MEASURE MAKES CO. OFFICERS SALARIES BE BELOW $6,500 A YEAR

REGISTRATION ON THE SYSTEM PASSES HOUSE

Scale According To County Population Is Put In Measure.

By United Press
AUSTIN, May 4.—No county in Texas can receive more than $5,000 a year under terms of a bill, which the house of representatives substituted today for a measure.

The senate bill was a compromise proposal amending the various provisions scattered about Texas laws. The house measure is a standard scale according to population and repeals all provisions that conflict with population of 0 or less precinct officers are to be $1,800 and county officers $3,200.

Counties over 25,000 and not over 40,000 population precinct officers are allowed a maximum of $3,000 and county officers $3,200.

Provisions allow the county commissioners courts to limit the salaries of assistants and the salaries paid them.

The bill now goes to the senate approval.

Cecil Lotief's resolution on the submission of a constitutional amendment that will allow counties to contract with a flat rate of tax was adopted.

REPEAL VOTE AUGUST 26 IN HOUSE BILL

By United Press
AUSTIN, May 4.—The Texas house voted today, 119 to 9, for a state-wide election Aug. 26 on the ratification or rejection of repeal of national prohibition.

The plan will be presented the senate this afternoon.

The proposal calls for the election, next, August, of 31 delegates to a ratification convention to be held at Austin on the 90th day following the election of delegates.

The convention vote on the 18th amendment will be merely routine as the bill provides that 60 days before Aug. 26 separate wet and dry conventions shall nominate tickets of convention delegates to be voted upon Aug. 26.

The ticket elected then will cast the state's vote for or against ratification, just as presidential electors now cast the state vote.

TULANE EXPERT SEES INFLATION AS U. S. CURE

By United Press
NEW ORLEANS, May 4.—The United States has 15 billion dollars less money in trade channels now than four years ago, Prof. H. C. Nixon, of the department of social and political science at Tulane university, said here in discussing the need for controlled inflation of the country's currency.

Currency inflation, he stated, would thaw millions of frozen bank deposits, enable payment of insurance premiums, rent notes, homebased installments and other fixed obligations which are of prime importance to business recovery.

"Before the depression there was in circulation five billions of dollars in cash, while bank deposits totaled $7 billions," he said.

"Today we have in circulation seven billions of dollars, and in the banks deposits which total 40 billions."

"In other words," he stated, "where we had $62,000,000,000 before the depression, we have only $47,000,000,000 now. What we need is more money, more cash, more available. In other words, the cure for the situation is inflation of currency."

The Reconstruction Finance corporation, according to Professor Nixon, does not meet the situation. Not one-fourth of the money released by the R. F. C. has gone into direct new spending, which Professor Nixon said is what is needed. Money released by the R. F. C. has gone to liquidate old obligations, he said.

Professor Nixon said the country should not hear any more about lower taxes. He believes higher taxes should be imposed, not on the poor man, but on the rich.

EX-BULLDOGS WIN FROM THE 1933 TEAM 6-0

Battling on even terms throughout the entire game, the ex-Bulldogs managed to put over a lone touchdown against the Bulldogs, winning the game and the right to a free ice cream supper when the two teams played the spring training season game at Lillard field Wednesday afternoon.

The coming Bulldogs had the better of the game in the early stages, managing to keep the ball most of the time and holding the exes to downs throughout the first quarter. For the remainder of the game the two teams battled on even terms, the 1933 team getting a couple of breaks when they blocked two of Gloyd Lyon's punts inside the 20 yard line and gained possession of the ball on the 10-yard line. Each time the ball was carried to within a yard of the goal line, but they were unable to score.

Lyon's passing to John Bray, who had been transferred from his center position to the backfield, featured the play of the exes, while the ball carrying of Rabbit Jones and his pass receiving brought the stands to their feet time after time.

For the Bulldogs the line played an excellent game, breaking up practically all line play attempts of the exes, while Aaron Anderson, Rankin Britt and Joe Briley did the most ground gaining for the Bulldogs. Anderson and Britt proved their ability as line pluckers, while Briley was best on picking and slipping through quick openings and catching Anderson's long passes.

The weather was ideal for football, even though the wind was a little high, and the spectators in the stands cheered in real November form as they watched the activities on the field. As no programs were given out, with the numbers of the players, there were one or two were not recognized from the stands who played in mid-season form and were due more or less credit for the good games they turned in and all-in-all the game was much better than one usually expects from a spring contest.

THREE POINT RAILROAD REHABILITATION POWER IS ASKED BY ROOSEVELT

CONTROL OF INDUSTRY IS NOW PLANNED

By United Press
WASHINGTON, May 4.—As President Roosevelt marched into his third month in the white house today—the confident leader of a fast-moving American revolution—he was on the threshold of another phase of the "new deal."

Coming up rapidly on the horizon is the question of control of industry.

It involves laying a new and permanent foundation for the business of the country. It means scrapping the old standard of competitive anarchy and embarking upon an era of controlled production with close public supervision.

In two months Mr. Roosevelt has taken the country off the gold standard, slashed half a billion dollars from veteran benefits and brought back beer.

Both houses of congress have approved the inflation section of the farm bill, which gives the president almost unlimited power to do anything he wishes, regarding money. He can make every dollar worth half as much as it now is.

The most significant development now on the way is federal control of industry. What will develop is uncertain. President Roosevelt will outline his ideas tonight to the United States Chamber of Commerce, in convention here.

The train was stopped and a Killingsworth-Cox ambulance was summoned to take the man to the hospital.

The municipal auditorium is the scene of getting ready for the big West Texas Revue in which all the West Texas cities have been asked to send girl representatives. Mrs. Lee Weathers is daily rehearsing the revue which promises to be one of the most colorful affairs ever pulled off in West Texas.

Hotel managers report that their room reservations are going fast and Big Spring has about the most commodious hotel facilities of any town its size in Texas—750 first class rooms. Tourist camps already have been reserved in full for visiting bands.

Around the chamber of commerce office where convention preparations are heading up under the management of C. T. Watson of the Big Spring chamber, and Mory Hopkins, convention manager, from eight to ten people are working feverishly in sending out communications, answering correspondence, and organizing the convention program. It is about the busiest place in town.

CONGRESS MAY PASS MEASURE WITH DISPATCH

Would Prevent Duplication of Service and Increase Employment.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, May 4.—Speedy enactment of legislation which would provide a three-point emergency program for rehabilitation of the nation's railroads, was asked by President Roosevelt today in a special message to congress.

Mr. Roosevelt, declaring he was not yet ready to submit a plan for permanent legislation, recommended the following "emergency steps":

- 1—Repeal of the recapture provisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission act.
- 2—Placing railway holding companies definitely under the regulation and control of the Interstate Commerce commission.
- 3—Creation of a federal co-ordinator of transportation.

Just as Mr. Roosevelt's message arrived at the capital, Chairman Rayburn of the House interstate commerce committee, made public the legislation which is proposed for carrying out the emergency proposals.

The legislation provided for creation of the co-ordinator, whose duties, as outlined by Mr. Roosevelt, would be: 1—to encourage or require action by railroads to avoid duplication of service, and prevent waste and; 2—to maintain employment at a fair wage.

HOUSE INCOME TAX BILL CONFISCATORY

It is for the senate to pass on the state income tax bill enacted by the house and the legislature. As has been stated, there sent across the hall by the other branch of a federal income tax law. It covers all the ground. It touches all industries and all individuals, employers of labor so to speak and it touches their pockets regardless of what may be said by those who have a war cry at all times, "Sock it to the rich."

Of course, the federal income tax law is here to stay. It will go on forever, in the light of the huge war indebtedness and the war loans made to the allies of the republic in the European conflict of the sword. A state income tax will be a heavy handicap to those who are battling for the comeback in Texas. Its provisions are confiscatory. There is no corporation employing labor at living wages able to meet the exacting duty to be imposed, should the bill become a law. Indeed, its enactment would force thousands out of the state or out of business and prevent the coming of additional thousands from their states to this fast growing empire commohwealth.

Employees, the wage earners of the commonwealths, are vitally concerned. Where there are no employers there are no employees and hundreds and thousands wander in the highways and byways, seeking employment. Corporations, industries, individuals, who are employers of labor have been battling heroically during the years of depression to carry on their payrolls their employes at wages which will maintain fair standards of living conditions, hopeful of the day to come when a fair share of prosperity will return and the purchasing power of the growers of things would be restored and employers of labor as well as their workers would have fear driven from their hearts with hewed courage go forward with increased business and increased revenues as they did before the coming of the economic bolt in 1929.

Yes, it is a confiscatory bill. It is double taxation of the individual and of industry. It should not be enacted in this commonwealth which should welcome all comers who desire to make their home in Texas and keep those who have been builders in the years gone by and who have maintained high wage rates as well as high standards of living for all concerned.

THE ROT OF ONE APPLE SPREADS THROUGH THE WHOLE BASKET

Will Rogers says that each one of us have to live by a "racket" of some kind, and none of us must be too critical of the other fellow's "racket." There is too much truth in this statement. Too many are depending on their wits to bring in the cash and in all such cases their gain is some other fellow's loss. Nothing is produced in such enterprises and such activities place a double burden on the ones who are the real producers. And this idea that none of us should be too critical of the other fellow's "racket" seems to be gaining in prestige. We are inclined to consider that as long as the evil does not affect us directly we can close our eyes to its portent. But the rot of one apple spreads through the whole basket; therefore, in putting through the "new deal," some of the old should be brought back to the extent that full confidence in business and government would be restored.

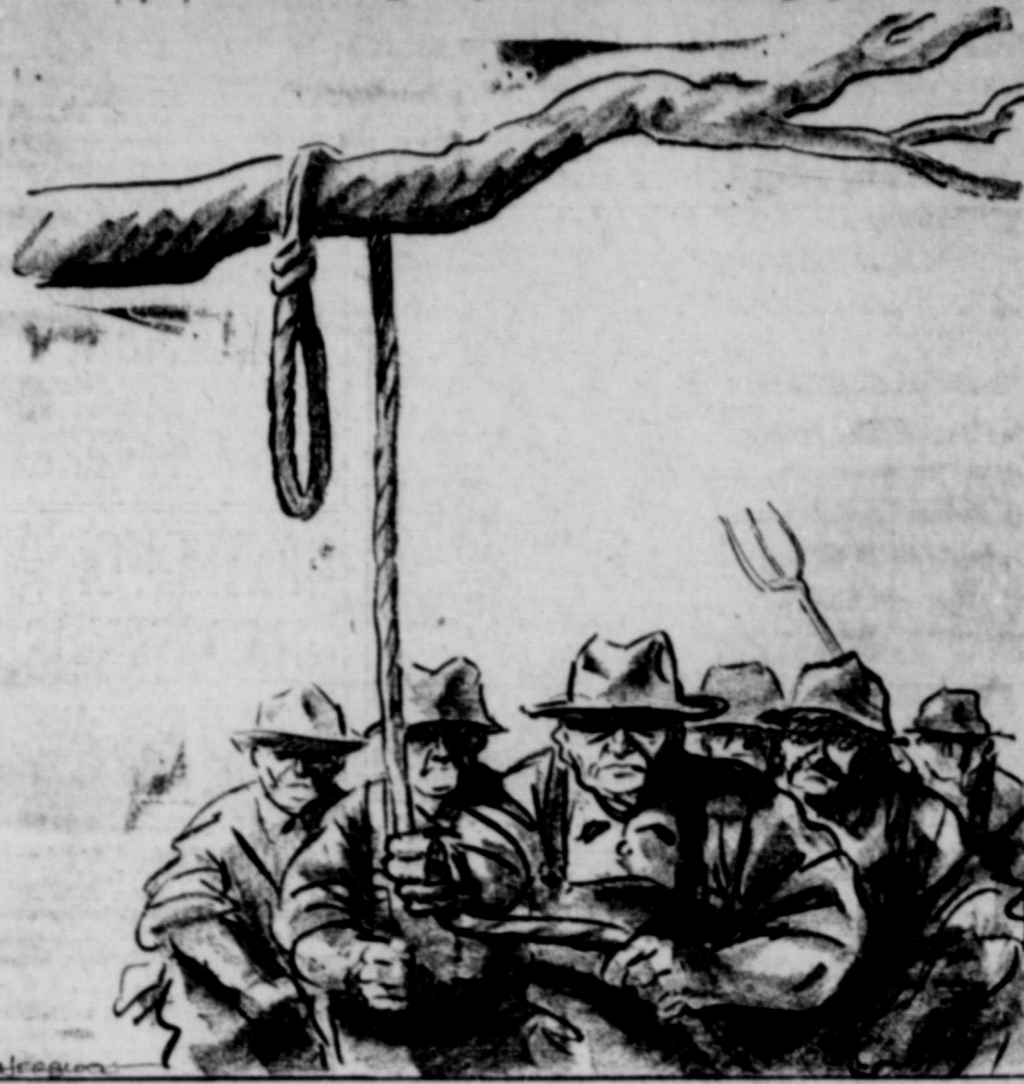

A new era of development is dawning for the city of ambition.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

THAT cooperation means success for a city. All cities should look to the future with courage. They must have faith—faith in themselves, their neighbors and their city. If they don't have faith, they will be out of tune and the home city will suffer. The future is before your city. What are YOU going to do about it? Will you wait for somebody to bring prosperity to you or go out with real cooperation and create your own prosperity? With easy-going methods your city won't get far. You have your future before you. The only way you can succeed is to work unselfishly and earnestly to put your city on the map as a city of commercial and industrial importance. Activity and cooperation go hand in hand. All should help to foster and develop a spirit of cooperation. Rightfully directed cooperation is the only way to make a city grow.

Coaching School Expects Big Crowd

LUBBOCK.—The depression isn't going to curtail attractions, or attendance, at the annual summer coaching school at Texas Technological college here, according to Pete Cawthorn, head football coach of Tech. The school will be held from July 31 to Aug. 12 and Cawthorn hopes to surpass the attendance of last year which totaled 478. The list of sports notables already signed to instruct includes Harry Kipke, all-American halfback on the 1922 Michigan university team, and Andy Kerr of Colgate. Berrie Bierman, who gained fame and was known throughout the country as coach of the mighty Tulane university team, will stress defensive play in his teachings. From the middle west also will come Noble Kiser, head coach at Purdue university, as will Ray Morrison, head football tutor at Southern Methodist university.

Pre-school Child Roundup to Be Sponsored Again

AUSTIN.—The Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations and the Texas state department of health are sponsoring the ninth annual summer round-up of pre-school children. The purpose of this campaign is to send to the entering grade of school or kindergarten a class of children as free as possible from remedial physical and mental defects. The ultimate goal is to educate parents to the need for early periodic examination of their children by the family physician or dentist in order to insure correction of hampering defects which might not otherwise be discovered until the child enters school. Each year more than 200,000 children enter the first grade of school in Texas. Many of these children are suffering with some remedial defect that makes it impossible for them to keep pace with their fellow students. It was for this group that the summer round-up was devised. Some of the defects most commonly found are defective vision or hearing, diseased sinuses, adenoids, and decayed teeth. This group should also be vaccinated against smallpox and diphtheria. In 1931 Texas had more associations registered than any state in the union. In 1932 we lacked two registrations of having more associations registered than any state in the union. Registration for the round-up should be in the state office by May 15. Examination blanks will be sent to groups entering. The pre-school children are first examined and all defects noted. The local group makes a check of these children in the fall to see if the corrections have been made. After the fall check-up each unit will be graded on the per cent of pre-school children examined and on the number of defects corrected. Texans have always responded heartily to this campaign, realizing that a child must be healthy to do satisfactory school work and enjoy life. NEW DINING CARS ORDERED.—STOCKHOLM.—New dining cars, each seating 48 passengers, have been ordered by the Swedish state railways from the Linköping shops. They will be all-steel cars and have mechanical refrigeration.

Young Legislator Is Finished Orator

AUSTIN.—Rep. Robert W. Calvert, 27, member of the legislature, will probably stand out as giving the four star performance of the 43rd legislature. His speech in reply to Rep. T. H. McGregor on the proposed new state highway commission, has been the outstanding one of the session. Calvert, whose home is in Hillsboro, worked his way through the University of Texas. Part of the time he operated an elevator in the state capitol. When there were no elevator runs, he pored over his lawbooks, which he kept in the elevator with him. He is a law partner of Senator Will Martin of Hillsboro. Report has it he will be drafted for district attorney when his legislature term ends.

Loser of Bet Had To Crawl Nine Miles

By Dated Press MT. CALM, Texas.—Dolph Blackburn Jr. was so convinced Edward Leathers would not succeed in winning the hand of a certain Mt. Calm maiden that he offered to crawl on his hands and knees from Mt. Calm to Hubbard, a distance of nine miles, if Leathers succeeded. Leathers did. Accordingly Blackburn carried out his part of the bargain, despite warnings of fellow townsmen. Leaving here at 2 a. m., he reached Hubbard at 8 p. m., that night—exhausted and suffering from exposure. Blackburn is not making any more offers.

Mrs. Hagaman Gives Splendid Talk at P. T. A. Program

Mrs. A. N. Larson led the program arranged for Young School Parent-Teacher association Tuesday afternoon, introducing Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, who offered a wonderful talk on "Juvenile Protection."

Pupils of Miss June Pearson presented a clever playlet, prior to the address made by Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, who chose as her subject, "Health," stressing the importance of the summer round-up now in session.

Other prominent speakers included Miss Lotte, state health nurse, of Austin, in charge of the round-up.

Full reports were heard from 17 chairmen during the business session presided over by the president, Mrs. F. E. Jacobs.

A pleasing number of members were profitably entertained during the hour.

The meeting was enjoyed by a very good attendance. Mrs. Sappington's visits are always inspirational to the grove which has many marks pointing to splendid accomplishments made thus far in a new year.

Members are asked to remember the program to be given next Monday afternoon at the usual 2:30 o'clock hour.

Members of the First Christian Church complimented their pastor the Rev. H. B. Johnson, with a two weeks paid vacation. According to the Rev. Johnson, the vacation opened today, with perhaps a fishing trip heading the enjoyably planned program.

A pleasant interruption will come at the end of the first week when he returns to be in charge of Mother's Day service. The pastor made this division an order to carry out the suggestion made by his congregation to be in town for this particular date.

First Circus Started in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA — The first circus in the United States originated in Philadelphia in the riding school started by John Bill Rickette in 1792.

The riding school had as its distinguished patron George Washington, of whom it is recorded, "he put aside cares and worries and went to Rickette's Riding School to seek enjoyment and pleasure."

As part of his plan to draw clients, Rickette employed a man by the name of McDonald to act "the clown." Later he hired signor and Madame Spicacuta, the former a tight rope walker and the latter an equestrienne, to entertain his customers.

Later another Philadelphian started a circus here, eight years before P. T. Barnum opened his "Greatest Show on Earth" in New York. He was Adam Forepaugh, a Civil war horse trader.

DERRICK SHADOWS

A talp caused the first world panic in 1835. There were no wars to begin or end it, and there were no officials to blame, and Wall Street was not!

It all began over the crazy for tulip bulbs, which was so great that an acute shortage resulted. Prices began mounting, merchants and the clergy frantically began exchange business, with bulbs being bought and sold in paper... a forerunner of stock speculators today.

And suddenly everybody became rich. Everything went for money to invest in bulbs. Men sold their homes, their personal belongings... their souls. One day a few men became skeptical and cashed in... and the crash was on!

Now that was back when men were simple and uneducated in financial business. No wonder they pulled the skies down around their very ears. All historians have said so, and confidentially believed they knew what they were talking about.

Periodically there have been other little business worries. 1720 boomed the first stock market... a silly little prelude to the depression which hit 200 years later... hit you and me. Which is enough on painful panics.

Glimpse-glances: Our intended cry of "Help-Wolf-Drought" is cut off before we got started, almost. Thanks for the rain. It means dollars and cents, which has reached the novelty stage... Ann Harding's experience with the sailboat and sharks sounds good, but dangerous. The thing about it being there were no paying cameras to click out the thrills and no recording directors to back-slap and yell "Well done!"

Horace Mann, born May 4, 1796, laid the foundation for America's common school system and organized the first normal school... Browning must have known something of the trials of depression when he wrote, "When the fight begins within himself, a man's worth something."

Young authors have a chance now. "First Short Stories," a magazine published for inexperienced writers only, will come off the press with its first issue in September.

The magazine hopes to encourage youthful souls who aspire to literary futures, and find all other outlets to the world closed or monopolized by professionals. It is to be published in Seattle, Wash.

Texas officials still go about seizing liquor here and there. Enough to hold their jobs, anyhow. Proud men of the law, they flash badges before the dazed eyes of law-evaders and haul in their livelihood. Which makes a good story and often isn't as easy a job as it might be.

received scant notice in the general press of the world. It is certain, all the same, to have a profound effect on the labor struggle everywhere.

If the social-democratic party of Germany and labor organizations elsewhere accept the communist invitation to form a united front, it will mean in effect an "armistice" in the bitter struggle between communists and socialists.

Mrs. H. A. Charles would be quite unhappy and discontented.

But the little blue-eyed lady is smiling now, for after four years of estrangement from citizenship because of a law revision, she is again an American citizen, and able to vote.

She had voted at all elections for many years until four years ago. The citizenship ruling which deprived her of her citizenship also deprived her the right to a passport when she wished to visit a sister in Denmark.

A widow since 1908, she saw all her savings—the result of painstaking needlework—vanish when a bank closed. But she believes her troubles are now at an end. For the new deal has resulted in naturalization for her.

Active, energetic children... forever on the go. They agree on Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes. Always crisp and full of flavor. Delicious with healthful milk or cream.

The flavor of PEP is famous. Toasted wheat is easy to digest. Nourishing. Plus enough bran to be mildly laxative.

Buy these better bran flakes from your grocer. Enjoy PEP often. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
