

DIES, THREE HURT IN CAR ACCIDENT

Leavenworth Prison Mutiny Is Quelled Today

FUTILE DASH FOR LIBERTY BRINGS DEATH AND SUFFERING

As federal penitentiary guards, soldiers and volunteer possemen closed in on three prisoners who had barricaded themselves in the farm home of Emerson Salisbury several miles east of Leavenworth Friday afternoon. One guard in uniform is shown preparing to fire from behind a tree. It was in the upstairs room nearest that guard that the three fugitives were killed after they and others had compelled Warden Thomas B. White to accompany them in a dash for liberty from the prison. It was in this dash that the warden was shot in the arm.

Warden Thomas B. White, who was seized and taken along by a group of fleeing prisoners Friday. The warden was shot in the arm and is in a Leavenworth hospital.

In this car Warden Thomas B. White was kidnaped Friday by a group of prisoners fleeing from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth. The car was wrecked when it was driven into a horse on which a prison guard was riding. The horse was killed.

THE WEATHER.

West Texas—Generally fair tonight; not quite so cold in Panhandle. Tuesday partly cloudy, slightly warmer in southeast portion.

ABOUT THIS AND THAT

By W. H. MAYES, Jr.

The annual Red Cross roll call closed in Ranger Saturday night with a membership that was far below what those in charge would like to be able to report to national headquarters, but satisfactory when everything is taken into consideration. The drive, coming as it did right on the heels of the Child Welfare and Boy Scout campaigns for funds, found Ranger about in the position of giving until it hurt. But one more campaign is to be waged in the city and then the contributing season will be over.

The Christmas Good Cheer drive is to be put on next Saturday and will last but one day. Howard Gholson, chairman of the good cheer committee plans to make a quick and complete drive on this one day and get ready for the distribution of the baskets in need of good things to eat on Christmas Day.

The churches and civic organizations have been asked to bring in their lists of charity cases to the Chamber of Commerce this week in order that the lists might be checked and duplications eliminated before the purchases of groceries is started.

We are in receipt today of the complete proceedings of the Oil Belt committee which met on the night of Nov. 17 to determine the standing of Fred Hightower, at that time under protest by the Breckenridge school. The proceedings which were furnished by the Breckenridge school, are quite lengthy and we have not had time to read it all as yet. Now that the case has been definitely settled and the Oil Belt season is over, we see no reason why it should be brought up again.

We are also in receipt of a copy of the political calendar for the state for 1932. This calendar, which is in reality only a series of dates contains some 2 dates on which important political events will happen. Chief among these is the last day of January, when poll taxes must be paid in order to receive the privilege of voting, July 23, primary election date, Aug. 27, run-off primary and Nov. 8, general election.

The calendar follows:
July 23—County sub-committees meet and arrange primary election.
July 23—Primary election.
July 30—County conventions select delegations to state convention.

August—County commissioners fix election precincts at August session.
Aug. 8—State executive committee canvasses vote in primary election.
Aug. 27—Run-off primary in races where no candidate had majority July 23.
Aug. 27—District conventions meet.

Sept. 5—State executive committee canvasses result of run-off primary.
Sept. 6—State convention meets to adopt platform and declare nominees, and elect a chairman and 31 members of the state executive committee.

Nov. 8—Statewide election on nine proposed constitutional amendments.
Nov. 8—General election.
Nov. 28—General election canvassed by state board.

Although no drive is being made in the sense that workers are out soliciting funds, there is one worthy movement on right now that should be given the consideration of all and that is the Christmas Seal sale.

John M. Gholson has mailed out batches of the seals to a large number of Ranger citizens with the request that they return their checks for $1, the amount of the stamps that is sent. The money received from this source is used in combating tuberculosis and is one of the most worthy causes to which one could contribute.

ATTEMPT MADE TO THROW PEN INTO DARKNESS

Believed Was First Step To Start a Wholesale Jailbreak.

By United Press.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 14.—Mutiny of 20 convicts in the boiler plant at the Leavenworth prison was suppressed during the hours preceding dawn today.

The mutiny apparently was the first step in a plot to throw the prison in darkness in which the guards would have been handicapped in putting down a riot.

Sanford Bates, federal prison director, confirmed reports given out earlier in the day at Leavenworth police headquarters concerning the strike in the plant. Twenty convicts threw down their shovels and refused to tend the fires, he said.

RIOTS ARE QUELLED IN HONOLULU

By United Press.
HONOLULU, T. H., Dec. 14.—Military officials today maintained peace in this city by rioting which started Saturday when United States sailors kidnaped a Japanese accused of an assault on a white woman and all but hurled him off a 1,000-foot cliff.

Eight riot calls had been turned in before order was finally restored by the combined efforts of naval, marine and local police officers.

The trouble started late Saturday when American sailors demanded punishment for five men charged with criminal assault on the wife of a naval officer. They kidnaped one of the defendants and threatened to hurl him over a precipice 1,000 feet high. According to the police the Jap was stripped, beaten and left unconscious by the roadside.

District Courts Scenes of Activity Early Monday

The Eastland county courthouse was a busy place this morning as a number of cases were being heard in the 88th and 91st district courts swarmed the third floor. The first case on call is Jasper Phelps, charged with seduction. Most of the morning was taken up with selecting a jury to try the case.

Eastland Library Serves Many People

By CECILIA HAAS, Librarian
Wonder if the people of Eastland, as a whole, realize the wonderful work the Thursday Literary club is doing in maintaining a library in Eastland that would be a credit to any town its size.

There are some 5,000 volumes, consisting of reference books, classics, biographies, travel, and all up-to-date fiction that is worth while.

Eastland Post To Entertain Ranger Legionnaires With a Banquet on Thursday Night

W. H. McDonald and Earnest Jones of Dulin Daniels post of the American Legion, Eastland, were Ranger visitors last Thursday night when they attended the local post meeting and stated they were welfare workers.

It seems that sometime ago the Ranger post accepted a challenge from the Eastland post regarding membership of both, the loser to set up a feed or rather a banquet to the post which had the largest membership at the time of the state convention at El Paso. The Ranger post having won this honor by a plurality of 61 members, it behooved the Eastland boys to seek ways and means to provide this banquet. The ways were evident but the means were lacking and after much griping on the part of the Ranger members it was decided that they had won something, but we were not sure what. Time dragged.

Last Thursday the question was settled when McDonald and Jones invited all members of the Ranger American Legion post to attend a banquet in the Elks hall at Eastland at 7:30 p. m. on next Thursday night.

Every member of the Ranger post has been urged to accept this mission of a past due obligation and in order that they may inform Eastland how many will be there, they ask that you leave your name at the Chamber of Commerce with Miss Coughlin or Mr. Hickey.

As to Mr. McDonald and Mr. Jones announcing their mission in welfare workers, there might be some misunderstanding on the part of someone, so that should be cleared up. The rumblings about having won a banquet and not being able to collect it had reached Eastland in no uncertain terms. Hence, it was their own welfare they were looking out for.

Eastland Home Is Robbed Sunday

Rabbers entered the home of Bales about one mile east of Eastland on the highway some time early Sunday evening and carried away a lot of the approximate value of $300.

The Bales were away from home. Among their losses were clothing and a pistol. The robbery was reported to the police and sheriff's department, who traveled out several clues leading toward a tie-in between the robbery and the Western Union holdup.

Car Stolen From D. Joseph Saturday
A dark blue Buick sedan bearing license number C8-5345 was stolen from D. Joseph Saturday night, according to reports received Sunday by the Ranger police department.

The car was a 1928 model, five-passenger sedan.

TWO SHOT IN HOLDUP OF AIRMAN

By United Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 14.—An air corps student who was prompted by his woman companion to shoot it out with a trio of holdup men, was near death today while one of the alleged bandits was dead and the other two being held.

Second Lieutenant John E. Barr, air corps student at Randolph field, was near death while Thomas Bemus, 19-year-old high school student, was dead. William Duke, 19, and Milton Ellis, 20, were held for investigation.

Barr and his companion, Miss Jane Cohen, were driving along a highway Sunday, they said, when another car stopped them. Two masked men came over to the car and ordered Barr out.

As he left the car Miss Cohen slipped him a pistol from the side pocket. One of the boys opened fire as Barr stepped to the ground. He returned the fire, shooting Bemus through the heart with the first bullet. Three other bullets went wild. Barr was wounded in the chest.

Eastland Western Union Office Is Robbed Sunday
About 6 o'clock Sunday evening a stranger entered the offices of the Western Union in Eastland while Manager Randolph was checking up and demanded the money after displaying a pistol.

More than $50 was taken from Randolph and he was forced into a closet while the robbery made his escape. The alarm was given immediately and officers went to work on the case. Five arrests have been made but none of those arrested were identified as the man who committed the robbery.

Ranger Youth is Recommended as Licensed Minister

The youth's sermon was well received by the congregation and made such a good impression that it was voted by the members of the church to recommend his name to the board as a candidate for a license as a regular minister of the gospel.

Young Holloway has preached on a number of occasions around Ranger and is considered by those who have heard him as one of the most promising young preachers they have heard.

Battery Stolen From Pastor's Auto at Church

While preaching the evening service at the Church of Christ, Rev. D. W. Nichol became the victim of these thieves. When he went to leave the church he discovered that the four boards had been removed from his car and the battery taken out. Members of the congregation aided the pastor to get his car home Sunday night and this morning he had to order a new battery.

On Friday night thieves entered the garage at the home of Roy Jameson, city secretary, and took his tools, jack and a purse belonging to his wife. Several instances of gasoline thefts from cars parked in different parts of the town have led to the belief that there is a ring of automobile and gasoline thieves operating in the town.

Republicans In Counter Attack On Democrats
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Republicans opened a counter attack today in the House on the controlling Democrats, criticizing the action of the majority party and defending President Hoover.

Representative Beck, Republican, Pennsylvania, former solicitor general of the United States, who was chosen as the administration spokesman, redoubled Democrats' attacks on their "promiscuous speaking."

He demanded unity in what he called one of the four great crises of the world in the last 2,000 years.

ASSASSINS PLOT DEATH OF MURRAY

By United Press.

Eastland C. of C. Directors Oppose Allred Oil Suits

The board of directors of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce held a luncheon meeting at the Colwell hotel Friday. A resolution was passed endorsing the movement started by the Houston Chamber of Commerce criticizing Attorney General Allred for his attitude toward the oil industry in Texas.

While the Chamber of Commerce was supported by a city tax it passed a motion not to endorse or criticize, but since it has been abandoned by the city fathers the chamber feels that it is within its rights to endorse any action its board of directors may see fit.

A committee composed of Grady Pipkin, G. S. Stire and Earl Woody was appointed to study ways and means and prepare a plan of maintenance for the organization. At present the office is being operated with very little financial support and mostly through its secretary, Dr. H. B. Tanner, and his assistant, Miss Genevieve Lyons.

The existing four vacancies on the directorate were filled by addition of K. B. Tanner, Frank Castleberry, C. L. Harper and C. J. Rhodes. These names have been filed with the city commission for certification in accordance with the rules of procedure.

Confessed Slayer Of Couple To Be Brought To Tex.
By United Press.
AUSTIN, Dec. 14.—Sheriff Ben Hicks of Montgomery county was given a regular minister of the gospel by Gov. Ross Sterling on the return of Mississippi for the governor of Texas of Rex Hill to answer an indictment charging him with being the slayer of L. H. Brownlee and Mrs. Martha Smith near Conroe last Thursday.

By United Press.
OKOLONA, Miss., Dec. 14.—A quarrel over wages preceded the double murder at New Caney, Texas, of an itinerant show operator and a woman, Sheriff G. E. Shell said today in relating an alleged confession he obtained from Durrell Kendall, 22, alias Rex Hill, that he murdered the couple.

Kendall was arrested at the home of his parents after the sheriff traced a bag the youth had shipped here.

Brownlee knocked me over a cot," he is quoted as saying, "I hit him with a tent stake, and when I tried to get up the woman came at me with a butcher knife and I hit her with the stake."

GIRL DIES OF INJURIES AFTER OLDEN CRASH

V. Fessel and Miss Lucille E. Whitehall Both of Ranger, Receive Serious Injuries.

Three people were seriously injured and three others received slight cuts and bruises in a collision between a truck and a small coupe in the heart of Olden this afternoon about 2 o'clock.

The girl brought to Ranger was identified as Lucille E. Bohanan of Ranger. She died in the hospital about half an hour after she was received as a patient. She did not regain consciousness after the accident. Shortly before her death doctors said that there was little hope for her recovery.

V. Fessel and Miss Bohanan was rushed to the West Texas Clinic and Hospital by a Killingsworth-Cox ambulance.

One of the occupants of the Fessel car was rushed to the Payne hospital in Eastland by a Hammer ambulance. It was said at the hospital that the patient had not been identified. At present she had not regained consciousness and doctors who were working with her thought that her condition was serious.

She was identified later as Lucille E. Whitehall of Ranger.

V. Fessel, who was driving the car, was said to have received a severe head wound, which laid his scalp open. It was not thought his injuries would prove dangerous, however.

Details of the accident were given by Wayman Ware of Rising Star, son of W. H. Ware, owner of the truck. He said that he and two other boys, all from Rising Star, were going east through Olden when the car driven by Fessel cut across the street in front of the truck. He said that he attempted to stop, but was so close on the car that he could not stop.

All three boys in the truck were slightly bruised and cut and the cattle were thrown out in the street and escaped.

The plow's arrival affected only temporary relief as all wood and other fuel at the marooned mission was exhausted and normal requirements are nine tons of coal a day. Zero weather made the task of relief workers hard.

PRESIDENT HOOVER AND HIS MESSAGE.

President Hoover will send six messages to the congress. His first or initial message contained his legislative program recommendations. He proposed a plan for a gigantic federally financed reconstruction corporation that would advance money to needy industries. He would subscribe more funds to federal land banks. He would use federal reserve banks to liberate funds arrested in failed banks. He would establish a home loan discount bank system. He would broaden the base for paper reserve banks to discount. He would overhaul the banking laws. He would review the postal savings bank legislation. He would "avoid general tariff revision." He would revise interstate commerce commission laws regulating railroads. He would allow proper consolidation of railroads. He would adjust anti-trust laws to remove injustices. He would refrain from extending additional expenditures on veterans of the World War. He would regulate interstate transmission of electrical power. He would reject all proposals for a government dole, either direct or indirect. He would transfer the federal shipping board administration functions to the commerce department. He would make the shipping board a regulatory body, having jurisdiction over coastwise shipping and rates and service on inland waterways. He would strengthen immigration laws, deport all aliens who have evaded the laws and protect those who are entitled to a place under the flag.

All this is a reminder that the government is facing a huge deficit, and the only way to meet a deficit is to hike taxes in order that the money of the people shall flow toward the federal treasury. A president recommends. Lawmakers enact. Now it is for the congress to get busy and do something real for the people.

CALIFORNIANS PLAN WORK FOR THE UNEMPLOYED.
 California is overrun with unemployed from other states. It is said that more than 100,000 from outside states have drifted to Los Angeles and the problem is a most vexatious one. As for San Francisco and Northern California there are thousands who have drifted in from the Middle West and the East, in fact from all the industrial centers, and now the slogan is "Those who will not work should not eat." Snow line camps are to be formed and the immigrants are to be called to return an actual service for the food they eat and the shelter that is given them.

A California correspondent says the work at the snow line camps will mainly be concerned with the protection of the state's watershed. Funds have been provided by the legislature of California for the start. Workers at the camps will not only be men stopped at state borders but thousands will be taken from the cities. Each worker taken from the cities must have a medical examination to prove that he can work and must sign a statement that he is willing to work.

They will build fire trails, check dams to prevent a too fast runoff of winter rains and melted snows, forest roads and trails to aid fire control in the summer of 1932 and will break rocks for roads. They will be sheltered in tents and all available rough buildings, or buildings to be erected by the workers themselves. Food will be wholesome. Two meals a day. No wage. Five or six hours of labor cutting brush and breaking rock. First aid provisions and medical aid.

There are thousands of drifters from other states under the skies of Texas. They are found everywhere. They have not overlooked this city. In their ranks it is said that there are many professional hoboes and chronic beggars.

Rupert Hughes, the novelist, has challenged the churches of America to throw open their doors to provide warmth and shelter for those who are homeless and broken in purse. Novelist Hughes is of the opinion that the churches are built to serve the Lord and as the Lord's poor are ever with us a wise and humane way to serve them in the cities and towns and country would be to throw open the doors of the churches and give ready relief to those who are shelterless and hungry.

STANDARD OIL DIVIDENDS FOR THE YEAR.

According to a New York financial concern dividends paid by the Standard Oil company this year will amount to $220,739,182. This is approximately 23 per cent below the record figure of $286,526,728 disbursed by the Standard group in 1930. It will be remembered that the 1931 figure exceeded the 1928 disbursements by approximately $2,000,000.

Cedar Posts Bring Texans Big Revenue

CAMP WOOD, Texas.—With about one-fourth of the total state shipments going through here, the total revenue from cedar post shipments in Texas is expected to be about $700,000 this year.

The total shipment of mountain cedar is estimated this year at about 2,500 cars. The total value of Texas mountain cedar shipments this season is estimated at about $700,000.

While a large percentage of the cedar shipped here comes from 12 sections of cedar brakes in Uvalde county, many ranchmen in Uvalde, Real and Edwards counties are supplementing their incomes from wood, mohair, sheep and goats by marketing posts.

Uvalde, Kerrville, Llano, Burnet and San Saba are among the more important shipping points for mountain cedar, which is found in most of the hill country of the Edwards plateau.

Wealthy West Texas Land Owner Dies

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 14.—Mrs. John Shannon, reputed to be the richest woman in West Texas, died here at midnight. She was 77 years old.

Her wealth, principally in lands, was estimated at $4,000,000. The foundation of the Shannon fortune resulted from the greatest fencing job in history. The enclosing of the X I T ranch. The nearest surviving relative are a niece and a grand niece in New Zealand and a cousin in Scotland.

150 VARIETIES OF EGGPLANT.

AMHERST, Mass.—A five-year study of eggplants has revealed no less than 150 varieties at Massachusetts State college. They came from 38 different sources. There are two groups, solanum, melongena, which includes the edible type, and solanum integrifolium, which includes the ornamental and non-edible varieties.

MAY DOGE PAY CUT.

PANAMA.—President Ricardo J. Alfaro and the members of his cabinet are seeking ways and means to bolster the nation's revenue, in order to eliminate the necessity of a 20 per cent salary slash for government employees. Controller Alejandro Tapia some weeks ago recommended this salary reduction.

The 1932 Building Plan

WE MUST PUT SOME STEEL BEAMS IN THE FOUNDATIONS OF OUR CREDIT SYSTEM

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE
 Shawnee, Okla.

During protracted periods of trade depression the virtue of economy is acutely realized, though it is not always wisely practiced.

Forced by circumstances to curtail expenses, many firms immediately commence drastic pruning work on the amount set aside for advertising. In some cases they cut it out altogether.

The wisdom of this step is quickly realized when trade brightens up again.

It is then appreciated that there is more need for advertising during a cycle of depression than there is in times of prosperity.

Advertising your business is letting everybody know what only you know about your goods or service.

Advertising is going to all the people with a wholesale offer of what you have to sell.

Business concerns of the home city advertise because they believe in themselves and in their merchandise and want others to do the same.

The community booster spirit of the business men of the home city has not only done the most to build up the city but does the most to keep it growing.

All business men owe an obligation to the city that supports them. Most of them realize this fact, a few don't.

Most business men boost the home city and are intensely loyal to it.

They have prospered with it as it has prospered.

They have given unimpaired service to the home city and put back in it such profits as they have made.

Local citizens should support home business men to the limit.

bellboy-Preacher Finds Combination Job Is Helpful

By United Press. FORT WORTH.—Six days a week T. B. Mellicote is a bell-boy, and serving cracked ice to who want it, but on the seventh day, he enters a pulpit to preach sermons.

The bellboy-preacher is assistant pastor to the Diamond Hill Baptist church here, and strange the dual vocations may seem, he is learned that they complement each other.

It does a preacher no harm to bow what goes on in a hotel and take the serenity of a bellboy, he believes. He thus is able to learn about people first hand.

Mellicote was licensed to preach 18 months ago when a student at Baylor university. Shortly afterwards he left the university, got a job as bellboy at a local hotel.

He sent his young sister to school and saved his money for the time when he could return to Baylor. In the meantime the pastor at Diamond Hill invited him frequently to fill the pulpit as guest preacher. His sermons were liked at 21 years old, the youthful teacher sponsors a gospel for his generation. Young people of the church are looking for a religion of the heart rather than one of ritual creeds and ritual, he believes.

He hopes to give up hopping the next fall to return to Baylor.

Two Oil Wells In Same Hole Peculiar Feature

AUSTIN.—In several respects the Big Lake oil field in Reorgan County, located on a large block of land owned by the University of Texas, possesses remarkable features.

The two distinct grades of crude oil and gas wells in Texas are located, and, in fact, they are the deepest large producers of oil in the world, not being exceeded in output by the deeper wells which have been brought in recently in California.

Frances was coming quietly down the stairs, and she tipped her chin to sassiness as she answered Ann's question.

LESSON-SERMON GIVEN

The subject of the lesson-sermon was "God the Preserver of Man," in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, Dec. 13.

The service embraced the following passage from the Bible: "Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?"—Matthew 6:31.

Included in the lesson-sermon was also this citation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The earth, at God's command, brings forth food for man's use. Knowing this, Jesus once said, 'Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, —presuming not on the providence of your creator, but recognizing God, the Father and Mother of all, as able to feed and clothe man as He doth the lilies.'" (p. 536).

Miss Byerly was their Sunday-school teacher.

GRIPINGS By GUS

This column is published as a daily feature and may not be construed as representing the editorial views of this paper. What follows is merely what one man thought at the time it was written, and the writer reserves the right to change his mind concerning any subject, without notice, explanation or apology.

Yesterday I went out 21 miles northwest of Cisco with John Simpson to where he drilling a gas well for the Lone Star. John and I were talking about the colloquialisms used by people from various states. John says, "Now if we were in Kentucky and asked someone to direct us from the highway to the well, they'd tell us it was two sights and one look."

A sight being as far as you can see. Two sights is twice as far as you can see. You go to the end of the first sight and take the second sight. When you reach the end of the second sight you take your look and you're supposed to be able to see the whatever it is you are looking for. John said he could understand such means of measuring distance, but it's pretty greekified to me.

Just got back in town in time to see the long firewagon tearing down the street loaded down with gentlemen in black coats with sheepskin collars. Understood the boys were all called out so they could have their pictures struck awnsawmble.

Much excitement around the village caused by the robbery last night. Everybody is doubly cautious. I even hunted up Bill Mead and told him I was about to walk around the square and not to shoot me in the pants on suspicion I put my teeth in his mouth so in case a hijacker going through my pockets he wouldn't beat me out of my breakfast.

Somebody's got to tell me how to get stories on court trials without the jury and the witness getting me mixed up with the defendant. Some guy pointed me out to the sheriff last week and said that that guy in the brown suit gets into more trouble than anybody. Said he'd seen me up there being tried in both courts twice in the same week. Well, heck, I couldn't help it because me and Red Giles both had on a brown suit.

Maybe you never heard Nick Lucas and John McCormack on the same program, but the Rotarians heard practically that today at luncheon when Julius Krause and myself appeared (in person). Julius is a powerful singer and has a charge of the entertainment. He forgot all about it until about 10 o'clock this morning when he came and hunted me up and says "go get to put on a program. He does the John McCormack and I do the Nick Lucas. We borrowed a nice looking guitar from Mr. Harper and the first thing you know we had prepared O Sol Mio and La Goldondrina for public rendition.

Of course all this is written before the Rotary club meeting and I don't know how we are going to come out. However, I've been known to gather up enough cabbage and other vegetables after having them chunked at me for rotten tootin' to feed the family several days. If the Rotarians like us we may quit our respective jobs and go into the singing business. I say that advisedly because if the Rotarians like us we may know we are good because those boys are dog gone hard to please.

You may not know it, but John Mouser used to be the best fiddler his folks ever saw. Dr. Chaney can pick a guitar the likes of which has never been seen in these parts (until today). These two guys are exacting critics. But Julius and I are resigned to our fate. If they laugh at us for being rotten, it's all right because we plan only to entertain and not instruct and if they just don't look to bored, well we'll be satisfied.

Fewer Cases Are Filed in Federal Courts on Leggers DALLAS.—The lack of funds with which to buy bootleg liquor is one factor which has resulted in federal prohibition agents filing fewer cases against bootleggers during the last few months, United States Commissioner Lee H. Smith said.

Federal prohibition agents rarely attempt to take a liquor case until after they have made an actual purchase in connection with it, Smith said. But the lack of funds has not permitted the agents to go out and buy liquor from the bootleggers, Smith explained.

Sportsman's Paradise To Be Erected In Rio Grande Valley ALAMO, Texas.—A sportsman's paradise is to be erected on a 700 acre tract south of Alamo to be known as the Rio Grande Valley Sportsman's Club.

Every type of sports is being provided for in the development of the 700 acres of land. The plans call for a 300-room clubhouse, two 18-hole golf courses, polo fields, tennis courts, a baseball diamond, an outdoor concrete swimming pool and the landscaping of a large acreage immediately surrounding the clubhouse.

E. R. Redlich, of Alamo, president of the club, is a retired Chicago real estate operator who moved to the valley in 1929. For the past two years he has been interested in organizing and developing the type of club that would attract visitors who would assist in the valley development. Associated with Redlich in the project, estimated to cost $1,000,000 when finally completed, is Roger H. Bullard, well known New York City architect; Leonard Macomber of Chicago, an internationally known golf course architect and engineer; H. B. Decker of Chicago, president of the DeWitt Construction company, and A. Greise, of Chicago, landscape architect.

A rambling, Spanish-type clubhouse will be built on a site overlooking the two golf courses and the two lakes which are located on the tract. One of the lakes is natural while the other is artificial. The club's letterheads show preparations have been made for deep sea fishing parties at Fort Isabel besides hunting on its own 700-acre properties, trap and skeet shooting, golf, polo, tennis, swimming, archery and yachting.
