BULLDOGS --- MAVERICKS PLAY IN RANGER THIS AFTERNOON

HOLIDAY GAME MAY PROVIDE MANY THRILLS

Both Teams Will Fight To Remain In Race For Championship.

Eastland's Mavericks and Ranger's Bulldogs will clash this afternoon at Lillard field, Ranger, at 4 p. m., in which promises to be a close, if not the outstanding football class of the season.

Two determined, fighting teams will be thrown on the field by Coach Joe Gibson of Eastland and Coach Eck Curtis of Ranger, both hoping to retain chance to see their team go to a district championship in the Oil Belt district. Could either team falter this afternoon it means almost certain elimination from the championship race, because it would throw them into the cellar position. Brownwood and Abilene would be the only contenders in the unbeat position, should they win in Abilene today.

There are many ways the standard can be affected by the two teams today. In the first place if Eastland and Breckenridge win, they will remain on top. If Eastland wins, they will have a one game edge. If Breckenridge wins, they will be leading Eastland and Ranger in second place and Abilene on the steps, just a jump ahead of Brownwood. If Abilene and Ranger win, the Bulldogs will be the leading team, with Ranger leading Breckenridge and Abilene being a close second and each having a chance to overtake the Bulldogs.

Eastland presents a much tougher bid for the game today in many respects. The Mavericks will be fighting to stave off complete oblivion and to defeat their rival, the Bulldogs, both one time. The Mavericks are led for playing at their peak since the Bulldogs, so they will be up a fighting front that should be somewhat troublesome to the Bulldogs, regardless of which one wins.

In reserve power the Mavericks are able to have the edge, as they have a larger squad and their reserves are more experienced than the Ranger reserves.

FERGUSONS TO PLACE FOOD BEFORE BEER

AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and former Governor James E. Ferguson today were working through thousands of congratulatory messages that have come to the governor-elect and her husband.

Asked about plans for the new administration, they declared that relief of present economic conditions and relief from tax burdens are the first things to be taken up.

Asked what Mrs. Ferguson's attitude would be toward repeal of the Dean law if the new legislature voted to abandon it, former Governor James Ferguson answered for her that the important thing to consider now is what people will eat and wear and what they are to drink.

Lew Waid Goes To Harlingen, Texas

The many friends of W. S. (Lew) Waid, former manager of the Arcadia theatre in Ranger, will be glad to learn that he is being sent to Harlingen, where he will be manager of one of the theatres there.

A message received by B. E. Garner, present manager of the theatre, says:

"Blessed, easily Garner, Arcadia Theatre, Ranger, Texas.—Going to Harlingen. Take in the flowers each night and make a report. Love and kisses, Lew."

Flags Put Out On Streets Of Ranger

Fire Chief G. A. Murphy placed the flags on the street lamps in Ranger Thursday night to give the city a holiday air for Armistice day.

The merchants of the city were urged to place their sidewalk flags out early Friday morning, which would add much to the appearance of the street over the holiday.

EL PASO—Plans being considered to pave scenic drive.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO START MONDAY

Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, general chairman of the Ranger Red Cross roll call, has appointed workers to solicit the citizens of Ranger during the drive for membership which will start on Monday morning, Nov. 14.

The workers are to report at the office of the chamber of commerce on Monday morning at 8:30 and a small territory will be assigned to each team and it is expected that the drive can be completed in one day.

The national drive for membership starts on Armistice Day and continues through Thanksgiving Day. A total of four million members were received last year and it is expected that five million will be obtained during the present drive.

A regular membership is $1.00 with contributing memberships placed at $5, sustaining memberships at $10 and supporting memberships at $25. Fifty cents of each membership, regardless of the kind, goes to the national headquarters and the remainder is kept by the local chapter for use among the underprivileged and needy of the community.

The Red Cross organization in Ranger believes that its quota of 300 memberships should be regarded as an obligation this year because of the fact that $2,000 in cash, $8,000 in flour and 5,000 yards of cotton cloth have been sent to Ranger by the Red Cross headquarters and the 300 memberships would come from repaying the donations made in the past year.

Letters have been sent to all the pastors of Ranger churches asking them to have an announcement of the drive made in their church and a moving picture trailer, which has been shown in Cicero and Eastland has been received and will be shown at the Arcadia theatre through the courtesy of B. E. Garner, manager.

The ladies selected by Mrs. Kuykendall to assist in the work are: Mmes. C. G. King, Jack Blackwell, Harry K. Wallace, T. P. Hangan, Leslie Hagaman, Saule Perlestein, Morris Bendix, E. C. Byars, R. A. Disney, J. E. Fletcher, J. G. Kilgore, J. E. Meroney, O. G. Lanier, E. R. Green, E. L. McMillen, Clyde Davis, Bob Norman, Charles Conroy, Lloyd L. Bruce, Walter Groves, G. A. Warren, L. N. Griffin, G. E. (Bob) Robinson, Walter Murray, Bill Dorsey, A. H. Allison, H. S. Von Roeder, Henry Davenport, L. H. Flowell, Stanley McNelly and Herbert Stafford.

ORGANIZATION IN TEXAS IS BEING SOUGHT

Lame Duck Session May Not Pass Wet Bill At The Short Session.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—America's dispute over beer today apparently was resolved into a question of whether beer shall be legalized this winter or next year.

Fulfillment of the jubilant wet slogan, "beer by Christmas," is doubtful. Drys count on the phalanx of lam duck prohibitionists to block beer bills in the short session of congress next month.

House and senate democratic leaders, however, promise immediate action in conformity with the democratic platform pledge. Speaker Garner a month ago promised short session beer. Many other senators and congressmen of both parties accepted the overwhelming democratic victory as a mandate for Volstead modification.

HOUSTON, Nov. 10.—Chairman John Henry Kirby of the Texas Federation of Anti-Prohibition clubs, announced today a state-wide committee was in process of formation to devise laws for liquor control anticipating repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

Kirby said the committee would be recruited from legislators and leading citizens all over the state and would be active within a week. It will number about 40 persons, he said.

The committee will have as its purpose repeal or amendment of the Dean law and modification of the prohibition section of the Texas constitution.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 10. Bids on millions of dollars worth of beer equipment for making real beer were asked today by Milwaukee brewers.

SALES SWEEP EAST STATES KILLING TWO

Terrific gales pounded the Atlantic seaboard today, killing two persons, imperiling small vessels and causing property damage estimated at more than $1,000,000.

The storm was believed to be an aftermath of the hurricane which struck Cuba, killing 18, injuring at least 150 and devastated valuable sugar plantations for 200 miles.

New York police and soldiers in shifts rescued more than 140 men, women and children marooned in cottages along the beaches. Rescue parties rode through flooded streets, working rapidly to save the victims before they were carried out to sea.

More than 25 vacant houses were washed away at one beach. The pressroom of the New York World-Telegram was flooded.

Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Long Island were whipped by the gale, which extended as far north as Massachusetts, where high tides and a strong wind were reported.

WAR ANNIVERSARY FINDS VICTORS AND VANQUISHED BATTLING ECONOMIC SLUMP

By JOSEPH H. LAIRD, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The fourteenth anniversary of the military end of the World War found victors and vanquished struggling with its economic aftermath.

Here in the nation's capital, patriotic societies planned pilgrimages to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the crypt of Woodrow Wilson in Washington cathedral. These ceremonies are dramatic symbols of thousands like them in other cities and towns.

Thanksgiving for peace and victory came as an interlude in a new war against starvation and economic chaos, born, economists say, in the mad days of 1914-18, when the world turned from production to destruction.

Slight Cheer. Surveying gains and losses from the "war to end wars" and to "make the world safe for democracy," American observers found little to cheer them. Among credits they counted a unified America, its national spirit forged in the fires of France, and the birth of a world movement toward international peace.

But the list of debits was long. It included redoubled armament burdens, $300,000,000 diverted from normal productive channels to payment for spent shot and shell, more dead men than the population of New York city, and a resurgence of dictatorship and fiery nationalism which threaten to destroy all gains for democracy and peace.

65,000,000 Men in War. The balance sheet of a war that called 65,000,000 men into action from America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia today showed 8,538,315 men killed in action and 21,219,452 wounded or injured and uncounted millions more in hospitals from war-contracted disabilities. Although no precise accounting is possible, one statistician has computed the outlay of treasure at more than 45 times the cost of Boulder dam, America's most costly engineering project.

America's war cost alone was estimated in the last treasury report at $26,361,996,001.09 was spent on the military phase of the war ending in 1921; $4,745,989.52 on veterans' relief; and $50,325,808.52 on war debt interest, hospital construction and war claims. Some 444,257 veterans now are on the public pay-roll.

First Step. During the dream-filled days following Nov. 11, 1918, after Marshal Foch, for the allies, and Herr Erzberger, for Germany, had not in a railroad car near Rethondes and signed the armistice, there was much talk of abandoning arms. Germany was stripped of its mail as a first step toward general world disarmament.

Yet the war charts of the powers today reveal they are spending about $5,500,000,000 on armaments and navies, as compared with $2,750,000,000 just before the war. A recent analysis showed:

Country	Percentage in 1918 & 1919	Percentage in 1931-1932
United States	197	18
Japan	142	31
Great Britain	42	16
France	30	5
Italy	44	9
Russia	30	81
Germany	63	22

OIL SESSION ACTION MAY HAVE A DELAY

AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—Hopes that a new oil prorator law might be enacted this week dimmed today as both house and senate spent long hours in debate over proposed amendments to the bill.

The house session was marked by a vigorous attempt of Representative W. E. Pope to amend the house bill so that in determining market demand the state railroad commission should consider the amount of imports, but the proposal was rejected by a vote of 73 to 47.

The general tone of opinions gathered by the United Press from representative bankers and industrialists was optimistic. It was emphasized that co-operation from all parties and all classes will be essential until the upturn in business has been strongly demonstrated.

Typical statements follow: Will Hays, a power in the motion picture industry, pleaded for co-operation.

"The principal business of republicans," he said, "is to help make good the promise of early employment and prosperity made by both parties. In a war the army is loyal, whoever is in command. The depression is on the run. We will finish the fight now. Everything else now is 'chores'."

Melvin A. Traylor, Chicago banker, said: "Our social distress will respond and improve with economic recovery, which will move forward with sound political programs. The spotlight is now on a new party, and I welcome with faith and high hope the new administration."

Figures Show How Accidents Have Reduced

In pointing out the rapid strides being made in the elimination of accidents in the oil business, H. N. Blakeslee, speaker at the safety meeting held in Ranger last week, brought out the following interesting facts:

Reports received from 89 oil companies employing 227,360 men during 1931 show an accident frequency of 14.14 injuries to each million hours worked and an incident severity of 2.06 days lost from injury for each 1,000 hours worked. On the average, one fatality occurred to each group of 1,749 workers and disabling injury occurred to each group of 28 workers. In 1927 one disabling injury occurred in each group of 11 workers, and in 1928 one fatality occurred among each 1,296 workers.

A total of 8,040 disabling injuries occurred during 1931 among 227,360 workers? Had the accident severity at the rate experienced in 1927, this same group of workers would have experienced 17,706 injuries or 9.66 more injuries than did occur.

The Tonkawa Production division of the Shell Petroleum corporation has accomplished the equivalent of 545 men working an entire year in general field operations without a disabling injury. The Shell Petroleum corporation released information to the effect that the cost of accidents per employee on the payroll has declined over 70 per cent since 1927. The Beaumont refinery of the Magnolia Petroleum company has reduced the cost of accidents 76 per cent per payroll employee since 1929. The Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company reports a reduction of $1 per cent in the per capita cost of accidents among its employees since 1927.

These reductions are not made by curtailing medical attention, but by actually preventing accidents, and when one does occur, providing the best medical attention obtainable.

The work on the bus required four weeks.

The office or sexton of the cemetery of which Mr. Fryor was incumbent has been abolished, and Joe Reed, the mosquito extirminator, was also let off, and this work discontinued.

Among other changes the office force was reduced. Jep Little was retained as clerk, and W. C. Marlow as city manager. Artie Liles was moved from the clerical department back to the water department and will do no clerical work.

Wrecked School Bus Is Repaired

W. H. Clarke, proprietor of Clarke's Radiator and Body Work of Ranger, has completed the work on the school bus belonging to the Ranger Independent School district and it has been placed back in service.

The bus was damaged in the wreck when the football team was returning from the Ranger-Armistice game.

The top was rebuilt, the overhead lining replaced and the woodwork of the top replaced. The body had been sprung and this was straightened and the dents worked out of the body. The three doors were sprung and these were reshaped and replaced and nine shatter-proof windows had to be replaced.

The work on the bus required four weeks.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE ROYAL ROAD: If ye fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well; but if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin and are convicted of the law as transgressors.—James 2: 8, 9.

WHEAT MAKES ANOTHER LOW LEVEL DIVE

Grain growers of the West and Northwest, indeed the nation over, are reminded that half dollar wheat disappeared from the American continent Nov. 2 and from virtually all world markets have prices on most major grain exchanges dived to record low depths. Four years ago Senator William E. Borah, the Lone Eagle, and at that time the white hope campaigner of the republican party, made a speaking tour of Texas and Oklahoma and other agricultural commonwealths. Posing as a prophet, he advised the voters, mostly growers of things or wage workers to cast their ballots for Hoover and Curtis in order that high grade prosperity would go on forever in American homes. Indeed, this was the pledge of Hoover and Curtis and the master minds of the republican party four years ago. It was the pledge three years ago. Less than two years ago almost to a man, from president down, they declared there had been a slight economic depression but OLD TIME PROSPERITY was "just around the corner." Where is it? Eleven million hand workers who voted for prosperity four years ago are out of jobs. Farmers who voted for Hoover in 1928 have felt the pincers of poverty. And more than 20 per cent have lost their holdings. In cities and towns and hamlets thousands voted for Hoover, and in the years that have followed a large army have lost their homes. This is not all. According to a distinguished authority "a third of the businesses of the country have gone into bankruptcy or receiverships or into the hands of predators." More than 6090 banks failed and closed their doors. It is said 30 per cent of the theatres of the country "are dark and unoccupied." Well, the Lone Eagle for the first time in many years has not ventured beyond the boundary lines of Idaho. He has not said a word about prosperity. Early in the campaign he said he would not vote for Hoover. He is a discredited prophet. He lured thousands of democrats in the southwest away from the faith and Moses or is he a political rocket? the policies and principles of the ancient party. Is he a

CARRY ON!

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

Three games will be played over the state today that will be of much interest to the fans of the Oil Belt. Of paramount interest locally will be the annual clash between the Eastland Mavericks and the Ranger Bulldogs on Lillard field, Ranger, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Next in interest comes the Breckenridge-Abilene game at Abilene, which will have about as much to do with the standing of the Eastland and Ranger teams as does the game in Ranger. The third game that will interest the local fans is the Texas-T. C. U. conflict at Fort Worth this afternoon. This game is of interest because it will probably determine the winner of the Southwest conference title. Both teams have plenty of power, T. C.

U. featuring a strong line and a good backfield and Texas depending on a good line and a powerful backfield. The tentative starting lineups of the Mavericks and Bulldogs show that, in weight, the two teams are pretty evenly matched, with the Bulldogs being but slightly heavier than their opponents. In the line the probable starters for the Mavericks weigh 1,163 pounds for an average of 166-plus, while the Bulldogs weigh 1,182 for an average of slightly less than 169 pounds. In the backfield the Bulldogs will have even less of an advantage in weight as the Mavericks average exactly 165 pounds and the Bulldogs 167, according to the figures on the programs for today. Ranger's backfield average weight is brought down by "Rabbit" Jones, who is listed at 130 pounds and looks as though he would have to carry about half a brick under his jersey to make that weight, while J. L. Jones almost makes up for it with his 200 pounds. Lyon and Anderson weigh 160 and 178 respectively, which is nearer the average than either of the Joneses. Eastland's backfield is much more uniform. Burgamy at 155 is the lightest with Garrison weighing 160 and the two other members of the probable starting backfield as sent out from Eastland weighing 160 pounds each. They are Mackall and Daniels. The weights in the line from end to end, but without regard to whether they play on the right or left side of the line, are as follows: Ranger's line, starting with the lightest and working up to the heaviest, is "Squint" Williams, guard, 150; Paul Bray, end, 155; Standard, tackle, 163; John Bray, center, 172; Love, guard, 175; Adkins, tackle, 183, and Britt, end, 184. For Eastland the members of the probable starting lineup in the line are Baggett, guard, 160; Allison, center, 160; Halley, guard, 160; Bagley, tackle, 165; Taylor, end, 168; Vaughn, end, 170, and Fulcher, tackle, 180. This will show that Eastland's line is a little more uniform as to weight, as is the backfield, with the weights ranging from three 160-pounders to one 180-pounder, while Ranger's line ranges, in weight, from 150 pounds to 184, with no two weighing in at exactly the same weight, though Adkins and Britt lack but a pound of balancing the scales. All of this means nothing as far as playing ability is concerned, but it does give one an idea as to the comparative size of the two teams. As usual we will do our guessing as to the score after the game.

Arcadia to Have Magic on Stage at Sunday Shows

B. E. Garner, manager of the Arcadia theatre, Ranger, has announced an added attraction for Sunday afternoon and night, when Willard, the Wizard, one of the foremost magicians of the world, will present his full performance, including 20 new miracles of this season. Willard has been playing in the larger theatres throughout this county this year and has been astounding his audiences wherever he has gone. From the cities where he has shown this season press reports indicate that he is by far the most outstanding magician now on the American stage. Willard has shown in practically every country of the world and has collected the most astonishing feast of magic from each country he has visited. Two performances will be given by Willard in Ranger, one starting at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the other at about 8 that evening.

Ranger Girls In Basketball Win

In a fast and furious game in the Ranger gym Wednesday night the Ranger high school girls met the girls from Colony in a fast and furious game of basketball. This was one of those games that is not over until the closing whistle is blown. The final score in this affair was 22 to 19 in favor of Ranger. The Colony team deserves merit for their shiftness and straight passing. It would be difficult to decide which started on either side. All of the Ranger team was hustling but Ella Mae Smith and Lou Aarnett at forward positions sank quite a number of baskets. Starting for Colony were the center, Crabb, and their forward, Rylee. It is a remarkable thing, too, that neither side sent in more than one substitute. The teams were as follows: Ranger—Louise Sharpe, center; Opal Carter, running center; Louise Barnett and Ella Mae Smith, forwards; Dorothy Dell Smith and Allie Ball, guards. Colony—G. Crabb, center; T. Thompson, running center; E. Rylee and O. Bowen, forwards; M. Briden and E. Thompson, guards. Substitutions—Ranger, David for Carter; Colony, F. Robison. Scoring by quarters: Ranger 6 6 4 6—22 Colony 5 4 8 3—19 The girls' game was followed by two other teams from out of town, namely Colony and Morton Valley. The boys from Morton Valley piled up a big score and defeated the Colony team to the tune of 37 to 4. The two basket made by Colony were in the third quarter. Outstanding on Morton Valley team was Brice Marlow, who attended school at Ranger high school until two years ago. The lineup: Morton Valley—Funk and Craig, guards; Tankersley, center; Marlow and Gregory, forwards. Substitutions—Ranger, J. Stewart and James, guards; Stewart, center; Briden and Anderson, forwards. Substitutions—Colony, Thompson for James. FIVE-LEGGED CALF BORN. STANFORD, Mont.—A five-legged calf was born on the ranch of Clarence Schmitt recently. PIGGLY WIGGLY "All Over the World"

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD" THE HUNTER HUNTED! "Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the famous artist, R. Atkinson Fox . . . inspired by the battle between an enraged bull buffalo and the savage Indian hunters whose lances roused the beast to furious charge. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies -that's why they're so mild WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes. "It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies

The Electric Eel

It is with a lot of fear and gooseflesh up our backs that we launch herewith the shocking tale of one of the first storage batteries known to man. Fish stories are always in bad odor, as it were; nobody believes them and the story of the first storage battery is a fish story and how!

We have referred to it as a shocking tale. As a matter of fact, it is a tale of a shocking tail, for the electric shock that makes it really shocking comes from an eel's tail. You have all heard of an electric eel. No? Well, an electric eel is probably the first storage battery ever known and it was made by old Mother Nature, herself.

This eel, which is as large as an old-style Ford inner tube (honestly it is) hails from the Amazon river in South America. There the electric eels have a regular underwater community electric power station all by themselves. When they are hungry they start out looking for a school of fish. If a horse or a tapir happens to be standing in the water when the eels throw off their electric current, the shock is of sufficient intensity to knock the animal down. Then the eels go on to their fish which provide the well-known square meal for Mr. and Mrs. Eel and the little Eels, John, Maizie, Willis and perhaps Mabel Eel.

These eel hunting trips of the meals, no, we mean meal hunting trips of the eels, are quite exciting affairs. The whole gang starts out and travels along like eels usually do, stopping now and then to poke their heads up and to scan the horizon. Then one of them spies a school of fish swimming in the river. This is the signal for the fun to begin. Shouts of "Oodle-oodle google-google" fill the air, which means, in eel language, what the cry of "Thar she blows" means to whale fishermen, which means in both languages, "There she be—go to it."

At the shockological moment, strictly speaking "and otherwise, each eel throws a switch, some where in its tail and zowie! a regular carload of volts, amperes, and watt-not, shoots through the water and hits the fish so hard that they forget everything—even their

"WART, THE SPEED COP," TO APPEAR EACH WEEK

Since motorists generally find so little comedy and so much grief in their contacts with speed cops, Mr. Nath Pirkle of the Quick Service garage, Ranger, has decided it's about time to reverse this sad order of affairs. He has accordingly secured a speed cop all his own and is bringing him to Ranger for the entertainment of the public.

This speed cop, Mr. Pirkle explains, is named Wart because a very large wart grows squarely upon the end of his nose. His legs are very short, in fact so short that he must carry a step-ladder to get on and off his motorcycle. Indeed, Officer Wart's legs are so very short that he can walk under a duck with his hat on. All in all, this speed cop is about the funniest speed cop ever heard of.

Not only is Mr. Pirkle bringing Wart, the Speed Cop to Ranger but he has also decided to bring two of Wart's closest friends, Lord Blowout, the discount, and the Widow Gas Saver. Lord Blowout is an English Eel who wears a plug hat, spiked coat and whose only means of locomotion is a very stubborn and worn-out mule named Jimmie Ann. Right at this moment, Lord Blowout is riding his mule, en route from London to Ranger for the specific purpose of having the Quick Service garage give him a thorough overhauling in the hope of getting some of the stubbornness out of him.

Wart's other friend, the Widow Gas Saver, is said to be the most beautiful lady ever to descend upon Ranger, besides being the most desirable thing matrimonially left in the world. It is feared by many of the old-timers about town that her extreme amorous epitude will lead to the breaking up of many of the homes in town, but Mr. Pirkle insists that the comic antics of these three characters will more than atone for any damage they might do. While there is a speculative difference of opinion on this point there is really nothing to do but to watch and wait and see what happens.

last mouthful of food. Stunned, they become easy prey to the eels. If you don't believe this story ask Mr. Reynolds, the local eel dealer and one of our leading experts on storage batteries.

"Just where electric eels get their recharging done is not known to me," said Mr. Reynolds. "There are no battery service stations in their neck of the woods, at least no Exide stations, for that is one of the comparatively few places you can go in the world without finding the familiar Exide sign. It is assumed that they get their electric current from the various kinds of food they eat."

"Seriously speaking," Mr. Reynolds continued, "it is true that an electric eel can deliver a shock strong enough to stun a man or horse, but I don't know whether or not 'oodle-oodle—google-google' is real eel language."

Cards have been received from Mr. and Mrs. A. Rosetto of Fresno, Calif., announcing the arrival of a fine boy, James Lawrence in their home Monday, Oct. 31. Mrs. Rosetto who was once a resident of Thurber will be remembered as Miss Amelia Bertino. She and little son are reported doing nicely.

A message was received here Wednesday of last week by Mrs. Wesley Box stating that her uncle, Melvin Havens, had passed away at his home in San Antonio. Mr. Havens was once a resident of Thurber and was brother of Marvin Havens late of Thurber and of Mrs. Lee Mitchell of Ranger. His wife and son survive who with the rest of the relatives have the sympathy of a host of friends in the loss of their loved one.

Mrs. Annie Redman, colored, was found dead in the railroad track Tuesday night of last week just back of the grocery store. She had been to the store for a supply of groceries and complained of feeling bad. A few minutes after leaving the store her body was found by a boy. The inquest was held by Billy Boyd and Jim Southern who pronounced heart failure as the cause of her death. The remains were sent to her old home town for burial at Arlington.

The Baptist W. M. S. met at the church Monday afternoon with 15 ladies present. A very interesting program was given after which plans were discussed for the offering of the Buckner Orphan Home. Boxes will be placed at different places in town to receive what will be sent. On Saturday, Nov. 19 each lady will be asked to bake cookies as a barrel of them will be sent. A box car will be in Stephenville, Nov. 21 and will be loaded between the hours of 9 and 3 o'clock. So let's be ready with our portion and remember Jesus said "as ye sow so ye shall reap."

The many friends here of Mr. Campbell Binney of Cisco are sorry to learn that he is still very ill in the Cisco hospital. We hope to soon have a favorably report from him.

W. W. Wiggins who was unable to work last week on account of a sprained back is on duty this week. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Farr are at home to their many friends as their home has been finished and the lovely furniture adorns the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Browning were in Cisco Sunday to see their nephew, Dupey Hull, who is in a Cisco hospital being treated for injuries caused by being run down by a car. It was feared at first that the injuries would prove fatal but later reports were to the effect that he was improving.

Walter Coleman, who had his leg amputated Saturday in a Fort Worth hospital is reported improving. Several cases of diphtheria have been reported in schools nearby but so far Thurber has been lucky with no cases to report.

Rev. W. D. Black preached his farewell sermon at the Christian Church Monday night. After several members and friends gave them a linen shower, Bro. and Mrs. Black made many friends during their stay in Thurber who wish for them much happiness in their new home at West, near Waco.

AVOID THE DANGER OF CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Overcomes This Condition Safely and Pleasantly

The first signs of constipation may be headaches, tired feelings, sallow complexions, sleeplessness, loss of appetite. If neglected, constipation may seriously impair health.

Today, you can banish constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of iron for the blood.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action similar to leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, and gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of common constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Rodeo To Start Saturday Sunday Promptly At 2 o'Clock

Five or six barrels will be placed at one end of the field, standing on end and about six or eight feet apart. The riders will start from the opposite end of the field, circle each barrel and return to the starting point. The rider making the best time without overturning a barrel will be declared the winner.

In the old clothes race the riders will start from one end of the field, ride to the other end, where they will find packages of clothing they find in the package, remount and return to the starting point. None of the riders will know what kind of clothing will be found in the package he gets.

The polo game will be played on cow ponies with brooms cut off at the bristled portion for mallets and a large rubber ball for the polo ball. This rodeo feature proved quite a success at the Texas State Fair at Dallas under the supervision of Hoyt Gibson, movie cowboy.

services of John Lindsey, famous rodeo clown, have been secured for both days of the performance. His trick mule, which he has trained himself and which is an attraction in itself, will be on hand to take part in the parade and will perform throughout the performance on both days. Lindsey is in demand throughout the state as a rodeo entertainer and it is only because of the fact that he was resting between performances that he could be obtained for the Ranger appearance.

A big parade will be held on Saturday between 12 and 12:30. All the entries in the rodeo will take part in the parade and any local boys with horses may join in who wish to do so. Fire Chief G. A. Murphy will lead the parade and Lindsey, the clown, will also be on hand for this feature.

Invitations have been sent out to approximately 50 of the leading rodeo performers in West Texas and replies have been received from many indicating that they

Civic League Hears Wonderful Program.
A fine program was presented by the Warner College Campus Beautification club, made further interesting through the musical program by Prof. and Mrs. Barnard of Warner college, at the meeting Wednesday afternoon of the Civic league, held in the community clubhouse.
The session was opened by the president, Mrs. J. C. Patterson, with minutes read by Mrs. G. S. Stire, and approved.
The only business transacted included report of the flower show, chairman Mrs. James Horton, which contained suggestion that future flower shows should be kept open on Sunday afternoon, as well, and thus avoid moving of contents on the Sabbath day.
The treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Day, reported showed $82.55 cleared from the flower show, all debts paid, and over $98 in treasury.
Mrs. Claud G. Stubblefield was greeted as a new member.
A city clean-up was planned to be held in connection with city commissioners' committee, on Nov.

Grady Owen Is Speaker Before Ranger Rotary

Grady Owen, criminal district attorney-elect, was presented at the regular weekly meeting of the Ranger Rotary club this week and delivered a timely Armistice address on national protection... He discussed many phases of protection, calling attention to insurance that protects property and life, and police power, which protects the lives and health and property from the criminals.

He said that in protection he believed our government was fast becoming a paternal government... He termed his belief in protection as "new patriotism" stating that the American Legion advocates peace, but believed in adequate protection... Next week the program will be under the direction of Odell Bailey, who will give a classification talk.
