

Ranger Junior College As Financial Asset To Ranger and Trade Territory

By H. S. Von Roeder, Dean
Statistics show that the average cost per student in the University of Texas and other large colleges is about $900.00 per year to the student and parent. But let us be very conservative and say that the average student can get by on $500.00 per year. For sixty students (Ranger had sixty-four last year) this would amount to a saving of $30,000.00 to Ranger and vicinity last year. For one hundred students, which we confidently expect to enroll the coming season, the savings on this basis amount to $50,000.00. To the extent that the surrounding section patronizes Ranger Junior College, these communities share in the savings. But the average cost per student attending Ranger Junior College is only around $300.00 per year, including tuition, books, clothes, etc. Thus the parents will save at least $200.00 per student, and Ranger and vicinity will gain around $30,000.00 in trade for one year on the basis of one hundred students enrolled over what they would have if these students went away to college. And these are conservative figures. Is Ranger Junior College worth while?

Again, actual cost accounting shows that the average cost per student annually to the State amounts to about $300.00 in the State University, to about $350.00 in A. M. College, and slightly smaller amounts in other State supported institutions of higher learning. The cost of educating a student in Ranger Junior College is nothing to the State; Ranger furnishes the building and equipment; and the tuition charges, etc., practically to pay for the teaching costs. In fact, on the basis of 100 students the tuition charges will more than pay for the instructional costs per student. You may wonder where the great differences in these costs come in. For one thing, there is considerable extravagance in the administration of State schools. Secondly, many of the professors in these institutions draw a salary of $5,000.00 for the nine-month term and practically all of the instructors and teachers of various ranks draw rather high salaries. That does not mean that they are better teachers by any means; in fact, the standard of teachers in Ranger Junior College is perhaps above that of the average for most colleges. In the third place, while freshman and sophomore classes in these colleges are generally more crowded than those of Ranger Junior College, many of the advanced and graduate classes are very small, and the cost per student under highly paid professors naturally mounts up considerably.

Consider these costs and advantages, friends, business men, and school patrons of this section, and patronize Ranger Junior College! This college offers two years of standard college work leading toward a regular B. A. or B. S. or B. B. A. or LL. B. degree and almost two years of pre-medical work. State teachers certificates of the first class are issued on the same basis that other first class colleges can offer them.

Furthermore, the college offers many advantages that larger colleges cannot give to students in the first two years, such as better conditions for learning, more personal supervision of students, better opportunities for developing initiative and leadership, and better instruction at a lower cost to students in the first two years because of the home environment, better classroom conditions, and thoroughly trained teachers. Ranger Junior College is fully affiliated, being a member of the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities and of the State and National Associations of Junior Colleges. It is rated also as a college of the first class by the State Department of Education. Do what is best for yourself and your community: support your home institutions and patronize Ranger Junior College.

HEN TOOK JOY RIDE

By United Press.
STORRS, Conn.—Albin Lindquist, of Forestville, will swear hens like joy rides. A hen bolted from his hen coop and vanished under his automobile. Search unsuccessful, he drove to New Britain. After a 22-mile drive, he found the hen perched on the front axle—dusty, but with a happy glint in her eye.

HAY IS MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE

BURGLAR'S HAUL DISAPPOINTING

By United Press.
PASADENA, Cal.—A burglar who found a double handful of banknotes in the home of Prof. M. W. Zaikowski must have been disappointed when he got home. The notes included 10,000 Russian rubles of the post-revolution era, not worth the paper they were printed on, and 1,000 German marks of the post-war years.

Eyes of W.C.T.U. Will Be Focused On Annual Meet

By United Press.

SEATTLE, Wash.—The eyes of millions of Christian women throughout the world will be focused on Seattle, Aug. 11 to 19, when the 58th annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union is in session. Democratic and republican women attending the convention will determine the political attitude to be taken toward the candidates in view of the "wet" attitude expressed in both national party platforms. Caucuses by members of both parties at the convention here, will be similar to those held at Houston, Texas, in 1930, the last annual convention of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Boole to Preside.
All of the national officers of the W. C. T. U. will be here. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president, will preside. Mrs. Boole will travel from Evanston, Ind., the national headquarters city, to Seattle in a "White Ribbon Special" train.

National officers, including Mrs. Boole, Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, Des Moines, Ia., vice president at large; Mrs. Anna Marden DeYo, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Margaret C. Munns, treasurer, both of Evanston; Mrs. Sara H. Hoge, Lincoln, Va., recording secretary, and Mrs. Nellie G. Burger, Springfield, Mo., assistant recording secretary, will go immediately into the conference to discuss important questions.

The convention will open Friday night, Aug. 12 at Plymouth Congregational church, the same edifice where the W. C. T. U. held its 42nd annual convention in 1914.

Prominent Speakers.
Many speakers of national prominence will address the convention. Included in the list will be Mary Harris ARMOUR, "The Georgia Cyclone," director of the National W. C. T. U. department of evangelism; Mrs. Victoria Booth Demarest, granddaughter of Gen. William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army; Dr. Daniel A. Poling, chairman of the Allied Forces for Prohibition; Miss Grace Leigh Scott, W. C. T. U. lecturer on social morality; and Dr. Isora Scott national legislative representative at Washington, D. C.

Features of the sessions will include an open forum on resubmission of the prohibition question and a ceremony called "Starring the Flag" where an American flag, with its blue field lacking stars, will be "starred" by W. C. T. U. state presidents in the order in which their states were admitted to the Union.

Picturesque Pageant.
World night will be held Monday, Aug. 15. A picturesque "Light Line" pageant, with representatives of many civilized nations in native dress, will be featured with an appeal being made to America to help solve the liquor problem. Speakers will include the Rev. Miss Helen L. Byrnes, field secretary, who recently completed a world tour; Mrs. T. H. Wright of Vancouver, B. C., vice president of the Canadian W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Bessie Lee Cowie, New Zealand, world organizer for the organization.

The National Women's Christian Temperance union was founded in 1873 as the result of the great Woman's Temperance Crusade of that year. The organization was perfected in Cleveland, O., in November, 1874. The first president was Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer of Philadelphia.

ANOTHER UPLIFT MOVEMENT IN CHICAGO

Judge Marcus Kavanaugh, one of the most noted jurists of America, granted an injunction restraining Irving park commissioner from chasing women clad in shorts from the tennis courts.

Well, the girls said the police were offended when they appeared on the courts in their abbreviated costumes and chased them off. They sought legal sanction for the dress.

Think of shocking the innate modesty of a Chicago policeman. Flowers for Kavanaugh. He has been a judge for many years. He should be continued a judge until pension time arrives or death calls him home.

BODY BLOWS FOR THIRD DEGREE TORTURES

Eleven policemen in greater New York arrested a youngster for robbery. They third-degreded him until he died. Perhaps, he was a young ruffian, but a policeman is not the judge and the prosecutor and the jury.

Junior Missionary Auxiliary, Baptist church, 9:30 a. m., Mmes. J. Pitts, J. P. Truly and Miss Hunt, directors.

Public library open 2 to 5:30 p. m., community clubhouse.

Tennis tournament, continues Friday and Sunday.

Church of God camp meeting services, through day. Public meals served.

Miss Tanner leaves Sunday by airplane.

Miss Blanche Tanner of Seattle, Wash., who has spent a few delightful weeks with her parents, Tanner, and little daughter; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Freyschlag, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson and Percy Sayles.

The impromptu guests gathered on the rear lawn of the Tanner home and enjoyed an informal game of auction.

Many of these family gatherings have marked Miss Tanner's visits.

Senior Group Camp Fire Girls.
Mrs. W. P. Palm was hostess to the senior group of the Eastland Camp Fire Girls at their regular meeting Thursday afternoon.

Informal discussions were held as to the activities of the group, planned for the coming month.

The sale of sandwiches on the square election day was reported as having cleared, with the sale of soda pop, $4.75.

The little salesladies were Lurline Brawner, Catherine Uttz, Margaret Fry, Joan Johnson, Carolyn Cox, Elinor Ruth Ferguson, Edith Meek, and Lucy May Cottingham.

Mrs. Palm, the guardian, discussed ways and means for the raising of money by the group and it was decided that hereafter at each meeting each member will contribute two cents to the treasury.

Rebekah Lodge Has Pleasant Surprise.
The Eastland Rebekah lodge held their routine business session Thursday night in the I. O. O. F. hall, conducted by their noble grand, Dorothy Watson.

Pauline Cook was appointed lodge deputy. Other business was of the usual character.

The "surprise program," put into effect at last meeting, was pleasantly carried out by Mrs. Bernice Treadwell, hostess for the evening, who entertained the party at the city park, following the business session.

A program of games was enjoyed and the hostess served delicious ice cream to Miss Watson, Miss Cook, Mrs. Cy Butler, Mrs. Ray H. Hardwick, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Blanche Nicols, Mrs. Tom Daniel, Mrs. Marie, Mrs. Do Parker, and Miss Opal Hunt.

Swim Party Called Off.
The intermediate group of boys, known as the Royal Ambassadors, of junior missionary society of the Baptist church, were disappointed when their swim and sunrise breakfast was called off, Thursday at Trianon lake, Olden.

One of the boys stated the parents became alarmed over a report that the lake was tainted and requested that the party not be held.

This seems to be only a rumor, however, that has no foundation. Parties are using the lake for swimming all the time.

In the afternoon, Wednesday, a party of boys enjoyed a swim and outing at Lake Trianon. Among these were Curtis Ferrell, Tommie Joe Barnett, Travis Cook, Tim Barnett, and Griffith Cook.

Hunter Leaders Throw Support To Sterling

Special Correspondent.

DALLAS, July 29.—George O. Wallace, Dallas county chairman of the Hunter-for-governor campaign, today announced that he would support Governor Sterling in the second primary. In a statement issued to the press today Mr. Wallace said:

"Believing that Tom Hunter would make Texas one of the best governed it ever had, I gave to him my full support. In doing so I think that I fully discharged my duty as a good citizen of my state. Mr. Hunter having been eliminated, it now becomes my duty to make choice between Governor Sterling and Mrs. Ferguson."

"I would not vote for the best woman in Texas for this high office. If I thought her husband would be the governor in fact, this would be true even if that husband should bear the best reputation for integrity and patriotism. I will not support a candidate who will be governor in name only, and approve a governorship by proxy. I cannot forget the corruption which occurred during the administration of the Fergusons, husband and wife. As a good citizen,

I will not lend my vote for the possible return of similar conditions.

"The first qualification of this office is that of honesty. No amount of brains or efficiency will take its place. I therefore will not out hesitation or reservation will give my support in the run-off to Governor Sterling.

"I urge the supporters of Tom Hunter, who in the first primary were impelled by the sense of patriotic duty and service to the state to cast their ballots in the interest of the best welfare of the state, to continue the discharge of such high obligations by aiding the forces of good government in the defeating of Fergusonism. We must save our state from the withering blight which threatens it now. The only choice we have is Governor Ross S. Sterling."

A. J. Schuster, South Texas campaign manager for Tom F. Hunter, simultaneous with the announcement of Mr. Wallace announced that he would support Governor Sterling and take active part in the campaign during the run-off.

"Mr. Sterling was accused of many things during the campaign just ended but no one has been able to assert any dishonesty in state affairs. His opponents have consistently pointed to his inability to successfully manage his personal affairs, pointing out that this fact made him incompetent to manage state affairs. Suppose Mr. Sterling did suffer financial losses during the past two years. Would this prove him incompetent in view of the fact that he continued to give state affairs the time and effort which he promised when elected? I have come to the conclusion that the people of Texas are deeply obliged to Mr. Sterling for the reason that he could have possibly saved his personal fortune by neglecting his duties of high office to which the voters of Texas elected him—but this he did not do. Instead of taking this step he has tried to live up to the promises made two years ago and set aside all desire of personal gain. It is true that our governor may have made mistakes in trying to serve his people, but if he did, they were honest mistakes and might have been made by any man in this office who must necessarily depend upon information and advice from others."

HASSEN CO.
Ranger, Texas

The calendar for next year, or year book, was partially planned. Miss Tanner is in charge of the committee. Elinor Ruth Ferguson, Carolyn Cox, and Joan Johnson.

The group will meet in handicraft work each Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Tom Harrell, co-guardian, beginning with next Tuesday morning.

On re-jourment, the girls went for a swim at Trianon lake Olden, accompanied by Mrs. W. P. Palm and Mrs. Theodore Ferguson.

Those present, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Joan Johnson, Carolyn Cox, Catherine Uttz, Edith Meek, Elva Lee Jones, Elinor Ruth Ferguson, Catherine Uttz, Edith Meek, Jeanne Kitley, Carolyn Cox, Joyce Johnson, and Nora Frances Mahon, a visitor.

Taking Summer Study Course.
Carl Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Tanner, will complete a summer term of study at University of Texas, at Austin, this week, and will then go to a camp at New Orleans for a three weeks outing.

Young Tanner will then return to Eastland and visit his parents, until time to re-enter the university this fall.

A Correction.
The recent visitors of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Caton were referred to as Dr. Caton's nephew, when the statement should have been Dr. Caton's uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Chambers of New Boston, Texas, who were en route from a visit in Canyon, to New Boston, and stopped here for the week-end. They also visited Mrs. Chambers' sister, Miss Moss, Richardson, of the faculty of the Canyon Normal school.

This correction is gladly made. The error was due to an imperfect telephone connection.

Children's Story Hour Attendance Continues Good.
The children's story hour Thursday morning held in the community clubhouse, closed the month long program, the story being held under the chairmanship of Mrs. E. E. Freyschlag, president of the club.

Miss Dolores Tanner was in charge of the entertainment features, and told a number of most delightful stories of Mexico, where her parents resided several years. The colorful atmosphere of that country, and the intriguing glimpses given the children of the customs in Mexico held them entranced.

Her second group of stories concerned the life and deeds of Henry Ford, America's industrial prince. With next week the children's story hours on Thursday, through August, will be in charge of the Music Club of Eastland, and directed by its president, Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite.

This series of children story telling hours will open brilliantly next Thursday with Mrs. A. F. Taylor and daughter, Miss Loraine Taylor, as chairmen in charge, who will give a beautiful Japanese operetta, with Japanese settings and costumes.

The music is lilting, and the scene will be a most attractive one, and equal to any children's operettas given on the regular stage, of theatres.

The hour for the operetta is 9 o'clock sharp, Thursday morning, Aug. 4.

An invitation is extended to any one, child or adult, who would like to attend.

Children present Thursday morning were Virginia Garrett, Sara May McLaughlin, Patsy Eubanks, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Elmer Ruth Ferguson, Mary Elizabeth Carlisle, Francis Lane, Alice Jones, Norma Jean Tucker, Betty Weigand, Marjorie Murphy, Patsy Weigand, Elizabeth Ann Sikes, Mildred McGlamery, Marilyn Turner, Dorothy McGlamery, Nanette Tanner, Eloise Sanderford, Alice Fay Kitley, Elaine Crossley, Norma Jean Ashley, Lucy May Cottingham, Mary Jane Harrell, Wilda Jean Crossley, Ann Witter, Dan Hightower, Edward Dunnam, Joe Tucker, Sammie Day, Mrs. E. E. Freyschlag, and visitors, Mrs. Eubanks, Mrs. Marion Dickens, and Miss Dolores Tanner.

Bluebonnet Club Entertained By Mrs. Gamble.
The Bluebonnet club enjoyed a delightful meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam Gamble, who entertained with three tables for bridge.

Appointments in tallies and score pads were most attractive and harmonized with the floral decorations of sinxias and roses.

At close of a delightful game, high score favor, a handsome tapestry was awarded Mrs. Guy Patterson. Other game scores were awarded Mrs. Jimmie King, Mrs. J. O. Earnest, and Mrs. James Watson, each presented a dainty cut-out-work towel.

Refreshments of banana and nut salad on lettuce, potato flakes, man Thursday afternoon when members of the Adolphian class of the First Christian church Sunday school entertained during the hour with a pretty miscellaneous show.

Order of Services for Church of God Camp Meeting.

Usual games and contests afforded pleasant entertainment until the serving of delicious refreshments to the following: Mmes. J. A. Wilson, A. Bruce, E. O. Samms, Melvin Singleton, W. L. Healer, J. A. Stacks, C. L. Childs, H. C. Anderson, E. T. Matthews, H. C. Von Roeder, C. G. King, L. R. Herring, Otho Jordan, Charles Herring, and Misses Willie and Mildred Matthews, and Zada Frances Stacks.

Class is Honored With Presence of Teacher. Perhaps the largest attended and most delightful meeting to have been held by the Young Matrons Sunday school class of the First Methodist church during the summer was thoroughly enjoyed at the attractive home of Mrs. C. A. Smith, Wilson and Summit streets, Thursday.

The usual joint luncheon with the entire menu furnished by the members opened the hour at 12:15 o'clock. Fried chicken, peas, green beans, cornbread sticks, potatoes, carrots, salads, and hot biscuits, and iced tea composed the delicious plate served at quartette tables neatly appointed and arranged about the spacious rooms.

Honor guest for the luncheon was the class teacher, Judge L. H. Flewelen, whom the members were more than pleased to have present. General class matters were discussed during the business period and reports of interest heard.

Ladies present were Mmes. J. T. Killingsworth, S. P. Boon, I. H. Flewelen, J. A. Bromson, A. W. Turner, E. H. Bishop, H. D. Bishop, J. L. Turner, E. K. Smith, E. E. Hadley, A. N. Parson, Van W. Wetter, C. D. Davis, G. O. Strong, E. H. Mills, C. A. Smith, T. A. Tume, and Miss Mary Kohler.

Little Miss Latham Entertains With Swimming Party. Emphasizing the popularity of outdoor entertainments, in keeping with the unusually warm summer days, yesterday was drawn to a happy climax when little Miss Modena Latham of Bowie was complimented with a swimming party at the Willow pool at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Ernest Latham hostess.

After the swim the party members and houses were driven to the home of the hostess, Travis street, where the dining table awaited, appointed in colors of many hues. Balloons in all gay colors later used for play, was a feature of the decorations.

Each young guest's place was designated with dainty place cards supported by miniature dolls dressed in brightly colored bathing suits. A course of iced watermelon was served. Little Miss Gwendolyn Tunnell was holder of the lucky number, drawing the ship, and the homeroom was presented with a leather friendship diary.

Pioneer Eastland County Citizen Buried Friday. T. J. Hilton, 79, Eastland county pioneer and one of this section's best and most beloved citizens, was buried in Elm cemetery Friday, July 27, following his death at Dallas Thursday before. He had been ill for some weeks and had been taken to a Dallas sanitarium for treatment.

Mr. Hilton was a native of Mississippi, but had resided in Eastland county for more than 40 years. Considered one of the well-to-do farmers of the county, Mr. Hilton was one of the influential citizens of this section and always took an active part in county affairs.

RANGER PERSONALS Mrs. B. A. Tunnell spent yesterday in Cisco with her mother, Mrs. G. W. Daniels, who is very critically ill at her home. George Wesson of San Angelo was a business visitor here yesterday.

OUT OUR WAY

PARIS STYLES

By MARY KNIGHT, United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS.—All this talk about "back to the farm" and getting close to "nature" again, has had its effect on the French dressmaking business, and not without some pretty swell results.

Overall, bungalow and kitchen aprons are having the time of their lives cavorting around in silks and satins and fine fabrics, while the bootblack and cobbler's uniforms are being reproduced with meticulous skill in peau d'ange, lace and linen.

Ruling Is Made On School Trustee Contest Hearing

votes in the Common School Districts in the Precinct and thus he ought to be declared elected. The defense set up by attorney for Usery was that the law gave the independent districts the right to vote for County Trustees, that no illegal acts were done by the managers at the independent election, as that they had a right to vote as well as the common school districts; and that, if the judges of the election at Carbon, Desdemona and Gorman, did not endorse the ballots in the common school districts, which would render the votes for Hagar illegal and void. The vote at Grandview and Salem voting places were not shown to be void or illegal and they gave Mr. Usery a majority vote. The vote in the independent districts were shown to be legal.
