ch Puzzle er New Type OF Battleship

RALPH HEINZEN
Press Staff Correspondent

The work on the new supercruiser, Dunkerque, was barely started in the naval shipyards before it was divided over the problem of whether to rush to completion such ship, or to build others of 7,500 tons each ordered by the navy department. It all is a three-cornered building race with Germany and Italy jockeying for position. Germany got a good start by laying down four cruisers of the battleship type, the first, the Deutschland, now is the second and third.

Germany's fourth cruiser will be down in 1934, but it may be 10,000 tons like the other. If Germany's claims of rights are pushed, many observers would not be surprised to see Germany break the terms of the Versailles and build up to 20,000 or more, with correspondingly large armaments.

France is concentrating on a building of speedy, light cruisers of 7,500 tons. France is building and wonders whether to build big ships to equal, or small ships to maintain advantage over Italy. The officials point out that no shipyard available to build Dunkerque. The ship is capable of holding its own in a fleet already equipped with the material for the ship.

France nearly four years to build a cruiser of that size, so it is late 1937. France will be putting to sea against the cruisers.

Police Wait for Extortion Plot

HAMILTON, Ont.—Police here have been waiting for three months for an extortion plot against James Jeffrey to materialize, but have finally come to the conclusion that the whole affair was a hoax from the beginning.

Jeffrey, it was said, received a "black hand" letter last November, ordering him to deliver $3,000 at the base of a tree in LaSalle park, and if he failed to do this, serious harm would come to him or his family.

On Dec. 3 another letter to the same effect was received, and still nothing happened, although the request was again ignored.

When still another letter was received on Jan. 30, and as before, nothing happened, police decided it was the act of some practical joker.

Police Commissioner Mulrooney of New York City says if the bank moratorium is extended long enough it may force the speak-easies out of business. Well, many another community has seen its basic industry closed down.

Ranger Medical and Surgical Clinic Is Now Occupying New Quarters

The Ranger Medical & Surgical Clinic announces the opening of its new office on Pine street, into which they moved Saturday afternoon after several weeks of building and preparation.

The clinic was organized April 1, 1923, with Drs. H. A. Logsdon, W. C. Palmer, J. A. Shackelford and W. L. Jackson. The clinic was first located in the Hodges-Neal building on Main street, where it remained for seven years, moving three years ago to the Sam Houston Life building. On moving to the new location Dr. Leslie Downtain, dentist, was added to the staff.

Several weeks ago it was decided to move two buildings to the location on Pine street between Austin and Rusk and to completely remodel the building, forming modern offices.

As one enters the building a large, well furnished reception room greets the eye. This is in charge of Mrs. Al Tune, who has been with the clinic for a number of years.

To the left of the entrance is the office of Dr. Harry A. Logsdon and on the right is the office of Dr. J. A. Shackelford. Both offices are modern in every respect and have every convenience, including adequate light.

Immediately behind the office of Dr. Logsdon is the office occupied by Dr. W. C. Palmer. This office, unlike the others, is decorated in green, but has ample lighting facilities.

Across the reception room from Dr. Palmer is located Dr. Walter L. Jackson's office, which has been refurnished, like the others, and is conveniently arranged.

To the rear at the left is the office of Dr. W. L. Downtain, Dentist, who is the youngest member of the clinic, both in years and in point of service. Dr. Downtain got his degree at Baylor at Dallas and has been a practicing dentist for several years. He was recently married to Miss Mary Bell Cooper of Strawn and are now making their home in Ranger. Dr. Downtain was formerly a resident of Eastland.

Behind the offices of the doctors are the library, X-ray room, with a large dark room for developing negatives, an electrical treatment room and a laboratory, which is in charge of Mrs. G. E. Robinson, who has also been with the clinic for a number of years.

Though the offices are arranged somewhat different, the general layout is very similar to the one just vacated in the Sam Houston building, and visitors will feel at home in the new offices.

The Ranger Medical & Surgical Clinic can boast of being one of the oldest institutions in the city, and the four physicians and surgeons are among the best known in this part of the country and need no introduction to the citizens of this section.

A cordial welcome will be extended by the entire personnel of the clinic to any visitors who might drop in for a visit and an inspection of the new quarters.

Captain Anderson Astounds Thurber People Saturday

Captain Bob Anderson, who in addition to being a famed stunt pilot in the movies, is called the world's strongest man, put on a demonstration in Thurber Saturday afternoon that caused considerable comment.

Captain Anderson lifted the front end of a heavy fire truck with his teeth, holding it off the ground for some 60 seconds. After performing this feat of strength he pulled the first truck about the streets of Thurber with his teeth. The apparent ease with which he performed these feats of strength were the marvel of the people of the town.

Captain Anderson has been billed for an appearance at the Connelley theatre in Eastland, where he will present other astounding performances requiring great strength.

Tuesday, March 21 Wednesday, March 22 Thursday, March 23 Friday, March 24

2 to 4 p. m.

MASONIC TEMPLE—RANGER

ONE of the red-letter events of the year for women is almost here. A cooking school it is, to be sure, but what a cooking school! This year's cooking is done in a kitchen much different from that of grandmother's day. There are hours and hours less time needed in cooking—there's less work and more fun. Today's kitchen is a real "Happy Kitchen,"—or ought to be. If your three-meals-a-day seem just a succession of toast and eggs and potatoes and roast beef and pie, our cooking school is made to order for you! And if you've already found the secret to pleasure and fascination in mixing dainty new dishes and dressing up the old stand-bys in colorful new fashions—you'll love the cooking school just as much.

There will be romance—mapping of uncharted seas of the kitchen—at the cooking school. Each session will glow with new ideas, appetite thrillers, the simple secrets that make cooking happier and easier. We invite you to hear dozens of practical suggestions that make kitchen hours more fun and more joy—to see demonstrated before your very eyes those inspired touches that raise the meal and its preparation to the realm of a happy adventure.

Remember—everything shown in our cooking school has been tried and tested by a whole staff of "Happy Kitchen" experts. Months of planning have gone before. There are three afternoons of enjoyment in store for you... come as our guest!

The Cooking School will be under the personal supervision of MRS. MARTHA McDONALD noted "Happy Kitchen" expert

Italy Switches Needed Labor to Its New Towns

ROME.—The policy of redistributing the Italian rural population gradually and within certain well defined limits is to be carried on. The system is known as "internal migration" and means the moving with state aid of groups from overcrowded rural zones to new territory such as the reclaimed Pontine Marshes. Fascism has adopted this plan as a regular policy and aims to carry it much further in the near future. From Jan. 1 to June 30, 1933, when the commission for "internal migration" began to operate, 1,900 agricultural workers were moved about the country. This number comprised forty odd families. In the second six months of that year, 236 families were sent from overcrowded lands to zones needing cultivation. In 1931, 841 families were moved about the country. Those families represented nearly 6,000 individuals. In 1932, the movement of migratory agriculturists was concerned with 1,019 families, the plan, started by the state and furnished with means by the state, was developed on its own initiative. Outstanding examples of the new colonization are to be seen in the towns of Littoria and Marsiliana, the former in the Pontine Marshes, the latter in Sardinia. In 1933 two new towns will start in the Pontine Marshes.

35,000,000 Lobsters Eaten Each Year

NEW YORK.—Are you the one out of the three of us who's had your homarus for 1934? According to those who handle them here, there are 35,000,000 cooked alive in the United States each year. Homarus is the scientists' name for them. But most of us call 'em lobsters. The American lobster, left alone for a hundred years or so, will become the largest in the world. Authenticated clutches have been reported of 34-pouncers. The European variety rarely weighs more than 10 pounds. While the average consumption in the United States is one lobster for every three persons a year, here the per capita consumption is almost one. Approximately 6,750,000 are shipped here in load cars every year for the 7,000,000 residents. Most of the American supply, for the territory east of the Rocky Mountains, comes from around Portland, Me., and the Massachusetts fishing villages. In summer a good variety is found on the New Jersey and Long Island coasts. They live in water from 20 to 30 feet deep, hence the necessity for ice when taken out. Earl Olive, Schrafft restaurant manager, explained how lobsters are cooked. His patrons consume 800 of the smaller size "baby" lobsters every week. "Somewhere between 14 and 21 minutes," Olive says, "and the largest, or the smallest, lobster is cooked to perfection. The expert cook learns the correct time by long practice." Another fact contrary to popular belief, Olive said, is that the lobster doesn't scream in pain when dropped into a boiling pot. It only sounds like it, he declared. Actually, it's the hinge on the tail scraping the shell on the body, or contraction of muscles caused by the heat invariably causes the live lobster to curl his tail under.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, March 19.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 26: "O Lord our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name."
Included with other passages to be read from the Bible will be the following from Psalms 112: "Praise ye the Lord. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments. . . . Wealth and riches shall be in his house; and his righteousness endureth for ever. . . . He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord."
The Lesson-Sermon will also include citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy; among those will be the following: (p. 265): "Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his measures of Truth and Love are enlarged. Mortals must gravitate toward Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual,—they must rise from the lower interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite,—in order that sin and mortality may be put off."
"The scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace."

Potash Fields in Southwest Texas

By United Press
SAN ANGELO, Texas.—Potash, a mineral long obtained from Germany and France, now being mined successfully for the first time in the recently discovered potash-bearing Permian Basin of New Mexico and West Texas. The largest of two commercial producing potash basins in that area now produces approximately 200,000 tons. A second shaft is being sunk, and is expected to triple the output. The other commercial producing potash basin is in the Permian Basin in 600-long and 300 miles wide, and in eastern New Mexico and Texas. J. F. Hinkle, New Mexico commission, estimates that Eddy county, New Mexico, has there is a potential yield of 600,000 tons of potash. Experts believe there is sufficient ore in the entire basin to prevent exhaustion within a century. The United States consumes about 400,000 tons annually. The current price is $13 ton. Potash also is being produced from the saline beds in California and from the residue of soda factories in Baltimore.

RARE INSECT FOSSIL NAMED

By United Press
CREEDE, Colo.—A rare insect fossil has been named after one of the members of the Creede school senior class. Allan P. discovered a fossilized bee in a shale deposit near here. He named the specimen to Dr. T. D. A. Crell, professor of zoology at Colorado University. Dr. Crell classified the bee and named after Poppian.

A Message to the Women:

The school is the 10th annual one to be held by the Times and they have always been enthusiastically attended by the ladies of this community each year. There is no charge and everything is free. The usual prizes for attendance will be given away daily.

Mrs. McDonald stated: "Please tell the women of this city in your paper today that I am not here to teach them how to cook, for to attempt such a thing would be a direct insult, but merely to show them fashion in foods—how to market for food just the same as for a dress or other merchandise, and to bring to them unique dishes that will prove interesting for party menus, as well as for everyday family use."

Tues afternoon, the first day, she will probably take for demonstration salads, frozen desserts, make an orange pie, bake a Devil's food cake, and present other interesting recipe's along these lines. A short talk on marketing will be given.

Farm Relief Hint
WHY don't more farmers p...
vice the scissors hold instead of trying to win farm relief? . . . Joe Stecher some years ago became famous with his body scissors . . . he perfected the hold by practicing on big sacks of oats down on the farm . . . now, along comes Jim Browning and wins one of the current world wrestling championships with another scissors . . . Jim practiced his scissors on barrels at his farm down in Missouri . . . verily, the scissors these days is mightier than the chisel.

The Ills of Boxing
BILLY AMES, matchmaker at Boston's Garden, offers his diagnosis of the sickness that has stricken boxing . . . the paying public, says Billy, wants fighters who fight honestly, courageously, and, above all, with class and color . . . matchmakers cannot provide that kind of fights because the whole world is lacking in fighting material . . . which sounds reasonable enough.

Prosperous Note
THE nearest approach to Babe Ruth that collegiate football can offer is in the person of Wallace Wade, coach at Duke University . . . Wade is working on a five-year contract for $100,000 . . . his fee increased from year to year over the period . . . First year $12 grand, second year $15 grand, and so on . . . Duke is endowed by a tobacco fortune . . . and $100,000 was placed in the bank several years ago to be drawn only for the football coach's salary.

Republic of Andorra wants a French and a Spanish prince to come and jointly rule it; salary $20 and two cows a year each. Understand several princes were trampled in the rush until the $20 was found to be in scrip.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—
JIM BROWNING, the new wrestling champ says he will wrestle anybody, anywhere . . . and probably forgot to add, "whenever and however they tell me to." . . . Howard Jones is well pleased with the new football rules . . . he says the new rule about keeping the ball in 10 yards from the sidelines will be a great help to offensive football . . . which Jones believes is what the fans want to see . . . Jones will head an all-coast team that will play a midwest team coached by Dick Hanley as a feature of the World's Fair . . . Only one Kentucky Derby winner has an offspring entered in this year's Derby . . . Boiler-maker's daddy is Bubbling Over . . . and, of course, also is Kunnel Bradley's hawse.

tee to send invitations to all clubs in Eastland, and the surrounding music clubs in other towns, to attend this event in Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. W. P. Palm, Miss Lillian Thompson, who will extend invitations to all church organizations as well.

Concert will be given in Methodist church auditorium, and the public invited. The Music Club of Cisco has requested they be notified of Eastland musical programs as they would like to be present on these occasions.

The art exhibit to open Monday to Friday 2:30 each afternoon in high school domestic science suite was announced, and that Miss Leslie Word's literary society would be hostess in charge.

The sixth district program by Junior musicians on Sunday, April 2, in Methodist church auditorium was announced by their director, Mrs. A. F. Taylor, sixth district chairman, children's music, who stated talent had already accepted from Abilene, San Angelo, Goldthwaite, Brownwood, Ranger and Eastland.

This is the annual "children's" day and Mrs. Taylor's assistant committee names Meses Mary Frances Hunter, Clara June Kimble, Olivette Killough, Joanne Johnson.

Request for cooperation was made by Mrs. Taylor. The year-book committee was announced for 1933-34, Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Meses, Grady Pipkin, Donald Kinnaird and H. O. Satterwhite.

Mrs. Turner M. Collie, general chairman, Music week, impressed upon each chairman of division the necessity for immediately making plans for this national observance which opens the first Sunday in May. Revision committee reported the club now had 80 active members enrolled.

The care of the piano was discussed and Mrs. E. Satterwhite on motion, was asked to act as chairman for same.

The program proper opened with a fine introduction by Mrs. W. E. Staller, hostess for the afternoon and program director, and who brought the events of MacDowell's life in relief. Assembly singing: "Battle Hymn of the Republic," prefaced a splendid account of the life and character of the music of MacDowell by Mrs. W. P. Palm.

Due to circumstances a few changes were made in the program, which developed the atmosphere of MacDowell's work but in different numbers to those assigned, opening with a description of background and the playing of his "The Deserted Farm," piano, by Mrs. W. K. Jackson.

Piano, "Scottish Tone Poem," Miss Lorraine Taylor; a connecting talk on MacDowell as a lover of nature by the leader, brought the duet, violin and piano, "To a Wild Rose," Miss Margaret Hart, Miss Clara June Kimble. Mrs. J. M. Perkins presented a critique of the contrasting motif in "Mid-Summer" and "Mid-Winter" themes, with a description of Peterborough shrine in MacDowell colony and played a group of piano scenes (a) "Jacquid," (b) "Alta Tarantella" and "Romansa." Voice solo, Mrs. A. H. Johnson, "Thy Boaming Eyes," with Mrs. Kinnaird at piano. Closing number, "The Witches Dance," piano, was brilliantly interpreted by Mrs. D. L. Kinnaird. The program was outstanding in merit and preparation. Those present, Meses, W. E. Staller, A. J. Campbell, F. L. Drago, A. F. Taylor, W. A. Hart, E. C. Satterwhite, A. H. Johnson, Grady Pipkin, T. J. Haley, H. O. Satterwhite, W. P. Palm, D. S. Eubanks, D. L. Kinnaird, Turner M. Collie, J. M. Perkins, W. K. Jackson, and Mrs. Frank V. Williams warmly greeted after her long absence; Meses Lorraine Taylor, Clara June Kimble, Margaret Hart, and Miss Lavinie Hendrick, guest of afternoon.

Daughter Born to Former Eastland Girl Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Ash of Clarksburg, W. Va., had a daughter born to them Friday, according to word received in Eastland. The young lady has been named Caroline Virginia. Mrs. Ash was formerly Miss Irene Knox, daughter of John Knox of Eastland, where she made her home until the time of her marriage.

Fire Register was given by Maxine Coleman. Mrs. Webb explained the ceremonial gown, which the girls will undertake to make. Mrs. W. A. Whitley demonstrated banding for cuts, snake and insect bite on the girls as models. Sarah Maud Cawley was greeted as a new member. A group of camp fire songs ensemble were practiced. The next meeting is postponed to Sunday afternoon, March 27, on account of the track meet. Those present, Helen Rosenquest, Maxine Coleman, Marie Plummer, Alice Jones, Katrina Lovelace, Frances Lane, Mildred McGlennery, Meses Webb and Whitley.

Order of Eastern Star Thirty-six members attended the called meeting of the Eastern Star held Friday night for the initiation ceremonies of Mrs. J. L. Ayling. Guests were Mrs. Williams and Miss White of Carbon, and Mrs. House of Seymour. Refreshments of ice cream and cake and coffee were served on the banquet table laid in St. Patrick colors, and decorated with ivy. The chapter will meet April 4 in stated session.

The Eastern Star study club held Friday afternoon had the lesson taught by Mrs. D. J. Fineny, with Meses, C. E. Sikes, R. L. Young, Ora B. Jones, Miss Sallie Morris, and worthy matron, Mrs. J. W. Thomas, attending.

Pretty Little Party For Temple Ferguson Miss Theodore Ferguson entertained 20 young people informally at the family home Friday evening, for her young son Temple Ferguson. Informal games with anagrams and jigsaw puzzles made an enthusiastic program, and refreshments of chocolate cake and caramel cake, with fruit punch served the happy little gathering.

Country Club Dance Personnel Appreciates Baker Blue Boys. The Junior New Era club will meet at the Gabelon hotel, Monday evening, at 7:45 o'clock. All members are invited.

Seven o'Clock Ceremony Weds Popular Ranger Couple. Just as tall pink and white tapers held in modernistic holders flickered their glow over a setting formed of a lovely background of pastel color, strains of a favorite wedding march played by Carl Brumbelow at the piano, present director of the music department at Decatur Baptist college, at Decatur, a former Ranger resident favored musician, wedding party members beheld a pretty bride scene uniting in marriage Miss Pauline Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Head, Country Club road, to Mr. Allen Baker, son of Travis street, with the Rev. D. W. Nichol, pastor of the Church of Christ, reading the beautiful ring ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, at 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

The bride wearing a chic model sports suit of white finished with complete accessories of blue, was attended by Mrs. R. L. Maddox, matron of honor, Miss Crystelle Head, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Rudine Humberston of Stephenville, bride's maid. The room was attended by Mr. R. L. Maddox as best man.

The young newlyweds are numbered among Ranger's most popular and favored couples, each having finished from Ranger high school, and have made Ranger their home for several years.

Wedding party members numbered Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kelly and sons, Richard and Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, William Shirriffs, Ernest Daniels, O. A. Rhoads, L. G. Rogers, V. E. Vessels, H. R. Breuzaale, L. R. Heath, Morgan Myers, Artie Liles, W. T. Morgan, Ben E. Hamner, W. B. Pickens, and Horace Condeley.

Home Makers Class Party Mrs. Morgan Myers was house hostess assisted by co-hostesses, Mr. Horace Condeley, captain of Group 3, and members, Meses, W. B. Pickens and Ben E. Hamner; to the Home Makers class of the Baptist church Friday night. Pretty spring flowers were used in decorations and four tables were dressed for jigsaw puzzles.

At the tea hour the tables were laid with green and white linens, and refreshments were served of brick cream, and checkerboard cake and mints in these chosen colors reflecting St. Patrick's day. The forget-me-not gifts were exchanged and new names were drawn. The afternoon was delightful and attended by Meses, C. T. Lucas, William Shirriffs, Ernest Daniels, O. A. Rhoads, L. G. Rogers, V. E. Vessels, H. R. Breuzaale, L. R. Heath, Morgan Myers, Artie Liles, W. T. Morgan, Ben E. Hamner, W. B. Pickens, and Horace Condeley.

Seven o'Clock Ceremony Weds Popular Ranger Couple. Just as tall pink and white tapers held in modernistic holders flickered their glow over a setting formed of a lovely background of pastel color, strains of a favorite wedding march played by Carl Brumbelow at the piano, present director of the music department at Decatur Baptist college, at Decatur, a former Ranger resident favored musician, wedding party members beheld a pretty bride scene uniting in marriage Miss Pauline Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Head, Country Club road, to Mr. Allen Baker, son of Travis street, with the Rev. D. W. Nichol, pastor of the Church of Christ, reading the beautiful ring ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, at 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

Home Makers Class Party Mrs. Morgan Myers was house hostess assisted by co-hostesses, Mr. Horace Condeley, captain of Group 3, and members, Meses, W. B. Pickens and Ben E. Hamner; to the Home Makers class of the Baptist church Friday night. Pretty spring flowers were used in decorations and four tables were dressed for jigsaw puzzles.

At the tea hour the tables were laid with green and white linens, and refreshments were served of brick cream, and checkerboard cake and mints in these chosen colors reflecting St. Patrick's day. The forget-me-not gifts were exchanged and new names were drawn. The afternoon was delightful and attended by Meses, C. T. Lucas, William Shirriffs, Ernest Daniels, O. A. Rhoads, L. G. Rogers, V. E. Vessels, H. R. Breuzaale, L. R. Heath, Morgan Myers, Artie Liles, W. T. Morgan, Ben E. Hamner, W. B. Pickens, and Horace Condeley.

By MARY KNIGHT. United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS.—Mrs. John W. Warren of Minneapolis, Minn., was here for a bit of shopping with her daughter, Miss Betty Warren, who purchased among other things, some of Worth's lovely creations. This noteworthy example of art of haute couture is Guimols, and is of gray with an indistinctive pattern of white and black, and is trimmed with white cloche silk. The frock is composed of a hip-length of the same material.

You remember February months ago that he declared himself an enemy of the high and today he says he is of that opinion. He has brought this most delicate lines up from directly on and let it rest just above which, when the body is in swing, gives it a most beautiful line. He wants the woman to be able to manage as though nothing in the world hampered her in the least degree.

When Patou launches his colors each season, in fact, it takes to breathe, to come more contagious than the demie of the measles.
