Rotarians And Lions To Hold Joint Meeting Mavericks And Bulldogs Are Primed For Friday Game

DOGS ARE DICAPPED INJURIES

Conference Game Has Caused Considerable
Guessing.

Afternoon at 3 o'clock
Joe A. (Hoot) Gibson's
Mavericks and Coach Curtis' Ranger Bulldogs will play their first conference game when the two teams meet on Lilland in Ranger.

The game has caused more talk and more guessing than any game before, with the exception of the Marillo-Ranger game, which was played over the entire state and the fans the state over their prediction as to the effectiveness of the Sandies, runners-up in the championship race last year.

In Eastland the question is,
"Do you think we can beat them?" in a tone that implies it is almost a certainty. The question in Ranger is, "Do you think we can beat Eastland?" with little doubt expressed in the answer.

There is no doubt that the Eastland Mavericks are somewhat more than scribes over the discussion, by their showing in the past games, are not playing the ball of which they are capable, which makes the two questions more pertinent than some others.

tended on page two.)

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEET

The fall meeting of the Oil Belt Educational Association met in bilene this week with representatives from 10 counties present.
In the afternoon a session, held at the Abilene High school, B. H.
Clab, superintendent of the water public schools, was the principal speaker.

L. E. Dudley, principal of the bilene High school, was the principal speaker at the session, and the meeting, which was also held in the afternoon.

The third section of the meeting, which was designated as the county superintendents', B. H.
McClamery, county superintendent of Eastland county was a principal speaker.

The evening session started with banquet at the Hilton hotel after which C. H. Hufford, superintendent of the Coleman public schools, was the principal speaker. Music for the banquet was furnished by the Abilene High school orchestra, which presented a high class program, and by the orchestra of the school.

Those attending from Ranger were Superintendent Holloway, Principal Von Roeder, Hatley, Stitt and Jarvis, and E. A. Rin-dick and O. G. Lanier.

Only 19 Have Qualified For City Tournament

A. Mill, president of the Ranger City Club, today urged all members, both old and new, to qualify as soon as possible in the city tournament, as time in playing the first rounds of step play was drawing near.

Only 16 men and three women of the entire membership had qualified by this morning, and a large percentage of the members were still to play the qualifying rounds. Match play will be started on Sunday morning, following the banquet on Saturday night and dinner on Friday night.

All members of the club have been urged to enter the tournament and though many have said they intended to participate, qualifying rounds have not yet been played by a large majority of the membership. The club will be held at the clubhouse, Blow and his Rhythm Rustum furnish the music.

Dixie Co-Eds Wear Cotton

Rallying to the aid of the southland in its cotton campaign, co-eds of Louisiana State University are adopting cotton costumes for dormitory and campus wear, and here is Malquin Schauf of St.
Joseph, La., in a neat pajama outfit which has swept the dormitories with its popularity.

TWO BOYS ARE HELD IN ROBBERY

Two boys, who gave their names as Floyd Grooms and James Todd of Ranger, were arrested in Fort Worth this morning by city detectives, according to word received today by Chief of Police Jim Ingram from Memphis street in Ranger and from two vacant houses in Eastland. They are alleged to have had three sets of plumbing fixtures with them at the time of their arrest.

Chief Ingram left this afternoon for Fort Worth with warrants for the two boys and said he would return them to Ranger either tonight or tomorrow morning.

The Ranger police department has had a number of complaints in the past two months of plumbing fixtures being stolen from vacant houses. An investigation has been carried on but the arrests today were the first to be made on this charge.

Ranger Business Men Accepting Checks on Bank

In the rush of getting to press with Wednesday's issue of the Times it was impossible to call on all merchants and business men in the town to see if they would accept Commercial Bank checks in payment of accounts or in purchasing merchandise.

There are, therefore, a number of business men of the town who will accept checks, but whose names did not appear on the list.

Performance At High School Is Well Received

A fairly large crowd attended the benefit performance at the Ranger High school auditorium Wednesday night. "Harmony Junction," was presented, after which three dance numbers were presented, followed by the American Legion Tickville band.

The proceeds from the performance went to the fund to be used by the physical education classes in building a bathhouse and providing gymnasium space for the girls' classes.

FALL CLIP SOLD TODAY AT RANGER

Will Drake, Jr., buyer and E.
O. Oglesby, grader, for the Lone Star Wool and Marketing corporation, were in Ranger today buying the fall clip of the Ranger territory. Approximately 30,000 pounds of mohair and kid were brought in the sale by the corporation.

The wool offered for sale was grading high, Mr. Drake said today, and they were finding it in excellent condition. Careful packing by the producers is making the handling more convenient and makes the mohair show up to better advantage.

The organization is advancing 15 cents a pound on mohair and 35 cents a pound on kid, which is a little under the market price for the mohair on the spring clip and more than the spring market on kid hair. The hair is to be shipped to a warehouse of the association in Philadelphia, where it will be stored and kept off the market until such time as the price advances, when the difference in the advance to the producers and the market price at the time of the actual sale will be sent to the producers.

As the majority of the wool buyers in this section of the country have sold wool to the co-operative association and are not buying wool at this time, the Oil Belt Sheep and Goat Raisers association voted recently to turn their fall clip over to the association in order to obtain a better price.

Members of the local association are convinced that their action in handling their crop through the corporation will bring them the prevailing market price at the present and an advance in the future when the present supply of wool in the hands of the manufacturers is exhausted and they go into the market for more raw material.

Committees on Scout Fund to Meet Wednesday

H. C. "Andy" Anderson, chairman of the finance committee of the Ranger Boy Scout drive, announced today that all committees were expected to make complete reports on the amount of money present and an advance in the future when the present supply of
wool in the hands of the manufacturers is exhausted and they go
into the market for more raw material.

A meeting of all committees has been called for next Wednesday night at the Ranger Chamber of Commerce for 7:30 o'clock, in order that a complete tabulation of results of the drive may be made and the committees dismissed.

It is expected that each committee that has not completed its quota will do so by Wednesday or make a report on the number of prospects who have been called on and those whom the committees were unable to see or who declined to make a donation.

Carpenter Claims Lipton's Estate

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 8.—An unemployed carpenter today laid claim to a portion of the $4,000-000 estate of the late Sir Thomas Lipton, famous sportsman and merchant.

Thomas Paul Lipton said he was the rightful heir to a considerable part of the yachtman's fortune.
He has retained attorneys and is prepared to assert his claim. He is a second cousin to Sir Thomas.

"They probably will think I am foolish," Lipton said, "because I have lost documentary evidence showing my relationship. Unfortunately I lost these records with the rest of my property in the San Francisco earthquake."

Since then he has made many efforts to communicate with Lipton.

French Premier to Visit Washington

Soon to sail for the United States on a mission of world-wide importance, Premier Pierre Laval of France is pictured above at his desk in Paris as he formally accepted President Hoover's invitation to visit this country for a discussion of world problems. Below is the Washington home of former Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey, now U. S.
Ambassador to France, which he has offered to Premier Laval for use as a residence during the latter's stay in the American capital.

Second Monday To Be Observed On October 12th

J. B. Ames, who is in charge of Ranger, said today that he was expecting 1,000 people in town on Monday, Oct. 12, which will be the date of the next Second Monday.

"These days should not be confused with the Greater Ranger Trades Days," Mr. Ames said, "They will be held as usual each second Monday in addition to the semi-monthly trades days now being planned."

This month there will be three special bargain days on which many attractions have been arranged. The first will be Second Monday on Oct. 12, followed by the first trades day on Oct. 14 and the second trades day on Oct. 28.

The trades days will be held every other week on Wednesdays while the Second Mondays will be held as heretofore.

Cotton Drops on Federal Report

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Based on conditions as of Oct. 1, the department of agriculture today estimated the cotton crop in the United States at 16,284,900 bales.

This compared with the Sept. 1 estimate of 15,685,000 bales, and 14,486,000 bales on Oct. 1, 1930.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The cotton market broke about a dollar a bale following issuance of the government Oct. 1 crop estimates today indicating the second largest yield in history.

The trade had been prepared for an increase over the September estimates but did not expect the Oct. 1 figure to run over 16,000, 000 bales. Heavy selling developed after the report and prices fell off 16 to 21 points.

McGehee was questioned by police but was not held.

SWEETHEART GIRL ON TRIAL FOR HER DEATH

Mrs. Symons Tells of Night
Her Daughter Left Home Alone.

SINTON, Texas, Oct. 8.—A dead girl's reputation and her associates told from the lips of her mother, were brought into court today as a defense move to break down the circumstantial chain being built around Newton Yarberry, on trial for the girl singer's killing.

The girl was Dorothy Dorcas Symons, 18-year-old sweetheart of Yarberry, for whose death the 23-year-old Arkansas Pass ice man is being tried.

Mrs. Agnes Symons, 40, finished her direct testimony shortly after court opened and was subjected to a cross examination.

She told of the July 30 night Dorothy disappeared to be found two days later half buried in sand and seaweed on a beach near her home in Arkansas Pass.

In addition to these speakers
the famous American Legion Tick-ville band will present numbers on the program. The musical presentations of the band will be interspersed between the talks by the speakers.

Howard Ghobson, president of the Ranger Rotary club, and A. N.
Larson, president of the Ranger Lions club, have been working up a program to present and have picked the best entertainment possible to secure.

Mayor John M. Thurman will be in charge of the program and will introduce the speakers of the evening.

All members of the Lions and Rotary clubs are urged to be present and an invited list of business men of the town will be the guests of the two clubs in addition to the speakers and the members of the Tickville band.

Carl Barnes Post Meeting Postponed By Post Commander

L. R. Herring, post commander of the Carl Barnes Post of the American Legion, announced today that there would be no meeting of the Legion post tonight.

The regular weekly meeting has been postponed on account of the joint meeting of the Ranger Rotary and Lions clubs which is to be held at the Ghobson hotel at 7 o'clock. As many of the legionnaires want to attend this meeting the regular legion meeting was called off.

The American Legion Tickville band will help furnish entertainment at the meeting.

Friday Times To Carry The Usual Bargain Offers

Tomorrow's issue of the Ranger Times will, at usual, carry man advertisements of the merchants of Ranger offering bargains to be found in the stores of the city.

These papers will be distributed over the large territory that has been covered by the Friday Times for some months.
It is this distribution over a territory that makes the advertisements more effective than ever before and the wise merchant is finding it to his advantage to see that his advertising does not miss an issue.

The Times, like other business houses of the town, is accepting Commercial State bank checks in payment of any advertising, commercial printing or subscription accounts.

You Try it!

If you are searching for a thrill, try this stunt which J. D. Pate, Los Angeles air daredevil, is exhibiting. Pate fastens a piece of plate glass to the top wing of an airplane, and with a pair of shoes equipped with suction rubber on the soles, he stands on the glass.
The action of the suction rubber holds him to the glass. When the plane has reached sufficient altitude, the pilot turns it upside down and Pate hangs suspended by his shoes from the upper wing.

MURRAY TO GO INTO OIL BUSINESS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 8.—Governor W. H. Murray announced today that the state of Oklahoma will go into the petroleum business in open competition with the large integral oil companies.

The announcement came as a bombshell after a morning of manipulation by Oklahoma City operators seeking to have the governor open flash fields closed since Aug. 5 under military rule to production.

"One or two big things are going to happen in the oil business in about 10 days," the governor announced. "All I need is refineries and I have got two already. It will be easy to open up one oil sand, class the oil at $1 a barrel, pay the royalty and state tax and then open up a string of filling stations.
The public will soon hear about Bill Murray's gas."

"I have already applied to the patent office at Washington to prevent anyone else using that name," he said.

Full details of the plan to market Oklahoma petroleum products were promised in 10 days.

Japanese Open Hostilities Against Chinese Today

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Oct. 8.— Japanese opened hostilities against Chinese in Manchuria today when nine Japanese airplanes flew from New Chang and bombarded Ching Chow, Chinese provisional headquarters.

Prior to the bombing the airplanes dropped handbills warning civilians to repudiate China's temporary government and declaring the Japanese were preparing for action.

A Manchurian communique said 12 Japanese airplanes bombed the temporary capital at Ching Chow today, killing many and wrecking barracks and government buildings.

RANGER CLUBS MEET TONIGHT AT 7 O'CLOCK

George Waverly Briggs of Dallas To Be Principal Speaker of Evening.

George Waverly Briggs, vice president of the First National bank of Dallas, will be the principal speaker tonight at the joint meeting of the Ranger Rotary and Lions clubs to be held at the Ghobson hotel at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Briggs is one of the outstanding bankers of Texas and has a wide reputation both as a financier and as a public speaker. The subject of his talk has not been divulged, but it was announced that he would have a timely subject on which to speak.

Other out-of-town visitors who are to have a part on the program are J. B. Thomas, vice president and general manager of the Texas Electric Service company; Edgar J. Marston, president of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company, and F. L. Chase, vice president of the Lone Star Gas company. These men have been selected to take part on the program because of their ability as speakers and because they will add much to the program.

In addition to these speakers
the famous American Legion Tick-
ville band will present numbers on
the program. The musical presentations of the band will be interspersed between the talks by the
speakers.

Howard Ghobson, president of
the Ranger Rotary club, and A. N.

Lions club, have been working up

THE AVIATION GENIE.

Wasp-like out of the Nippon isles, where western civilization meets the Orient, sped last week an airplane carrying two American aviators who flung their dare at the wide and treacherous gulf of the north Pacific over which so many similar attempts in recent years have come to grief. Early this week these same two fliers slid to the first stop in their perilous journey on American soil at Wenatchee, Washington.
In the 41 hours they had been continuously in the air the two fliers had covered almost 4,500 miles of ocean, desert and indifferently known lands to accomplish a feat that will rank in aviation's history with Lindbergh's epoch-making hop to Paris.

Yet the announcement of their successful completion of this perilous aerial voyage occasioned only mild interest.
They made their journey four years too late.

The impossible, the hazardous has been achieved too often in aviation within the last two years to cause excitement.
The public has come to accept such things as a matter of course, and if one venture fails to look confidently to the experience of that venture to produce the mechanical and technical improvements that will within a few months wipe out its failure.

One cannot but regard the Pangborn and Herndon flight, along with others of its character, as significant in the light of what would in the future menace a warring nation in the event of an international conflict. No matter upon what region of the globe it might be situated only the matter of a few short hours might spell defeat or victory, survival or extermination for one country. Armadas of planes, sweeping from the distant sky, could engulf attacked cities with great volumes of destructive chemicals almost in the twinkling of an eye. How much emphasis that should place upon the importance of gestures that are now being made for the security of peace. Like fire, aviation as it has been developed today and as it will be developed in the future, is a mighty force for good but a terrific force for destruction, a genie that in an instant could destroy its own master.

A Coupla New Recruits for Europe's "Nudist" Colony!

WASHINGTON DAILY LETTER logo

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
SEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON—A vast inundation of advice will be the first result of the president's conference on home building and home ownership, which a thousand delegates will attend here in November.

The advice, presented in reports for the widest possible distribution, will be directed at everyone in any way interested in building, buying, financing, heating, living in, furnishing or doing anything else connected with a home.

Is it cheaper to rent or to buy or build? And, if so, when? Such questions of economy will be emphasized because, according to Dr.
John M. Gries, executive secretary of the conference, the effort will be directed toward benefiting persons of modest means who can't afford to make expensive mistakes.

Mortgage foreclosures, high financing charges and the fact that lowered property values have worked to the advantage of the renter in many places make the matter of expenses especially important right now. Many home buyers have been sold out, it is found, and studies are being made of the causes. President Hoover says that in many communities the depression rates for second mortgages have risen to 20 or 25 per cent.

One committee will try to report under what conditions home ownership is preferable to renting and why.

"SOME of the inflation has been taken out of dwelling houses," admits Dr. Gries, "but people who put their money in houses are better off than those who bought stocks. Maintenance of values has been partly dependent on local banking conditions. Foreclosures force down prices.

"The average home owner buys one or two houses in a lifetime and the investment often represents his eventual earthly accumulation. One big thing we are aiming at is to cut out the hazard for him. He ought to know about land values, zoning, deed restrictions, where to get the money, contracts, materials, titles, mortagitated, will put their full strength on the field Friday when the whistle blows, or at least shortly after, while Ranger will be somewhat crippled by the loss of one of their star backfield men, Don Flahie, through injuries that may keep him out of the game for two or three weeks. One or two other minor injuries will prove slight handicaps but will not materially effect the outcome of the game, it is thought.

Eastland is always a threat against the Ranger Bulldogs and their smaller but shifty team usually has the punch to make any ball game uncertain until the pistol is fired at the end of the game.
In previous seasons they have turned in better games against Ranger than they have against any other team in the Oil Belt, and this fact makes the outcome of the game more uncertain. Their defeat at the hands of the San Angelo Bobcats was not unexpected in many quarters as many expressed the opinion that the Mavs would breeze through the game the easiest way possible in order to save their aces for the Ranger encounter.

Coach Gibson will have about 25 men with him when he goes into the game at Ranger Friday, the complete lineup being as follows:

Lineup list with names and positions: Name—Pos. No. Wt. W. Taylor, left end 34 162, W. Vaughn, right end 40 158, Daniel, right tackle 42 170, Fulcher, left tackle 37 175, Harrington, right end 23 160, Ragley, left guard 36 150, Smith, right guard 22 160, Allison, center 27 163, Myers, right half 39 156, Mackall, full 31 165, Taylor, left half 32 174, Jones, quarter 41 132, Burgamy, quarter 33 145, Brown, right end 54 145, E. Brown, left end 35 145, Tindall, right end 56 150, Pangle, left tackle 51 160, Reeves, right tackle 45 140, J. Pangle, left guard 44 170, Kitley, center 30 150, R. Confederate Vets Go Home From
Annual Reunion

By United Press.
FORT WORTH, Oct. 8.—Texas Confederates went home today from an annual reunion that gave them an opportunity to display some of the fire that marked their service under General Robert E.
Lee.
The soldiers closed their meeting with the re-election of Major General M. J. Bonner, Fort Worth, as commander in chief of the Texas division and selection of Conopus Christi as next year's meeting place.
The election came after three hours of argument which was climaxed when one gray-beard was prevented by main force from canning the temporary chairman because he thought he had not been given a fair chance to nominate.
After the cane-wielding veteran had been subdued daughters of Confederate Veterans sang "In the Sweet Bye-and-bye." The veterans had pledged to reassemble every year "as long as there are three of us alive."

Pioneer Lost
Profit on Beds

By United Press.
BUTTE, Mont.—Herman Graaf, Montana pioneer, was paid $100 each for beds he made from packing boxes during the early days and failed to make a profit.
Graaf, a German emigrant boy, drifted into Helena, Mont., in 1879. He had learned to be a cabinet maker in Germany, and after an unsuccessful try at gold panning, decided to return to his trade.
A dance hall proprietor wanted eight black walnut beds made and offered to pay Graaf $800 to build them. Graaf, accepted readily because at that time black walnut was so plentiful in the United States it was used to crate furniture which was shipped "knocked down" to the west.
Graaf set to work, expecting to realize a nice profit from his venture. He made the beds and set them up.
But when he attempted to deliver them he saw his chances for a profit fade.
Through his lack of knowledge of the English language, Graaf had misunderstood the dance hall owner and had built the beds for the wrong houses and found that they would not go through the doors of the cabins.
Undaunted, Graaf proceeded to remove the roof of the one-story cabins and lowered the beds into place. But he had to hire help and the expense was so great that he did not make a dollar.

DID YOU EVER
STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE
Shawnee, Okla.

In order to grow, the home city must receive the united support of every citizen.
Natural advantages alone won't build a city.
Community enthusiasm alone won't build a city.
The business interests must work out a plan for civic and industrial advancement.
Every citizen must get behind that plan.

A combination of natural advantages and community enthusiasm behind well-thought out plans will get a city somewhere.
Many opportunities for development present themselves to every city.
Some of them seize them.
Some cities wear blinders and let them pass by.
Good plans for development, properly carried out, bring an increase in population and industrial growth.
In the race for new industries, the city that is awake gets them.
Cities that are asleep will only creep and crawl along, getting nowhere and will soon become anachronism.

GUILTY LIPS

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "MAD MARRIAGE" ©1931 BY NEA SERVICE INC

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Fretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary, marries Mark Travers, millionaire's son, in spite of the opposition of Mark's father.

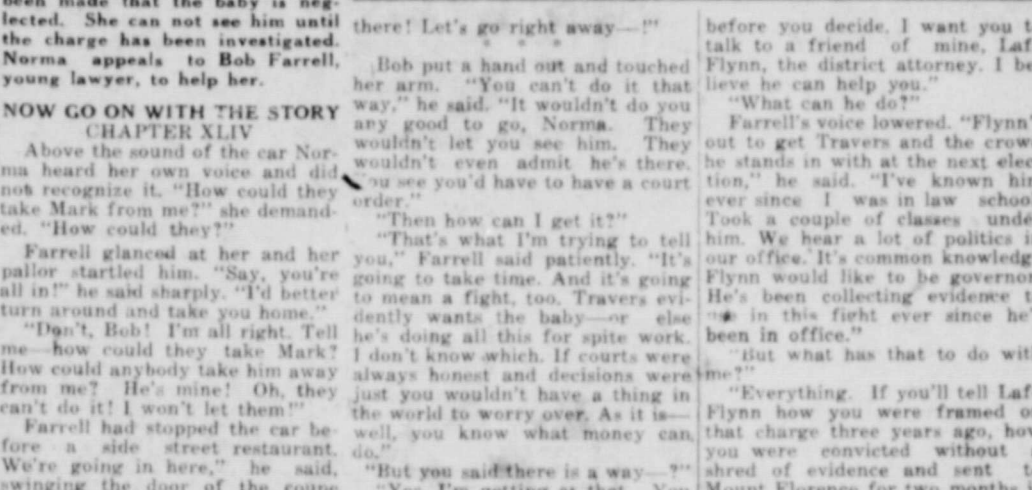

The story opens in Marlboro, middle-western metropolis. After an extravagant honeymoon the couple return to Marlboro. Soon they face poverty. Mark secures a job, loses it, and then becomes a floorwalker in a department store. The young couple are just beginning to master their problems when Mark's father sends for him and offers him a place in his own business organization if the son will prove he can make good. Mark's first assignment involves a business trip to France. Norma must remain at home.

Norma, rudely treated at her father-in-law's home, slips away, leaving no trace of her whereabouts. Chris Saunders, Norma's former roommate, helps her find a job.

Mark's father employs detectives to trail the girl. They unearth records showing that Norma three years before was convicted on a vice charge. In spite of the evidence that the charge was framed Travers sends his lawyer to Paris to engineer a divorce. Weeks later Norma receives a letter telling her the decree has been granted.

In August Norma's son is born. When the baby is six months old Norma returns to her former job. Mark's mother sees her with the baby. A few days later a public welfare agent comes to the apartment while Norma is away and takes him away. Norma, half-hysterical, is told a complaint has been made that the baby is neglected. She can not see him until the charge has been investigated. Norma, appeals to Bob Farrell, young lawyer, to help her.

there! Let's go right away—"

Bob put a hand out and touched her arm. "You can't do it that way," he said. "It wouldn't do you any good to go, Norma. They wouldn't let you see him. They wouldn't even admit he's there. You see you'd have to have a court order."

"Then how can I get it?"

"That's what I'm trying to tell you, Farrell said patiently. "It's going to take time. And it's going to mean a fight, too. Travers evidently wants the baby—or else he's doing all this for spite work. I don't know which. If courts were always honest and decisions were just you wouldn't have a thing in the world to worry over. As it is—well, you know what money can do."

"But you said there is a way—"

"Yes, I'm getting at that. You asked how anyone could take Mark from you? Well, the legal machinery is simple. If the legal department says Mark's complaint was neglected—that's what the complaint was—there'll be a court hearing. It would be for the judge to decide then. That's what I'm afraid is going to happen. Of course, Mark isn't neglected! You have the hospital records—you could have the doctor's testimony—you have everything on your side! But you have F. M. Travers against you!"

Before she could interrupt Farrell went on. "I thought at first we could beat them easily. Even with Travers' influence I thought we could do it—and then I remembered. For an instant the young man hesitated. "There's the testimony in the divorce case," he said. "That's what I might introduce that. It would heat us!"

The color drained from the girl's face.

"Oh!" The exclamation was tortured. "Oh, Bob—"

"Maybe I'm all wrong about all this," Farrell hurried on to say. "It's a lawyer's business to try to anticipate his opponent's moves. That's why I've studied the black side. If I'm wrong then we've nothing to worry about. I'll be glad to go ahead with it and do all I can."

Apparently Norma had not heard. "You mean they could take Mark away from me?" the girl gasped. "Take him—to keep?" Her voice that had been a whisper rose hysterically. "I won't let them do it! I won't let them do it! You hear me—I won't let them do it!"

Farrell took both of her hands and held them. "Norma," he said sharply, "you've got to control yourself! Do you want everyone to hear you?"

The words were useless. "I won't let them do it!" Norma declared fiercely. "There must be some way! I'll—I'll kidnap him, that's what I'll do! You've got to help me!"

"I'm trying to help you!" There was authority in a commanding quality in Farrell's voice. "I told you there's a way you can fight back at Travers and fight him with his own weapons. I don't like to suggest it to you but it's the only way I know."

"Tell me, Bob! I'll do anything you say!"

"Wait until you hear about it"

PARIS STYLES

By United Press. PARIS—There are few greater winter allies in the fashionable color army than black and green. Black, of course, stays black, but the green becomes any and every shade possible; mint, water, emerald, bottle, moss, lettuce, deep sea, leaf Irish and Persian—and it still goes perfectly with black, and you can juggle them up to see which one assumes the greater responsibility in being the main portion of a coat or dress, or an ensemble including both.

Green wool coats with black neck collars and cuffs are A-1, and so are black broadcloth coats with trimmings of dyed green. The colors and the materials are both interchangeable.

For sometime now corduroy has played a rather inconspicuous part in fashion circles. True, it has always found favor in riding and hunting and mountain climbing gatherings, but today it has brushed the briars and the dust and leaves from its soft ridges and is being combined with knitted gloves and scarves and bright berets, it finds itself in the company of satin and silk of a softness to which it has not been accustomed but to which it is delighted to be friends.

Another color combination, difficult, but delightful is gray and royal blue. Here the gray is nearly always the fur, squirrel or caracul, and the blue the cloth of the coat, either a very rough wool or a soft duvetyn.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By Sister Mary NEA Service Writer
ALTHOUGH celery is primarily a raw food and of definite value in this state, it also has possibilities as an excellent cooked vegetable. Those wide outer stalks of every head of celery that seem too coarse to use as raw foods can be served in various cooked dishes to good advantage.

Cream of celery soup is appealing for luncheon or dinner. Celery sticks are a fritter-like concoction that will appeal when the meat course is light. Creamed celery on toast with crisp-broiled bacon or grilled tomatoes is acceptable for breakfast or luncheon. Celery in cheese sauce is a good combination. The English make a scalloped dish of celery, a little onion, macaroni and white sauce that is piquant and unusual. There is a celery loaf made with celery, nuts and breadcrumbs that is novel and delicious.

In order not to break the rules of meal planning and repeat flavors, do not serve a cooked celery dish in the same meal in which celery is used as a relish or in the salad.

Green Stalks May Be Cooked
While care should be taken that celery wanted for cooking should be quite crisp, there is no objection to cooking the green unbleached stalks. These unbleached stalks are usually discarded by discriminating housewives, but now science tells us that the green pieces are richer in vitamins than the carefully bleached blades.

The leaves of celery are as satisfactory for flavoring soups and sauces as the stalks are. Carefully washed and coarsely chopped, they impart a strong celery flavor. If these suggestions are kept in mind when preparing "celery," you will find that your original purchase answers a two-fold purpose and that a delicious, hearty vegetable develops from the usual waste included in a bunch of celery.

Game, fowl, pork and beef can be accompanied by cooked celery of some sort with good effect.

Celery Loaf
Two cups minced cooked celery 2 cups coarse state bread crumbs 1 cup chopped nut meats, 2 table spoons butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt 1-8 teaspoon white pepper, 1-4 cup hot milk.

Cook celery as dry as possible letting water cook away. Add all ingredients and pack into a well buttered brick-shaped pan. Bake one hour in a moderate oven basting several times with two extra tablespoons butter melted in 1-2 cup boiling water. Unmold and pour hot tomato sauce or medium white sauce around the loaf. Garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Honeymooners Dare Sea in Tiny Sloop

Most young newly-weds wouldn't consider a 2000-mile ocean voyage in a 20-year-old, 36-foot sloop an ideal fall wedding trip. But that's how youthful Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Crowley, shown here as they sailed from Gloucester, Mass., on a peril-fraught journey to the far-away Azores, are to spend their honeymoon. Gloucester mariners warned them that their sloop, the Ocho, might not prove sufficiently seaworthy for such a long trip.

Highway Association To Be Organized

By United Press. ALICE, Texas.—Chambers of commerce in several interested cities have accepted invitations to participate in a meeting to be held here early in November for the purpose of organizing the San Antonio-Brownsville division of the Highway 66 association.

The association is sponsoring a movement to obtain a completely paved highway from Wichita Falls to McAllen. The entire project already has been designated by the state highway department and the counties through which the new and more direct north-south highway would pass.

Highway 66, according to the designation, passes through Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells, Stephenville, Lampasas, Burnet, Johnson City, San Antonio, Pecos, Alice, Falfurrias, Edinburg and McAllen.

It would connect with the new Mexican transcontinental highway either at Reynosa, Mexico, opposite McAllen, or at Matamoros, opposite Brownsville. It is approximately 550 miles long and is almost in a straight line from the Red river on the north to the Rio Grande on the south.

Montgomery Ward Cooker Demonstrations Are Scoring Success With Large Attendance

The most successful demonstrations ever presented in Ranger, now being given at Montgomery Ward & Co. are scoring much interest, enthusiasm and success with Mr. Devoe, factory representative, in charge of pressure cooker demonstrations.

The attendance increases each afternoon and a large number of Ranger housewives have gained much in the knowledge of this absolutely new cooker, which has proven to an amazing degree the time saved, to say nothing of the two-thirds saved in fuel and two-thirds saved in shrinkage of fruits, vegetables and meats.

This cooker comes highly endorsed by the greatest of authorities throughout the United States. The cooker is interestingly explained minutely in an impressive and pleasing manner by Mr. Devitt. The delicious food is served at the close of each cooking period which is thoroughly finished in a few minutes.

Each afternoon's demonstration has proven more interesting than the day before. On Friday afternoon the feature demonstration will be given. From all indications this will leave lasting impressions in the minds of those who will be in attendance. Tender and wonderfully cooked chickens are prepared each afternoon and presented to one member in the audience.

Those of you who have been unable to attend Montgomery Ward cooker demonstrations, reserve Friday afternoon for this occasion.

New Captains Are Selected At Ruth Church Meeting

The Ruth church held its regular monthly luncheon and business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Houghton, Cherry street, this week with a large number of members attending.

After the luncheon, served at high noon, a business session was called to order and presided over by the president, Mrs. Owen Bray. Various matters of importance were discussed and it was decided that the class would be divided into four groups instead of two as has been customary since the organization of the church.

Mrs. A. L. Murrell and Mrs. R. L. McCleskey were elected the new captains to assist Mrs. J. B. Houghton and Mrs. R. H. Snyder. Next period of the hour was devoted to the report of all officers, which proved to be highly interesting and inspirational.

The report showed 48 visitors, 12 telephone calls and two cards in the past month. Several members were reported ill. The meeting adjourned early and a large number of members attended a joint meeting held at the home of Mrs. N. O. White, welcoming the new circle into the W. M. U. of the Central Baptist church.

The class will meet at the home of Mrs. O. S. Driskill the first Tuesday in November.

The following members were present: Misses H. S. Packwood, T. D. Collins, R. H. Snyder, R. O. Bray, Clarence Kirby, R. A. Rhoades, Dan Nevills, H. L. Landroop, O. S. Driskill, L. L. Murrell, Clyde H. Davis and C. C. Cash.

Box To Be Sent to Sherman Home By Woodman Circle

At the regular meeting of the Julia Alexander Grove No. 1954 of the Woodman Circle, Wednesday afternoon, it was decided during a business session that a box of fruits and vegetables would be sent to the Woodman Circle home at Sherman.

The regular social hour of the Loyalty club has been postponed from the date formerly announced, with plans to meet soon. Each month one member's name is selected. This is for the purpose of paying the monthly dues of that member. At yesterday's hour the name of Mrs. Emily Hodges was selected. The session was one of interest with 19 members present.

Junior Choral Club Is Organized

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon with a large group of Junior college students present, a choral club was organized and interesting plans made for this fall and winter.

Miss Wilma Williams was elected president, with Miss Jean Williams, vice president, and Mrs. H. S. Von Roeder, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held on next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All Church Night Is Postponed

Members of the First Christian church are asked to note the postponement of all-church night, formerly announced to be held at the church this evening. The meeting will be held on next Wednesday evening.

City County P.-T. A. and Child Study Club Association Holds Interesting Meeting

One of the most important and outstanding meetings of the week was held at the Ranger High school yesterday afternoon when the City County of Parent-Teacher and Child Study Club associations met for the purpose of planning and discussing the work for the school term.

The session was opened by Prof. R. F. Holloway, who gave an address on "Placing a Child's Library." The general outlining of the program was under the supervision of Mrs. Homer Smith, teacher at Merriman school. Mrs. Smith added in her many interesting announcements that a lecturer from C. I. A., Denton, would be present at the next meeting which will be held Nov. 14. The feature of this lecture will include "Bible Stories
