WRESTLER TELLS OF PAYING FOR 'PROTECTION'

EXAMINATIONS NECESSARY TO SECURE RELIEF

J. Dean, relief administrator, announced today that he had just received from county headquarters at Cisco, the effect that those on relief would have to have a physical examination by some physician before work could be received by them.

It was pointed out that under new orders the applicants for work would be placed under three classifications, those who were able to do hard work, those able to do light work and those who were not able to do any kind of work. Those in the latter class would be placed on the direct relief list, the administrator said.

Before more funds can be secured to carry on any project in this city it must be shown in a report that there are enough men physically able to do the work required before an appropriation can be secured. It will be necessary to secure this statement from the physician immediately in order that the number on the rolls to be worked could be sent in and money for projects received.

At present there is no provision for the relief administration to pay for these examinations. Mr. Dean stated, and it will be up to the applicants for relief to secure a statement from some physician. Plans have been outlined for one work in Ranger and as soon as the statements as to the physical condition of the applicants is received no applications for funds will be made out. Several communities are already receiving applications for relief work and an appointment will be made for the month to continue the work here just as soon as enough men have been identified by securing statements to their physical condition to assist the authorities that there are enough to carry out and complete work once it is started.

Junior College Game Postponed

Tricky Ward, coach of the Ranger Junior College Texas Rangers, announced today that the football game scheduled for this afternoon between the Texas Rangers and the Simmons university freshman team from Abilene, had been postponed until 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Fire Chief Urges Citizens to Have Chimneys Inspected

Fire Chief G. A. Murphy today issued a statement in which he warned those who contemplate using wood stoves or open fireplaces this winter to be sure that the stoves, fireplaces and chimneys were in serviceable condition before fires were started.

The statement was issued in order that fires from defective chimneys might be eliminated entirely, or at least cut down as much as possible.

"My attention has been called," Chief Murphy said, "to the fact that a large number of people are planning on burning wood and other material in stoves and fireplaces that have not been used for a number of years. These fires might present a fire hazard that could be easily overcome.

"If anyone is contemplating using a fireplace or stove, if they will call the fire department for an inspection will be made to see if they do not present a fire hazard. Often fireplace chimneys have cracks in them which will let fire spread into the walls of a house. We had much trouble make this inspection for property owner or occupant of a house than to be called out for a fire which might have been prevented with a few minutes earlier."

The chief stated that any fire to inspect flues or fireplaces or any heating arrangements that had not been in use some time would be answered as rapidly as possible.

PASTOR WAS SLAIN JURY VERDICT SAYS

SHREVEPORT, Nov. 3.—The Rev. E. L. Thompson, pastor of the Mt. Auburn Christian church at Dallas, died of a fractured skull and from a bullet wound, a coroner's verdict today revealed.

Two 19-year old boys, identified in the verdict as Wayne Ross and Alto Keen, are charged with murder in connection with the slaying of the pastor.

Dr. Thompson's body was found in his parked automobile near Pleasant Hill, La., about 50 miles south of here last Oct. 16. He had been missing four days.

"We find that said Dr. E. L. Thompson came to his death by being feloniously and violently struck on the head by some instrument and by being shot in the head on October 12, near Pleasant Hill, La., and that Wayne Ross and Alto Keen be charged with his murder, the verdict of the jury said.

Dr. Thompson, for 10 years a militant and vice crusading pastor of the Central Christian Church was scheduled to go to trial here the day following discovery of his body on charges of allegedly having sent obscene matter through the mail.

The coroner revealed an x-ray of the head disclosed the fracture. Witnesses are reported as having seen the two youths enter the pastor's automobile at noon four days before his body was discovered.

The youths were arrested five days after the body was discovered. They are held at Many, La., near Pleasant Hill.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary of Agriculture Wallace after a conference with President Roosevelt today, said mid-western governors have found their proposal must be looked into with great care.

"We find it is not quite so simple to work out details of the plan as we thought it would be," he said.

Eighteen Killed In Cuban Flood

HAVANA, Nov. 3.—Eighteen persons were killed in Eastern Cuba by floods resulting from cyclonic winds and torrential rains, dispatches said today. In Havana the situation remained static, with the government of provisional president San Martin apparently disintegrating rapidly and a crisis threatened over the week-end.

The ballots on which the Chamber of Commerce election was tabulated requested the people to vote for any site they wished, but did not specify any particular location, stating that the voice of the people would be used as a guide in the selection of the site.

The copy of the ballot provided by the labor group gave no choice in the selection of a lot, but specified the lot on which they must vote. The ballot read:

"Sirs: I am for a new post-office building to be erected on the vacant lots directly across the street from the City Hall on the corner of Pine and Austin streets. Name?"

FARLEY FLAYS "SNIPERS" FOR CRITICISMS

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 3.—Postmaster General James A. Farley challenged the "snipers" today to come to Washington and do a better job than President Roosevelt.

He denounced "pretty criticism" of the administration, chided "so-called leaders who offered no program worthy of the name" and made this blanket invitation.

"If anyone thinks he has a better way of winning the battle against the depression or some idea of a more effective or speedier formula, let him submit that idea to the man in the White House and there will be no doubt of it having an honest and sincere consideration."

Farley spoke under the auspices of the North Carolina democratic leaders. His address was announced beforehand as being for North Carolina to vote wet at next Tuesday's amendment election. Farley made that appeal and then devoted the rest of his time to a resume of the president's accomplishments.

Famous Liquor Output Is Sold

MALLEN, Texas.—The famous old Madero distilleries of Parras, Coahuila, Mexico, will sell their entire output for the next three years to a group of Americans headed by William McGinley, Fort Worth, according to the terms of a contract made public here.

Anticipating repeal of the 18th amendment, the Americans have arranged to establish a distributing plant at New Orleans, completely equipped with bottling and labeling machinery.

The Madero distilleries have been operated by one family for years, and are the most widely known in Mexico. "Madero" cognac has been a celebrated drink in Mexico since the distilleries were founded. The Madero concern also makes fine wines, clarets and brandies.

Under the contract, it was learned, the Americans agreed to purchase a minimum of 1,200,000 litres, or about 300,000 gallons, of the Madero products.

Similar contracts between other American groups and other Mexican distilleries have resulted in a general boosting of liquor prices to wholesalers south of the Rio Grande.

TREASURER IS RECIPIENT OF MANY "GIFTS"

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—State treasurer Charley Lockhart told the house of representatives investigating committee today that he received approximately $600 as cash donations from employees, believing they were given through love and kindness and not to retain state jobs.

Anniversary and Christmas gifts of a radio and traveling set were received in the same spirit, he said.

Art Mondt, Beaumont wrestler, followed Lockhart as a witness. He said that in efforts to get a permit for his arena in Beaumont, he was told it was purely a political proposition. He paid $100 cash and pays five per cent of the gross receipts, less taxes, to another promoter, he testified.

Mondt declared he considered he is paying the five per cent for protection and couldn't operate without it.

Asked if he had reported it to the state boxing commissioner, he said he had. "I told him the more I thought about it the better I liked Al Capone," he said. He quoted Howth, Beaumont attorney and Ferguson manager there, as saying it cost $200,000 to elect Gov. Ferguson and "we have to get the money back some way."

Mondt quoted Commissioner Flynn and Howth for saying that securing a wrestling permit was a political matter. "That seemed to be their theme song," said the big, freckled wrestler.

During the negotiations Mondt said he went to Shreveport to wrestle. During his absence his manager-wife and her attorney saw James E. Ferguson and were referred back to Howth to get his OK on an application.

Times Continues Giving Service After 14 Years

For years the Times has been going into the homes of Ranger citizens—in fact, since June 1, 1919. In those hectic days of the early boom, when mud and dust was everywhere, the good people of the city received their copy of the Times. It is with a great deal of pleasure now to see the Times still in the front rank of the small city dailies and standing for all that is for the betterment of the city as a whole.

As has been the custom over a period of several years a copy of the Times is thrown into every Ranger home on each Friday afternoon. It is the intention of the management to see that all citizens of Ranger get a copy of this paper on that day.

The Times goes into the neighboring communities—Olden, Strawn, Thurber—and not only that, but the citizens living on the highway between Ranger and Olden receive their copy of the Times each afternoon as the truck driver throws a paper as the car goes to Olden. These citizens get their copy of the Times about as quick as do the subscribers on the carrier routes.

The merchants of Ranger recognize the power and pull that advertising has—read their messages in today's issue. They will appreciate it, the Times will appreciate it—we are all a part of the community. There is no substitute for paid circulation.

Companies Purchase Car of Heaters at Real Bargain Price

The Texas-Louisiana Power company, Killingsworth, Cox & Co., and the Ranger Furniture Exchange are today announcing purchase of a carload of gas heaters.

These stoves, manufactured by the Ray-Glo company, were secured at the low figure because the company was moving from Athens, Ohio, to Shelbyville, Ind., and was disposing of their entire stock of stoves at a sacrifice in order to save freight charges to the new location.

These are first grade heaters that were manufactured to sell at a much higher price, but the companies were fortunate in securing them at a low price for the carload and are passing on this saving to their customers.

Troop 18 of Breckenridge pulled a spook hike at their last troop meeting.

The hike started on the Furr ranch. All Scouts were blindfolded with the exception of the leader and they all caught hands and tried out various and sundry things were encountered on the hike to lend to the spooky feeling already existed before the hike started out. After the hike the troop gathered around the campfire for ghost stories which were started off by Scoutmaster J. Banes. All of the Scouts had a delightful time and the program ended with refreshments.

Many merit badges and several Second and First Class badges were awarded.

Scoutmaster Taliaferro asked that a Scout rally be held for the southern district on and we hope to have an announcement on this sometime soon.

Oh Boy! Ice Cream!
This was the exclamation heard coming from the throats of members of troop 2 in Brownwood, which is sponsored by the Volunteer Fire department. The scouts are guests of the fire department for an ice cream supper which was held for the troop at Seyhorn's cafe. Mr. Jones is president of the Volunteer Fire department.

Scouts With Rotary Club
Under the direction of E. E. Simon, troop 4 of Cisco put on several demonstrations of Scout activities at the regular Rotary club meeting last week. The scouts should avail themselves of every opportunity of demonstrating Scout work where it is convenient to do so so that men everywhere may become interested in the scouting program and thereby give opportunity to those who are not now scouts to the advantage and the privilege of the scouting program.

SPEAKING OF THE SALE OF BEER IN TEXAS

Comptroller George S. Sheppard has let it be known to the people that during September, the first period of beer legislation, the state received $168,218 from dealer licenses and $162,554 from sales tax. All this for licenses granted for three and a half months, or from Sept. 16 to Jan. 1. He predicted that when permits were taken out for the whole new year "the aggregate receipts from licenses alone will be near $700,000 if not more." All of which is a reminder that one-half of the beer income goes to the school fund and the other half to the general fund.

Since May of the year the income from the new cigaret stamp act has been $982,127 from sales and $27,260 from dealers' permits, total of $1,009,387. It is significant that the new act raised the income by nearly $100,000 a month. He recommended additional legislation. Home breweries appear to have gone out of business in many Texas counties. Speaking of the real brand, the comptroller lets it be known that where the beer seller pays the tax to the state he is powerless to stop them in dry counties for the reason that local prosecuting officers "are charged with the duty of filing complaints of violation of the dry laws."

Even the pro leaders of America concede that the 18th amendment will be relegated to the cemetery of dead things an dead hopes before the organization of the congress in its January session. Prohibition is not a dead issue. It will continue to bob up in coming years. State control of the so-called "problem of the liquor traffic" appears to be coming in the 48 American commonwealths.

PACKERS ARE GIVEN A WARNING BY WALLACE

Secretary Henry A. Wallace is a quick action individual. His latest is a warning that something of a showdown is coming with the meat packing industry "if the price of hogs is reduced when the processing taxes to finance the hog and corn production control to become effective next month." Secretary Wallace is a very hard-headed citizen of the Hawkeye State. He is said to be a very able man. His father was a champion of the farmer and "his rights." Wallace walked in the footsteps of the father. Now the hog-corn plan contemplates a flow of $350,000,000 in benefits into the pockets of producers during the next 16 months with reduction of corn production by 20 per cent and hog output by 25 per cent—the dual goal of the secretary of agriculture. Milo Reno is a Hawkeye. He is responsible for what is known as Renomism in the corn belt and wheat producing states.

Time waits for no man. Don't get off until tomorrow what you should do today. You will live forever.

OUT OUR WAY

OLDEN

OLDEN, Nov. 2.—Catherine and Dorothy Ann Johnson of Abilene spent the week-end in Olden visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hulsey. They made the trip down on the train and returned by bus and were unaccompanied by any older person, although the little girls are aged 8 and 4 respectively. They had an enjoyable visit here and made many new acquaintances.

Mrs. Jewel Reeves who is convalescing from an operation she underwent two weeks ago at West Texas Clinic in Ranger, expects to be brought home today. Her host of friends are happy over her rapid progress in recovery, and hope in a short time she can be up and out again.

Everett House Everett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Everett of Olden, who recently returned from California where he was given an honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy, has been notified by the Bureau of Navigation that he has been awarded an Honor Merit Medal for good conduct during his four year service with the Navy department. Everett spent many months in China and other foreign places and relates many interesting events of life there, including the strange customs and habits of the people whose lands he visited, and being a close observer, his information is detailed and intensely interesting.

W. A. McMillan, with the Magnolia Petroleum Company here was transferred to Desdemona this week and Chand McMillan expects to move there within the next few days. Their many friends here are sorry to see them go but wish them all good wishes in their new home.

The annual Halloween carnival under the auspices of the Olden Parent Teachers Association was held here Tuesday night, Oct. 31, and a large crowd attended. The men's style show was especially funny and well acted, the men modeling ladies evening dresses, parading slowly to "The Grand Marche," played by Mrs. Roberts. T. H. Stanton announced the individual models, and gave brief but humorous descriptions of each: Bill Edwards was presented as Willie Lee Edwards modeling a gown called "Moonlight Magic"; Pete Holt as Patricia Holt modeled "The Clinging Ivy Vine"; Colonel Croft as Nellie Croft was presented in a style known as "Arlington Downs"; Mr. Roberts as Roberta Roberts modeled "The Road to Romance"; E. J. Allen as Matilda Allen modeled "Sweet Sixteen"; Henry Munn as Henrietta Munn was "Atar of Roses"; Everett Everett modeled "Sunday Best"; and Walter Gage modeled "Evening in Paris." Following the style show

Mrs. Roberts gave a piano solo, "Hungarian Rhapsody" in a pleasing and skillful rendition. This was followed by a novelty black-face number presenting Katherine Stanton as Interlocutor, Mary Ford as Snowball, Hazel Woods as Hambone, Eloise Morton as Rastus; Jean Adams as Rabbit, Mildred Wynn as Shoofly and Ruby Curry as Lassies. Their number included many clever jokes and several good songs, a humorous reading by each one and an instrumental number played on comb and imaginary horns. Dady Buckley, Mr. Mills and Mrs. Roberts furnished several good numbers on the piano, violin and bass viol. After the show every one went to the fish pond, bingo table and lunch department, where they enjoyed the games and partook of excellent cakes, pies, sandwiches, cocoa and coffee. The proceeds from the carnival goes into the general fund of the Olden P. T. A. An Olden Exchange will be opened under the management of

Jorgotten Sweetheart

BY MARY RAYMOND
BEGIN HERE TODAY
JOAN WARING, pretty Memphis girl, and BOB WESTON, son of a New York millionaire, meet in New York. They become estranged through the scheming of BARBARA COLETT, a popular society girl, who is trying to win Bob for herself. Joan is a regular society girl, who has run away after an unhappy love affair. Joan is hired as a masked singer at a night club. Believing Bob is lost to her, she becomes engaged to BARRY BLAKE, owner of the night club. Pat suggests and becomes Barney's secretary. It is not long before he realizes he loves her instead of Joan. Joan sings at a fashionable entertainment and discovers she is in Bob's home. Bob recognizes her voice and traces her to the apartment she had shared with Barney's stepmother. The apartment is in the name of Mrs. Barney Blake, and Bob jumps to the conclusion that Joan is living there as Mrs. Blake. He sings Joan from his room and rushes away.
JOAN tells Barney of her love for Bob and learns that he loves Joan.
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXII
MORE than one driver cursed Bob Weston freely as he swung the gray roadster in and out of traffic. Miraculously, through some mechanical agency that had nothing whatever to do with conscious effort, Bob avoided each impending collision.
Now he knew that, despite doubts and disappointments, he had always set Joan apart from other women. Only to find that she was common clay after all, pitifully frail and human!
She was wearing a mask, exploited and glorified like some cheap, intriguing show girl. There could be but one interpretation of Joan's presence in that luxurious apartment. She was living there as Mrs. Barney Blake.
Bob assured himself that he would put her out of his life now, utterly and completely. From now on he and Joan would go their separate ways.
But he could not forget the way she had responded to his kisses, the way she had whispered, "Do you love me, Bob? What could it mean except that she was willing to cheat this other man who had taken her so far along her ambitious way?
Bob left himself into the great hall of his home and mounted the stairs. A light was burning in his father's room and the door was slightly ajar. "That you, Bob?" his father called.
"Yes, sir."
The older man was propped up in bed, pillows behind his back and a book in his hand.
"Sorry I dashed away in such a hurry, Dad," Bob said.
"It was rather hard on Barbara, I suppose you had a reason, though."
"I did. Or thought I did. Nothing in the world seemed quite so important."
The older man waited. Then Bob went on. "The masked singer was Joan Waring, Dad."
"Joan Waring?"
"Don't you remember—the girl you warned me against in Memphis?"
"Yes, I remember," his father said, shocked by the despair on his son's face. "Perhaps I was wrong, Bob. She is very beautiful and she has a lovely voice. Perhaps I was too hasty in my judgment."
"Too hasty! Bob could have laughed. Instead he looked steadily at his father, without an-

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—Big, raw-boned Walter Teagle of Standard Oil can be a terror to arrogant small-tray industrialists.
More than once, in secret hearings of the National Labor Board, he has silenced noisy employers who protested the board's authority to intervene in their disputes with workers.
Indignant protests from labor members are expected and discounted. But when Teagle, who brooks no disrespect for that board, booms out in his slow, powerful voice, "Well, now, gentlemen—you can't say that!"—the whole might of big industry seems to come down on the little fellows, like the side of a house.
Teagle works hard for settlements.
GERARD SWOPE of General Electric doesn't seem as happy in his job on the board as Teagle is.
When the Westinghouse strike came along, he was willing, at least, to have the hearing staved off indefinitely. Finally, Chairman Wagner made it plain that the dispute must be considered without further delay, and Swope withdrew from the case.
A few more days and the strike might have been broken.
So far, no one has caught up Postmaster General Jim Farley on that line in his Texas speech which said that "Every person connected with the administration is grateful for what the vice president has done."
The one thing Jack Garner has done since Congress adjourned to keep out of Washington is the national lightning.
OFFICIALS are figuring what goods we best can afford to buy from Russia in return for what we sell her after recognition, so that all our exports won't be bought with American credits. Furs and castles are to be the most popular suggestions so far.
Here, as in Latin-American trade agreement negotiations, great difficulty is in finding goods for import which will compete with some domestic product. Though the gains outweigh the losses, producers who are hurt always can shriek loudest. Which leads one of our officials, chiefly concerned with trade negotiations, to say, fully.
"Somehow, sometime, we must obtain acceptance of the idea that a general benefit is worth a million losses."
MEMBERS of regional NRA labor boards should be "minded" as well as disinterested according to the National Labor Board's instructions to its regional boards. No definition of the term is obtainable here.
But elsewhere one gets the social distinction between Conciliation, which consists of patching the two sides together, and Mediation, which goes a further and puts to each side proposed settlement. A arbitration, in which the two sides are able to agree, otherwise, is to accept the board's decision. (Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)

 Acts 15:1, 2, 22-31
PAUL IN JERUSALEM
 Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.—2 Cor. 3:17.
 The Golden Text expresses the golden essence of the entire lesson, true liberty.

In the summer of A. D. 49, Paul and Barnabas returned to Antioch after their first missionary journey, covering a period of more than two years. They found the church in confusion due to a bitter controversy concerning the question of the admission of Gentiles into the church without the obligations of the Mosaic law being observed. Paul with his great experience and vision saw at once the danger of putting anything in the way of salvation. Two words in the opening verses are interesting, "certain men came down from Judah." "Certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem"—down and up. Jerusalem was regarded as the pinnacle of Jewish authority and the temple hill as the center of revealed religion. This people had a great respect or belief in tradition and were jealous of the historic faith. In studying the entire chapter we see Paul standing up boldly and proving the teaching false. It was the great difference in experience. He called the council of the church to consider and delegates, Paul and Barnabas, were sent to Jerusalem, "unto the apostles and elders about this question." The picture of this council, considering, speaking and even pleading, looking for divine leadership is a powerful plea for such a course in directing affairs of our churches today. James, presiding, summed up the testimony and quoted prophecy from Amos. Certain phrases in the lesson are interesting study: "Being assembled with one accord; beloved Barnabas and Paul, and our Lord Jesus Christ." Truly with the leadership of the Holy Ghost and with the Lord Jesus Christ in their lives, they cannot help but love leaders called out by the Lord of Lords. Happy was the ending of that council. "So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation." "It is a time of rejoicing when anyone visions Christ and the meaning of liberty. It was hard for the people then and now also to understand. For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.—

Romans 8:2. It requires a knowledge of Christ through leadership of the Holy Spirit found in study and meditation of God's Word so that we can understand that we must love our neighbors as ourself and seek to serve as did the lowly Nazarene. With understanding of our fellow man and sympathy for all we can say with the Psalmist: Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.—Psalm 133:1.

Negro Given Death In Murder Case

By United Press
 GREENVILLE, Tex., Nov. 3.—Nineteen year old Clarence Thomas, negro, was given a death penalty today by an 8th district court jury for the slaying of Will Webb, milling company employe of Wolfe City, last October 19.

State's evidence—disclosed robbery motivated the crime.

Walker Gives—

 Sunday concerning the proposed site of the federal building.

"I explained to them," Mr. Walker said, "that the stockholders of the bank would make improvements on property owned by them and by the bank, which would total around $5,000 for labor, thereby giving the working people, who are vitally interested in securing the site that would give the most work, additional work this winter, possibly long before actual construction could be started on a new postoffice building.

"The bank itself owns 14 houses around the town that would be renovated, repainted, repaired and repaired, in addition to several pieces of property belonging to stockholders that would be improved when the money was made available through the release of frozen accounts.

"Local labor would receive all of this—estimated $5,000. Local labor has been used entirely in the past in other improvements of this kind and only local labor would be used on these new improvements.

"Immediately upon the sale of the building and before the government would be ready to remodel the bank building for use as a postoffice, this work would be started and the ones who are clamoring for a new building would be able to secure work much sooner than they will if a new postoffice is built.

"In explaining the proposition to the merchants and other citizens of the town," Mr. Walker continued, "I pointed out that there were three vital points that would be considered. The first was the employment of labor, both for remodeling the bank, tearing down the adjacent buildings and in the remodeling of other property belonging to the bank and the stockholders. The second was that it would loosen credit by allowing the frozen accounts to be paid off, thereby giving many people more money and opening up new channels of trade to the business houses of the town. The third was that a committee of three would be appointed to take over the money given by the government for the building and apply it on the frozen accounts in the bank. The bank would then raise the balance of the money to release all accounts as soon as possible.

"The merchants and business leaders of the town, after hearing my plan, came to the conclusion that if the bank would spend that amount on improvements it would help them by increasing payrolls in the town among those who needed it, thereby increasing purchasing power.

"The $5,000 would be in addition to that used in remodeling the bank building. Based on the proposition, gathered at Cisco, that in building a new building in Cisco the local labor received between $5,000 and $6,000, the additional work to be done around Ranger would give labor in this community an amount that would equal, if not exceed, that which could be obtained

$147,000 Smile— $2.50 Bargain

She's entitled to this smile, for Mrs. Barbara Frank, wife of a New York City house painter, just has heard the great news. Her $2.50 sweepstakes ticket was worth $147,000 and now she doesn't care if her husband never gets another paint job—nor does he.

ed through the construction of a new building.

"Many opposed the bank plan at first, but when these things were brought to their attention they came to the conclusion that it would be best to pursue this route and they permitted the use of their names on the page advertisement which appeared in the Sunday Times.

"I appreciate the attitude of the Times in this whole matter," Mr. Walker stated, "because in the beginning the paper was not in favor of the plans we had made and I personally knew that they had a lot that would be suitable for this purpose. But when it was called to their attention that labor would get as much, if not more, from the bank project, they advocated the plan that looked as though it would offer the most relief, regardless of the cost to the paper. The Times lot was not taken off the market as has been stated by some who were misinformed.

"I, personally, own a lot that would be suitable for the building, and, from a personal standpoint, I could get more out of it than I could out of the proposition to sell the bank building as I own all of the lot and only own a part of the bank, but I thought the bank proposition be by far the best for everyone concerned.

"I have gone so far as to outline, in detail, the improvements that would be made and the property on which the work would be done. If anyone is interested I would be glad if they would call at the bank and find out more about this angle of the case."

In concluding Mr. Walker stated that he had put all his "cards on the table" and was willing to go into the matter with anyone who was interested in helping to select the project that would give the greatest amount of relief in every form.

Stomach Distress
 "I suffered from stomach trouble," writes Mr. Roy Holstein, of Marret, W. Va. "I was run-down, could not sleep well at night, and could not eat like I should. I cramped a lot. I was nervous and often would take sick headaches. Now I can eat just fine—sleep fine. I highly recommend Theodor's Black-Draught for it has done so much for me. I can truly say it stopped me from suffering." Black-Draught is purely vegetable.

To Raze Bridge Honoring Girl

BOONE, Iowa.—The Kate Shelley bridge, which has stood since 1881 as a monument to the bravery of a 15-year-old girl, will be torn down this month.

In 1881 the main line of the Chicago, Northwestern Railway passed through Moingona, Iowa, between Ogdon and Boone. One night Kate Shelley, who lived near the Des Moines River, discovered that high water seriously had weakened the bridge.

Legends of her deed agree that she seized a lantern, fled across the tottering bridge just in time to stop an on-coming passenger train.

A few years later the Northwestern rewarded her by appointing her station master at the then busy station at Moingona. The new bridge was named after her.

Later a shorter route across the Des Moines River lowlands was surveyed and the Moingona route became a minor side track in the railroad system. Miss Shelley remained station master at the point until her death several years ago.

The railroad recently announced that the bridge and the entire trackage of the Moingona route would be dismantled.

Thousands have Ended their Bowel Worries by taking this advice!

Can constipation actually be overcome? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say the many thousands who have followed their advice and found relief.

You are not likely to cure your constipation with salts, pills, tablets or any of the habit-forming cathartics. But you can correct this condition by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative.

THE LIQUID TEST: This is the way many men and women have made their bowels as regular as clockwork in a very short time.

First: select a properly prepared liquid laxative. Second: take the dose you find suited to your system. Third: gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving of their own accord.

Simple, isn't it? And it works! The right liquid laxative brings thorough bowel action without using force. An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is syrup pepsin. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna, a natural laxative.

A Frank Statement Concerning Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

We believe the use of our tablets and mineral drugs is rapidly insuring a way to gentle relief of the bowels with a laxative.

We believe Dr. Caldwell's original prescription of herbs, pure pepsin, and is the ideal family laxative.

And we know it is a preparation for children, expectant mothers be it does not cause bowels or irritate the kidneys.

Screen Vamp Is No More Says Lasky
 The movie vamp, bless her slinking memory, is no more; she has departed the filmic scene, along with the silly tradition that all beautiful ladies are dumb.

Producer Jesse L. Lasky, who says so, can speak with some authority on the present lack of vamps. He was more than two months casting the feminine lead in "The Worst Woman in Paris" for Fox, and finally settled on Benita Hume. She is to be seen in the role when the picture comes to the Arcadia theatre today.

"When I say that there are no real screen sirens left in Hollywood I mean just that," Lasky said. "There is no one now who can play the sort of roles made famous by Theda Bara, Nita Naldi or Betty Blythe.

"Theda Bara was through the minute a magazine writer saw her playing with small children and washing dishes in her home; Nita Naldi's career was ended when the actress made it plain that she was not the bad woman in real life that she was on the screen.

"When it was learned that Miss Bara was really a nice person in real life, audiences felt that her film parts were false. They wouldn't believe that she was giving them a sincere performance."

University of Chicago professor suggests more subjects be taught in public schools. Result—the children would learn less and less about the world and more.

Keen woman refused to proceed to be husband after he had stalked her with an ice pick 14 times. Once more and have got mad.

Dr. Judd Speaks On Movements For Peace
 Dr. C. D. Judd, head of the department of government of the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, and guest speaker at a meeting of the 1920 club yesterday, addressed members of the club and guests on "Present Day Movements for Peace."

Dr. Judd has been at the head of the government department of C. I. A. for approximately 14 years. He is remembered by many as a former teacher in Ranger high school. A number of his ex-students were present to hear his address to the club.

According to Dr. Judd, it is dependent on the citizenship of the world to prevent impending wars, not on government heads alone. A future war, he said, with modern fighting equipment, would likely destroy present civilization.

From an economic standpoint, the speaker pointed out, ammunition interests are the only gaining ones in time of war, the masses living to suffer as an aftermath. According to him, our present economic depression is an outgrowth of the great World war, although that war did create many multi-millionaires while plunging the majority of the world into despair and debt.

We, as citizens, Dr. Judd declared, may aid in the prevention of such a disaster by educating our citizenship against such a condition.
