CREW OF SHIP IS RESCUED IN BLIZZARD

MUSKOGON, Mich., Dec. 1.—While giant waves lashed at them and a 50-mile an hour blizzard threatened to tear them loose, 25 sailors crawled to safety over a narrow strand of rope today, while their ship sank a mile offshore.

The sailor crew and captain of the freighter Henry Cort had huddled all night in the cabin of their ship while it pounded in pieces on a breakwater outside the Muskegon harbor.

Coast guardsmen made their sixth attempt to reach the steamer. Waves which carried one of the crew to his death during the night, threatened to swamp the rescue boat.

The guardsmen rode into the lee of the breakwater, while hundreds of shivering spectators cheered from shore. They shot a line to the Cort.

A breeches-buoy carried some of the men to the breakwater from their ship. Others braved the sea and wind by crawling hand-over-hand from the ship to safety. Last to leave the ship in maritime tradition was Charles Cox, captain of the vessel.

Tickets to Dance To Go On Sale at C. of Commerce

Announcement was made Saturday afternoon that the ticket sale for the charity dance, to be staged at the Elks hall Tuesday night, Dec. 4, would be started Monday morning at 9:30 in the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

The proceeds from the dance will go toward the Christmas Cheer baskets for the needy children of Ranger this year. The American Legion Tickville band will furnish the music for the dance.

The ladies of the Child Welfare club who are to assist with the ticket sale are Mrs. Jensen, Flewellyn, Norman, Crawford, Jameson, Murrell and Murray. Men who will serve on the ticket sales committee are G. A. Murphy, Wade Swift, B. E. Garner, E. L. Fontaine, S. L. Golden, Walter Harwell, J. E. Matthews, J. V. Meroney, F. D. Hicks, R. V. Galloway, Felton Brasher and T. J. Anderson.

All the money derived from the dance will be used to purchase candy, fruits, nuts and other things to go into the baskets with the toys that are being made at the fire station.

Bonus Compromise Is Not Favored

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Unfavorable sentiment toward a suggested compromise payment of the veterans' bonus was expressed by members of the house today.

Representative John Rankin, democrat, Mississippi, chairman of the house veterans committee and candidate for speaker, said he believed a large percentage of members of both houses were pledged to payment of the bonus in full.

Rankin's statement came after a declaration by Senator Frederick Steiwer, republican, Oregon, that payment of the cash value of the bonus to needy former soldiers would be unacceptable to the veterans.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

So many have asked, since the Thanksgiving Day game, what Wilson Ritchie had to say about the game, that we have decided to just reproduce his column, in full, in order that we won't have to answer so many questions. And besides, it is a lazy man's way of getting a column filled easily.

In his writeup of the game he started off with "age, weight, experience 42; speed, deception, precision, 7."

Then in his special column he wrote:

"The Bulldogs succeeded in beating the Buckaroos as much as the Buckaroos beat them in 1929. The '29 score was 40-7. Breckenridge had its Boon Magnus then and Ranger has its Aaron Anderson now."

"Ranger football fans were anxious to get a look at this Spud Taylor boy, whose name they had seen quite often in the 'Peeping Thru the Knothole' column conducted by the one and only freckled and forty, Bill Mayes. (Hate to make the figures so low, old man, but it must rhyme). They had their look and accompanied it with a great big razz, several of them. Well, 'just wait till next year' seems to be about all there is to be said.

"Mayes said, 'All-district, hump!' Spud and three other Buckaroos continued to prove that they are all-district, Bernie Collins, Wayne Hole and Earl Clark. At least three Bulldogs belong on the selections, it seems, Aaron Anderson, Mellinger Jacoby and Rankin Britt.

"If I believed before the game that the Buckaroos could win, I believe it more so now, that is on a dry field. It did not take a soothsayer to know who would win the game yesterday, knowing how muddy it would be. There were several indications in the mud game to show that the Bucks would probably have won on a dry field. Who is that snickering in the balcony? Don't be deceived by those points that Ranger made on Breckenridge. At least 14 of those points resulted directly and others indirectly from Taylor's inability to handle the heavy, slippery pigskin accurately.

"Anderson was the main cause of that big number of interceptions in Ranger's column. Coach 'Red' Moore had the big led drop back with Collins every time he even acted as if he was going for a pass.

"From his position as line-backer Anderson had little trouble sticking right with the Buck end on the muddy field. And he did not have to worry about the results if Collins caught one behind him. There were others of the secondary between him and the goal. Therefore Anderson could afford to let Collins stay slightly behind.

Money Is Granted For Highways In Eastland County

AUSTIN, Dec. 1.—Texas highway commissioners today provided $2,069 for building a spur road from highway 29 to the graves in Goliad county of Colonel Fannin and his men, heroes of Texas' war for independence.

Special appropriations included: Eastland county, $1,266 for maintaining highway 187, northeast of Cisco; $3,000 increase in appropriation for surfacing highway 23 from Rising Star to north of Romney.

Palo Pinto county: $1,306 for maintaining highway 168 from Mingo to highway 89.

Runnels and Nolan counties: $2,280 for fencing the right-of-way on highway 158 and $324 for fencing the same in Nolan county.

Adult Educational Program Progresses

Mrs. Louis Pitcock announced Saturday that the attendance at the federal adult school was increasing steadily and much interest was being shown in the classes. Classes are now being offered in salesmanship and registration can be made for these classes on Monday night at the high school building. Classes will be conducted on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

Registrations are still open in advanced accounting classes which offer an opportunity for bookkeepers to take more advanced work, and there is still room for registrations in the elementary arithmetic classes, which are being held every night.

The home-making classes have put a display in the windows of the cotton exchange, showing some of the work done in the past few weeks. Next week the classes will take up Christmas cookery. The classes meet in the home economics department of the high school.

FRANCE TAKES DECIDED STAND ON POLICIES

By United Press

PARIS, Dec. 1.—France provided friends and enemies in Europe today with a clear-cut statement of foreign policy as the basis on which they might decide whether to continue preparations for war or to start negotiations for peace.

The keynote as laid down by Pierre Laval, foreign minister, was:

1. France sincerely invited Germany into negotiations designed to consolidate peace, but it will neither desert its present allies nor depart from the machinery of the League of Nations to win Germany over.

2. It will not accept as a fact the rearmament of Germany in violation of the Versailles treaty.

3. It will insist that the Saar plebiscite, Jan. 13, is conducted fairly and without coercion and if it is, will abide by the result.

Laval spoke in the chamber of deputies last night in debate on the budget for the foreign affairs ministry. His speech was received with enthusiasm.

Relief Program Is Taking Shape

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The federal government's new relief program took shape today with intimations that cost of caring for the nation's needy may top the $7,000,000,000 next year.

Definite plans were expected from the week-end of conferences at Warm Springs between President Roosevelt, Relief Administrator Hopkins, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr., and Housing Administrator James Moffett.

Funeral Held For Baby Face Nelson

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Funeral services reminiscent of the days when gang wars raged in Chicago, were held today over the body of George (Baby Face) Nelson.

Hundreds of curious packed the small undertaking rooms where the remains of America's Public Enemy No. 1 were laid out in a silver-like casket, banked high with yellow chrysanthemums and red rosebuds.

A French scientist has found that wine is better for horses than bran. That doesn't mean wine is better for men, too, because men don't eat bran as horses do.

YOUTH'S DEATH STILL MYSTERY TO OFFICERS

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 1.—Study of the mysterious slaying of John Gorrel, 23, led city criminologists today to re-examination of a threat made last summer to kidnap the daughter of a wealthy Tulsa oil man.

Meantime investigators learned that young Gorrel received a telephone call at dinner Thursday night before he was killed, which left him pale and tense. The youth's mother said he refused to discuss the call with her.

Gorrel, a dental college student, home from Kansas City for the holidays, was found dead with two bullet wounds in his head in his stalled sedan on a lonely driveway early yesterday. The bullets had been fired from his own pistol, which had been wiped clean of fingerprints and restored to a holster.

District Schedule Not Set; Pends a December Hearing

Crude oil purchasers and operators in the West Central Texas district have been advised by Omar Burkett, deputy supervisor, that the December schedule for the district will not be issued until after a special hearing for the district. The hearing date, Burkett said, will be in the near future.

The deputy supervisor stated that the November schedule, together with correction given them by letter, will remain in effect until further notice.

Jockey Is Granted Damages By Court

HOUSTON, Dec. 1.—A federal court jury today awarded damages of $58,500 to Tommie Blanchard, 17, apprentice jockey and his mother for bullet wounds the youth suffered March 15 when the pistol of an Epsom Downs watchman discharged accidentally.

The Texas Breeders and Racers association, operators of the Epsom Downs track, were the defendants in the suit. The jury deliberated only 30 minutes.

Girl Is Freed In Patricide Case

FLORESVILLE, Texas, Dec. 1.—Miss Inez Pasmore, 16-year-old farm girl, today was freed of charges of murdering her father, who had slain her sweetheart and threatened his family.

A jury in district court returned a directed verdict of not guilty for her in the slaying of G. A. Pasmore.

Clyde Chaffin, youth employed on the Pasmore farm near Nixon, was shot to death when the father, became enraged because of his attentions to Miss Pasmore. She said she shot her father when he threatened her and other members of the family after he killed Chaffin.

WINTRY BLASTS SWEEP NATION AND MOVE ON

By United Press
Light frost accompanied the first touch of winter on the Gulf coast today as the mercury dropped to 44 degrees for the season's low.

Freezing temperatures gripped the northern portion of the state, but rising temperatures were expected for today. A ground temperature of 30 degrees was reported at Dallas and a thin layer of ice was formed.

Wintry gales which left a snow blockade in Missouri moved east today and lashed the Great Lakes region. At least five deaths were attributed to the storm.

As the storm, the first of the autumn, moved eastward, skies cleared over the middle-west and temperatures rose. The sun melted the heavy snowfall in Missouri, eastern Kansas and Nebraska.

Highways which were clogged with stranded motorists returning from Thanksgiving trips were passable in Missouri and Kansas today. Storm warnings were posted on the Atlantic from the Delaware breakwater to Maine.

In the Pacific northwest a blizzard raged in Oregon. Snow has fallen there for two days and today there was no indication of its abating. Drifts as deep as six feet blocked highways.

In addition to demoralization of traffic in the middle west caused by the snow which reached the depth of 18 inches, great damage was inflicted on communication lines. Telephone and telegraph lines were still out in northern Missouri.

Ken Gaston Accepts Aultman Challenge

The match that the fans have been looking forward to will be staged at the Elks arena next Monday night, Dec. 3.

Ken Gaston of Rowell, N. M., wrestling leg artist, whose reputation is about to surpass that of Ann Pennington's, has accepted the challenge of Dutch Aultman of Hamburg, Germany, in the main event.

Gaston is among the top-notchers as a leg wrestler and an adept in scientific wrestling. He succeeded in conquering the Terrible Turk last Monday night and has become a favorite with the fans.

Dutch Aultman, who won his match last Monday night in the semi-final, fears no man his weight and is capable of taking care of himself against the best. This match brings together two experts in their lines, arms and legs.

The semi-final, best two out of three falls, 45 minutes time limit, brings together two new men, but their reputations preceded them, causing the management to match these boys. Don Carver of Amarillo, who has been taking instructions under the roughest matman in the game, Dutch Mantell, will stack up against an equally tough opponent in Ramon Vitello, champion of Mexico. The rougher they come for Ramon the better he likes them. There will be plenty of action crowded in the 45 minutes.

Attendance is increasing each week as an indication of the better matches which are being arranged. Net proceeds go to the Elks charity fund to help take care of the needy.

Date of Game to Be Decided Today

The athletic committee of the Ranger high school, accompanied by Coach O. M. Moore, left Fort Worth early this morning, where a conference with the officials of the Amarillo high school will meet to discuss details of the bi-district game, to be played in Amarillo.

Among other things to be determined will be the date on which the game will be played. It was said Saturday that the game would be played either Friday or Saturday afternoon and the consensus of opinion seemed to favor the Saturday game.

While he's trying to get jobs for others, Emergency Relief Administrator Hopkins is doing all he can to spoil his job for himself.

Donation Is Made Toward Toy Plant By Dr. Kuykandall

The Ranger toy factory is still running at full tilt.

Saturday morning Dr. P. M. Kuykandall, president of the Chamber of Commerce, visited the fire station, where the toys are being made, and was so well pleased with the progress being made and so surprised at the magnitude of the undertaking that he donated $10 in cash toward the purchase of new lumber and paint with which to carry on the work.

This $10 donation will go far toward carrying on the project for another week or so, but Fire Chief G. A. Murphy, who is in charge of the work, is anxious to carry on until Christmas.

It is estimated that, with a few more such donations, that a total of 1,000 toys can be made between now and the Yuletide.

Several of the stores in Ranger have co-operated in the project. In addition to several that have been mentioned which contributed materials or tools with which to work, Montgomery Ward & Co., through the courtesy of the local manager, Carl Jansing, has contributed a number of toys, including makes and other similar toys they had in stock, lumber, cotter keys and a large assortment of material that is being used in making other toys.

This work will not interfere with the Christmas shopping in Ranger, as the toys being made are to be distributed among the relief clients and other needy families where the parents are not financially able to purchase toys with which to make the children happy.

GARNER MAY URGE ELECTION OF A TEXAN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The consensus today is that Vice President Garner hopes to maneuver Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas into the speakership or majority leadership of the house.

That probably is one of the interests which is bringing Garner to Washington next week, a month ahead of his usual schedule. He is expected to help the administration plan a legislative schedule. Much of the new deal battle to control congress will depend on conferences in the next three weeks.

Rayburn came to congress in 1913 and is rated among the most able of democratic legislators. His efficient handling of legislation creating the exchange commission is the basis of gossip now that the white house secretly favors his candidacy for leader at least. But Majority Leader Joseph Byrne of Tennessee remains front runner in the speakership race. There are half a dozen others whose claims can be taken seriously and several running for such publicity as may be in it.

Special Train May Be Run to Game at Amarillo This Week

Members of the athletic committee announced Saturday that word had been received from Texas & Pacific railway officials that a round-trip fare to Amarillo for the bi-district game had been set at $5. "If there are enough who sign up for the trip to justify a special train, one will be run," it was said, "but if only enough to fill three or four cars decide to make the trip the cars will be put on the trains making the regular runs, which will have about the same schedule as the special train would have."

The regular schedule would call for the fans to leave Ranger at 1:15 on the morning of the game, arriving in Amarillo at about 11:20. The leaving Amarillo at about 7:30 and arriving in Ranger somewhere around 4 o'clock the following morning.

The $5 rate is good only if 75 or more make the trip together, but the athletic committee expected that between 200 and 300 from this section might go on the train.

COOPERATING PRODUCERS GET $15,911

Figures released by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington show that cotton producers of the county have been paid $15,911.53. The figures, up to Nov. 22, showed that the first payment totaled $8,786.67 and the last $7,124.86.

Those in the nearby county of Stephens have been paid $3,925.76.

The cotton rental payments were divided into two equal installments, with the second payment being made only after compliance with the acreage adjustment contract had been established.

In addition to the rental payments, cotton producers will be paid a substantial sum in "parity" payments. The payment will be calculated on the basis of one cent a pound on the estimated share of each farmer's average past production which enters domestic consumption.

Japan vs. Roosevelt

The Associated Press from Galveston reports: "Shipments of scrap metal from Texas ports to Japan in October were nearly three times as large as in October, 1933.

"Figures compiled here showed that shipments in October, 1934, amounted to 20,473,231 pounds, as compared with 7,993,870 in October of last year."

The death of a relatively obscure archduke by assassination in 1914 was printed by many American newspapers in just about such a manner.

The buying of three times a usual amount of scrap iron by Japan and shipping it through Texas ports may mean that there is prosperity in the making of plowshares in Japan.

But they don't use plowshares in Japan. They are making battleships and guns.

Two weeks ago Japan announced her practical confiscation of all oil fields in her sphere of influence in China. She also announced that no oil company could continue business in Japan without carrying a two years' supply of oil in Japan available to the Japanese government by seizure at its own price.

Japan is getting ready to have all of the oil and the steel needed for a prolonged war. And she is paying for the same in a country almost agonizing in its efforts to escape bankruptcy.

The London naval conference under which Japan is demanding the right to build as many ships as either England or the United States is now on. The American position is that the United States should have equal naval power in the Pacific waters with Japan. The Japanese position is that she should be supreme in the Pacific and that any boats the United States needs in the Atlantic should be deducted from her Pacific ocean necessities.

America will not yield. Japan has said that if America does not yield she will break the naval treaty signed eight years ago.

And those who know predict that President Roosevelt will tell Japan to do exactly as she pleases and that America must be governed by what Japan does.

Much more scrap iron should go to Japan from Texas ports during the next few months. Japan has become an increasing factor in cotton purchases. Cotton makes army clothes and nitro-glycerin as well as shirts for field workers.

It is inconceivable that nearly bankrupt Japan will push her bluff further that she can carry it. Japan has been told by her diplomat reporters in America and England that neither of these countries will go to war under any circumstances. She has been told by her foreign observers that she has a monopoly on war during the next 10 years and can do as she pleases in the Pacific.

The condition is not unlike that of the German government in 1912 and 1913. The people and the government were sold on the value of war as a benefit to national greatness. Japan has been sold the same philosophy by her relatively small victories over Korea and China and her victory over Russia of 30 years ago. Japan as yet has lost no war since she opened her gates to the whites. Until she loses a war she may not be satisfied to promote and to keep world peace. Times have changed. So have many opinions.

Mortals must find refuge in Truth in order to escape the error of these latter days" (page 82.)

Survey For 50-Year Old Fire

By United Press
W STRAITSVILLE, O.—The burning coal mines of New Straitsville will be surveyed by the federal government, Rep. Mell G. Wood, of New Lexington, O., announced in Washington. The mine fire here has burned the new $80,000 high school building has caved in, endangering the structure's foundation. Thousands of dollars of highways throughout two miles have been destroyed. Central Baptist Young People To Have Turkey Banquet

The young people's department of the Central Baptist church Sunday school, Mrs. H. H. Stephens, superintendent, Mrs. Leslie Taylor and Mrs. Frank Hick, teachers, will have a turkey banquet at the church Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. This banquet will be the Thanksgiving and Christmas entertainment for the department.

A menu of turkey and all that goes with it will be served. All those who are enrolled as members of this department are urged to attend, whether or not you have been in Sunday school the past few Sundays.

Not only is a good feed in store for those attending but a jolly good time. Dr. A. K. Wier will be toastmaster and the pastor and Superintendent L. L. Bruce will appear on the program. Good music and plenty of stunts will comprise the evening's entertainment.

Eleg For Dolls and Used Toys Continues

Are you not too busy to take a few minutes and look over your child's used toys? There are always children each Christmas time that's where we get a good picture of bitter with the sweet, because something more heart-rending than to see some child sad and little hearts greatly touched... Just because Santa failed to find them?

Each Christmas, the Child Welfare club of Ranger, assisted by the Ranger fire department, are praised highly for the wonderful work they do helping the needy families of the city in making many children happy who otherwise would not be remembered.

Only a few days an appeal was made for dolls by Mrs. Saunders Gregg, member of the Child Welfare club, and thus far the plea has been unanswered. There are many who are planning on contributing to the splendid cause thinking they will give their doll tomorrow, in order that the doll may be attractively dressed, bring your doll to the home of Mrs. Gregg, 431 Pine street, or call any member of the club and they will call for your doll.

Now for another plea—used toys, according to Mrs. L. H. Flewellea, who is in charge of the used toys donated. Just any toy which you might wish to donate may be left at the Ranger Fire department. If it is not convenient for you to leave your donation at the station, Call Mrs. Flewellea at her home, telephone 568, and she will be glad to call for them.

Check this matter over early Monday morning and see what you have for this worthy cause.

P. T. A. Thanksgiving Program

The Cooper P. T. A. met last Monday evening, Nov. 26, at 7:30 to enjoy a Thanksgiving program. Mrs. McEver presented the pupils of the upper grades in a very clever play which brought out the great work being done by the Red Cross. A group of girls sang "Thanksgiving."

Later Mrs. George Robinson, delegate, who just returned from the state convention gave a most interesting report of her trip.

J. E. Meroney, newly appointed school trustee, was introduced by Mrs. H. L. Baskin. Mr. Meroney made a short talk which was enjoyed by all.

A social hour followed the business meeting, during which time popular songs were sung by Misses Fern Allen, Meroney and Margaret Adkins.

Cookies and coffee were served by the hospitality committee.

The next evening meeting will be the first Tuesday in January, at which time the fathers will have complete charge of the program.

Are You Pleased With Your Skin During Winter Months?

Are you thoroughly pleased with your skin and complexion during the hard winter months?

What to give Tony? The question was in Ann's mind and heart and on her lips.

"You'll be the death of me," Sarah said. "Give him a scarf pin with the Kohlnoor in it. Buy him a house and lot. The way you carry on, anyone would think Tony was the Prince of Wales instead of an ordinary commercial artist."

Before Christmas Eve Sarah was completely worn down. With Mac's present—hand-rolled handkerchiefs made by Sarah, supplemented by a handsome silk scarf—attractively boxed and wrapped and tied, they were still searching for Tony's gift.

The whole city was splashing over with Christmas presents yet Ann couldn't find anything good enough for Tony!

In the end she dug deeply into her slender savings and purchased a luxurious maroon-colored robe. Then came the business of wrapping the big set in silver paper, lining it with pink tissue and inserting bits of little red mistletoe in the box as a last inspiration.

Ann carried the box to the bedroom and placed it on top of the cushioned bed, where she could see it. She could picture Tony's "Aaaaah" when she opened it Christmas Day.

SHE went to the kitchen that to help Sarah, Tony and Mac were coming and the girl's hand spread the dinner table. Broiled chicken, sweet peas with candied yams and marshmallows, spaghetti in concassino, Mrs. Mac's love of hot dishes, English peas, a delicious fruit salad and plum pudding for dessert.

"If Mac expects me to serve this sort of food as regular fare, he'll be badly disappointed," Sarah said, lifting her flushed face from the oven where the heated biscuits from the corner grocery were heating.

"Tony won't. Food doesn't make much difference to him. He'd love rather dash out for a bite at a restaurant than bother with cooking."

"He doesn't like trouble," Sarah said.

"No, he doesn't," Ann said quite happily. No slightly disparaging remark of Sarah's could take the edge off the evening for her. She flew to answer the doorbell.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

ANN HOLLYBUSH, pretty and 20, tells the family antiquies to pay debts of her father, now dead. On the day of the sale a young man stepped by motor trouble, come to her home in telephone. After he leaves Ann reads a blue note missing and in his place a note signed "P.K." and "Ann."

Ann goes work as a librarian and becomes friendly with SARAH KENT, also employed at the library. She meets TONY HINKLE, commercial artist, and is attracted by him, though Sarah warns her that Tony is slick and irresponsible.

Who sees the young man who bought the blue note and learns he is PETER KENT. He is a wealthy, prominent and engaged to VALERIA BENNETT, society girl. Valeria has no sympathy with Peter's ambitions and plans to leave with a girl at DIKE VAN HALEN'S apartment one night.

Peter's brother, DON, arrives and Valeria hides in a bedroom. Tony, she realizes she has left her party bag where Don will see it.

CHAPTER IX

DIKE said, "You look like a ghost," as Valeria's white face appeared through the half-door. "Guess you need this," I added as he gave her the handkerchief.

"You don't think Don recognizes it?"

"I don't know. Probably not." Valeria went to a dressing table and began repairing the damage done by nervous excitement. It has been silly, letting herself go in pieces as she had. Suppose Don did say something to Peter. That would be her word against his.

"Oh hello, Valeria!" Peggy Walters had come into the room. She threw her evening wrap on the bed. "Saw Don Kendall as we came up. Was he here?"

"Yes."

"Who's afraid of the big bad wolf? Gosh, you're brave!"

Valeria turned from the mirror. "If you have an idea that I'm going to give up all my fun before my engagement is announced you're certainly mistaken."

"Just a friendly hint," Peggy said. She was still smiling, her voice almost caressing. "The Kendalls wouldn't like it. They have some frightfully out-fashioned notions. Even Miliolent."

Ann thought the diamond was the loveliest thing her eyes had ever dwelt on.

"Of course I mean it. I'm several hundred up now, Ann. By sharing a little the next few weeks I think I can manage that down payment. And maybe there'll be a little left over to start housekeeping soon."

"Sarah?"

"It's Mac. Didn't you guess Ann?"

"Not for a minute! Sarah, the sphynx has nothing on you."

"It's been Mac for years," Sarah said. "It's taken me a long time to make the old slowpoke realize I was meant for him."

Mac and Sarah took Tony and Ann out that night for dinner. More than once, Tony's eyes rested on the diamond on Sarah's left hand.

"Mac must have found a gold mine," he said to Ann later that night. "You can't beat the Satch. When everybody else is broke, Mac turns up with diamonds."

"Yes," said Ann.

"Do you know, honey, if I had all the money I've spent on tom foolery or even a half week's pay from all the jobs I've been fired from we could be married tomorrow."

"Yes," Ann said again, in a soft, husky voice.

Something in her tone struck Tony. He stared at her. "Tell you what, we'll run down and look at a little ring I have my eyes on. It isn't as big as Sarah's, but it's a beauty. I can't get it right away, but—"

"Yes," Ann breathed, for the third time.

"How would you like a ring as a Christmas present?"

"Tony, do you mean it?"

SARAH was wearing a ring. It was a gaudy, set about with smaller diamonds. Ann was the first to see it because during the day at the library Sarah had

EASTLAND HAS A HAVEN FOR THE JOBLESS

Several bricklayers in the county possibly may obtain employment if they contact Crigier Paschall at the national re-employment service office in Eastland, it was stated Saturday.

The office has been advised by district headquarters that the federal project soon to start at Stephenville will be in need of bricklayers. Few, if any, bricklayers are on record in the Eastland office.

Paschall, manager of the office, states that very few in the county understand the work of the office and its duties.

Explanation offered by Paschall was as follows:

The office is a district office of district 5 in the state. District 5 comprises 16 counties. The Eastland office, established Dec. 8 last year is similar to other offices in the district, which are located at Abilene, Big Spring and San Angelo.

The employment office is affiliated with the department of labor. Last year persons who found employment through the office were paid salaries totaling $740,000. The money was paid the persons who worked on federal jobs and had not the office been located in the county it would have been probable that persons from other counties would have received employment on the project.

Over 500 men at present are employed on projects to which they were referred by the office. Three hundred and twenty-one women are likewise employed. On the books are 3,287 men and women who are not employed.

The purpose of the office is to render service to unemployed. "The unemployed person's problems are ours," said Paschall. Any unemployed man or woman is welcome at the office. Persistent job seeking and calling at the office will eventually bring success to qualified unemployed. Paschall said past records showed.

The Eastland office has attained one of the coveted in this district. Paschall said. Over 25 per cent of more placements have been made by the office than any in his district. Paschall declared.

Employees may secure qualified workers of any trade or profession at the office, it was stated.

Holiday Buffet Dinner Honors Miss Bennett of Amarillo
 The charming home of Mrs. Suzanne Gregg, Pine street, was thrown open to a group of friends in an informal and hospitable fashion Friday evening, when Lewis and Saunders Gregg, sons of Mrs. Gregg, entertained with a smartly appointed buffet dinner in compliment to Miss Dorothy Bennett of Amarillo, student at State University, and house guest over the week-end of Miss Alla Rae Kuykendall, attractive young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, who is also a student at state this year.

Everywhere the artistic taste of the house hostess was in evidence. Tall green candles held in brass candle holders shed their warm soft glow over the entertaining room, accentuating a color note of green and yellow. Finewheel chrysanthemums and fruits were used for the centerpiece to achieve a Thanksgiving note for the buffet board, laid in a cloth of lovely lace design. At either end of the board stood brass candelabra, with tall flickering tapers of green.

 Mrs. E. E. Crawford, assisted Mrs. Gregg in serving the turkey dinner course with cocktail, and complete trimmings. At quartet tables were found timely designed place cards for the personnel of party guests, who made a colorful picture. The lovely young ladies, wearing dinner gowns, and complete accessories, reflecting to the nth degree the full holiday attire.

At intervals during the delightful evening another log was added to the fire, where leaping flames danced from the wooded embers aglow in an old fashioned way.
 Those sharing the pretty courtesy with the honor Miss Bennett were Misses Alla Rae Kuykendall, Kathryn Galloway, Marcuerite Adams, Emily Bendix; and Messrs Richard Conley, James Campbell, Nick Crawford, Marshall Watson of Eastland, and hosts, Lewis and Saunders Gregg.

 As has been the custom for several years the Central Baptist church and Sunday school will present a beautiful white pageant this Christmas. It will be given Sunday night, Dec. 23. In many respects this will be the most beautiful pageant given by this church, the characters will be composed of the men and women of the church, each beautifully costumed in the period of Christ's day. The Wise Men will wear gorgeous robes and headbands, as will also the herald and trumpeter. At the close of the pageant "white gifts for the King" will be presented by the Sunday school and church to go to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering, for foreign missions.

All decorations of the church will be in white and will be a Bethlehem scene.
