Shaker table salt is the cleanest, purest, saltiest salt on the market, and it costs but a few cents a year more than the ordinary kind. It is the cleanest because it comes packed in a sanitary paraffined box, dust proof, damp proof, and odor proof. It is the purest because it is the only salt from which gypsum is removed. It is the saltiest because it is all salt and nothing else. The flavor is bound to be right.

Shaker salt always flows freely. It never gets hard or lumpy in any climate. Why use salt of doubtful quality? Buy Shaker table salt and you are sure to get the best.

PACKING HOUSE BONUS NOW ENTIRELY RAISED

Total of Fifty-Three Thousand Dollars
Subscribed to Secure Enterprise.

From Tuesday's Daily.
A total of $52,687.50, over two thousand dollars more than was necessary had been subscribed up to noon today on the packing house bonus, and if there ever was the slightest doubt in the minds of anyone that the total amount would not be forthcoming, that doubt can now be dispelled.

A telegram has been sent to President Emerson of the United States Packing Company that the entire bonus had been raised.

There are still several large property holders who have not subscribed and it is believed that additional subscriptions will come in sufficient to raise the total to the fifty-five thousand mark. Should all of the subscriptions be collected, the amount over will be remitted to the subscribers in proportion to the amounts subscribed by them. At least, that is the plan of the committee.

A mass meeting of citizens has been called for tonight to hear the report of the committee. It is probable that the promoters will be formally notified that the bonus has been raised. The subscriptions are not payable until the plant is ready for operation, which will hardly be before December 1st of this year.

We, the undersigned agree to subscribe and pay the sum set opposite our name for the purpose of securing a packing house plant at Wichita Falls. Said Packing House Company will have a paid up capital of three hundred thousand dollars

Nicaraguan Trouble.
New Orleans, La., May 16.—The steamship companies with offices here, today appealed to the state department at Washington to take a hand and intervene for the cause of peace in Nicaragua. President Madriz has closed the ports of the Atlantic, including Bluefields, to all foreign shippers, including the United States, companies engaged in the banana trade, and the action of Madriz was caused by fear of an attack from the Venus, a vessel recently brought here, manned as a warship to aid the insurgents.

Comment on the...

Hook Worm

The following interesting comment on the hookworm is taken from the address of Dr. C. W. Stiles of the U. S. M. and H. Service at the recent convention at Dallas.

"It is unnatural to bring different races of men as inhabitants into the same country. In our Southern states 34.34 per cent of the population is of African origin. The white race has brought disease here from Europe, and the black race has brought disease from Africa. Each race has transmitted its disease to the other race, each being virgin soil for the maladies of the other.

"The negro has contracted tuberculosis from the white man and his death rate from this disease is three times that of the white. In return he has given the white race, which suffers from this infection much more than does the negro. Certain diseases are spread by poor sanitation. This is particularly true of the negro diseases. White people who live under good conditions may contract these infections in slight degree and not suffer very much. But the poorer families without good sanitary arrangements suffer severely from these negro maladies, which are spread through filth. The 'tenant' white class of the South a people of good extraction but of defective physical development, suffer greatly.

"The sanitary conditions of our open country are miserable. Of 1,000 Southern families examined, 61 per cent were found to be without any toilet facilities, 44 per cent of the white farms and 80 per cent of the negro farms were without toilets. The result is a wide-spread soil-pollution, with a great amount of resulting disease, such as hookworm and typhoid fever. Dr. Brumby, State Health officer of Texas, recently reported that of 100 farms examined only five had toilets. Thus sanitation is far behind the times in sanitation."

Dr. Stiles explained the anatomy and the life history of the hook worm. He showed the pictures of many hookworm patients, some of them farmers and some cotton mill hands. He declared that the pale faces of cotton mill hands, commonly attributed to working indoors were not due to working indoors but to hookworm disease, contracted most probably by the patients on the farm before going to work in the mills. In support of this claim he exhibited diagrams of numerous examinations which showed that the so-called cotton mill anemia is not uniformly distributed in mills of the same kind in the same localities, but that it is most common in laborers coming from the sand lands and next common in laborers who come from the mountains, and least common in laborers from clay lands and from cities. Yet all these people are breathing in the same kind of cotton dust.

In explanation of the wide-spread prevalence of disease in the United States, Dr. Stiles said: "We Americans as a Nation are conceited and dirty. We are so well satisfied with ourselves that we bury about 35,000 persons a year from typhoid fever, about 18,000 persons a year from tuberculosis, and in all, according to statistics, about 600,000 persons a year from preventable causes. Still, we have not yet shown sufficient moral courage to enforce the anti-spitting laws. We are as a nation ignorant as to what constitutes cleanliness and good sanitation. We are so conceited so proud of and contented with ourselves that we continue in our filthy habits and continue to bury our people at an inexcusable great rate.

"You should all join in a campaign to clean up your back yards and farms, in proper sanitary condition, and thereby reduce the death rate, especially among the women and children.

"The treatment of hookworm disease is simple, but it should always be given under the supervision of a physician, as the size of the dose of medicine depends upon the condition of the patient's heart. The two drugs used are thymol and Epsom salts. Many cases are cured in a single day's treatment. Other cases must be treated once a week for from two to twenty weeks. If a person is not treated and does not become reinfected, he will outgrow his hookworm infection in about eleven years."

Following the illustrated address, a hookworm symposium was held in the section meeting, during which the technical side of the treatment of hookworm infection was discussed by a number of the physicians.

Dr. Stiles brought out the point that many children attending country schools are growing up under a severe handicap. "In some localities," said he "50 to 95 per cent of the school-children show hookworm infection, which stunts them in their physical and mental development. They are backward in their studies, and they have a high absenteeism from school. We are educating our country children from 6 to 20 years of age, and burying many of them before they are 21. In one family of sixteen children twelve were dead, and four living; in another family of twenty children, only five were alive all dying of hook-worm disease. But these facts are not of much interest to Americans, who hold life so cheap. But if these children had been swine, the country would have made greater efforts to save them.

"The same conditions which spread hookworms also spread typhoid," continued Dr. Stiles. "Our Nation-wide typhoid death rate is 46.5 deaths per 100,000 inhabitants, and our negro population averages 11.6 per cent deaths from typhoid. The fifteen negro states average 34.34 per cent negro and 72.7 per cent of 100,000 in their typhoid death rate. There are seventeen states with an average of 2.48 per cent negro population, and in these states the typhoid death rate drops to $9.25 per 100,000. Then there are eighteen states with an average negro population of 0.4 and the typhoid death rate drops to 25.51 per 100,000. Thus the greater the negro population, the higher the typhoid death rate.
