NEW WHEAT CONTRACT STUDIED

FOUR YEARS WILL BE INCLUDED IN NEW WHEAT PRODUCTION PROGRAM.

Wheat farmers in Castro county are having opportunity to discuss the wheat referendum of May 25, at local meetings being held in all communities this week, according to County Agricultural Agent Wayne Thomas.

At these meetings, questions about the wheat problem are being threshed out in full discussion.

The new wheat program will be similar to that now in effect, but will be modified to avoid conflicts with the provisions of the corn-hog, cotton and other contracts.

Under the new four-year program planned, 1936 through 1939, a check-up will be made at the end of two years to balance the books. Any farmer who has signed a contract may drop out at the end of this two year period if he is dissatisfied with the results of the program.

The latest proposal enables 25 percent of the farmers in any area to petition for discontinuance of the program at the end of any year. Also, more leeway will be given local wheat committees in deciding allotments.

"It has been planned," John R. Edmonds, special wheat compliance agent for Texas from College Station, explained, "that these community meetings will enable every farmer to learn the terms of the contracts and to understand that he has the right to vote whether he is a contract signer or not, as long as he has a base acreage."

"Growers will have ample opportunity to discuss all the various phases of the wheat situation and the outlook of the future, as well as proposals for the new program, before the actual vote is taken," Mr. Press Dyer, chairman of the Castro County Wheat Production Control Association, announced.

GRAND JURY IN FINAL REPORT

COMPLIMENT LOCAL CITIZENS AND OFFICERS FOR EXCELLENT CONDITION.

Herewith is a copy of the final report of the Grand Jury for the term of court just ended as presented to Judge R. C. Joiner.

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF CASTRO

IN DISTRICT COURT OF
CASTRO COUNTY, TEXAS,
APRIL TERM, 1935.

TO HONORABLE R. C. JOINER,
JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

We your grand jury duly empaneled for said term of court, hereby respectfully submit our final report.

We have been in session a total of four days and have diligently inquired into any true presentment made of all law violations coming to our knowledge, having returned five felony indictments. We have examined a total of 25 witnesses.

We wish to thank the court for his kind assistance and cooperation throughout our deliberations. We also thank the bailiffs, the district and county attorneys, for their assistances.

On the whole we find the state of law observance in Castro County, excellent. However, we do warn parents that we find in many instances the younger folk, especially boys, are needlessly idling on the streets, the result being that this is furnishing fertile ground for the breeding of crime; in fact two of the crimes for which we have returned indictment originated in such an idlers meeting. We believe that boys who have no work to perform have no business idling on the streets.

We commend our peace officers for their faithful services in law enforcement; and, realizing that human life, especially of our children under the years of discretion, is being endangered by what we feel is reckless driving, desire hereby to go on record as commending our officers for any effort to prevent such reckless driving.

Having finished our deliberations we respectfully ask that we be discharged.

Edwin Ramey, Foreman.

RELIEF BUDGETS ARE INCREASED

LOCAL RELIEF OFFICES RECEIVES ALLOTMENT FOR MAY RELIEF IN CASTRO.

Wade Dent, Castro County relief administrator, in an interview with a News representative disclosed the interesting fact that the budgetary average for this county has been raised some twenty-five percent for the month of May, placing the average for a family of four at approximately $22.00 as against the old average of $17.00. According to Administrator Dent the increase in the budget needs is a direct result of the increase in commodity prices.

The May relief allotment, totalling $13,680.00, is the largest month's total ever received in this county.

JAIL CAN'T HOLD 'EM
SO THEY MOVED 'EM

It was just a case of not enough jail or too much prisoners this week as Homer and O. J. Garms, under 2-year penitentiary sentence for the theft of hay last December, showed their distaste of "Dad" Gibbs' jail by strolling from their cages whenever they felt like taking their freedom.

The first occasion was on Sunday when the prisoners decided they wanted to see what was going on in the outside world and proceeded to take themselves over to the drug store for a soda. However upon returning to the jail imagine their surprise and embarrassment at not being able to return to the quarters reserved them by the late court. A hurry call to local officers soon relieved the situation and both men were shown once again to their cells.

Monday and Tuesday like instances occurred, to the delight of the inmates and the expense of the jailer who had wagered the boys they couldn't repeat the trick of the late Houdini. He lost before he had taken himself one block from the local bastille.

The Sheriff however decided that things were developing too much along a playful line and hustled them off to Hereford Tuesday afternoon where they are at the present time members of a ways and means committee to figure just how they may take their periodic stroll from the confines of the Deaf Smith county big house.

BONUS PAYMENT UP TO PRESIDENT NOW

WASHINGTON, May 7. — In direct defiance of expressed White House wishes, Senate backers of the Patman bill today smashed swiftly and successfully through three roll call votes to complete congressional action on the proposal to pay the bonus with $2,201,935,000 in new currency.

The final vote for the inflationary measure was 53 to 33.

WASHINGTON, May 7. Here is what the Patman bonus bill passed by the Senate today, would do:

Pay to the average veteran the full face value of his adjusted service certificate, minus any loans and interest due against it. For the 15 per cent of the veterans who had not borrowed, this would average $1,000. For the 85 per cent who have it would average $497.

Authorize the secretary of the treasury to issue sufficient non-interest-bearing notes to pay off the certificates. This has been estimated at 62,201,934,000. But if the price level reached the 1921-1920 average, the treasury would be authorized to contract the currency.

Eligible veterans who had not applied for their bonus certificates would have until January 2, 1940, to do so. Altogether, approximately 3,500,000 veterans now hold certificates.

GOVERNOR ALLRED SIGNS TEXAS CENTENNIAL BILL

JUNIOR CLUB BEAT SENIORS

SPECTACULAR DIAMOND BATTLE CLIMAXED AS JUNIOR HOMERS TO WIN 45-43.

With all the pomp and color of a world's series baseball game the Junior Study Club ladies proved their superior endurance Monday afternoon at the high school athletic field by nosing out a determined Senior Study club in a close and thrilling game by a 45 to 43 score.

Shades of the hitting powers of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmy Foxx, Mickey Cochrane, Ducky Medwick and other diamond greats the fielding sensations of Frankie Frisch, Bill Werber, Jo Jo White and the flash on the base paths of Pepper Martin, Jo Jo White and Ben Chapman were all mirrored in the stupendous and eloquent performances of Dimmitt's greatest array of feminine pulchritude on the local boardwalk this season.

Pardon me—that was a ball game and not a bathing revue, wasn't it? But it is reported that strained muscles outnumbered strained necks a few on Tuesday morning, as the charming little red panties of the victorines kept the great through fearful lest some anxious player should attempt a hook slide and raise a few strawberries among the fine collection of "charlie-horses."

The Senior clubbers gained a flying start in the initial inning blasting the Junior defense to shreds tallying seven times before Empire-in-chief Ed Ramey finally came to the rescue of the junior ladies declaring it was their time to bat. The younger lassies displayed a fighting heart and kept plugging away and finally overtook their overalled adversaries with some lusty clubbing and fancy baserunning. However the seniors rallied and forged again into the lead as the final inning began. A counter rally by the juniors climaxed by Ola Mae Trimble's line home run to the left field fence squelched the elder club's erstwhile diamond titular ambitions and preserved their own democracy and pursuit of happiness even amidst a prevailing feeling of muscular inconvenience.

It has been rumored among the male fraternity of the city that conscientious practice sessions have been held throughout the domains of this municipality for the proper consumption and application of Sloan's liniment and like commodities, although as we go to press this reporter has been unable to trace this rumor—"we only heard."

80 FAMILIES RURAL RELIEF

ELVIS BURCH MAKING PRELIMINARY SURVEY OF REHABILITATION DISTRICT.

Elvis Burch, recently appointed head of the newly created Rural Rehabilitation District, is busily engaged this week in making preliminary surveys of the four counties preparatory to setting up machinery for the proper administration of duties.

In Castro County eighty rural families have been dropped from the local relief rolls and placed upon the new rehabilitation program. These families will be taken care of as in the past, but will be given aid in the form of advances in the place of direct relief.

GRADUATION SERMON MAY 12

REV. JOE STROTHER TO DELIVER SERMON SUNDAY EVENING TO GRADUATES.

Rev. Joe Strother, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will deliver the annual baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Dimmitt High School this Sunday evening in the High School auditorium at 8:30 o'clock.

Due to Sunday being Mother's Day and appropriate services being planned at the various churches of the city it has been decided to deviate from the usual custom of holding the graduation sermon in the morning and out of the deference to the day it has been changed to an evening hour. The Senior class will be regaled in the customary cap and gown which will land quite an impressive atmosphere to the festivities of the evening.

Special music will be rendered by the Dimmitt Glee Club under the direction of Miss Mattie Mae Swisher.

The graduation exercises will be held at the High School auditorium Friday evening, May 17, a detailed account of which will be found in next week's issue of The News.

LIONS LISTEN TO VISITORS

JACK BOREN AND J. G. DAVIS SPEAK BEFORE GROUP TUESDAY.

A rather small but nevertheless enthusiastic group of Dimmitt Lions enjoyed the regular weekly meeting Tuesday noon at the First Methodist Church and heard two very interesting speakers. One being Jack Boren, this city's speaker in the "My Home Town" contest at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Plainview next week, Jack tied for first place at the convention last year and the local people entertain high hopes that he may repeat this year with the highest honors. His speech is excellent and elicited much praise from the Lions. Boss Lion Stephens pledges the club's support of the youth in any way that he might see fit.

Mr. Davis, one of the local administrators of the triple-A program of the county appeared before the body and made a brief explanation of the agricultural program, and told of the pressing need for this county to be represented at the Washington gathering May 14 and 15. The club responded with full support to the program as outlined by the visitor, after which the luncheon adjourned until next week.

L. M. HOGSETT, DENVER'S FREIGHT AGENT, IS DEAD

FORT WORTH, May 6—Funeral of M. L. Hogsett, 56, general freight agent of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway, is scheduled to be held here Tuesday morning at First Methodist Church.

He died here unexpectedly Sunday afternoon at his apartment home. Apparently in good health, he had been dressing to go for a ride with Mrs. Hogsett.

PROGRESS FOR DIMMITT

Real progress of a municipality comes when the citizens of today plan for the needs of the citizens of tomorrow. The growth of Dimmitt for example, depends upon the vision with which present citizens see the requirements of the progressive city, not of today, but of tomorrow.

Having such a vision and possessing faith in the possibilities of Dimmitt there is nothing that remains unimportant. Anything, and everything, that will make Dimmitt more attractive to live in, and an easier place in which to make a living, is desirable.

The work of building Dimmitt does not devalue upon any civic organization, or group of organizations. It is a duty that rests directly upon the shoulders of each citizen. Organizations exist only to co-ordinate the efforts of the citizens.

No citizen can escape his civic duties by declining to participate in functions of an organization. These duties existed before the organization came into being, and remain whether the individual is a joiner or not. If the citizen does not like the organizations available he is not under any compulsion to join, but he is, nevertheless, under the full obligation of his civic duties and he should execute them.

CONGRATULATING THE GRADUATES

The Castro County News hastens to extend its congratulations to the hundreds of young student of Castro County who complete their school courses this year.

It is an important event in the life of any person, and the future of any graduate is to be largely determined by what happens in the four or five years immediately following high school. We hope that most of our young graduates will be able to attend college, because the training acquired, and the broadened outlook that follows, is one of the best assets of a young man or woman.

Let us caution the graduates of Dimmitt High schools, however, that intelligence in itself, is not the goal of life, but merely a tool, with which to labor towards the end. Acquire intelligence by all means but develop spiritually with it. The nation has need of strong men and women, who have the knowledge to know and the will to do right.

We hope every reader will remember to observe Mother's Day next Sunday.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

International Sunday School Lesson for May 12, 1935.

GOLDEN TEXT: "So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another." Romans 12:5.

(Lesson Text: Acts 2:41-45; Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-16.)

What is the Christian Church? what principles does it represent? Who compose its membership? What should it accomplish. Who are worthy members of it. These are some of the questions considered in our weekly topic.

The Greek word, "ekklesia," referred to an assembly of citizens in a free city for transacting public business, formed by words originally designating a select group called out of the whole population. This word appears some seventy times in the Septuagint translation of the Old Testament, describing the congregation or assembly of Israel. The word is used over a hundred times in the New Testament, but in no gospel except Matthew's, and here only twice.

The word was first used by Jesus immediately following Peter's inspired confession of faith in his divinity at Caesarea Philippi, when he said he would build his church on such faith, and promised that the forces of evil should never prevail against it. The keys were delivered to Peter, who opened membership to the Jews by his Pentecostal sermon, and the Gentiles at the home of the Roman centurion Cornelius.

The early Jewish converts to Christianity did not immediately create an ecclesiastical organization. Love and loyalty to Jesus were then common ties and they met in the beginning in private homes for fellowship and inspiration in the service of their faith. The initial forms of the early church evolved from experience and in answer to the needs of the members of the new group, different from the rest of the population, subject to persecution, and drawn close by common danger and spiritual expectation.

The picture of the first Christian group, given in the second chapter of Acts, when these were about three thousand members, is illuminating. They gathered to increase their knowledge of Jesus and his doctrines, to develop their faith and powers through prayer, and to serve the needs of their fellows, inspired by love towards each other. Many of the wealthy sold their possessions to meet the needs of those less fortunate, which practice was not the "communism" we hear of today, but was a more generous attitude towards holding wealth selfishly in the face of human distress and need than practiced severally by Christians to day. This unselfish and pure example in practical Christianity undoubtedly had much to do with the rapid growth of the church, and, we might add, a similar procedure today would restore confidence in many hearts today which are distrustful of the professions of many church groups.

In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul emphasizes the unity of the church in faith and worship. The great apostle realized fully the difficulties in creating and maintaining the necessary singleness of ideal and attitude where so many different personalities were involved. "The Church includes in its membership Jews and Gentiles, wise and ignorant, rich and poor, men and women of all races and classes," as Charles R. Erdman says, and: "When such different dispositions, tastes and personalities are involved, it is evident that the preservation of harmony is no slight achievement." It can only be enjoyed when the membership remains constantly conscious of their common brotherhood in the same God and faith, practicing in daily life and love, patience and forbearing enjoined on the Ephesian membership by Paul.

The church, like other social institutions, has no justification if it does not serve the individuals. By "church" we mean the body of Christian believers as a whole, and not any sect or group within the wider range. Among the goals of the church the late Dr. Lyman Abbott listed: (1) to help men and women meet temptation successfully; (2) to carry the spirit of helpful service into society; (3) to encourage its members to face criticism and sneers for doing right; (4) to oppose powerful established vested interests when harmfully engaged; (5) to comfort and console those stricken in sorrow; (6) to forgive and inspire to better life those who have wavered and are in despair; and (7) to build a faith which looks beyond the grave to the eternity of life beyond, thus encouraging a serious and purposeful existence while on this earth.

Hints for the Household

Not long ago I learned a delightful easy and infallible method of making slip covers for furniture and am anxious to tell you about it. First, cut a strip of slip cover material wide enough to hang over the chair several inches at either side and long enough to reach from the floor in front to the floor behind, with four inches tucked away in the crease at the back of the seat. Pin firmly to prevent slipping.

Then, pin in plaits for an ample seam at front of seat and two seams at the top of the back. Be careful to get these exact so that the cover will neither pull nor sag. Where the material extends beyond the width of the chair at the top of the chair back, slit the plaits to chair width and pin the side pieces which will extend just below the chair arms.

Next, slit the material to fit over and around the arm where the arm joins the back and the seat. Run the scissors along the inside joint of arm and seat, leaving two and one-half inches for tuck-in. Slit the plait at the front of the seat to chair width on either side.

And Then . . . Next, pin pieces for the inside and top of each arm. Be sure to allow two and a half inches for tuck-in on each side piece. Then, pin in the large side pieces and trim off surplus material.

The next step is to pin in pieces for the front of each arm, being sure to carry the piece to the base of the arm. If the arm extends below the top of the seat, a small piece will have to be pinned on to return to the seat of the chair.

The final step in the making of a slip cover is the taping. The seams down the inside of the arm and along the join of the arm and the seat are not taped but sewed on the inside.

Tape the other seams in this order:

Across the corners of the back, the front of the arms, the seat front, around the face of the back, along inside edges of arms, from back along outside edges of arms and down to the bottom of the cover, clear around the back and around the bottom.

It is best to use a material that has been shrunk. If it hasn't half an inch must be allowed in the seams for lengthwise shrinkage and a quarter of an inch for crosswise shrinkage.

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

1. Vaseline rubbed into frayed black or dark colored satin slippers will make them look like new?
2. If, when making coffee, you run short of milk, you will find that a tasty substitute is to beat up an egg and put a little in each cup with a little milk?

MOTHERS DAY PROGRAM AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday morning we are having a special mothers day program. We wish to invite all those who care to come. Our mothers should be recognized at all time but this is a day set aside by our nation to specially recognize and honor her. This program is being arranged by Mrs. O. Stephens and Mrs. Barron. The pastor will preach from the following subject, I Tim. 2:15: "She shall be saved through her child bearing if

GOLDEN GLEAMS

The days of our years are three-score years and ten; and if by reason of strength, they be four-score years, yet is their strength, labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off and we fly away.

let us call your attention to the extraordinary opportunity you have this month to trade in your old stove or range on the new Waldorf Electric. Prices of the new range installed from $74.50 to $99.50. A liberal allowance on your old stove or range is deducted from these prices. Convenient terms, if desired, at small additional cost.

Good-bye to sooty pots and pans

"Electric cooking is clean!" This statement probably has a greater appeal for most women than anything else we could say about electric cooking. All the actual burning of fuel is done in the power house far from your home.

Safety A word to mothers

If there are children in your home your cooking methods assumes a greater importance than perhaps you had ever expected. No mother needs to be told that heat from a glowing wire is safer than heat from an open flame.

The New Waldorf gives you cooking at its best

Women who have just experienced for the first time the thrill of cooking by electricity say they had never dreamed that the kind of range could make so much difference in the quality of their cooking. Whether you bake, or roast, or broil, the Waldorf oven turns out food with a flavor and tenderness not even approached by any other form of cooking.

Electric Cooking is fast

In designing the Waldorf Electric Range, cooking speed was given first consideration. The main purpose was to provide a cooking device that would be as far ahead of ranges already on the market as the modern motor car is ahead of the horseless carriage.

Application of the new 'ultimate' electric rate makes electric cooking cost you little additional, if any, to your present service bill.

more. You need to be regular and we need you to be regular. Hear this program and message Sunday morning and do come early enough to be on time for Sunday school at nine forty-five.

The BobCat Tales

The official publication of Dimmitt High School. Published Each Thursday. Editor-in-Chief George Musick...

Musick-al Notes

Well the time is near at hand when the High School days will be over once again for several of us...

Mr. Haas said the other day he would make a few contributions to the paper if we would let him...

"The Bobcat Tales" was sure enough complimented the other day and I don't mean maybe...

Well I guess it is about time that I wrote about something else instead of this old column.

Don't A theatrical critic in New York says you don't miss much if you don't go to the average variety show...

THE PLAINVIEW SANITARIUM Thoroughly equipped for the examination and treatment of medical and surgical patients...

Keyhole Kelly

There is nothing like a big key hole and a piece of paper and a pencil. I wonder how Florene looks when she cries...

After taking my presence back to Dimmitt I saw another girl crying and taking on something terrible...

I wonder why Leon Lile is always late, or is everyone else forty five minutes early?

If Christine would listen through the key holes a little more and stop listening over the party line she would know more about the parties to be held in her honor...

I've just wondered Mr. Simmons doesn't go with the girls. Well, it's just because they don't want him to. Now listen girls I'm not disclosing my sex but I think you ought to be just a little more considerate of the home town boys...

BOBCATS COME OUT SECOND WITH CLOSE SCORE

The Bobcats handed over a baseball game to Nazareth Monday afternoon, May 6, but the same old sportsmanship reigns among them...

Allen Webb, catcher. Auther Webb, pitcher. Bob Estes, 1st base. Robert Ramey, 2nd base. Harwood Murphy, 3rd base. Jay Winders, shortstop. Jack Boren, r. field. C. G. Maples, c. field. Sam Kirkpatrick, l. field.

CAN YOU IMAGINE Claudia Waggoner looking at Leon Lile with admiring eyes. Elbert Summers wrestling with his history lesson.

Jay Winders making eyes at Mary Alice McLean. Junior Stephens asking someone how to spell a word. Keith Wittie being the ladies man.

Decimae Ramey going to sleep on James shoulder. Juanita Mondell still counting on her fingers and toes. Robert Singers hair being combed. Lois Mae Cox having a twin sister.

SENIORS

Well I guess this old school is a pretty good old school after all. The entire school seems to be having the time of their life and most of them studying and making their grades...

Are the seniors busy for the next two weeks. Besides the final exams coming up next week there is a thousand and one places to go and about half that many that we would like to go. By the way, I had almost forgotten that the baccalaureate sermon is next Sunday night...

This is the next to the last issue of the Bobcat Tales. We as the senior class wish to thank every one that has helped to make this paper a success. And we hope to see another one next year that will go to the P. H. S. P. A. contest and make the rest of the schools sit up and take notice.

I am afraid that my good friend James Barron is going to say a little too much along the line of Key-Hole Kelly. If you recall that in a paper not so long ago he had a good deal to say concerning some things that I said. Well I'm not going to say all that I think about the subject, but I will say this much that James seemed mighty quick to pick it up what I said as if he might know the gentleman, Key-Hole Kelly rather personally...

OUR MOTHER June Waggoner

We see our mothers most ever day, We can hear their trembling voices say; You think we're just old folks, but we're not, You think you know everything but you're nothing more than a little tot; Our mothers try to talk so kind to us, We won't even listen to them, we gripe and we fuss; Gee! she's worth a lot to us all through life, She even helps up when we are a weathered mother and a poor man's wife. We can't realize how much she is to us, until she's gone, Then we think of days that have passed, it makes us cry and moan; Our dearest mother has gone to a place to rest, But, Oh! our wonderful mother, whose love for us was the best.

SOPHOMORES

Did someone say, 'how are the Sophs?' Well, we are still here, and do we have the spring fever? The end of school is nearing, and we are reviewing for final exams. The majority of the class is planning to be Juniors the coming year, but something is wrong with a few, and they will remain where they are. Miss Link seems to think she has a mean English class, because we all like to talk, but really we aren't so bad, we just like to exercise our tongues...

JOKES

Lucille Kirkpatrick—What kind of music suits you best, Junior? Junior: Well, I'm not very particular. I like it either rare or well done.

Miss Link: Why was Columbus sent home in chains? Truitt: So he wouldn't skid on the wet roads.

Aunt Jane: So you intend to be a soldier, do you, Henry? Don't you know you may be killed? Sam Kirkpatrick: Killed? Who by? Aunt Jane: The enemy. Sam: Then I'll be the enemy.

Jack: I'd face a dragon in order to win Lois Mae, just as the knights did in the olden days. Bob: Well, you may have to. You haven't seen her mother yet.

Miss Link: Ezell, tell me where Mexico is. Ezell: It's on page 10 in the history.

Mr. Parker: A boy paid $18.25 for a bicycle and sold it for $11.75. Did he gain or lose by the bargain and how much? Bub Ramey: He lost on the dollars but gained on the cents.

MORE PRIVATE PLANES

Washington.—According to statistics of the Federal Bureau of Air Commerce, there has been an increase in the purchase of small civilian airplanes. In 1934, 853 such airplanes were purchased, including 661 monoplanes and 192 biplanes. This may indicate that at some future date the American family may have its private airplane as well as their automobile.

NO NEW ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF JOBS ARE OPEN

AUSTIN, May 1.—Administration of relief in many Texas counties is being complicated by a rush of persons seeking employment under the new work relief law to get on the relief rolls before plans for carrying out the measure have been completed, it has been announced by E. A. Baugh, assistant director of the Texas Relief Commission.

"Some of our administrators are working under pressure from all sides to admit to relief rolls applicants not in dire need but anxious to get a first chance at federal relief jobs under the new program."

"This condition results in congestion in our county offices and hampers county administrators in their efforts to do the best they can for those really destitute people already on our rolls."

"We are making every effort at this time to lower our caseloads because it is the season of the year when there ought to be more jobs available. Concerted efforts to 'crash' the relief rolls at this time merely make the job more difficult for many county organizations already overworked with their present relief loads."

"It may be several weeks before the new work relief program begins to function in Texas. When we receive instructions to undertake it, we will set up the program in all counties simultaneously. There will be no need for people seeking work to move from one county to another. Rumors that the program already is under way in some counties are without foundation."

Mr. Baugh requested persons seeking jobs NOT to apply at relief offices. "We are still granting relief to the unfortunates," he said. "We have no jobs to offer."

TEXAS FARMERS GO TO CAPITAL

CASTRO COUNTY WILL HAVE REPRESENTATIVE FOR WASHINGTON AAA VISIT.

A local committee is out at the present time raising funds to defray expenses for a representative from this county to join with like groups from other Texas counties on a visit to the nation's capital May 14 for the purpose of meeting the president and pleading for the continuation of the AAA programs which have proved so beneficial in the past years. A representative will likely be chosen within the next few days to represent the claims from Castro county cotton, wheat, and corn-hog producers.

C. H. Day, Hale County farmer, returned Sunday from a ten days trip to Washington where he was named chairman of arrangements for the national delegation of farmers that are to visit the Capital May 14. Day, chairman of the Texas Cotton Advisory Board, was named to head the arrangements group at a meeting of cotton committeemen in Washington.

Day hopes to have a special train of at least 250 farmers from Texas, he said today. He is making plans to secure a representative from each of the counties in Texas.

Day is stressing that the national farmers meeting is not to be a white collared affair. He brought out that the "city" farmer will not be barred but that the primary purpose of the meeting is to secure a national representation of the dirt farmer who has had a personal and comprehensive experience with the triple A program in one or more of its phases.

Day stated that 1,500 to 2,000 farmers were expected to attend the meeting.

Three Will Make Washington Trip

At a meeting of the Castro county farm association committeemen yesterday F. J. Axe of Jumbo, J. G. Davis of Bethel and P. H. Dyer of Jumbo were chosen to represent the county in the farmer's visit to Washington, May 14-15 to plead for the extension of the AAA programs which have been a boon to the farmers during the past three years.

Alternates are O. C. Axtell of Sunnyside, E. C. Burks of Arney and Joe Bichsel of Nazareth.

The local delegates will leave for Fort Worth to join the Texas delegation on a special train Saturday.

NEW RELIEF SET UP EXPLAINED

ADMINISTRATOR DENT ISSUES EXPLANATION FOR RURAL REHABILITATION.

Effective immediately, county relief administrators no longer will be permitted to extend any form of relief from general relief funds to any employable farm family, it was announced by Adam R. Johnson, state director of the Texas Relief Commission.

"A farm family," Mr. Johnson explained, "is one residing outside the limits of incorporated or unincorporated towns, villages and cities and who depend upon farming operations for the major portion of their income. It is not intended to include in this group families who live on small plots of land which are sufficient only to produce a part of their sustenance requirements and upon which they can not produce a commercial crop."

"Farm families," henceforth, may receive aid only in the form of advances through the rural rehabilitation corporation. County administrators were instructed to recall any work cards issued to rural families for work relief in May and to make advances, secured by notes and mortgages, instead.

All families affected by this change immediately will become rural rehabilitation families, Mr. Johnson said, and will receive aid in the future from rural subsistence funds in accordance with their needs as established by caseworkers.

At the same time, administrators will contact all landlords at the earliest possible date to obtain waivers on the landlord's interest in the tenant's share of the crop. This procedure was adopted in order to secure advances which the rural corporation will make to the tenant.

"If a client transferred under these regulations receives subsistence advances, executing notes for them, and later it develops that a waiver form can not be obtained from the landlord or other creditors, then the case will be dropped completely from our records," Mr. Johnson declared. "In such instances, the notes taken will be written off as a loss, but the client will receive no further advances after the date on which creditors refuse to execute waivers. Creditors will be notified when these cases are dropped from the records."

Explaining the new regulation, Mr. Johnson said it is in line with the long established method of furnishing sharecroppers. "This is what bankers and other creditors always have done," he said. "Our former practice of furnishing the tenant with subsistence needs as an outright grant just encouraged creditors to allow the relief administration to finance the making of their crops. This new regulation will help to correct that situation and dignify the aid extended farmers by eliminating the outright relief grant."
