Validity of Lotief Utility Bill Been Questioned

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE with BILL MAYES

We have lots of golfing news today, all of which can be covered in a few lines, or at least in a few short paragraphs. Starting nearest to home and working out over the state it runs something like this:

The matches in the Oil Belt Golf association schedule, which were to be played Sunday, May 21, but which were postponed on account of the third annual invitation golf tournament of the Ranger Country club, are to be played this Sunday, May 28, according to a letter received by C. D. Hartnett from B. M. Brown, secretary-treasurer of the association. The letter states that it is important that these matches be played Sunday if it is at all possible since some of the clubs are getting behind in their schedule. The matches to be played are Thurler at Mineral Wells and Ranger at Breckenridge. Eastland will remain idle over the weekend.

James Phillips, West Texas Golf association champion for 1932 and 1933 winner of the Ranger Country club tournament, is still playing a good brand of golf down at Houston, defeating two of the first bracket players Thursday to go into the quarter-finals. He is still in the running with Gus Moreland and unless Gus improves some on the brand of golf he played part of the time yesterday, there is a good chance that Jimmie may defeat him, if the two get to be met before one or the other is eliminated.

Then, from Cleburne, comes a copy of the program for the fifth annual invitation golf tournament of the Cleburne Country club. The tourney is to be held on the club's course June 18, 19, 20 and 21. Sunday and Monday 18 holes of qualifying round, medal play, will be staged. Tuesday will see the first round matches and the semi-finals and consolation matches will be played in the morning with the finals Tuesday afternoon, June 21. Trophies will be awarded for low medalist, winner of each flight, runner up of each flight and winner of consolation in each flight. The entrance fee is $2.00. The Cleburne course is 6,354 yards, with all grass greens and is said to be a good one.

Sunday the Ranger ball club will go to the park for the second game of the season. Last Sunday the local club won from Olden by a score of 6 to 3. Tuesday they played a practice game with Strawn, getting little more than practice while Strawn was winning 2 to 1. The Strawn club is reported to be the best played to date by the local and even so only nosed them out in the last of the ninth.

Last Sunday's results were Ranger 6, Olden 3; Albany 12, Breckenridge 10; Harpersville 3, Leray 1; Sedwick 10, Morgan 9. Everyone is cordially invited to drive out to Leray Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and taken in the game. It is to be free and a good crowd is expected as the largest crowd to see a Ranger ball game in many a year was on Sunday to see the game with Olden.

Monday, May 29, trucks from the Methodist orphanage at Waco is to make this section of the country, picking up food and supplies for the 400 children in the home.

Canned goods, meat, lard, eggs, livestock of all kinds, chickens, good clothes or materials for making clothes or anything else that can be used around the home will be acceptable. The truck will leave Waco, stopping at Deadmona, Ranger, Caddo, Breckenridge, Eastland, Olden, Cisco, Rising Star, Gorman, De Leon and Dublin, before returning to the home at Waco.

S. P. Boon and Mrs. Leslie Hagaman have charge of the contributions from the people of Ranger and anyone who has something they can give to the home can get in touch with either of them and they will see that it gets on the truck when it comes thru here.

Similar arrangements are being made at the other stops along the way and it is expected that the trucks will be heavily loaded before it begins its homeward journey.

AMENDMENTS ARE FAVORED BY COMMITTEE

AUSTIN, Texas, May 26.—The house committee on constitutional amendments today reported favorably on two more proposed changes.

It approved the proposal that impeachment shall not bar an official from holding an office to which he may be elected later. This would permit former Governor James E. Ferguson to again hold state office. He will be unable to run in the next election, however, for the committee changed the date of the proposed referendum from Aug. 26 of this year to Nov. 5, 1934.

The committee also approved a vote in November, 1934, on a state tax levy of three cents on $100 valuation for payment of old age pensions.

Missing Cadet

Widespread search was launched for Cadet John S. Conner, above, after he vanished mysteriously from the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., only three weeks before he was to have received his commission. Conner, 23, a model student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Conner of Medford, Ore.

WILLOWS WILL BE OPENED AT 7:15 TONIGHT

The official opening of the Willows will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, with a preliminary program, including contests beginning at 7:15, it was announced today by the swimming pool committee of the Lions club.

At 7:15 the pool will be opened to all under 16 years of age and contests will be staged. One of the contests will consist of a frog-catching event, in which frogs will be put into the pool. Winner of first place will receive a $1 book of tickets good for a swim and winner of second place will get a 50-cent book.

In addition to the contests, a handful of money is to be thrown into the water and those who manage to get any of it can keep it. The short speaking program will be furnished by the president of the Lions club will make the third talk.

The speaking program will be short in order that the official opening may be short and everyone have time to enjoy a swim.

Music for the occasion is to be furnished by the Bundick Advertising company broadcasting system, which will also be used by the speakers.

REPEAL GOLD ACT IS URGED BY ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Acting on White House orders, Chairman Steagall of the House Banking committee, today introduced a resolution to repeal the gold standard act of the United States.

This action, he said, definitely takes the United States off the gold basis for its currency.

In addition the resolution would make federal currency of all kinds legal tender for public and private debts.

"This means that one thing," Steagall said. "The United States has declared its independence of gold." He asserted flatly that he was acting on personal orders from President Roosevelt.

Scans Record Of Mellon Tax

DAVID A. OLSON, above, author of income tax charges against former Treasury Secretary Andrew W. Mellon, is in Pittsburgh scanning public records of Mellon-controlled corporations. Olson is a former Senate Banking committee employe.

ICKES URGES FEDERAL OIL CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Federal control of the nation's oil output is necessary if the industry is to be preserved, Secretary of Interior Ickes testified today in urging inclusion of the Marland bill in the administration's public works and industrial control program.

The petroleum control bill, in its present form, would set up an administrator, who, after consulting representatives of the various oil producing states, would have the power to regulate oil production in the United States, limit foreign imports and regulate hours of work and wages in the oil fields.

SUB-COMMITTEE GETS MEASURE AFTER DEBATE

AUSTIN, May 26.—Validity of the bill by Representative Cecil Lotief of Cross Plains to prevent utilities wrecking municipal or competing plants by rate cuts was studied by a sub-committee of the senate committee on state affairs today.

After arguing the bill until near midnight the committee shifted it to the smaller group today.

Provisions of the bill calling for charter forfeiture for actions to prevent competition, would keep a utility from extending service lines or making a lower rate in co-operation with municipal governments, utility attorneys claimed.

Eastland and Cisco gas rates and San Angelo and Spur electric rates were aired in connection with charges that the variations are unjust. Roy C. Coffee of the Lone Star Gas company asserted that a sliding scale in Cisco makes its rate nearly the same as Eastland's.

Representative O. F. Chastain of Eastland told the committee he had been unable to get an answer to why Texas gas delivered at the gate of Texas cities costs 50 cents a thousand cubic feet, while the same gas, transported to Chicago is delivered for half that amount.

Trucks Will Pick Up Supplies For Orphanage Mon.

Rev. Gid J. Bryan, pastor of the First Methodist church, today called attention to the fact that trucks from the Methodist Orphanage at Waco would be in Ranger Monday, May 29, to pick up supplies for the 400 children in the home. These supplies are to be collected by the local church and will be ready for the truck which comes to Ranger.

In speaking of the work for the home, Rev. Bryan issued the following statement today:

"These trucks will be in Ranger Monday morning, May 29, and can carry anything which can be used in our own homes. This is an opportunity for us to help in this great work even if we are not able to give money to carry on the Orphanage.

"They can use canned goods and Eastland County people put up many thousands of cans. They can use flour, sugar. They need crates of eggs, chickens, lard.

"They need syrup. If the syrup is good and cans are too battered to sell, they can use them.

"They can use good clothing, or material for making clothes.

"They can use sheep or goats or calves. They need grain for feed.

"This week, bring your gifts to the Ranger Dry Cleaners and they will be taken care of. But Monday morning bring your gifts to the Methodist church where the trucks will come from Waco, and load up the goods.

"Please see Mr. S. P. Boon or Mrs. Leslie Hagaman and let them know how much you will bring at once."

Bill to Abolish 88th Court Is Passed in House

A bill abolishing the 88th District Court was passed in the House of Representatives according to reports received in Eastland. This bill was reported favorably from the committee on Judicial Districts a week ago and was passed finally by the House Thursday.

Information from a member of the House Thursday night was to the effect that the bill was amended, after it reached the House, so as to make the law effective on January 1, 1937. This would be at the expiration of Judge E. W. Patterson's term of office. The bill has not been considered by the Senate.

MORGAN PROBE CONTROVERSY FLARES TODAY

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, today interrupted the senate investigation of J. P. Morgan & Co. to insist on employment of Ferdinand Pecora as committee counsel never had been authorized by the committee in charge of the inquiry.

There was a sudden flareup with the aged Virginia pounding the table in complaint.

Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, backed Pecora to the limit and insisted that Chairman Fletcher rule whether his line of inquiry into the Morgan & Co. financing methods was within the limit of the authority conferred by the senate.

Warners in the powerful House of Morgan, who have seen secrets of their financial empire spread to the world in three days of startling testimony, won a point today.

The investigating committee, in secret session, decided not to reveal the names of partners who have borrowed from the Morgan firm.

Capitol Hill echoed today with a demand that Secretary of the Treasury William H. Woodin resign as word circulated that he was on all five lists of "friends" whom J. P. Morgan & Co. invited to buy securities at bargain prices.

Woodin has on both lists disclosure thus far in the senate investigation. Three more lists awaited later publication.

The committee recessed at 1:25 today until 10 a. m. next Wednesday.

D. Joseph and Family to Visit In Old Country

Mr. and Mrs. D. Joseph and their three children, Billy, Jean, Azette and Fred, will leave early Sunday morning for a visit of several months in Syria.

They will leave by bus Sunday, going to Chicago, where they will spend a few days visiting the World's Fair and from there will go to New York, where they will visit for a day or two.

On June 6 they will sail from New York on the S. S. Byron, arriving at Boston the following day. From Boston they will go to Punta Delgada, where they will arrive June 13. The next stop on the journey will be at Lisbon, June 16. They will stop at Piraeus June 21 and will be at Beirut on June 24.

They will visit relatives and friends at Beyrou, Mr. Joseph's former home, which is about 12 miles from Beirut and in the former home of Mrs. Joseph, which is about five miles from Beyrou.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph plan to be gone until the early part of September, when they will return to their home in Ranger.

Joseph has made to his former home since 1923, when he was married, and will be the first time Mrs. Joseph has been home since her marriage. As the three children were born here it will be their first trip abroad.

Phillips Loses To Moreland Today in Semi-Final Play

HOUSTON, May 26.—Gus Moreland of Dallas advanced to the semi-finals of the Texas Golf Association tournament at Houston today by defeating James Phillips of Ranger 2-up.

The defending champion took a four-up lead on the first six holes. Phillips won the seventh, eighth and ninth holes to reduce the lead to one-up and they rounded the turn, each with a medal 29. The lead see-sawed on the incoming nine holes Moreland finally winning.

A. Neill, president and C. D. Hartnett, secretary of the Ranger Country club, today urged as many of the Ranger golfers as possible to go to Breckenridge club. This is the match originally scheduled for Sunday, May 21, but which was postponed on account of the club tournament.

While Ranger in meeting Breckenridge, Thurler will be playing at Mineral Wells, while Eastland will remain idle.

At least 20 players will be needed, the club officials announced today, and everyone who can possibly do so is urged to make the trip to Breckenridge and enter the play. This is important, they said, because of the fact that the club is already getting behind in its schedule and any more postponed games would make it almost impossible to re-arrange the schedule so that all games might be played.

Eastland Bond Hearing Is Set For Saturday

The hearing set for today in Federal Judge James C. Wilson's court at Fort Worth in the case of the Security Benefit Association's injunction against the city of Eastland, was postponed until Saturday at 10:00 a. m., because of the three judge oil hearing that was in progress.

The Security Benefit Association secured a temporary injunction in Judge Wilson's court at Abilene restraining the city of Eastland from withdrawing any portion of a $20,000 sinking fund out of the bank, claiming the city was owing at $3,000.

Gov. Henry H. Blood was returning from Wyoming, Secretary of State Milton H. Welling, next in line, was leaving for Arizona. President of the Senate J. Francis Fowler, the third choice, was returning from Idaho.

The boundary crossings all happened at about the same time, but all three were not absent at once with the result that Utah had three governors in about as many minutes.

Illinois Votes On Repeal June 1st

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Prohibition, the filling of 70 importation, including five on the state supreme court bench, are important issues which will face Illinois voters in statewide judicial elections June 5.

Prohibition is involved through the election of 50 delegates to a state convention to be held July 10 for the purpose of acting on ratification of congressional repeal of the 18th Amendment.

The battle over election of delegates is the first real test of wet and dry strength in Illinois for years, although it is not to referendums held in recent years, wherein the electorate voted overwhelmingly for repeal, as concrete evidence that Illinois soon will be among the first states to ratify repeal.

Candidates seeking election are placed first on the ballot and the fifty with the highest vote will be declared elected.

Tire Dealer Makes Clothes for Family

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—B. Frank Millon, hard-handed, tobacco-chewing Oklahoma City tire dealer, is an expert "seamstress" and makes most of the dresses his wife and daughters wear.

He spends his days directing eight service station employees and comes home at night to indulge in his hobby of sewing, developed when he was a youth in Denton, Texas. He is of middle age, with thinning hair.

Millon's mother kept him indoors when he was quite small because of a bad neighbor boy, and he took up sewing to pass the time. By the time he was in high school, playing football and quite able to take care of himself, he also had learned designing.

Now he has a specially equipped sewing room in his home, where he spends his evenings. His 17-year-old daughter, Myrtle, has worn few dresses her father did not make.

Millon's work is fine enough to satisfy the most exacting girl graduate. He has tried his hand at times on hats and Mrs. Millon has worn several of his creations.

Burnett Given Verdict In 88th

The jury in the 88th district court returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff Friday morning in the case of R. G. Burnette vs. the Texas Employer's Insurance association. All issues were answered in favor of Burnette which gives him the compensation claimed in his suit.

Burnette was injured while working for the Texas Gas Engine & Tool Shop of Eastland. His claim was that the door of the furnace was opened when he was working in front of it, causing him to inhale the fumes and flames of the gas fire, which resulted in a tubercular condition, rendering him unable to work. The suit was to force the insurance company to pay the compensation due him under the policy carried by his employer.

AS WET AS THE ATLANTIC OCEAN

After the adoption of the 18th amendment Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey declared that he would make New Jersey "as wet as the Atlantic ocean."

He was a prominent churchman, a very successful banker and a man of affairs. Later he served a term of six years in the American senate. Well, New Jersey must be "nearly as wet as the Atlantic ocean." This is demonstrated by a stat-wide election of delegates to a convention called for the purpose of repealing the 18th amendment. Sixty-four wet delegates-at-large were elected by huge majorities. As for the district delegates, 157 delegates at the convention are repealers of the thorough-going kind.

This former governor and former senator has passed out of the living picture. He made good his boast while he was in the land of the living.

Of course, the ever historic letter of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., turned loose less than a year ago was the most complete knockout blow given to "the noble experiment." Rockefeller, for many generations, had been the aggressive champion of a dry America. They contributed large sums of money to the cause. Then like a bolt out of the heavens came the public declaration of the younger Rockefeller that the 18th amendment had been a complete failure and that it was the duty of American citizens to repeal the amendment and experiment along other lines.

TEXAS FARMERS ARE REMINDED

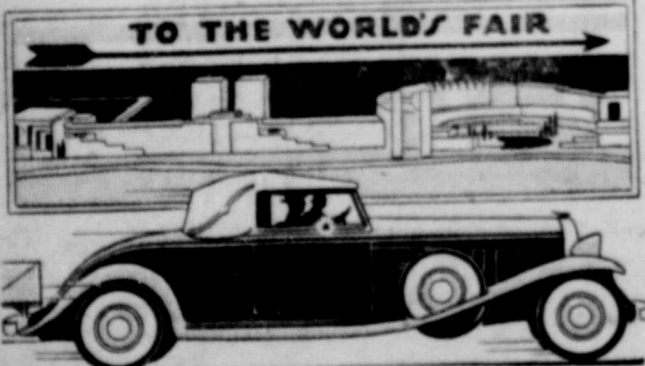

Texas farmers and the farmers of all other commonwealths are reminded by Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture to expect a long and tedious wait before farm relief bill provisions will produce important results. There are no magicians on earth today. Wreckers of the economic structure worked for years and years before the crash came.

Well, the new builders of the nation who are pushing the new deal program have a long, long fight ahead of them. As State Banking Commissioner Shaw aid at Mineral Wells, addressing state bankers: "We have been in a general liquidation condition for nearly four years now, during which time businesses of all kinds have been taking their losses and I believe we're nearer, at this time, to a solid foundation than many of us realize. We must push on and on and not let our flag trail in the dust of fear or despair." There is ever the ancient pioneer road to take. It is for those who are now on earth to work their way out—to take the trail that leads to the top of the mountain.

"TRUCE ON TARIFFS ALL OFF AGAIN"

President Roosevelt planned an international tariff conference. His plan won the approval of many of the leading nations of the earth. Well, it is all off again. Germany needs more time for study."

Very smooth and very wise and very tricky these old world diplomats of trade and territory lost and commerce and war loans and war debts problems. They hoodwinked Woodrow Wilson, a very wise man. They should not be able to hoodwink Franklin D. Roosevelt, in many ways a wiser statesman than his lamented predecessor, as well as a man who knows the tricks of world diplomacy as practiced for the ages by thoroughly trained European past grand masters of the art."

Chanayata Group Camp Fire Girls
The Chanayata Group of Camp Fire Girls with their guardian, Mrs. W. P. Palm, met Thursday afternoon in the Camp Fire clubhouse, on the Ed T. Cox residence grounds, and planned their part in the Decoration Day observance, for which Dr. H. B. Tanner, is chairman.

Announcement is made that the three Camp Fire Groups, the Chanayata, Taihi and Nettopov, will meet at the Methodist church next Tuesday morning, Decoration Day, at 9:30 o'clock, and go in a body to the cemetery, where they will place flowers on those graves of soldiers, which have been previously marked with flags by Ed T. Cox, Sr.

The group will then go to the Soldier's Memorial Fountain on the Northwest corner of the courthouse square, and conduct a brief ceremony at 11:00 a. m., during which they will sing two national hymns, and will then place the wreath of the Civic League, through Mrs. Bula B. Connelley, of Memorial Fountain committee, over the shaft of the monument.

The Camp Fire Girls will then journey to Lake Eastland, and at 3:00 p. m., during the program dedicated to dead sailors, will drop flowers over the bridge on the face of the water in memory of these sailors.

Other business planned by the Chanayata, included a candy sale, on Wednesday morning, when Edith Meek, June Johnson, Eleanor Ruth Ferguson, Carolyn Cox, Carolyn Doss, Clara June Kimble and Elva Lee Jones, will canvass the residence section with their sweet wares.

On Thursday they will begin collecting materials for a Rummage Sale and they ask their friends to have their donations ready when they call at their homes.

Date of sale will be announced later.

The Chanayata Group has entered upon a worth while venture, in their plans to take care of little children, for those mothers who are out in the afternoon or evening.

Anyone wishing to have this care taken, is requested to phone Eleanor Ruth Ferguson, 524, residence 609 South Walnut street.

The club adjourned to meet next Thursday at 4:00 p. m., at their clubhouse.

Indorsed, the house was gaily decorated with many lovely flowers, and the dining room table, lace laid, stood under a canopy of pink and green streamers, among which floated gay balloons in all hues, bobbing about the table, and later in afternoon were presented the children as souvenirs of the party.

The birthday cake, white iced, topped with pink and white tapers, in candy flower holders, held the place of honor in the center of the table, and when cut by Lois, was served with delicious ice cream to Ella Mae Geue, Mary Joe Collie, Betty Mae Jones, D. L. Kinnaird, Jr., David Owen, Lois Larner, Marilyn Larner and Edna Clarke. Delightful Cinderella Slipper games had the prize, a box of jumbos, awarded Ellen Mae Geue.

Adams Controversy Leads To Political Tangles Over Texas

By United Press
AUSTIN—Penetrating the mass of surface maneuvers in connection with the retention of reprimanded J. C. Adams of Dallas as the Texas member of the national democratic executive committee, the moves seems to have been:

State Democratic Chairman Maury Hughes seems to have peevish Adams some months ago by announcing that Texas patronage would have to get the o. k. of the state democratic committee.

When Adams decided to resign and accept a federal appointment, news he was quitting got to James E. Ferguson at Austin quicker than it got to Hughes in Dallas.

By the time it was reached Hughes, who greatly desired to become national committeeman, Ferguson had pledged most of the state committee to vote for C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls and the East Texas oil field.

Hughes, caught napping at the start, out-generalled Ferguson and not the wit of Party Chief Jim Farley. Result, Adams' resignation was refused. Vice President Garner seems to have been an innocent bystander.

The whole thing leaves a stalemate with Ferguson and Hughes, who was an enthusiastic Ferguson supporter, at loggerheads.

Incidentally word filters into Austin that endorsement of the two Texas senators is not going to have much weight in the future in regard to federal appointments in Texas. Neither has been a consistent supporter of the president's policies. Farley apparently thinks a little discipline would do their party loyalty good.

Foxy Farley has also announced that the republicans are not going to be over-don in mass to join the army of the unemployed.

Farley may not have been thinking the places they vacate are filled, the administration which has lost its exchequer. By stretching out the appointments over an indefinite period, he keeps the whip-hand.

Singing Colored Fountain At The World's Fair

When the World's Fair opens in Chicago Saturday, May 27, visitors will see and hear one of the Fair's greatest marvels—the Firestone Singing Color Fountain, in the gardens surrounding the Firestone factory and exhibition building.

This gorgeous spectacle is the only one of its kind in the world. It presents in marvelous beauty a perfect harmony of music, ever-ty water, the diamond-like spray that shoots twenty feet in the air—all in tune with music. The ever-changing shots of colors, and the varying velocity of the water, are in complete tune with the music that will fill the air from immense radio speakers hidden within the walls of the building.

Concerts will be given daily and will include the highest type of vocal and instrumental music.

The Firestone Singing Color Fountain must be seen and heard to be fully appreciated.

The Firestone factory and exhibition building is one of the main attractions of the World's Fair, situated on the highest point of the Fairgrounds, midway between the Administration Building and the Travel and Transport Building, immediately across 23rd Street overhead bridge.

The building contains a complete tire factory, showing every step in the manufacture of tires, and many unique and interesting dynamic displays of an educational nature.

Everyone is cordially invited to make the Firestone factory and exhibition building their headquarters during their visit to the World's Fair.

CHANGING COLOR COMBINATIONS AND VARIATIONS IN THE RISE AND FALL OF THE BEAUTIFUL MYSTIC FOUNTAIN.

This scientific engineering achievement is the result of years of work by some of the world's greatest electrical engineers and scientists.

This magnificent Singing Color Fountain is situated in front of the ultra-modern and attractive Firestone factory and exhibition building in the center of the spacious garden, surrounded by trees, shrubs and beautiful flowers. The great pool is 100 feet long and 15 feet wide, out of which rise the many dome-shaped mystic fountains, the powerful light rays of varying hues penetrating the mist.

'The Match King' A Big Sensation
Seldom has the screen offered a more dramatic subject than "The Match King," played by Warren Williams, and never has an actor had a "fatter" part than the title role. Out of this real life world-catastrophe, Author Theobald and Adapter Houston Branch and Sidney Sutherland have concocted an intensely dramatic screen play.

"The Match King" is the story of a man whose power and ambition raised him from a Chicago street-sweeper to a world financial power atop a pyramid of credit, built on the ruins of other lives. It is the tale of a financial juggernaut which once started could not be stopped until it brought the financial world crashing down about its creator's ears. It is the story of a man who was as ruthless in love as in finance but who learned, to his sorrow, that a reckoning was inevitable in either.

Warren Williams, whose work in "The Mouthpiece" and "The Dark Horse" made him one of the most popular bright lights among the newer stars, plays the title role. Lili Damita, petite and intriguing, is equally vital to the story as the one unattainable objective in the "Match King's" life.

"The Match King" plays here today at the Arvada theatre.

PARIS STYLES

By MARY KNIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS.—Vera Borea shows a fertile crop of initiative with novel ideas in full bloom on the vine of her Little Peasants collection. She tells you herself what she considers important, and because nothing can reach a satisfactory climax without concentration upon the details, she begins by telling you just what the details are:

"In ornaments I am launching a new Horn of Plenty and four-leaf clovers in crystal and ivory." Let's hope that they contain all the efficacious charm of their counterparts in the growing field!

"Incrustations of treet in all packets give the necessary ease for sports. There are trimmings of fine pleated linen and scarves of flit. The coats definitely belong to the dresses which they complete, and they are very open, without sleeves, without collars, and sometimes even the back is replaced by wide crossed suspenders. A striking tailor-suit uses two tones of stone-gray."

—OLD FAMILY IS Painted Eyelids Are Latest Paris Style

By United Press
PARIS.—Beauty experts have another trick for the fashion-conscious woman.

Eyelids now are to be painted to match fingernails and toenails. Green and blue are the favorite colors for the younger generation while black, gold and silver are favored by titian and silver-haired matrons.

The paint of the eyelids also is added to the lashes, and now and then, for an extra bizarre effect, to the eyebrows as well. It is not but very deftly, so that a "close-up" view while dining or dancing is not obnoxious. Distance, it must be confessed lends enchantment, but when skillfully applied the new painted eyelids and lashes are quite artistic.

WAR WAGED ON GOPHERS
By United Press

MISSOULA, Mont.—Earl Yonkers, Corvallis rancher, has adopted modern warfare methods in his battle to rid his farm of gophers.

Yonkers reported complete success in exterminating the pests by setting a rubber tube into gopher holes, attaching the tube to the exhaust pipe of his automobile. Carbon monoxide gas kills the animals.

WOODY WINDHAM TO FIGHT AGAIN MONDAY AT ELKS CLUB

Woody Windham of Anson, Texas, will box at the Elks arena here next Monday night. Windham's opponent will be Frankie Hronok, the junior lightweight champion of Mexico.

Windham showed fans of this section at last week's matches that he was more capable than they had believed was possible. Windham outboxed and outfought Ralph Pancke the first three rounds of the bout last week and lost the match on a foul in the latter part of the third. Pancke did not look as well against Windham as fans supposed and was in bad condition during the entire fight.

Windham will be outweighed when he meets Costello by two pounds. Costello has had several fights in San Antonio the last month and reports from that section indicate that Windham will have a better man to whip than Pancke when he fights Frankie.

TO THE BOATS, MEN!

Race drivers at Indianapolis are considering fitting paddles to their cars for the 500-mile classic Memorial Day. The reason is shown. Floods recently covered the track, and Ernie Triplett, front and rear drive mount for a circle of the track.

Windham will weigh 130 pounds and Costello 132 pounds.

Frankie has an aggressive style of fighting that will be hard for Windham to handle. Windham's system of leading the fight to the other man and Frankie's aggressiveness should result in one of the best bouts to be given by the club.

Two main events of wrestling will be on the card with the fight next Monday. The Elks are showing their appreciation of the attendance here by offering excellent cards each week.

Old Bondsmen Are Recalled

CLEVELAND, O.—Recent revival of Bohemian music in Cleveland has brought to mind the famed bandmasters who made Croton Street, old Bohemian social center of the city, the musical center of Cleveland.

Old-timers talk about Frank Hronok, Vaclav Mudra, John Zamecnik and John Hronok. These were household names among the early Bohemian settlers here as much as Sousa was among the Americans.

Hronok is the sole survivor of that famed group of bandmasters. He is 68 now, and still is active in Czech musical circles. He plays a baritone horn.

Hronok's Marine Band played at the Chicago World's Fair in 1893. His sons now are playing with orchestras in Cleveland theaters.

Hronok, founder of the famous Hronok musical family, led the Great Western Band; Zamecnik was master of the Light Artillery Band; Mudra led the Cleveland Grays.

These band leaders vied with each other for musical honors in the old days. They had plenty of opportunity to do so, for scarcely a Sunday passed without a flag blessing ceremony in St. Vaclav's Church, and a Sunday afternoon was not complete without three or four parades.

Canadian Promoters Consider Formation of Pro Grid Body

MONTREAL, Can.—Leo Dandurand and his partner, Joe Cattarinch, owners of the Canadian hockey club in the National Hockey League, as well as many racing interests, who generally are regarded as Canada's foremost interested in a plan to place a professional football team in Montreal.

In an interview, Dandurand outlined the scheme and reviewed the developments of the past few months.

Early this spring the Canadian hockey club heads were approached by Hugo Quist, manager of Paavo Nurmi, Finnish runner. Quist had a plan to organize a Canadian professional football league along the same lines as Sunday football is operated in the United States. When the scheme was once gone over carefully it was found that this was out of the question, since in Toronto Ottawa and Hamilton—fortresses of college and amateur league football—it would be impossible to play on Sundays owing to "blue laws" in the Province of Ontario. Moreover, it was agreed that it would be foolhardy to attempt to enter competition with Canadian college and amateur league football on Sundays.

The latest plan is for Montreal to seek affiliation with the eastern division of the American professional football league. Frank Eshburnessy, general manager of the Montreal baseball club, and leading authority on football in Canada, would be engaged in a coaching advisory capacity.

The entire plan is, however, tentative and no tangible organization has been attempted as yet. Pressure of their racing activities kept the promoters busy during recent weeks, but by mid-summer the structure of the plan for inaugurating professional football in Montreal should take definite form.

Scene Shifts In Hunt For Pirates Cache of Gold

By United Press

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The century-old quest for buried pirate gold around the mouth of the Mississippi River will shift to Cat Island, just off the Louisiana coast in the Gulf of Mexico, as the result of recent discoveries by two engineers.

Search for the pirate booty of the early part of the 19th Century, previously had centered about Grand Isle, 15 miles to the east of Bayou LaFourche. Cat Island, which is not indicated on any modern map, is 15 miles to the west of the bayou.

New light was shed on the pirates when Frank C. Waddill, New Orleans engineer and member of the Louisiana Historical Society, found an old map, while doing some research work in a New Iberia lawsuit. The map indicated Cat Island as the "position of the pirates." On its face also was written, near Grand Isle, "the former position of the pirates."

Waddill's discovery was substantiated by another made by Walter Y. Kemper, Franklin, La., engineer, who worked with Waddill on the New Iberia case. Kemper, while in the U. S. Land Office in Washington, discovered a letter dated March 17, 1814, written to a Louisiana landowner by an employee of the land office.

It read in part: "I had contemplated the immediate survey of valuable public lands and islands of the west coast from the Mississippi, but unsafe because of an overgrown piratical banditti. They have fortified themselves on one of the islands and suffer none to approach them."

"The party of 500 men. They are fortified on Cat Island and have five or six armed vessels carrying 12 or 14 guns and 20 to 30 men each."

Salt Lake City Cop Herds Sheep

By United Press

SALT LAKE CITY, U.—A. J. Murphy doesn't like to be called a sheepherder, and yet it is his job as a city patrolman to herd sheep.

Murphy is the only remaining member of this city's mounted police detail and for 17 years he patrolled, on his horse, the sheep trail along the south and east side of the city.

The trail is used by sheep moving from the desert, their winter grazing ground, to the mountains. The movement continues from early May until July. On some days 3,000 sheep pass over the trail.

"Not a lawbreaker in the lot," said Policeman Murphy.

Puts the Jinx on Body Odor!

Science Says Good-Bye to Medicine-Smelling Soaps!

Science has made a new discovery about body odor. It is caused by stale perspiration curds, and requires deep pore cleansing. It cannot be done by ordinary soaps, because their sluggish lathers cannot reach into the pores and cleanse them. Instead the soap combines with the waste material and forms clogging curds!

Kirk's Coco Castle soap works in an entirely different way. No matter how hard the water, this 100% pure vegetable oil soap breaks instantly into a searching, bubbly lather. This bubbly lather cleans deep into the pores, actually removes the embedded stale perspiration curds—then rinses out completely, and in a flash. Thus it ends body odor at its source!

Delightful to use, Kirk's Coco Castle is entirely free from M. S. (medicine smell). And stimulating to the skin. A big generous cake, half again larger than the average toilet soap, and now at the lowest price in history! At this new reduced price, it is America's outstanding soap bargain. Be sure to ask for Kirk's Castle by name—at your grocer's.

Should the children EAT IT?

PARENTS, particularly mothers, are paying a lot of attention to children's diet these days. For it is far more economical and pleasant to keep a child well by feeding him correctly than by nursing and doctoring him back to health.

Of course in case of doubt the doctor should be consulted regarding what a child should eat and what he should not eat. But do you realize that the leading manufacturers of food now seek the advice and approval of the leading nutritional authorities in the country, relative to the claims they make for their products in their advertising?

In other words, food advertisements are reliable sources of information regarding diet. They are based upon the results of the latest approved scientific discoveries about vitamins, minerals and roughage, in relation to vigorous bodies, clear complexions, sound teeth and properly regulated systems.

So read these advertisements carefully. Consult your doctor about them. Very often the advertiser invites you to do this because he has asked authorities, whom your doctor respects, about statements made in those advertisements.

DERRICK SHADOWS

By V. MARIE STEPHENS

Mail and bus lines are telling us too expensive to stay at home. This well directed appeal, most of us are beginning to believe we can live at a lower rate than we can operate our own homes... if we can do either.

Go to Chicago... see world celebrities running hither and you about the fair grounds... have something to talk about all next winter.

How about California? Dip in the ocean... mingle with screen stars... find your own level and burn home with many auto-enthusiasms and a shell or two.

See Florida... get your tan skin crawling distance of a palm tree... fill your soul with joy.

Take a quick trip to Alabama... see the mammy croon... enjoy southern hospitality... hear the true to the native land.

So say the posters, and pamphlets and ads. And most of us will find our last nickels to do the thing of these silent but urgent sides of fashion.

And while we rush away in order to cut our life budgets, Chicago and California and Florida and Alabama will be burning up highways getting to Texas to the plains and buffaloes and to the mountains and Mexicans.

It really doesn't matter what part of the United States you get to, it's just a little bit further around the corner... we can't afford to live at home.

From St. Louis comes the news: Alexander A. Selkirk, 79, died today. Now who the man or what he ever did or why he did we do not wonder... but...

The fact that he was a direct descendant of Robinson Crusoe brings him to our attention, and informs him into something of a hero.

The book, Robinson Crusoe, published in 1719 by Daniel Defoe is usually considered as the first English novel... and has never lost its popularity.

Arcadia Saturday

It is based upon the adventures of Alexander Selkirk, who was shipwrecked and cast upon the island of Juan Fernandez. It has served as a model for stories of adventure throughout the years.

Reads the Selkirk monument, fully explaining its own presence: "In memory of Alexander Selkirk, mariner. A native of Largo, in the country of Fife, Scotland, who lived on this island in complete solitude, for four years and four months."

"He was landed from the Cinque Ports galley, 96 tons, 16 guns, A. D. 1704, and was taken off in the Duke, privateer, 12th Feb. 1709. He died lieutenant of H. M. S. Weymouth, A. D. 1722, aged 47 years."

"This tablet is erected near Selkirk's lookout by Commodore Powell and the officers of H. M. S. Topaze, A. D. 1868."

So died the hero of every normal boy, leaving behind him a monument, a book, and a living fire in the hearts of millions. And so died his descendant, a citizen of St. Louis... An American.

Slump Claims A Famed Drug Store

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — Father Time and the depression have claimed another victim—the Lead-beater Drug Store, which has been doing business here since 1791. The old store finally has been forced to close its doors and go into bankruptcy.

Starting as a wholesale and retail house in the days when Alexandria was a thriving seaport, the store served many famous people, including Washington, Lee, and Madison.

Its ancient records, in fact, are practically the only assets of the firm. Because it never has moved from its original waterfront location, its business has dwindled until there is little left.

A plate on one of the counters marks the spot where Robert E. Lee was standing when he was called to take charge of the Confederate forces of the Civil War.

Another record numbered among the most precious possessions is a note from Martha Washington ordering a bottle of castor oil for use at Mount Vernon.

A few years ago the records of the firm found among the records a stamp issued by the Alexandria postmaster in 1840. A stamp collector soon appeared on the scene, and when he left the owner no longer had the stamp, but had $5,000 in its place.

Fugitive Racket King Captured

A 25-day search for Waxey Gordon, New York's "Public Enemy No. 1" and regarded the last of the beer barons, ended when Gordon and two bodyguards were captured in a summer cottage at North White Lake, N. Y. Gordon is under indictment, charging income tax frauds amounting to almost $400,000. Here he is shown, hand to face, a police headquarters at New York after his capture.

Canal Reveals Two Murders

PARIS.—The police here have been presented with at least two murder mysteries as a result of the emptying of the Saint-Martin Canal for repairs to the subway running beneath it.

When the canal bed was exposed, police found a fractured skull and two bodies—one was decapitated. One of a man killed by a bullet.

Other discoveries included a 17th Century sword, unexploded bombs and shells from the World War and the German bombardment in 1871, and a collection of rust-encrusted revolvers, knives and other weapons.

The Saint Martin Canal, most of which was constructed between 1802 and 1825, never before has been emptied. The two bodies and the skull were found in the tunnelled stretch of the canal.

Police are certain that the two men were murdered. The absence, however, of any distinguishing marks makes their task of identification and inquiry extremely difficult.

Woman, 76, Flew Over Her Holding

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah. — Just half a century after she was settled, as a bride on Fremont Island, in Great Salt Lake, John Scott Noble, 76, flew over the 3,000 acres of island which she still owns.

Mrs. Noble, now a resident of Seattle, Wash., made the trip to New York as a Mother's Day gift from her daughter, Blanche Wenner, a Seattle school teacher.

Fifty years ago John and Mrs. Wenner settled on the island. Judge Wenner died in 1891. Mrs. Wenner carried on alone, years operating a huge sheep ranch. At one time she didn't have another woman except her maid for two years.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Noble, after remarrying, left the island to settle in Seattle.

Wrong Factions Fighting Over Texas Wild Flower Measure

AUSTIN.—Rep. T. H. McGregor, Austin, points out that the wild flower bill recently presented in the House of Representatives resulted in those who would directly benefit opposing the bill, while those it would inhibit were its chief supporters.

The entire Houston delegation sponsored the bill. Opposition came mostly from rural members.

"I cannot understand," said McGregor, "why the country folks are opposing the bill which protects their property."

"A city-dweller goes into the country and destroys flowers and shrubs on a farmer's land and thinks nothing of it. What would he think if the farmer came to town and took his roses?"

The wild flower bill is sponsored by a half-dozen women's organizations, including the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, the Texas Federation of Garden clubs, the Outdoor Nature club and various patriotic and civic organizations.

In original form it provided a fine for picking wild flowers or cutting shrubbery without permission on the enclosed land of another person or on state park property. An amendment struck out the inhibition against flower-picking on the property of another person.

It got by its first appearance in the house with the fines reduced and the inhibition limited to unauthorized flower-picking in state parks and reservations.

Disappearance of wild flowers and native shrubs under the onslaughts of choppers and pluckers led to the offering of the bill. Most members treated it as a joke and assumed it was intended to prevent the spread of a great evil to the people's nostrils.

"Don't let our children grow up to be a race of flower-pickers," was the general tone of ridicule heaped on the measure.

Ex-Senator Made Shoes For Giant Man

BOISE, Idaho.—Elmer Newby, assistant superintendent of the state industrial school, has a friend for life in former Senator Irvin E. Rockwell.

Rockwell is reminded of that friendship every step he takes because its source lies in the senator's shoes.

A giant of a man, Rockwell always had his shoes made and was worried when his shoemaker died and his shoes wore out. Then he met Newby, a master shoemaker, who turned out a pair of shoes superior to any Rockwell had ever owned.

Uncle Charlie Visits Chicago For Another World's Fair Venture

"Gosh," granted Uncle Charlie, "that the World Fair in 1893 was a real thing; but it don't hold a candle 'sides this whopper." He looked about him at Chicago's Century of Progress and then, peacefully, down at his heavy boots which had covered several miles already. "Are you too tired to take a look here?" asked one of the newspaper reporters who had attached themselves to the old country gentleman in hopes of a good story. The journalist pointed to the imposing exhibit of the Gulf Refining company. "Tired nuthin'," bristled Uncle Charlie. "Folks back home told me I wouldn't dare to go back if I didn't. Come along."

DARLING & FOOL by MABEL McELUOTT

MONNIE could not have explained quite why she wished to avoid the magnificent Mr. Arthur Mackenzie. Surely he was all that anyone could wish in the way of a traveling companion. He was urbane, witty, wise, a man of the world with a fund of amusing tales at his tongue's end. Perhaps it was, she thought, the way he looked at her. There was something in the glance from those dark, deep shadowed eyes which reminded her of a cat getting ready to pounce. Oh, but that was nonsense! She was letting her imagination run away with itself. The dinner-frock she selected that night was one chosen with the greatest possible care when she had made a flying trip to the city to spend the money her mother had given her. It was of pale cream lace, demurely cut in front but sheared away at the back to show her lovely shoulders. It had been a bargain. One of those slim, cheap, effective frocks which the young wear so charmingly. She had been delighted on finding it but tonight she was dissatisfied with her reflection in the mirror. The glass gave back the portrait of a girl with wide starry eyes under a gleaming cap of burnished bronze hair. Monnie had, of course, no jewels to wear and her velvet wrap was an old one. Miss Anstice, in silver lame which marked her new prosperity, approved of her. "You look sweet enough to eat, my dear. The young men will be overwhelmed."

MONNIE smiled politely. Miss Anstice was kind, but she hated her own looks. They were so ingenuously unfinished. If she had only the poise, the unmatched assurance of Corinth Faneway she would be content. "More lipstick, my dear," Miss Anstice urged. "You can carry it off. It doesn't look bold. Thank heaven, I'm not so old style as my sister, Lida. She thinks every woman who uses cosmetics is on the straight road to perdition!" Miss Anstice laughed her tinkling laugh. THE dining room steward who had seated them the night before conducted them now to a large round table decorated in gaudy fashion. Arthur Mackenzie, seeming fiercer and more imposing in his dinner clothes, rose to greet them. There were half a dozen others already at table. Among them Monnie recognized only Corinth and Harris Faneway. Corinth was dazzling in a frock of scarlet. The gray-haired man next Miss Anstice was a railroad president from the west. The tall red-haired woman with the flashing eyes whom Monnie had observed walking the deck with her Sealyham was evidently an actress. Corinth Faneway said to her neighbor sharply, "I railroad your play, it was marvellous." "Did you, my dear?" The red-haired woman flashed a smile around the table. She had a deep, thrilling voice and her pearls were magnificent. Monnie thought. She was startled, therefore, by Faneway's whisper a moment later. "Woolworth's," he murmured, jerking his handsome head in the direction of the red-haired woman. Monnie could scarcely believe he had spoken, so impressive was neck off and poured the precious ointment on his head. The stillness of the room was broken by the indignant rebuke of His disciple Judas, who defrauded the people in his line of work, led them with his hypocritical remark that it should have been sold and given to the poor. Jesus, who saw her deed as it was, an act of devotion and consecration, attired them with another of His direct questions and paid her a tribute which shall last as long as time shall last. "Where so ever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial to her." Just fourteen verses yet what a wonderful story they tell. Admonition on the way of life, intrigue to kill Jesus, friendly hospitality and an act of devotion that shall live forever, and a great memorial spoken by Jesus. This great teacher and master facing the agony of Gethsemane and the cross, yet stopping to be comforted and to comfort others, is a picture not to be forgotten. Such is life with Jesus in that life; packed to the brim with acts of service in love for the master who has put signposts along the road to happiness, "Love one another;" "Be kind;" "Be tender hearted;" "Be affectionate;" "Be forgiving;" "Abide in me." These things I have spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.—John 15:11.

How the great heart of the master must have responded to this genuine kindness and love for Him. Suddenly there was an interruption. A beautiful woman entered the room holding in her hands an alabaster of ointment, identified by those in the room as the most precious ointment made from the spikenard, a plant from India and most costly. The room grew tense with stillness as she approached Jesus who was looking directly at her with His great luminous eyes filled with the beauty of kindly understanding. Slowly she raised the bottle or alabaster and broke the

Old Cow Trail To Be Scenic Road

AUSTIN, Tex.—The narrow "cow-trail" winding up the side of Mount Locke near famous old Fort Davis in Southwest Texas is to become a broad avenue for noted scientists. For at the upper extremity of this "cow-trail," 7,791 feet above sea level will be situated the W. J. McDonald Observatory, housing the world's second largest reflecting telescope. It will be several years, however, in 1938, before the observatory is finished. The observatory is to be owned and operated jointly by the University of Texas and the University of Chicago. Mount Locke was selected for the observatory after a year's search for a site by Dr. Otto Struve, of the Chicago university Yerkes observatory, who will be joint director of the McDonald and Yerkes observatories. The site for the observatory is believed to be one of the best in the United States. It is about 10 miles air-route from Fort Davis. This mountain, until recently un-named, has been designated Mount Locke to commemorate the name of G. S. Locke, Texas pioneer, founder and former owner of the UP and DOWN ranch on which the peak is located. Locke's granddaughter, Mrs. Violet Melvor, of Concord, N. H., gave 200 acres of land to the University of Texas for the observatory site.

The state has agreed to build a road from Mount Davis state park to the observatory site, about one and one-half miles. Work is to begin soon on the roadway to facilitate hauling of building material and laboratory equipment up the mountainside. More than two years will be required in making the 80-inch pyrex mirror for the telescope. Nearly a year of that will be required for polishing the surface of the mirror which must be flawless. The telescope for the W. J. McDonald observatory will be fully as powerful as the Mount Wilson reflector for the observation of faint nebulae and distant celestial bodies. It will be used primarily in the newer phases of Astronomy — Astrophysics. Astrophysics deals with the physical nature of nebulae and is distinguished from Astronomy, which treats of the motions, distances and dimensions of these bodies. W. J. McDonald, late banker of Paris, Texas, endowed the conservatory with $800,000. This amount has been increased to approximately $910,025.

He recently observed his 59th wedding anniversary and declares that he and Mrs. Van Horn have never had a serious misunderstanding. Dr. Guy Davis of San Angelo, will elect the graduation exercises.
