HOMEMAKING TEACHERS MET IN CONFERENCE, SATURDAY

ROBERT T. DAVIS, assistant attorney general, Austin spoke to over 180 Homemaking teachers Saturday morning in the Dimmitt High School auditorium. He was special speaker at the In-Service Conference for Homemaking Teachers. See story.

DR. WILLA VAUGHN TINSLEY, Dean of School of Home Economics, Texas Tech, was one of the special guest speakers at the Area I In-Service Conference for Homemaking Teachers held here last Saturday in the High School auditorium. See story.

Dimmitt hosted Area I In-Service Conference for Homemaking teachers Saturday at the High School auditorium. Over 180 teachers were in attendance for the annual conference.

Theme of the program was "Where We Are and Where We Are Going." Special guest speakers during the morning session include Robert T. Davis, assistant attorney general, Austin; Mrs. Ina Dora Halle, Area I consultant, Homemaking Education, Plainview; and Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, Dean of School of Home Economics, Texas Tech, Lubbock.

Objectives of the conference were to gain a better understanding of today's family living, to learn more of the educational problems and opportunities of today's youth, to become familiar with the homemaking enrollment in the high schools of Area I and to understand the importance of today's homemaking curriculum. Davis, assistant attorney general was the first speaker of the morning. He told the teachers, "You are so much the future of our young people."

"As Homemaking teacher, you have a difficult role, you help prepare young people for homemaking and also as wage earners." He told the group that we can't blame our kids for the mess of today. They don't make our movies, they don't write our books, and they don't sell our liquors or reefers. Our problem is delinquent adults.

He emphasized, "At some point in our education process we need to separate the academic-minded from the vocational oriented."

He told the teachers that we need more emphasis on homemaking in this day. In recent statistics of divorce rating it was noted that 1 out of 3 teenage marriages fail, one out of 30 college graduate marriages fail but only 1 out of 279 marriages fail if the woman is a Homemaking major.

He declared, "You are the important link in building young people's character. The church has our youth for one hour a week and you as teachers have them for 30 hours a week."

Davis exclaimed, "Our youth need to know the power of prayer and feel His presence at all times in order to have the character needed to meet the responsibilities of today."

The assistant attorney general gave the following challenge to the homemaking teachers, "You teach our young people to build bridges to span the Chasms so many of them are falling into today."

Scouting Commemorated

National Boy Scout Week is February 7-13 and commemorates the founding of the organization February 8, 1910 in the law office of Ralston, Siddons, and Richardson in Washington, D. C.

Backing this organization and founding it were William D. Boyce, newspaper and magazine publisher and Colin H. Livingston, Washington banker.

Boyce, the publisher, had just returned from a business trip to London where he had an experience that made a profound impression on him. It seems he was lost in the London fog, and a boy helped him find his way and then refused the tip that Boyce offered him with the words "Thank you, Sir, but I am a Scout and a Scout does not accept this for doing Good Turns."

Boyce was so dumbfounded that he asked more about the Scouts, and the boy took him to General Baden Powell's office. Talking with that dynamic man sent Boyce back to America eager to bring the new program to this country.

The Scout Oath and the Scout Law are the most distinctive features of Scouting; they are the basic principles of the program and they are reason for having a program at all.

One definition of Scouting says, "A troop of Scouts is a bunch of fellows who are banded together for fun in service to others and in outdoor adventure. They train themselves along many lines of woodcraft and usefulness in emergencies so that they will 'Be Prepared' as the Scout motto says, to be stronger men and more valuable citizens."

Dimmitt supports two Boy Scout Troops and an active Cub Scout Troop and a Webel division. Boy Scout Troop No. 267 was the first troop organized here. They are sponsored by the Lions Club, Boy Scout Troop No. 266 was organized last year. This troop is sponsored by the Methodist Church. Scoutmaster for Troop 267 is Clyde Vick. Institutional representative is Jack Miller who also heads the Scout Drive each year in Dimmitt. There are 34 Scouts in Troop 267.

Scoutmaster for Troop 266 is Jim Cleavinger. Assistant Scoutmaster is Bill Dannevik. Institutional agencies on Page Eight)

Hospital Auxiliary Hears Dr. Edwards At Banquet

Over 170 were present to hear Dr. Lena Edwards speak at the first annual awards banquet of the Plains Hospital Auxiliary held Saturday night at the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

Dr. Edwards told the group that the greatest problem in the world today was, "So many people have very fine ideals but lack the courage to stand up for their convictions."

She told the audience, "My basic interest is health, my very basic interest is public health."

Dr. Edwards is helping to sponsor the clinic and hospital in Spanish labor camp at Hereford. She recently received the highest honor ever awarded a civilian by the president of the United States.

Holding her audience spell-bound Dr. Edwards said, "I feel every child is born into the world, like unto God."

She emphasized, "I have been interested in not just medicine but in its relation to education."

During the course of her speech the doctor said, "It is important for people to know what they must do for their country." The migrant family pays one fifth or one third of their expenses at the hospital. This is in accordance to the salary they make, which is one fifth or one third of the average American income.

The speaker declared emphatically, "Our dollars cannot buy peace, they can't buy anything; it takes our love. Charity begins at home."

"I don't know when I've been as tired as I am, but I don't know when I've been as happy as I am," commented Dr. Edwards.

She concluded, "It is really worthwhile to give a few minutes of your time to get to God by helping your neighbor."

Russell Moran, chairman of the Hospital Board recommended the Hospital Auxiliary for their fine work in the field of public relations. Auxiliary women donated over 3,000 hours last year in service to the hospital.

Each Auxiliary member was presented with a patch for her achievements. Special awards were given to following members who earned their 100 hour pins: Mesdames Charles Armstrong, Buster Cooper, Floyd Copeland, Sam Gilbreath, Calvin Lippard, Bob Moean, Clarence Woods, Raymond Wilson and Earl Taylor.

Decorations of the banquet carried out the color theme of the Auxiliary, cherry pink and white. Satin ribbon streamers of cherry pink accented the center of the three long banquet tables. Centerpiece at the head table was composed of pink gladioli and cluster of pink grapes surrounding pink swirled candles.

Nazareth Homemakers Presented Annual Fashion Revue, Wednesday

The program opened with a unique and original comedy style show presented by the following sophomore girls: Shirley Acker, Stevie Birkenfeld, Joy Wilhelm, Nancy Drenup, Gail Dobmeier, Raelene Schulte, Janeta Wethington and Magaline Birkenfeld.

Freshmen girls opened the formal style show with the presentation of their blouses and skirts made in first year Homemaking classes.

First to model the "dress alike friends" Brenda Pohlmeier and Sheila Birkenfeld. These girls made brown percale skirts with large inverted pleats, a form of the new A-line style. Their blouses were shirt style with yokes, long sleeves, and convertible collars. The cream colored, drip dry cotton looked nice with the brown. These garments cost about $5 each.

Carol Jones made a red sail cloth skirt in a becoming A-line style. Her blouse was of dacron and cotton for easy care. This outfit cost $6.15.

Janet Schmucker looked neat in a blue print, wash and wear cotton pleated skirt and white percale blouse. They cost $3.55.

Kathleen Huseman modeled a red sailcloth pleated skirt and harmonizing printed blouse of drip dry cotton. Her school outfit cost $6.67.

Phyllis Huseman wears a dark brown pleated, wrap around skirt. With it, she models a beige, cotton blouse. This ensemble cost $6.64.

Sharon Hochstein modeled a red, wool gored skirt featuring four large pleats. Her white dacron and cotton blouse featured ties and double-buttoned cuffs on the long sleeves. This outfit cost $7.50.

Beth Wethington looked nice in her blue, cotton sport style blouse with rolled sleeves. Her matching gingham, pleated skirt completed a school outfit which cost $3.35.

Sandra Gerber chose F.H.A. colors, red and white, for her attractive percale A-line skirt and striped blouse. This outfit cost $3.

Cynthia Hoelting modeled red percale A-line skirt and white percale blouse which cost about $3.

Juanita Braddock concluded the freshmen part of the program as she modeled her black sailcloth A-line skirt and black and white checked gingham for her blouse. This ensemble cost $4.50.

Third year Homemaking is a challenge for the Junior girls. Sewing with all wool or wool blend material is a new experience. The Junior class modeled their first lined wool suits.

Connie Gerber modeled a black wool flannel featuring a skirt gathered front and straight back. Her jacket was collarless, open front with three-quarter length set-in sleeves. She made her white blouse of whipped cream dacron. She chose white gloves and hat. Black shoes and bag completed the ensemble. She wore a blue pin for a point of interest. This suit cost about $12 and is appropriate for church, shopping and special occasions.

Joan Acker chose a flattering medium blue woolen for her suit. Her jacket was simple style that hung open in front with an attractive notched collar and wrist length sleeves. For accessories, she chose a white whipped cream dacron blouse, a white straw hat and white gloves. Her shoes and bag were basic black leather. Her suit cost $15.

Eileen Lupton wore a wool suit of avocado green which was accented with flowered whipped cream blouse. The jacket did not have a collar and opened in front. Black accessories were worn by the Junior girl. It cost $12.66.

Sandra Huseman modeled a dark brown suit of 100 percent wool. It featured a slim skirt with gathers in the front. The jacket had three-quarter length sleeves and was collarless. The floral blouse was made of rayon and matched the color of the suit. As accessories she wore calf alligator shoes, carried matching purse, worn brown gloves and a hat made of the same material as blouse. The suit and blouse cost $11.40.

Susan Dobmeier looked smart in her suit of medium green wool flannel. The stand up lapels added to the decorative style of her open green-leaf print on her cotton blouse. For accessories she wore green gloves, a green feathered hat, black shoes and carried a black bag. Cost of ensemble was $11.59.

Beth Pohlmeier wore a suit of black woolen flannel. The jacket was fashionable length that featured tailored buttonholes and covered button closure. She wore black accessories and a pink crepe blouse. Cost of garment was $14.

Yvonne Huseman modeled a suit of medium green woolen flannel. Her jacket featured set-in, three-quarter length sleeves and open front which revealed printed cotton blouse. Black patent leather shoes and bag and black hat and gloves completed the attractive ensemble which cost $14.

Pam Pohlmeier was appropriately dressed for church or shopping in her black woolen suit. The suit featured set-in sleeves, notched lapels and open front style jacket. Her white hat and blouse, and a gold pin for emphasis completed the accessories for the $12 suit.

Carol Schulte looked nice in her 100 percent virgin wool suit. The material was a novel weave suit-like and very appropriate for the walking length coat she chose for the pattern. Featured on the suit were rolled collar, tailored buttonholes and attractive green buttons. She wore black accessories. Suit cost $25.98.

Monica Brockman wore a gold colored woolen flannel. Her jacket featured raglan sleeves and open front. She wore white crepe blouse and white gloves. Her bag and shoes were black patent leather. A gold hat completed the outfit which cost $11.

Janice Stieret was impressive in her black wool flannel ensemble. The pink dacron blouse was outstanding color and brought attention to the model's face. The accessories, also black, brought about the illusion of increased height. The A-line skirt minimized the hips and added to the ensemble. Cost of outfit was $16.82.

Viola Schacher looked stunning in a red wool flannel suit. Her jacket featured three-quarter length, set-in sleeves and tailored buttonholes. For accessories she wore a black felt hat, black purse, gloves and shoes. A white scarf accented the lapel of her suit which could be worn with or without scarf. The suit cost $10.70.

Fourth Graders Talk With Longtime Residents Here

Mrs. Evie Froehner's fourth grade class enjoyed an unusual day in the classroom last Thursday as they participated in "Pioneer Day." The twenty-six students in the class have just completed a study of the life of the early pioneers. Mrs. Froehner invited Castro county pioneers and long-time residents for a visit with the children Thursday afternoon. The older people spoke to the young people of the early school days and other early events in their lives.

Those discussing early days were Mr. and Mrs. Sid Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Behrends, Mrs. Pirron Winters, Mr. and Mrs. George Webb, Mrs. Hargrove and Mr. C. W. Boothe. Following here are some of the facts related by the old timers: C. W. BOOTHE: I was born in Texas, September 18, 1880. When Mrs. Sheffy asked Boothe what state he was born in, he replied, "I was made in Texas by Texans." The first year, Mr. Boothe farmed he made one bale of cotton and sold it for 4 1/2 cents a pound. He recalled the times when there were no paved streets in all of Texas. He first came to West Texas to the Dallas Fair to see the wonder called the horseless carriage. GEORGE WEBB: I was born in 1891 in Arkansas. Left there when I was two years old and came to Texas by covered wagon. We had two horses per wagon. It took us six weeks to come from Arkansas to Denton County in Texas. We left Arkansas with 9 people in the wagon and Dad had $59 in his pocket. When we arrived in Texas we had only $9.

MR. SID SHEFFY: First school I attended, we had to walk or ride a horse for four miles. Wasn't as much fun to ride the horse then as it is now—we had to do it all the time. First car I ever owned just sported a seat, engine and some wheels to run on. Some of the recreation during those days including looking up the mules after a big snow and bundling up warmly for an old fashion sleigh ride. MRS. SID SHEFFY: I was born in Indian Territory in Oklahoma. We moved to Dimmitt when I was 17. My father bought the General Merchandise store here. Attended school in two-story brick school house. The handsome cowboy "Sid" came riding up to the store one day where Myrtle was working for her father. She said, "I wondered who that good-looking cowboy was on the beautiful bay horse." She told the group about making lye soap, how they butchered their own cattle and hung their meat on the windmill to keep it away from the varmints. They would let the beef down on a rope when wanting to cut off a piece. HENRY BEHREND: I was raised in Iowa. Came to this area when I was 17. Came to Kress in 1910. I met my wife at a basket supper in Iowa. I bought her basket at an auction sale where the young men bought the picnic baskets of the girls they wished to eat with at the supper. She was teaching school in Iowa when I came to Texas. I started writing her and then went back and married her. They have lived here for 55 years. MRS. BEHREND: I went to a little country school. When I was 16 my parents sent me to Dodge City or schooling in a 10-week term. Also I started to the same school when I was 17 but took a test and passed the examination and received my certificate to teach. My folks called and said there was a school waiting for me so I dropped my courses and returned home to teach. I taught a three-month school for $30. I taught the beginners and students on up until the age they quit. Boys and girls sat on opposite sides of the room. MRS. WINTERS: I was born in Rusk County, lived there until I was 11. Then we moved to Jones County. Married in Jones County. I attended country school through the ninth grade. After I was married we moved to Littlefield where I thought I was ruined. We lived in a two-room box house which allowed snow and sand to come right on through. Buffalo would come and stand on the south side of the house for protection from the wind. It got dry at Littlefield and then we moved to Dimmitt. MRS. HARGROVE: I was born in Indian Territory in Oklahoma. Parents moved to Johnson Co. when I was a baby. We moved to Clay Co. when I was five and moved to Castro Co. in 1943. I walked three miles to a one-room school for the first four grades. Then we attended a two-room school. I finished the ninth grade. I met my husband in 1925 and was married in 1929. We lived on the farm until the depression moved us off. Then my husband started driving a school bus. He worked for Mr. Neumeyster after moving here in 1943.

Royce L. Talley Serves With Marine Aircraft Wing

Marine Private First Class Royce L. Talley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Talley of Hart, Texas, is serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at the Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Santa Ana, California.

Helicopters, transports and jets of the wing provide support for the infantrymen of the First Marine Division at nearby Camp Pendleton, California.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

Americans traditionally reject ceremony in public matters if State. It is a sentiment deeply ingrained in our people, part of the historic rejection of formal European ways when our nation was being forged two centuries ago. However, once every four years the people of the United States treat themselves to the great public ceremony of a Presidential Inauguration, installing with pomp and parade and prayer the man elected by the people to direct the Nation's affairs in the ensuing four years.

The marvels of television and radio now make it possible for all Americans to share the experience of this occasion, to feel with those citizens privileged to be in Washington the event the excitement and inspiration as our President is sworn and celebrated. On this day as on no other, the blessed greatness of our governmental form is symbolized and rededicated.

With officials of the three branches of the Government flanking the President, the huge Capitol Plaza thronged by scores of thousands of citizens, and millions upon millions more attending the ceremony via television and radio in homes and business places across the country, the root strength of the Republic is emphasized by the President's oath-taking. For the commitment he takes to serve the people, there in the shadow of the magnificent Capitol building topped by its statue of Freedom, is the same commitment other men accept in the Congress, the capitols of the States, the court houses and the city halls throughout the land, wherever men have been elected by their fellow citizens to serve in positions of public trust and responsibility.

As the Constitution prescribes, the President will say, "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States." Let no enemy of our system believe that these words are mere formality; they are sanctified for the people as for the Presidents who say them. The armor of the United States is its Constitution, binding its people in unity and liberty, and the words of the oath are part of the Constitution. The armor is welded by its guarantee that free men shall freely choose their leaders. For this reason, Inauguration Day is as much a day on which the American people honor themselves and their forefathers as it is a day on which we honor a President.

Not a minute's walk from my office here is the intersection, on office here is the intersection, of New Jersey Avenue and C Street, 'a. w. From a house at this intersection, on March 4, 1801, Thomas Jefferson walked the two blocks to the new Capitol building to be administered the oath. Jefferson's 1801 inaugural was the first held in Washington. His entrance to the Capitol was punctuated by "a discharge of artillery." Addressing the Congress and the crowded House gallery, Jefferson said:

"I know, indeed, that some honest men fear that a republican government can not be strong, that this Government is not strong enough; but would the honest patriot in the full tide of successful experiment, abandon a government which has so far kept us free and firm on the theoretic and visionary fear that this Government, the world's best hope, may by possibility waste energy to preserve itself? I trust not. I believe this, on the contrary, the strongest Government on earth. I believe it is the only one where every man, at the call of the law, would fly to the standard of the law, and would meet invasions of the public order as his own personal concern. Sometimes it is said that man can not be trusted with the government of himself. Can he, then, be trusted with the government of others? Or have we found angels in the forms of kings to govern him? Let history answer this question."

History has answered Thomas Jefferson's question. History also will note that following the 1965 Inaugural ceremony, as on March 4, 1801, "the remainder of the day was devoted to festivity; and at night there was a pretty general illumination."

ARKANSAS VISITORS
Mrs. Stanley Schaeffer and son, David are visiting relatives in Arkansas this week.

Some legislators said they liked the plans, but many said they did not like them and that they expect plans by individual members to be proposed as soon as introduction of bills begins.

TAX REVISIONS RECOMMEND
Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy has suggested methods of obtaining $15,300,000 in new state revenue through a variety of tax revisions.

Commission said making sales tax applicable to telephone and television service and other utility tax changes would pick up $11,200,000; modernizing the inheritance tax, $6,000,000; and removal of the sales tax exemption on farm machinery $9,000,000.

MORE MORE MORE
But not all the Commission's recommendations would mean more revenue. Losses would come from repeal of the theater admissions tax, $1,200,000; repeal of the chain store tax $7,200,000; and exemption from the production tax of gas used in field operations in the same field where it is produced, $2,500,000.

Main purpose of recommended changes is "to achieve greater equity in taxation and greater ease in administration and compliance," said the commissioner.

William E. Berger of Hondo was appointed by Governor Connally to a six-year term on the Texas Water Commission.

Berger replaces veteran H. A. Beckwith of Eagle Pass, whose term had expired in 1963. Beckwith was named chief topographic engineer of the Commission.

Connally appointed Re. Joe N. Chapman of Sulphur Springs judge of the Eighth District Court of Hopkins, Rains, Delta and Hunt Counties, to replace the late Judge L. L. Bowman Jr.

Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop and Brig. Gen. James D. Scott, both of Austin, were named to new terms as adjutant general and assistant adjutant general.

Connally reappointed W. A. Bond of Vernon, John R. (Dick) Fowler of Memphis and Col. John Anderson of Denison to the Red River Authority Board and named William E. Rechmuth of Wichita Falls a new member of the Board.

R. C. Morgan of El Paso and Mrs. Bessie Heard of Houston were reappointed to the Credit Union Advisory Commission.

Governor named Wayland Rivers Jr. of Austin and Miss Lois Gray of Fort Worth to the Board of Trustees, Teacher Retirement System; Dave Smith of Austin to Board of Trustees, Employees Retirement System; and P. C. Naylor Jr. of San Antonio and Harold Chapman of Lubbock to Texas Real Estate Commission.

Gen. Aubrey L. Moore of Hillsboro was appointed director-at-large of the Tri-County Municipal Water District, composed of cities in Hill, Bosque and Johnson Counties, succeeding Jack Altaras of Cleburne.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS SET
Governor Connally has called special elections in representative districts 15f and 11 to fill unexpired terms of Byron Tunnell and Joe Chapman.

Sixteen persons have filed for the special election to be held on February 13 for District 15f, composed of Smith and Gregg Counties. Those who have filed include 11 from Tyler, two from Kilgore and one each from Flint, Gladewater, and Longview.

Nine candidates have filed for representative from District 11 - three from Mt. Pleasant, two from Sulphur Springs, and one each from Cumby, Mt. Vernon, Talco and Wimsboro.

BUDGET PROPOSALS
The Legislative Budget Board, a group of top legislators which drafts the Legislature's spending proposals, has said funds for the Soil Conservation Board should be increased by $73,928 for the next two years, including $25,000 each year for watershed planning.

The increase for the board, which coordinates the programs of the various soil conservation districts, also would include $11,924 for the Sherman Soil Conservation District, one of the last to organize.

The Legislators' budget proposal recommends that state mental hospital administrators' salaries be raised from $15,500 to $20,000.

Proposal also recommends that employees in state mental hospitals get raises.

An alternative to Governor Connally's plan unifying higher education has been drawn by the Board.

Report calls for placing all 12 state-supported four-year colleges or universities under four master boards of regents and chancellors. Texas Commission on Higher Education would be reduced from 15 to nine members but given increased powers to approve individual course offerings in all institutions.

Connally's plan calls for a central coordinating board for all universities and colleges supported by the state.

SHORT SNORTS

The 53rd Legislature, faced with the heaviest work load in state law-making history, eased into its second week with some top Senators and Representatives on the absent list. A good many legislators took off for Washington to attend the inauguration of President Johnson.

These events highlighted the Legislature's opening week:

Rep. Ben Barnes of DeLeon was elected Speaker of the House by acclamation. H is the youngest speaker named since reconstruction days.

Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells was named president pro tempore of the Senate, to preside when Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is not present. In choosing Creighton, the Senators went against tradition when they passed over Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston, who was next on the seniority list. Schwartz has opposed closed door sessions.

A record $3,500,000 budget bill calling for an increase of $97,300,000 in general revenue spending, was introduced in the Senate. Proposal calls for $567,300,000 general revenue spending, compared to $599,500,000 recommended by Gov. John Connally.

Lieutenant Governor Smith named full membership on 24 Senate standing committees. The Senate was thus organized and ready for business on the second day of the session.

In the House, Barnes - whose speakership campaign had to be conducted in a few days due to unexpected appointment of ex-Speaker Byron Tunnell to the Railroad Commission - conferred with members day and night in an effort to speed committee appointments there.

Representatives drew priority numbers for bills.

Both houses completed appointment of employees, other necessary routine and marked time before the big battles ahead.

Despite controversial decisions to be made on congressional and legislative redistricting, big finance and other matters, Smith and Barnes expressed confidence the Legislature can complete its work within 140 days. But some lawmakers weren't so sure.

BETTING BILL SHOWN

The battle over whether Texans are going to bet on horse racing has begun again. This time Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville is introducing the race track betting bill. Last session Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio couldn't get it through the Legislature.

Pipkin's bill would allow both Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse racing on licensed tracks. Also, the city, county, and state could collect taxes from the track operators. Before a track could be licensed in a county, voters in that county would have to call and approve a referendum.

The bill is backed by Texas Racing Association, which has raised more than $150,000 from some of the most prominent men in Texas ranching and business. Opposing the association will be a group of businessmen being organized by the Texas Council of Churches and the Texas Baptist General Convention.

Pipkin said the state would get $20,000,000 a year from a sliding tax of from four to six per cent on all bets and that the state would get millions more from increased tourism. One of the first men to speak in opposition, Rep. J. C. Whiffle of Houston, said, "The plain facts are that legalized racing and gambling not only damage the moral fabric of our people, but that the revenues they bring in are more than offset by losses in other, more legitimate fields of commerce."

LIQUOR BILL INTRODUCED

A Texas Restaurant Association bill which would make legal the selling of two-ounce bottles of liquor in licensed restaurants has been introduced.

Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg is handling it in the Senate and Rep. Willis J. Whitley is in charge of it in the House.

The bill would permit customers to fix their own drinks from the small bottles of liquor. This would go part of the way for those people who like to buy their liquor by the drink. Church groups and others will oppose it.

REDISTRICTING PLANS SEEN

A committee of the Texas Legislative Council, which is made up of representatives from both houses of the Legislature, has prepared two plans for congressional redistricting.

According to a Houston federal court order, the Legislature must redraw the present 23 districts so that their populations will vary no more than five per cent from the mathematical average of 416,508 and they must do the job by August 1.

Both plans would give South Texas a new congressman. They would have a district from Laredo to South San Antonio and from Del Rio to Zapata.

Also, both plans would put parts of Dallas, Tarrant and Bexar counties with other counties to equalize district populations. This reshuffling would require some current congressmen to run against each other if they want to be re-elected in 1966.

Farm Organizations Endorse Message To President Johnson

"Nothing in years has united farm leaders as have the recent critical statements of Budget Director Kermit Gordon against farmers and farm programs," stated a portion of a letter sent out by G.S. P.A. to directors, members and friends.

On Tuesday, January 19, representatives of 22 national and regional farm organizations met at the Grange Hall in Washington, D. C., with Herschel Newsom, Master of the National Grange, serving as Chairman. The group drafted the following statement to President Johnson, indicating their very grave concern about the need to increase, not lower, farm income:

"Rural America - the millions of people on our family farms and in the Main Street towns - are alarmed at reports now current that the Budget Message, soon to be transmitted to the Congress, will propose severe restrictions and restraints upon farm price stabilization programs; with the result that many family type farmers may be wiped out, the rural economy damaged and our national economic growth severely impaired. Taking note of these reports, representatives of 22 farm organizations, with aggregate membership of over 3 million, met at the National Grange headquarters on January 19, to discuss a course of action that they might respectfully counsel you on the best judgment from rural America.

"More than 50 million of our citizens live in rural America, on farms and in the Main Street towns. The towns depend upon the farms around them. Agriculture still is the biggest business in this nation. Free enterprise began with the family farm on this continent. The family farm and the towns in the countryside scattered over the breadth of this land, first established the economic foundation for our liberties. The contribution of rural America to the Nation's spiritual, social and political vitality - down through the years - is immeasurable.

"From the reports we hear, the family farm and Main Street America face a future of uncertainty, perhaps of peril. We have faith in your wisdom, and we appeal to you, not less, income in the policy recommendations and determinations you are about to send to the Congress, and that you state it as the policy of our Government that agriculture must have more income and that the family farm, which has blessed this Nation and the free world with food abundance, be preserved and strengthened."

The statement was endorsed by the following farm organizations: The Natl. Grange; The Natl. Farmers Union; The Natl. Assn. of Wheat Growers; The Natl. Farmers Organization; Delta Cotton Council; Natl. Corn Growers Assn.; Missouri Farmers Assn., Inc.; Up-lands Cotton Growers, Inc.; Flue-Cured Tobacco Coop. Stabilization Corp.; American Rice Growers Coop. Assn.; Plains Coop. Oil Mill; Soybean Growers of America, Inc.; The Pure Milk Assn.; Vegetable Growers of America; DeKalb County Farm Bureau; Natl. Catholic Rural Life Conference; Natl. Milk Producers Federation; North Carolina Peanut Growers Assn., Inc.; Virginia Assn. of Peanut and Hog Growers; Grain Sorghum Producers Assn.; Natl. Beet Producers Federation; and Georgia Cotton Producers Assn.

Agronomist Advises On Planting Seed

Money invested in quality planting seed is good insurance. No crop, says Agronomist R. J. Miears Texas Agricultural Extension Service, can be better than the seed and variety planted.

The use of high quality seed of adapted varieties, he adds, is basic to successful farming. As production costs increase, it is poor business to gamble by using planting seed of low or unknown quality and those not adapted to the area.

When Texas Certified Seed are purchased you are assured of varietal purity, explains Miears. There are many varieties of each crop and they differ greatly in yielding ability, height disease and insect resistance date of maturity, seed color and other characteristics.

New varieties, he continues, are not released unless they are superior in important characteristics to commercial varieties already in production.

Trans-Continental Purchase Pecos Telephone System

Trans-Continental Telephone & Electronics, Inc. has announced the signing of a purchase contract for all the outstanding stock of West Texas Communications Corporation. The company with headquarters in Pecos, Texas, has 12 telephone exchanges in 11 West Texas towns. Serving some 18,000 square miles, it is the second largest independent telephone company in area covered in the United States with contiguous exchange boundaries.

In January direct distance dialing facilities were installed throughout the entire company system. At the time of the conversion all local toll facilities were also acquired from Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

The economy of the area is varied. Irrigated cotton land and truck crops are the principal economic backbone. However, oil, ranching and mining also play an important part. Mining includes sulphur, copper, barite, mica, pearlite and the largest talc deposit in the world at Van Horn. Pecos has also in recent years become a light manufacturing center for West Texas and tourists find both Pecos and Van Horn a convenient stopping place.

With this acquisition, Trans-Continental Telephone & Electronics, Inc. whose headquarters is in Dallas, will operate 71 telephone exchanges in Texas and 2 exchanges in Oklahoma. They are also owners of local West Texas Telephone Company.

Homemaking Teachers
1915 to 1963. This is still a purpose but we have an additional purpose since the Vocational Act in 1963. This purpose is to aid "general employment" of high school graduate.

She told the teachers, "We have a common bond of concern for the youth and for the homes they will make in the future."

Dr. Tinsley said, "There are more mothers working in public jobs than ever before. We are seeing more distributed responsibilities of homemaking in the home due to working mothers."

She declared, "Revolutionize your teaching, tell your young homemakers how to manage and make the most of an hour or 10 minutes. In this space age, the emphasis needs to be moved up to effective management in the home."

In charts shown to the group, Dr. Tinsley pointed out that the biggest problem women, married and single, claim to have is the personality.

She told the teachers, "We need to spend more time teaching them concerning personality and relations with associates and less time in sewing and foods."

Mrs. Estella Hottel presided over the afternoon program which included FFA information presented by Mrs. Clara Long of Canyon, Miss Eula May Lincecum of Palo Duro and Miss Debra Ferguson of Monterey, Lubbock.

Milady Garden Club Has Program On Landscaping

Milady Garden Club met Tuesday in the Community Room of the First State Bank. Members answered the roll call with the name and characteristics of a flowering shrub.

Mrs. Mae Hargrove, Marilyn Carver and Sue Boozer were hostesses and also presented the program on landscape design.

"Basically each home landscape should meet the needs of the family residing in that location as effectively as possible" the ladies told the group.

"You should consider first, the strictly hard functional features in your landscape and then it is desirable to develop artistic functions with the same materials," they continued.

"Plant materials are selected to interpret your landscaping plan. Select them for form, texture, color, odor, function, size and beauty." They should relate to one another, it was emphasized.

"As new methods and materials of construction have changed the American way of living, so they have changed ideals and needs of landscape designs," the program committee stated.

"No longer is the formal method desired, and there are less foundation plantings used. Contemporary planting emphasizes simplicity, architectural design and less maintenance," the ladies concluded.

Table decorations for the Club meeting consisted of a landscaped miniature homesite serving as a centerpiece. Red and white valentine cake squares were served from a white cloth.

Visitors present were Vera Fry, Jeanne Fry, Ellen Gregory and Katy Wright. Marty Benton is a new member.

Annual Queen Reigns Over DHS

The journalism department sponsored the gala Annual Queen Pageant, Monday night, January 25, in the high school auditorium. This pageant was presented mainly for the purpose of raising money to finance the 1965 Bobcat yearbook. The gross profit for the evening was approximately $150. This money will help to cover the expenses that annual advertising did not.

Of the fifteen contestants sponsored by the various clubs and classes, the young lady chosen as queen was Miss Eva Giles, a junior, and sponsored by the junior class. Eva wore a floor length gown of white with a sequined top and white crepe skirt. First runner up was Miss Evelyn Waggoner, a junior, sponsored by the Drama Club. Evelyn wore a white full-length formal gown of peau de soie. Second runner-up was Miss Keith Ann Howard, a sophomore, sponsored by the Chess Club. She also wore a white full-length formal gown.

The journalism class would like to thank everyone connected with the pageant for helping to make this project a pleasure and a great success, especially Mr. James Bates, Master of ceremonies; Mr. Ralph Smith and the stage band, and all the participants on the program. We offer a special vote of thanks to our judges.

All School Play Will Be Feb. 6

The All school play "Rest Assured", is approaching the opening of its initial performance. The cast has got the first two acts all worked out and are working on the third act now. They will have their dress rehearsal Thursday, February 4th and the play will be presented the following Saturday. Miss Griffing is very pleased with the progress of the play and she said, "I feel that we have progressed very much because none of the actors or actresses have been on the stage before." We hope the public will enjoy it as much as we have."

Tuesday, January 26, the students of Dimmitt High School were shown a film during activity period concerning narcotics. This film showed how narcotics can particularly affect young people. It showed how a dope peddler gets teen-agers "hooked", and then moves in on them. He will have the student earn his "fix" money by converting his friends into dope fiends.

When a person becomes addicted to drugs, the habit controls his life. He must have money to pay for his dope, and often the only means for getting this money is by stealing. Dope makes a good person into a tramp.

This film was one of a series of programs presented by the student senate. Certainly, the students of DHS are grateful for these programs.

Club Chatter

On January 26 the Drama Club met in room 10 to complete the plans for the production of the All School Play, "Rest Assured" which will be presented on February 6. Posters are being made and will be distributed soon. Linda Land and Marcie Johnston will distribute the tickets to the members of the Drama Club. Each member, excluding play characters, must sell a minimum of five tickets.

The Student Senate met January 27. It was suggested that the members sell candy together, then have a meal or a party. Nothing is definite, though.

The film on narcotics was discussed, then a meeting was proposed of the assembly committee to plan more assemblies.

Senior Girl Of Week

Betty Holbrooks Claims Favorite Novel Is "Gone With The Wind"

On December 9, 1946, in Weatherford, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Holbrooks celebrated the arrival of a daughter, Betty Sue.

Betty should have been a boy, because her favorite color is baby blue. Other favorites pop up continually in her conversation. She told everyone all about the book, Gone With The Wind, and really did like the movie, "Your Cheating Heart." She goes to see Paul Newman or Doris Day each time one of their movies is in town. She is sure to turn up the radio if "The Race Is On" or one of Johnny Tillotson's records comes on. And she says she really enjoys eating steak.

She belonged to the Bobbies for four years, F. H. A. four years, a F. T. A. three years and is vice-president this year. She also won the shorthand award her junior year.

After graduation she plans to be a secretary or go to college and take secretarial courses.

AMMO NOTES

by Wm. F. (Bill) Bennett, Agronomist, Western Ammonia Corporation

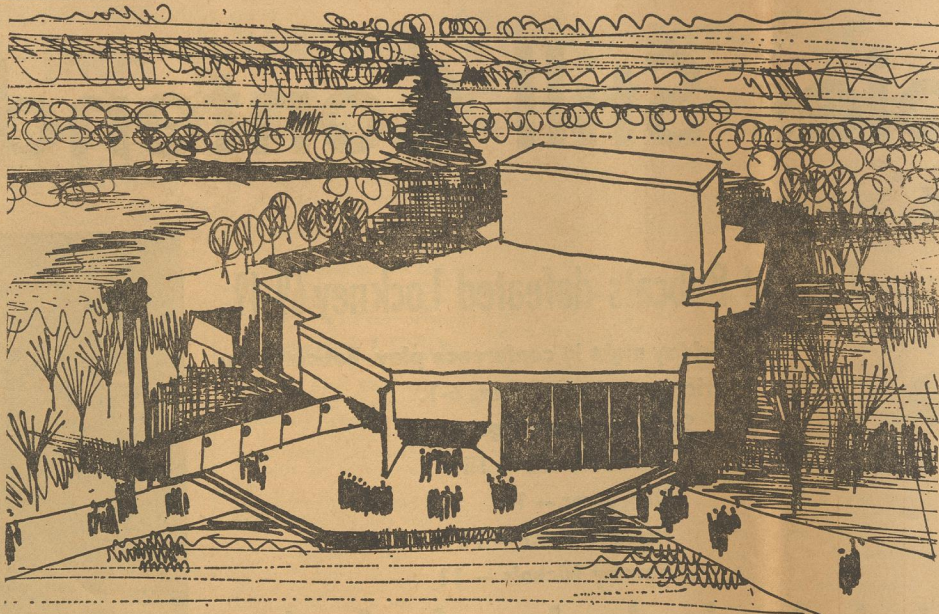

TOPDRESSING WHEAT
Wheat topdressing time is just around the corner. This week I am listing some guidelines on need, rates, sources and time of application.

Whether nitrogen topdressing is needed will depend on the amount of ammonia applied last fall and whether the wheat has been grazed. A general rule of thumb on rate is a total of around 80 lb. N per acre on ungrazed wheat for moderate yields.

There are several sources of nitrogen available. Commonly used sources are ammonium nitrate, ammonium sulphate, urea, nitrogen solutions and ammonium nitrate-phosphate (30-10-0).

Time of application will depend on our season. One guideline is that nitrogen topdressing should be done by the time plants start to joint in the spring.

The low price of wheat will cause many to have a question about profits from topdressing wheat. The answer to profits obviously depends on need for nitrogen and increases in yield.

Wayland College Gets $500,000 Memorial Gift

Mrs. J. L. Harral, Abernathy, received a standing ovation from those in attendance at the 44th Annual Pastors and Laymen's Conference on campus when President Roy C. McClung on Jan. 25 announced her gift of $500,000 to erect Harral Memorial auditorium.

Mrs. Harral has chosen this method of memorializing her husband, John Lewis Harral, and their son, Jack, both of whom attended Wayland. The Harrals met in historic Gates Hall on her first day as a freshman during his senior year.

Construction will start during the summer of 1965, with a completion target date set for fall of 1966. This auditorium will seat at maximum 1750 and will provide an 80-foot stage with an orchestra pit that raises and lowers, giving flexibility for programs with one speaker to major productions and spectacles.

The Chapter plans a party in the near future. The last item of business discussed by the group was that the Chapter will purchase a motor to run a feed grinder. This feed grinder will be used by the Chapter members to grind their feed at a lower cost.

gave $250,000 in 1957 for erection of Van Howeling Memorial Library a major breakthrough in modern construction at Wayland which included Flores Bible Building, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Flores, Tullia; Owen Hall, residence for 100 women, and Home Life Building, classroom building for home and family life education.

Junior Jottings

Historical Notes

By Marilyn McLeroy
Social studies is a study of history, geography and government. Some people, I have learned, don't know what social studies is. How know what social studies is. How laration of Independence was signed or when America was discovered or other questions?
In the seventh grade, the students are studying Texas history and the eighth grade is studying American history.
In our studies of Texas history, we have reached the point where Texas has become a state in the United States.
The eighth grade class has studied Early American history and just finished a study of the constitution.

Explanation Of Junior Jottings

We, the students of Dimmitt Junior High School are being allowed a column in which we will be able to inform you of our progress and various activities. We feel that this column will be of interest to you as parents and friends of Junior High students.

As much as we admire the High School's Bobcat Tales and look forward to being a part of it in future years, at this time we are not trying to copy or create a second Bobcat Tales, but rather to bring you our news of Dimmitt Junior High.
The Editor

Brain Busters

The eighth grade math classes are studying about Factoring of Numbers. This is about the prime numbers, the factoring of numbers and the divisibility of the numbers. Our teacher, Clyde Damron is very helpful to the students.

Problem: Can you move only two matches to new positions so that exactly four squares remain? Answer will be in next edition.

Seventh grade math classes are studying about decimals. They have studied about how to add, subtract, multiply and divide decimals. They have also gone further and learned how to change the decimals to fractions and change fractions to decimals. Mrs. Lorann Hamilton is the math teacher for the seventh and is very helpful to her pupils.

Plain Sifitching

The eighth grade Homemaking classes are thoroughly involved in a study on "Looking Your Best", hoping to learn more ways to make a better appearance and improve grooming habits.
They are looking forward to studying hair styling, clothes repair for an appropriate appearance and better cosmetics techniques.
The seventh grade students have just begun Homemaking this semester and have commenced with a study of "Understanding Yourself and Others." They are looking forward to gain a broader concept of their personality and personality potential.

Musical Notes

Mrs. Braafladt spoke to the Junior High Choir Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 19 about the fundamentals of singing. She discussed the correct procedures to use in breathing, word pronunciation, tone projection and tone control.
Mrs. Braafladt demonstrated the various methods to the choir and also told of the experience of having participated in National High School Chorus at one time.

Around The Campus

Porter Buchanan has placed a bulletin board in the building for the seventh grade. We, the student body, would like to thank him for this needed board.

The Student Senate wishes to thank the newspaper for providing space in the paper or our Junior High news.

This week the Shop Boys have been learning to make cups out of sheet metal. We learned to tend the soldering iron. To make a good grade, the cup has to hold water. Some are having a hard time learning these things, but someone doing just fine. We also learned all of the tools needed for shaping and molding sheet iron.

Kat Kapers

Dimmitt seventh grade basketball team won a victory over Hereford, Saturday, January 9. The final score was 34-20. Bobby Baker was the high pointer with 16.

Score by quarters was first, 10-6; second, 19-12; third, 32-20; and fourth, 34-20.

Dimmitt Junior High eighth grade team was defeated by Hereford, January 9 in a very close game.

Signup Underway For Upland Cotton Program

Cotton farmers who want to grow their upland crop this year under the domestic allotment plan will have an opportunity to sign up at the Castro ASCS County Office, Charley E. Hill, Office Manager, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, announced today. The signup covers the period February 8 through March 26, 1965.

Mr. Hill pointed out that this signup is a new development for cotton farmers, and for that reason farmers.

The domestic allotment program was also in effect for the 1964 upland cotton crop, as authorized by special legislation, and the program for the 1965 crop is very similar to last year's. But last year there was no signup of farmers who wanted to take part in the program. The signup this year is being conducted in the hope that it will make farmers more aware of the benefits available under the program.

In brief, each cotton producer this year will have two choices: First, he may plant within the farm's domestic allotment. (For small farms for which allotments are not released for 1965, the domestic allotment is the smaller of 15 acres or the 1965 effective allotment; for most other farms, the domestic allotment is 65 percent of the 1965 effective allotment.)

By keeping the cotton acreage within the farm's domestic allotment, the farmer qualifies for the price-support loan, based on 29 cents a pound for Middling 1-inch cotton at average location, and also for a price-support payment of 4.35 cents a pound on the farm's established normal yield times the acreage planted for harvest in 1965. The payment is to compensate farmers for reducing their acreage and thereby holding down unneeded supplies.

Growers taking part in the domestic allotment program also stay within the farm's feed grain base if the domestic allotment is smaller than the effective allotment.

The second choice is to plant cotton within the effective allotment for his farm. (The effective allotment after any release or reapportionment.) If this is his choice, he need not sign up. By keeping his cotton acreage within the effective allotment, the grower would be eligible for the price-support loan, described above.

Mr. Hill emphasized that a grower will not become eligible for the domestic allotment price-support payment by merely staying within his farms, domestic allotment. Signing up to take part in the program is a necessary first step. And the signup period is February 8 through March 26.

Farmers taking part in the 1965 feed grain program may get the top rate of payment on the entire acreage diverted into conserving uses if they sign up and actually divert at least 40 percent of the farm's feed grain base, Charley E. Hill, Office Manager, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee reminded growers today.

The key figures for estimating diverted acres and diversion payments are 20, 40, and 50, he explained. The minimum diversion under the feed grain program is 20 percent of the feed grain base. The maximum diversion is 50 percent of the base. And there are two diversion-payment rates.

If the grower signs up and diverts only the minimum acreage, his diversion payment will be figured at the lower rate - one fifth of the county's total price-support rate (price - support loan plus the price-support payment).

If the grower diverts between 20 and 40 percent of his base, the lower rate applies to the minimum diversion and the higher rate to the balance diverted. The higher rate is one-half the county's total support rate.

But if the grower signs up and actually diverts at least 40 percent of the base, the higher rate will apply to the entire acreage diverted.

Farmers signing up in both the wheat and feed grain programs may divert either feed grains or wheat under the program's substitution plan, and in this case the diversion payments will be based on the actual crop reduced. Under this plan, any acreage credited to diversion from feed grains in excess of the signed intention would be paid for at the minimum feed grain diversion rate.

The feed grain program for 1965 is basically the same as in 1964. It is voluntary and applies to corn, grain sorghum and barley. Participating farmers may qualify for diverted-acre payments and price-support payments, and they will be eligible for price-support loans on their corn, grain sorghum and barley.

Mr. Hill points out that signing up is a necessary first step in taking part in the feed grain program. The signup covers the period February 8 through March 26. It will be held at the Castro ASCS County Office.

But last year there was no signup of farmers who wanted to take part in the program. The signup this year is being conducted in the hope that it will make farmers more aware of the benefits available under the program.

MRS. GARY LANE MOORE nee Judy Carrol Mooney

Couple Exchange Wedding Vows In Impressive Candlelight Ceremony

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, Miss Judy Carrol Mooney became the bride of Gary Lane Moore on Tuesday, December 29, 1964 at 7:30 P.M. in the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt.

Miss Mooney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob D. Mooney and Mr. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Moore, all of Dimmitt. The Rev. M. A. Smith, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Colorado City officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The satin draped chancel was an effective background for the 44 white tapers. Spiral candelabras were used on either side of a straight candelabra. The candelabras wrapped with greenery were entwined with stephanotis and lilies of the valley and tied with white satin bows. Completing the altar arrangement were two single taper hurricane lamps. The lamp stands were decorated to match the candelabras. White satin bows marked the bridal path.

Janice Mooney, sister of the bride, presented traditional wedding selections at the organ. She also accompanied Brenda Hughes, soloist, of Lubbock as she sang "Whither Thou Goest."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza and Alencon lace featuring a molded bodice, portrait neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points over her hands. A satin rosette at the waistline caught the tiered skirt as it cascaded into a chapel length train. The elbow length veil of French illusion was caught to a tiara of seed pearls and aurore borealis. The bridal bouquet topped a white Bible and featured a Jabett orchid surrounded by a dozen white roses. Streamers of white satin and love knots of tulle completed the bouquet. For something old, she carried a white lace handkerchief, which her grandmother, Mrs. E. H. Youts, carried at her wedding 35 years ago. For something new, she wore a strand of pearls which were a gift of the groom. Something borrowed was her wedding dress and veil belonging to Mrs. Dale Luke of Amarillo. She wore a blue garter and had the traditional lucky penny in her shoe.

Penny Hays was maid of honor, Donna Dehtan was the bridesmaid. They both wore street length sheath dresses fashioned from blue brocade and featuring jewel necklines and long sleeves. They wore matching shoes and drop pearl necklaces which were gifts from the bride. Their floral hairpieces consisted of white roses. They each carried a single white rose.

Jan Willis and Ginger Kemp served as candlelighters. Their dresses matched those of the attendants. They also wore the drop pearl necklaces presented to them by the bride. Their hair was caught in the back by a corsage of white roses.

Don Moore served his brother as best man. The groomsmen were Mike Chaney. Serving as ushers were Jack Thompson and Darless Goolsby.

Johnna Hastings presided at the guest register. Mrs. Mooney, mother of the bride, wore a beige Swedish Embroidery sheath dress complimented by bone and black accessories.

Mrs. Moore, mother of the groom wore an olive green dress of silk and completed her costume with black accessories. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall. The serving table was laid with a white floor length organdy cloth laid over blue. The cloth was draped in front, caught up on either side by bows of blue satin. The centerpiece was a cherub appointment bearing a cascade of white roses. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom standing under a heart shaped archway and surrounded by miniature blue roses. The fruit punch and cake was served from crystal service.

The Jerry Higdon's Attend Red Barn Company Managers Convention

Just returned from a company convention held at the Plaza Motor Hotel at El Paso, Texas, are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Higdon of Dimmitt. The week-long convention January 17-23, was the annual managers meeting of Red Barn Chemicals, Inc. Mr. Higdon is the manager of the company's branch at Dimmitt, Texas, the heart of this very progressive agricultural district. "Our attendance this year," said

J. C. Berry, President of Red Barn Chemicals, Inc., "was the largest we have ever had. Thirty-five officers and managers of the company were on hand. This twenty-five percent increase over last year's convention clearly shows the splendid growth of our company during the past year. This growth is due in part to the granular fertilizer plant we now have under construction at Freeport, Texas. Ant-

Southwestern Public Service Co. To Bring New Facilities To County

Southwestern Public Service Company will invest nearly one and one-quarter million dollars in new facilities in Castro County and the immediate vicinity in 1965 to meet the growing electric service needs of this section of their 45,000 square mile area.

A major item in the new construction activities is the building of a new 115,000 volt transmission line from Plant X, in Lamb County, to Hereford. A new interchange substation will be constructed 7 miles west of Dimmitt and tied in to this new transmission line link.

The substation, which will step down the voltage from 115,000 volts to 69,000 volts, will have a new transformer with a capacity of 40,000 kilovolt-amperes, which is the equivalent of more than 50,000 horsepower, and will meet the future electric service needs of the area for many future years.

A new 69,000 volt transmission line will be built from the new substation to Dimmitt and Hart. The new transmission circuit will be of H-frame type construction, and the Dimmitt-Hart section of the line will replace a single pole circuit which is now used to transmit power between Dimmitt and Hart.

"The practical effect of this new construction is that the Dimmitt area will now be served by a 115,000 volt transmission system, which can receive power from both the north and the south of our system, as compared with the present 69,000 volt system which now brings power from Hereford. This is a major strengthening of our power source and assures the re-icipated opening date is early spring."

The program of the meeting was devoted chiefly to two types of discussions: The increasingly important part that fertilizers and agricultural chemicals are playing in the raising of food and fibers; and how Red Barn can best serve the farmers and ranchers in the southern states.

The ladies were entertained throughout the week with sightseeing trips and with luncheons. In the evenings, they were joined by the men for dining and dancing.

Of particular interest were the tours into the Mexican border city of Juarez. Dinner one night was at LaFiesta Restaurant in that city. A morning tour of Juarez for the ladies included visits to several very old churches and government houses and the colorful market place. Many short excursions were made back across the border to the market place. woven baskets, bronze and copper ornaments and hand-blown glassware will serve as pleasant mementoes of the week long convention.

Search Begins For Local AFS Family

The American Field Service, founded in 1914, as a voluntary ambulance service, has since 1947 undertaken an international scholarship program with secondary schools for students in the 16 to 18 year age level.

More than 29,000 boys and girls from the United States and 65 foreign countries have taken part in this AFS program.

The American Field Service is a non-profit, membership corporation, incorporated under the laws of the state of New York. Its administration consists of a Board of Directors and Advisory Committee plus a staff of approximately 130. Headquarters are at 313 East 43rd Street, New York, New York 10017, and offices are maintained overseas in 31 countries.

The Dimmitt Chapter of the American Field Service has begun looking for a home for our exchange student next year. The family must have their application for a student in by February 15. If a family is interested in applying for an exchange student, they should get in touch with Mr. Ralph Smith, Dr. Wohlgenuth, or Mr. Newman.

Qualifications for an AFS Family are: - a heart - large enough to share a portion with another child from another land for a year-and probably forever; - a mind open to the different life and culture the student will bring with him, open to accepting him for his difference and not for his similarities; and a share of laughter and gaiety to shrink the problems which may come up and to strengthen the bonds of communication.

AFS students live in one family during the year in the U. S., as a member of the family, sharing equally in the pleasures and duties of the home. The parents have the same authority over the student as they have over their own children, and they also have the same responsibility for giving him care and affection. The family should realize that, although the student will have to adopt some customs which are new to him, it is not the purpose of the AFS program to turn the student into an American.

The family must assume some financial responsibility, but there is a special income tax deduction for the family, and the student receives $14 each month from AFS. The school and community are most helpful in providing things the student needs.

Thursday, January 28, the Dimmitt Chapter of the AFS met for lunch at the high school. The main object of discussion was the finding of a home for next year's exchange student. The local chapter of AFS must contribute $750 to the program for each student sponsored.

New officers were elected at the recent meeting. They are as follows:

- President - Ralph Smith
- Treasurer - Jean Byrnes
- Member of Homes - Mrs. Russel Moran
- Liaison Officer - Emily Cling-smith
- School Advisor - S. T. Newman
- Americans Abroad - Dr. Wohlgenuth
- School Representative - New
- President of Student Body

Student Advisor - Mrs. Hottel and Miss Britten

Speech Arrangement - Mr. Fuquay

Secretary - Russel Moran

The next meeting will be the 4th Thursday in February. The Chapter would like to encourage all families interested in keeping an exchange student next year to begin on their applications now.
