PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

Have almost anything from statistics to offer the any, this morning, but will customers off light with the of either.

poetry was written by Jo Griffith, a freshman girl at Ranger high school and the sentiments of practically everyone around this neck woods. It reads:

WERE BEHIND YOU

Bulldogs, and win that scrap.

though Cisco gave us a rap;

Ranger High is loyal and true, remember, Bulldogs, we're behind you.

Bulldogs, fight, fight, fight.

Breckenridge and beat they feel down-hearted and blue.

remember, Bulldogs, we're behind you.

er, Bulldogs, you've won every game.

remember, too, you've lost them just the same;

remember, Bulldogs, remember, too, old Ranger High is right behind you.

Curtis thought that was good so he sent it to us and thought good enough to print, and to have to print it along with junk we write. Anyway, is.

Holloway has turned in a report by the district committee on the plan of Ranger and the Cisco Lobos not to profit by the forfeiture Armistice Day game. It committee is of the opinion that Cisco had in his possession exercising reasonable diligence could have secured same to the filing of a protest by Ranger, but, since there is no specific rule upon Ranger's actions in this case, namely, Cisco also forfeit the game, committee does not feel justified in sustaining Ranger's conclusions.

schools in the district except Bridge were represented at meeting. Supt. Holland of Bridge neglected to open his letter announcing the game was delayed, or someone he didn't know anything about it.

Although it is a long way from Providence, Rhode Island, to a team that probably hasn't any eligibility rules of any kind. At least none as to ages, because Washington, 50, of North Atlantic, is owner-manager-player on the Providence Huskies, a semi-professional football team.

The middle-aged gridiron enthusiast made 34 yards in four off-possible thrusts when his team beat the powerful Fittion club of Boston, 20 to 0, recently.

NEW OIL ORDERS SENT OUT BY RR COMMISSION

By United Press

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—New oil production orders for Texas fields to be put into effect at 7 a. m. Friday, were being sent out from here today by the state railroad commission. The orders allow a total production of 877,645 barrels a day.

East Texas will be allowed 394,672 barrels a day. Allowables for other fields include: Panhandle, 42,000; East Central Texas, 43,896; an increase of five barrels; North Texas, 56,500, the same; West Central Texas, 26,500, an increase of 1,500 barrels, and West Texas, 120,248, an increase of 400 barrels.

Shaw Replies To Blanton's Letter On Home Loans

James Shaw, manager Texas home owners corporation, replies to Congressman Blanton's letter complaining of the lack of progress by the corporation's Texas office in getting relief to home owners in Blanton's district.

Excerpts from Shaw's reply, dated November 27.

"I am sorry you feel as you do about the matter, but if that is the way you feel about it I fear there is little that can be done in the way of convincing you otherwise. The board at Washington and the local offices in the states, are doing everything in their power to push the making of loans, and we are now in the process of making a great many. This office has made approximately 300 and is now ready to go forward in fine shape.

"You should not let the annoyance that is given you by people calling you with reference to loans, or the anxiety of those whom you have appointed as county appraisers and county attorneys, get on your nerves. That is simply the natural thing, and you are suffering no more than any other public official in the country. These are extraordinary times, and it requires patience all down the line.

"In your letter to me you attempted to show the applications filed in a number of counties, but did not show the number in other counties in your district. A careful check-up of our records indicates the total number of applications filed in all your counties is practically only half of the ones you attempted to set up in a few counties. If you will read over the chart I am enclosing herein, I think you will find the work in your district has not been so bad after all."

The chart mentioned, under the heading, "Applications filed and progress made to Nov. 23, 1933, on cases in the 19 counties in T. L. Blanton's congressional district," gave the following totals:

Applications received—1079.
Preliminary appraisals routed out—970.
Fee appraisals routed out—262.
Fee appraisals returned—128.
Abstracts sent to attorneys—59.
(Preliminary appraisals are made in this district by G. B. Tittle of Abilene. By "fee appraisal" is probably meant the appraisal after it has been passed on by Tittle as to legality in its preparation and then sent to the county appraiser for final action.)

Shaw concludes: "I would like for you to reflect upon one thing: We are lending the credit of the United States of America. While it is our earnest desire to assist every distressed home owner that it is possible to assist, still we must operate in conformity with the law. Put yourself on the spot and forget you are a congressman trying to please the great throng, and decide whether you would put the government's money out on short notice, without proper information, or that you would be conservative, yet compassionate. The law does not state at any place that this money is to be thrown away, or loosely loaned, but it does say how it is to be loaned, and we are trying to lend it safely. I think you are wrong, and I believe if you are the man I have always heard you are, you will help push this thing along to a glorious conclusion rather than criticize and thereby hamper, as you have been doing."

She's After Scalp of Huey Long

If Huey Long and his cohorts are laid low in Louisiana, a major share of the credit will go to Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond and the Louisiana woman's committee, of which she is chairman. Mrs. Hammond is shown here as she testified in New Orleans at the inquiry into sensational election scandals, telling Senator Tom Connally: "You've done good work—this last week."

On Eve of Repeal Bootlegger In Sorrowful Mood Tells How A Champagne Hoax Netted Profits

By United Press

NEW YORK.—Eugene Riss who admits he has been violating the prohibition law with impunity since 1919, sat in his little night club back of the Vanderbilt family's Fifth Avenue mansion today and declared that every bootlegger in New York is broke.

Through the dry years, Riss said, he manufactured champagne here in New York and his product could not be distinguished from the real stuff. His champagne sold in the leading night clubs, and nobody ever considered it anything but genuine, he declared.

The Cigarettes Aided

Before prohibition came in Riss decided upon his wine-making venture. He went to France, carrying 1,500 packages of American cigarettes. A person can do wonders with cigarettes in France, he said.

He bought up a large stock of bottles, corks, wire netting, labels and chemist's recipe for making champagne. Most of these articles had to be bought surreptitiously. A carbonating machine was brought in on the pretext that Riss was going into the charged water business.

A Quick Process

He manufactured his champagne from California, Ohio, and New York wines, blended, and whereas French champagne is three years in the process of production, Riss needed only three days.

He did not retail his stuff but

Al Smith Scores Priest's Statements

By United Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Father Charles F. Coughlin's charge that the anti-administration monetary stand of Alfred E. Smith was influenced by his dealings with the House of Morgan, was denounced today as "absolutely false," by the former New York governor.

Smith issued a statement denying he had ever borrowed money from the Wall Street financier and denouncing the clergyman for bearing "false witness against my neighbor."

BULLDOGS TO PLAY BUCS IN BRECK TODAY

The Ranger Bulldogs will take on one of their toughest assignments of the season this afternoon at Breckenridge, when they play the Breckenridge Buckaroos in the annual Thanksgiving Day encounter between the two teams.

The Buckaroos have shown considerable power this year despite the fact that they have lost two games, one to Abilene and one to Cisco. A win for the Bulldogs this afternoon will leave them tied with the Buckaroos in the Oil Belt standing in spite of the three games forfeited by Ranger because of ineligibility of a player.

The Buckaroos started the season with a 13 to 12 loss to Mineral Wells, defeated Comanche by a score of 26 to 0; lost to Highland Park by a score of 26 to 6; defeated Eastland 12 to 7 and Brownwood 12 to 2 in conference games, lost to Cisco 14 to 7, and lost to Abilene by a score of 13 to 6. Since playing their last conference game they have lost to Stripling by a score of 18 to 7 and have won from Bridgeport by a score of 33 to 0.

The Buckaroos have scored 122 points, while their opponents have made 93 during a season in which they lost five and won four games.

Arguments Begin In Murder Trial

By United Press

LIVINGSTON, Texas, Nov. 29.—Arguments began today in the trial of J. A. Duce, charged with murder in connection with the slaying of his second wife, following testimony of the defendant's first wife that she wrote one of Duce's alleged alibi letters and had hopes of a reconciliation.

The state asked death for Duce. Self-defense was claimed by the defense counsel by pointing to the defendant's purported statement his wife had attacked him with a butcher knife.

RANGERS TO END SEASON ON SATURDAY

The Ranger Junior College Texas Rangers will play their last game of the season at Lillard field Saturday afternoon at 2:30, when they play the conference-leading T. M. C. team from Terrell.

By defeating T. M. C. the Rangers will have a chance to tie for second place in the conference standing, having won one game, lost one and tied two during the season which is drawing to a close this week-end.

H. S. Von Roeder has urged that as many people as possible attend the game Saturday, both to support the team and give it incentive to win and to help keep the athletic fund out of the red.

It was stated Wednesday that by the end of the season the athletic fund would be about $150 in debt unless a good crowd was present for the game Saturday afternoon.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do set aside and appoint Thursday, the 30th day of November, 1933, to be a day of thanksgiving for all our people. May we on that day in our churches and in our homes give humble thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us during the year past by Almighty God. May we recall the courage of those who founded the nation, the steadfastness of those who in every succeeding generation have fought to keep pure the ideal of equality of opportunity and hold clear the goal of mutual help in time of prosperity as in time of adversity.

May we ask guidance in more surely learning the ancient truth that greed and selfishness and striving for undue riches can never bring lasting happiness or good to the individual or to his neighbor.

May we be grateful for the passing of dark days; for the new spirit of dependence on one another; for the closer unity of all parts of our wide land; for the greater friendship between employers and those who toil; for a clearer knowledge by all nations that we seek no conquests and ask only honorable engagement by all peoples to respect the lands and rights of their neighbors; for the brighter day to which we can win through by seeking the help of God in a more unselfish striving for the common bettering of mankind.

In witness hereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

(Signed) FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT.

C. C. McDONALD TO BE IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

By United Press

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Nov. 29.—C. C. McDonald, Wichita Falls, today announced his candidacy for the office of governor of Texas, succeeding Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

The McDonald announcement, long anticipated by political observers, followed a statement by Mrs. Ferguson yesterday that she will not seek another term.

The Wichita Falls man has been allied with the Ferguson administration during recent years. McDonald did not elaborate on his announcement other than to say it was definite and final and that he anticipates a free-for-all battle for the nomination.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 29.—The warden of the city jail and several deputies left here in two automobiles today for Princess Anne with the four lynching suspects, whose capture resulted in a battle between national guardsmen and citizens of the eastern shore.

BODY BURNS THREE HOURS IN BON FIRE

Investigation By States Attorney Urged By Gov. Guy Park.

By United Press

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 29.—Gov. Guy Park today announced the lynching and burning of a negro at St. Joseph, Mo., without justification and called upon the state attorney for an investigation of the mob action.

By United Press

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 29.—The body of a confessed negro attacker, lynched by a hate-maddened mob of 9,000, today smoldered for three hours in a bon fire a block from the wrecked county jail.

The latest victim of mob vengeance, Lloyd Warner, was dragged from his cell, beaten into insensibility and hanged and then burned.

He had confessed only a few hours before, officers said, to attacking a young girl, member of a prominent family here. Her name was withheld by authorities.

For two hours a tank corps of the Missouri national guard, the county sheriff, 14 deputies, 100 police and special officers fought the raging mob. They held the attackers at bay as long as the supply of tear gas bombs held out. When the gas supply was exhausted, Sheriff Theisen surrendered the prisoner.

The action was taken, the sheriff explained, to prevent a pitched battle with perhaps high casualties. Only one person was injured during the melee. A national guardman, manning one of the two tanks brought into action was beaten unconscious by infuriated men.

More than two hours after the negro had been hanged, hundreds of citizens searched about, shouting, laughing and jesting. Occasionally fresh fuel was added to the fire. Flames leaped high in the air.

Authorities did not interfere with the mob after it had performed its task.

LONG-BACKED GOVERNOR IS BEING DEFIED

By United Press

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—Louisiana's political side-show boasted two rings instead of one—the committee inquiry into Huey Long's regime here, and a spectacular revolt against him in the sixth congressional district at Baton Rouge.

The senatorial inquiry here was dwarfed into comparative insignificance by the tom-tom beating at the capital, where thousands of rate democrats last night defied Long-backed Gov. O. K. Allen in the matter of a special election to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Kemp.

It was a noisy gathering at Baton Rouge. Speakers were interrupted by cries from the floor of "lynch 'em" and "give them the rope."

Aldrich Calls For A 'New Deal' For Bank Depositors

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Winthrop W. Aldrich, head of the Rockefeller-controlled Chase National bank, today called for a new deal in banking in a formal proposal to the senate stock market committee that additional drastic legislation be enacted to protect the public.

Without mentioning by name Albert H. Wiggin, deposed head of the bank, Aldrich repudiated his boom-time banking methods which accumulated a loss of upwards of $300,000,000 for depositors in the Chase bank and its securities affiliates.

Former Warden of Pen Is Pardoned

By United Press

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—N. L. Speer, one-time warden of the Texas penitentiary, convicted of theft of $1,000 in connection with fees of office while sheriff of Walker county, today was granted a full pardon by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

He was convicted in Travis county and sentenced to three years in prison. The $1,000 allegedly stolen, was overpaid him in a warrant issued by the state comptroller's department.

SAMUEL INSULL AND HIS FUTURE

Samuel Insull in far away Greece is passing sleepless nights. This government has notified the government of Greece "in strong terms that means much to be found to deport Insull, former Chicago utilities magnate."

Samuel had the world at his feet, so to speak.

He piled up a fortune having a value of $100,000,000.

Now he is a fugitive from justice.

His pension has been withdrawn.

He is 74. His future is behind him.

A bird with a broken wing never flies high again. He was a marvelous developer. He was a gigantic builder. He had the confidence of millions of people. He gave employment to an army of wage workers. Now he is a battered wreck on the shores of time. Why look for hell in the world invisible? There is an ever burning hell in this vale of tears.

SPEAKING OF THE PRODUCERS OF THE GOLDEN GRAIN

Wheat is said to be the staff of life. American farmers are large producers of the golden grain. They have not been over-looked in the acreage reduction campaign. Secretary Henry A. Wallace announced Nov. 22 that $729,395 had been paid to 15,072 wheat growers who are participating in the government wheat acreage control plan.

Spasmodic advertising does not bring the results that can be obtained by persistent advertising.

Unless you practice the principles of success in a small way first, you never can in a big way.

Newspaper advertising will have the effect of reducing any overstock of goods a merchant may have, but it takes continuous advertising to have any lasting effect.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

JACK WILLIAMS, Editor and Publisher of the Waycross (Ga.) Journal-Herald, says:

"Newspaper advertising is the strong right arm of business. American business supremacy is the result of fine ideals, energy and printer's ink. Advertising is the win of salesmanship. Never are they separated. Every business profession or vocation uses them in some form.

"The mainspring of all business is advertising—and printing is the voice that carries the message to its market. You call upon printing to establish confidence and good will; to create the desire to buy.

"An exchange tells the story of a boy who took some rabbits to market and returned that night foot sore and weary without having made one sale. His mother inquired why he had not made any sales, and his reply was that no one had inquired what he had in his bag.

"Almost a quarter of a century ago A. F. Pears, the famous English soapmaker, was spending about one-quarter of a million dollars annually for advertising. His annual sales ran into the millions and Pears' soap became known throughout the civilized world.

"About this time the directors of the company decided that since the concern was selling the entire output, the advertising could be dispensed with and it was accordingly stopped. Within six months the company lost 35 percent of its total business, and it cost $6,500,000 to get it back to where they left off advertising.

"This illustrates the memory of the public and the practical value of uninterrupted advertising.

"Advertising at the present time is on the threshold of far more daring and wonderful things."

The UNKNOWN BLOND

By Laura Lou Brookman

WHO KILLED TRACY KING, or who killed that blond?—A detective's question that has been asked many times since the murder of Tracy King.

CHAPTER XVIII

McNeal parked the police car and climbed out, following Bannister. Half way to the entrance of the Shelby Arms, the door opened. A group of young people—three men and two girls—appeared. They were laughing and talking rather noisily. The girls wore evening wraps over bright dresses. One of the men had on a top hat.

Skilled Workers

Of The Ozarks

Form New Guild

By United Press

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Ark.—An enterprise born of the depression is thriving in this Ozark village. Lack of employment in factories resulted in establishment of the Ozark Craftsmen's Guild, which is attracting national attention.

The guild is a practical undertaking in the utilization of the natural materials of the Ozarks made into novel and useful articles by the hands of skilled men and women.

The guild is a non-profit making unit, furnishing employment to experienced workers at living wages and selling its products by direct methods from its own store and display rooms here.

A class of workers, who have been thrown out of work in factories and who found their age prevented them from securing similar employment elsewhere, are coming into the Ozark enterprise for the opportunity of once more becoming independent producers.

More than 20 small industries already are represented in the guild. They include such tasks as making home-made candies, chopping trees, making old-fashioned rocking chairs, making pottery from native clay, weaving, grinding cane into sorghum, building homes for colonists, and planting vineyards and orchards.

The guild is adding skilled wood and iron workers, toy-makers, hand carvers, a violin maker, rug weavers, welders, leather workers and other workmen, who readily can turn raw Ozark products into useful finished articles.

Walter R. Eaton, who for 12 years has been manager of the Ozark colony, local co-operative enterprise, is manager of the guild.

"The basic idea behind this project is to provide work for arts and craftsmen and women who have been thrown out of their jobs by machine and mass production," Eaton said.

'Alfalfa Bill' Put

On the Spot By Many Followers

By United Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 29.—Gov. W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray has been "put on the spot" politically, after ruling Democratic and state affairs in Oklahoma with an iron hand since 1930.

It started with Murray's determination to name a slate for the 1934 Democratic nominations to state office. Some of his staunchest followers balked, a couple quit.

Twenty-six years ago, Murray was chairman of the convention which drafted the constitution for the state, when Oklahoma entered the Union. Murray helped write into the document a provision barring the governor from succeeding himself.

Now that his own term will expire in 1934, with many of his policies still on trial or in formative stages, he would like, probably, to have another four years.

WAS BEST MAN AT GOLDEN WEDDING

SAN FRANCISCO.—When Oscar G. Rohl and Elizabeth Bennett were married in November, just 50 years ago in San Francisco, T. H. Johnson was "best" man. Recently Johnson was with the couple again as they held open house in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

THANKSGIVING 1933

Back in the days of the Pilgrims when our forefathers were fighting for the supreme principals of freedom and liberty there arose a day of truce known as "Thanksgiving." And all classes and parties met on that day—prepared large feasts, received each other cordially—and offered thanks to God for the blessings bestowed upon them—and expressed their thanks to each other for their future success.

So today we take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the people for the support and encouragement they have so splendidly given us. We will in the future try to serve you even more than in the past.

Those who attended carried well-filled baskets and a most tempting and abundant dinner was served on tables arranged outside of the church. In the afternoon all went into the church and enjoyed a song service led by Mr. Trimble of Carbon who is a popular song leader. Another feature of the afternoon service was a talk on "The Ideal Layman," by B. E. McGlamery of Eastland. The audience appreciated very much the assistance of Mr. Trimble and Mr. McGlamery in the service. Not only did the friends want to express appreciation of Rev. Howell but also of his wife and children, who are all faithful church workers.

Always the Finest Tobaccos

AND

Only the Center Leaves

Not only from our own Southland—but from Turkey—from Greece—from all over the world—the very cream of tobacco crops is gathered for Lucky Strike. And only the center leaves are used—no stem—no stalk. Each Lucky Strike is fully packed—firmly rolled. Even the ends of the cigarettes are filled—brimful of choicest tobaccos. No loose ends—that's why Luckies draw easily and burn evenly.

Always the finest tobaccos

Always the finest workmanship

Always Luckies please!
