Old Days of West Are Re-Enacted

The city of Tombstone, Ariz.—out where the west was once wild, wicked and woolly—turned back the clock 32 years when it celebrated its founding with a rousing "Hellorado" in which citizens donned the garb of the 1880's and showed what life in the raw was like. Here's the interior of the old Crystal Palace saloon as it appeared in the days when six-shooters were used by others besides movie actors, and liquor was fit for a man to drink.

Democrats of El Paso Assail Sterling's Stand

EL PASO, Oct. 10.—El Paso democrats today assailed Governor R. S. Sterling for his announced intention that he will not support Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson. Sterling's strongest supporters in the primary election announced they would vote a straight democratic ticket, Ma Ferguson included. A. H. Culwell, president of the El Paso Roosevelt club, said Sterling is "only showing what he really is, and always has been."

S. INSULL IS ARRESTED IN ATHENS TODAY

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 10.—Samuel Insull, arrested here today for probable deportation to the United States, told Greek police he had lost personally $100,000, 000 in the collapse of the Insull utilities interests in connection with his flight to Greece. Insull said his losses were exclusive of those sustained by his wife. He claimed that his personal expenditures now were only $18,000 a year, the amount of pension voted him by his companies. Insull's flight to Greece to escape extradition on the grounds that there the extradition treaty between Greece and the United States is not in full effect, was understood to have been frustrated by his arrest. He will probably be deported to a country from which he can be returned to the United States for trial.

POSSEE SEEKS SLAYER OF A YOUNG BABY

OKEMAH, Okla., Oct. 10.—A young father accused of killing his infant daughter by swinging her by the heels and dashing her head on the ground, was sought by possemen today. The six-month-old child died today from the injuries which included a fractured skull. H. A. Hall, 22-year-old farmer, seized the child from its mother's arms, a witness said. "If you won't live with me, you'll never see this baby alive again," he was quoted as saying. Then he dashed the child against the ground, throwing the body away from him.

"Stowaway" on Hoover's Train

It was a lucky break for Anthony Demaggio, 19, when he unwittingly picked out President Hoover's closely guarded special train on which to steal a ride. For, after secret service men had hauled him from his hiding place between two coaches, passengers on the special train were alerted to his presence. Demaggio, who was breakfasted in style, the youth explained he was leaving his way to his Corona, L. I. home.

WEST CENTRAL NOT NAMED IN NEW ORDERS

AUSTIN, Oct. 10.—New oil production limits were set for Texas oil fields by the state railroad commission here today, reducing the total allowable to 804,795 barrels a day. On Oct. 1 Texas production was 922,160 barrels, the reduction being 117,365 barrels. West Texas was cut to 335,000 barrels for the field allowable and a 40-barrel well limit. The new total production is made up of an allowable of 747,598 barrels a day plus a total for marginal wells raising it to the grand total of 804,795. New orders include reduction of the Panhandle field from 55,000 barrels to 45,000; in North Texas from 57,000 to 46,000; in West Central Texas from 30,000 to 21,500; in the Yates field from 65,000 to 55,000.

FIGHT AMONG CONVICTS IS BEING PROBED

HOUSTON, Oct. 10.—A prison farm barracks fight in which E. E. Ewing, 33, convicted burglar, was stabbed and beaten to death, was investigated today by Col. Leo Simmons, general manager of the Texas prison system. Ewing, a trusty in charge of the barracks at Harlem state penal farm, met death yesterday in a brief brawl. Four convicts were seen to surround Ewing, Simmons said, and as they dispersed, the trusty's body lay on the floor, seven stab wounds near his heart, and his head crushed by a blunt instrument. Simmons said a bloody hammer and stool were found hidden in the barracks building. He believed they were used in the slaying.

Eastland C. of C. Holds Annual Meeting Friday

The annual meeting of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce was held Oct. 7, in the quarters of the Chamber of Commerce. A noon luncheon was held in connection with the meeting. Directors present were Milburn McIntyre, George M. Harter, J. E. Lewis, G. S. Stine, F. M. Kenney, C. J. Rhodes, K. E. Tanner, O. E. Harvey, Earl Woody, Frank Castleberry, Hamilton McRae, representing Director John D. McKee, and secretary, H. R. Tanner. The secretary gave a brief resume of important events during the year, which closed Sept. 13. Theodore Ferguson, certified public accountant, who audited the books of the secretary, sent report which was read by Dr. Tanner and adopted by the directors. It was voted that the five directors whose terms expired with the end of the fiscal year be certified to the city commission for re-appointment and to comply with the law, five other names be added. Directors whose terms expire are C. J. Rhodes, K. E. Tanner, O. E. Harvey, Frank Castleberry, and Early Woody. A report was called for in reference to the aid the Chamber of Commerce is trying to secure for the unemployed from the federal government. The secretary reported this work was being attended to and that a meeting would be held Monday of all the welfare workers of the county to complete the data for the papers. The election of officers for ensuing year followed. Unanimously elected: C. J. Rhodes, president; Earl Woody, vice president; O. E. Harvey, second vice president; Dr. H. B. Tanner, secretary.

W. A. Hotman, Jr., of Fort Worth reported for work today as a member of the Times staff. He will be employed as bookkeeper and layout man, relieving W. B. Crossley, who will continue with the Times as an advertising solicitor. Mr. Hotman is a trained bookkeeper and advertising layout work. He will prove of valuable assistance to the merchants of Ranger in laying out their advertising in a way that will give it appeal and pulling power.

Air Caused City Water in Ranger to Turn White

Several inquiries have been made as to the cause of the white, milk-like color of the Ranger water for several days. Roy Jamison, city secretary of Ranger, stated today that the color was caused by air that got into the mains of the city during a session of repairs. A break in one of the mains was discovered and, when repaired, much air got into the pipes. When the water was turned back on two other breaks occurred. "There is no harm in the white-colored water, the city secretary assures the water customers, and the air will go to the top and escape if the water is allowed to stand for a few minutes."

Reaction of Voters Waited By Leaders

AUSTIN, Oct. 10.—Reaction to Governor R. S. Sterling's announcement he would bolt the democratic ticket and refuse to vote for Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson was awaited today by party leaders in Texas. Whether Sterling's position will cause his followers to swing from Mrs. Ferguson to Orville Bullington, republican candidate, or to candidates of other parties, was a question that climaxed the long court fight for the democratic nomination which ended Saturday in a decision favoring Mrs. Ferguson. Sterling based his decision for bolting on the ground that former Governor James C. Ferguson virtually would be governor if Mrs. Ferguson is elected. "Knowing Jim Ferguson's record and having declared it to the people of Texas and having concern for my state, I would consider it an act of positive dishonor to cast my vote for the government of Texas in his hands," Sterling said. "I shall not be intimidated by the cry of 'bolter' or reference to party pledges. Fraud in the procuring of the nomination reflects on all other democrats of any obligation to support for the one declared to be the nominee of the primary."

One Man Killed As Scaffolding At Gin Breaks

MOUNT VERNON, Oct. 10.—One man was killed by flying timber and five others injured, one seriously, when a scaffold collapsed here today. The scaffold, which was working on the ground, was killed. All others working on the framework were injured when they fell to the ground. The gin was being reconstructed after a fire of two weeks ago, which destroyed the original plant.

Ranger Home Is Destroyed by Fire

The home of Harvey Wells, Main street, Ranger, was completely destroyed by fire this morning at 4:30. The fire had gained such headway before an alarm was turned in that it was impossible for the fire department to save the building or the contents, though good work was done by the department in keeping the flames from spreading to nearby houses. Mr. Wells was reported to be in Mexico at the time of the fire. Reports from Chief G. A. Murphy of the Ranger fire department said that the house was covered by $1,500 insurance and the total value insured for $800.

The county council of line of the 16 home demonstration clubs met in the 8th district court room at Eastland Saturday. Regular business routine opened the session. All interested are invited to make this fourth the club members and see what has been done on the farm, and with the farm yards. Following the business session, Mrs. C. V. Shuman, field representative of National Red Cross, assumed chair and discussed with the women the material made of the cotton, given by the government, and how it is to be used. J. E. Spencer of Cisco, county chairman of the Red Cross, gave a short interesting report of work done in Eastland county, the number of families, and approximate number of people reached.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

FURNISH NO FUEL: Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.—Proverbs 25: 20.

THE ONLY GOD: Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord.—Deuteronomy 6: 4.

ALABAMA LAWMAKERS VOTE FOR NEAR BEER

Now just what is near beer? Governor Miller of Alabama vetoed a legislative bill to legalize the sale of near beer in his commonwealth. His veto message was sent to the house where it was read: Then what happened? The members voted, 64 to 30, to override the veto and sent the measure to the senate. If that body takes similar action the bill will become a law without the governor's signature. Governor made an argument in his message. He said it was his belief that the sale of near beer "will have a strong tendency to encourage violation of the prohibition statutes and render their enforcement practically impossible as to beer." His lawmakers have an other viewpoint: The state needs the money. They would equalize and then place a heavy tax on the near stuff in order to lighten the load of the taxpayers, and all the while the old word is jogging along and drinking along as it has jogged for a million years.

ALLRED INSISTS THAT MONEY TALKS

State Mgr. Roy Miller needed legal advice as to the election laws of the commonwealth. He appealed to Attorney James V. Allred. He was given the advice. It was not C. O. D. advice. Texas democrats are expected to raise a fund of $100,000 for national campaign purposes. Attorney General Allred sent his check for $100 to the Texas campaign committee. This to help the cause along. According to the totals of the July primary, Texas democrats number 937,000. It should be easy for them to contribute $100,000 to the Roosevelt and Garner campaign fund. They are reminded that Allred set the pace. He did it without stammering.

COLONEL DONOVAN 'A WRINGING WET'

Col. William J. Donovan, republican nominee for governor of New York, is for the immediate repeal of the 18th amendment. He describes it as having been a monumental failure from the start. President Hoover is a wet and a repealer in the northeastern states. His running mate, Vice President Curtis, is a bone dry in all the states and a most ultra-anti-repealer. Speaking of prohibition, the president did not devote many words or lines of his speech to the "noble experiment" in his invasion of Iowa to stifle the hostility of the farmers who are on the warpath and have named Smith Wildman Brookhart as their guide and apostle and nominee for United States senator.

VAN SWERINGENS MAY INVADE TEXAS

Now the Van Sweringen brothers of Cleveland, Ohio, big voices of the Van Sweringen controlled railroads, have applied to the interstate commerce commission for permission to serve as directors of the Fort Worth Belt railway. Late in September the Texas & Pacific Railway company was authorized by the interstate commerce commission to purchase the Belt railway. It is said that this deal is now in course of consummation. Are the Van Sweringens planning an invasion of Texas? In recent years the two Buckeyes have been fast travelers in the American rail world.

MAIL ORDER BUSINESS ON THE HIKE

Now the third largest mail order business concern in the world, speaking from its head office in the city of Chicago, reported "steadily increasing orders." There have been three years of non-buying. Perhaps a buyers' drive is on. There are billions of dollars in the banks of America, in the vaults of America, in the hiding places of America. It has been dead money for a long time. There are signs that the holders are getting to do business across the bargain counters of the nation.

ENCOURAGING SIGNS OF THE TIMES

In West Virginia the Chesapeake and Ohio railway shops have given employment to 1200 mechanics and laborers idle during the summer months. Now the shops are working full time. Railroads touching the Southwest are reporting a heavy increase in car loading for September over August. Slowly but surely the American world is coming back. Winter is here, and the soft coal miners in many states are very busy. They were not busy during the mid-summer months. They were idle, and many were hungry.

HEAVY SALE OF TEXAS WOOL AND MOHAIR

A Kerrville correspondent reports the sale of a million pounds of mohair by the Schreiner Commission company to a Boston firm at 8 cents per pound for the grown hair and 25 cents for kid hair. This was an advance in price of 3 cents a pound over the spring clip, which brought 6 and 23 cents respectively. Another "cheerful little earful" for Texans.

There is no doubt but that the sentiment expressed by a number of front pages will make enormous appeal to those few people who prefer dabbling in theory about disabled war veterans instead of the cold fact that this country has always and will always honor and protect its disabled war veterans and that the people will not take from them benefits already granted them.

Political freedom from those things that let loose political wolves on the sheep is most objectionable to the sheep—and most of us are the sheep.

If a small portion of the time that has been spent by many of our leaders in trying to economize our country into prosperity had been used in developing markets for our products and getting money into general circulation, better times would have returned long ago.

Miss Yonker and Simmons Entertain With Leap Year Party. One of the outstanding affairs given by the younger set this season was the prettily appointed "leap year" party given at the home of Miss Mary Alice Yonker. The guests were received by the co-hostesses, Misses Letty Lou Simmons and Mary Alice Yonker. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening and refreshments were served to Elizabeth Earnest, Helen Goforth, Lorene Harrell, Dorothy O'Donnell, Elizabeth Turner, Marie Galloway, Roy Cole, Bayne Harrell, Frank Conley, Gid Faircloth, Roy Bruce, Jim Blair, Wayne Mitchell, Merle Stewart and co-hostesses.

The range of the animal is limited to a narrow strip of land along the Pacific coast region of Alaska.

A policy of minding one's own business is not to be disregarded in times like the present and, if given a trial, is likely to be far more effective than that of incitement to enmity. An ounce of realism is worth a pound of theory, yet the former seems singularly conspicuous by its absence in all the speeches we have heard lately.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer. WASHINGTON.—Governor Roosevelt's pilgrimage to the home of Senator George W. Norris in Nebraska brought together the bravest, wisest and the only candidate of progressive tendencies who has been conceded a chance at the presidency since Woodrow Wilson strode across the political horizon.

Each could have told the other quite a lot, although probably neither did. Norris might have told Roosevelt what sort of an experience it is to be absolutely fearless in politics, to stand through a lifetime for principles and convictions in the face of every conceivable obstacle and pressure, to refuse consistently to play politics for votes or personal gain.

And Roosevelt, making an open bid in the west for support of all the progressives to whom Norris is a hero, might have explained to Norris the impossibility of being elected president without compromising, trimming, evasion and learning the art of never displeasing anybody.

NORRIS stands out in marked contrast with anyone you can think of in public life. Other Republican progressives merely sulk in their tents, idle and ineffective, but Norris is an incorrigible warrior.

Nearly 25 years ago he was a congressman leading the fight that broke up the czaristic rule of Uncle Joe Cannon in the House of Representatives. In that fight in the Payne-Aldrich tariff struggle and by his strategy which made the Ballinger investigation possible. From cut loose from the party's patronage and other favors, regular politicians consider a very large port.

Probably nothing he ever required more courage than stition to American entry. Time everyone knew that he always is honest enough to political life in order to his convictions. He thought would be a better man for try than Hoover. Smith Gent and Norris a dry, but will hold social-economic issues important.

In every city there are people who are content with the way things are going, people who want to do the way our grandfathers did. Others who are content to live into themselves, disregarding their neighbors and the home city.

Cities should face the cold facts as to what and their strength to build up develop. Underestimating the strength of the PULLBACK causes disaster to those worthy projects that the development of the home city.

There is nothing to gain for a city to build those obstacles. They will even organize themselves the best interests of the home city.

It does not mean that the PULLBACKS hold pregnable position, but it does mean that they are ace to development that must receive much consideration. City builders must never let up for a minute city building efforts.

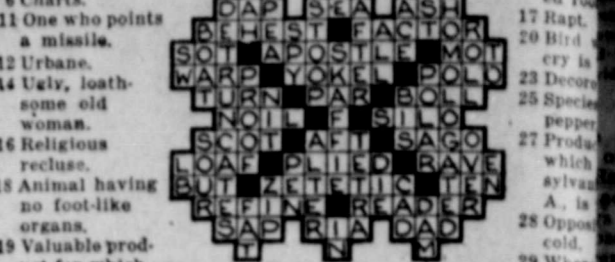

Nowadays the business men of the cities are the business men of the farm—not to teach them farm, but take council with them concerning the mon problems.

It is said that man comes into this world with wishes and leaves it against his will.

Courtesy among motorists should be observed. Courtesy often leads to recklessness, which in turn to accidents.

WINS FIGHT WITH DEATH BY SPENDING 16 MONTHS IN 103-DEGREE HEAT

JACK DOTY

By NEA Service
MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Jack Doty, the oven man, is back on his feet after 16 months, or exactly 489 days, of torture and pain.

He spent 16 months in this oven. In the meantime, flesh taken from other parts of Doty's body was grafted on his back. In time it grew there, and the back began to heal. Finally, a few days ago, Doty was able to leave his oven.

Central Baptist Church of Ranger Has Good Day

New emphasis is being placed upon B. T. S. in Central Baptist under the new director, Frank Hicklin. Two unions have been re-organized and Central now has a full graded union. Each union has a faithful capable sponsor and Central Baptist is responding to the leadership. Last evening there were 98 in attendance with splendid programs in each department.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

As long as tomatoes are plentiful they can be relied upon to answer the salad question in one way or another but as they become scarce we must look to other fruits and vegetables. There is a wealth of material to be culled for autumn salads, although some of it may never have seemed actual salad timber. However, when given the correct treatment it responds most satisfactorily.

Cleburne Has a Green Team for May. Game Friday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF, Sports Editor, Cleburne Times-Review.

CLEBURNE, Texas, Oct. 19.—Unless the Cleburne High Yellow Jackets show a decided reversal of form they will not defeat the Eastland Mavericks Friday.

That's what Coach Howard Parker and local fans are telling the black and gold gridders as they go through practice sessions this week in preparation for the invasion of the Oil Belt for the first time in seven years.

In the opening game of the season the Jackets showed plenty of drive and ability, running over Itasca 32-8. Last week, however, Graham High sent a fighting club here that made the local outfit forget how to tackle, block or run. Cleburne managed to win 6-0 as the result of a gift touchdown from Graham but the result should have been a scoreless tie.

Cleburne played in miserable fashion as if in a slump but that couldn't be true because they haven't played enough yet to get into a slump.

Anyway the Jackets will go to Eastland Friday and try to erase the memory of the terrible exhibition with Graham. Coach Parker will take about 25 players, making the trip by automobile.

Cleburne has a heavy team but it's as green as the grass that grows on the windswept Oil Belt country.

Four lettermen returned for the team this season and only one of them has shown enough football to cause the fans to think he may have had previous experience.

Earl White is the center. He is a good one and he's the lone letterman showing anything like ability. He weighs 155.

For guards, Dave Steele, 145 pounds; Dwight Epperson, 156; Ray Griffin, 175, and Aaron Cohen, 154, will furnish the starters. Your guess is as good as mine as to which two will get the call. Steele and Griffin are most likely.

Pat Rayburn, 185, and Jim Young, 182, are the tackles. Both missed making letters by an eighth of an inch last season.

Jack Ellis, letterman, 171, and L. E. Davis, 186, are the ends. Wally Lawson, 155, is the quarterback.

Doyle Miller, 151, and Hugh Stephens, 176, are the halfbacks. Sandy Hagler, letterman shifted from center, is the fullback. He weighs 193.

Jim Langdon, 196, end; Jack Johnson, 153, halfback; Hal Russell, halfback, 166, and Putter Holliday, letterman, 154, quarterback, may start the game.

That's all; there ain't no more to be said.

Mavericks Showed Up Well in the Daniel Baker Tilt

The Mavericks, in their first appearance before the home fans, defeated the Daniel Baker Freshmen 33 to 0. This is not an overwhelming score by any means but is a bit unusual for the Mavericks, who, as a rule, are content with playing a fair offensive game and a hangup defensive game.

for the game. Eastland scored in every period except the second when they were driving against the wind. Brown, with three touches, was the big noise for the Mavs. Burgamy and Mackall each had a touchdown.

The Mavericks gained nearly three times as much ground from scrimmage as the Baker boys but their eight first downs were two short of the mark set by the Fish.

Something like twenty-five men saw service in the game. This is probably the most men ever used in a single game by Eastland, who heretofore have been handicapped by a lack of reserves.

Brown, with 18 points, is leading the Eastland scoring. He is an end.

Bulldogs to Play Warner Tuesday

Eck Curtis, coach of the Ranger Bulldogs, announced today that arrangements had been made for a scrimmage game between the Warner Memorial College tags of Eastland and the Ranger High School Bulldogs.

The scrimmage will be held at Lillard field Tuesday afternoon. No admission charge is to be made and the fans of this section are invited to see the Bulldogs in action for the first time on the home grounds.

The Bulldogs will play Weatherford High School on Friday afternoon in the first game of the season on the home grounds and will play the first conference game of the season on Saturday, Oct. 22, at Lillard Field with the Abilene Eagles.

Alaskan sealskins are selling for the lowest price in the history of U. S. government auctions. That's an excellent argument for friend wife this winter.

Sir Eric Drummond has resigned as secretary of the League of Nations. The resignation will take effect in 1933, at a date not yet specified. And that's what they call "resigning."

The League of Nations is working on a plan which will satisfy the demands of Germany for arms equality and France for security. It should be finished in time for the next war.

Whistle, Whistle!

THE football season this year is ushered in with the shrill sound of a million whistles. There is a whistle for almost every kind of play you can call to mind. It is necessary not only for the players but for the fans to study up the reasons for whistling.

Otherwise the players are going to waste a lot of energy up and down the field and the fans are going to spend a great many Saturday afternoons asking one another what it's all about. Also, there is just a chance that, in the late fall, football games will last far into the night.

Take it on Chin

IT was this writer's observation at one of the early football games this fall that the people in the stands were not aware of what was going on, or why, after whistles had ended a great many of the plays.

It may be necessary to organize football debating societies and hold meetings after each game to thresh the whole thing out.

There He Goes!

LET'S say your favorite full-back, Crashin' Chris Crumb, has just seized the punkin, stiff-armed a few bodies out of his path and steamed down the field from the five-yard line to the enemy's goal. A mad cheer rocks the stadium. "Good old Crashin' Chris!"

But, during the cheer, the assembled clinic forgot to listen for that old root-a-toot-toot. The officials group their heads together down on the gridiron. The referee runs down the field, picks up the egg and carries it back to the spot where Crashin' Chris got his start.

The Book Has It

YOU had better have a rule book with you then, my friends. And, after a brief half-hour's study of the regulations, there is just a chance that you will find a paragraph which says something about the ball being dead when any part of the carrier's body touches the ground (except his feet, of course, Gus).

It seems that Crashin' Chris slipped to one knee on the wet field (it was raining that day) and that rendered his magnificent run null and void.

Another Foul!

IT further develops that during the course of Chris' career down the grid, another player took off in a headlong tackle that almost felled old Chris. That was a foul, too, because a player is not supposed to tackle a man carrying the nugget after the thing has been declared dead.

On a given play the whistle may sound for any one of what seem to be a million infractions of rules. There are illegal forms of blocking, clipping, crawling, kicking, hurdling, passing, shifting, tackling, substituting, lining up, moving before the ball is passed, huddling, roughing the kicker, kneeling, slugging, piling up and general unsportsmanship.

When the whistle sounds, the referee makes certain signs with his hands. Few people know the message he is trying to convey.

All you have to do is get a rule book and figure it out.

Let Us Proudly Display the Fruits of Our Forefathers' Building

"My ambition has been to succeed in redeeming Texas from its wilderness state by means of the plow alone, in spreading over it North American population, enterprise and intelligence."—(Letter from Stephen F. Austin to William H. Wharton, April 24, 1827.)

"The Province of Texas will be the richest State in our Union without exception." This prophecy was made by the author of the American Declaration of Independence (Thomas Jefferson) before Americans had begun to colonize Texas. It was found in a letter dated May 14th, 1820, which Jefferson had written to President Monroe.

The year Jefferson wrote that letter to Monroe, Stephen F. Austin began the colonization of Texas. "My object is to build up for the present as well as for future generations," wrote Austin. "I think I derived more satisfaction from the view of flourishing farms springing up in this wilderness than military or political chieftains do from the retrospect of their victorious campaigns."

Texas was founded by builders. Under Austin's leadership they laid the foundations in the wilderness, and under the leadership of Sam Houston they won their independence, in order that they might build in freedom.

One hundred years of freedom will be completed in 1936. A century of building has made the Texas of today. But Jefferson's prediction has not yet been fulfilled. We have inherited this great undertaking from our forefathers. Let us rededicate ourselves to the task of carrying it forward by observing the Centennial of Texas independence in a manner worthy of our traditions.

Madam! Do you know that it is clever to be a clipper? Here's a habit you can readily cultivate, and you'll find many of your best friends following it.

To become a clipper at one clip, so to speak, just see that the shears are handy when you sit down to read your newspaper. As you spot an advertisement of something that interests you . . . especially some item that you want to examine when you're shopping next time . . . clip out the notice and take it with you.

The merchants who advertise with us are glad to have you ask for specific merchandise. And sometimes it's helpful to refer to the advertisement when you're right in the store.

At all events, a clipping pinned to your shopping list helps you to remember this particular errand. It simplifies and shortens a shopping-trip so much to know what you want and where to get it!

IMPORTANT

When you ask for a product by name, as a result of advertising, do not accept a substitute—substitutes are offered not as a service to you, but for other reasons.

CALL of the WEST

By R. G. MONTGOMERY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

started down the hill. A crowd had gathered outside the main building and Dudley had to shoulder a path through the milling men in order to get inside...

"I'll have him strung up within 36 hours, or I'll quit this job," Swergin thundered.

"Bah! You let him come right into this building and steal my blind!" Asper thundered.

"Father! Lie down and be calm," Dona pleaded.

Asper shed her aside. "That robber, Ball, comes into our office, right under our noses and takes what he wants. I won't be made a fool of any longer. I'll get out and run him down!"

"You're going to stay right where you are. Now calm down and tell me what happened!" Dona shoved him back on his pillow.

"Ball came in here and stole all our timber records. Took 'em right out from under Swergin's nose!" Asper groaned as his wound stabbed him.

"But I thought," Dona stopped short. She had only Stanley Black's word for it that Ball would leave the country.

"You thought what?" Asper growled.

"I thought the men had run him out of the country," Dona finished weakly.

"He is very much in the country. He comes in and steals our records before I have even gone over them. This is the last straw. Of course he'll leave the country now. He'll deliver those records to that thiefing crowd over at Blind River and then he'll pull out."

Asper was panting and his face was crimson.

"Lie down father and take it easy. What do we care for a few records? This camp won't break us even if we should lose it," Dona spoke soothingly.

"I'll run him down and see that he's hanged! I'll never let him beat me if I have to spend my last cent." The old timber king was beside himself.

"You promised not to fly off again," Dona chided him.

"I know," Asper rumbled. "But this is too much to stand."

"You must rest until morning. The boys will round him up. Swergin is so stirred up he will comb the mountain," Dona patted her father's hand.

"On top of that he shoots up my office clerk," Asper growled.

He was beginning to give in but did not want to admit it.

"Did he hurt him much?" Dona could not help asking the question.

"Just shot his gun out of his hand and scared him half to death. Carter says he recognized Ball all right and could identify him. I'll make a convict out of that coyote if he lives to go behind bars!"

Asper drew a deep breath and lay back.

"You won't accomplish anything but a month in a hospital if you let yourself go this way," Dona insisted.

Dudley came in at that moment and Asper looked at him eagerly.

"Did they get the rat?" he asked.

Dudley shook his head. "He got away clean."

"That fellow is slippery as an eel," Asper growled.

They're all working on the wrong theory. Dudley sat down and pulled his chair close to the bed. "I have a plan that would get him, I believe."

"I'll have Swergin give you some men and you can fly at it," Asper growled. "You can't do any worse than that dumb timber boss."

"I don't need any men. All I need is a couple more days," Dudley explained. He looked at Dona and smiled. She reached out and took his hand.

"You're awfully sweet, Dud," she whispered.

Asper growled. "Sorry to have made a row." He faced them and his old smile struggled through.

"But I never did have anyone trim me like this man, Ball, has been doing."

Dona realized that her father was well on the way to recovery. This last shock had not weakened him as the first had. She was eager to get him out of Three Rivers, however. Once away, he would be able to forget that he had not made good his threats against Ball.

"You'll be able to move tomorrow," she said gently.

Asper shook his head. "I hate to hold you kids up but I'll have to stay now and see this through. Dudley, here, will want to try out his ideas a little longer."

Dona turned to Dudley but he did not come to her rescue so she did not push the idea of leaving next day. One thing made her glad they were staying. Stanley Black had failed her in several ways. Now she hoped to meet him again and to correct an impression she feared she had left with him. She did not realize how soon she would meet him or under what trying circumstances.

LESSON SERMON GIVEN
The subject of the lesson-sermon was "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, Oct. 9.

Psalm 42:11 furnished the golden text: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

As a part of the service the following verse (Matthew 9:2) was read: "And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed; and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee."

Citations from the textbook of Christian Science, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following from pages 497 and 511:

"We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. All sin is of the flesh. It cannot be spiritual."

Doctors Give Creosote For Coughs
For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, cold and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosolium with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops all coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolium is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs no matter how long standing, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolium by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolium as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolium on hand for instant use.

Treasure Hunt.
Talahi Group.
 Saturday morning the Talahi group enjoyed their first treasure hunt of this year.
 The leader, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, had designated the trail by means of bits of paper pinned to trees, and the happy group of young people found the signs that blazed the trail after arduous labors, and a trip which led east and west and finally wound up in the city park, where the treasure, a box of candy, was discovered in a tree-rotch, and awarded the discoverer.

The girls were out about one hour on their trail and brought a hearty appetite for their noon luncheon of pork chops, bacon, potatoes, potato flakes, which they cooked over a camp fire, and bananas, oranges and cookies carried out from their homes.
 Mothers were given Elizabeth Ann Harrell, and Kathleen Cunningham for the success of two big jars full of biscuits, made on the spot, and baked on a reflector oven, in true camp fire style.
 To the uninitiated it is known, this is a tin reflector, placed on rocks, over a fire, and biscuits baked on the hot surface.
 The jolly morning was enjoyed by Audrey Faye Taylor, Joyce Newman, Lurline Brawner, Edith Meek, Catherine Utz, Helen Butler, May Gates, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Kathleen Cunningham, Margaret Fry, and a guest, Hazel Randolph. The outing was chaperoned by Mrs. Tom Harrell, guardian.

Miss Samms Makes Attractive Model in Style Revue For Montgomery Ward & Co.
 Miss Doris Samms, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Samms, who modeled for Montgomery Ward & Co., and whose name was accidentally omitted from the models listed in Sunday's paper, wore a black cape dress with a black fur-trimmed coat.
 To complete the ensemble Miss Samms wore a black hat of snappy design, effecting a striking appearance for afternoon and street.
 The society editor is more than glad to make this correction and extends sincere regrets to Montgomery Ward & Co., the manager, Mr. Barham, and the well-chosen model, Miss Samms.

Ranger Fall Trade Carnival Scores Huge Success
 As one viewed the Main street of Ranger Saturday evening, a reproduction of Coney Island came with a flash, judging from the immense crowd of people enjoying the fun and many side attractions.

Various booths and concessions were of outstanding entertainment, as was the ever popular American Legion Tickville band, directed by Dr. Harry A. Logsdon. The ducking stool was of special interest since the victims were members of the Lions and Rotary clubs. The standard of true hospitality again reigned with many expressing their enjoyment and commenting on the success of the Ranger Trade Carnival which varied somewhat from any feature of entertainment to have been given by the Ranger merchants in several seasons. The American Legion hall was crowded each evening with those who can't resist the smoothness of the floor and good music. Last season members of the Legion remodeled the hall and lounge rooms making it one of the most cozy and attractive to be found among Legion clubs.

Suggestions from modern stylists were in evidence at the revue Friday evening furnished through the courtesy of cooperative Ranger firms.

 As a whole this event will long linger as one of the liveliest and most thoroughly enjoyable attractions Ranger has offered in quite a long time.

He-men like 'em Mild

You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

He wants his cigarettes mild and that's why he picks Chesterfields.

Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse. Two-fisted fellows as well as anyone else—men and women—want a cigarette that's mild... one that satisfies—and that's Chesterfield.

We believe that every smoker is looking for a cigarette without any "bite" or bitterness, and a cigarette that has a pleasing taste—and that's Chesterfield.
