Vice President Garner
A Doctor of Laws

In the closing hours of the most important session of the American congress held since World War days Vice President John N. Garner became a doctor of laws, receiving the second honorary degree ever bestowed by the University of Texas. The degree was conferred by Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president, at the school's 18th annual summer commencement. It was authorized by the board of regents of the university. Away in 1923 R. E. Vinson was made honorary doctor of laws when he retired as head of the University. In making the announcement, Dr. Benedict paid a beautiful tribute to the life and career of the distinguished vice president of the United States. It was an honor well bestowed and will receive the acclamation of all Texans.

John N. Garner is a native Texan. He was born in a log cabin on the banks of the Red River. His career speaks for itself. He battled his way to the top. First as a member of the state legislature in the long ago he displayed rare qualities of leadership. He was promoted to a seat in the house of representatives of the congress. Step by step he mounted the rungs of the ladder as statesman. He became the house leader of his party—first the minority and then the majority—and later the first Texan ever to be elected to the chair of the speaker. He served many years as a vigilant lawmaker and ever on the side of the people. He was called to the vice presidency by the convention that named Franklin Delano Roosevelt for first place. His record as vice president has not been surpassed by any predecessor who enjoyed the distinguished honor.

Now he is coming home for vacation purposes, to enjoy life in the shade of his pecan grove and to hunt and fish with his pals of a life time, not far from the banks of the Rio Grande river.

Natural Gas Pipeline
Champions on Firing Line

Julian Montgomery, acting state WPA director, has made the interesting announcement that the state's preliminary application for a $46,000,000 loan and grant to build a natural gas pipeline from the Texas Panhandle to Detroit, Mich., has been sent to Washington. Gov. James V. Allred, sponsor of the plan, never deserted his guns. He is confident that the building of the pipeline would open a wide market and assist in the conservation of the natural gas supply of Texas. Mayor Cozzens of Detroit is another champion of the gigantic proposal. His city council has announced a vote would be held Oct. 8 to decide on a $4,000,000 bond issue for a municipal gas distributing system. The Cozzens statement said an early vote "was necessary in order to pre-empt the supply of natural gas now available from the Texas fields." This proposal was submitted to the Texas lawmakers at regular session. It was sidetracked. Now what will happen at the coming special session of the lawmaking body?

Gen. Hugh Johnson Coming To Texas in November

Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, militant warrior of the old NRA and now head of the Works Progress Administration in New York City, is coming to Texas in November. He is booked for a series of lectures in the Southwest, and will open at Denton at the state teachers college. A remarkable man, to say the least. He is well known in the Southwestern country. He is a voting citizen, when he votes, of the State of Oklahoma. He was a close personal friend of the lamented Will Rogers and he has a record as citizen and man of affairs equal to that of any man who walks the stage of public service. He started as a Messiah, not a political Messiah but a social justice Messiah, and he performed wonders as the executive head of the most tremendous job cut out by the New Deal administration and the American congress.

Dictator Long to Be Investigated
By Congressional Committee

Before adjournment the house of representatives of the American congress voted on inquiry of the methods and practices of the dictator of Louisiana. New language reportedly inserted at the urging of anti-Louisiana congressmen from Louisiana was disclosed after adjournment "to have extended powers of the investigating committee to be named far beyond customary limits." As for the Messiah of Louisiana, all is grist that comes to his publicity mill. It is for the voters of Louisiana to organize and retire from public life the most audacious dictator in a political or any other sense that the American people have known. He comes up for re-election to the senate in 1936. The voters of Louisiana are the masters of the situation. If they prefer a dictator, it is their funeral and they will continue to pay the price and the taxes.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON
WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
N.E.A. Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Plans are being laid in various quarters or attacks, both behind the scenes and in public, on Chairman Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Jesse seems likely to be in for plenty of trouble unless he can demonstrate that he isn't playing favorites with the Wall Street crowd (the Morgans at the head of the list) and other enemies of the administration. For the gang that has gone sour on Jesse is tough and usually rather effective. A couple of cabinet members, at last reports, were preparing to tell Roosevelt that "the world's biggest banker" was playing too close with the president's political enemies.

But the chief complaint of the wrecking crew is that Jones is willing to lend a hand—and a lot of government money—to the lawyers, bankers, and managing executives who raked in millions from big railroads now in receivership and are anxious to start the same process all over again at the expense of investors. The Missouri Pacific is still in the hands of the Van Sweringens, who are in the hands of Morgan. The Vans never put any money in it, but before going bust in 1932 it borrowed $23,000,000 from RFC under their auspices on the basis of a financial statement which RFC lawyers publicly claim was "an amazing act of concealment" of liabilities.

Now the Vans, with Morgan holding their holding company shares as collateral for a $45,000,000 loan—the same holding company whose shares it holds controlling Missouri Pacific—come to RFC with a reorganization proposition under which bondholders would get $7,500,000 a year instead of $25,000,000, as now. It is charged that the promoters, bankers, and lawyers would proceed to clean up at the expense of the bondholders and the Independent Bondholders Committee asks "if control is to be handed over to men who have no money in the road, who are penniless financial jugglers? Fancy keepers? Stock market operators? Promoters? Men who are nimble-footed in escaping government regulation of their high finance, hand-in-glove getting government loans on statements which do not reveal the truth, but witted in making penniless debt the masters of their credit property?"

Governor Had Hard Time Hitch-Hiking

AUSTIN, Tex.—Gov. James V. Allred isn't nearly so embarrassed about his recent unsuccessful effort to thumb a ride into Austin, as are Supreme Court Judges Richard Critz and John Sharp, who were with him when automobiles passed them by. Judge Critz's sister-in-law was one of the motorists who drove by without recognizing them. "First we stood by our car and thumbed," Governor said. "No one stopped, laughed and thumbed in the site direction. One driver did his nose. "We got our suit cases in the automobile and stood them in hand to indicate plight. Still the cars whizzed by. I do not believe a Bill hitch-hiking campaign would be very successful these days."

This drug may produce acute poisoning, the symptoms of which are nausea, stomach and intestinal distress, sweating, flushed skin, high fever, rapid breathing, and muscular rigidity followed by death. The drug also damages the liver, kidneys, heart and sensory nerves. It produces agranulocytosis, a blood disorder also noted in cases of poisoning with amidopyrine, a common ingredient of medicines for the relief of pain.

Monday afternoon proved to be a busy one for members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, with circles meeting separately.
Cooper Circle studied at the home of Mrs. Con Hazard, which heard the devotional read by Mrs. C. A. Hutchins. Mrs. Hazard was named circle chairman, while Mrs. Hugh Russell will act as secretary. The concluding hour was devoted to opening preparations for the Christmas boxes sent each year to shut-ins and to the orphanage.

Young Circle gathered in the home of Mrs. Minnie Love and entered into a business session. Mrs. Claude White was elected chairman of the circles and Mrs. Melton, secretary. The study from the Bible was taken from the Book of Acts.
Next Monday comes as a special occasion since the afternoon hour will present the pastor, Rev. G. W. Thomas, offering the devotional, and Dr. Walter Jackson, the principal speaker. "Stewardship" has been chosen as the subject.

Students Urged to Register Soon
W. W. Jarvis, registrar of the Ranger High School and the Ranger Junior College, announced today that he would like for all students to enroll as soon as possible.
The registrations in both schools have been good to date, but there are still some who have not registered, it was pointed out, and these should finish registration as soon as possible in order that they might not miss any of the classes.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE
tion early this season, as the San Angelo Bobcats are rated as much stronger than they were last year when Ranger went down into the sheep dip country and came back with a 19 to 0 victory, which came in the last half of the game.
The team is reported to be much larger, much faster, much tougher and much everything it takes to make a football team. The line is reported to be heavy and aggressive and one that is slated to stop the onslaughts of other linemen, to say nothing of the trouble backs will have in working a way through it.
Big Spring is slated to be another contender in the district, which got so hot most of the teams turned Class B, while Sweetwater, whose Mustangs play in Ranger on Nov. 2, provided the stadium does not fall down in the meantime, is rated as not so tropical this year. But then, it wasn't last season, either.
Coach Blair Cherry admits, in a brief note to Jimmie Nottingham that his team will be pretty large, will be more or less experienced, more than tough and, on the whole most satisfactory, even to a coach. Which means that the Bulldogs will probably not find any easy pickings in the dust storm area this year either.
Poly, like San Angelo and Amarillo, is bigger and better. And what besides Eastland isn't? So the schedule looks pretty rowdy.

CC Directors
Mr. Newnam requested that the directors individually, write letters to Mr. Blanton regarding a post office building for Ranger, also asked that others write to their congressman.
A committee will be appointed from the chamber of commerce to do special work in securing the appropriation, and they will consult Congressman Blanton and work with him on the project.
Clyde H. Davis was appointed chairman of a committee to get up a program for the Eastland County Fair Thursday night, Sept. 26, which will be Ranger night. C. J. Moore and A. N. Larson were appointed on the committee to assist in arranging the program.
The directors voted to buy five of the books being published by Boyce House which is a history of the Ranger oil boom, and entitled "Were You in Ranger?" Three of these books will be sent to the Centennial publicity committee at Dallas where they will be available for magazine or newspaper writers from over the country seeking material for stories about interesting places in Texas for the Centennial.
A financial report on the Ranger Junior college motorcade held last month, was read by Secretary Galloway, which showed a deficit of only $6.95, after the check was received from the Ranger Times for $71.13 which was the commission on advertising for the Junior College edition. A rising vote of thanks was given to The Times for their excellent cooperation in the matter.
The directors voted to give the job of straightening the derrick at the intersection of Main and Commerce to Dean Walsh, who was the lowest bidder. The derrick will be skidded about six feet to the center of the street, the braces straightened and the legs anchored to the pavement. When this work is done new lights will be placed in the sockets of those burned out and possibly a flasher will be put on the crown block.

President J. E. Meroney presided at the meeting and those present included Calvin Brown, M. R. Newnam, E. R. Gentry, Edwin George, Jr., T. J. Anderson, F. D. Hicks, L. H. Flewellen, John Hassen, D. Joseph, Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, C. H. Davis and R. V. Galloway.
According to an Ohio college professor, Europeans contend the World War never ended. The African dispute, then, will be a war to end war to end war.

How Women Get Two-Fold Benefit By Taking Cardui
According to reports from thousands who have taken it, Cardui helps women in a two-fold manner, affording prompt relief of certain functional pains and strengthening the system by increasing the appetite and improving digestion.
"I like Cardui because it helped me," writes Mrs. Obie C. Rafferty, of Campbellsville, Ky. "I suffered pain and was nervous and needed strength. I have taken Cardui and have been benefited. I have taken it two or three times. I can tell when I am taking Cardui, that I have a much better appetite."
Before the next monthly upset, begin taking Cardui. Of course, if it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Ads For Directory Must Be Turned In By This Thursday
Work on the new city directory is progressing nicely, with Thursday set as the deadline for securing advertising space in the new publication, it has been announced.
Those who desire to place advertising in the directory have been urged to have their copy at The Times office not later than Thursday, in order that work on the directory might be started as soon as possible.
