HIGHWAY INJUNCTION ARGUED IN COURT

Amarillo Noses Out Ranger in Bi-District Tilt

BULLDOGS PUT UP FINE FIGHT TO LOSE 7-0

Enochs Makes Lone Touchdown in Second Quarter To Take Game.

Ranger High school's fighting bulldogs were nosed out by the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm at Allied field Saturday afternoon by a score of 7 to 0, the superior number of reserves forcing Ranger out of the running in the race for the state championship. The Sandies used 22 men during the game, some of them going in twice to relieve the tiring Sandies, while Enochs used but two substitutions. The lone Amarillo touchdown was made in the second quarter when Enochs punted from his 39 yards line to the Ranger 30 yard line, where Floyd Lyon got his fingers on the kick but did not hold it and Enochs recovered. Amarillo failed by inches to make a first down, Ranger taking the ball on the 20 yard line. Anderson was the punter, Jones made 5 and fumbled. Amarillo recovered on the 29 yard line. Howeaved through the line for 15 yards, then made six and Dunaway did a first down on the Ranger yard line. Dunaway punted the ball twice without gaining, the punter picked up one yard. On a fourth down Enochs went wind right end for a touchdown. Enochs kicked the goal.

Amateur Football Game Both on the Offense and Defense, gave the fans a thrill in the first quarter when Enochs took the ball on his own 44 yard line and raced down to the 10 yard line of the day. He was finally stopped by Byrd, who ran him in for bounds.

The Sandies again threatened to score when they carried the ball to the 10 yard line, where Enochs plays well, where the Bulldogs kicked out.

L. Jones was the outstanding player on the field on the offense, the John Bray, Rankin Britt, Quint" Williams and Henry standard turned in a wonderful game on the defense, with Foster's ferocity of the tackles. Floyd Lyon played a good game at quarterback and was instrumental in breaking up a number of the Amarillo passes.

For the Sandies, Towed, Dunaway and Killian played good defense on the defense, with Foster and Donovan playing well on the offense.

Superior numbers overwhelmed the Bulldogs, Amarillo using more substitutions in the one game than the Bulldogs have used throughout the entire season in winning the Oil Belt championship. Throwing reserves into the game from time to time was more than the "iron man" team of 11 players could compete with and the Sandies were able to nose out their opponents by sheer numbers.

Only two penalties were given in the entire game, each team having one five-yard penalty. Enochs punted six times for a total distance of 270 yards while Amarillo punted six times for a total of 185 yards. Ranger tried nine passes, three were completed for a total of 41 yards, one was intercepted and five were incomplete. Amarillo tried 11 passes, two were completed for a total of 8 yards, two were intercepted and seven were incomplete.

Amarillo made 15 first downs in the game. The lineup: Ranger—Britt and Enochs; Adams and Steadard, tackles; Williams and Love, ends; J. Bray, center; Cole, quarter; Lyon and Anderson, halves; Jones, full. Substitutes, Warden, James and Jacoby.

Amarillo—Sandberg and Mann, ends; Kirby and McBrayer, tackles; Foster and Talbot, guards; Carter, center; Dunaway, quarter; Gillan and Byrd, halves and ends; full substitutes, Enochs, Johnson, Barringer, Womble, Keith, Donovan, Thomas, Woods, Enochs, Corbett and Talbot.

SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Busting the Buster

It's a fast life and a bumpy one for cowboys at the rodeo and livestock show in Los Angeles. Here's Mickey O'Neil, bronc buster, getting a cheerful little earful of the displeasure of a bronc that wouldn't bust.

Ranger Elks to Have a Memorial Service Today

The Ranger Elks club will have an annual memorial service in the club rooms this afternoon at 3 o'clock to which the public is invited.

This is a national service, which is presented in honor of the departed brothers of the order.

A good program has been arranged with a song service and an address, either by Rev. H. B. Johnson of the First Christian church or Rev. D. W. Nichol of the Church of Christ.

Eastland Firemen Meet Friday Night

The Eastland Firemen's association had 17 members present at their meeting Friday night. Fire Chief Hennessee arranged for relays of three men, each day to burn the brush and weeds and to burnish the landscape of Eastland, and carrying along with work chemical equipment, to protect buildings and shrubbery from the heat. This work was started last Monday and will continue each day through December.

Christmas Customs From Foreign Lands

In Italy, Christmas gifts are distributed by the Befana, an old woman of witch-like appearance and in black robes. Several days earlier, youngsters whisper their wishes to men dressed as shepherds who go singing through the streets, visiting each home.

ESTIMATE NEEDY REQUIREMENTS
MEMPHIS—Memphis' needy will require $976,678.14 this winter, the Community Fund has estimated. Of this sum, $92,792.56 can be raised direct through endowments and earnings of the 27 agencies supported by the Community Fund; $350,000 has been requested of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation; and $553,885 must be raised by contributions.

BASKETBALL PLANS MADE AT MEETING

At a meeting held in the Ghoshon hotel Saturday morning to formulate plans for the Oil Belt basketball season, it was decided that the games would be played in much the same manner in which they were scheduled last year.

All teams refused to play in Ranger because of the small gymnasium and the small crowd, so all Ranger games must be played out of town, unless another court is provided.

Early this week Coach Francis Schmidt of T. C. U. visited the high school basketball court and inspected the theatre building, and said that Ranger should, by all means, put a court in the building, saying that it could be used as an auditorium at any time by re-arranging the seats.

Mineral Wells and Graham applied for entrance into the basketball district, but it was voted not to include them because of the distance teams would have to travel, for instance from Brownwood, to play games.

The basketball season will be opened earlier this year than last, the first games being played before Christmas instead of after the first of the year.

REPEAL BILL VOTE WILL BE TAKEN MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Speaker Garner was informed today by democratic leaders who have been polling the house that his prohibition repeal resolution stands "a good chance" of passage when brought to a vote Monday.

I was certain that 130 democratic members were certain to support the proposal. The Texas delegation, with the exception of one vote, is expected to be solid for abolition of the eighteenth amendment.

Republican repealist leaders have promised between 115 and 135 votes.

The judiciary committee, heavily democratic, rebelled against Speaker Garner late yesterday. It voted 13 to 6 against the speaker's unqualified repeal plan.

Nevertheless Speaker Garner, using his parliamentary rights, will bring about a vote in order to "keep faith with the American people," he declared.

Engaged?

Heires To Woolworth Million Just Smiles

Heires to $50,000,000, Barbara Hutton returned to New York from abroad and told how much fun she got out of reading reports of her engagement to Prince Midvanni. But even though she smiled nicely, the heiress, to the Woolworth million, did not make a denial of the engagement reports.

WILDCAT WELL NOW DRILLING AT 625 FEET

The Donley & Chastain wildcat well, which is being drilled on the Hawkins tract 16 miles north of Ranger in Stephens county, was reported Saturday to be drilling at 625 feet, with the log of the well being very favorable.

Ten-inch casing has been set at 625 feet and the drilling operations are being conducted 24 hours out of each day, two 12-hour shifts being worked.

The well is a wildcat on a tract that has never been drilled and is being watched with much interest. Plans call for drilling to a depth of 2,100 feet, though a good showing of gas was encountered at 570 feet.

Congressmen Are Asked To Visit Old Garner Home

DETROIT, Texas, Dec. 3.—Replics from leading Texas democrats, invited to stop here and visit the Garner home and the grave of the vice president-elect's mother while en route to the presidential inauguration, were awaited today.

A campaign by letter and wire to hold a reunion of democrats here, was launched by Claude Council, president of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Garner Will Continue to Work

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Mrs. John N. Garner, who has been a wage-earning office worker for 30 years, intimated today she will shatter Washington's gold-braided social and political precedent by continuing to work after her husband becomes vice president of the United States.

"A man or woman who suddenly retires after he has been in business for the greater part of his life, generally dies," she said. "And I don't want to die."

It would be simple to move the coffee and portable stove from her present office in the capitol to the luxurious chambers of the vice president in the senate office building. There she could continue doing her husband's work and warming his stomach with her own brand of chili con carne at mid-day.

Harvard Class Of 1982 Will Average Six Feet High

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard men of the class of 1982 will average more than six feet in height, if the current trend is maintained.

The average Harvard man today stands 5 feet, 10 1/10 inches tall—1 1/3 inches taller than his father, and weighs 149 1/2 pounds, whereas his father weighed but 141 1/3 pounds.

These statistics, assembled through more than 15,000 measurements of Harvard men and their fathers by research students in anthropology, reveal that the present generation of Harvard men is one of the tallest groups in the world. As far as can be determined, their average height is surpassed only by that of the adult males of the Sava, a Central African tribe averaging 5 feet, 11 1/2 inches in height.

Amarillo Gets Sweetwater Game

At a meeting held in the Ghoshon hotel Saturday night, a flip of a coin decided that the Amarillo-Sweetwater quarter-final game would be played in Amarillo on Dec. 10.

Officials of the two schools discussed holding the game at Lubbock, but the decision was left to the toss of the coin and Amarillo won.

This is the first inter-district game Amarillo has played at home since the Breckenridge Buckaroo played a bi-district game there in 1930.

Three Husbands Are Brothers

Mrs. Harryette Post DeTarr, above, believes in keeping her husbands all in one family. Her marriage to the third DeTarr brother, following divorce from two, has been revealed. The heiress to a large Denver estate is honeymooning in Los Angeles with Beverly K. DeTarr, who twice has been her brother-in-law. Previously she had been married, and divorced from James M. DeTarr of San Francisco and Noble A. DeTarr of Wilmington, Del. Her third husband is the youngest of seven DeTarr brothers.

PASS KEY MAY BE A CLEW TO WOMAN'S DEATH

DALLAS, Dec. 3.—A pass key to all apartments in the building where Mrs. H. K. Buchanan was found choked to death Thursday is missing and disappeared two days before the slaying, authorities learned today.

Detectives began a search for the key with the new development starting them on a new track in their investigations.

E. Buchwald said the key was turned over to one of his tenants about three weeks ago. On Tuesday, he said, the tenant moved to Fort Worth without returning the key.

Buchwald said he sent a friend to Fort Worth to get the key but this person came back with the report the tenant told him the key was thrown in an incinerator at the apartment house before moving.

NO DECISION IS RENDERED ON SATURDAY

Allred and Ferguson Tell of Claims Made to District Court.

AUSTIN, Dec. 3.—The two major "Jims" of Texas politics clashed before the Third Court of Civil Appeals here today at a hearing on the temporary restraining order against the state highway commission.

Attorney General Jimmy Allred termed the injunction suit as "foolish and absurd." Former Governor James E. Ferguson replied that there was a shortage of approximately $5,000,000 in the state highway commission funds, which should be investigated.

The high court heard the argument of both sides and announced a recess without specifying when a ruling would be made. The suit may go to trial on its merits Tuesday in district court here.

Today's hearing was on the temporary restraining order. Tuesday's trial will represent an attempt to decide if the allegations made by former Governor Ferguson justify a permanent injunction.

Appearing with Ferguson and Judge Ochs Speer for maintenance of the injunction today was Representative Bailey Hardy of Breckenridge, who joined with Ferguson and J. N. Chamberlain of Palo Pinto county in asking the injunction.

Allred confined his argument to the Ferguson claim that the road bond relief act of the third special session of the legislature repealed former highway appropriations. Allred said that instead of doing that it specifically directed the department to go ahead under appropriations already made.

If Ferguson's contentions are true, he asserted, the highway department employees have been paid unlawfully, since that act took effect.

"It is my duty to represent the departments of the state so long as they conform to the law, whether I agree with their policies or not," said Allred.

An immediate decision is imperative, Allred said, for if conditions really are as represented by the injunction a condition of "chaos and confusion" exists in state affairs.

There was a notable increase in attention as former Governor Ferguson faced the court.

"They are about to bind the credit of the state for an underpass at Temple to cost $1,000,000. They are about to bind the credit of the state for the Westford-Stinson cutoff at a cost of $1,300,000 and they are about to contract for a highway in the Gulf of Mexico at a cost of $3,000,000," he declared.

"It's astounding," Ferguson said, "that a branch of the government, charged with an excessive expenditure of more than $5,000,000 for some reason doesn't dare to deny the record and contest this charge against them. The petition stands uncontradicted before the court. They can laugh that out of court if they want to, but the fact remains there is $2,000,000 they haven't got and ought not to spend."

Firemen To Be Used As Police

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Approximately 400 firemen will be sworn in as special police to aid in controlling 2,500 "hunger marchers" who will arrive here tomorrow, the superintendent of police announced today.

Federal troops also were held in readiness at nearby army posts as police completed arrangements for handling the columns of men and women advancing upon the capital from three directions.

Prisoner Consumes His Lucky Charm

WILMINGTON, O.—Attempting to turn his "Lucky Buckeye" into a death weapon, Sam Treville, serving a sentence in the county jail here, ate the buckeye, which he had carried as a charm.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE GOLDEN RULE: Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.—Matthew 7: 12.

FEDERAL CONTROL OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

A republican administration is planning to go out in the near future. A democratic administration is planning to roll in. Three republican presidents have dominated the republic for 12 years. In all the 12 the federal power commission must have been "feeling its way." Now a broad expansion of its regulatory authority over public utility companies has been recommended to congress by the federal power commissioners. While the recommendations had to do only with federal licenses, those operating on public lands or navigable streams, the commission gave notice that a program for general regulation was being held in abeyance pending investigations in that field by senate and house.

These are the two fundamental purposes in view: First, regulation of the holding companies in relation to the operating companies and through the operating company to the consumer of electrical companies and through the operating company to the consumer of electrical energy. Second, regulation of the holding in relation to the investing public, which is principally interested in the securities of such holding companies. Furthermore, the commission declared that any draft of holding company legislation must incorporate three major provisions: First, a declaration of jurisdiction. Second, a declaration concerning evidence of control and the burden of proof. Third, a grant of authority to acquire complete information upon which such regulation and control can be predicted.

All this is a reminder that the president-elect covered all the ground in his opening campaign speech and declared for all the policies of control that this commission, appointed by three republican presidents, recommends to the lame duck session of congress. Samuel Insull was a Napoleon of his period. He created a $3,000,000,000 power empire. It crashed in the early days of the campaign and its crashing is said to have caused a loss of $1,000,000,000 to 300,000 investors. Now the recommendation goes to the lawmaking department of the government that regulation of holding companies as well as their issues of securities "is a demand of the hour."

HARVESTER COMPANY PROVIDES JOBS FOR THE JOBLESS

Four thousand jobless men will be placed on the payroll of the International Harvesting company, Chicago. That is, its managers will add about 4000 part time employes in its plants during the winter and early spring months—half of these in the Chicago plant. All these additional workers will be added gradually. Purpose of the managers in increasing factory operating forces is to provide supplies of goods which they hope and expect will be required during the coming year. In order to spread the work as far as possible they will not increase the working time of those now employed, but will call back longer service men who have been out of work for some time. Encouraging to say the least. Furthermore, if there were no employers of labor, with the necessary capital to function all the time or most of the time, this would be a dreary old world for the hand workers, regardless of all of the biting criticisms made of what is known as a capitalistic civilization. Soviet Russia has a civilization just the opposite or reverse. There is no freedom of action in Russia. There is no freedom of speech unless the speaker accepts the dictum or the decrees of Stalin. There is no freedom of worship. There is no mounting the rungs of the ladder except for the favored few. Man has iron bands around his head, and shackles bind his feet. Regardless of this the Russians are entitled to go their own way, to create their own industrial and economic system, and be the willing slaves or peons of a dictator who rules with iron hand and from whose decree there is no appeal except the torch and the sword of revolution.

BRITTEN OF ILLINOIS PLEDGES HOOVER TO FREE BEER

Representative Britten of Illinois, a stalwart republican who escaped slaughter at the polls Nov. 8, held a conference with the President. Later the Illinois statesman delivered a formal forecast that if a bill to legalize beer is passed by the December session of congress, it will not be vetoed by the chief magistrate. Indeed, he promised the press correspondents gathered around him that "New Year's will be celebrated in good beer rather than bad wine." Well, get seats in the bleachers or on the sidelines and watch the New Year's procession ambling along. It is only just to say that one of the many secretaries of the president is responsible for the statement that the Illinois representative "was talking through his tall hat."

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

JOSEPH J. CANNON, editor of the Salt Lake City (Utah) Desert News, says:

"It is easy to feel the romance that illumines the lives of past generations. The story may be of plain living, sober fashions and hard toil, yet even these, which would be dreary now, quicken us, because they touch life as we live it in the higher, perhaps truer, consciousness of the imagination. It is not difficult, either, to anticipate the romance of the future, when new experiences only suggested now by advanced thinkers will be realities to those who live after us.

"If then the past and the future are both glorified by romance, it follows that to our ancestors looking forward prophetically or to our descendants looking backward historically, the present would be a romantic era also. That it falls generally to seem so to us is due to our letting the sense of reality suppress the sense of the imagination. The 'now' should be of deeper significance and stimulation to us than what was 'now' to our fathers or what will be 'now' to our children. Yet because of being with us from the cradle to the grave, it has grown to be commonplace, tiresome, to some even ugly.

"The really useful newspaper not only tells the story of the present with stark truthfulness but makes its readers feel genuine pity for common suffering, indignation at usual injustice, cheer before the unfolding comedy of life and happy surprises in the discovery of everyday beauty. In other words, the good newspaper dramatizes the present and makes its readers feel the romance of today."

Some cities are order takers; they take what comes to them. Other cities are order getters; they make up their mind what their city needs and then go after it until they get it.

 By V. MARIE STEPHENS

This column is used as a feature and should not be construed as representing the editorial views of the paper. The expressions contained in the column are the views of one individual and do not reflect the policy of the paper.

Its story is told on an inscription by the door: "The Oldest House in the United States. Under Three Flags. St. Francis St. St. Augustine, Fla. It is recorded in the archives of the church this house was occupied by the Monks of St. Francis from 1565 to 1590. The chapel they used can still be seen. In 1590 it came into possession of a deputy of the Spanish government, and descended in the same family until 1882. The entire town of St. Augustine was destroyed when Sir Francis Drake made his raid in 1586; that is, all structures save this one house, which stands as a symbol of what was, what might have been, and a delightful comparison with what is. It is now used as a museum by the Historical Society of St. Augustine.

In this same city the famous "Fountain of Youth" gushes up from an undying spring, reminding one of the ill-fated Ponce de Leon who set sail from Spain in search of the fabled Isle of Bimini. Landing one beautiful morning soon after Easter Sunday in 1512, he went ashore with sword, cross, and royal decree . . . and called his find Florida.

Is it not another strange chance of fate that such a fountain of supposed life should stand so near the historical old house? Youth and age so near and yet so far; dull ruins and crystal drops, dying memories and faded hopes, death and life.

Now, the man whose fancy turns toward tarantulas to be worn lovingly on his head beneath his hat, the charmer who pipes a tune to a row of swaying serpents, and the woman who wears tight and thrusts her head in a lion's mouth are all very good in their chosen line, I suppose . . . but, as for me, give me safety or give me space, wide open space and plenty of time to make my get-away. I have never boasted a strong heart and great courage, caring for nothing wilder than a cow and having a distinct dislike for even reptile-trimmed footwear. Unlike the great majority of the female clan, I do like mice. I attribute such an affection to the fact that at one time I was the proud owner of a white rat, said animal possessing many worthy characteristics and a great amount of intelligence . . . much more than many people I know. He was a skillful rat, named "Snooks" after nothing particular, having mastered the art of hanging by his tail. Such an accomplishment is not to sneered at . . . neither is the habit of hat-eating and book-nibbling; he had both. But we were very fond of him, he really was the pet of the family, and gave him a quite royal funeral when it came his time to cross the river, following an overdose of ant poison. I still do not like spiders and snakes and lions. They are about as safe as elephants and donkeys.

Josh Billings, who really was Henry Wheeler Shaw, let us a number of things to think about. In this day of professions and unemployment, I am reminded that he said "Every man should know something of law. If he knows enough to keep out of it, he is a pretty good lawyer." It was never a doubt, but it strikes pretty deep these days when a man finds it pretty hard to live up to the advice. Somehow it seems almost impossible to stay away from the judge with bankruptcy and traffic and judgement and divorce laws staring us all in the face. I'm for the good old gave-man days when it was a case of simple clubs and hearts, and a snare was a piece of flint, and diamonds had nothing to do with it. Civilization doesn't seem to be getting us very far and the rats are getting raged. All hail America, the land of the free with a tax on everything, and a big price to get here and a bigger one to die.

Resolution

To the Eastland County Bar Association:
 Gentlemen:
 We, your committee on Resolutions, beg leave to report.
 Jasper Lee Cearley, a member of this bar association, was born Sept. 20, 1882, in the State of Mississippi and at the age of 8 years was brought to his parents to Bell county, Texas, where he was educated in the public schools. In 1901, in Bell county, he married Miss Ida Spoons, and to this union eight children were born, six of whom with his widow, survive him. He was admitted to the Bar at Austin, Texas, and removed to Jones county where he engaged in the practice of his chosen profession. He served Jones county as county attorney, where he made an enviable record as a prosecuting officer. In 1919 he moved to Eastland county, opening a law office at Cisco, where he remained until Nov. 11, 1932, when he died from a throat trouble, from which he had suffered for many months and was buried at Anson, Jones county.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON
 WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The Republican progressives in the Senate are not going to give up their committee chairmanships to Democrats during the short session.

The Democrats are not going to permit Republican progressives to retain those chairmanships after they gain Senate control.

All that is rather thoroughly agreed now, although there have been various rumors and speculations to the effect that Democrats and the liberal Republicans who supported Roosevelt in the campaign were going to be rewarded just as if they were Democrats and that the progressives were going to lose control of the short session Senate to the party which won the election but will be in a slight numerical minority in the upper house until March 4.

There may be extensive co-operation between the two groups, but it appears that no one is going to give away anything very tangible.

NOT even a hint has reached the progressives that they can retain their chairmanships in cases where they campaigned for the president-elect. To do so they would have to become Democrats—which is unthinkable since they were elected as Republicans and none has ever indicated any thought of changing his label—or the Democrats would have to deprive their own brethren of honors

CAT SAVES AN INJURED WOMAN

HANFORD, Cal.—When Mrs. Catherine Hockerderfer's big black Persian cat wants an extra saucer of milk, or even a saucer of cream, he gets it now. Mrs. Hockerderfer, 89, slipped, fell, and broke her leg recently while taking a federal afternoon walk. Unable to arise or make her cries heard, she was forced to remain helpless on the ground all night. The cat found her, apparently realized her plight, and curled itself against her, keeping her warm.

12:20 Club Program

Delightful Feature

The 1920 club program presented under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Boon, in the green room of the Gholson hotel, Thursday afternoon, with a course of study selected from an interesting title, "Norway and Sweden" afforded one of the most delightful studies the club has experienced for several months. The meeting was presided with the first vice president, Mrs. Mills Davenport, presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Barney Carter, who in turn presented the leader of the club.

Mrs. Walter Jackson rendered the assignment, "General Characteristics of Norway and Sweden" in an interesting way, as did Mrs. B. R. Stafford, who spoke on "Religion and Social Life." Mrs. I. N. Griffin, who substituted for Mrs. Fred Warren, added to the subject when she gave a resume of education.

Current events the concluding chapter proved extremely interesting, read by Mrs. J. E. Fletcher. Members composing the program personnel acted as co-hostesses during the brief social period when they presented Mrs. A. N. Larson, an honor guest of the day whose parents are natives of Sweden. Mrs. Larson, gave a talk several minutes on the home life and preparation of foods in Sweden. As the social drew to a close all members were invited to the Gholson hotel coffee shop where they were served at tables appointed with clusters of yellow and purple violets, Sweden's native blossom.

Delicious cakes prepared from a favorite Sweden recipe known as "bettlemans" were served with coffee. Officers were designated for the full group of 1920 club members and guest of occasion, Mrs. Larson.

BY SISTER MARY

"The best" reports by food chemists tell us that "six medium sized dates furnish as much work as a large baked potato or three half-inch slices from a baker's loaf of bread." Since they are also rich in iron and other minerals, they are a worthwhile addition to the diet of growing children. They also lend themselves to many delicious concoctions.

Cooked breakfast cereal gains interest and nourishment if a few chopped dates are added. Three dates add approximately 100 calories to a dish of cereal.

Sandwiches are good and of great food value made with a filling of dates and nuts chopped together and made moist with cream.

Several salads use dates effectively. Chopped apple, nut and date salad with French dressing made with lemon juice is splendid on crisp, finely shredded cabbage. Fine large dates stuffed with a mixture of cream cheese and finely chopped salted nuts make a hearty bridge salad.

Date Pie
Two cups stoned and coarsely chopped dates, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.
Put boiling water over dates. Drain, dip in cold water and remove stones if necessary. Chop coarsely and stew in a very little water until soft. Mix and sift flour, sugar and salt and add to steamed dates. Stir well and add well beaten egg. Mix and add milk and vanilla. Turn into a deep pie dish lined with plain pastry. Bake shell and cover with 1 cup cream whipped until firm and sweetened with 2 tablespoons powdered sugar and flavored with a few drops of vanilla.

Text: John 4:5-10; Acts 10:30-35
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 4.

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist
Two things are very clearly marked in the world today and in our own America where we have such co-mingling of types and races. One is the unmistakable and tragic fact of prejudice. Almost the entire American history has been characterized by the line between black and white, and the problems involved in connection with it, and there are other racial prejudices not confined to these extremes.

There is prejudice against the Jew; there is prejudice in some quarters against the Italian; there has been prejudice against the Irish; there are those who dislike the English; in fact, there is no race that is not disliked by some other group in the community.

One of the interesting things is to find groups that have suffered themselves from intense racial prejudice manifesting the same intensity of racial prejudice toward other groups. The circles of racial prejudice are involved and interwoven.

The other fact is the clear teaching of humanity in instances of kindness and consideration, and the plain dictates of a religion of love which, as it has been manifest in its greatest souls and in life's richest experiences, has broken down prejudices and barriers. Here in our lesson we have two great instances—the one the case of a man in whose soul and in whose attitude there were no prejudices to break down, who in a condition of extreme unfriendliness between his race and that of a neighboring race treated a woman of the despised race with all the courtesy and fineness of gentleness and friendly interest.

The story of the meeting of Jesus with the woman of Samaria is all the more remarkable when one considers the general prejudices and customs of the time in addition to the bitterness of feeling between Samaritans and Jews. It was against all the custom of the time for a man to be found thus openly and freely conversing with a woman even if the woman had been a woman of good reputation and character.

The incident in itself reveals Jesus as displaying the utmost courage and the utmost freedom from the prejudices of his day. The other instance in our lesson is that of the man whose very religion was deeply rooted in prejudice. As a proud Jew, believing that he and his race had a privileged place in the regard of the Almighty, he looked upon others as common and unclean.

Even though Peter had shown himself capable of following Jesus, he had not freed himself from these deep and strong prejudices. It was necessary that he should have a vision to show him plainly how narrow and wrong he was, and how he should not call anything common or unclean that God had made.

Fortunate Miner Strikes Bonanza

By United Press.
WENATCHEE, Wash.—"More gold in that mountain than in Alaska," that's what Clarence Jordan says and he should know because he took out $10,000 worth of it in 30 minutes.

Jordan's gold mountain is Flag mountain over in the Swack creek, near here. He induced his brother, Olive, to come over from Spokane and buy a claim next to his, when he was unable to purchase it from the owner.

"Ollie comes over and plunk's down $1,000 and buys the claim. With this we owned almost all of Flag mountain. I had a hunch that gold was saturated them hills and by golly I wasn't far wrong. We picks about 30 minutes and then scoops out 26 pounds of the purtiest gold I ever see."

Asked why he didn't dig more and put it in a bank and lead an easy life, he replied: "I'm agonna leave the ore in them hills—it's safern' a bank. Furthermore I don't want nobody to harp on taxes or try an' sell me something every minute. I'm satisfied where it is."

BURIAL RECORDS TELL STORY

By United Press.
CHOTEAU, Mont.—Old books recording burials in early Montana cemeteries today give mute testimony of the roughness of pioneer days. A register of persons buried in the Choteau cemetery years ago is filled with such entries as "Mother of Mrs. Quinn," "Old Man Pambrun," "Unknown Chinaman," and "Uncle Burd." One entry, for "Win. Pepp," marks the last record of the only person legally hanged in Choteau.

Islands Had Good Business Year

WASHINGTON. — Although suffering from the world depression, the United States' insular possessions came through the year without intense suffering and made some progress in education and public health.

This, in general, was the tone of an unusual report submitted to Secretary of War Huxley by Major Gen. F. L. J. Parker, Chief of the Insular Affairs Bureau of the War Department.

Public revenues in the Philippines in 1931 totaled $32,881,587, a decrease of $5,345,905 under the deficit of $5,054,810, Parker said, but made this up out of a surplus accumulated in past years.

The United States continued to dominate Philippine trade, taking 80 per cent of its exports and supplying 63 per cent of its imports in 1931. Total trade of the islands with the United States was valued at $145,562,080.

Health in the Philippines improved, the general mortality rate in 1931 being 22.07 per 1,000 as compared with 22.78 in 1930. Cholera accounted for 766 lives, a sharp drop from the 3,079 deaths from this disease in 1930.

Puerto Rican finances during the last year were "satisfactory beyond all expectation." The revenue of $12,562,359.76 was the largest ever collected in the island. This was accounted for by an increase in customs receipts.

Foreign trade of Puerto Rico for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, amounted to $147,628,039 as compared with $174,838,337 in the previous fiscal year. Over-population continued to be Puerto Rico's most national problem.

Toy Microphone Injecting New Life Into Many Parties

By United Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—The boy who used to be the life of the party with a water shooting flower in the lapel of his coat has a new racket here as a result of the police radio system.

"Officers, pick up Bill Doe, last seen driving a green sedan, Missouri license number such-and-such, wanted for wife desertion and chicken theft," a radio will announce at a party where Bill Doe is appearing, probably without his wife.

"Pick up Mrs. Florise Roe, driving a yellow coupe, license number so-and-so, wanted on charges while intoxicated, transportation and possession of liquor and residing an officer," the sonorous announcer may continue.

Mrs. Roe, perhaps a little hilarious, and the philandering Doe will become highly embarrassed at first and then likely as not will rush to the telephone and inquire frantically for the basis of the charges broadcast.

The police will know nothing about the matter. The other guests, at least some of them, will be laughing, however, over the use of a new radio gadget which permits any practical joker to "broadcast" anything he pleases over his radio set.

When police receive calls from angered victims they advise them to look about the house and see if there isn't a small home microphone and some equipment in another room. There usually is.

"American Madness" Treats Of Present Day Problems

"American Madness," Columbia's dramatic spectacle romanticizing the melodrama dealing with the America of today, is the current feature, beginning today at the Lyric theatre, Eastland.

Walter Huston, regarded as one of America's finest actors, is seen in the featured role, that of a great banker whose courage and foresight prevent the ruin of his bank, as well as the breaking up of his domestic life.

Kay Johnson, the blonde actress who has appeared in "Dynamite" and other films, plays Huston's wife. Constance Cummings, last seen in "Attorney for the Defense," and Pat O'Brien, who was the hero of "The Front Page," play the juvenile leads. Gavin Gordon, remembered as Garbo's leading man in "Romance," plays the heavy. In addition to those well known players, the cast includes more than a score of such character actors as Robert Ellis, Edwin Maxwell, Arthur Hoyt, Edwin Martindale, Burton Churchill and Robert Emmett O'Connor.

The timeliness of "American Madness" is hailed as one of its outstanding features. "American Madness" has dramatized the leading topics of the day.

According to critics in other cities where it has been shown, "American Madness" is one of the outstanding pictures and will merit serious consideration when the best 10 films of 1932 are chosen. "American Madness" was directed

Boys Bombard House With Fruit

By United Press.
LOVELAND, Col.—Henry Green, for no good reason at all, had his house and garden bombed.

Five boys, full of fun, bombarded the house and garden with over-ripe watermelons and cantaloupes. Green complained to police about the bombing and the boys were haled into court.

The boys were rounded up and two of them drew 15-day sentences from the police judge and went to work on the city streets. The other three were turned over to juvenile officers for punishment. As a part of the punishment they were made to clean Green's house and yard.
