VOL. XVI RANGER, TEXAS, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1934 PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 1

CONGRESS SPEEDING TOWARD ADJOURNMENT

RANGER WILL CELEBRATE ON JULY FOURTH

Plans for the biggest Fourth of July celebration ever staged in Ranger are well under way, it was announced Saturday by W. C. Hickey, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, with practically every organization in the town to be asked to co-operate.

One of the features of the celebration will be a big pageant with a cast of 300 local people, to be staged at night, depicting the march of progress in the United States. The pageant, which was recently produced in Breckenridge is called "The March of Time Pageant," and is considered one of the best of its kind that can be secured.

A big parade with old-time stage coach, prairie schooner with a team of oxen, and other features has tentatively been arranged for the morning and a big fireworks display will open and close the day's activities.

The pageant will show the various phases of the history of our nation from the time the Indians ruled the entire country, up to and including the era of the New Deal.

Several state candidates, as well as local candidates, may be invited to the present and to arrange for speaking engagements throughout the day, while swimming at the Willows and soft ball baseball games have also tentatively been arranged on the program.

Every organization in the town has been urged to have a representative present at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce offices Monday afternoon, at which time committees will be named to take charge of the various parts of the program. This will be the first Fourth of July celebration in Ranger in a number of years.

A number of Ranger citizens, including L. R. Pearson, Colonel H. B. D. Conway and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Hickey and son, visited the pageant at Breckenridge for the purpose of securing it for Ranger for the celebration and all were enthusiastic in their praise of the affair.

CONFERENCE OF PREMIERS MAY BE IMPORTANT

By United Press
VENICE, Italy, June 16.—Adolph Hitler, seeming a bit dazed by it all, left by airplane today for the peace and quiet of Germany after a bewildering two-day visit to Premier Mussolini, which may prove of importance in European diplomatic relations.

During their discussion, Hitler and Mussolini reached purely informal agreements that:

1. Austria shall maintain its independence.
2. The armament situation should be stabilized and Germany should be permitted to build up its armament toward equality during a six-year period.
3. Mussolini battered four-power peace treaty to bind Italy, Germany, France and Great Britain to keep the peace for 10 years would be the framework for treaties.

She will not share in the estate, which will go to legitimate heirs of his own race.

ARMY BUYING PROBE MAY BE A REVELATION

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Prediction the house military affairs committee investigation of war department purchase methods would bring to light "a scandal that would arouse the people" were made in the house today by Representative John J. Cochran, democrat, Missouri.

"The things this committee is finding out probably will open the doors of the penitentiary to some government officers," he said, saying he was not at liberty to tell details.

Cochran, member of the house accounts committee, drove through a resolution, giving the committee an additional $20,000 to continue the investigation.

NRA IS ONE YEAR OLD AS TROUBLE BREWS

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 16.—NRA celebrated its first birthday today, fighting conflict of capital and labor which threatened to spin the United States into the worst strike epidemic in its history.

This anniversary is marked by a barely averted steel strike. Dispute over collective bargaining guarantees brought auto workers to the brink of a walkout last March. The same argument stirred steel.

Labor has become critical as Hugh Johnson developed his ideal of industrial self-government. Enthusiasm of union leaders dimmed, but major strikes have been averted so far.

Because a number of people have asked if a deposit or fee is charged when books are taken from the library, we wish to state again that books may be checked out of the library absolutely free. No charge of any kind is made when books are taken from the library. A fine of 2 cents a day is charged if books are kept overtime. All books may be kept one week, and then may be re-checked if they are needed for a longer period.

The story telling committee of the Child Welfare, 1920 Club, New Era Club, and Child Study Clubs are to meet in the library Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. If you are one of these committees please remember this announcement.

Many new books are being received from the state library. Among others are "Anthony Adverse," "This Little Pig," "Book of Pirates," and a recently published book about the radio. Do not hesitate to ask for any book which you need or would like to read, because if we do not have it in the library we shall be glad to get it for you from the state library, if possible.

"Lead and Likker," by Owen P. White, is a tale of Texas frontier life told by one who knows. Born in a one-room adobe hut at almost the exact geographical center of what is now the flourishing city of El Paso, Owen P. White knows, at first hand and with intimate detail, the American Southwest in its most flamboyant aspects. He has here written with gusto and enthusiasm an exuberant book of the bad old days of the Texas frontier, when "lead and likker" were poured with reckless abandon from hooker and revolver muzzle. He has drunk and swapped stories with such world-famous characters as Pat Garrett, slayer of Billy the Kid; John Wesley Hardin, high-scoring among Texas gunmen; and John Selman, who slew Mr. Hardin, and George Scarborough, who killed Mr. Selman, and so on.

Mr. White has lived in an environment as colorful, wicked and explosive as any on the southwest frontier. He knew Althbert B. Fall, when that gentleman was wearing, even in summer, a long-tailed coat to cover the lamentable condition of the seat of his trousers. Through the pages of this highly amusing, often startling, book moves a motley procession of strange and alarming characters, a few good, most bad, but all reeking of gun-smoke and rum.

BILL A MINUTE CLICKED OFF ON SATURDAY

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Congress clicked off a bill a minute today in an adjournment drive which found at noon the labor dispute bill well on the way to enactment and obstacles disappearing from the path of the administration housing bill.

The senate met at 9 a. m. Bill snapped through with zip and a flurry. The house convened at 10 minutes the labor bill, pointed directly at the steel crisis, but suitable to all business.

Most other business had been sidetracked for the adjournment push.

The senate passed and sent to conference the administration housing bill, last of the involved recovery measures scheduled for action.

The McKeown bankruptcy bill, which makes possible a six-year semi-moratorium on farm mortgage foreclosures, was passed by the house, 133 to 15.

A similar bill was passed by the senate, but the house submitted the language of its bill and the measure must go to conference.

Houston Yachtsmen To Get Real Test

By United Press
HOUSTON, June 16.—Houston Yacht club sailors will be put to a real test next week when a crack crew of local stars lifts anchor of Hiram Dean's yawl Wawatom in Florida and stars a 10-day sailing jaunt to Houston.

The boat was purchased recently in Florida by Dean. When members of the yacht club heard of the purchase they volunteered their services to bring the craft to Houston.

The boat will act as skipper. L. F. C. Shirmeyer, U. S. Naval Reserve, will be navigator, while Mike Mellinger and Albert Fay will be the crew. Mrs. Paul Richmond will make the trip as a passenger.

The party left Houston last Wednesday. Albert Fay, Yale university student, will meet the Houstonians at Palmetto.

From Palmetto the party planned to sail to Apalachicola, Fla., where supplies will be taken on. From there they will sail to Pensacola, where they will be guests of the Pensacola Yacht club.

After leaving Pensacola, the next stop will be the Coast Guard station at Burwood, La. From there the boat will head into the Gulf and fish for red snapper and kings for several days.

Dean claims the Wawatom is regarded as one of the fastest sailing crafts of its kind in Florida waters. The boat is 40 feet, rig sailer with an auxiliary motor, and has two staterooms and accommodations for eight persons.

Ex-Bootblack Is A Star Matador

By United Press
EL PASO, Texas.—Alejandro Del Hierro, a former El Paso bootblack, is the toast of Mexico City bullfight fans.

The 20-year-old matador recently has scored six consecutive triumphs in the Mexican capital, according to reports reaching here. A triumph in bullfights means such a smashing hit that the spectators vote to give the matador an ear and the tail of the bull he kills.

Alejandro took up bullfighting less than two years ago. His teacher was Jose (Foria) Rodriguez, an old matador who fought in the days of Gaona, Belmonte and Freg.

Rodriguez organized a troupe of matadors, all of whom were boys. Alejandro is the only one of the troupe who made good.

"He is the best matador to be developed in Juarez in the 22 years that I have been here," said Rodriguez. "He soon will be one of the highest paid matadors in the world."

Alejandro is described as being a graceful worker with the big cape.

His specialty, however, is the "muleta" and sword. The "muleta" is the small red cape which the matador uses to maneuver the bull into position for the sword thrust.

Mexicans class Alejandro now as a "novillero." In America it means the same as a minor leaguer. Within six months he will receive his "alternative," or degree, which will permit him to accept maximum sums. He has not been scored in more than 35 fights.

Alejandro is expected to compete with the best of the Spanish bullfighters who will come to Mexico to face the best of the Mexican matadors in November.

Threat of Steel Strike Is Averted For Time Being

By United Press
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 16.—Threats of an immediate paralyzing steel strike was ended today, pending reception of labor's compromise proposals, which are to be placed before President Roosevelt.

A committee representing the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers will submit the proposals to the President.

If the suggestions, which entail setting up a commission to service transactions, are rejected, the strike will be called immediately.

It was emphasized the union "war" is only temporarily abandoned. If a strike comes, union strategy will be to take the men out of the mills without notice. No further meetings will be necessary.

The president of the Amalgamated organization will present the plan to Mr. Roosevelt on Monday.

Jack Dempsey Floyd To Join the Church

By United Press
FORT WORTH, June 16.—The wife and son of Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, notorious Oklahoma bandit, occupied a hotel room here today preparatory to induction of the son into the First Baptist church here tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Floyd said her son, Jack Dempsey Floyd, 9, would be baptized by Dr. J. Frank Norris, First Baptist pastor. She said it was her husband's wish.

"Of one thing I am sure, however," she said. "He has led a straight life for the last two years."

Baptizing Will Be Feature of Baptist Revival

The revival at Central Baptist Church which has been in progress for the past two weeks will close with tonight's service. This has been one of the greatest revivals in the history of Ranger. Great crowds have gathered from service to service great sermons have been preached at every hour and great decisions made. All Central joined hands to make this a great season of reaping. Not an organization of the church failed to put her efforts into the work. The first prayer hands organized the first day of the meeting have grown with each day. Much work was done to prepare all hearts for the preaching hour.

The music under Mr. Maddox was never better. Those who play instruments have been faithful to bring them and work with the orchestra. Every one has helped with the singing.

Brother Dunlap's messages have been highly surcharged with the spirit of the Master. They have been faithfully and effectively delivered and his appeals have been most every service.

Yesterday afternoon the Junior choir was given a feast of ice cream at 3 o'clock on the church lawn.

Today all Central will put her best into the services. Every member of the Sunday school will be in his or her place. All teachers and officers will be present at 9:30 to be in charge when the pupils arrive. Get a good ready for the morning preaching hour. If you have not heard Rev. Dunlap hear him today.

At the evening service there will be baptizing of the 65 converts who have already joined upon profession of faith for baptism. Many more may be added in today's services. Those approved will come prepared to be baptized.

Central by prayer and the help of God will make this the last day of the revival the best day of the revival.

British Aces Pick U. S. Propellers

By United Press
LONDON.—Variable pitch propellers, made in the United States, are to be fitted to the three British mystery airplanes to be flown in the England-Australia air race.

The planes are DeHavilland "Comets," details of which are being kept a close secret until after the closing date for entries. Practically the only details known about the machines are that the manufacturers have guaranteed a speed of "not less than two hundred miles an hour" against the purchase price of $25,000.

It was intended that the three machines should be entirely British made and of all-British materials. Desire was expressed by the purchasers for variable pitch propellers and, while there were a number of these made in Britain, it was found that none of them were designed for use with the type of engine being fitted to the "Comets." It was found impossible to design and produce the type of "prop" without risk of delay and disappointment so it was decided to apply to the United States where suitable propellers already existed.

One of these machines will be flown in the race by Jim Mollison and his wife (Amy Johnson), while the crews of the other two will be Charles W. A. Scott and Captain Campbell Black, and Bernard Rubin and Kenneth Waller, who recently knocked ten hours of Jim Mollison's record for the trip from Australia to England. The record, however, is not officially recognized as it was not officially timed.

Dude Ranch Industry Has Bright Outlook

By United Press
IDAHO FALLS, Idaho.—Dude ranching in Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming promises to thrive this summer, judging from advance reservations.

Hard riding cowboys don brightly colored shirts, polish up their art of roping and trick riding, to give Easterners a thrill. Tiresome range riding and duties of the cattlemen are forgotten, for two months at least, in favor of the more profitable entertaining of visitors.

Many dude ranches, closed for three years because of lack of business, have reopened this year with the promising prospect of the season.

"Hollywood Party" Gives Film Fans Something New

Lifting music and gorgeous girls, hilarious comedy, spectacular settings and costumes, a few thrills, and a romance—these are the ingredients of which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has fashioned the much-talked-of "Hollywood Party," playing at the Arcadia Theatre Sunday only.

The picture, a multi-star extravaganza, brings to the screen an entirely new form of entertainment, in that a logical dramatic story, including a love romance, is shown, and into it are woven all the novelties of a musical show, each injected as an integral part of the drama itself.

The play deals with the plot of Jimmy Durante, playing "Schnarzan," jungle star, to get lions for his picture from Baron Munchausen (Jack Pearl). The real owners of the lions show up in the persons of Laurel and Hardy, Jimmy's rival, "Londona," comes to a party given for the Baron, disguised as a grand duke, and plots with an oil millionaire (Charles Butterworth), to obtain the lions.

So Jimmy vamps the oil man's wife (Polly Moran) with unexpected results. Lupe Velez "crashes" the party for a hilarious sequence with Laurel and Hardy, who lose a lion and stampede the party, whereupon the great "Schnarzan" vanquishes the big cat.

Among the musical numbers are the big "Hello" ensemble in which a whole revue is staged in a single number; Frances Williams' song with the "Singing Wires"; the spectacular "Musical Bar" with its beautiful girls; Jimmy Durante's comical "Reincarnation"; "Hot Chocolate Soldier," a number by Brown and Fred that is used for the Disney Symphony; "I've Had My Moments," the love motif sung by Eddie Quillan and June Clyde, and others.

V. V. Cooper, candidate for Commissioner, Precinct No. 1.

Mr. Cooper served as commissioner from the precinct during the period when there was more activity in the county in building roads and other permanent improvements that were voted and carried out by the commissioner's court.

When he first went into office $4,500,000 had just been spent on public roads in Eastland county, including the building of Highway 1 through the county. The roads were not in a completed state and $260,000 in warrants were issued by the commissioners court to complete this road work in order that they might be taken over by the state highway department.

During the oil boom the rural roads had been neglected until many of them were in bad condition. When he went into office he put them back on their proper roadbeds, reshaped and rebuilt them, giving the precinct a good system of rural roads.

The bridge over Colony Creek at Merriman, a concrete span that cost $6,000, was constructed under his administration. He personally supervised and constructed an 80-foot span over Lake Eastland, a project that was completed for $3,500 and a bridge of the same type over Colony Creek at Panhandle, which cost the same as the Eastland Lake span.

In addition to this road work there were 550 small bridges and culverts installed along the rural and state roads that were completed under his administration, a total of approximately 200 miles of such roads being relocated and rebuilt, local labor being used and reasonable wages being paid for all the labor.

The former commissioner has always stood for a reasonable wage for labor and has always used local labor in the construction and maintenance of the roads of the county.

In addition to building and maintaining the rural roads, he saw to it that every schoolhouse in the precinct was on either a highway or a lateral road, and at least once each year the county grader and tractor crews were instructed to blade the grounds of these rural schools as they were working in the vicinity, thereby aiding these rural schools in maintaining their grounds and helping to keep them in good condition. This was done because it was realized that the patrons of the schools were taxpayers, and just as entitled to receive this recognition as those who used the roads and highways.

It was during the administration of Mr. Cooper that the county courthouse was built, and bond issue being submitted to the voters of the county upon presentation of a petition, properly signed, to the commissioners court. The commissioners selected the architect, awarded the contracts and kept a close supervision over the work at all times. When the building was completed, the sidewalks installed, the grounds landscaped, grass and trees planted and the shrubbery arranged about the building, it was found that a saving of more than $1,000 had been made possible through the efforts of the commissioners out of the $300,000 voted for the purpose.

When Mr. Cooper went into office the City-County hospital had been built, but had never been opened. It was due largely to his efforts that the project was completed and kept open throughout the remainder of his term.

Mr. Cooper is seeking the office of commissioner of Precinct No. 1 by strong solicitation of the citizens of the precinct because of his past record as a commissioner, and the many constructive projects for the good of the entire county that were originated, planned and carried out during his term in office, as he was actively engaged in each of the movements, and, if elected, plans to become just as keenly interested in the good of his entire district as he was during the years he served the people of his precinct.

Joe Palmer to Be Returned to Texas

By United Press
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 16.—Joe Palmer, fugitive Texas convict, who was captured yesterday shortly after the release of three Davenport, Iowa, men he had kidnaped, will be returned to Texas to answer murder charges.

Iowa authorities said they would not make an effort to hold the former member of the Clyde Barrow gang. He waived extradition to Texas, where he is wanted for the slaying of Major Crowson, Eastham prison farm guard.

Mississippi Has A Scenic Drive

By United Press
MARQUETTE, La.—Dreams of Mississippi river highway enthusiasts have been brought a step nearer realization with completion of a six-mile stretch north of here, which parallels the "Father of the Waters" and rivals the famous Hudson river drive for sheer beauty of scenery.

The road is cut through the wilderness of eastern Iowa and in many places is an entirely new road. Work of constructing the drive was great, and two years were required for completing the project. Ten thousand trees were grubbed out to make the right of way. The roadbed was dynamited and steam-shoveled out of the river bluffs which run along the entire six miles. Giant culverts were laid under the grade at many points to allow water from the bluff sides to drain under the highway into the Mississippi.

In addition to the scenic beauty of the route, many points of historical and legendary interest are passed by the highway. It passes by "Serogum's Landing," one of the more popular landings in the days when steamboats and rafts plied the river. The road crosses the "Old Military Trail" made by soldiers from Fort Crawford, Prairie du Chien, Wis., when they built Fort Atkinson in Iowa. The trail was used for a number of years as a communication link between the two forts. Troops and supplies were transported over it.

We went direct to owners for facts about Ford V-8 Economy

- "In over 100,000 miles I have experienced no motor trouble in my Ford."
- "On a 475-mile trip I averaged 18 to 19 miles per gallon of gasoline in my Ford V-8."
- "To date, I have driven 29,000 miles in my Ford V-8 without a cent of repairs."
- "We drove a round trip of 600 miles and used exactly 26 gallons of gasoline."
- "I have not spent five dollars for repairs on the five Fords I have owned."
- "I have driven my Ford V-8 car 2600 miles and used only 128 gallons of gasoline."
- "Our experience (with a fleet of cars) shows the Ford V-8 is the most economical."

THERE'S one sure way to get the facts about motor-car economy. And that's to ask the man who drives the car. He hasn't anything to sell and you can depend on him for a straight-from-the-shoulder, honest answer.

We asked Ford V-8 owners for the facts and received 53,448 letters and post-cards. They showed a total of 417,161,640 miles. 91.7 per cent reported complete satisfaction—a truly amazing percentage for any automobile.

34,954 of these Ford V-8 owners had driven their cars 272,815,970 miles without a single penny for repairs. Many of them reported twenty, thirty and sixty thousand miles without trouble or replacements of any kind.

Owners' figures on gasoline mileage are further proof of the economy of the Ford V-8. One owner in every four averaged 18, 19 or 20 miles a gallon. 18,420 averaged 15, 16 or 17 miles.

Where mileage was less than that it was usually due to continuous driving at high speeds, lack of proper care of the car, extra-heavy loads, or many miles of traveling over mountains or in crowded city traffic. Where you drive and how fast you drive has a great deal to do with gasoline mileage.

This data on gasoline mileage is for the 1933 Ford. The New Ford V-8 of 1934 does considerably better than that because of the new dual carburetion, waterline thermostats and new engine refinements. At the same time its power is even greater.

We invite you to drive the Ford V-8 and let it tell you its own story of performance, comfort, safety and economy. You save when you buy and you save every mile you drive.

Stolen Car Found; Returned to Owner

The return of the car stolen from Irvin Gentry of Ranger Tuesday night, which was accidentally found by two Eastland boys concealed partially by brush in a field east of town was made by Eastland county officers Friday.

Inside of the car were scraps of paper and sundry items which made it evident, according to officers, that the persons responsible for the theft were also responsible for burglarization of recent origin.

Little damage other than the scratched surface of the automobile was effected by the thieves while it was in their possession.

MAGNOLIA IS WINNER IN A GOOD CONTEST

Magnolia won a closely contested game from Stargas Friday afternoon in her last game of the first half of the season by a score of 7 to 5.

Stargas started the fireworks in the first inning by coupling two hits and an error to account for the first two runs of the game, while Magnolia made four runs in the first inning to take a lead they maintained throughout the game. They picked up two more in the second and one in the third to complete their scoring.

Pitching was a little more orthodox Friday, though Smith did begin using a side-arm delivery in the last inning he pitched and H. King, who relieved him used an illegal delivery most of the route, though he did settle down when Umpire Boyd warned him in the fifth. Kindred's pitching on the whole, was good, though he made one or two slight slips that were noticed during the game, and was wild on occasions, though his wildness cost only one score in the seventh.

The infield fly rule was invoked when Kirby, who took left field for Stargas in the fourth, popped up to Kindred in the seventh with men on first and second. Kindred muffed the catch, Burrage and Long advancing to third and second, while Kirby was declared out.

Life Insurance

Men are convinced they should have it yet they must be persuaded to buy it. The man who desires it most is generally he who can get the least. The man who possesses the least is generally he who needs it most.

With many men, it's the last thing they would think of buying. With most men, it's the last thing they would think of giving up. A man's wife may ask, "can't we do without it?" A man's widow asks "What would we have done without it?" With every other common commodity time brings depreciation. With life insurance time increases appreciation. Yet, oddly enough, a life insurance policy one week old is worth fully as much to your widow as a policy a generation old.

A stroke of the pen, the payment of only one premium, puts a man in possession of an estate which could not be produced, with certainty, by a lifetime of toil and patient thrift. Life insurance is, in our opinion, the supreme achievement of commercial enterprises.

A corporation sets up reserves for depreciation—or fails when the machinery is worn out. Yet how many individuals are running their human machines at full speed, heading for the inevitable time when their productivity will cease—and are setting up no reserves for depreciation.

Everyone sooner or later will come to the unproductive years of his life, unless an unforeseen event cuts short his span of years. In either event life insurance is the only way of solving the problem.

If the insuring public would feel free and ask their life insurance representative questions concerning their insurance, and also ask him to explain the many ways life insurance can be used, they would be greatly benefited.

On June 6 D. L. Jameson was elected as worshipful master of the A. F. & A. M. The same day it was announced that there was considerable danger that the market for gas from the Ranger area was seriously threatened because of agitation in Fort Worth to put in a municipal gas supply and system, purchasing gas from Oklahoma and the Amarillo territory. Contracts were tentatively let, but after considerable agitation the whole situation was smoothed over after some time and the agitation died down.

On June 10 burglars were particularly active in Ranger, robbing four places in one night, three of the robberies thought to have been committed by the same man as the methods used were the same. The home of B. H. Peacock, Travis street, was entered and his trousers were taken. The same thing happened at the home of R. E. Powers, Travis street, and at the home of D. A. Jones, Blundell street. The trousers were later found after the money and watches were taken. The other burglary was at the Ranger Steam laundry, where the safe was opened, but nothing was taken as no money was kept overnight in the safe.

On June 10, also, announcement was made of a meeting of the independent oil operators of Eastland county, which was called for Thursday, June 12, at the Gholson hotel, where a banquet was held and many of the problems of the independents were discussed.

June 12 Enoch L. Kimbrough, 38, of Eastland, was electrocuted early in the morning as he was moving a house. He was instantly killed when he lifted a live wire as he stood atop the moving house, which was being moved from Ranger to Yellow Mound.

June 15 W. V. Fields, 19, and W. T. Moore, 19, were lodged in the Eastland county jail charged with the robbery of the Hall Tire company. The two youths were transients who were passing through this part of the county.

June 17 a movement was started to reduce the number of voting boxes in Ranger from five to two. A petition was properly drawn up and circulated, a large number of the voters signing. The request of the Ranger voters was carried out by the commissioners' court, to be effective after the elections of 1930.

June 20, a well west of the Ramsaver-Gordon pool on the Breckenridge road was reported to have a showing of oil and gas at a depth of 5,555 feet, one of the deepest wells drilled in that section.

June 20 J. T. Klinger of Ranger had a narrow escape from drowning in a flood at Gorce, where he was working. The derrick on which he was working was swept away in a flood and he was rescued. Another man who was working with him was rescued after hanging to a tree for 14 hours before help arrived.

June 22 Ranger was chosen as the marketing place for the Oil Belt Sheep and Goat Raisers association and wool was brought to Ranger from over a large territory and sold.

July 4 Edwin Green, 20, of San Antonio, who was visiting in Ranger, was fatally injured when the airplane in which he and two Ranger youths were riding crashed in an attempt to land at the airport. Joe Shankle, 20, and Sherman Matthews, 15, were injured, but not seriously, when the plane fell near the Cooper school.

July 8 a good will tour for the Ranger Junior College was put on, the motored visiting a number of towns in this section of the country.

July 9 fire partly destroyed the Loflin hotel, across the street from the fire station, the entire upper floor being destroyed and the lower floor being damaged by water.

July 15 T. J. Alworth died of a broken neck received at a lease in the oil field 19 miles north of Ranger when a wire line broke and hit him.

Used articles may be included. Members who will be unable to attend are asked to send their donation.

Royal Service Program to Be Led by Mrs. W. A. Lewis
 Mrs. W. A. Lewis will lead the program at the Women's Missionary Society hour Monday afternoon in a special feature presented in the form of a Royal Service program for every member of the organization at the First Baptist church at 3 o'clock.

Subject: "Contribution to Youth in Its Manhood." The president, Mrs. J. G. McGee, asks that all members be present to hear this splendidly outlined lesson.

Church Banquet Friday Night to Complement Men

The two circles composing the Women's Missionary Society, First Baptist church, are to entertain with a banquet at the church Friday night, June 22, complementing the men of the church. Plans for the entertainment are being carried forward with much success and enthusiasm. The social feature bids fair to be one of the most largely attended entertainments ever to have been sponsored by the society.

MORE TERRAPLANE CONVERTIBLES

Quantity production of Convertible models of Terraplans and Hudsons has commenced in earnest as a result of the demand created by the warm spring weather through a large section of the country. Last year the Hudson Motor Car Company reported that for a considerable period of time Convertible Coupes constituted nearly 9 per cent of production, instead of the normal 2 per cent. Chester G. Abbott, general sales manager of the Hudson Motor Car Company states that early indications show that the spring and summer of 1934 will produce an even better market for Convertible Coupes.

"Because the Convertible Coupe is a sport-type car, the sale of this model is apt to be heavy with consumers that have cars with a reputation for brilliant performance," says Mr. Abbott. "Following our achievement in 1933 of establishing 72 official A. A. A. records for speed and performance with the Terraplane, we found that our Convertible Coupe demand far outstripped the average for the industry. As a matter of fact, for a period of time approximately 9 per cent of our output was Convertible Coupes, against a normal 2 per cent. This is still very early in the year for a heavy sale of Convertible Coupes, but the healthy demand, even at this time, has indicated that we are as far another good year on this model."

"We have designed our Convertible Coupe along lines which will appeal to the younger element. They are full of snap and dash, and are particularly attractive with the tops lowered. We have also made a point of making the top easy to raise and lower."

"Production has just started on Convertible Coupes at our factory. Up to now we have had a few come of the line, but now that the demand for this model from dealers throughout the country is becoming heavy, a representative proportion of our production will again be in the Convertible models. Whether this will reach the relative volume of last year a production, cannot be predicted at this time, but early indications lead me to believe it is likely to be even better."

into South Texas and San Antonio. They will be at home in Hodges Oak Park addition, in the place formerly occupied by the A. J. Ratliff family. In the absence of Mrs. Huckaby her place at the city hall was filled by Miss Myrtle Lucille Mills.

Mrs. Mary Eldridge and children of Chicago are to arrive in Ranger Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Eldridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Melroe. Mrs. Eldridge, who is a teacher in Chicago, is the only immediate member of the McRae family who was not present with her mother who underwent an operation at the West Texas Clinic and Hospital some two weeks ago. We are happy to report Mrs. McRae is convalescing quite satisfactorily, and was able to be removed to her home, Cypress street, Friday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Haslam returned home Friday from a trip to Birmingham, Ala., where they visited relatives.
