RELIEF FUND SHORTAGE CUTS DOWN BUDGET

AUSTIN, June 6.—Due to relief fund shortage in Texas, it is impossible to make an allocation of funds to a given average family of five persons that would constitute an adequate relief budget for such a family, according to Director Marie Dresden of the Texas relief commission.

In Texas, the establishment of family budgets is based upon the volume of funds available for relief and upon the situation in which a given family of five, for example, may find itself.

The determination of such budgetary relief requirements is placed in the hands of the social service staff of the Texas relief commission. Case investigators, in determining the basis for the budget in a family of five, take numerous factors into consideration.

Geographical location of the family is important. Under normal circumstances, a family of five may be more sustaining—all else being equal—in the balmy South Texas area than in the drought-stricken area of the Panhandle.

In winter time, the utility expense in protecting the family groups from cold would increase the relief cost to a family of five residing in Amarillo in comparison to another family of similar size in Brownsville.

Should tragedy come into the family of five, afflicting children with tuberculosis or rickets, both of which are on the increase among destitute children, a special diet for these persons would increase the cost of relief.

Medical cost, dental treatment and hospitalization are other factors. Where acute or chronic illness makes professional services necessary, this gives cause to a disproportionate relief cost for which the state must pay.

Seasonal garden possibilities enter into budget making for a family of five. In certain regions of Texas, gardening is possible over a long season. In these areas, family budget reductions are the rule. At the same moment, in drought areas, a family of similar size may cost the state thrice the amount of the former.

Rural and urban living conditions and requirements are an important factor to be considered in family relief costs. A family may be sustained more cheaply, as a rule, in rural areas than in large cities where rents and other living costs are higher.

Possibilities of periodic employment must be regarded. Many families are taken from a relief roll temporarily when even temporary employment is available to adult family members.

Family resources are an outstanding factor. Home-ownership, the presence of relatives with modest but independent income, and similar items are subject to close attention by relief agents.

In Texas, the average relief cost of maintaining a given family of five will vary in accordance with the above and other factors that affect a family budget. This will range all the way from $8 to $30 per month and it obviously becomes almost impossible to give a flat, artificial average relief cost per family under such circumstances.

The average cost of relief per family (not a family of five, but a family) throughout the state is $13 per month. Probably the average would be $12 for a family of five. This is not sufficient to give complete relief as would be given if additional funds were available.

Program for Drouth Area Is Pushed

The government pressed a huge relief program today while the heat spread eastward extending the sun-baked area to New Mexico and other eastern states. In addition to the vast region in the southwest, parts of New York reported damage and suffering due to lack of rain. Extreme weather added to the peril of fires. More new fires reported under control in Oklahoma state.

ONE IN EVERY 318 WORKERS OUT ON STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 6.—One American of every 318 normally gainfully employed is an actual striker or committed to walk out of his place of employment in the near future, a survey of labor conditions in the nation industrial centers disclosed today.

To the tune of riots, bloodshed and even death some 53,000 workers have deserted mines, docks, factories and shops in recent weeks.

One hundred thousand steel workers threatened to desert their forges, molds and furnaces in protest against non recognition of their union.

Partial shipping shutdown extends from New Orleans to San Francisco in the strike of 25,000 longshoremen for higher wages and union recognition.

Famous Humorist Is Fatally Shot

MINERAL WELLS, June 6.—Thomas William Jackson, 67, famous author and humorist, was found dead in his home at 12:45 today, a pistol by his side. No verdict as to how he met his death had been reached by a coroner.

The author, most famous for his books "A Slow Train Through Arkansas" and "Through Missouri on a Mule," died 20 minutes after he was found. He had been a resident of Mineral Wells for the past 14 years and had been in ill health for some time.

He returned from Florida three months ago, at which time his latest book came off the press.

Body of Wayne C. Hickey's Brother Found In the Bay

Word was received in Ranger late Tuesday afternoon from Wayne C. Hickey, who is in Corpus Christi, that the body of his brother had been found in Corpus Christi bay. Funeral services were conducted this morning at 10 o'clock at Corpus Christi.

PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYES MAY CALL STRIKE

FORT WORTH, June 6.—Packing house union workers today deferred presentation of wage and hour contracts to packers in a movement that threatened strike.

200 workers held a special meeting last night but voted to delay definite action until their regular meeting Friday night. It will be determined when the contracts will be presented.

Competition Kills Texas Oil Fields Committee Is Told

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Uncontrolled competition is destroying Texas oil fields, W. B. Hamilton, Wichita Falls independent producer, told the house interstate commerce committee today in support of the Disney oil control bill.

Hamilton said several Texas fields which should be producing are dry because of a mad race to draw oil from the ground. He assailed the measure's opponents, saying they were trying to ruin "the little fellow."

Propaganda Is Blamed On Ford

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Anti-Semitic propaganda, attributed to Henry Ford, is being distributed in the United States despite the automobile manufacturer's protest, a house committee investigating Nazi activities was told today.

Representative Carl Weideman, democrat, Michigan, testified that a collection of articles which once appeared in Ford's organ, the Dearborn Independent, was being broadcast to Germans in this country although Ford had depudated them.

The collection, entitled "The International Rule," was printed in Germany and sent to the United States, he said.

Bryan Hospital Is To Be Reopened

BRYAN, Texas.—Bryan hospital, for many years the only institution of its kind in this area, is to be reopened June 10 in the charge of the Catholic Sisters of Charity.

A number of attempts to reopen the hospital, closed since the death of Dr. W. H. Oliver more than a year ago, have been made. Arrangements for the reopening have been worked out by Dr. R. B. Ehlinger, representative of the Sisters of Charity, and F. C. Oliver, executor of the estate of W. H. Oliver.

A feature of the plan of operation is the setting aside of a number of beds for charity. The institution will be open to all physicians of this and adjacent counties.

Centennial Body In Session Today

AUSTIN, June 6.—Official action toward determining time, place and character of a 1936 Texas Centennial celebration, was begun here today.

Not to Be Taken Lightly

It's a quaint old Scotch custom, this heaving the caber. The athlete grabs a log, balances it precariously in the palms of his hands and against his chest, takes a short run and pushes his denuded tree into the air. Of course, the steel-muscled lad who heaves the lumber the farthest wins the prize. The above photo was taken during a professional meet in London.

Gregg County Man Is Candidate For Land Commission

Walter E. Jones of Gregg county, candidate for commissioner of the general land office, was visiting Eastland county towns Wednesday in the interest of his candidacy.

In discussing his campaign Mr. Jones stated that his policies, if elected, will be:

1. Honesty, promptness, efficiency and fair dealing.
2. A strenuous effort to recover for the public schools every possible acre of state land.
3. A thorough investigation of all existing public land contracts with a view to straightening out all discrepancies, irregularities and illegalities.
4. I shall select my assistants with a view to having all parts of the state represented in the land office.
5. I shall co-operate fully with the other departments of the state government, and with other people who have business with the land office.

Eastland Firemen Prepare Program For State Meet

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce, through a committee composed of Dan Childress, John Burke and George Harper, chief messengers of the Eastland Fire Department are arranging a program to be presented June 13 at the firemen's convention in Mineral Wells as a part of Eastland's bid for the convention in 1935.

If present plans of the C. of C. culminate, Eastland will send a motorcade consisting of 25 cars to the convention. The motorcade is scheduled to leave at 8:00 a.m. June 13. Support of the fire departments of Breckenridge, Cisco and Ranger has been evidenced as an aid to Eastland in securing the meet.

Oil Workers Will Strive Peacefully for Better Condition

FORT WORTH, June 6.—President Harvey C. Fremming of the International Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers today urged workers to use their right of collective bargaining to seek improved wages and working conditions.

Oil workers have "experimented" with the national recovery administration too long, Fremming said in his annual report to the national convention.

"We must now proceed as an organized body, in a peaceful and constructive way," he continued. "If methods of peaceful persuasion cannot bring about the desired results we must use more forceful methods."

TIMES WINNER 16 TO 8 FROM SERVICE CLUB

The Times won from the Service Club Tuesday afternoon 16 to 8 in a game that, though it had few real errors, was filled with miscues on the part of the players.

The Times took a 4 to 1 lead in the first inning and the Service club came back to make two, while the Times was making one in the second inning. The Times scored twice in the fourth, five times in the sixth and four more in the seventh, while Service club went scoreless from the second to the sixth, when they picked up one run and made four in the seventh.

In the second inning, with two runs in, two down and men on first and second bases, B. E. Garner, of the Service club stole second with the base already occupied, forcing Wagner toward third. He was caught in a chase between the bases as Garner went back toward first and was run out.

Elks to Install New Officers On Friday Night

The newly elected officers for the ensuing year of the B. P. O. Elks of Ranger, Texas, are to be installed next Friday night at the Elks Club at 8:30 p. m.

The installing officers will be Brothers George Laudermilk, newly elected president of the Texas Elks State association; W. R. Dudley, Jr., state secretary; Meyer Karbofsky, state treasurer, and Charles Mangold, past president of the state association, all of Dallas; H. G. Gibson, past president of the association, of Houston; J. D. Carter, vice president of the state association, and George Renfrow, district deputy grand exalted ruler of Fort Worth.

Many visiting Elks from Cisco, Eastland and Breckenridge will be present. A buffet lunch will be served after the installation. All Elks are requested to be present and visiting Elks are always welcome.

Robt. L. Hamrick Died at Coleman; Funeral Thursday

Robert L. Hamrick, 50, of Coleman, formerly of Ranger, died at his home Tuesday night after a long illness.

The body was shipped to Rising Star, from where it will be shipped to Ranger Thursday and funeral services are to be conducted from the Central Baptist Church of Ranger Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. H. H. Stephens, pastor of the church, will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. Roden, pastor of the Gorman Baptist church. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery following the services at the church.

The decedent was born and raised in Gorman, later coming to Ranger, where he was employed in the Citizens State Bank for four years. He was married to Miss Mamie Ruth Langston of Ranger in 1926 and is survived by his widow, two children, Mary Francis and Bob, Jr., his mother and an aunt, the latter two residing in Coleman.

Rev. Dunlap Talks At Rotary Meeting

F. D. Hicks and D. Joseph, who had charge of the Rotary club program today, postponed their program until next week in order that Rev. E. D. Dunlap, who is conducting a revival at the Central Baptist church could speak before the club.

Rev. Dunlap spoke on the Rotary wheel, calling it an emblem of progress.

Breckenridge Will Have Reunion For The Old Settlers

An invitation to the pioneers of this section is issued from Breckenridge, Texas, where an Old Timers reunion will be held June 15 and 16.

A historical pageant, presented by expert showmen, will be given Friday evening the 15th.

A colorful parade will be staged at 2 o'clock the same day and a giant barbecue will be given all comers at the noon hour.

Old fiddlers, square dancing and the "kick" that comes from elbow-rubbing with the Old Boys—these are a part of the picture of the two-day reunion.

Time will be given for every pioneer to tell the most colorful events of his life. There will be water, shade and time to talk.

STOCK MARKET CONTROL BILL IS SIGNED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Roosevelt signed the stock exchange control bill today, placing for the first time in history the nation's securities market under federal control.

The measure contained 10 major provisions to protect not only the investor but national credit and the federal taxing power. The provisions follow:

- 1.—Appointment of five commissioners to administer the act.
- 2.—Registration of stock brokers.
- 3.—Licensing of exchanges after their rules and regulations have received approval of the commission.
- 4.—Regulation of brokers credit and margin requirements.
- 5.—Outlawing fictitious transactions and spreading of false information to affect prices.

The commission may regulate the functions of brokers and dealers.

7.—Corporations must file complete information with the commission about officers, salaries, contracts, profit and loss statements, etc., before they can list securities.

8.—Corporations must furnish regular reports on their affairs.

9.—Violators may be punished with maximum fines of $10,000 and prison sentences of two years.

10.—Civil damages may be collected by injured persons.

SUSPECTED IN SHOOTING OF FARM OWNER

Are Called to Garner When Two Suspected of the Crime Are Seen.

WEATHERFORD, Texas, June 6.—Parker county officers rush to Garner today to check reports, stranger, believed to be one of two escaped convicts, had been seen in that vicinity.

Officers from Mineral Wells also were summoned to Garner small village on the western edge of Parker county.

The fugitives, believed to be one of four who escaped from the Harlem state prison farm Monday night, eluded officers after slugging a policeman and shooting a farmer in the thigh last night.

An all night search in this neighborhood was futile.

Policeman George Layman of Weatherford, knocked unconscious by a blow from one of the fugitives, had regained consciousness. He was believed in no danger from the blow.

Grover Cleveland, the farmer wounded, was in a hospital here. His wound was not considered dangerous.

One of the fugitives was identified as Odett McHughes. Officers had been unable to establish identity of the second.

Reunion of Payte Family Held At Carbon Sunday

For the first time in twenty-two years, the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Payte of Carbon met to gather last Sunday in reunion. The scene resembled the gathering of some patriarch of old and his clan.

Mr. and Mrs. Payte have been married 49 years, and have lived in Eastland county 37 of these years. To their union 14 children were born, eleven of whom are living and were present at the reunion which was held at the Payte home in Carbon.

They came from the proverbial four corners of the globe. Although separated by many miles and years, they heard the call of home and responded, each taking some gift of love to the parents who nurtured them.

Turkey and its trimmings, baked ham, vegetables, salads and sweets furnished the reunion dinner Sunday. The anniversary cake, a three tiered old fashioned pound cake, white iced, with decorations of pink and green set off by 49 candles, was the gift of a daughter, Mrs. W. W. Kelly.

Throughout Sunday afternoon and evening, old friends called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Payte, greet the returned children and wish all of them many more such happy occasions.

Those of the family attending the reunion, were:

O. A. Payte, Kenneth and Louise of Slaton, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Turner, of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Payte and Patsy Ruth of Duncan, Okla.; Mrs. Ola Bales, Garland, and Jack of Abilene; H. L. Payte of New York City; Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Payte and Tom of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Payte, Sara Marie and Fay Alyne, of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kelly and Carolyn of Eastland; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Payte of Tulsa, Okla.; Joe Payte of Shamrock; and Mrs. M. A. Browning of Amarillo.

Tariff Bill Changes Accepted By House

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Congressional action on the administration tariff bill was completed today when the house accepted senate amendments.

The measure gives the president unprecedented power to adjust tariff rates and make trade agreements. He may raise or lower duties 50 per cent for bargaining purposes.

ICKES AND HIS "PERMANENT PLAN" FOR PRODUCTION CONTROL

Secy. Harold L. Ickes of the department of the interior and federal oil administrator is a very plain spoken individual. Appearing before the house interstate and foreign commerce committee he advocated removal of the two-year limitation of the provisions in the Disney oil control bill. He blandly stated that "one purpose of the pending measure is to increase prices of crude oil."

Rep. Clarence F. Lea of California is a member of the house committee. He declared his opposition to the Ickes plan. Secretary Ickes was asked by a member of the committee "about protection of the consumer." He very boldly and very bluntly said that the federal oil administrator (speaking of self) "now has such power under the oil code." These are his words: "We have authority to protect the consumer. We will not hesitate to use it. We did not think it possible to fix prices without control of production. To fix prices between all of the producing fields with their varying conditions would be an enormous task." As for the Disney bill, it would clothe the secretary of the interior with power to control the production of crude by limiting the amount that may move in commerce.

Mid-continent oil executives are opposed to the Ickes demand that oil production control shall "continue indefinitely instead of the two-year limitation." E. B. Reeser of Tulsa, one of the leading oil executives, has sounded a warning to the petroleum producers of the country. Read it: "The petroleum industry should resist and oppose the Thomas-Disney petroleum control bill as amended by the mines and mining committee of the senate. The elimination of the two-year control plan contemplates a permanent bureaucracy at Washington to control a great industry. All the other natural resource industries are in a demoralized condition and there is no valid reason for singling out the petroleum industry. The NRA and other agencies were created to operate under an emergency. They should be continued on that basis. If the emergency continues beyond the time limit stated the act can be extended." All of which is a reminder that the Rayburn house committee will hold a hearing on Wednesday, June 6.

In a front page editorial under a caption "Home Rule Is Best After All," the Austin American declared Wednesday, May 9, that "Texas has paid for 20 years a tax of more than $100,000,000 a year, under a republican rule, in high prices for tariff protected commodities manufactured east of the Allegheny mountains and north of the Ohio river." Speaking of the Ickes plan for absolute control this warning was given the people of Texas: "Growing pioneer Texas has been able to stand this terrific tax, but Texas could never stand federal control of $1,000,000-a-

Pharmacists Will Meet On June 18

SNYDER, Texas. — President Lee T. Stinson of the Texas Pharmaceutical association expressed the opinion here that the 55th annual session of the organization at Mineral Wells June 18 to 21 will break the attendance record of 2,300 set in 1927.

Probably the chief harbinger of a banner convention, Stinson said, is heavy sale of lapel buttons, which are being worn by druggists and drug salesmen from one end of the state to the other. Each button carries a picture of Stinson, with the caption, "Meet Him in Mineral Wells June 18-19."

The executive committee of the state druggists' group is composed of: Stinson; Shine Phillips, Big Spring, vice president; Walter D. Adams, Forney, secretary; and Sam F. Harben, Richardson; John B. Ray, Abilene; B. B. Brown, Dallas; E. B. Oliver, Longview; Henry F. Heim, San Antonio; and L. S. Cooper, Corsicana.

Gorman Youth Is Killed at State Training School

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Huff received a telegram from Gatesville May 24 stating that their son, Hobert, had been seriously injured. They left at once, but he died before the family arrived.

Hobert Huff was born Nov. 14, 1917, and was 16 years and six months old at the time of his death. He attended high school in Gorman and had a host of friends whom, together with his relatives, mourn his loss.

Young Huff had only been in the training school a month. He was sent down by the Comanche day production in the sole interest of a gasoline consuming north and east...."

Yes, this newspaper continues to believe that the oil control issue is perhaps the greatest economic struggle for prosperity and freedom that Texas will have in the next few years. Out on the firing line and on with the battle for the American right of home rule for the control as well as the conservation of the natural resources of the Texas empire commonwealth.

Down where they grow tobacco.. in most places Chesterfield is the largest-selling cigarette

—what does that mean?

- it takes good things to make good things.
- the mild ripe tobaccos we buy for Chesterfield mean milder taste.
- the way they are made means Chesterfields burn right and smoke cool.
- it means that down where they grow tobacco folks know that mild ripe tobaccos are bought for Chesterfield.

And because Chesterfields are made of the right kinds of tobacco, it is a milder cigarette, a cigarette that tastes better.

There is no substitute for mild, ripe tobacco.

El Paso County Elects a Chairman

By United Press. EL PASO.—Election of Attorney Ernest Quinn as Democratic county chairman in El Paso county was regarded by political observers as a victory for J. V. Alford's supporters in the pre-gubernatorial campaign skirmishing. Quinn was elected over Virginia Booth, candidate of the Ferguson forces here, to succeed R. R. Bowie, who resigned the chairmanship recently.

Mt. Blanc Auto Tunnel Is Planned

ROME.—Two commissions of French and Italian authorities and experts have been formed and have begun planning an automobile tunnel under Mount Blanc. The necessity for a tunnel to take automobile traffic quickly from France to Italy and vice versa is increasing constantly. There are only six roads along the 30 miles of frontier between the two countries, and in the winter and early spring, only one of these roads, the one that skirts the shores of the Mediterranean, usually is free for traffic. The plan devised by the Italian-French committee is to cut a tunnel through Mt. Blanc, thus connecting Chamoni in France with Courmayeur in Italy. The length of the tunnel would be between eight and ten miles, which is less than the length of the Mt. Cenis-railroad tunnels. The plan under consideration proposes the building of two tunnels for two lines of one-way traffic. The tunnels would be 25 meters apart. Each is planned to be six and a half meters wide. One of the difficulties foreseen by the engineers is the enormous mass of rock which will be dug up to form the tunnels. It is calculated that no tunnel can stand the weight of more than 2,500 meters of rock over it. By deviating the tunnels from the highest point of Mt. Blanc, it will be possible to bore through with a considerably less height of rock above the openings. PLAN HIGHWAY OPENING. By United Press. PERRYTON, Texas.—Preparations are being made here for a mammoth celebration when the Great Plains highway finally is opened to traffic next November. Although portions of the route, which extends from Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, to Mexico City, already are open, a complete thoroughfare will not be available until then. Senator Frazier and Representative Lamke of North Dakota went to Manchester, Pa., to address a farmers' rally in Manchester, Md. Talk about farmers' relief—they got it that day in Maryland.

'Dead' Snake Objects To Being Preserved

By United Press. KERRVILLE, Texas.—A small rattlesnake, not so dead as its captor imagined, objected to being immersed in formaldehyde; so it wigged out of the jar and scattered a drug clerk, pharmacist and deliveryman, who made their exit from the building in speedy fashion. The young reptile, with two rattles and a button, was originally captured after it was stunned with a club and brought to town in a cardboard box. After its sudden recovery at the touch of the preserving fluid, the snake was recaptured by a small boy who pressed two sticks against its head and picked it up with his hands. The young man, who was with him, said he had seen the snake in a graveyard. There is no other entrance to the "pub." At one time the church held its vestry meetings in the tap-room of the tavern, and some centuries back the church received a portion of the profits from the sales of ale in return for granting a license. The inn was established to "provide refreshment for lords and ladies after the church service." Numbers of the present congregation continue to make use of it in the same manner. Perhaps what piques Barbara Hutton is that her Prince Alexis might have gone to another five-and-ten.

Beer Can Be Bought In a Graveyard

By United Press. LONDON.—Beer can be bought—and drunk—in a British graveyard. The only inn in the country, which has this unique location, will be 600 years old this year. It is the Mug House at Claines near Worcester. Ancient, gray tombstones come within a few feet of the front door of the tavern, and the church itself is only 30 yards away. When a villager calls for his evening pint, he must pass through

Deserves Citizenship If He Flunks Exams

By United Press. AMARILLO, Texas.—A man who fights for the United States is entitled to citizenship in the United States, even though he fails to pass the routine examinations, Federal Judge James C. Wilson ruled in granting citizenship to Antonio Giarruchi. Giarruchi, an immigrant from Italy, enlisted in the army during the World war and served for three years. That record means more than a good grade in an examination, the judge declared.

DONNA of the BIG TOP

By BEULAH POYNTER. DONNA GABRIEL, circus performer, falls from the trapeze and is injured. To please her mother, MADEIRA SIDDL, Donna goes to Madeira's home to recuperate. She is attracted to the other girl who she is supposed to be the other girl. Donna and Bill are married. Madeira Siddle has married DON DAVID, circus animal trainer, and takes part in the animal act. In New Orleans, Madeira goes into the cage with the Bengal tiger and is killed. Con is discharged from the circus and agrees to go to the Siddle farm. From the nearby town he sends a note to Donna and she agrees to meet him the next afternoon. Mrs. Poynter learns of this and writes an anonymous letter to Bill. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXVI. THE Adams baby has diphtheria. Minnie announced as she took the remains of yesterday's roast turkey from the oven and placed it on a platter. "Ma says that last night Mrs. Adams sent for Doc Leamon. He was there for more'n an hour and he had to do something to the baby's throat." "I hope the little thing will live," Donna answered. "Is anyone with Mrs. Adams?" "Yes, her sister's there." "Diphtheria is a terrible disease," Donna said. "I remember once when a child in the circus had it—Her voice trailed off as if a sudden thought had struck her. The Adams family were the Siddals' nearest neighbors. While Donna scarcely knew them, under other circumstances she would have offered her assistance at once. The child's illness seemed an answer to her prayer. What could be more natural than to tell Bill that she was going over to see if there was anything she could do for the family with the sick child? And on the way back from town she would stop and make good her statement. It seemed a positive inspiration. She had been unable to invent any excuse important enough to take her to Lebanon on a day when Grandfather Siddle was so ill. And Donna felt that she had to have an excuse. Con David would be waiting for her at three o'clock. She had promised she would meet him. What Con might do if she failed to be there, she dared not think! At noon over the dinner table Donna passed on Minnie's information about the Adams baby. She added the fact that she knew something about diphtheria and remembered how they had treated a little girl in the circus who was suffering from it. "If you don't think Grandfather needs me here I think I'll drive over to Adamses this afternoon," she said. "Maybe there's something I could do to help." Bill, who was naturally friendly and had often worried a little over his bride's reserve and dislike for mingling with strangers, greeted this suggestion with approval. "That'd be nice, Honey. Mrs. Adams is a nice little woman and I reckon she's about worried sick. I know the little rascal. Just the sort of kid I hope we'll have some day. Better go early though—it looks as though we might have a blow." The skies had darkened during the morning. There were snow clouds and a stiff wind was blowing that threatened to turn into a blizzard. As Bill spoke, a few big flakes scurried through the air and danced against the window pane. "This time last year," Bill added, "we were snowed in for a week. Telegraph and telephone poles blew down. Trains couldn't get through and a heap of livestock died of cold and starvation. I don't want you to get caught in a blizzard, Honey." "There's not much chance when I'm going just half a mile," Donna laughed. But she glanced uneasily out of the window. "I'll drive you over, if you like. This was what Donna had feared. He would say, "No, no, I'd rather you didn't. I'm sure Grandfather will be all right, but just the same I think one of us should be within call." "Maybe you're right." There was a new farm magazine to look over and Bill sprawled on the couch in the living room for some time after finishing his meal. "Honey, did you notice Dr. Freeman this morning?" he asked. "Looks bad, doesn't he?" "Does he?" "Yes, I wonder if there is any truth in the reports going around?" "What reports?" "Bill laughed and reached out his hand. "You're not a gossip, are you, dear? I heard in town the other day that his wife is just a little too intimate with the fellow who boards with them. Of course in a small town everything a woman does is magnified and misconstrued but—" "Bill! I'm surprised at you! To think you would listen to such talk!" "I didn't, Sweet," Bill laughed good-naturedly. "I was in Huck's feed store when Mrs. Freeman went by, and Huck and George Lincoln got to talking. I couldn't help hearing what they said." "Didn't you stand up for her?" "How could I, considering she was with the boarder when we saw her? There's an old saying that where there's fire there must be smoke. No—it's the other way around, isn't it? If she doesn't want talk, she shouldn't lay herself open to it by her actions. It's too bad. Freeman is a fine fellow. I reckon he's heard things." "I suppose," Donna said tensely. "If there were smoke around me you'd look for the fire?" "Sure would—but you take care there's no smoke! Boy, look at that snow. If you're going to the Adamses, you'd better get started." "Yes, I suppose so." "I'll get the car out for you." He rose and went to the window. "I don't believe I'd go today,"

Bride-Elect Feted With Lively Shower

Miss Naomi Matthews, who is to be a June bride, was honored guest for a smartly arranged miscellaneous shower last evening.

Miss Matthews, who is to be married to L. B. Huckaby of Eastland, greeted friends at the home of the hostess, Miss Doris Samms, at the eight o'clock hour. Drawing to a climax a social period the hour brought a delightful feature in the form of an "Expiration Hunt" with six explorers in charge under the leadership of the pleasing hostess, Miss Samms. The hunt took the exploration party out onto the lawn, across the street to a lovely old shady tree where further directions were found, suggesting the hunt be returned to Miss Samms' home through the back entrance hence to the living room. Upon the return to the daily decked room there awaited a huge array of packages encased in pastel tissues with bits of vari-colored ribbon.

The carefully chosen gifts offered a selection of useful and decorative articles. The honoree expressed her appreciation most graciously.

The hostess, assisted by her mother served a dainty and delicious plate of open faced sandwiches, potato flakes, stuffed cup cakes and punch, to some twenty-five guests, close friends of the bride-elect.

The pretty color note of orange and white was effectively featured in the bride's book and appointments.

The courtesy comes as one of the prettiest to have marked the current season of social affairs.

ANNOUNCES SUBSTANTIAL PRICE REDUCTIONS

on all models of Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks

Reductions amount to as much as $50 on some models

CHEVROLET'S reduced prices reflect in dramatic fashion the record-breaking demand that, month after month, is keeping Chevrolet first in sales. In offering these exceptional values at these new, lower prices, Chevrolet hopes to maintain, during the balance of the year, the high level of employment so necessary to the general program of recovery.

Chevrolet is particularly glad to make this important announcement just at this time when you can see and judge the Chevrolet at the National Exhibits of General Motors Products. Make it a point to look over these cars. Be practical—compare its modern features and these new low prices with those of any other low-priced car. Then you will know even more surely than before why we say with confidence, "Drive the Chevrolet only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car."
