Rising Star Well Is Being Drilled

REISING STAR, April 15.—Clemens A. Springs, oil operator of Ranger, has begun operations on a test well on the Waltje Boggs tract one mile east of Rising Star. Contract calls for the Blake sand which usually found here at 1,300 to 1,400 feet.

The Conway well, in this same vicinity, is reported making 4,000,000 cubic feet of gas after having been given a shot.

INFLATION IS DEMANDED OF ROOSEVELT

Copyright, 1933, by United Press WASHINGTON, April 15.—Fresh demand for inflationary action that will put men back to work is being urged against the policy of President Roosevelt in a swelling chorus that grows more imperative every hour.

Industry is demanding action to start consumer buying. Labor is calling frantically for a stop to increasing unemployment, if it takes a bond issue of $6,000,000,000 or even government control of some basic industries to do it.

Farm leaders say the price raising allotment bill is not enough and there must be inflation. Even from inside the president's official family comes word more far-reaching action than hitherto has been proposed in the emergency program must be taken quickly.

Former Merriman Woman Dies At Eastland Friday

Mrs. Allie McCleskey, 62, wife of Ed McCleskey of Eastland, died at the family home near South Ward school Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, of pneumonia.

She had lived in Merriman until 1919, when the family moved to Eastland. She was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church of Merriman. Those at her bedside were her daughter, Mrs. Edith Hays of Eastland, and sons, Roy McCleskey of Ranger, Bob McCleskey of Cisco; two sisters, names not given, who arrived from Waco an hour preceding Mrs. McCleskey's death, and her husband. Another daughter, Mrs. Lucile, one of Coleman, and sons, Roy McCleskey of Ranger, Bob McCleskey of Cisco; two sisters, names not given, who arrived from Waco an hour preceding Mrs. McCleskey's death, and her husband. Eastland Girls Get Debate Awards

Miss Mary Frances Hunter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hunter of Eastland, and Miss Doris Fields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fields of Eastland, were the happy winners of the first debate of the Interscholastic League meet, Eastland county, held in Olden, when the Eastland girls defeated the Cisco girls and Eastland boys defeated the Rising Star boys for the country championship.

The second debate held in Ranger Friday, April 14, Miss Hunter and Miss Fields defeated Parks school and Stephenville.

Okra Farmer Has Way to Kill Rats

OKRA, April 15.—Fred Scott, farmer, residing near here, has a novel and very successful plan of killing rats, which are becoming a nuisance in this and other communities of this section. He took a wash tub, filled it with water and buried it in his cotton seed pen, covering it over with a thin layer of cotton seed. A piece of meat is suspended just above the tub and acts as a bait. He caught 20 rats the first night and the plan is still working.

STATE SENATE SLASHES THE SALARIES OF SERVANTS

Final adjournment day of the Texas legislature is on the way. Place it in the scrapbook as well as the record that on the sixth day of April the Texas senate unanimously passed a bill to reduce the fee salaries of all county officers.

All servants of the people, speaking of those who fill the major and the minor places in all the units of government, should be salaried officers.

HARRIMAN BILLED BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY
Joseph W. Harriman has been indicted by a federal grand jury sitting in the city of New York on charges of making and causing to be made 14 false entries on the books of the Harriman National Bank and Trust company.

Charles E. Mitchell is another erstwhile famous financier who is passing sleepless nights. Grand jurors are investigating his method or his program of activities while he was recognized as one of the outstanding bank officials of the American metropolis.

There is a lot of wreckage going down the stream of time. Every revolution of the wheel since the fourth of March has broken the back of erstwhile important personages in the world of finance and commerce, as well as in the field of American politics.

Many business concerns have adopted a plan of curtailing their newspaper advertising during the past two years. Some of them have cut it out entirely.

Members of congress should not live for today alone. They should consider constantly what effect their actions will have on the future.

Three Barrymores Together For First Time in "Rasputin and the Empress"

Unprecedented spectacle, a dramatic plot which reflects world history, and the most notable theatrical family in the world, lend glamor to "Rasputin and the Empress," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's superfilm, telling the story of the fall of the Romanoffs, and bringing together for the first time on the screen, John, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore.

Filmed from an original story by Charles MacArthur, famous for "The Front Page," "Lulu Belle," "The Sin of Madelon Claudet" and other hits with which his name has been coupled, the huge production was directed by Richard Boleslavsky, war hero, author, director in the Moscow Art theatre and producer of such stage spectacles as monk, Rasputin, who by curing the little Russian Czarevitch of a deadly ailment, makes the superstitious Caesar and Czarina his slaves, rules Russia through them, precipitates a riot of orgy, modities with politics and finally plunges Russia into the World War. Then, after his death, comes the revolution that seals the doom of the Romanoff dynasty. Authentic makeup literally reincarnates the original actors in the strange drama, and the originals, and further realism. The spectacular court audience, with hundreds of brilliantly garbed attendants, the great cathedral scene and the huge review are among the spectacles, believed to be the most impressive since the Sammy McLaughlin, the Philadelphia that has become very popular here will open the show against the wiry Oklahoman, Cherokee Kid. These boys are both middleweights and are very fast and clever on the mat.

A six round boxing bout is scheduled between Sully Salters, local leather boy and Woody Windham, Anson, Texas. Salters and Windham weigh 135 and 131 pounds respectively.

Jack O'Brien, the Milwaukee brewer is a very rough matman and has defeated some of the best men in the light-heavy weight division in the last six months. Swanson returns to this ring for the first time in over a year. He has wrestled here several times and local fans know that he is a capable and aggressive grappler.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By H. I. PERCY United Press Staff Correspondent

Too Much Coaching Hurting Wales' Golf

LONDON.—The Prince of Wales, as a golfer, is being spoiled by too much expert coaching, sports writers here claim.

While the Prince's game is well above the average, they say, he takes it far too seriously, and when faced with an awkward shot tries to remember all the different advice he has received from such masters as Walter Hagen, James Braid, Henry Cotton and Jose Jurado, with the result that often enough he "fluffs" it.

Golf is one of Wales' absorbing interests at the present time. It is said that nothing has given him more pleasure recently than his selection to the captaincy of the Worplesdon Club, at Brookwood, Middlesex. He has taken up his appointment at what is one of his favorite links. He plays with fellow officers from the Brigade of Guards.

There is a reason for the Prince's increased zeal for golf. For some time it is said, he has realized that he is on the "eve" of 40 and middle-age, and so much "cave up" on his physical training. Consequently, he has decided to cut-out a good deal of the more strenuous training, especially such "work-outs" as a daily hour's dose of squash racket and "sweating" exercises, and to keep fit by playing more golf.

It is well known that the Prince has an abiding horror of getting fat, and since his youth, has maintained vigorous daily exercises to preserve his slenderness. At a guess, he probably weighs little more than 140 pounds. The story is told that when he was younger he would twist and turn in front of a mirror, anxiously asking his valet: "I'm not getting fat like grandfather, am I?"—grandfather being King Edward VII.

Wales' duties as captain at Worplesdon will include the arranging of team matches and the selecting of players, the presiding over club and committee meetings and other social activities.

Dog At School Six Times Daily

By United Press OSKALOOSA, Ia.—When Donald Caldwell started kindergarten three years ago, it required the entire staff of the school, including the janitor, to convince Roscoe, Donald's large German shepherd dog, that canines were not welcome at school.

But they did not stop Roscoe from escorting his friend to and from the building, and Roscoe is as punctual in his appointments with his master as the teacher's little desk clock.

Roscoe knows that school opens at 9 a. m.; that morning recess is at 10:15; that the morning session is through at noon; that afternoon recess is at 1:15 p. m., and that the school day is completed at 4.

So he now makes six trips a day to the Grant Grade school. He takes Donald to school, is back again for recess, meets him at noon, returns again for afternoon recess, and is on hand at 4 when his playmate is released for the day.

Recently, the Caldwells moved several blocks further from the school. As a result, Roscoe's schedule became rather mixed up for several days.

He soon learned to allow for more time, however, and again he is punctual.

Complaint Over Bread Lead To a Divorce for Couple

SEATTLE, Wash.—Mrs. Olive A. Dunbar sued her husband Aaron for divorce because climatic conditions here are not right for baking bread. Mrs. Dunbar said her husband was unable to eat baker's bread as a steady diet and she was forced to bake bread. She said her husband, however, complained about her bread baking. Mrs. Dunbar told the court that "climatic conditions are not good for baking bread. It either fails to rise or becomes sour shortly after it is baked." James A. Duggan appraised the farmer's holdings at $5,000 instead of $40,000, claimed by Mrs. Dunbar.

One I Love

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

REGIE HERE TODAY JANET HILL breaks her engagement to BOLE CARLYLE when she learns he has been paying attention to BETTY KENDALL, wealthy society girl. A little later Holf and Betty elope. Janet loses her secretarial job but, due to her employer's recommendation, is hired as social secretary by the wealthy MRS. CURTIS. Janet still loves Holf. She has become friendly with JEFF GRANT, young engineer, who saved her purse from a hoodlum. Janet has told Jeff about her broken engagement and he has promised to care for a girl who is in love with someone else. It is not until she has worked for Mrs. Curtis for some time that Janet learns the woman is Betty Kendall's mother. Then Janet wants to go away but circumstances prevent. She learns Betty's identity, particularly after a night when Janet sees Betty with VAN BANNISTER, rich young bachelor. Betty asks her mother to discharge Janet but Mrs. Curtis refuses. That evening Betty discovers her pearl necklace is missing. She remembers she sent Janet to the apartment on an errand and accuses her of taking the necklace. Mrs. Curtis defends Janet but the girl feels crushed and disgraced. The story gets into newspapers, though Janet's name is not mentioned. Betty comes to her mother's house next afternoon. A little later there is another arrival and the maid tells Janet, "It's the police!"

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XLV MCKEWAN of the detective squad entered the living room, hat in hand. "Good afternoon," he said. "Your maid said you were here, Mrs. Carlyle. Thought I might as well come over and get this thing cleared up." "Oh, Mr. McKewan, have you found out anything?" "We've found the necklace." "Oh! The women's voices came in a chorus. Betty Carlyle was leaning eagerly forward, Mrs. Curtis, severe and rigid in her straight-backed chair. "Where did you find it?" Betty asked. "What did she do with it? I mean?" "I'll answer all your questions," the detective told her. "But first take a look at this." He reached into his pocket, drew out a small black case and handed it to her. "See if that's your necklace," he said. The lid of the box sprang open at Betty's touch, inside on a square of white satin lay a strand of pearls. Betty held them up to the light, smiling. "Of course it is," she said. "I've never seen any others with a clasp like this." McKewan nodded. "I found them in a pawn shop," he said. Mrs. Curtis interrupted. "I think I'd better call Janet," she said. "Yes, bring her in!" Betty nodded eagerly. "I want her to be here." "I don't believe that will be necessary," the detective began but Betty was already on her feet. "I'll find her," she said and disappeared through the door. She was back a moment later, shower of gifts both useful and delicious came from a large number of friends, namely members of the Loyal Womens' Sunday school class of the First Christian church Rev. H. B. Johnson, pastor of the church, and Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Thomas, pastor and wife of the First Baptist church, together with numerous other friends. Miss Ethel Adams, daughter of the honor guest, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Fulcher, served a delicious cocoon and cake course to guests. Mmes. J. D. McClister, E. C. Shipp, B. S. Batez, P. Q. Adams, W. D. Fisher, Nannie Walker, Mrs. V. Lee, J. C. Carothers, J. A. Nelson, E. T. Matthews, Nora Burnett, E. R. Green, S. J. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigolet Honor House Guests Honoring their house guests, Miss Thelma Howell and Weatherford and Joe Matlock of Wink, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Grigolet entertained with a delightful party at their home Friday evening. Lovely bluebonnets were primary in floral decorations, carrying a colorful note of two shades of blue intermingled with touches of green. Games were played at tables appointed in harmonizing shades of the bright theme used. Bringing to a climax a very pleasing social feature, a delicious and dainty ice course was passed to guests of honor and Misses Louise Cunningham, Wilma Jarvis, Eula Fae Richardson, Walden Wheat, Dealo Shirley, Myra Ratliff, Mary Jane Drienhofer, Bonnie Hall, Norda Howell, Marie Jones, and Moore, Charlie Black, J. L. Jones, Harland O'Keefe, J. D. Faircloth, Gloyd Lyon, Page V. Yeager, Gidd Faircloth and Boris Belosky.

Easter Motif Affords Pretty Setting for Afternoon Bridge Colored taken from the favored Easter motif afforded a pretty setting Friday afternoon when Mrs. Wade Swift entertained with bridge at her home, South Commerce street. There will be no preaching at the evening hour but our congregation will worship with the Methodist revival. Monday, 2:45 p. m., the W. M. S. will meet with Mrs. F. D. Hicks in Royal Service program. The ladies are also asked to bring eggs for Buckner Orphans' home. Monday, 7:30 p. m., the Y. W. A. will meet with the sponsor, Miss Marie Stephens on Pine street. Every young lady of Central is urged to become an active Y. W. A. member. A fine program will be given. Come on time. Tuesday, 11 a. m., the association W. M. U. will have an all day meeting with the First Baptist church, Union. All officers are especially urged to attend. Wednesday, 7:45 p. m., prayer meeting—the deacons will be in charge—a program on getting ready for our revival will be given. Let's be a praying church.

ST. RITA'S CHURCH High mass today at 8 a. m. by Rev. M. Collins and another mass at 10 a. m. The Gospel read today is taken from St. Mark 16:1-7. The Gospel deals with the resurrection of Christ from the dead and hence the sermon will deal with that subject, which is the keystone of Christianity. There will be an Easter egg hunt this afternoon at 2 for the children attending St. Rita's school. FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH H. B. Johnson, Pastor Sunday school, 10 a. m., with H. S. Von Roeder, superintendent. Golden Rule Bible class taught by Mr. Holloway. This is a class for men and you would enjoy its splendid fellowship. Preaching by the pastor, 11 a. m. This is decision day, and all the classes and teachers and pupils are requested to remain for church which will be the only preaching service we will have for the day, as we are dismissing for closing service at the Methodist church revival. There will be a prayer service at sunrise this morning and breakfast following. This will be a most interesting service as a splendid program has been arranged for the day. There will be special music at the morning service. Both Endeavors will meet at 6:45 p. m. Miss Naoma Matthews will have charge of the juniors and Mr. Keel will direct the seniors. Come and worship with us this Easter morning.

CHURCH OF CHRIST (A Friendly Church) D. W. Nichol, Minister Fine interest and attendance being manifested in our classwork. We meet promptly at 10 o'clock for this work. We invite you and your children to meet with us. Regular services at 11 a. m. Subject, "Co-Operation." Scripture reading, First Cor. 3:1-9. This service is to be somewhat different from any service ever entered into by the Ranger congregation. Every member is urged to be present at this time and enjoy the work with us. Communion services, 11:45. Immediately after the close of the services there will be a basket dinner and egg hunt. Bring your friends and their children and don't forget the well filled city. All churches of the city are dismissing their evening services on account of the meeting in progress at the Methodist church. The Lord's Supper will be prepared for those who are unable to attend the morning services. Communion services, 7:30 p. m. Bible class Monday afternoon, 3 o'clock. Lesson, third chapter, Second Peter. One hour devoted to the study of this chapter. You are welcome. Thursday evening, Bible study, first chapter of First John. Be with us at 8 o'clock for this service.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH Gid J. Bryan, Pastor Morning subject, "The Resurrection." Evening subject, "Life's Highway." Dr. Smith will preach at both hours. Large congregations are expected at both services today. A great day is confidently expected. About 30 have already given their names to join the church. These will be received at the morning hour. A large number are to be baptized. At the Sunday school hour Dr. C. Q. Smith will speak to all the young people. At the same time, the pastor, Rev. Gid J. Bryan, will speak to the juniors and younger children. The pastor will baptize all babies brought for this purpose at the beginning of the 11 o'clock service. Many have been brought to a new consecration in the Christian life besides those who have been converted. It is expected that many more will accept Christ as their own Saviour before the meeting closes. Dr. Smith's sermons will be remembered long in Ranger. The congregation will regret that the meeting is over, for every message has been filled with interest and has been a help toward Jesus Christ and a Christian life. Let every member of the church be present at each service today.

Ranger Personals Misses Bess Troinger, Violet Troinger, Jimmie Troinger, Miss Catalay and John Capps of Tulsa, Okla., are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Murphy over the week-end. HOQUIAM, Wash.—The Hoh River Valley district of the Olympic Peninsula is rid of a devastating killer. Charles Lewis, veteran hunter, recently bagged a cougar believed by valley residents to have taken a toll of 200 elk and 50 deer in the past year.

Do not fail to bring somebody with you. Give your friends and company the pleasure of hearing the great gospel message at both hours. Strangers and visitors are especially invited and welcomed. On this resurrection day let us all seek God in spirit and in truth. "For I delivered you to you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." "And him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; Walter Harwell, superintendent. Preaching by Dr. C. Q. Smith, 11 a. m. Epworth Leagues, 6:45 p. m. The music will be in harmony with the day, with an anthem by the choir. Evening worship called in tonight. We will worship with our Methodist friends in the revival. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. All the young people are urged to attend promptly, as a business of importance and definite interest will engage their attention. Ladies' Auxiliary on Monday, 3 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Kelly on Young street. Study of Philippians, 2nd chapter, will be continued. The coming session of the Abilene Presbyterial Missionary Society will be discussed also, and arrangements completed. This meeting takes place next Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Reba Graham of New York, will be the guest of honor and the principal speaker. There will be a banquet on Friday evening, and a fine program by the young people at night. To all these meetings, the Little White Church on the Hill extends a most cordial and hearty invitation and welcome to attend its services.

Ranger B. Y. P. U. Have Easter Program The Young People's Department of the Central Baptist Church of Ranger will have a special Easter program in the opening exercises of the department this morning. Our attendance has been running around 50 for the past four months and every member should be on time today to enjoy the opening exercises. Come early, come in the spirit. Young people of the city who are not enlisted in some other Sunday School will find the welcome and fellowship they have been looking for. You are never a stranger at Central Baptist Sunday School.

Ciragets Celebrate 100th Birthday By United Press KANSAS CITY, Mo.—The year 1933 marks the 100th year since the introduction of cigarets into the world, when, in 1833, an Egyptian rolled his first one during a siege of St. Dean d'Arch, a Turkish stronghold. Statistics show that a hundred billion of the little white cylinders now are smoked each year; 275,000,000 smoked each day, and 200,000 matches scratched for them each minute. German scientist claims he has invented a device which will show from a person's photograph whether that person is still living or dead. If it gets in general use, politicians will have to be more careful about taking down their campaign photos after election.

THE POET'S CORNER

THE VOICE OF HEAVEN The voices of Heaven are sweet With music pure and true The joybells of Heaven are God's love to those at His feet. The voices of Heaven are sweet Hymns we all have heard; The joybells of Heaven are Into our hearts His Word.

So open your hearts to the Word Open your souls to the Word While a loved one in His joys, And to others your joys tell.

Let the bells and the voices of Heaven And God and His Son and Sound the countless mercies given— Whisper their undying love — PHYLLIS D. BAKER
