Friday was dog day for me. I was walking down street in Ranger and heard a yapping dog. I was looking for a quiet street with nobody in it. I saw a man in a suit and a woman in a dress. Returns from small city and rural precincts, where conventions were held in the afternoon were amply for Garner with two exceptions. Developments in three of the major cities? Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston, revealed in advance of the night convention that Garner would have a clear field and that the state convention at Houston later in the month will be harmonious.

Saint Theresi Shrine Honors Set For July 3

By United Press. By RALPH HEINZEN. LISIEUX, France.—Inviting the Catholic world to come to the shrine of Saint Theresi, Mgr. Francois Picaut, bishop of Bayeux and Lisieux, has announced that the benediction and inauguration of the crypt and underground cathedral of the "Basilica of Peace" in honor of the Norman saint will take place July 3.

Although Saint Theresi died in 1897 and was canonized in 1925, her cult already is international; churches and chapels for her honor have been erected in Japan, South America, Alaska, Australia, Madagascar, and Canada, and many of them will send delegates here in June.

In 1930, there were 750,000 pilgrims, but last year, the figure had jumped to 850,000. During 1932, because of the festivities incident to the inauguration of the underground church, it is believed the million mark will be reached.

Only the crypt, and not the Basilica of Peace itself, will be blessed in the July ceremony. The crypt will be a vast underground church, to be surmounted in a few years by the great Basilica. It is estimated that the Basilica, when completed, will cost $2,000,000.

One popular theory has it that holder named Dixie, of Manhattan Island, invested heavily in and soon had many more than were needed on his small. The work was light and food was plentiful, and the negroes love Dixie's land. Later, when they were sold to southern they found life a more serious problem, and then it was that groans sang of their old "Dixie Land" home.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma. JAMES F. TAGGART, Editor of the Brawley (Calif.) News, Says: "No one ever buys anything unless their attention is called to it. 'Advertising,' in Latin, literally means turning to something. Some of this turning is automatic, almost a subconscious muscular urge. That comes from long habit, like going to the corner grocery or filling up the family car with gas. 'Things kept at the grocery store don't have to be advertised unless you want the best and at the same price, or thereabouts, as you pay for the poorer grades. To get the best in groceries, therefore, watch for the advertised brands. As anything else you buy to add to human comfort or happiness. 'The advertised brands of anything—food, clothing, shelter, housing, etc., are challenging the reader of the advertisement to make them make good, according to their proclamation, actual or implied, in the advertisement and which says, 'Buy us and, by buying, make us make good on our claims.' That challenge is a safe one; the man or manufacturer behind the advertisement knows, from his sales totals, that he always has made good and always will make good if only he keeps his product up to the standard pledged by him in his advertisement. Your city should blow its own horn. Nobody else will do it for you. If patriotism is a virtue in time of war, it should be also in time of peace.

John Barnes In Constable Race In Precinct No. 2

John Barnes, deputy sheriff of Ranger, has announced his candidacy for constable of Precinct No. 2.

Mr. Barnes is an oldtime resident of Ranger and has been a peace officer for a number of years. For the past few years he has served as deputy sheriff and has a record that would be the envy of any deputy sheriff in this section of the country.

The candidate has unearthed evidence in many of the crimes committed in this county in the past few years and has proved himself to be a tireless and conscientious peace officer. He is very modest about his exploits as an officer. He goes about his duties in a quiet unassuming way, but invariably gets results.

He will have an official announcement to make concerning his candidacy in the near future.

The resignation of Mrs. W. G. Doughtie and Charles Fagg to membership in the club was accepted with regret, as was the resignation of Mrs. W. T. Root, chairman of the library committee.

It was decided that the next meeting of the club, May 19, would be the last meeting of the year, and that it would be a picnic. Extemporaneous speech day will be observed at that time.

At the conclusion of the business session the leader of the afternoon took charge and a program on American art was given. Mrs. A. H. Johnson discussed "American Masters of Painting," assisted by Mrs. J. M. Perkins. Pictures were used to illustrate both discussions. Round-table discussion was "American Masterpieces."

Tire Patches and Boots Manufactured By Ranger Firm

Few realize that there is a plant in Ranger that manufactures and repairs needs for automobile tires.

The Bethel Rubber Products company of Ranger is building up a good business in this line. The boots are made from old tires which are run through a heading machine to remove the beads, then taken to the splitting machine where the tread is split off of the carcass to remove the excess rubber and make the boot smooth. The tire is next taken to the cut-up machine. There it is cut into the desired lengths and taken to the trimming machine. There the boot is trimmed to exact measurement. After trimming it is taken to the skiving machine where the edges are skived and the boots are sorted into different grades. They are next painted inside with a soapstone solution and outside with a quick cure compound packed in cellophane paper, ready for shipment.

The Old Ranger

The Romance of Ranger

FROM A MERE CAMP of Texans Rangers sent into the frontier to control the outlaws and Indians, the town of Ranger sprang into an important trading post. Little did the original settlers dream that some day the drill would pierce the oil below and a stream of golden riches would flow to them.

With the coming of oil came people seeking to participate in the fabulous fortunes . . . came people from everywhere and all kinds of people. These folk soon formed the habit of making quick acquaintances and an uncanny ability at estimating a person's characteristics.

"Don't Be a Stranger in Ranger" soon became a slogan . . . a welcoming phrase to hail the newcomer and the visitor . . . a phrase expressive of fellowship that still distinguishes Ranger from other cities.

"It's A Mighty Fine Climate"

AND SO WE REMIND YOU, "Don't Be a Stranger in Ranger." When you are traveling on the Broadway of America, make it a point to spend a few minutes or a few days in our city. Our people will accept you as a gentleman unless you prove otherwise.

Ranger could well be a health resort, for the climate here is ideal most of the time. Our people are healthy from sunshine, the fresh air, a medium altitude and a humidity that is neither oppressively damp nor witheringly dry.

We find it a good place to live . . . good people to live amongst . . . where it's easy to raise vegetables from the soil or pasture livestock on the hills. Come back to see us . . . stay a few days . . . you might like it so well you'd live here permanently.

COMIC SCRAP BOOK

HERE'S another picture for your comic scrapbook! It's Willis again, and this time he has his hound with him. Willis, you know, helps to entertain you every week on this page. Watch for other comic character sketches which are coming at later dates.

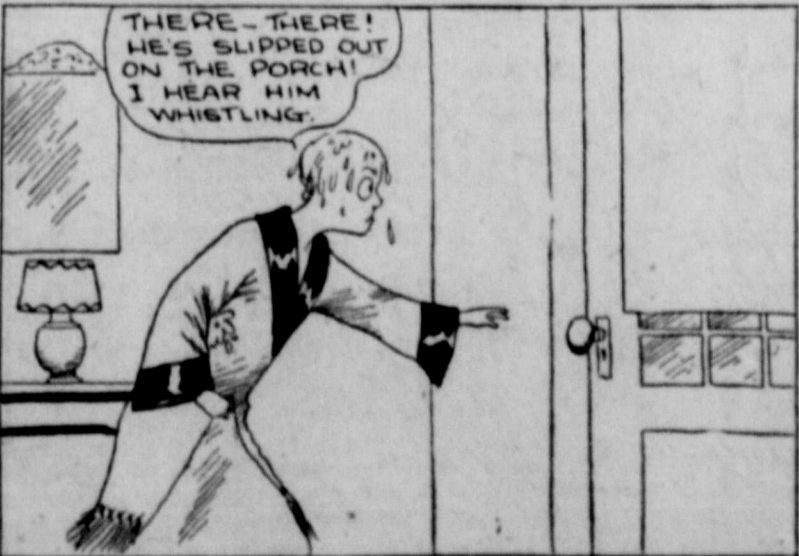

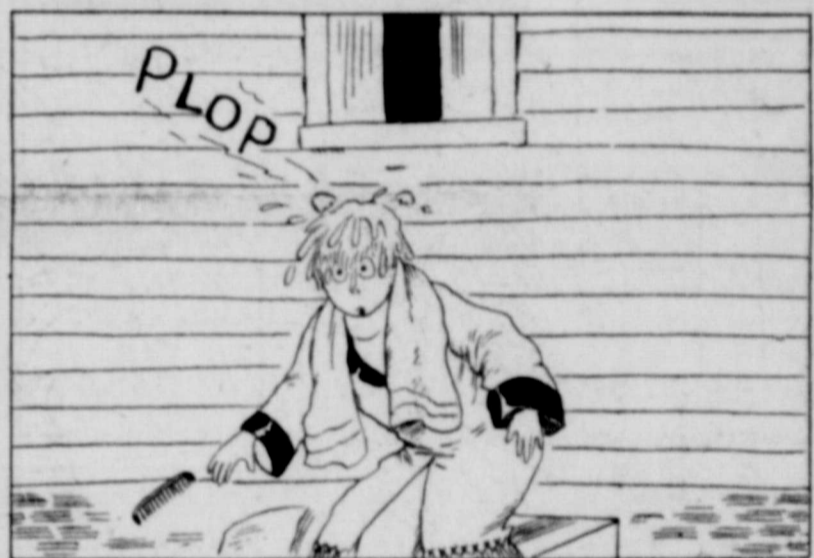

To his dog Willis said, "Come on, fella, sit up. Just to show all the kids you're a smart little pup!" And the dog answered, "Yip, yip!" which means, in dog land, "Sure I will—for that wiener you have in your hand."

Interscholastic League Began As Debating Organization in 1910

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles dealing with the activities and scope of the Texas Interscholastic League which is sponsored by the University of Texas.

The growth of the organization has occurred not only in the numbers and classes of schools affected, but also in the increased number of counties that have formed county leagues, in the doubling of the original number of the districts, but also in the number of the different events offered the schools for competition.

teacher rural schools, was placed in the regular league schedule in 1927. In the same year the league underwent its first reorganization...

One of the latest contests to be added to the league schedule of events is one in dramatics, which was inaugurated also in 1927.

One of the early contests which aroused much interest was oral spelling. It was established in 1916 and was continued until 1920, when it was abandoned for the present spelling and plain writing contest.

It will be seen that there has been a constantly expanding schedule to meet the interests of varying groups of pupils in the public schools; and as the schedule has grown, membership has grown from 28 schools in the beginning to more than 5000 at present.

A similar expansion has taken place in the athletics schedule. Beginning with track and field in 1912, boys' tennis doubles was undertaken in 1914, boys' singles in 1919, girls' doubles and girls' singles in 1920.

MOTHER'S LOVE
When we think of mother's love so noble and grand, Is there anything greater given to man? Of the trials and hardships she went through Of the sacrifices she made for me and you.

Now answer my question if you can, Is there anything greater given to man? We turn our thought to the sky Me thinks I see an angel on high I strain my ear and get the reply Only the love of God whose Son did die.

St. Rita Altar Society Meeting To Be Held With Mrs. Carlin
The St. Rita Altar society will meet with Mrs. W. W. Carlin, hostess at her home, Desdemona boulevard, Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

The presence of each member would be appreciated as an interesting program will be given during the hour.

Report of Summer Round-Up And Plans of Clinic Committee.
The annual spring and summer round-up is of outstanding interest to many parents each year. The ultimate goal is to educate parents to the need for early periodic examinations of their children by the family physician and dentist in order to insure correction of hampering defects which might otherwise be discovered until the child enters school.

The pre-school period is a crucial time for the child. It is time when he has to shift for himself more or less and when he is exposed to and often handicapped for life by "children's diseases" and injuries resulting from accidents. In fact many of the ills of later childhood, adolescence and adult life have their beginning in the interval between infancy and school age. Thousands of children have defective vision, defective hearing, or other defects which can be cured or relieved by early treatment and the parent who does not take this opportunity is not doing his duty by the child.

While the summer round-up of the children who enter school for the first time is first of all an educational project, it is also sound economically because it prevents waste of educational effort, with its attendant cost. It is said that the average American child entering school is only about 25 per cent physically equipped for the "great adventure." In a recent study of pre-school children it was found that 25 per cent needed glasses. The average cost of a grammar school education is $100 per year. Financial support of the school is materially affected by the child's attendance and it is good business to make these children through the correction of remediable defects an asset to the school instead of a liability.

The clinic for Tuesday will be

THE HAPPY ENDING.

How To Be Happy Though Hostess

Don't let the announcement "company's coming" turn your household into a flurry! Get over the idea that "company" must mean all manner of busy busting, with the house in an uproar and the kitchen topsy-turvy while the cook spends weary hours turning out food.

With motor cars so numerous, fast freights and even airplanes so rare, the advent of good traveling weather will bring frequent visitors to most of us, especially if we live in the suburbs or the country. City-dwellers do love week-endings!

A little planning and some "looking ahead" can make your siege of summer visitors a welcome event. If you keep yourself ready, with some goodies in the larder and some plans in your head, you can really enjoy your guests. Instead of hobnobbing with the kitchen stove all the time, you can chat with your company and learn how to be "happy though hostess!"

Fresh-keeping foods are, of course, those you will choose to "look ahead" for your larder. Cakes and cookies which contain moist ingredients such as dates and the other drier fruits, or fruit peels, will remain fresh for days at a time if properly stored.

Your shelf of canned goods will yield soups and entrees, and fruits for cocktails or breakfast. Some recipes and menus for company use should be kept in your kitchen cabinet file, with one page devoted to quick or emergency dishes and perhaps another given to a list of foods your expected guest prefers.

Plan to use your refrigerator extensively while the guests stay, by arising early you can mix some delicious salad or dessert which the ice-box will make while you enjoy yourself. Plan your meals ahead of time, and if you are careful you will have no real cooking to do except the meat and a vegetable!

Fruit Pound Cake
(For Successful Storage)
2 cups pastry flour
2 tps. baking powder
1/2 pkg. pasteurized dates
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
1 tsp grated orange rind
1/4 cup orange juice
Sift dry ingredients; cut the cup of dates in eighths; mix dates through flour with finger tips. Cream butter; add sugar gradually then beaten eggs and grated orange rind. Stir in flour alternately with orange juice. Pour batter into a loaf pan which has been greased and lined with greased paper. Bake in a very moderate oven (325 to 350 degrees F.) for 50 to 60 minutes. 1 large loaf or 2 small loaves (1 1/2 lbs.).

Below Zero Cheese Salad
(Delicious Dinner Salad)
1 pkg. (3 oz.) cream cheese
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/4 pkg. pasteurized dates
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup crushed pineapple
2 tps. lemon juice
1/4 cup cream, whipped
Mash cheese with a wooden spoon; stir in mayonnaise; mix until smooth. Add the 1/4 cup of chopped dates, pineapple, salt and lemon juice. Fold in whipped cream. Freeze in trays of mechanical refrigerator or in ice and salt for about four hours. Serve on lettuce with cream mayonnaise. Serves 6. Whipped evaporated milk may be substituted for the cream.

Fruit Melange
Easy But Attractive Last Course
Stuff whole figs, dates, halves of peaches, pears or apricots (fresh, preserved or canned) with a cheese paste or with cream cheese mixed with nuts. Arrange in a low glass dish or silver tray, with wafers or crackers in the center. See that each guest has an individual plate, and small knife if fruit is large. Pass at table for dessert or for last course at a formal dinner.

Opening of Remodeled Dry Cleaning Plant Stresses Progress Made in Ranger.
With the formal opening of Bill's Dry Cleaning Plant, after having been completely remodeled and re-decorated, a note of progress is stressed for the several years' work done by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. (Bill) Clardy, since the opening of Bill's plant in the year of 1919.

The shop presents a neat and modern appearance attractively finished in tones of cream and black. For the pretty opening held Friday evening and Saturday, flowers for the added artistic touches were graciously furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Surbrook. Snapdragons, intermingled with golden tinted cosmos, gorgeous bluish pink tea roses and opening buds together with clusters of radiant roses afforded a background of harmonizing color.

An alteration room, cozily furnished, will be in charge of Mrs. Clardy, assisted by Mrs. W. B. Crow.

Many features for your convenience have been arranged at this shop which you are cordially invited to visit soon.

Entertain Friday Night Club With Bridge.
Members of the Friday Night club were delightfully entertained with a bridge party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glazner, Sue street. At the close of the evening, thoroughly enjoyed, high score for the lady guests was made by Mrs. Nath Pirkle, and high for the men by B. G. Pirkle.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Nath Pirkle, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. B. L.

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers, and Mrs. J. S. Reynolds, Miss Katie Kramer, and B. G. Pirkle.

Weiner Roast Entertains Husbands of Ladies' Class.
Members of the Gleason Sunday school class of the First Baptist church entertained with a weiner roast given at Colony creek recently, complimenting their husbands and pastor, Rev. G. W. Thomas.

Mrs. John Tibbels and class associates acted as hostesses for the enjoyable outing.

A big camp fire was glowing when the party arrived, adding an impressive and promising setting for the happy entertainment. Weiners and coffee were served and games played, affording an unusually gay affair for 65 guests attending.

National Life Membership Awarded Mrs. Richmond.
An outstanding honor was bestowed Mrs. Wilbert Richmond Friday afternoon when the Merriman Parent-Teacher association met in an unusually entertaining session. A national life membership was awarded this very capable president, who has so de-servingly served throughout the term. This notes the completion of a school term personal interest and enthusiasm manifested together with untiring efforts of this valuable member.

Through the ceaseless efforts, Mrs. Richmond has made possible a very successful year for Parent-Teacher work.

The Merriman Parent-Teacher association was given this award by the city council as the only school having a perfect record in attending the city council meetings all during the year.

The Tickville band will give the final Parent-Teacher association entertainment in the near future. The installation of officers for the following year will also be held at that meeting.

New singers wishing to join this well organized choir are cordially invited to do so.

This choir will be presented in another program in the near future with plans announced at a later date. Wonderful work is being done and the director is quite pleased with the general progress.

IT has been solemnly announced, as news, that Jack Curley is going in for theatrical promotion. Inasmuch as Monsieur Curley has been staging wrestling matches for years, it is not such hot news at that.

John McGraw is not one to injure the feelings of the great unseen audience. Called upon at the Polo grounds the other day to mumble a few well chosen words over the radio, John put a fine finishing touch to the performance by tipping his hat at the mike.

Max Carey soon will begin to understand the magnitude of the managerial assignment in Brooklyn. Every time the Brooklyn boys lose the lead, the fans start screaming for the return of good old Uncle Robbie.

To Burt Shotton

BURT SHOTTON'S recent declaration that in Hurst, Mallon, Bartell and Whitney the Phils have the best infield in baseball would have sounded much less like inspiring elation if he had saved it for September. It was not the best infield in baseball last year by 10 lengths.

Madison Square Garden may have the best intentions in the world toward building that nice new stadium for which ground was recently broken, but 99 per cent of the stadium started in New York in the last 25 years have turned out to be castles in the air.

There's just a chance that Al Smith's tirade against Democratic demagoguery was not directed at Governor Roosevelt, after all. He may have been talking about Jack Sharkey.

Why, Doctor!

THE recent public utterances of Jack Kearns, to the effect that Jack Dempsey was one of the very great fighters of all time, he coarsens a suspicion that you must have had yourself. When Kearns and Dempsey split some years ago, the Doctor gave public utterance to the belief that Dempsey was a muzz of a fighter he had helped to put over with splendid ballyhoo.

Dr. Coleman Griffith, psychological research director of athletics at the University of Illinois (which must be some job, by the way), says a golfer with a headache plays a more natural game than one without. A number of baseball managers, however, will deny that the same theory applies to their athletes.

The only drawback to the successful operation of the theory is that the golfer doesn't get his headache until he adds up his score.

The Old Fight

JOHN MCGRAW urges his players to show more of the old fighting spirit, believing that more people will pay to see scrappy athletes than mechanically perfect robots.

Mr. McGraw is a fighter himself, and you don't even have to ask Un-empire Bill Klein to make sure of that, either.

Al Spohrer, Boston catcher, spoke too soon. The day after he spiked Hack Wilson was an easy out because he was a sucker for a fast ball when he stood erect, and a muck for a curve when he crouched. Hack came up and broke up a ball game by hitting one of the Boston pitchers' high hard ones for four bases.
