PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

The following article containing an interesting information on the Kayton sales tax bill was handed to us yesterday. We pass it along to you for what it might be worth.

"In the Kayton Sales Tax Bill the people of Texas are confronted with the greatest tax levy in the history of the State. According to the experience in Pennsylvania, returns from such a tax average about $3.60 per year for each inhabitant at a rate of one percent. On the same basis a two percent rate would thus yield $7.20 per capita annually or about $10,000,000 for the State of Texas. With the present prospects of currency expansion and general inflation, the yield will be probably be nearer 50 million annually. All of which must, of course come from a corresponding diminishing purchasing power of the family budget dollars. Since wages and salaries, especially those in the lower brackets, always trail far behind the rise in living costs in a period of adjustments to higher levels, it is only mean, disproportionate penalties and added sacrifices for the low paid consumers of the state.

"But the three billion dollar lobby, in the words of Roosevelt, in the Fort Worth Press, has decreed 'Thou shall have a Sales Tax.' Their order has gone down the line and the jockeying of votes and the manipulation of blocks is under way. The aim is to defeat the other tax measures now pending that would reach the real wealth and tax paying ability of the State (much of which resides outside of Texas) and instead to intensify the burden of the masses through a sales tax on five-sixths of everything that enters into the family budget. As instruments to serve their cause, they are inspiring the leaders of the school teachers to be used as plastic clay in their hands and by using as their siren cry, the false issue—'The schools must have it,' knowing full well that either the sales tax or the income tax will ultimately take care of the school situation, to say nothing of the several tax measures that could be used for that purpose. Several Comptroller Geo. H. Sheppard in a statement in the Dallas News of Monday April 24, gives figures and estimates to show that it is possible to erase the present school deficit entirely through a proper enforcement of the gasoline and cigarette taxes.

"To see the real issues behind the scenes, let some candid facts be submitted: the eight largest corporate interests in this State, with their related companies, pay to the State about $8,260,000 annually in state ad valorem taxes. Beginning next year this will be approximately one-half of all such taxes. The average citizen will pay the remaining eight millions. The average home owner, of course, is exempt. The sales tax proposes to relieve the people generally of this eight million by putting forty odd millions in new taxes upon them. But this is only half the story. If the purposes of the bill are carried out, many of the corporations will also be relieved of their state taxes and in turn will also be exempt from the sales tax. The oil and pipe line companies for example, will save $4,437,000 annually which they are now paying in state ad valorem taxes alone. The sulphur companies will be relieved of $317,872; the gas companies of about $440,700 and so on. These interests are specifically exempted from the sales tax levy. Likewise are the insurance companies. Others, such as the vast electric power companies, are practically exempt."

STOCKS SOAR TO NEW HIGH FOR THE YEAR

Steel Output Reported At 29 Per Cent, Highest In Over a Year.

By United Press

NEW YORK, April 29.—Stocks and commodities were whirled into new high ground for the year today in response to the passage by the senate of the farm bill permitting broad inflation of the American dollar.

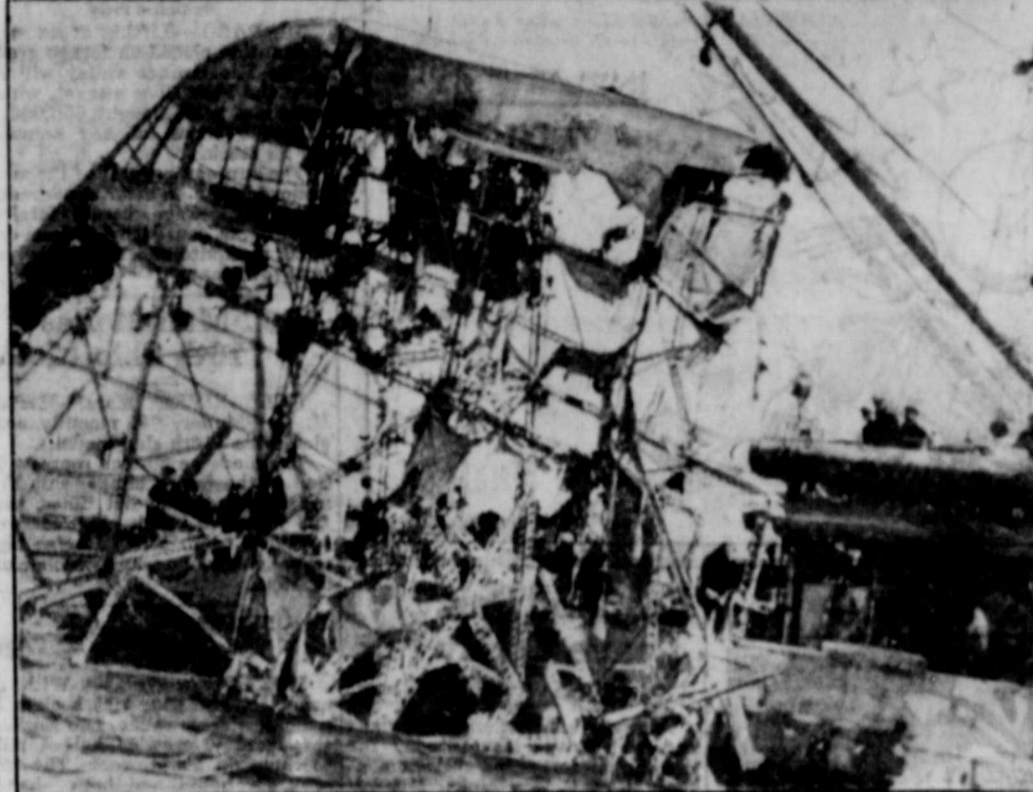

Stocks shot up one to more than five points in the most active Saturday trading in three years.

Wheat rose five cents a bushel at Chicago. Cotton spurted $2 a bale. Sugar made a new high for the year.

Business reports were buoyant as the stock market gained. Steel operations for the United States were played at 29 per cent by one of the trade publications, the highest rate in more than a year.

Stock tickers lagged 10 minutes behind the market at the close. Sales totaled 3,390,000 shares.

Control Car of Lost Akron Rises From Sea Grave

Men once stood in this wreckage and guided a monster ship through the skies. But as the tangled remains of the control car of the lost airship Akron rose through the waters off Barnegat Light there seemed little likeness to the ship that was. The control car, upside-down, was lifted to the deck of the U. S. S. Falcon, but no bodies were found.

CONGRESSMAN DIES SUDDENLY AT WASHINGTON

By United Press

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Representative Clay Stone Briggs, democrat, Texas, died at his Washington residence today after a heart attack.

Briggs, a native of Galveston, had represented the seventh Texas district in congress for 16 years. Previously he had been a member of the Texas state legislature. He was born in 1876.

Friends said the congressman's death came suddenly.

At the time of the seizure he was still seated in his bed, joking with his wife at having a day off. The hour was in recess. The day, he reminded her, and he said he was going to "rest."

A few minutes later he suffered the attack.

SLOT MACHINE PROBE URGED IN ALL TOWNS

Felony Indictments Are Returned Before Body Adjourns.

The 88th district court grand jury completed its work for the term Friday and submitted the following final report to Judge B. W. Patterson.

"On this the 28th day of April, A. D. 1933, we the Grand Jury, desiring to report that we have finished our labors for the term, and requesting that we be discharged. The result of our work with reference to felony cases is reflected by the indictments returned.

"We desire to call to the attention of the court, and the other interested parties, the fact that there appears to be a large number of slot machines, or similar devices such as ball playing machines etc., around which a number of our citizens, especially the younger men and boys, congregate. It would appear that such devices are used for gambling, and at least they are easily susceptible of being so used. We suggest and recommend to the various city governments in the county that they look into this matter, and pass such regulatory ordinances as will cause the disappearance of such devices from our streets and business establishments, to the end that gambling and its attendant evils may be curbed.

"We have tried to make our investigation fairly, to the end that justice might be meted out both to the guilty and to the innocent.

"We respectfully request that we be discharged from further service at this time.

Walter Gray, Foreman."

Exhibit of Home Made Rugs Drew Much Attention

The success of the "home-made" rug exhibit at the recent sixth district convention in Midland was largely due to the efforts of Mrs. W. E. Stallier of Eastland, chairman of the homes division. The exhibit was pronounced the handsomest exhibit of this kind ever secured for the purpose.

Forty rugs were shown from door mat size to hand-made rugs of room dimensions. Prizes, secured through the efforts of Mrs. Stallier, were awarded as follows:

First prize, $5 cash, offered by Eastland County Federation Women's Clubs, was awarded Mrs. S. H. Guinn of Midland, for entry of wool hooked rug, three by six feet.

Second prize, $3 cash, Mitchell County Federation, was awarded Mrs. W. L. Hall of Colorado, for her entry of a silk hooked rug.

The prize for the crocheted rug, a handsome hand-made linen lunch set, offered by Mrs. O. C. Punderburk and Mrs. W. E. Stallier was awarded Mrs. W. A. Adams of Sonora.

The plaited rug department prize, a handsome blue enameled porcelain rose bowl, offered by Mrs. J. M. Peckins, James Horton and Bert McGlamery, on behalf of Civic League of Eastland, was awarded Mrs. B. H. Ditemore of Water Valley.

NEW OIL BODY APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

By United Press

AUSTIN, April 29.—A bill to create a new oil supervisory board today carried a favorable senate committee report and is ready for floor action.

The state affairs committee passed it out by a vote of 8 to 4. The measure already has passed the house of representatives. In its present status the measure provides for an elective oil and gas supervisory board, with the governor to appoint a temporary board to serve until the next election. The measure takes oil matters entirely out of the railroad commission.

A bill establishing a moratorium until May 1, 1934, on mortgage foreclosures was ready for the governor's signature today. It was finally agreed upon late yesterday by both house and senate.

Committee May Prosecute Three In Austin Fight

By United Press

AUSTIN, April 29.—A legislative committee to prosecute charges against Charles F. Roeser of Fort Worth, W. C. Stroube, Corsicana, and Bryan Payne of Tyler, prominent oil men, for alleged assault on Representative Gordon Burns will meet Monday to decide on procedure.

A committee of seven with Representative J. L. Goodman of Franklin as chairman has been named to conduct the prosecution. Charges against the three men were preferred by a vote of 111 to 8 by the house. They are accused of assaulting Burns for remarks made in the house debate and of action calculated to intimidate Burns and other members of the house.

GOVERNOR TO GET BEER BILL ON MONDAY

By United Press

AUSTIN, April 29.—The house of the Texas legislature today concurred in senate amendments to both the 3.2 beer bill and the resolution submitting an amendment to the state constitution to permit 3.2 beverages.

Both bills will go to the governor for signature Monday.

She previously announced she would let the legislature decide the matter.

The resolution provides an election on Aug. 26, to vote on the amendment to legalize 3.2 beer and wines. The house concurred in senate amendments to it by a vote of 104 to 7.

Amendments to the beer bill, a measure to regulate sale, manufacture and taxation of beer and wine in event they are legalized, were adopted by viva voce.

An amendment adopted yesterday by the senate and concurred in the house, permits local option elections prior to Aug. 26 at the consent of county commissioners' courts.

FOUR HELD FOR ATTACK ON A JUDGE

By United Press

LE MARS, Iowa, April 29.—Four suspected members of the farmer mob that tried to hang Judge C. C. Bradley, were arrested by the Iowa national guards today as the farm revolt spread along a 100-mile frontier.

State troopers patrolled two counties, determined to prevent recurrence of such outbreak as the one in which the judge was mobbed near here and that at Denison, where farm rioters injured nearly 20 deputy sheriffs in a pitched battle.

The four men arrested were taken to a guard house by military police. Thirty other members of the mob were still being sought.

69 to Be Given Employment By Reforestation

By United Press

EASTLAND, Texas, April 29.—"Five men were sent out Friday for reforestation relief project," said Walter Gray, paying official for the local relief committee, after returning from Cisco Saturday morning, where he made some investigation of the division of the work. Three of the men were from Cisco, one from Romney and one from Carbon. These men were sent to Fort Worth where they will be given the physical examination required by the government which, if passed, will entitle them to go into some encampment where they will be given employment.

Mr. Gray stated that the quota for Eastland County would be 69 men between the ages of 18 and 25. He estimated Eastland's part of this apportionment as 15 men.

All young men desiring to take advantage of this employment are expected to register with J. E. Spencer, chairman of relief work for the county, but Mr. Spencer is in Washington at this time and is not expected to return until the last of the week; therefore, the registration will probably be delayed for a few days. However, Mr. Gray stated that he thought the quota for the county must be complete by May 15th. It was his opinion that the local committee would be allowed to select the applicants who should go from Eastland to Cisco for registration.

Young men applying for reforestation employment must show that they have dependents at home and they must agree to send a certain amount home from each month's salary of $30. At least $25 per month is suggested by the officials in charge, although a greater or less amount might be agreed upon. Mr. Gray stated that those who had already gone had pledged to send $27.50 back each month to dependents.

Each applicant selected must bear his own expenses to Fort Worth, but his pay starts from the time he is accepted there. He is expected to take with him one small hand bag of clothes. These will be replaced by the government as needed. The examination is said to be something like that required for entrance into the army.

MURDER TRIAL WILL UNCOVER WEIRD RITES

By United Press

LINDEN, Texas, April 29.—Principals in a weird backwoods religious ceremony, three men will go on trial in district court here, May 1, fighting the state's attempt for the death penalty for the alleged slaying of a 5-year-old child.

The slaying occurred in the piney woods northeast of here shortly after Christmas, 1932.

A farmer, aroused by screams from the two-room shack of Sherman Clayton, tenant farmer and father of the child victim, Bernice, discovered the slaying.

Sheriff's deputies rode hours on mules and in horse carts to the Clayton home, where Clayton, Paul and Coy Oakley, brothers and cousins of the child's mother, were taken into custody.

The child was slain during a religious rite to drive the "devil" from her body. She had been afflicted from birth with paralysis.

George Wilson, neighbor of the Claytons, who called officers to the farm home, is expected to be called as a principal witness for the state. He testified at preliminary hearings that the three men were in the front room of the crude slatboard shack praying and chanting over the child.

Clayton's wife, since the slaying of the child, is expected to be called as a principal witness for the defense. She denied her husband aided the Oakleys in manhandling the child, and said that he was so "busy praying and chanting he didn't know what was going on."

Ranger Junior College Rated As First Class

H. S. Von Roeder, dean of the Ranger Junior College, returned from Dallas Saturday night, where he had attended the conference of the Texas Association of Junior Colleges. While at the meeting he was elected vice president of the association.

Upon his return to Ranger he announced that the Ranger Junior College had been raised from a conditional first class junior college to a rank of unconditional first class junior college. This raise in the rating of the junior college was made both by the State Association of Colleges, and by the state department of education.

The college was formerly rated as a conditional first class junior college because of the attendance, but with the increased attendance this year the conditions were removed.

Wind Blows Glass Out of Window In Ranger Saturday

The high wind Saturday afternoon blew out one of the window panes, the glass falling from the floor of the Sam Houston Life building and shattering over the sidewalk on South Austin street, near the entrance to the chamber of commerce offices.

Luckily no one was injured and had the glass fallen at any other time of day, there would probably have been a crowd of FRC workers outside the building and one of them might have received serious injuries.

Fishing Season To Open Monday

Tonight at midnight will see the 1933 fishing season opened and much interest has been manifested in Ranger over the beginning of a period for an additional outdoor sport.

Anglers were looking over their equipment Saturday and were buying the things they needed to complete their assortment of lures, lines, rods and other fishing needs, getting ready for a big day of fishing on Monday.

Lake Hagaman is reported to be teeming with large bass and numerous crappie and bream, with which the lake was plentifully supplied last fall. These fish are now ready to be caught and many a hand is itching to grab a pole and start out.

One man was seen the latter part of this week trying out his skill at casting, using his back yard for the practice sessions. No doubt there were many others.

Rev. H. B. Johnson, who believes in "signs" and fishes according to the moon or stars or something, reported Saturday that the fishing would be good beginning at 6:15 Monday morning and continuing through Thursday. He predicted this would be a good year for fishing, too.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

A NATION'S GREATNESS: Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14: 34.

SWELLING THE GENERAL REVENUE FUND

Tax Collector J. W. Hall of Harris county has turned into the Texas treasury the sum of $866,629.97, payment in full of judgment, principal and interest, in the case of Harris county and others against the tax collector of Harris county. Attorney General James V. Allred was responsible for the collection. A suit was filed in December, 1931, attacking the constitutionality of the statute distributing motor vehicle registration fees to the various counties, in which counties were permitted to retain the first $50,000 in fees, one-half of that up to $175,000, and none above that amount. Harris county lost. The state won the case in the district court and the decision of the trial court was affirmed by the Galveston court of civil appeals. The last word was said when the supreme court recently dismissed the application of Harris county for a writ of error.

Tax Collector Hall flitted about the corridors and lobbies of Austin, all smiles, the past week. He served three terms as representative from Harris county. He was one of the ablest in recent years. He was a candidate for speaker when Lee Satterwhite won the prize. T. K. Irwin of Dallas and Satterwhite were the principal contenders. This in 1924. Hall's followers voted for Satterwhite and delivered a knockout blow to the Dallas lawmaker and leader. Irwin finished his term as representative and returned to the shades of private life and pursuit of the law. Voters of Harris county elected their lawmaker tax collector. He has been holding down the job ever since.

MYSTERY MAN TAKES DOWN PLUM

William C. Bullitt of Pennsylvania has been appointed by Secretary Cordell Hull to be a special assistant in the state department. In the winter months William was "the mystery man of diplomacy" at home and abroad. He was not on a payroll. He was flitting about the capitals of Europe interviewing statesmen and diplomats. He was accused of being the contact man of the incoming president "in war debt discussions abroad." All of which was branded as fiction by the incoming president. Now the mystery man fills a position which has been vacant since March 4. He is on the payroll. He is said to be a regular democrat. Why shouldn't a regular democrat, if he has all the mysteryman qualifications, be given recognition?

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

THAT cooperation and a determination to do greater things make a bigger city.

A city will progress or go backwards. Make your city progress faster!

It doesn't pay to lose time in argument. When a city learns to live it has learned to boost.

Your city should go full speed ahead.

If you want a better city in which to live, if you want better homes, better schools, churches, playgrounds and parks, boost your city on its way to greater achievement.

If you want a city in which your children will have a chance to make good, Boost your city.

Good business must be considered as one of the greatest helps in city building. Without good business there are very few progressive ideas, and without them there can be no very satisfactory realization.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
 "Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, April 30.

The Golden Text is from Job 31: "Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?"

Included with other passages to be read from the Bible will be the following from Deuteronomy 32: "Hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. . . ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment; a God of truth and without iniquity; just and right is he. They have corrupted themselves; their spot is not the spot of his children."

Citations will also be read from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," one citation being as follows (p. 304): "This is the doctrine of Christian Science: that divine Love cannot be deprived of its manifestation, or object; that joy cannot be turned into sorrow for sorrow is not the master of joy; that good can never produce evil; that matter can never produce mind nor life result in death."

Gold Found In Gizzards of Fowl

By United Press
 CLOVIS, N. M.—O. M. Reese, Clovis poultryman, has reason to believe there is a gold vein somewhere near here.

Gold nuggets were found in the gizzards of a number of hens sold by Reese. When the man who purchased the hens from him reported the finding to Reese, the latter traced down all of his purchases from farmers during that month, but was unable to determine from what section those particular hens came.

Reese said he "kept the thing quiet" until he was convinced he could not find the origin of the gold.

Army Quarantine On Forage Lifted

By United Press
 EL PASO.—Lifting of an army quarantine placed on forage grown in the Rio Grande valley will return the Fort Bliss market, which, until last year, bought $50,000 to $100,000 worth of hay annually for its stock.

The surgeon-general of the army removed the ban after experiments proved a strange disease fatal to horses was caused by a germ-carrying mosquito and not by the valley-grown hay.

Services of Miss Lott Secured For Summer Round-Up

The services of Miss Bernice Lott, R. N., Bureau of Child Hygiene, State Department of Health, have been secured by the Eastland County Council of Parent-Teacher Association. Miss Lott will assist in the Summer Round-Up of children that is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher associations throughout the state. The ultimate goal is to educate the parents to the need for early periodic examinations of their children, by the family physician and dentist, in order to insure correction of hampering defects which might not otherwise be discovered until the child starts to school.

Each year more than 200,000 children enter the first grade of school in Texas. Many of these children are suffering from some remedial defects that makes it impossible for them to keep pace with their fellow students. It was for this group that the Summer Round-Up was devised. Some of the defects most commonly found are defective vision or hearing, diseased tonsils, adenoids, and decayed teeth. This group should also be protected against smallpox and diphtheria. Out of 5,532 children examined last year there were found 9,481 defects; teeth and tonsils were the largest offenders being responsible for over four thousand defects.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

HY SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

SOME authority on "Americana" tells us that the early cabinet makers who were so fond of carving the pineapple on bed posts and table legs considered it a symbol of hospitality and rare perfection.

Correctly it is that at all times and seasons pineapples can be relied on to give the finishing perfect touch to menus.

Fortunately it is one of the fine fruits that loses nothing of its deliciousness at the hands of the canner. However, when the fresh fruit is plentiful in the markets, it is particularly welcome both as a food and a tonic.

Prepare Fruit Carefully.

When using fresh pineapple, a thorough scrubbing with a stiff brush and water is a wise precaution before paring of the rind.

There's an astringent in the skin and eyes of pineapples that often makes the mouth sore, so infinite care should be taken in preparing the fruit for the table. The easiest way to do this is to cut the fruit in inch slices. Then pare off the skin and dig out the eyes with a sharp pointed knife. Remove the hard core in the center and cut the flesh in dice or shred as preferred.

If the fruit is sprinkled with sugar at least an hour before serving, the flavor is more bland and the sugar penetrates through the fruit. The vitamin content is good, comparing favorably with oranges.

Hints in Selecting

It is easy to select the fruit when marketing, because pineapples have few imperfections. An even, golden yellow color denotes full ripening. Pulling the leaves from the crown is another way to determine maturity. The leaves should pull easily and be white for some distance up from the base. Never choose fruit that is hard and green looking unless it is to be kept for several days before using. Over-ripe pines are soft and frequently have black spots on their surface.

Remember that both the fruit and the juice of fresh pineapple must be scalded before they are added to a gelatine mixture. Otherwise the jelly won't "jell."

Pineapple is one of the most versatile of fruits because it combines with other fruits, vegetables and meats to make most delectable and piquant dishes. All meat and fish salads are improved by the addition of sliced pineapple.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Shredded fresh pineapple, creamed bacon on toast with cream, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Onion soup, cold turkey, cottage cheese and carrot salad, date and nut bread and butter sandwiches, lemonade.

DINNER: Veal birds, new peas in cream, stuffed tomato salad, chocolate rice pudding, milk, coffee.

Joe E. Brown Bats 1000 In Arcadia Hit "Elmer the Great"

Chalk up another home run for Joe E. Brown, in his hilarious comedy-drama agent the inside of big league baseball, "Elmer, the Great." It's not only one of the most side-splitting pictures this year, but judging by the enjoyment of the audience before which it was presented last evening at a midnight preview showing. It is one of the laugh leaders of 1933 entertainment. The picture plays again today at the Arcadia.

Bering Sea Patrol Is Annual Duty

WASHINGTON.—The Bering Sea patrol, famous annual duty of the coast guard along the bleak Alaskan coast, has begun with the cutter Shoshone, flagship of the fleet, which guards the shores of the territory.

The patrol, conducted by seven coast guard vessels, has for its main purpose enforcement of international regulations relative to protection of seals, fisheries and fur-bearing animals.

The scope of the patrol, however, extends to various humanitarian functions, such as caring for sick and injured of isolated coastal communities in the northland, and of fishing vessels in Bering Sea.

Among its duties are: transportation of government officials, carrying of the mails, assisting in scientific researches, holding court and inquests, "settling differences between employes and employers."

The Shoshone inaugurated the patrol this year, leaving Seattle April 15. Other vessels in the patrol are the Snehomish, Tahoe, Chelan; Tallapoosa, Northland and the patrol boat Alert.

New York professor says the boy in the poem "who stood on the burning deck whence all but he had fled" was a moron, not a hero. The heroes were all the school kids who had to learn the poem by heart.

Expected to Be U. S. Legal Aid

Friday night I wandered through the halls of Young school, watching proud nannies and papas and prouder children mill about the various rooms. The exhibits, the teachers, a number of parents and some trustees were there. Which brings us to say, something is wrong with Ranger!

I was talking to a teacher yesterday when she was called to the phone to answer to some mother why Johnny didn't make the honor roll this month. That was all right, what she should have done. Friday night there were hundreds of reasons hung about the walls... why Johnny didn't and why Mary did! And mama wasn't there to see.

The exhibits represented honors of hard work. The school faculty wore the limp expression of front door butlers, too tired to be pleasant, but tried to be so. And people rambled here and there, glancing hurriedly at the array of work... commenting and silent.

We pay our teachers to instruct our children. We ask them to labor steadily after the contract hours are passed. We wonder why young J. can't spell and white. And when we have an opportunity to see it all, we forget to go. Ingratitude? Unconcern?

"The exhibit is the best we've ever had" . . . a trustee said so.

It seems that there is to be a fishing holiday tomorrow . . . or words to that effect. From the excitement around town, you'd think it was Mother's Day, or a new circus just come to town, or bank opening.

We all have our peculiarities. Some of us have the deep sea longing with visions of salt water monsters hanging to our own hook and line; some of us turn to golf; and so the craze runs. We all need it. It makes living a pleasure.

Glimpse-glimps: Business upturns continue. Roosevelt has been a regular big brother to business. Those clever short sketches the American Magazine has been running of Interesting People have been discontinued. Victoria Sackville-West, celebrated English novelist, recently made the statement, at a journalism banquet, that young women whom she has met while in the United States "are capable of discussing books that young ladies in England never have heard of." She also stated that American girls are more attractive in dress than are those of her own nationality. Dorothy Dix expresses our sentiment: Demonstration of affection in public may not be wrong, but it is common. It's a silly subject, but quite popular these days, hence the mention of it.

Ruby A. Black of the United Press and Her Own Bureau writes of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt: "She never makes conversation." There are too many things to talk about the interests here. I think that is the very nicest thing that could be said about anyone.

We all talk too much. With the president and his wife up before us as living and breathing examples, we are delighted to know she's a winsome, along with her culture and common sense.

PARIS STYLES

By MARY KNIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS.—Worth has just created two new bags of special interest. The first is designed to meet the needs of the smart woman in these days of economic crisis and consists of a canvas bag, lined with moire silk, over which can be slipped a series of covers. Worth has designed a particularly attractive cover in fine cotton pique, for example, which is cleverly stitched and it snaps on to the foundation in the folds at the end of the envelope. The flap of the cover is double, so that when the bag is opened only the green cover shows and it buttons with a smaller flap to a square metal button. This model has been copyrighted and is on sale for 160 francs, or $64.00.

It is essentially a summer bag, and since white pique and pastel colors, especially for accessories, still hold the center of the fashion stage today, this bag will fill a long felt need. Additional covers can be obtained separately, at a small cost, made in any material.

'Goose King' Lives Quietly At Home

By United Press
MANSFIELD, Ill.—William H. Firke, 81, one-time "goose king" of the world, whose name has graced menu cards of some of the nation's best hotels, is living quietly on his farm a half-mile north-west of here.

In 1917 Firke gained his title when he fattened 55,000 geese and sold them to fancy poultry markets of the east. On one Sunday 8,000 visitors called at his farm to see his army of geese.

He is famous for his many stories of exploits, the best being that about the time he provided a flock with shoes in order to march them overland from his farm in Tennessee to a railroad 67 miles away.

To protect their feet, he conceived the idea of "shoeing" them. Accordingly, he poured a quantity of pitch and heated into a semi-liquid state, onto the floor of his poultry houses.

Then he drove his geese into the houses, where they waddled about in the mixture for a few minutes, and then emerged properly shod for their long journey.

Mrs. Dorothy Funk Clark, above, is the central figure in an alienation of affections suit filed in federal court against Norman W. Harris, Chicago banker, by her former husband. An Illinois judge dismissed a similar suit, terming Mrs. Clark "a chattel wife."
